Minute Order Re: Post-Conviction Petition requesting genetic marker testing pursuant to NRS 176.0918.

CASE SUMMARYCASE No. 89C092174

Denied;

Journal Entry Details:

Petitioner submitted a Post-Conviction Petition requesting genetic marker testing pursuant to NRS 176.0918. Defendant does not meet the requirements of NRS 176.0918(3)(b) because there does not exist a reasonable possibility that Petitioner would not have been convicted if exculpatory results had been obtained. Additionally, Petitioner previously raised the issue of DNA testing by filing a Motion for Release of DNA Evidence Under Nevada Open Records Act on December 16, 2003. On January 5, 2004, the court DENIED the motion on the merits because the Petitioner admitted during trial that he had consensual sex with the victim. As this issue has previously been decided on the merits, instant Petition is barred by the law of the case. NDC CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order has been distributed to: Roy D. Minute Order re: Deft's Writ of Prohibition Double Jeopardy Claim

Minute Order - No Hearing Held;

Journal Entry Details:

Defendant s Writ of Prohibition Double Jeopardy Claim is hereby DENIED. Defendant requests that this court issue a writ of prohibition altering the sentence imposed, however, a writ of prohibition is the incorrect remedy for such a request. Further, Defendant s sentence does not violate the prohibition against double jeopardy. A writ of prohibition may be used by a court to order a judicial body to refrain from doing an act in excess of its jurisdiction. NRS 34.320. The writ of prohibition may be issued only by the supreme court, the court of appeals, or a district court to an inferior tribunal, or to a corporation, board or person, in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. NRS 34.330. Here, the department of corrections is not a judicial body. It is an agency within the executive branch of Nevada s state government. Accordingly, a writ of prohibition may not be used to order it to refrain from engaging in certain activities. Even if Defendant had raised his claims in a pleading that the court could consider, his claim that he was improperly adjudicated as a habitual criminal is barred from consideration under the law of the case. Defendant raised this claim on direct appeal of the Amended Judgment of Conviction, and the Nevada Supreme Court rejected it. Moraga v. State, No. 22901 (Order Dismissing Appeal, Oct. 4, 1995). Defendant also claims that his sentence violates double jeopardy because he is serving a habitual sentence in addition to his other sentences. The prohibition against double jeopardy protects against 3 distinct abuses: (1) a second prosecution for the same offense after acquittal, (2) a second prosecution for the same offense after conviction, and (3) multiple punishments for the same offense. Peck v. State, 116 Nev. 840 (2000). Here, the facts of defendant s case do not fit within any of those 3 categories. Defendant received sentences within the statutory limits for Counts 1-4. See NRS 205.060, 200.366. Moreover, defendant was appropriately adjudicated as a habitual criminal for Count 4 pursuant to NRS 207.010. Defendant s claim that he is serving his habitual sentence in addition to the primary offense is belied by the record because he received a habitual sentence in lieu of the punishment contemplated by NRS 200.366. Therefore, defendant s sentence does not violate double jeopardy. CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this minute order was distributed to Karen Mishler, Deputy District Attorney and a copy mailed to the Defendant./kb;

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Defendant s Writ of Prohibition Double Jeopardy Claim is hereby DENIED. Defendant requests that this court issue a writ of prohibition altering the sentence imposed, however, a writ of prohibition is the incorrect remedy for such a request. Further, Defendant s sentence does not violate the prohibition against double jeopardy.

A writ of prohibition may be used by a court to order a judicial body to refrain from doing an act in excess of its jurisdiction. NRS 34.320. The writ of prohibition may be issued only by the supreme court, the court of appeals, or a district court to an inferior tribunal, or to a corporation, board or person, in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. NRS 34.330. Here, the department of corrections is not a judicial body. It is an agency within the executive branch of Nevada s state government. Accordingly, a writ of prohibition may not be used to order it to refrain from engaging in certain activities.

Even if Defendant had raised his claims in a pleading that the court could consider, his claim that he was improperly adjudicated as a habitual criminal is barred from consideration under the law of the case. Defendant raised this claim on direct appeal of the Amended Judgment of Conviction, and the Nevada Supreme Court rejected it. Moraga v. State, No. 22901 (Order Dismissing Appeal, Oct. 4, 1995).

Defendant also claims that his sentence violates double jeopardy because he is serving a habitual sentence in addition to his other sentences. The prohibition against double jeopardy protects against 3 distinct abuses: (1) a second prosecution for the same offense after acquittal, (2) a second prosecution for the same offense after conviction, and (3) multiple punishments for the same offense. Peck v. State, 116 Nev. 840 (2000). Here, the facts of defendant's case do not fit within any of those 3 categories. Defendant received sentences within the statutory limits for Counts 1-4. See NRS 205.060, 200.366. Moreover, defendant was appropriately adjudicated as a habitual criminal for Count 4 pursuant to NRS 207.010. Defendant's claim that he is serving his habitual sentence in addition to the primary offense is belied by the record because he received a habitual sentence in lieu of the punishment contemplated by NRS 200.366. Therefore, defendant's sentence does not violate double jeopardy.

CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this minute order was distributed to Karen Mishler, Deputy District Attorney and a copy mailed to the Defendant./kb
