9 KATARINA E. KURZ,

10 Defendant,

CASE NO.: D-20-618325-C

DEPT: I

DATE OF HEARING:

06/14/2021

TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 A.M.

11 DECISION AND ORDER

12 THIS MATTER came before the Court for a Non-Jury Trial before the 13 Honorable Sunny Bailey on June 14, 2021. Plaintiff, Scott M. Anthony (hereinafter 14 referred to as "Scott"), appeared with counsel Joseph W. Houston II, Esq.
15 Defendant, Katarina E. Kurz ("Katarina" or "Katie"), appeared with counsel Denise 16 A. Gallagher, Esq.

17 The Court received and reviewed the evidence admitted into the record.
18 The Court had the opportunity to evaluate the demeanor and credibility of the 19 witnesses. Upon review of the record and evaluation of the credibility of the 20 testimony, this Court makes the following findings and orders as set forth herein.

SUMMARY

The parties divorced in Douglas County, Nebraska in 2019. After a trial, Katarina was granted sole legal and primary physical custody of Michael with relocation to Nevada. Katarina alleged the Nebraska Court based its orders on a finding that Scott committed domestic battery. Scott disputes the alleged finding and claims no such finding was made by the Court.

Since the Decree was filed, Scott relocated to Nevada from Nebraska. Scott requests the Court modify the Nebraska court order to an order awarding the parties Joint Legal Custody and Joint Physical Custody pursuant to Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145 (2007). Additionally, Scott requests the Court modify the child support order in conformity with Wright v. Osburn, 114 Nev. 1367 (2008).

Katarina argued Scott did not overcome his burden under Ellis to support a change of custody. Scott argued his move to Las Vegas constituted a substantial change in custody and the best interest of the child warranted a change to joint physical custody.

Counsel for the parties acknowledged the Decree is silent as to domestic violence. The parties stipulated to the admissibility of the transcript from the trial. The parties also stipulated the Court may review the transcript and the relevant Nebraska statutes to determine, if possible, whether the Nebraska Court substantiated the domestic violence allegation.

1 The Court finds Scott overcame his burden under Ellis to support a change
2 of custody. The Court also finds it is in Michael's best interest for the parties to 3 share Joint Legal Custody and Joint Physical Custody.

4 FINDINGS OF FACT

5 1. Scott lives in a two bedroom apartment located at 7955 Badura
6 Avenue in Las Vegas, Nevada.

7 2. Scott and Katie (aka Katarina, Scott referred to her as Katie throughout 8 the hearing) share one (1) minor child Michael (hereinafter referred to as 9 "Michael"). He is seven (7) years old and will start second (2nd) grade in the 10 upcoming school year. Scott does not have any other children.

11 3. When Scott and Katie/Katarina first separated, Katie/Katarina 12 relocated from Nebraska to Nevada with Scott and Michael staying behind in 13 Nebraska.

14 4. The Nebraska Court ordered joint legal and joint physical custody of 15 Michael on a two-week schedule at the hearing on April 23, 2018. See Exhibit 1.

16 5. Scott and Katie/Katarina decided to modify that order without court 17 intervention to cut down on travel costs. They agreed to implement a month on/18 month off schedule until the trial in July of 2019.

19 6. After the trial, the Nebraska Court granted Katie/Katarina sole legal 20 and physical custody of Michael with a visitation schedule for Scott. See Exhibit 2.

1 This schedule afforded Scott approximately 70-75 days of visitation with Michael
2 per year.

3 7. Scott denied the domestic violence allegations and presented evidence
4 at the trial.

5 8. The Decree did not place any restrictions or supervision on Scott's
6 visitations with Michael.

7 9. Scott testified he saw Michael on holidays and summers. They would
8 also Facetime.

9 10. He did not see Michael for a period due to COVID. However,
10 Katie/Katarina then gave him ten (10) weeks last summer instead of eight (8)
11 weeks.

12 11. Scott moved to Las Vegas to be closer to Michael. He had a good job
13 in Omaha that he quit in order to move to Las Vegas.

14 12. He moved to Las Vegas in October of 2020. At that time, he was 15 employed in staffing/ recruiting in Las Vegas.

16 13. Scott testified his job interfered with his visitation. He decided to quit
17 on January 4, 2021.

18 14. From January of 2021 to March of 2021, he was unemployed. He 19 offered to watch Michael while Katie/Katarina worked. He also requested more 20 time. Katie/Katarina declined his requests.

21

1 15. Another company hired him as an internal recruiter in March of 2021.
2 He works Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

3 16. Scott testified Katie/Katarina never raised concerns about him not 4 caring for their son. He believes Michael is excited to spend time with him but 5 misses his Mom and misses Dad when he is with Mom. Katie/Katarina has been
6 flexible with visitations. However, she denied his request for a 50/50 time
7 schedule.

8 17. Scott testified there is not a physical or mental reason why he or 9 Katie/Katarina could not properly care for Michael. Michael goes between both he 10 and Katie/Katarina freely and without issue. He also believes Michael's needs are 11 met by both parents.

12 18. Although Katie/Katarina was granted sole legal custody, Scott testified
13 she informs him of medical, dental or other issues related to Michael. However,
14 Scott is not included with making decisions for Michael. Additionally,
15 Katie/Katarina pays for medical insurance and they split the costs equally.

16 19. Since he moved to Las Vegas, Katie/Katarina came up with a
17 schedule. The current time share for Scott is Thursday after school until Saturday 18 at 5:15 p.m. This schedule affords Scott approximately 104 days of visitation with 19 Michael per year.

20

1 20. Scott's father picks up Michael on Thursdays from school. His retired
2 parents live in Utah but his father and sometimes his mother drive to Las Vegas to
3 help with Michael. Drop offs are at the home of Katie/Katarina's parents.

4 21. Scott and Michael hike, fish and visit his parents in Utah. They also
5 pay videogames together.

6 22. If granted additional visitation. His parents would assist with Michael.
7 Additionally, Scott's current job is flexible and he can work from home.

8 23. Katarina (referred to as Katie by Scott) is a legal assistant at Grant
9 Morris Dodd. She works in the office Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 10 5:00 p.m.

11 24. Her husband, Solomon Coleman, works from home and watches
12 Michael while she is at work.

13 25. Katie/Katarina admitted she did not have concerns with Scott's care of 14 Michael during the month to month custody arrangement prior to the trial.
15 However, she felt Scott's family was very mentally abusive towards her and does 16 not want them to have anything to do with Michael.

17 26. She and Scott went to trial because she wanted Michael to attend
18 school in Las Vegas and Scott wanted Michael to attend school in Nebraska.

19 27. After the trial, Katie/Katarina does not have any complaints in regards
20 to Scott's ability to care for Michael.

21

1 28. Michael is healthy and does not have any special needs.
2 Katie/Katarina arranges doctor and dentists appointments but keeps Scott informed.

3 29. Katie/Katarina denied Scott specifically asked for time.
4 Katie/Katarina testified she was more focused on online learning. She believed it
5 was difficult for Scott's father to help Michael, but it was difficult for everyone.
6 She was not prepared to adjust the schedule due to the school issue.

7 30. Michael struggled with reading. Katie/Katarina noted Michael's
8 stepsister, who is the same age, appeared to have a teacher better prepared for 9 distance learning.

10 31. Katie/Katarina testified she did not want to change the schedule to 11 50/50 or 40/60 because she feels Scott's parents were mentally abusive towards her.
12 She does not want them to watch Michael.

13 32. Currently, Katie/Katarina does not have an issue with Scott's parents
14 because they have limited contact. She has either her husband or her parents
15 conduct exchanges. Katie/Katarina has not ever heard Scott or his parents call her 16 bad names or speak ill of her.

17 33. Katie/Katarina testified her husband watches Michael. Even if he does 18 not work at home, he is off work at 3:00 p.m. and can pick up Michael after school.

19 34. Katie/Katarina and her husband are involved with the Church of Latter 20 Day Saints. They attend every Sunday. It is very important to her to maintain the 21 church schedule. As far as she is aware, Scott does not attend church.

custodial parenting time or to secure other performance required by 18 the court; or

19 (ix) Any other constraints or conditions deemed necessary to provide for the safety of the child, a child's parent, or any person whose 20 safety immediately affects the child's welfare.

1 Furthermore, if a parent is found to have engaged in an act of domestic
2 intimate partner abuse, the court shall not order legal or physical custody to be
3 given to that parent without making specific written findings that the child and
4 other parent can be adequately protected from harm by such limits as imposed
5 under NRS 43-2932 (b)(i) – (ix). See NRS 43-2932(3). (Emphasis added). This
6 Court finds no such findings in the Orders of the Nebraska Court.

7 The mandatory obligations of NRS 43-2932 require the court first make a
8 finding that a party committed an act of domestic intimate partner abuse.
9 Additionally, the court must also include provisions in the parenting plan to provide
10 for the safety of the children and the partner. See Gandara-Moore v Moore, 952
11 N.W. 2d 17 (Neb. 2020). The failure of the trial court to impose any limitations on 12 custody, or make special written findings that such limitations would protect the 13 child or spouse, the Court of Appeals would presume the trial court did not find the
14 other spouse committed domestic abuse. See Chmelka v Chmelka, 953 N.W.2d
15 288 (Neb. 2020).

16 Although testimony was received by the Nebraska Court as included in the 17 transcript, the Orders of the court are void of a finding of domestic abuse as 18 required by NRS 43-2932. A review of the Parenting Plan established sole legal
19 and primary physical custody to Katie/Katarina of Michael. Katie/Katarina
20 attempted to admit a letter from the trier of fact authored prior to the entry of the 21 Decree and Parenting Plan that contained one sentence that Scott committed

1 domestic abuse. However, even if this Court considered the hearsay document, the
2 subsequent Parenting Plan is void of any required written findings that provide for
3 the safety of either Michael or Katie/Katarina. See Exhibit 2.

4 On the contrary, the Parenting Plan requires the parties to communicate and
5 grants Scott unsupervised visitations with no extra requirements. The Court finds
6 the Parenting Plan terms consistent with an out of state visitation schedule. As the 7 Nebraska Court failed to make adequate written findings, this Court presumes the
8 trial court did not find Scott committed domestic abuse. See Chmelka v Chmelka.

9 II. Modification of Custody

10 A modification of primary physical custody is warranted only when (1) there
11 has been a substantial change in circumstances affecting the welfare of the child, and 12 (2) the child's best interest is served by the modification. Ellis v Carucci, 123 Nev.
13 145, 150 (2014).

14 Any changes in circumstances must generally have occurred since the last 15 custody determination. Ellis v Carucci, 123 Nev. at 151. The substantial change 16 requirement is based on the principle of res judicata. Id. "In determining whether 17 the facts warrant a custody modification, courts should not take the 'changed
18 circumstances' prong lightly." Id.

19

1 A move to the same city as the minor child, standing alone, does not
2 automatically constitute a substantial change in circumstance under Ellis. However,
3 a major relocation to be near the minor child, coupled with other circumstances that
4 positively affect the welfare of the minor child, may be sufficient to meet this
5 requirement under Ellis.

6 It is undisputed that Michael now spends time with Scott on a weekly basis.
7 It is also undisputed that Michael enjoys his time with his father and they have a
8 loving relationship.

9 THE COURT FINDS Scott met his burden to demonstrate a substantial
10 change in circumstance that affects the welfare of the child.

11 The Court now turns its attention to the second prong, the child's best
12 interest is served by the modification.

13 The Court now turns its attention to the best interest of the child. NRS
14 125C.0035(4).

15 4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall 16 consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other
17 things:

18 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and 19 capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical 20 custody.

21 At seven (7) years of age, Michael is not of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his physical custody.

1 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

2 Nomination of guardianship is not relevant in these proceedings between
3 two parents and not involving a third party.

4 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent
5 associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial
6 parent.

6 The Court finds this factor neutral. Scott testified that although 7 Katie/Katarina had primary custody, she was extremely flexible in visitations.
8 Upon his move to Las Vegas, Katie/Katarina changed the schedule from the 9 holiday/ school break schedule outlined in the Decree to the current schedule of 10 Thursday through Saturday. However, Scott's request for additional time was 11 denied.

12 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

13 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Katie/Katarina testified the 14 parties have conflict in their relationship. She testified Scott's parents were 15 emotionally abusive to her in the past. She does not want them to watch Michael.
16 Katie/Katarina also testified that she avoids contact with both Scott and his
17 parents due to this conflict and custodial exchanges occur at the home of her
18 parents. However, Katie/Katarina admitted that neither Scott nor his parents ever 19 spoke ill of her or called her names. Katie/Katarina did not testify as to any 20 conflict since the Decree was entered in 2019. Scott testified as to the absence of 21 any conflict between the parties.

1 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

2 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Although Katie/Katarina was
3 granted sole legal custody, she still kept Scott informed about any medical or 4 school related issued with Michael. The Court found the testimony of the parties
5 established they had an amicable relationship and put the needs of Michael first.

6 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

7 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

8 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

9 The Court finds this facto neutral. It is undisputed Michael struggled with 10 distance learning this past school year. Katie/Katarina expressed concern Scott's 11 father was unable to assist Michael with distance learning. However, she also 12 noted distance learning was difficult on everyone. Katie/Katarina testified
13 Michael's teacher did not appear as apt as the teacher of his stepsibling with 14 distance learning. The Court notes Katie/Katarina's testimony further
15 demonstrates the maturity of the relationship between the parties and their ability
16 to co-parent Michael.

17 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

18 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. It is undisputed by either party
19 that Michael has a good relationship with each parent. It is also undisputed that 20 both Scott and Katie/Katarina love Michael very much. Scott testified Michael is

21

1 happy to see him but also misses his Mom during visitations and vice versa.

2 Katie/Katarina agreed that Michael loves his father.

3 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

4 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Neither Katie/Katarina nor Scott
5 has other biological children. Katie/Katarina testified that Michael has a
6 stepsibling of the same age. However, she did not testify as to the nature of their 7 relationship.

8 *(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling
9 of the child.*

10 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

11 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 12 custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

13 As outlined in the analysis above, the Court did not receive credible
14 evidence that Scott engaged in an act of domestic violence against either Michael or 15 Katie/Katarina.

16 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 17 custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

18 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

19 THE COURT FINDS it is in Michael's best interest for Scott and 20 Katie/Katarina to exercise Joint Physical Custody.

21

1 As to joint legal custody, NRS 125C.002 states:

2 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal
3 custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of 4 proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor 5 child if:

6 (a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so
7 agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the 8 legal custody of the minor child; or

9 (b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but 10 has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to 11 establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

12 2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint 13 physical custody.

14 The Nebraska Court granted Katie/Katarina sole legal custody of Michael.

15 As outlined above, the Court found it would be in Michael's best interest for Scott
16 and Katie/Katarina exercise Joint Physical Custody.

17 THE COURT FINDS it would be in the best interest of Michael for 18 Katie/Katarina and Scott to exercise Joint Legal Custody.

19 III. Child Support

20 In regards to child support, NAC 425.115 states:

21 Determination of child support obligation in accordance with guidelines if no stipulation; adjustment of obligation based upon type of custody held by parent.

1. *If the parties do not stipulate to a child support obligation
pursuant to NAC 425.110, the court must determine the child support obligation in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this chapter.*

2. If a party has primary physical custody of a child, he or she is deemed to be the obligee and the other party is deemed to be the obligor, and the child support obligation of the obligor must be determined.

1 Scott filed a Financial Disclosure which established an average monthly
2 income of $4,507.00. His child support obligation amounts to $721.00.
3 Katie/Katarina filed a Financial Disclosure which established an average monthly
4 income of $2,510.00. Her child support obligation amounts to $401.00.
5 Therefore, Scott's monthly child support obligation is $320.00 a month. This
6 obligation is payable to Katie/Katarina and due the first of every month.

7 Katie/Katarina also provides health insurance for Michael. Scott shall
8 reimburse Katie/Katarina one-half of the cost of any insurance.

9 THE COURT FINDS Scott's monthly child support obligation is 10 $320.00 a month plus one-half the cost of any insurance, if applicable.

11 ORDERS

STATUTORY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(6):

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 25C.0045(7)(8):

The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows:

1 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has
2 significant commitments in a foreign country:

3 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the 4 order for custody of the child, that the United States is the 5 country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of 6 applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in
7 subsection 7.

8 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 9 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent
10 poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing
11 the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond
12 must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used
13 only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the 14 child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully
15 removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual 16 residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in 17 a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent
18 poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing
19 the child.

20 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to NRS 125C.0065:

21 1. If JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her,
the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating
parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the non-relocating
parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation
with the child:

(a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or

(b) For the purpose of harassing the relocating parent.

1 3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section
2 before the court enters an order granting the parent primary
3 physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with 4 the child is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

5 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the non-custodial parent may be

7 support pursuant to NRS 31A.010, et. seq. and NRS 125.007.

8 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145, the 9 parties may request a review of child support every three years, or at any time upon
10 changed circumstances.

11 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that both parties shall submit the 12 information required by NRS125B.055, NRS 125.30 and NRS 125.230 on a 13 separate form to the Court and to the Welfare Division of the Department of Human 14 Resources within ten days from the date this Order is filed. Such information shall 15 be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public
16 record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the 17 Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should 18 any of that information become inaccurate.

19 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that if you want to adjust the amount of 20 child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order
21 with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed
22 or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this

1 order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order
2 reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in
3 high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from
4 high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties
5 agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to 6 modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.

SUMMARY

The parties divorced in Douglas County, Nebraska in 2019. After a trial, Katarina was granted sole legal and primary physical custody of Michael with relocation to Nevada. Katarina alleged the Nebraska Court based its orders on a finding that Scott committed domestic battery. Scott disputes the alleged finding and claims no such finding was made by the Court.

Since the Decree was filed, Scott relocated to Nevada from Nebraska. Scott requests the Court modify the Nebraska court order to an order awarding the parties Joint Legal Custody and Joint Physical Custody pursuant to Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145 (2007). Additionally, Scott requests the Court modify the child support order in conformity with Wright v. Osburn, 114 Nev. 1367 (2008).

Katarina argued Scott did not overcome his burden under Ellis to support a change of custody. Scott argued his move to Las Vegas constituted a substantial change in custody and the best interest of the child warranted a change to joint physical custody.

Counsel for the parties acknowledged the Decree is silent as to domestic violence. The parties stipulated to the admissibility of the transcript from the trial. The parties also stipulated the Court may review the transcript and the relevant Nebraska statutes to determine, if possible, whether the Nebraska Court substantiated the domestic violence allegation.

1 This schedule afforded Scott approximately 70-75 days of visitation with Michael
2 per year.

3 7. Scott denied the domestic violence allegations and presented evidence
4 at the trial.

5 8. The Decree did not place any restrictions or supervision on Scott's
6 visitations with Michael.

7 9. Scott testified he saw Michael on holidays and summers. They would
8 also Facetime.

9 10. He did not see Michael for a period due to COVID. However,
10 Katie/Katarina then gave him ten (10) weeks last summer instead of eight (8)
11 weeks.

12 11. Scott moved to Las Vegas to be closer to Michael. He had a good job
13 in Omaha that he quit in order to move to Las Vegas.

14 12. He moved to Las Vegas in October of 2020. At that time, he was 15 employed in staffing/ recruiting in Las Vegas.

16 13. Scott testified his job interfered with his visitation. He decided to quit
17 on January 4, 2021.

18 14. From January of 2021 to March of 2021, he was unemployed. He 19 offered to watch Michael while Katie/Katarina worked. He also requested more 20 time. Katie/Katarina declined his requests.

21

1 15. Another company hired him as an internal recruiter in March of 2021.
2 He works Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

3 16. Scott testified Katie/Katarina never raised concerns about him not 4 caring for their son. He believes Michael is excited to spend time with him but 5 misses his Mom and misses Dad when he is with Mom. Katie/Katarina has been
6 flexible with visitations. However, she denied his request for a 50/50 time
7 schedule.

8 17. Scott testified there is not a physical or mental reason why he or 9 Katie/Katarina could not properly care for Michael. Michael goes between both he
10 and Katie/Katarina freely and without issue. He also believes Michael's needs are 11 met by both parents.

12 18. Although Katie/Katarina was granted sole legal custody, Scott testified
13 she informs him of medical, dental or other issues related to Michael. However,
14 Scott is not included with making decisions for Michael. Additionally,
15 Katie/Katarina pays for medical insurance and they split the costs equally.

16 19. Since he moved to Las Vegas, Katie/Katarina came up with a
17 schedule. The current time share for Scott is Thursday after school until Saturday 18 at 5:15 p.m. This schedule affords Scott approximately 104 days of visitation with 19 Michael per year.

20

1 20. Scott's father picks up Michael on Thursdays from school. His retired
2 parents live in Utah but his father and sometimes his mother drive to Las Vegas to
3 help with Michael. Drop offs are at the home of Katie/Katarina's parents.

4 21. Scott and Michael hike, fish and visit his parents in Utah. They also
5 pay videogames together.

6 22. If granted additional visitation. His parents would assist with Michael.
7 Additionally, Scott's current job is flexible and he can work from home.

8 23. Katarina (referred to as Katie by Scott) is a legal assistant at Grant
9 Morris Dodd. She works in the office Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 10 5:00 p.m.

11 24. Her husband, Solomon Coleman, works from home and watches
12 Michael while she is at work.

13 25. Katie/Katarina admitted she did not have concerns with Scott's care of 14 Michael during the month to month custody arrangement prior to the trial.
15 However, she felt Scott's family was very mentally abusive towards her and does 16 not want them to have anything to do with Michael.

17 26. She and Scott went to trial because she wanted Michael to attend
18 school in Las Vegas and Scott wanted Michael to attend school in Nebraska.

19 27. After the trial, Katie/Katarina does not have any complaints in regards
20 to Scott's ability to care for Michael.

21

1 28. Michael is healthy and does not have any special needs.
2 Katie/Katarina arranges doctor and dentists appointments but keeps Scott informed.

3 29. Katie/Katarina denied Scott specifically asked for time.
4 Katie/Katarina testified she was more focused on online learning. She believed it
5 was difficult for Scott's father to help Michael, but it was difficult for everyone.
6 She was not prepared to adjust the schedule due to the school issue.

7 30. Michael struggled with reading. Katie/Katarina noted Michael's
8 stepsister, who is the same age, appeared to have a teacher better prepared for 9 distance learning.

10 31. Katie/Katarina testified she did not want to change the schedule to 11 50/50 or 40/60 because she feels Scott's parents were mentally abusive towards her.
12 She does not want them to watch Michael.

13 32. Currently, Katie/Katarina does not have an issue with Scott's parents
14 because they have limited contact. She has either her husband or her parents
15 conduct exchanges. Katie/Katarina has not ever heard Scott or his parents call her 16 bad names or speak ill of her.

17 33. Katie/Katarina testified her husband watches Michael. Even if he does 18 not work at home, he is off work at 3:00 p.m. and can pick up Michael after school.

19 34. Katie/Katarina and her husband are involved with the Church of Latter 20 Day Saints. They attend every Sunday. It is very important to her to maintain the 21 church schedule. As far as she is aware, Scott does not attend church.

1 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2 I. Nebraska Domestic Violence Statute

3 Nebraska Revised Statute 43-2932 requires the court to develop a 4 parenting plan if a preponderance of evidence demonstrates a parent has 5 committed domestic intimate partner abuse. NRS 43-2932(1)(a)(iii). (Emphasis 6 added). Specifically under NRS 43-2932(1)(b):

7 If a parent is found to have engaged in any activity specified by 8 subdivision (1)(a) of this section, limits shall be imposed that are reasonably calculated to protect the child or child's parent from harm.

9 The limitations may include, but are not limited to:

10 (i) An adjustment of the custody of the child, including the allocation of sole legal custody or physical custody to one parent;

11 (ii) Supervision of the parenting time, visitation, or other access between a parent and the child;

12 (iii) Exchange of the child between parents through an intermediary or in a protected setting;

13 (iv) Restraints on the parent from communication with or proximity to the other parent or the child;

14 (v) A requirement that the parent abstain from possession or consumption of alcohol or nonprescribed drugs while exercising custodial responsibility and in a prescribed period immediately preceding such exercise;

15 (vi) Denial of overnight physical custodial parenting time;

16 (vii) Restrictions on the presence of specific persons while the parent is with the child;

17 (viii) A requirement that the parent post a bond to secure return of the child following a period in which the parent is exercising physical custodial parenting time or to secure other performance required by the court; or

18 (ix) Any other constraints or conditions deemed necessary to provide 19 for the safety of the child, a child's parent, or any person whose 20 safety immediately affects the child's welfare.

1 Furthermore, if a parent is found to have engaged in an act of domestic
2 intimate partner abuse, the court shall not order legal or physical custody to be
3 given to that parent without making specific written findings that the child and
4 other parent can be adequately protected from harm by such limits as imposed
5 under NRS 43-2932 (b)(i) – (ix). See NRS 43-2932(3). (Emphasis added). This
6 Court finds no such findings in the Orders of the Nebraska Court.

7 The mandatory obligations of NRS 43-2932 require the court first make a
8 finding that a party committed an act of domestic intimate partner abuse.
9 Additionally, the court must also include provisions in the parenting plan to provide
10 for the safety of the children and the partner. See Gandara-Moore v Moore, 952
11 N.W. 2d 17 (Neb. 2020). The failure of the trial court to impose any limitations on 12 custody, or make special written findings that such limitations would protect the 13 child or spouse, the Court of Appeals would presume the trial court did not find the
14 other spouse committed domestic abuse. See Chmelka v Chmelka, 953 N.W.2d
15 288 (Neb. 2020).

16 Although testimony was received by the Nebraska Court as included in the 17 transcript, the Orders of the court are void of a finding of domestic abuse as 18 required by NRS 43-2932. A review of the Parenting Plan established sole legal
19 and primary physical custody to Katie/Katarina of Michael. Katie/Katarina
20 attempted to admit a letter from the trier of fact authored prior to the entry of the 21 Decree and Parenting Plan that contained one sentence that Scott committed

1 domestic abuse. However, even if this Court considered the hearsay document, the
2 subsequent Parenting Plan is void of any required written findings that provide for
3 the safety of either Michael or Katie/Katarina. See Exhibit 2.

4 On the contrary, the Parenting Plan requires the parties to communicate and
5 grants Scott unsupervised visitations with no extra requirements. The Court finds
6 the Parenting Plan terms consistent with an out of state visitation schedule. As the
7 Nebraska Court failed to make adequate written findings, this Court presumes the
8 trial court did not find Scott committed domestic abuse. See Chmelka v Chmelka.

9 II. Modification of Custody

10 A modification of primary physical custody is warranted only when (1) there
11 has been a substantial change in circumstances affecting the welfare of the child, and
12 (2) the child's best interest is served by the modification. Ellis v Carucci, 123 Nev.
13 145, 150 (2014).

14 Any changes in circumstances must generally have occurred since the last 15 custody determination. Ellis v Carucci, 123 Nev. at 151. The substantial change
16 requirement is based on the principle of res judicata. Id. "In determining whether
17 the facts warrant a custody modification, courts should not take the 'changed
18 circumstances' prong lightly." Id.

20

1 A move to the same city as the minor child, standing alone, does not
2 automatically constitute a substantial change in circumstance under Ellis. However,
3 a major relocation to be near the minor child, coupled with other circumstances that
4 positively affect the welfare of the minor child, may be sufficient to meet this
5 requirement under Ellis.

6 It is undisputed that Michael now spends time with Scott on a weekly basis.
7 It is also undisputed that Michael enjoys his time with his father and they have a
8 loving relationship.

9 THE COURT FINDS Scott met his burden to demonstrate a substantial
10 change in circumstance that affects the welfare of the child.

11 The Court now turns its attention to the second prong, the child's best
12 interest is served by the modification.

13 The Court now turns its attention to the best interest of the child. NRS
14 125C.0035(4).

15 4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall 16 consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other
17 things:
18 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and 19 capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical
20 custody.

21 At seven (7) years of age, Michael is not of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his physical custody.

1 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

2 Nomination of guardianship is not relevant in these proceedings between
3 two parents and not involving a third party.

4 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent
5 associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial
6 parent.

7 The Court finds this factor neutral. Scott testified that although
8 Katie/Katarina had primary custody, she was extremely flexible in visitations.
9 Upon his move to Las Vegas, Katie/Katarina changed the schedule from the 10 holiday/ school break schedule outlined in the Decree to the current schedule of 11 Thursday through Saturday. However, Scott's request for additional time was 12 denied.

13 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

14 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Katie/Katarina testified the 15 parties have conflict in their relationship. She testified Scott's parents were 16 emotionally abusive to her in the past. She does not want them to watch Michael.
17 Katie/Katarina also testified that she avoids contact with both Scott and his
18 parents due to this conflict and custodial exchanges occur at the home of her
19 parents. However, Katie/Katarina admitted that neither Scott nor his parents ever 20 spoke ill of her or called her names. Katie/Katarina did not testify as to any 21 conflict since the Decree was entered in 2019. Scott testified as to the absence of any conflict between the parties.

1 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

2 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Although Katie/Katarina was
3 granted sole legal custody, she still kept Scott informed about any medical or 4 school related issues with Michael. The Court found the testimony of the parties
5 established they had an amicable relationship and put the needs of Michael first.

6 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

7 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

8 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

9 The Court finds this factor neutral. It is undisputed Michael struggled with 10 distance learning this past school year. Katie/Katarina expressed concern Scott's 11 father was unable to assist Michael with distance learning. However, she also 12 noted distance learning was difficult on everyone. Katie/Katarina testified
13 Michael's teacher did not appear as apt as the teacher of his stepsibling with 14 distance learning. The Court notes Katie/Katarina's testimony further
15 demonstrates the maturity of the relationship between the parties and their ability
16 to co-parent Michael.

17 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

18 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. It is undisputed by either party
19 that Michael has a good relationship with each parent. It is also undisputed that 20 both Scott and Katie/Katarina love Michael very much. Scott testified Michael is

21

1 happy to see him but also misses his Mom during visitations and vice versa.

2 Katie/Katarina agreed that Michael loves his father.

3 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

4 The Court finds this factor to be neutral. Neither Katie/Katarina nor Scott
5 has other biological children. Katie/Katarina testified that Michael has a
6 stepsibling of the same age. However, she did not testify as to the nature of their 7 relationship.

8 *(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling
9 of the child.*

10 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

11 *(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 12 custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child,
a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.*

13 As outlined in the analysis above, the Court did not receive credible
14 evidence that Scott engaged in an act of domestic violence against either Michael or 15 Katie/Katarina.

16 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 17 custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

18 The Court did not receive credible evidence as to this factor.

19 THE COURT FINDS it is in Michael's best interest for Scott and 20 Katie/Katarina to exercise Joint Physical Custody.

21

1 As to joint legal custody, NRS 125C.002 states:

2 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal
3 custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of 4 proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor
5 child if:

6 (a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so
7 agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the 8 legal custody of the minor child; or

9 (b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but 10 has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to 11 establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

12 2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint 13 physical custody.

14 The Nebraska Court granted Katie/Katarina sole legal custody of Michael.

15 As outlined above, the Court found it would be in Michael's best interest for Scott
16 and Katie/Katarina exercise Joint Physical Custody.

17 THE COURT FINDS it would be in the best interest of Michael for 18 Katie/Katarina and Scott to exercise Joint Legal Custody.

19 III. Child Support

20 In regards to child support, NAC 425.115 states:

21 Determination of child support obligation in accordance with guidelines if no stipulation; adjustment of obligation based upon
type of custody held by parent.

1. *If the parties do not stipulate to a child support obligation
pursuant to NAC 425.110, the court must determine the child support obligation in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this chapter.*

2. *If a party has primary physical custody of a child, he or she is deemed to be the obligee and the other party is deemed to be the
determined.*

1 Scott filed a Financial Disclosure which established an average monthly
2 income of $4,507.00. His child support obligation amounts to $721.00.
3 Katie/Katarina filed a Financial Disclosure which established an average monthly
4 income of $2,510.00. Her child support obligation amounts to $401.00.
5 Therefore, Scott's monthly child support obligation is $320.00 a month. This
6 obligation is payable to Katie/Katarina and due the first of every month.

7 Katie/Katarina also provides health insurance for Michael. Scott shall
8 reimburse Katie/Katarina one-half of the cost of any insurance.

9 THE COURT FINDS Scott's monthly child support obligation is 10 $320.00 a month plus one-half the cost of any insurance, if applicable.

11 ORDERS

12 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, except as 13 otherwise provided herein, all provisions of the parties' Decree of Dissolution of

19 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 25C.0045(7)(8):
20 The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th
21 Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows:

1 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

2 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the 3 order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of 4 applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

5 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 6 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent
poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing
7 the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used 8 only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully
9 removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual 10 residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing
the child.

11 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to NRS 125C.0065:

12 1. If JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established
13 pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside 14 of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other 15 parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her,
the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

16 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating
parent to relocate with the child; and

17 (b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent,
18 petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

19 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the non-relocating
20 parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation
with the child:

21 (a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or

(b) For the purpose of harassing the relocating parent.

1 3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section
2 before the court enters an order granting the parent primary
3 physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with
4 the child is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

5 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the non-custodial parent may be 6 subject to the withholding of wages and commissions for delinquent payments of 7 support pursuant to NRS 31A.010, et. seq. and NRS 125.007.

8 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145, the 9 parties may request a review of child support every three years, or at any time upon
10 changed circumstances.

11 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that both parties shall submit the
12 information required by NRS125B.055, NRS 125.30 and NRS 125.230 on a
13 separate form to the Court and to the Welfare Division of the Department of Human 14 Resources within ten days from the date this Order is filed. Such information shall
15 be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public
16 record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the 17 Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should 18 any of that information become inaccurate.

19 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that if you want to adjust the amount of 20 child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order
21 with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed
22 or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this

1 order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order
2 reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in
3 high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from
4 high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties
5 agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to 6 modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.
