On 12-01-2020 at 2352 hours, I, Officer J. Collins P# 16147 while operating as marked patrol unit 9C1 was patrolling the area of Imperial and Main St Las Vegas, NV 89101. 2. I am more than 18 years of age and am competent to testify as to the matters I am familiar with the procedural history of the case and the substantive law of the State of Nevada. I also have personal knowledge of the facts stated in the complaint and believe them to be true.

3. Defendant currently has a trial date set for September 27, 2021.

4. Defendant has previously been released on House Arrest.

Based on the aforementioned, Defendant respectfully requests he be allowed to

Re: JOHNSTON, DEREK (1875685)
21-CR-021016 and 20-CR-027683

Your Honor,

On 7/31/21 Johnston, Derek, CS # 1875685, began the high level electronic monitoring program (EMP) by order of Las Vegas District Court 9 Judge Silva for case C-21-354689 and the medium level electronic monitoring program by order of Las Vegas Justice Court 15 Judge De La Garza for case 21-CR-021016. On this date he was given verbal and written instructions outlining all the rules and requirements of the EMP; he signed documents acknowledging and agreeing to the same. The rules of high level EMP include, but are not limited to, remaining within Clark County, NV, maintaining a charge on the GPS device, abstaining from the use and possession of weapons, drugs, and/or alcohol, submitting a sample for drug/alcohol testing upon officer's request, maintaining an approved residence, maintaining contact with supervising officer, logging activities and providing proof of activities, restricting movement to approved activities only, and following all court orders.

On 8/5/21 my partners Officer Skerston and Officer Ramirez and I went to conduct a work visit for Mr. Johnston. He had not been to his approved residence a single time since beginning EMP and he had not been calling as instructed for his activities. Since he had not been to his residence I believed him to be living at his place of employment (a vehicle wrapping shop). Upon arrival at approximately 11:00 am on a Thursday, the business was completely closed and locked, there was no accessible point of entry and no signage to indicate what was behind the doors. I called Mr. Johnston's cell phone number twice and his home phone number once and none of the calls were answered. I had to call him on his GPS device to make contact with him. He met us outside and allowed us access into the shop where the ground floor was the shop and a loft area upstairs was serving as his living space. There was another adult male present downstairs and Johnston told us his girlfriend "Sara" was upstairs. I called out to Sara several times and did not receive an answer but found an adult female lying in bed in the upstairs area. She refused to give me permission to go into her purse for identification and attempted to grab the purse from my hands when I picked it up. When I asked her what was in there that she didn't want me to see she stated "there might be two knives" in there, I asked if that was all she refused to answer stating only that there wasn't a gun. When she was later allowed access to her purse she was unable to produce identification. She was later identified through booking photos as Chelsea Sellinger, the victim in case 21-CR-021016, whom Judge De La Garza had ordered Mr. Johnston to have no contact with.

When I asked Mr. Johnston why he hadn't answered his phone when I called he said he was sleeping. When I asked him why he never went to the home he listed as his address he stated he had been working non stop to get his business caught up as being in jail put him behind. I pointed out that he was sleeping at 11:00 in the morning on a Thursday which was not working and he stated that the shop is too hot to work during the day so he works at night. I asked why he didn't go home during the day to sleep he said he had to be at the shop to answer the phone and greet walk in customers. Note discrepancies in previous paragraph regarding phone calls, locked doors, and lack of signage.

I requested a urine sample for the purpose of testing for drug use due to the girlfriend's suspicious behavior surrounding her purse and because there were several empty Jack Daniels bottles in the shop. Mr. Johnston refused to provide a sample.

Johnston was returned to CCDC for the violations of failure to maintain his approved address, failure to submit to alcohol/drug testing, and failure to comply with a court order. Body worn camera footage is available.

Mr. Claus stated he has not filed an Opposition as he is waiting for additional evidence from the State including body camera and booking photograph. Further, Mr. Claus stated he requested the event number. State noted a booking photo was not requested from the State; however, will look into it. COURT ORDERED, State's Motion TEMPORARILY GRANTED; Defendant is to be HELD WITHOUT BAIL; matter to be heard at the time of the Motion to Release Defendant. Following further argument by Mr. Claus, Court stated the biggest problem this Court has is the victim contact and directed counsel to focus on that. State noted Mr. Claus only requested the body camera from the State. Mr. Claus stated he will send a new request to the State, that was submitted to house arrest next week.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2021 AT 11:16 A.M.

THE COURT CLERK: Page 7, State of Nevada versus Derek Johnston, C354689.

MS. LAMANNA: Brianna Lamanna on behalf of the State, Your Honor.

MR. CLAUS: Augustus Claus appearing on behalf of Mr. Derek Johnston who should be present via BlueJeans connection from CCDC.

THE COURT: Did you file an opposition?

MR. CLAUS: I have not yet, Your Honor, mainly because I was waiting for additional evidence from the State. I reached out to them last week. There's purportedly body camera associated with this as well as some other materials that the Violation Report is based upon, including a booking photograph of the named victim.

So, I asked for those things from the State and from House Arrest. I've issued a subpoena for those things from House Arrest. I don't know if anyone's here for House Arrest, can give me those items. I heard back from the State early this morning -- or this morning indicating that they need to get an event number, which is also one of the things that I requested from House Arrest in order to get the body camera, and that as soon as they have the House Arrest event number, that they would start the process of getting new body camera. But, Your Honor, I need those things before I can do any sort of effective opposition.

THE COURT: All right. Well --

1 MR. CLAUS: And I think Ms. Lamanna was here for the State.
2 I assumed that she was here.

3 THE COURT CLERK: She's here.

4 MR. CLAUS: She was here previously?

5 THE COURT: I thought I heard her.

6 MS. LAMANNA: I'm sorry. Did you guys not hear me check
7 in?

8 THE COURT: Yeah, we -- I did; he didn't.

9 MR. CLAUS: Okay. I'm sorry.

10 THE COURT: What's your position here? He wants more --

11 MS. LAMANNA: Your Honor, I'll submit it as to the 12 continuance to file an opposition. I was out of the office yesterday -- or 13 not yesterday, sorry, last week when Mr. Claus requested that 14 information and I responded to him this morning. I'm trying to get that 15 body camera to him so that he has that evidence. But he did not request
16 a booking photo for the victim. I was not aware that that was something 17 that he was requesting, but I will also look into that as well.

18 THE COURT: Oh. Well, what I'm going to do -- I'll give you 19 the time, but I'm going to hold him without bail until you get your 20 opposition in.

21 MR. CLAUS: Understood, Your Honor. That being said, I've 22 also filed a motion for his release, which I don't think is -- I'm not sure
23 when it's scheduled to be heard, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT CLERK: September 20th.

25 MS. LAMANNA: I believe it's scheduled for next Monday,

1 Your Honor. And just so the Court is aware, I'm pretty sure that the 2 Defendant is being held without bail on his two Justice Court cases
3 where this violation was also filed and his bail was addressed there.

4 THE COURT: Well, it may be much ado about nothing.

5 MR. CLAUS: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: But for the moment, we'll hold him without bail.
7 We'll just put everything over to the 20th. Can you get your opposition in 8 by then?

9 MR. CLAUS: Depending upon when I get the materials, Your 10 Honor. That was one of the things that I was going to address as well.
11 There's a series of materials that are reflected in the House Arrest
12 report. One that he didn't have contact with House Arrest, one that he'd 13 been staying at his work for four days straight. I'd ask for those 14 materials from House Arrest. I've issued a subpoena --

15 THE COURT: His big problem is the new charges.

16 MR. CLAUS: Actually, there are no new charges here, Your 17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: I thought he violated.

19 MR. CLAUS: No, Your Honor, at least no substantive new 20 charges. What we've got is a series of technical violations, including an 21 alleged violation involved with contact with the named victim of the case.

22 THE COURT: Well, I call that -- I'd call that a violation.

23 MR. CLAUS: I can understand that, Your Honor. And should 24 that be proven to be accurate, then I'll be in a different position.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. CLAUS: That being said, Your Honor, may I have 2 permission to submit an ex parte order to the Court to the extent that the 3 State doesn't get me those materials -- for those materials in House
4 Arrest's possession, including his GPS locator information as well as his 5 contact information -- or his contacts with House Arrest on the 6 [indiscernible] for the six days that he was out of custody?

7 THE COURT: I don't know why they wouldn't send it --

8 MS. LAMANNA: And --

9 THE COURT: -- to you. I don't think it needs to be an ex
10 parte order. Just --

11 MR. CLAUS: Well, I've emailed and I've subpoenaed it, Your 12 Honor. So, it was for today, for them to bring it to the hearing today. I 13 haven't heard back from them. So, I've done as much as I can to get 14 that information, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Like I said, the big problem I have is the victim
16 contact, so focus there.

17 MR. CLAUS: I -- just so, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Lamanna, can you --

19 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, just so it's clear, I believe 20 Mr. Claus has requested different things from different people, and that's 21 fine. I know that -- it sounds like he's reached out to House Arrest and 22 has requested information from them. The only thing he's requested 23 from me is the body camera, and I will provide that, but if he's requesting 24 that the State provide additional information, I do need to know exactly 25 what that additional information is in order to provide it.

1 THE COURT: Let's clear that up right now.

2 MR. CLAUS: I'll send that out to the State, Your Honor. I
3 think the State is actually correct. I think I sent that out to House Arrest
4 via email, not to the State. I sent them just the request for the body
5 camera associated with what I thought the Court would consider to be 6 the most serious offense. But to that extent that the State's willing to 7 facilitate the processing of those additional materials from House Arrest,
8 I'll send them that request that I sent to House Arrest last week as well.

9 THE COURT: Will you do that, Ms. Lamanna? Sometimes 10 you have more luck than the other side does.

11 MS. LAMANNA: I can certainly try to reach out to House
12 Arrest and get that information.

13 THE COURT: Appreciate it.

14 All right. We'll -- again, he -- the State's motion is temporarily
15 granted. He'll be held without bail pending the whatever.

16 MR. CLAUS: Final resolution on the motion?

17 THE COURT: Correct.

18 MR. CLAUS: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT CLERK: September 20th.

20 Motion was granted, Judge?

21 THE COURT: Yep.

22 THE COURT CLERK: Okay.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2021 AT 12:31 P.M.

THE COURT MARSHAL: Page 7, Johnston.

THE COURT CLERK: Case C354689, State of Nevada versus Derek Johnston.

MS. LAMANNA: Brianna Lamanna on behalf of the State,
Your Honor. I believe Mr. Claus was on, but it doesn't look like he's in his video anymore.

THE COURT: Mr. Claus? Mr. Claus, it's your turn, but you're muted. Mr. Claus, are you there? Mr. Claus?

THE DEFENDANT: There.

THE COURT: Mr. Claus?
Can somebody text him or call him or something, please?
All right. We'll recall it when he gets --

THE DEFENDANT: I see him. There we go.

THE COURT: Are we good now?

Mr. Claus, is that you?

MR. CLAUS: Yes, Your Honor. I'm sorry. I was just trying to multitask.

THE COURT: All right. We were calling you; third time.

MR. CLAUS: I recognized Mr. Johnston.

THE COURT: Okay. It's your motion to release.

MR. CLAUS: Well, Your Honor, we're still gathering up the records from House Arrest EMP. We did receive some of them last week. I've got to get those to the State.

1 Basically, the gist of the motion, Your Honor, is that we've got 2 this process reversed. But essentially, because he's not accused of any 3 nontechnical violations of EMP and because it takes so long to get these 4 records from EMP, my request has been in other courts to release the 5 Defendant either by setting a bail or by releasing him back on house
6 arrest with whatever requirements the Court deems are necessary while 7 we ultimately determine whether or not he's going to be remanded into 8 custody in an evidentiary hearing.

9 THE COURT: Well, he's already been remanded into 10 custody.

11 MR. CLAUS: Well, Your Honor, he's been arrested by House
12 Arrest. The Court hasn't formally made an order to remand him into 13 custody because House Arrest believed that he -- that they had probable 14 cause ostensibly that he had violated some of the technical terms of his 15 house arrest.

16 As we're gathering those records, Your Honor, what we're 17 finding out is A, I don't believe that the report that was submitted by 18 House Arrest is accurate. The biggest concern that the Court had 19 indicated last week that it had with the Violation Report from House
20 Arrest was that he had punitive contact with the named victim, Ms.
21 Sellinger. That appears to be untrue. And, Your Honor, it appears to 22 have been something that was discussed down in the Lower Court. The 23 Lower Court didn't ultimately make a finding as to whether or not he had 24 contact with Ms. Sellinger. What the Lower Court said is that it had 25 unilaterally rescinded the no contact order with Ms. Sellinger and so it

1 didn't care that he did or didn't have contact with Ms. Sellinger.

2 But in point of fact, Your Honor, it appears that it was a
3 different female who identified herself by her driver's license number.
4 And despite that identification, because she didn't have her driver's
5 license on her person or in her purse when House Arrest contacted Mr.
6 Johnston, they made an independent determination not indicating that 7 they'd been given the driver's license number of this other individual, not 8 indicating that she had identified herself in a -- well, Sarah [phonetic] is 9 how they say she identified herself. But ultimately, they made the 10 determination that it was Ms. Sellinger. In looking at the body camera
11 and talking with the witness that was present, Your Honor, it appears 12 that that's just absolutely untrue.

13 At that point, what we're left with, Your Honor -- and I would 14 note there's no new case that's come out which tends to support that 15 proposition. There's no violation of a temporary protective order, there's 16 no secondary proceeding that's coming from that contact. What we're 17 left with then is Mr. Johnston who was spending time at his shop, 18 working at his shop, sleeping at his shop because his -- he's self-19 employed, and like many self-employed individuals, he maintains an 20 area to sleep at his business. And so when he was released to house 21 arrest, which didn't happen, Your Honor, until the end of July, he was 22 out for, I think, less than a week, a grand total of about six days, taken 23 back into custody on August 5th if memory serves. But he was out of 24 custody and so he had a lot of work to catch up on and ultimately, he 25 ended up sleeping at his work. But work is also one of the areas that

1 House Arrest says doesn't require specific permission to stay at. And 2 so, Your Honor, I fail to see a violation there or dutifully, that he was 3 working too hard.

4 But the alleged violations are not that he was driving around
5 the Strip, it's not that he was committing new crimes, and it's not that he 6 was violating his curfew by being anywhere else other than his work.

7 Now to that end, Your Honor, we have tried to gather some 8 records and what we got was some black and white copies of the GPS
9 records, but not the electronic GPS records that would show his entire 10 route and where he was staying and when he was staying there from 11 CCDC. We have received something like that in the past, but what we 12 got this time were just black and white paper records, which are A, very 13 difficult to read and B, incomplete. When they did it, it appears they took 14 some sort of screenshot, which cut off the part of the day and time in 15 which the record was associated, but it also groups all of these dots
16 together on one map. It doesn't break them down and doesn't allow to 17 follow where these map -- where these points are or how long they're 18 there.

19 Finally, Your Honor, there's this issue of contact. Parole and 20 Probation obviously knew where he was. He didn't cut off his bracelet,
21 but he was at his work. We've asked for the contact records with House
22 Arrest and we haven't received -- or it may be that House Arrest just 23 doesn't keep any sort of systematic notes of its contacts with the 24 individual house arrestees. I did not think that was correct. I thought 25 they had a computer system in which they did keep those contacts, but

1 that was not produced to us in the subpoena that we served upon them.

2 But again, Mr. Johnston's rendition is going to be that before
3 he even left CCDC he told them that he works for himself and that he 4 was planning on staying at his work in order to catch up on the work that 5 was in front of him.

6 But all that being said, Your Honor, that's what you have in 7 front of you. I think the final thing is -- that they put in the House Arrest
8 Violation Report is that he refused to take a drug test. And so far as we 9 can tell from looking at the body camera that has been produced, which,
10 again, Your Honor, we're not sure it is complete, is that the body camera 11 shows that he was actually placed in handcuffs and was being 12 transported down to Clark County Detention Center when the first 13 request came for a drug test. And when that request came, he was 14 already being booked into CCDC and his response was, well, I want to 15 talk to my attorney, I want to know why you're taking me into custody.

16 But he was already arrested on probable cause. And while I
17 will admit this is going to be a novel argument in the state of Nevada,
18 probable cause determinations are made, Your Honor, based upon
19 when someone is taken into custody. They're not allowed to be boot
20 strapped thereafter. So, if they believe that he needed to take a drug 21 test, the time for House Arrest to do it was before they had put him in 22 handcuffs, before they had put him in the police cruiser and were 23 transporting him down to CCDC to remand him into custody. It wasn't 24 something that should be thought of after the fact and said, hey, while 25 we're working all of these various convictions, let's just do a drug test

1 just for the heck of it. They'd already decided that they were going to be 2 taking him into custody.

3 But regardless, Your Honor, as I said at the beginning of this
4 argument, my motion to release is predicated on the fact that the State 5 should bear the burden of proving their allegations and that even if they 6 support these allegations, Your Honor, what we have is a series of 7 technical violations of house arrest, nothing substantive of new charges
8 and he was, to put it impolitely, Your Honor, working. The worst thing 9 that he's accused of is working too hard and being precisely where he 10 was supposed to be at his job.

11 So, Your Honor, under these circumstances, Mr. Johnston is 12 not an appropriate candidate to be keeping in custody. He is someone 13 who should be released in custody while we sort out the precise nature 14 of these technical violations or purported technical violations, which,
15 again, Your Honor, to the best of my knowledge as I sit here, you're 16 going to end up finding out that the alleged contact with Sellinger was 17 not Ms. Sellinger, not the named victim. It was a different female that 18 was at the work.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 State? State?

21 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, I'm at an incredible
22 disadvantage here because Mr. Claus has lots of pieces of evidence
23 that he's referring to that I have not seen at all. I did request these items
24 as well and I was not given any information from House Arrest,
25 unfortunately. So, I have not seen the body-worn camera footage that

1 Mr. Claus is referring to, I haven't seen the GPS records that he's 2 referred to, so I'm at a disadvantage here today making these 3 arguments.

4 And I did tell Mr. Claus that because I hadn't seen these 5 items I would be asking that we continue this hearing in order for me to 6 review those items as well as for us to provide that evidence to the 7 Court. So, Mr. Claus was aware that I would be requesting a
8 continuance for the argument. If the Court would like me to continue 9 with the argument based on what Mr. Claus has said today, I certainly 10 can, but it was going to be my request from the beginning to continue 11 this in order to review some of those items.

12 I would object to him being released from custody. I do think 13 that at this point there is at least technical violations. He was living at 14 his work address, which is not appropriate when you're on house arrest.
15 I understand that maybe he's got work to catch up on, but I don't see 16 why he's sleeping at 11 o'clock in the morning if he's got work to catch 17 up on and why he's got alcohol, open alcohol containers in his place of 18 business per the House Arrest report if he has work to catch up on.

19 So, I would object to him being released while we get this 20 evidence and have a hearing. I think that House Arrest has 21 appropriately placed him back into custody for violating the house arrest
22 rules. But I would be asking for a continuance to make those arguments 23 based on the evidence that's been collected so far.

24 MR. CLAUS: And, Your Honor, the State is correct. They 25 did -- we did exchange emails this weekend and so I was aware of their

1 request to continue this hearing. I apologize, though. I was unsure
2 precisely which hearing we were talking about, whether it was the 3 State's motion to remand or whether it was my motion to release. So, I
4 apologize, Your Honor. The State did ask for that time.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to -- here -- I'm going to give 6 the State the time to follow up on it. I am not ruling on the motion to 7 release. I am going to keep the temporary motion to remand in place.

8 I know we keep talking about technical violations and whatnot,
9 but this isn't like a probation grant. So, technical violations of house
10 arrest, but these charges with the fact that he previously had contact 11 with that victim in my opinion are enough, not knowing where he is,
12 that's enough. It's -- I probably wouldn't have let him back out after he 13 violated that first time. I get that he was, but my position, he should 14 have been walking way, way, way behind the line and not getting into 15 any trouble.

16 So, just based upon what I have here and the -- on your 17 exhibit, Mr. Claus, I am not going to release him at this point.

18 So, how much time do you guys need?

19 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, I think the -- if I might, just one
20 thing. We have received some records from House Arrest, but there are 21 three records that we're really waiting for. I think the State ended up 22 getting the event number associated with this. If they could supply that 23 to me, I'd appreciate it.

24 But beyond that, there's -- House Arrest has what's -- has 25 some electronic -- the electronically stored and accessible version of the

1 GPS data. This gives you a precise timestamp associated with each
2 location bit of data that's accessible. What they gave me is just a black
3 and white copy, which is A, very difficult to read and B, it appears to be a 4 screenshot in which the time and date was cut off, so it's impossible to 5 match up where he was and when they say he was. So, I need that. I
6 think the State would want that as well.

7 The other is the recorded contacts with Derek Johnston. So,
8 Mr. Johnston's assertion is -- well, regardless, is that he had multiple 9 telephonic contacts with House Arrest. The information that I received
10 from House Arrest appears to be devoid of any even electronic system
11 that House Arrest uses to maintain a contact log with its detainees. So, I 12 think that's something that we're missing. There has to be that 13 electronic log.

14 And then finally, a booking photo of the named victim, 15 Chelsea Sellinger, that was used to identify the female occupant of the 16 house.

17 Those are the three things that we requested in a subpoena to 18 House Arrest that I'm certain that we haven't received, Your Honor.
19 Aside from that, I've spoken with the State. I've asked them to also 20 follow up and see if there's additional body camera footage. We only 21 received three videos of body camera of limited length and there might 22 be additional body camera.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, what do you want to do? Do you
24 want to --

25 State, have you spoken to Officer Laura [phonetic]?

1 MS. LAMANNA: Your Honor, I reached out to House Arrest to 2 just their general line and they informed me that I needed a subpoena to 3 get any of the items that Mr. Claus is requesting.

4 THE COURT: Do you want to just go ahead and set this for 5 an evidentiary hearing and you can subpoena --

6 MS. LAMANNA: That's what I was going to ask for, Your 7 Honor. I think that some testimony from the officer may be necessary in 8 order to determine the booking photo that the officer looked at as well as 9 the contact that they've had, which is what Mr. Claus is asking about, so
10 I do think an evidentiary hearing is appropriate.

11 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and set that then.

12 MR. CLAUS: But if I may, Your Honor, before we get to the 13 evidentiary hearing, we've already filed a subpoena with House Arrest
14 requesting a copy of their electronic logs showing their contact with Mr.
15 Johnston.

16 THE COURT: All right. Well --

17 MR. CLAUS: And that needs to be produced ahead of 18 whatever evidentiary hearing we're going to have.

19 THE COURT: Well, it's if -- I mean, if you get it, you get it. I
20 don't know what else I can do at this point. You've sent them a 21 subpoena. I'm suggesting that if Officer Laura comes in here, he might 22 be more likely to reach out to the State and they can help us ahead of 23 time. I don't know how much ahead of time necessary.

24 Honestly, he admits that he was -- I think he's not -- you're 25 essentially admitting that he was staying at his job when he -- so, I don't

1 know how much that electronic monitoring actually matters. The more
2 concern is the potential for Sellinger, the potential for the refusal of the 3 drug test, the newer bench warrant previously, but that's on another
4 issue in it, so -- but --

5 So, I'm going to go ahead and do it anyway and then if you
6 need to continue it again, you can continue it again, but in the interim he 7 will be remanded without bail of the State's motion. I think there has 8 been a prima facie showing that he is unlikely to show up and violate
9 court orders and potentially a danger. So, you all tell me when you want 10 it.

11 MR. CLAUS: So, this is an evidentiary hearing on the State's 12 motion to remand, Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: And/or your motion to release. But potaytos, 14 potahtos.

15 MR. CLAUS: Okay.

16 MS. LAMANNA: Your Honor, I just need at least two weeks in 17 order to subpoena the officer.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Two weeks.

19 THE COURT: All right. Where does two weeks put us?

20 THE COURT CLERK: October 4th or October 6th or we can go
21 Monday.

22 THE COURT: I'm going to go one more week, guys, because 23 I'm in trial that week.

24 THE COURT CLERK: We already have an evidentiary
25 hearing set for Monday, so I can --

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 THE COURT CLERK: Evidentiary hearing set for October 11.

3 And do a 1:30?

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 1:30 okay, guys?

6 THE COURT CLERK: 1:30.

7 MS. LAMANNA: That's fine with the State.

8 MR. CLAUS: Yes, Your Honor. And, Your Honor, with your

9 permission I'll be submitting an order for the production of those House

10 Arrest records that we've discussed in this hearing unless the State

11 wants me to file a separate motion for the production. I think they're 12 agreeing that they're necessary for that hearing. Can I just submit the 13 motion to the Court -- I'm sorry -- the order for the Court for the 14 production of those records?

15 THE COURT: Why don't you submit a joint order, have the 16 State sign off on it, you sign off on it, I'll sign off on it and see if that 17 works?

18 MR. CLAUS: Understood.

19 MS. LAMANNA: Thank you, Your Honor.

Good Morning,

We received the attached letter from the defendant regarding his custody status. Our department didn't receive a notice of any compliance failures, but I called CCDC and confirmed that he was returned on 09/09. I'm assuming the information got lost in the reassignments. Since this case is now with DC18, I've copied Kelly.

12 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

13 INTRODUCTION

14 Without any due process whatsoever, and for reasons unknown, Martinez was arrested on 15 September 9, 2021 and has remained in custody since that date. Rather incredibly, our justice
16 system appears to allow the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department to arrest defendants for 17 alleged violations of pre-trial release conditions, and in this case, without even the standard ex
18 parte communication to the Court attempting to justify the arrest and detention or a hearing being 19 scheduled. Then, the Court allows the defendant to remain in custody, which places the burden 20 on the defendant to prove why he/she should not be in custody. Thus, Martinez has been forced 21 to file the instant Motion.

22 PROCEDURAL HISTORY/FACTS

23 In the underlying Justice Court case, 21-CR-036928-002, a Criminal Complaint was filed
24 on August 5, 2021, charging Martinez with one count of Grand Larceny Auto, one count of 25 Possession of Stolen Property, and one count of Possession of Stolen Vehicle. Martinez 26 ultimately waived his right to a Preliminary Hearing and was bound over to District Court as charged.

1 In the instant case, an Information was filed on August 20, 2021 charging Martinez with 2 one count of Possession of Stolen Vehicle. On August 23, 2021, a Guilty Plea Agreement was 3 filed whereby Martinez pled guilty to Possession of Stolen Vehicle. The State agreed to not
4 oppose an own recognizance release with high level electronic monitoring, which this Court
5 ordered on August 24, 2021. The State agreed to not oppose Probation, but retained the right to 6 argue the terms and conditions of Probation. The State agreed to not oppose dismissal of Case
7 No. 21CR000629 after rendition of sentence. It was agreed that all remaining counts contained
8 in the Criminal Complaint shall be dismissed when Martinez is adjudged guilty and sentenced.
9 On September 9, 2021, Martinez was returned to custody. No document has been provided to 10 the Court explaining why Martinez has been returned to custody. Please see e-mail exchange
11 attached hereto as Exhibit A.

12 LEGAL ARGUMENT

13 A. THE CURRENT PROCESS FOR ADDRESSING ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF 14 RELEASE CONDITIONS IS FLAWED.

15 The Nevada Supreme Court took discretionary review of the case Valdez-Jimenez v.
16 Eighth Judicial Dist. Court of Nev., 136 Nev. Adv. Rep. 20, 460 P.3d 976 (2020). The Nevada
17 Supreme Court took discretionary review in order to change the way that district courts across 18 the State of Nevada have been conducting pre-trial release hearings. the Supreme Court of 19 Nevada held:

20 “The judge must consider the factors set forth in NRS 178.4853
21 and may impose bail only if the State proves by clear and 22 convincing evidence that it is necessary to ensure the defendant’s 23 presence at future court proceedings or to protect the safety of the 24 community, including the victim and the victim’s family. If the 25 district court determines that bail, rather than nonmonetary
26 conditions, is necessary, the judge must consider the defendant’s financial resources as well as the other factors set forth in NRS 178.498 in setting the amount of bail, and the judge must state his or her reasons for the bail amount on the record.”

1 Id. at Pages 2-3. In Valdez-Jimenez, the Nevada Supreme Court made it clear that most 2 defendants could be released without monetary bail. This decision mirrors many other state's 3 holdings and underscores that the release conditions for a defendant must be to ensure the 4 defendant's return to court and protect the safety of the community. Accordingly, clauses that do
5 not address either of those concerns are not appropriate release conditions.

6 Prior to Valdez-Jimenez, if the State wanted to revoke a defendant's bail, the State would 7 file a motion to do so. However, with the increasing use of non-monetary release conditions, the 8 Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department has started unilaterally arresting those individuals
9 released to its EMP program without any due process whatsoever. Neither the State nor LVMPD
10 is required to schedule a hearing regarding alleged violations without unnecessary delay. The due
11 process afforded afterwards is only marginal. Moreover, there is no protection from arbitrary
12 actions of Metro House Arrest Officers. If the Court finds that the alleged violations did not 13 warrant the defendant's detention, the defendant might be released back to Metro House Arrest's
14 supervision after spending weeks in custody. This is obviously a flawed process.

15 In the Federal system, the Bail Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. § 3141, et seq., provides,
16 in pertinent part, a judicial officer "shall order an order of revocation and detention if, after a 17 hearing, the judicial officer . . . finds that there is . . . clear and convincing evidence that the 18 person has violated any other condition of release." Id. §§ 3148(b), (b)(1)(B). It is the burden of 19 the Government to prove the violations of the pretrial release conditions. United States v.
20 Boutros, 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 218112, 2-3, 2019 WL 6877756. This result is not anomalous, 21 and the United State Supreme Court has long approved of preponderance of the evidence or 22 higher evidentiary standards even when commenting on alleged post-conviction supervised
23 release condition violations. See United States v. Haymond, 139 S. Ct. 2369, 2375 (2019). This 24 standard is not limited to the Federal system, but can also be found in State systems. See State v.
25 White, 452 N.J. Super. 417, 424, 175 A.3d 178, 182 (Super. Ct. App. Div. 2017) (The 26 information before the Court amply demonstrates by a preponderance that there has been a violation of the home detention provision.); see also Commonwealth v. Preston P., a juvenile.,

1 483 Mass. 759, 760 (2020) (“For a revocation based on any violation other than a new criminal
2 offense, the Commonwealth must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, at an evidentiary
3 hearing, that the juvenile violated the condition.”).

4 B. THE INSTANT CASE.

5 In the instant case, not only has the State failed to prove anything, the State has failed to 6 even allege anything. Yet, Martinez has been taken into custody and has remained in custody
7 since September 9, 2021, more than 30 days. There could not be a more glaring example of 8 denying a defendant due process.

9 CONCLUSION

10
11 Based upon the above and foregoing, Defendant, Johnny Martinez, respectfully requests
12 that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting Defendant’s Motion to Release Defendant.

13 DATED this 30th day of September, 2021.

2 * * * * *

3 THE COURT: Do we have Mr. Claus?

4 THE CLERK: Yes, Judge.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Claus, did you get the 6 State's motion to continue?

7 Oh, do you want to call it?

8 THE CLERK: Yes. Calling C354--

9 MR. CLAUS: Yes, Your Honor. I received an 10 unsigned, unfiled copy of it just before this hearing today.

11 THE CLERK: Calling C354689, State of Nevada versus
12 Derek Johnston.

13 THE COURT: All right. I have two things. My 14 understanding, the State filed their motion to continue.
15 They had requested a continuance last week because their 16 officer was unavailable and I kind of said no, and so they 17 were finding an alternate officer. But in the interim they 18 filed this other one because the alternate officer has had 19 a medical emergency.

20 I understand, Mr. Claus, you also have been asking
21 for a stay in the evidentiary hearing, but I'm not really
22 sure why you would want that because, I mean, that's -- do
23 you know what I'm saying?

24 MR. CLAUS: I'm not sure where you got that 25 impression, Your Honor. Perhaps it's from the State's

1 representations to the Court in writing. Let me clarify.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. CLAUS: Two weeks ago we appeared in front of 4 Judge De La Garza in Justice Court 15, the State appearing 5 telephonically and me appearing in person, because she --
6 because Judge De La Garza was also holding him, Mr. Derek
7 Johnston, without bail, despite the fact that he wasn't even 8 placed on electronic monitoring in one of the two cases in 9 front of her. So in the process of clearing up that issue,
10 Your Honor, I told the court in all frankness that I expected
11 to file a writ to the supreme court, and it was my expectation
12 that procedurally at that point, Your Honor, that it would 13 automatically stay the proceedings.

14 However, as I got closer to completing the writ --
15 well, let me be very clear, then the State filed a -- sorry,
16 then the State sent me correspondence on Friday, approximately 17 two weeks ago, indicating that they would not be bringing 18 their witnesses in unless they heard from me by Monday, close
19 of business.

20 I continued work on the writ and in the final stages
21 of preparation for the writ it became apparent that a writ
22 doesn't have an automatic stay provision associated with it.
23 Moreover, in asking for any writ I would actually be asking
24 the supreme court to keep Mr. Johnston in custody for a longer
25 period of time than this Court probably would.

1 THE COURT: That was exactly my question.

2 MR. CLAUS: And so I didn't have a basis for even 3 asking for a stay. So I informed the State of that. I think 4 they said at some point, 5:12 on Tuesday night, which was as 5 soon as I knew that, A, I couldn't ask for it, and B, it
6 wasn't going to procedurally automatically occur the way it
7 normally does in filing an appellate relief.

8 So, no, Your Honor, I'm not asking for a stay. It
9 was my understanding it would automatically occur and/or it
10 would be something that I'd have to ask for, but I have no
11 basis to ask for it. And I told the State that last week as 12 soon as I knew.

13 THE COURT: All right. That was my question, is a 14 stay effectively keeps your client in custody. I was trying 15 to figure out why that would be a good thing for you.

16 Let me ask this.

17 MR. CLAUS: Precisely, Your Honor, which is why I
18 don't have a basis for asking for it.

19 THE COURT: Let me ask this, State. I mean, do we 20 all agree that my big problem is him having contact with the 21 victim?

22 MS. LAMANNA: Your Honor, I think that him having 23 contact with the victim is certainly an issue, and that's 24 something that the House Arrest officers can attest to as to 25 whether and why they believed it was that victim. But I also

1 think him living at his business for four days once he's 2 placed on house arrest is also an issue. I do believe that 3 violates the rules of house arrest and that he should not have 4 done that. And that is why he was remanded back into custody.

5 THE COURT: Well, I guess my thought would be he's 6 kind of been in custody long enough to say you shouldn't have 7 done that, and so maybe he learned his lessons. My bigger
8 concern is the contact with the girlfriend. And do we even --
9 I mean, obviously we'll have a hearing.

10 And, Mr. Claus, I'm going to be inclined to give the 11 State a short continuance because I denied it at first, they 12 complied and got someone else, but somebody having surgery
13 is fair game. I'm not going to give them a bunch of time, 14 but I'm trying to see if we can resolve this now, like, by an 15 offer of proof or something like that.

16 MS. LAMANNA: Well, Your Honor, I believe that Mr.
17 Claus has a witness on the BlueJeans right now that I imagine 18 he was going to present as part of the evidentiary hearing to 19 say that she was the individual that was present. If I can --
20 I believe her first name is Sarah. That's not the victim's
21 name. If that's the testimony that's going to be here today,
22 I mean, obviously Your Honor can find that that would show
23 that he wasn't in violation of at least the no contact order.
24 I don't know whether he was or not, based on watching the 25 body-worn camera that was provided to me.

1 THE COURT: You don't. But you watched the camera?

2 MS. LAMANNA: I did.

3 THE COURT: And so the officers, whichever ones you
4 were going to bring in, they both responded to the place?

5 MS. LAMANNA: They did.

6 THE COURT: And would they be able to look at this 7 gal and say, yeah, that's the one who was there or it wasn't?

8 MS. LAMANNA: They likely would be able to identify 9 whether the individual who's on BlueJeans is the same
10 individual who was present at the time.

11 THE COURT: And there was only one female at the 12 time?

13 MS. LAMANNA: There was, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And she was evasive, if I remember.

15 MS. LAMANNA: She was. She wasn't responding to 16 Sarah. She didn't have her ID with her. She was able to 17 provide an ID number. I don't know -- I don't have access 18 to be able to check whether that ID matches a Sarah. But she 19 wasn't responding to the given -- the name she gave them and 20 was kind of evasive at the time that she was talking to the 21 House Arrest officers.

22 THE COURT: And so what made them -- is it the 23 evasiveness is why they thought she was somebody else and 24 in fact who she wasn't supposed to be?

25 MS. LAMANNA: They also checked the Scope ID picture

1 and the picture that they looked at matched the description of 2 the person that was standing in front of them. They believed
3 that that was the same person.

4 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, if I might join in to this.
5 Only the most willful ignorance of the physical identifiers of 6 Chelsea Sellinger versus Sarah could have led them to identify 7 Ms. Manicom as Sellinger. Sellinger is 5'5" or 5'7,"
8 depending upon which booking photo you believe. Ms. Manicom
9 stands 4'10". Leaving aside the other physical descriptors,
10 which are different, the height difference is almost nine
11 inches. There is no reasonable way that they could have 12 confused Ms. Manicom with Ms. Sellinger.

13 MS. LAMANNA: That's my concern at this point, that 14 I think Mr. Claus is trying to say that this was malicious
15 or negligent by the part of the House Arrest officers. And 16 that's why I wanted to have the House Arrest officers here to 17 kind of answer those questions and make that determination.
18 I don't believe that it was malicious or negligent on their 19 part. I believe that they were going off of the information
20 that they had in front of them. And they may have made a 21 mistake.

22 I honestly have no clue whether it was this Sarah
23 individual or whether it was Chelsea Sellinger. But if that's 24 a question that Mr. Claus is going to raise or a determination
25 he's going to ask your court to decide, based on what he's now

1 filed in front of the supreme court, that's my concern with 2 not having the officers present.

3 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, if I might?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. CLAUS: If the State is going to seriously
6 dispute that Ms. Manicom was the one that was there and that 7 they're submitting that it was in fact Ms. Sellinger, then
8 we need to have an evidentiary hearing. We have body camera.
9 Your Honor, the body camera shows Ms. Manicom reciting her
10 driver's license identifying number from the top of her head.
11 And while the State might not have access to the DMV records,
12 which I'll argue that point later --

13 THE COURT: Did you look at that body camera?

14 MS. LAMANNA: I did.

15 MR. CLAUS: -- the house arrest officers certainly 16 do.

17 MS. LAMANNA: I can't see her on the screen. Like,
18 I have no way to determine whether it is her or not.

19 THE COURT: Well, let me see her.

20 MR. CLAUS: Why don't we just have a partial 21 evidentiary hearing, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: That's what I'm --

23 MR. CLAUS: Ms. Manicom is here. I have the video
24 teed up and we can handle this matter in less than ten 25 minutes.

1 THE COURT: That's what I'm thinking.

2 MR. CLAUS: But to decide --

3 THE COURT: That's what I was thinking. I mean,
4 Ms. Lamanna, you can tell me what your people are going to say
5 and then I can --

6 MR. CLAUS: To the extent the State is seriously
7 disagreeing that Ms. Sellinger was not there, then we need to 8 have the evidentiary hearing.

9 MS. LAMANNA: And I'm not. I just don't know. I
10 was not the person who was present at the time that he was 11 arrested. I was not the person that saw this individual in 12 that warehouse where he wasn't supposed to be. I have no clue
13 whether this was Sarah or Chelsea. That was the purpose of 14 the evidentiary hearing. So I don't know. I can't say that 15 I'm seriously disagreeing because I literally don't know.

16 THE COURT: So here's what I'm going to do. I've 17 got kind of an offer of proof from the State and I have a 18 vague idea. Let's go ahead. You present your portion. If 19 necessary, we can continue the balance. Yeah, let's go from 20 there.

21 MR. CLAUS: We have Ms. Manicom present via 22 BlueJeans connection, Your Honor. Can she be sworn in?

23 THE COURT: Please.

24 THE CLERK: Please unmute yourself and raise your 25 right hand.

1 SARAH MANICOM
2 Having been called as a witness and being first duly sworn,
3 testified as follows:
4 THE CLERK: Please state and spell your first and 5 last name for the record.
6 THE WITNESS: Sarah, S-a-r-a-h. Manicom,
7 M-a-n-i-c-o-m.
8 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Claus.
9 DIRECT EXAMINATION
10 BY MR. CLAUS:
11 Q Ms. Manicom, I'd like to direct your attention to 12 the events that occurred on August 5th, 2021. You and I have 13 spoken about this before; correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q Okay. I'd like to show you a video clip.
16 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, permission to publish part
17 of the body camera, which has been filed with the motion.
18 THE COURT: Any objections, State?
19 MS. LAMANNA: No, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Go ahead. Granted.
21 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, is the body camera showing
22 up on the video?
23 THE COURT: Uh, yes.
24 MR. CLAUS: Excellent.
25 THE COURT: Right? Is that a body camera? I really

1 can't tell what it is from this angle.

2 MS. LAMANNA: Yes, Your Honor, that's the body-worn
3 camera.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. CLAUS: I'm going to play a short clip.

6 (Portion of body camera video played)

7 BY MR. CLAUS:

8 Q Ms. Manicom, do you recognize the person depicted,
9 the female depicted in the video that I've just shown you?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. And for the record, who is that female?

12 A Myself. Not the victim.

13 Q Do you hear the driver's license number recitation?
14 It was very quick.

15 A No.

16 Q Do you need me to play it again?

17 A No, I know it. But you can't --

18 Q Is that your correct driver's license? Is that your 19 correct driver's license number?

20 A I didn't hear it play just now.

21 Q Let me try and play it again.

22 THE COURT: Can I just interrupt here?

23 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, I do have my computer
24 pulled up because the cameras or the video monitors that are 25 in the courtroom are a little blurry. I will stipulate that

1 that does look like Ms. Manicom.

2 THE COURT: And here's what I want to say. I also 3 received copies of the driver's licenses of --

4 MS. LAMANNA: Ms. Sellinger?

5 THE COURT: Yes. And I will say that in my opinion
6 it is not obvious to me that that is necessarily not her,
7 based just upon the photograph on the license. It could be 8 her with different colored hair; it could not be her. It is 9 not that clear and I don't think that they're that dissimilar.
10 I would also note that -- I'm sorry, what's the witness' name
11 today?

12 MR. CLAUS: Sarah Manicom.

13 THE COURT: Is standing on a stair, up a couple
14 things. So in terms of height being obvious, I don't know
15 if she came off the stair or whatever. I will also say that 16 I agree with the State, this is obviously her. She wasn't 17 there. So that leaves us with only the violation of staying
18 at his business and not at the proper address.

19 Ma'am, thank you for your testimony. So --

20 MS. LAMANNA: And I understand the Court's position
21 as to the serious nature of those two violations and that the 22 Court was more concerned about him having contact with the 23 victim, as was the State as it was alleged. However, I do
24 still have serious concerns about him being on high level
25 electronic monitoring, being told what the rules are, being

1 told that he needed to be at his residence unless he was 2 working. And House Arrest shows up, he's sleeping at his
3 business. He's not working at his business. He has people
4 over, including this female, who I would assume is not an 5 employee since they're sleeping in the same bed together.
6 There's bottles of alcohol throughout the business. And I
7 do think that that's all in violation of the house arrest
8 orders.

9 THE COURT: I agree. I agree. How long has he 10 been in?

11 Mr. Claus, you don't dispute any of that, do you?

12 MR. CLAUS: Well, I dispute the alcohol bottles,
13 Your Honor. He's not -- he wasn't using alcohol. If you go 14 through the body camera, they were lined up neatly in the 15 office, Your Honor. It was my understanding they were used
16 for other purposes, that they weren't actually being consumed.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. CLAUS: If you're talking about him not being 19 allowed to be at his office, Your Honor, that's one of the 20 pre-approved absences, which in my motion makes it clear he 21 doesn't have to ask permission to be there.

22 Now, I will admit that there is a grey area here in 23 which there's an approved residence and there's an approved
24 work that he's allowed to go back and forth without getting 25 pre-approvals from House Arrest. And whether or not he stays

1 or sleeps at his work, Your Honor, ultimately my better
2 question is not whether or not -- whether or not he was 3 required to stand on one foot and pat his belly with one hand
4 while he rubbed the top of his head. The question is what is 5 the least restrictive means. What means is the State serving
6 by saying that he cannot sleep at his business and work hard,
7 other than just the technical violation?

8 If he's allowed to go to his business, and that 9 is beyond any disputation and he's allowed to be at his 10 residence, combining those two together, Your Honor, other 11 than the merest technical argument that it doesn't explicitly 12 say that he can sleep at his business, Your Honor, what is 13 the State's interest in either protecting the community or in 14 making sure that he stays away from the named victim in saying
15 that he can't sleep at his business?

16 So, Your Honor, no, I don't -- I do not forego the 17 position that this was a violation of his pre-release -- of 18 his pretrial release conditions, Your Honor. And frankly, 19 Your Honor, my next question is, what is the substance of the 20 violation? If he had said to his EMP officers, which it will 21 be our position that he did, that he sleeps at his work when 22 he's working hard, and they don't tell him, no, you can't do
23 that, and indeed they knew exactly where to find him, then
24 what is the interest that is being served here by invoking
25 that technical violation, to the extent that it even a

1 technical violation?

2 THE COURT: Well, I -- based upon everything I'm
3 hearing, I am inclined to find that it is a technical 4 violation. Now, is there something that could be done if in 5 fact he's going to live and work at his place of employment?
6 I don't know if House Arrest cares. I think House Arrest
7 needs to know. So I do think -- and I do think if you're 8 given the privilege of being on house arrest, then you need to 9 follow. And whether it's technical or not technical, if you
10 can't follow the rules, then that's an issue.

11 So I don't know what the House Arrest position is 12 in terms of -- I mean, if he's staying at his business instead 13 of at home, does that mean he's essentially unmonitored? Is 14 that the problem?

15 MR. CLAUS: No, Your Honor. He keeps the same
16 monitor. That's the problem. The only thing you're talking
17 about is what location he's putting his head down on a pillow
18 at night.

19 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, I mean, I would 20 contest a lot of what Mr. Claus is saying. He's not working 21 hard. It's eleven o'clock in the morning and he's asleep.

22 THE COURT: I know.

23 MS. LAMANNA: So he's not working hard. But I don't 24 know what House Arrest's position is. I think the concern
25 from House Arrest is that he's supposed to be at a residence.

1 He has a curfew. Obviously if he's at a business there are --
2 it's a larger area for them to have to go in and search,
3 should they have to go in and search. I think they have their 4 policy reasons for why they prefer somebody to be sleeping at 5 a residence instead of at a business. But ultimately that's 6 House Arrest. I don't know specifically why they have the 7 rules in place that they do. I just know that those are the 8 rules.

9 MR. CLAUS: And, Your Honor, that is part of my 10 other problem with house arrest. These aren't House Arrest's 11 rules. These are the Court's rules. And the Court has to be 12 the one that can say this is why I've put this restriction on 13 this individual as part of their pretrial release conditions.

14 THE COURT: You know, I delegate that. I cannot --
15 I cannot micro-manage every house arrest individual on a day-
16 to-day basis, Mr. Claus. That's not my thing.

17 MR. CLAUS: No, no. You're not required to monitor
18 them, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Let me ask this. Does your -- is your 20 client able to -- does he have a residence to which he can be 21 re-released to house arrest --

22 MR. CLAUS: Yes, Judge.

23 THE COURT: -- where he will sleep at night and do
24 correctly until -- that's what I would bring it. If House
25 Arrest has a concern, we'll put it on on Wednesday at 1:30 and

1 just get their information on it. I'm going to go ahead and 2 re-release him to house arrest. Same terms and conditions.
3 And on Wednesday I'll have the State find out if there's a
4 reason -- if he needs to sleep at his business, is there a
5 reason he needs to or is there a reason they don't want him
6 to? And we'll see it we can address it that way.

7 MR. CLAUS: And, Your Honor, I hate to be one who's 8 looking a gift horse in the mouth, but I have to object to 9 him being placed back on house arrest, at least high level
10 electronic monitoring. As the Court is aware, house arrest
11 is a one size fits all program. It doesn't matter whether or 12 not the underlying offense had anything to do with drugs or 13 had anything to do with alcohol. Unlike in the federal system
14 where they're told not to drink alcohol to excess, they're 15 told in the State system that they cannot imbibe in any form
16 of alcohol. They cannot imbibe in any form of legal drug
17 unless it is specifically prescribed. Those are technical 18 violations, Your Honor.

19 And so, here, house arrest reaches further than 20 what is least restrictive and it is specifically maintained
21 as such. These are the choices that are given to the Court.
22 The Court cannot place him on high level electronic monitoring
23 and my understanding is say don't drink to excess. Do not 24 imbibe of these drugs and drive. House arrest will not accept 25 him under those terms.

1 House arrest was embodied in Exhibit I of the 2 opposition, Your Honor. It's a one size fits all. You get 3 to choose low, medium or high, but all that does is really 4 change the geographic area in which he is limited and the 5 times of day in which he's limited to those geographic areas.
6 But it doesn't do anything really to change the substance of 7 the restrictions on house arrest. Everyone is restricted
8 from having alcohol. Everyone is restricted from smoking
9 marijuana, for instance, Your Honor, or frankly, even taking 10 a strong pain killer that they're not specifically prescribed.

11 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, I don't know why
12 that's a bad thing. I mean --

13 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm not sure what the problem
14 with that is.

15 MR. CLAUS: The problem is, Your Honor, it's not the 16 least restrictive means. And I've had this discussion with 17 several judges. While it might be best, Your Honor, to say 18 that people can't drink, they can't drive, they can't have 19 girlfriends, as the State attempted to say in this hearing 20 today, that merely having another woman in your bed is 21 inherently suspicious, that that causes problems. And so when 22 someone is placed on these pretrial detentions, we can say
23 even though the case has nothing to do with a female, nothing
24 to do with children, we can say you can't be around children,
25 you can't be around females, you can't be around alcohol,

1 you can't be around marijuana. And, Your Honor, it's not
2 the least restrictive means for release.

3 In this case we don't have any underlying facts to 4 support that there was a marijuana drug use or other alcohol
5 impairment issue. In point of fact, this appeared to be an 6 argument between two individuals.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Well --

8 MR. CLAUS: Moreover, Your Honor --

9 THE COURT: I appreciate all that, Mr. Claus, but 10 I think I've addressed the narrow issue in front of me right
11 now. It appears -- my understanding is that he went -- it 12 was eleven o'clock, he's sleeping there. I don't think it was 13 the fact that there was a woman there, but the fact that he's 14 sleeping where he's not supposed to be sleeping, where he's 15 supposed to be working hard; that there are open bottles of 16 Jack Daniel's. He refused to provide a sample for them to 17 test. The rules are the rules at this point.

18 I will -- we can put this on -- we already have an 19 evidentiary hearing on Wednesday. Let's just put it on --

20 MS. LAMANNA: And, Your Honor, that evidentiary
21 hearing is mine, actually, so I will be here at 1:30 anyway.

22 THE COURT: All right. Let's put it -- we'll put 23 it on at 1:30 and we'll just deal with this ahead of time --

24 MS. LAMANNA: That's perfect.

25 THE COURT: -- first. And then Ms. Lamanna can --

1 and maybe they won't care where he sleeps. I don't know.

2 But that's -- so I am granting the defendant's
3 motion to release him back to the high level under the 4 original terms and conditions, subject to any changes we make 5 on Wednesday.

6 MR. CLAUS: Thank you, Your Honor. Again, that was 7 just for the sake of the record and the clarity here because 8 there have been some contrary -- contrary assertions made in 9 the supreme court writ response by the State to what I've been 10 making. I am not asking for him to be placed on electronic 11 monitoring, Your Honor. I'm just simply asking for him to be 12 released on bail at this point.

13 THE COURT: I understand. But in my opinion he has 14 committed technical violations and I don't reward that with 15 a lower status.

16 MS. LAMANNA: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 MR. CLAUS: Your Honor, could I ask the Court to 18 draft -- or for the State to draft an order? And then I don't 19 know who wins this hearing, Your Honor. I think -- who's the 20 winner of this hearing? Who gets to draft the order for the 21 Court's approval?

22 MS. LAMANNA: I mean, Your Honor, I'll draft the 23 order. I do think, though, that the defendant's motion has 24 been granted at this point.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. Your motion has been granted.

1 Not the way you want it, but it's been granted, so.

2 MR. CLAUS: I understand, Your Honor, but I just 3 want it embodied in the order that the Court found him in 4 technical violation of probation for at least two of the three 5 reasons that he was returned to custody, the staying at the 6 home or staying at the --

7 THE COURT: You know what, I've got to be honest.
8 We keep talking about technical and non-technical and I'm not
9 even sure how that all -- that's a probationary violation
10 issue, I think, under the law. I'm not even sure how 11 appropriate --

12 MR. CLAUS: It is. It is.

13 THE COURT: I'm not making any specific finding,
14 technical or non-technical. I'm finding he violated the terms
15 and conditions of his house arrest.

16 State, will you prepare the order and then have 17 Mr. Claus sign off on it?

18 MS. LAMANNA: Yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. CLAUS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 MS. LAMANNA: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: See you Wednesday. Thanks.

2 * * * * *

3 THE CLERK: Case C354689, State of Nevada versus
4 Derek Johnston.

5 THE MARSHAL: This is an evidentiary hearing, Your
6 Honor. We've got a few other matters that we could handle
7 that are in custody or not, without this one.

8 MS. LAMANNA: Your Honor, Brianna Lamanna on behalf
9 of the State. My understanding was that today was just for me
10 to give you the information that I received from House Arrest
11 regarding Mr. Johnston potentially living in his business.

12 THE COURT: Correct.

13 THE MARSHAL: Oh, okay.

14 THE COURT: And what did you get?

15 MS. LAMANNA: I spoke to both the supervising
16 officer, as well as the sergeant that's assigned to that unit.
17 They informed me that the rules of house arrest, especially 18 the high level electronic monitoring, require a residence,
19 which is why they prefer that somebody is living in a 20 residence.

21 Additionally, their concern with this particular
22 business is that it's behind a locked gate that they don't 23 have access to, so they have a concern of being able to 24 access the residence should they need to go to the business
25 to supervise him, and that there are -- because of the place

1 of business there are tools that can be used as weapons,
2 which is another one of their concerns.

3 However, the sergeant stated that if the Court
4 approves him to live at the business, then they will follow
5 those Court orders, and so they'll follow whatever the Court
6 says.

7 THE COURT: All right. Here's my take on it.

8 MR. CLAUS: Say again, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Here's my take. If this was one of 10 these new-fangled warehouse places where you have your studio
11 and your bedroom in the same place and it was a legit living
12 there. I have the same concerns they do at this point. If 13 it is behind a locked gate, that's not okay. If that were 14 to change --

15 MR. CLAUS: It's not.

16 THE COURT: If he wants house arrest, he will live
17 in his residence and work at his business. If he gets tired
18 at work, go home. Most people do that every day and don't 19 have the luxury of sleeping there. If it changes down the 20 road where he no longer has a place and he wants to go then,
21 if you want to come back in with a motion to say here's his 22 bedroom area, here's his work area, he's here 24/7 and there's 23 no lock on the thing, then we'll look at it again. But for 24 the time being, I don't think what they're asking for is 25 unreasonable.

1 MR. CLAUS: Well, Your Honor, if I may respectfully
2 disagree.

3 THE COURT: You may.

4 MR. CLAUS: And I don't want to look a gift horse
5 in the mouth, as I said, Your Honor, but it's a business.
6 The idea that it's not going to be behind locked doors is --
7 boggles the mind.

8 THE COURT: Well, no, then go home.

9 MR. CLAUS: Well, no. Even homes have locked doors,
10 Your Honor. Even homes have locked gates. I, myself, have 11 a gate. Most people live in a gated community. House arrest
12 doesn't deny people the ability of living in their home simply 13 because they live in a gated community. And, frankly, this 14 presents no more of a risk. Because they live in a gated
15 community, they're denied house arrest? Have you seen that 16 before? I have not, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: You're not comparing being in your place
18 of business locked up behind a gate --

19 MR. CLAUS: No. But what I'm saying --

20 THE COURT: -- with a gated community?

21 MR. CLAUS: No, but I'm --

22 THE COURT: That's fine.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, if I may. The gate does 24 not work. The gate does not lock. We have 24-hour access at 25 all times.

1 THE COURT: Why can't you just go home and sleep
2 like everybody else does?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I completely agree. And I -- that 4 is what I stated to the house arrest officers when I was being 5 released, that I had four to five days to catch up on work and 6 then I would be returning home. And I actually was planning
7 on going home that afternoon, that evening, but I had a few
8 things left to do after a client showed up to pick up vehicles
9 and I didn't even get that chance.

10 THE COURT: Well, you're just going to need to 11 budget your time better. So if you don't get it done today,
12 go home, get a good night's sleep and come back in the morning
13 and finish. I'm not changing my mind on this.

14 MR. CLAUS: I understand, Your Honor. If I can just 15 finish making the record.

16 THE COURT: Well, of course you can.

17 MR. CLAUS: Objectively, Your Honor, there is no
18 distinction between him working at a residence that -- working 19 at a place that has tools that could theoretically be used as 20 a weapon versus living in a residence that has kitchen knives
21 that could theoretically be used as a weapon. There's no
22 objectively reasonable basis for saying that it has to have 23 an unlocked gate in order for house arrest -- in order to 24 maintain supervision on that individual.

25 And, Your Honor, I will come back to my original

1 point that as a matter of simple, least restrictive means,
2 you're talking about an individual who's working hard enough
3 that he actually sleeps at his work rather than sleeping at 4 his home because he doesn't want to spend the next two hours
5 in transit going back and forth.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I'll remind you that when they 7 went over there it was eleven o'clock in the morning and he 8 was asleep in bed, so.

9 MR. CLAUS: Yes, Your Honor, because his -- like 10 many automotive shops, they don't provide a tremendous amount
11 of air conditioning in where they work on the vehicles, and so
12 therefore it was too hot to work on it. Remember, Your Honor, 13 this was in the heat of the summer.

14 THE COURT: There's also that he had two Jack
15 Daniel's bottles that may have contributed.

16 MR. CLAUS: Well, now we're mixing and matching
17 items, Your Honor, because if you remember, in the body camera
18 not one of those Jack Daniel's bottles actually was in the -- 19 was in the process of being emptied. All of them were 20 completely emptied, lined up neatly on a shelf. And frankly,
21 Your Honor, in an automotive shop, what else are you supposed
22 to keep chemicals in other than glass containers? And so
23 that might be a handy way of keeping them, Your Honor. I
24 understand House Arrest might like to see something different 25 than that, but there was no alcohol in those bottles and the

1 body cam clearly shows that.

2 So House Arrest, again, takes him in for a 4'10"
3 woman masquerading as a 5'7" woman, whose details do not even 4 match. Take him in for being around alcohol, when the body
5 camera clearly shows all of them were in fact empty. And take 6 him in for failing to take a drug test that wasn't even asked
7 for until the handcuffs were put on him outside the squad car
8 and they tell him they're taking him to CCDC. Your Honor, 9 none of those things happened. They knew exactly where he
10 was. He wasn't drinking alcohol and he wasn't with Chelsea
11 Sellinger.

12 So what we have is a violation report, Your Honor,
13 where I understand, giving House Arrest the benefit of the 14 doubt, Your Honor, they have a difficult job, but it is 15 absolutely, Your Honor, unavoidable in these circumstances
16 to say that house arrest created a false report. Putting him
17 back on house arrest is a recipe for disaster. I asked you to 18 give him bail, $10,000, $15,000. If you want to put him back
19 on house arrest, Your Honor, I understand that. But also,
20 it's not the least restrictive means, and here we're finding 21 out why.

22 If he wasn't on high level electronic monitoring,
23 if he was on medium level electronic monitoring, which, by 24 the way, was what was ordered in Justice Court 15, we wouldn't 25 have this problem. He'd be able to stay at his house, he's be

1 able to stay at his work, no one would care. It's only with 2 high level electronic monitoring. And what does high level
3 electronic monitoring give us that medium level does not?
4 And, Your Honor, I submit to you it's still overly burdensome.
5 No alcohol, not alcohol in excess. No drugs, not even CBD
6 oil. I heard you read the Parole and Probation conditions,
7 Your Honor. I'll submit thereon. I appreciate your allowance.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I am not revisiting this and 9 giving him a better deal, but I do find that he has violated,
10 although maybe not on the level initially. But if he did
11 violate, I'm not going to reward him with a reduced level.
12 So I will put him back where he was. All the same terms and 13 conditions will remain in effect.

14 MR. CLAUS: Understood.

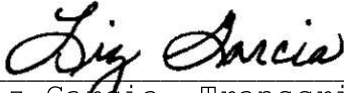

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. LAMANNA: Thank you, Your Honor.

Originating Number	The phone number the call/text originated from. For data records, this does not necessarily mean the number originated the data transaction. The network constantly communicates with internet enabled devices and the data records do not indicate if a customer initiated a data transaction. Some abbreviations are found after a number using (), They are defined as follows: Dialed (D)- The number that the originating party dialed. Appears in subsequent line of the same row in the Originating Number column. (Note: only appears if the Terminating number differs from the Dialed number) Special Dialing Characters- A = *, B = # Appears as part of Dialed Number (D) Digits. FORWARDED (F)- The number the terminated number forwarded the call to. Appears in subsequent line of the same row in the Originating Number column. ORIGINAL ORIGINATING (OO)- Denotes the number that originated the call before call forwarding was invoked. Appears in subsequent line of the same row in the Originating Number column. TRANSLATED (T)- Indicates if a number was translated to a different number. For example, if the number called is 911, then that gets translated to a ten-digit number for routing to a 911 dispatch center. The (T) indicates the number the translation was from, not the number translated to.
Terminating Number	The number the transaction terminated to.

IMEI International Mobile Equipment Identifier	Can be 15 or 16 digits. A 15-digit number that uniquely identifies an individual wireless device. The first 14 digits are unique. The 15th digit is a check digit that validates the prior 14 digits. A 16 digit IMEI is an “IMEISV.” SV Stands for software version number. The last two digits identify the software version. Only the IMEI of the number requested is displayed.
IMSI International Mobile Subscriber Identity	This is a unique 15-digit identifier given to each mobile subscriber and is stored on the Subscriber Identity Module (SIM). The IMSI consists of a MCC (Mobile Country Code), a MNC (Mobile Network Code) and a MSIN (Mobile Station Identification Number): • 3-digit MCC ties the SIM to a specific country • 3-digit MNC ties the SIM to a specific network within that country • 9-digit MSIN ties the SIM to a specific customer
CT (Call Type)	Denotes if the leg of a call is an originating leg or terminating leg. Mobile Originating (MO) Mobile Terminating (MT) Service Originating (SO) Service Terminating (ST) A service record is generated when the network generates a leg of a call to reach a service on the network. For example, a leg connecting to the voicemail platform denotes a service invoked on the network and may show up as a service record. See “Item” at beginning of the table for definition of a leg of a call.

AT&T Mobility Common Scenarios

Scenario	Description
Many or all Zero Duration Calls	Voice usage reports showing all calls with zero durations in the Elapsed Time "ET" column indicate calls that were not connected. Numbers such as this are commonly used for routing purposes if there is no associated subscriber.
Report Differences	Because calls can traverse many networks, AT&T provides records of all calls that traverse its wireline, wireless and international gateways. ReportAU- Calls that traverse the mobility network. ReportLandline- Calls that traverse the wireline and Voip network. ReportICDR-Calls that traverse AT&T's international gateway. ReportSTIR – Calls that have gone through attestation process to authenticate Caller ID. A call may show up on one or more report however AT&T has no ability to definitively state or correlate calls as being the same transaction. You may infer any conclusions based on your own analysis of the records.
ET 60:00- Data Usage	Data records have a maximum limit of 60 minutes in the CDR record system. Another record is created when a continuous data session exceeds the 60 minute limit.

Values can include: nxtgenphone (next generation device, LTE capable) ims (automatically added APN to VoLTE-capable devices to support IP Messaging over IMS) firstnet-phone (AT&T FirstNet Device – similar to nxtgenphone)
IMEI International Mobile Equipment Identifier	Can be 15 or 16 digits. A 15-digit number that uniquely identifies an individual wireless device. The first 14 digits are unique. The 15th digit is a check digit that validates the prior 14 digits. A 16 digit IMEI is an “IMEISV.” SV Stands for software version number. The last two digits identify the software version. Only the IMEI of the number requested is displayed.
IMSI International Mobile Subscriber Identity	This is a unique 15-digit identifier given to each mobile subscriber and is stored on the Subscriber Identity Module (SIM). The IMSI consists of a MCC (Mobile Country Code), a MNC (Mobile Network Code) and a MSIN (Mobile Station Identification Number): • 3-digit MCC ties the SIM to a specific country • 3-digit MNC ties the SIM to a specific network within that country • 9-digit MSIN ties the SIM to a specific customer

20-CR-030809, C-21-354689-1, and 21-CR-021016

Your Honor,

On 10/16/21 Johnston, Derek, CS # 1875685, began the high level electronic monitoring program (EMP) by order of Las Vegas District Court 9, Judge Silva for case C-21-354689 (BATTERY DOMESTIC VIOLENCE W/SBH (F) and DESTROY OR INJURE REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY OF ANOTHER, VALUE $250 OR GREATER BUT LESS THAN $5000 (GM)) and Las Vegas Justice Court 15 Judge De La Garza for case 21-CR-021016 (DOMESTIC BATTERY, 1ST OFFENSE (M)) and case 20-CR-030809 (DOMESTIC BATTERY , IST OFFENSE (M)). On the above date he was given verbal and written instructions outlining all the rules and requirements of the EMP; Johnston signed documents acknowledging and agreeing to same. The rules of high level EMP include, but are not limited to, remaining within Clark County, NV, maintaining a charge on the GPS device, abstaining from the use and possession of weapons, drugs, and/or alcohol, submitting a sample for drug/alcohol testing upon officer's request, maintaining an approved residence, maintaining contact with supervising officer, logging activities and providing proof of activities, restricting movement to approved activities only, and following all court orders.

Johnston has a habit of requesting me to call him but not answering his phone when I do. It has been explained in every briefing that any call from EMP staff will come from a blocked or private number and Johnston is required to answer while on the program; additionally, I have explained it personally to him and texted him reiterating this. I tried to reach Mr. Johnston (to return his request for a call back, discuss his movements, civil court matters, and to request him to come to the House Arrest office) on several occasions, to include the following dates: 10/20, 10/26, 11/9 and 11/13.

On 11/13/21, Officer S. Keiser P#6329 and I attempted to conduct a home visit with Johnston. As we were turning the corner onto his street (Walker Lane), Johnston drove past us going the opposite direction. Johnston made and held eye contact with me the entire time our vehicles passed each other. I called Johnston's phone to ask him to come back to his home for the visit and the call went directly to voicemail. We then proceeded to Johnston's workplace to conduct the visit there. His work place, Las Vegas Car Wraps, is secured and we do not have unfettered access. I called Johnston again, this time Johnston answered the phone and gave us access into his work. Officer Keiser asked Johnston to provide a urine sample to test for drug use. Johnston, stated he had just used the bathroom and could not go. Officer Keiser asked him if he was refusing and Johnston stated no and showed Officer Keiser where his bathroom was. Again Johnston then stated he couldn't provide an urine sample. Johnston was placed in custody and transported to CCDC without incident.

Upon arrival at the Clark County Detention Center he was given another opportunity to provide a urine sample, and Johnston stated will you let me go, not yes, which we took as a refusal.

Johnston was remanded on his house arrest cases for the following violations:

1. failure to maintain contact with his supervising officer
2. and failure to provide a urine sample for a drug test.

It should be noted that Johnston was returned to custody on 8/5/21 for similar violations.

Body worn camera footage available.
