A court may correct an illegal sentence at any time. NRS 176.555. A sentence is illegal if it is "at variance with the controlling statute, or illegal in the sense that the court goes beyond its authority by acting without jurisdiction or imposing a sentence in excess of the statutory maximum provided." Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Here, Defendant alleges that the Nevada Revised Statutes version of the statutes under which he pleaded guilty are invalid because they do not contain the enacting clause required by the NV Constitution. However, the Nevada Revised Statutes do not have the same requirements as laws of Nevada because they are not laws enacted by the legislature. Instead, the Nevada Revised Statutes are previously enacted laws which have been classified, codified, and annotated by the Legislative Counsel. See NRS 220.120. Further, the content requirements for the Nevada Revised Statutes, as laid out in NRS 220.110, do not require the enacting clause to be republished in them. Therefore, Defendant's argument is without merit. Furthermore, this Court had subject matter jurisdiction over Defendant's sentence because there is no requirement that the enacting clause must be on the charging documents. State v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250, 1875 WL 4032, 7 (1875).
