Deputized Law Clerk, Joshua Judd appearing for the State via BlueJeans video conferencing. Ms. Bernstein advised the negotiations fell through and Defendant would enter a not guilty plea and ask for a trial date. State indicated the Defendant unconditionally waived his preliminary hearing. Therefore, State requested a continuance to file an Amended Information with the original charges. Defendant stated his issue with accepting the Guilty Plea Agreement was that he did not have an address to accept high level monitoring, and the rescue mission was not considered an address. Court advised the Defendant that the State needed to prepare an Amended Information so the matter would be continued to the department. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.
