DISTRICT COURT
FAMILY DIVISION
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

Emily Bellisario,

Plaintiff,

and

Bradley Bellisario,

Defendant.

Case No.

Dept No.

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE

18 COMES NOW Plaintiff Emily Bellisario, by and through her attorney, Joe 19 W. Riccio, Esq., of vegas west attorneys, and for her cause of action against 20 Defendant, Bradley Bellisario, complains and alleges as follows:

21 1. For more than six (6) weeks immediately preceding the 22 commencement of this action, Plaintiff has been and now is a bona fide and actual 23 resident and domiciliary of the State of Nevada, County of Clark, and has been 24 actually and corporeally present in said State and County for more than six (6) 25 weeks prior to the commencement of this action.

1           2.     Plaintiff and Defendant were married on August 16, 2014, in the City
2 of Sandy, State of Utah and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

3           3.     There are three minor children born the issue of this marriage,
4 namely to wit: Brayden Bellisario, born on: January 15, 2015; Blake Bellisario, 5 born on November 20, 2016; and Brooklyn Bellisario, born on: February 1, 2018.

6           4.     That Nevada has both personal and subject matter jurisdiction over 7 this divorce.

9           5.     That Nevada is the home-state of the minor children pursuant to the 10 UCCJEA.

11          6.     That the parties are fit and proper persons to be awarded the joint 12 legal custody of said minor children.

13          7.     That the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to be awarded primary 14 physical custody of said minor children subject to Defendant's defined and 15 supervised visitation.

17          8.     That the Defendant shall pay child support to the Plaintiff pursuant to 18 Chapter 425 of NAC.

19          9.     The parties should equally be responsible to provide health insurance 20 coverage for the minor children and the unreimbursed costs of the children's 21 health care, until they reach the age of majority or become otherwise emancipated.

22          10.    There is community property belonging to the parties to be 23 adjudicated by the court, the exact amounts and descriptions of which are 24 unknown to Plaintiff at this time. Plaintiff prays leave of this court to amend this

1 Complaint to insert the same when they have become known to Plaintiff or at the 2 time of trial.

3       11. There are community debts of the parties to be adjudicated by the 4 court, the exact amounts and descriptions of which are unknown to Plaintiff at this 5 time. Plaintiff prays leave of court to amend this Complaint to insert the same
6 when they have become known to Plaintiff or at the time of trial.

8       12. That the parties may each have separate property that needs to be 9 identified and adjudicated as a result of this matter. Plaintiff prays leave of court 10 to amend this Complaint to insert the same when it becomes known to Plaintiff or 11 at the time of trial.

12       13. That due to the parties' income disparity Defendant shall pay to the 13 Plaintiff interim spousal support and post-decree alimony.

15       14. The court should find that there is a compelling reason, pursuant to 16 NRS 125.150(1)(b), to award Plaintiff a disproportionate share of the community
17 property, and to thereupon make such an award.

18       15. During the course of the parties' marriage, Defendant systematically 19 gifted, converted, or otherwise wasted certain community property assets of the 20 parties without the full knowledge or consent of Plaintiff. Defendant should be 21 required to provide an accounting of all income and assets acquired, improved,
22 altered, transferred and/or dissipated. Further, Defendant should reimburse 23 Plaintiff for all such community property gifted, converted or otherwise wasted by 24 Defendant during the parties' marriage without the knowledge or consent of
26

1 Plaintiff. Further yet, Defendant's conduct was malicious, wrongful, willful and 2 oppressive.

3 16. Plaintiff requests that this court issue a Joint Preliminary Injunction
4 in accordance with Nevada law.

5 17. Plaintiff has been required to retain the services of Joe W. Riccio, 6 Esq., of the law office of vegas west attorneys to prosecute this action and is 7 therefore entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit; however, will 8 preserve the right to seek said fees should this case proceed through litigation.

9 18. That the parties should use Talking Parents or its equivalent to 10 communicate in regard to the minor children.

11 19. That the court issue a no contact order against Defendant protecting 12 Plaintiff except for communications in regard to the children on Talking Parents.

13 20. The tastes, mental dispositions, views and likes and dislikes of 14 Plaintiff and Defendant have become so widely separated and divergent that the 15 parties are incompatible to such an extent that it is impossible for them to live
16 together as husband and wife; the incompatibility between Plaintiff and Defendant 17 is so great that there is no possibility of reconciliation between them.

20 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays as judgment that:

21 1. The contract of marriage now and heretofore existing between 22 Plaintiff and Defendant be dissolved and that Plaintiff be granted an absolute
23 Decree of Divorce and that each of the parties hereto be restored to the status of a 24 single, unmarried person;

25 2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of said minor children;
26

1           3.       That Plaintiff should receive primary physical custody of said minor
2 children subject to Defendant's defined and supervised visitation;

3           4.       The Defendant pay child support to the Plaintiff pursuant to Chapter
4 425 of NAC;

5           5.       The Defendant pay alimony to Plaintiff in an amount and duration the 6 Court deems proper.

7           6.       The parties provide health insurance coverage for the minor children
8 and pay for the unreimbursed costs of the children's health care, until the children
9 reach the age of majority or become otherwise emancipated;

10          7.       That the parties should use Talking Parents or its equivalent to 11 communicate in regard to the minor children;

12          8.       That the court issue a no contact order against Defendant protecting
13 Plaintiff except for communications in regard to the children on Talking Parents;

14          9.       The court make an equitable division of the parties' community
15 assets;

16          10.      The court make an equitable division of the parties' community
17 obligations;

18          11.      That there is a compelling reason pursuant to NRS 125.150(1)(b), to 19 award Plaintiff a disproportionate share of the community property;

20          12.      That Defendant systematically gifted, converted, or otherwise wasted 21 certain community property assets of the parties without the full knowledge or 22 consent of Plaintiff, and Defendant should reimburse Plaintiff for all such

13 I.

14 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

15 Statement of Facts

16 Plaintiff Emily Bellisario (hereinafter referred to as "Emily") and 17 Defendant, Bradley Bellisario (hereinafter referred to as "Bradley") were married
18 on or about August of 2014 in Sandy, State of Utah. There are three minor
19 children born the issue of this marriage, namely to wit: Brayden Bellisario, born
20 on: January 15, 2015; Blake Bellisario, born on November 20, 2016; and 21 Brooklyn Bellisario, born on: February 1, 2018 (hereinafter collectively referred to 22 as "children" or "kids").
25
26

1 Bradley is actually a licensed lawyer in the State of Nevada, Bar No. 13452
2 and Emily is employed with her father's flooring business. Bradley has always 3 been the financial care provider for the family while Emily has been the children's 4 primary caregiver contemporaneously. Candidly, Bradley's behavior is disturbing
5 as will be demonstrated below, and the Court should find noteworthy that his 6 behavior is not consistent with someone who should be an Officer of the Court
7 and/or a pillar of justice in Nevada. Specifically, it can be argued that Bradley is 8 not only a danger to himself, his wife, and his children, but to the citizens and 9 people residing in Clark County.

12 A. Early Marital Problems:

13 Emily and Bradley began to have marital problems approximately a year
14 and-half after they married. Throughout the parties' relationship, Bradley had 15 always been jealous and possessive over Emily. He constantly wanted to know of 16 Emily's whereabouts if she wasn't spending her time with him. Over time, 17 Bradley became paranoid and accused Emily of cheating on him with other men.
18 In fact, on multiple occasions, after Emily gave birth to their first-born son,
19 Brayden, Bradley oftentimes would argue with Emily and claim that Brayden 20 wasn't his. Eventually Bradley obtained a DNA test without Emily consenting to

24 Emily has always been family oriented and growing up she knew she 25 wanted a big family of her own. In an effort to continue to try to save her 26

1 marriage, with the hope that a second child would improve the parties'
2 relationship, Emily became pregnant a year later and gave birth to Blake. Emily
3 was hopeful that Bradley would evidently recognize that she is a good mother and 4 overall a good person and that by committing herself 100% to family, Bradley
5 would stop accusing her of having marital affairs. Unfortunately, the parties'
6 marital problems continued to escalate.

8 B. Bradley's Abuse of Alcohol:

9 Bradley has a drinking problem. After the parties got married, Emily
10 quickly saw that Bradley's drinking was a problem and it was getting worse each 11 time he consumed alcohol. Whenever Bradley yelled at Emily, which happened 12 frequently, Bradley's solution was to leave the house to go out drinking some 13 more. As a matter of fact, on November 5, 2018 Bradley was charged for driving 14 under the influence (see Exhibit 1 of the Exhibit Index).

16 Following a night of excessive drinking, Bradley would get home drunk 17 with hickey marks on his neck. To make matters worse, many times Emily would 18 find condoms in Bradley's pockets to his pants. This saddening reality lead to 19 more yelling and screaming. Bradley would leave the house for days at a time 20 while Emily tended to the children without him.

22 The verbal abuse would often continue onto the next day. Bradley would 23 send text messages to Emily telling her that she is a whore and a prostitute.
24 Bradley would also tell Emily that the only thing she is good for is opening her 25

1 legs. In the attached text messages to Emily, it is clear that Bradley has no shame
2 in calling Emily all sorts of derogatory names in the books (see Exhibit 2 of the 3 Exhibit Index). Not only is Bradley condescending to Emily, more so the text
4 messages illustrate that Bradley has an aggressive and destructive approach when 5 dealing with personal problems. He tirades on how he's going to kill particular 6 people.

8         Emily ignored Bradley's name calling. Days later, Bradley would return 9 home as if nothing had ever happened. In fact, not only did Bradley acted as if 10 nothing ever happened, Bradley never apologized to Emily for his actions. To 11 avoid further confrontation, Emily stayed quiet and in time she would forgive
12 Bradley. This is behavior consistent with someone who has been abused. Here
13 however, Bradley would define Emily's silence as being passive aggressive
14 towards him. This resulted in Bradley projecting that Emily was angry at him all 15 the time and refused to communicate with him. Bradley would then get angry 16 thinking that Emily was mad at him, thus their fight cycle repeated itself. This 17 continued for years. Countless of times, Bradley said to Emily that the reason why 18 he goes out drinking is because she (Emily) is always mad at him.
20

21         C. Post Physical Separation and Leaving the Children:
22

23         The parties' marriage ended about three weeks after the youngest child was 24 born. Bradley left Emily to tend to the children for an entire week right after she 25 gave birth. Emily was furious as she had just given birth and was still in a lot of 26

1 pain. She couldn't believe that Bradley walked out on her when she needed his 2 help and support more than ever.

3 For a year, Emily allowed Bradley to come and go as he pleased until the 4 Spring of 2019 when she had enough. After completely moving out and vacating
5 the marital residence where his children resided, Bradley would visit the children 6 sporadically.

8 Over the last two years, here and there Bradley picked up the kids for a few 9 hours at a time for visitation. He would then return them back to Emily. In fact,
10 the first time that the children spent the night at Bradley's house was 11 in December of 2019. Emily encouraged Bradley to visit with the children more 12 often, however Bradley was complacent with whatever little visitation he would 13 get. He left all of the parenting duties to Emily and was happy popping in when it 14 best suited him.

15
16 D. Bradley Destroys the Marital Home:

17
18 On September 16, 2019, Bradley forced his way into the marital residence.
19 As mentioned above, Bradley had made the decision to voluntarily move out of 20 the marital home in the Spring of 2019, and shortly after that time, would frequent 21 the residence to see the children with token efforts. However, on September 16, 22 2019, Bradley drove to the house, broke the back window of the house to make his 23 way in, and psychotically vandalized the house. While he was destroying the 24 property therein, the children were present in the home and both scared and

1 confused. It should be noted that Bradley thought that Emily had an affair, which 2 is what prompted him to be violent and aggressive.

3         The two youngest kids heard Bradley in the house but did not see their 4 father's bizarre actions as they were in their rooms and Emily told them to stay
5 there. However, the oldest child, Brayden witnessed the vandalization and was in 6 the upstairs master bedroom standing behind Emily crying and screaming
7 hysterically as he watched his dad tear up the house. While in the master bedroom,
8 Bradley aggressively approached Emily, yelled in her face, grabbed both of her
9 shoulders with his bare hands and pushed her and Brayden backwards onto a crib
10 in the room. Following this, Emily and Brayden witnessed Bradley grab a flat
11 screen T.V. and violently throw it from the master bedroom down the open foyer
12 open area (see Exhibit 3 of Exhibit Index).

15         After the horrific incident, the kids and Emily were asked to sleep in a 16 shelter that night. A day later, Emily and the children stayed with Emily's father 17 for one month while the house was getting fixed. Emily was forced to open a 18 claim with her home insurance company due to the extensive damages Bradley 19 made to the home. In all, Bradley's unstable and unfit behavior resulted in 20 $32,465.80 (see Exhibit 4 of Exhibit Index) of damages to the house while his 21 children were there.

24         Prior to the September 16, 2019 episode, on August 1, 2019, Bradley
25 constituted domestic violence on Emily. Emily had made arrangements with her 26

1 sister Marcy to celebrate her birthday. During a conversation with Emily, Bradley
2 offered to care for the kids the night of August 1, 2019 at Emily's house. Bradley
3 arrived at 6:00 p.m. and nothing seem out of the ordinary. Later in the evening,
4 upon Emily returning home at around 10:00 p.m. Bradley's seemingly bipolar
5 behavior started to kick in for the worse. He began to verbally attack Emily for 6 leaving him alone for hours on her birthday while he cared for the children.
7 Bradley stormed out of the house and on his way out, while walking to the garage
8 door, Bradley punched a wall with a closed fist leaving a large hole in the wall.
9 Emily was following a few steps behind Bradley to lock the door after him.
10 Walking through the doorway towards the garage, Bradley maliciously slammed
11 the door pugnaciously behind him knowing that the force would undoubtedly hit
12 Emily. Emily's left shoulder and left arm were struck by the door. During a brief
13 struggle as Emily tried to keep the door from Bradley closing it in on her, Bradley 14 instantaneously slammed the door shut on Emily's left arm crushing it between the 15 door frame and the door. Emily tried to free her arm, but as she pushed back,
17 approximately 4-5 times with his open hand.

21 In the car garage, Bradley angrily kicked the children's toys and anything
22 else that was within his reach. Emily demanded that Bradley leave immediately 23 but her demands only angered him more which resulted in him picking up a green
24 push broom nearby and throwing it at Emily striking the left side of her collar

1 bone area. This violent altercation left a number of bruises on Emily (see Exhibit
2 5 of Exhibit Index) After Bradley drove off in his truck, Emily called the cops and 3 a police report was made (see Exhibit 6 of Exhibit Index). To Emily's recollection
4 LMVPD issued to her a Temporary Protective Order (TPO) a few days later.
5 Thirty days later she appeared in Court to extend the TPO and it is believed that 6 the TPO is effective to this date. Charges were filed against Bradley for domestic 7 violence. On the domestic battery case, Bradley received a plea deal (see Exhibit
8 7 of Exhibit Index).

10 CPS conducted an investigation the night of September 16, 2019. They 11 were compelled to take the children away from Emily's custody and care. CPS 12 explained to Emily that since she allowed Bradley to visit with the children on the 13 weekends knowing that he suffers from serious abusive and violent outbursts, she 14 placed the children in a dangerous situation. While the CPS investigation was 15 being conducted, a case worker by the name of Ms. Kamisha directed that Bradley
16 is not to see the children for a month. The children were given back to Emily one 17 week after they were placed in child haven.

20 E. Residual Effects of Brad's Behavior on Brayden:

21 Since the September 16, 2019 incident, the oldest child Brayden has been 22 suffering from emotional anguish, stress, and severe anxiety caused by his father.
23 In addition, Brayden has developed separation nervousness and his behavior has 24 gradually become worse. In fact, Brayden started acting out in school and his

1 overall academic performance declined since the incident. Brayden's teachers
2 noticed these changes and told Emily that Brayden should attend counseling to 3 help him cope with whatever problems he was encountering. As such, Brayden
4 was seeing the school's counselor, Ms. Kendra Bott on a regular basis.

6 Brayden has expressed that he is fearful to go to his father's house and begs 7 Emily not to make him go. Emily encourages Brayden to visit with his father and 8 reassures him that everything will be alright, but Brayden cannot undo what he has 9 already seen and heard. As a result, he doesn't feel comfortable with being around 10 Bradley.

12 F. Counseling for Brayden:

13 Seeing that Brayden's overall mental and emotional well-being was 14 deteriorating, and with Bradley not involved living the life of his choice, Emily
15 took the necessary steps to get the child further counseling. Emily enrolled 16 Brayden in therapy with Donna Wilburn. At first, Bradley agreed to this idea and 17 approved of Ms. Wilburn being the child's therapist. A month after therapy 18 sessions with Brayden, Ms. Wilburn suggested that the parties maintain their 19 current visitation schedule with Bradley having visitation with the children every 20 other weekend of the month until further orders from the Court. Of course, 21 Bradley disapproved of Ms. Wilburn's recommendation and unilaterally made the 22 decision to fire her.
25
26

1 Adding commotion to the issues, when the children visit with Bradley, he 2 has no shame in making disparaging remarks to the children about their mother.
3 When the children return home to Emily from Bradley's house, the girls have told 4 her that "I don't need to listen to you" and that "Daddy wants you to go away, he 5 says you're a little bitch" or "Daddy says to be mean to you because you're mean,
6 but I don't think you're mean".

8 Unquestionably, Bradley is free to argue that Emily has withheld the 9 children from him; however, it is simply untrue based upon his criminal activity, 10 social activity, CPS recommendations, Donna Wilburn, personal lack of seeking 11 judicial relief for frustrated visitation, and voluntarily moving out of the marital 12 home he subsequently destroyed. To be clear, Emily has never interfered with 13 Bradley's relationship with the children, but she has to protect them from him on 14 dozens of occasions.

16 The Court is well aware that when a child witnesses domestic violence they 17 are considered traumatized. There are effects of trauma that become evident as a 18 child ages and that can be seen in this case. The child needs therapy to help them
19 heal and recover from the trauma. Furthermore, a parent who has destroyed 20 property in anger is considered a threat until they have been released from 21 treatment. Based upon this, there should be a court approved individual therapist 22 who is treating that person and who will report to court regarding compliance.
25
26

1 That therapist should be coordinating care and communicating with the therapist
2 who works with the children.

3         It is undisputed that Bradley walked out on Emily and the kids almost 4 immediately after their third child was born; he visited with the children whenever 5 he pleased; and he committed domestic violence in the presence of the children.
6 Bradley moved out of the marital residence for good in the Spring of 2019. Since 7 then, Bradley made little efforts to exercise visitation with the them; however,
8 now he is pressuring Emily for weekends, consecutive days, and requests that 9 amount to counter recommendations from professionals involved.

11         Emily suggested that they continue to follow Ms. Wilburn's custodial 12 timeshare, nevertheless Bradley is now using this as an excuse and claiming that 13 Emily is withholding the children from him. Actually, what he refers to as 14 withholding this Court can refer to as protecting. The obvious here is that Bradley 15 is no doubt in need of professional help; the children need to be protected from 16 him; Bradley needs anger management, counseling and alcohol testing; and, the 17 children must resume counseling with Donna Wilburn.

1. Emily Should be Awarded Primary Physical Custody

A. The Parties Should be Awarded Joint Legal Custody.

Nev. Rev. Stat. 125C.002 states as follows:

1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the legal custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

Even though Bradley has terminated Donna Wilburn's services unilaterally, has been absent for the children due to CPS recommendations, and has engaged in multiple criminal counts on separate occasions, the parties should share legal custody of the three children pursuant to NRS 125C.002(1)(b).

B. Emily Should be Awarded Temporary Primary Physical Custody.

NRS 125C.003 Best interests of child: Primary physical custody; presumptions; child born out of wedlock.

1. A court may award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child. An award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of the child if:

(a) The court determines by substantial evidence that a parent is unable to adequately care for a minor child for at least 146 days of the year;

1 (b) A child is born out of wedlock and the provisions of 2 subsection 2 are applicable; or

3 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of NRS
4 125C.0035 or NRS 125C.210, there has been a determination by the 5 court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing 6 evidence that a parent has engaged in one or more acts of domestic 7 violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person
8 residing with the child. The presumption created by this paragraph is a 9 rebuttable presumption.

10 2. A court may award primary physical custody of a child born
11 out of wedlock to:

12 (a) The mother of the child if:

13 (1) The mother has not married the father of the child;

14 (2) A judgment or order of a court, or a judgment or order 15 entered pursuant to an expedited process, determining the paternity of 16 the child has not been entered; and 17 (3) The father of the child:

18 (I) Is not subject to any presumption of paternity under 19 NRS 126.051;

20 (II) Has never acknowledged paternity pursuant to NRS
21 126.053; or

22 (III) Has had actual knowledge of his paternity but has 23 abandoned the child.

24 (b) The father of the child if:

25 (1) The mother has abandoned the child; and 26 (2) The father has provided sole care and custody of the child in her absence.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Abandoned" means that a mother or father has:

(1) Failed, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to provide substantial personal and economic support to the child; or

(2) Knowingly declined, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to have any meaningful relationship with the child.

(b) "Expedited process" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS
126.161.

(Added to NRS by 2015, 2582).

NRS 125C.0035 Best interests of child: Joint physical custody; preferences; presumptions when court determines parent or person seeking custody is perpetrator of domestic violence or has committed act of abduction against child or any other child.

1           1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor 2 child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the 3 child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in 4 the best interest of the child, the court may grant physical custody to 5 the parties jointly.

6           2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole 7 reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

8           3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order 9 of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child 10 requires otherwise:

11           (a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 or to 12 either parent pursuant to NRS 125C.003. If the court does not enter an 13 order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has 14 applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision 15 the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

16           (b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been 17 living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable
18 environment.

19           (c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity 20 to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper 21 care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative 22 resides within this State.

23           (d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable 24 and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

25           4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall 26 consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

(b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

1 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any 2 sibling.

3 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a
4 sibling of the child.

5 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 6 custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a 7 parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

8 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 9 custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any 10 other child.

11 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS
12 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing 13 and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any 14 other person seeking physical custody has engaged in one or more 15 acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any 16 other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption 17 that sole or joint physical custody of the child by the perpetrator of the 18 domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making 19 such a determination, the court shall set forth:

20 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or 21 more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

22 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by 23 the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim 24 of domestic violence who resided with the child.

25 6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 26 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

Ê In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the

1 court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the 2 presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

3 7. A determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and 4 finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any 5 other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of 6 abduction against the child or any other child creates a rebuttable
7 presumption that sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised 8 visitation of the child by the perpetrator of the abduction is not in the best interest of the child. If the parent or other person seeking physical custody does not rebut the presumption, the court shall not enter an order for sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator and the court shall set forth:

9 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of abduction occurred; and

10 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by 11 the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other person from whom the child was abducted.

12 8. For the purposes of subsection 7, any of the following acts constitute conclusive evidence that an act of abduction occurred:

13 (a) A conviction of the defendant of any violation of NRS
14 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct;

15 (b) A plea of guilty or nolo contendere by the defendant to any 16 violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct; or

17 (c) An admission by the defendant to the court of the facts
18 contained in the charging document alleging a violation of NRS
200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

19 9. If, after a court enters a final order concerning physical 20 custody of the child, a magistrate determines there is probable cause 21 to believe that an act of abduction has been committed against the 22 child or any other child and that a person who has been awarded sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child has committed the act, the court shall, upon a motion to modify the order concerning physical custody, reconsider the previous order concerning physical custody pursuant to subsections 7 and 8.

23 10. As used in this section:
26

1 (a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in 2 NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

3 (b) "Domestic violence" means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018.

4 (Added to NRS by 2015, 2583)

5 When the court makes any determination of custody, the sole consideration
6 of the court is the best interest of the child. The child's best interests are 7 paramount when considering custody and visitation. As stated by the Nevada
8 Supreme Court, in custody matters, the polestar for judicial decision is the best 9 interest of the child.

11 The foundation of all custody determinations lies in the particular facts and 12 circumstances of each case. Such factual determinations will be upheld on appeal 13 if there is no abuse of the trial court's discretion; in applying that discretion, trial 14 courts have been specifically directed to examine the stability of a parent as to 15 living environment, home, employment history, and marital status.
16

17 The family court has been provided further guidance through the enactment
18 of NRS 125C.0025(1)(b), which states when a court is making a determination 19 regarding the physical custody of a child, there is a preference that joint physical 20 custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if a parent has demonstrated, 21 or has attempted to demonstrated but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the 22 other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.
23 As can be seen in this particular case, Emily has not been withholding the children
25

1 from Bradley. Bradley left the children at the marital home with Emily back in the 2 Spring of 2019 and Emily has been the primary caregiver for them without 3 question since that time. Even during the marriage, Bradley would take off for 4 days at a time leaving the children with Emily.

6 Bradley has not practiced joint physical custody since he vacated the marital 7 home, this is 100% due to his actions. Pursuant to NRS 125C.003(1)(a), Bradley
8 has not practiced joint physical custody. Moreover, via text messages to Emily, 9 Bradley insults Emily by telling her that she is a whore and a prostitute, has beat 10 her, has scared her, has threatened her, received a TPO against him held by her, 11 and had to protect the children along the way. Bradley is not fit to maintain joint 12 physical custody.

14 In addition, NRS 125C.0035(1) helps the court determine what is in the best
15 interest of a child for custody purposes. The court evaluates a number of factors 16 listed in NRS 125C.0035(4), which are italicized below.

18 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to 19 form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

20 Brayden is 5 years old; Blake is 3 years old; and Brooklyn is 2 years old.
21 This factor does not apply; however, Brayden witnessed domestic violence against 22 his mother and over $30,000 against his dwelling. He is counseling with a school
23 counselor and was seeing Donna Wilburn until Bradley stopped their services
24 without Emily's input.

24 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

2 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent
3 associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

4 In this case, Emily has never obstructed Bradley's visitation with the 5 children, only CPS did. On the other hand, Bradley chooses to communicate with 6 the children only when it was convenient for him. Over the course of the last two 7 years, Bradley made little to no efforts in having visitation with the kids. He has 8 been in and out of the children's lives. By doing so, the children do not have any 9 stability. Emily is certain that if an award of joint physical custody were to be 10 awarded, Bradley will attempt to keep and withhold the children against their 11 wishes. He will also continue to bad mouth her in their presence. It is further 12 evident that Bradley's recent actions show that he will try to alienate the children 13 from their mother. Given the fact that Brayden's mental and emotional well-being 14 was quickly going downhill after he witnessed his father violently destroying the 15 house, Emily enrolled him in therapy with Donna Wilburn. Upon Ms. Wilburn 16 suggesting that Bradley should have visitation with the children every other 17 weekend per month, Bradley was disapproving of this fact and immediately fired 18 Ms. Wilburn. Bradley made this unilateral decision not in the child's best interest, 19 but rather it was made to suit his best interest.

20 Furthermore, Bradley has recently given importance to Brayden's and 21 Blake's schooling. Bradley has been in communication with the children's school
22 principal and made particular requests, all of which are quite perplexing to Emily.
23 Especially because Bradley has not been involved whatsoever with the children's 24 educational well-being. In an e-mail dated March 2, 2020, from the school's 25 principal, it is noted that Bradley's requests have been acknowledged and that 26 information pertaining to the children will be followed up with him accordingly (see Exhibit 8 of Exhibit Index). In the mentioned e-mail, Bradley has asked that he receive copies of medical notes relating to Brayden and Blake; and that they not be seeing by the school counselor without first discussing the matter with him.
Oddly enough, Bradley also demanded that the children not be enrolled for the 2020/2021 school year without first receiving his consent. Notwithstanding, the principal already knows there is parental conflict per her e-mail based upon Bradley's representations to her—those representations are not known as to content but are verified by the principal in the subject exhibit. It is evident that Bradley has a hidden agenda of his own. Only time will reveal his deceitful ways.
This factor supports Emily's request for primary physical custody of the minor children.

1           (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

2           The level of conflict between the parties is extremely high due to Bradley's
3 abuse of his entire family. Via text messages to Emily, Bradley insults Emily by 4 telling her that she is a whore and a prostitute, has beat her, has scared her, has 5 threatened her, has received a TPO against him, and had to protect the children
6 along the way. Bradley has no shame in calling Emily all sorts of derogatory
7 names in the book. His verbal and emotional attacks need to be put to a stop.
8 Bradley has accused Emily of cheating on him with other men. This jealousy
9 standpoint would push Bradley to stir up a fight with Emily. Emily has never 10 cheated on Bradley. Bradley has a difference of opinion, however, his insecurity 11 issues have lead him to have sudden anger outbursts that Emily questions the 12 possibility that Bradley may be bipolar. He may also be suffering from other 13 forms of mental illnesses as he displays zero empathy. It is certain that Bradley
14 has anger management issues. Bradley needs to be ordered to see a professional 15 for guidance. This factor supports Emily's request for primary physical custody of 16 the minor children.

17           (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

18           It is obvious that Bradley's actions indicate that he will have difficulty
19 cooperating to meet the needs of the minor children. His odd and erratic behavior
20 is indicative that he's not thinking clearly. After the September 16, 2019
21 horrifying incident, Emily enrolled Brayden into counseling with Donna Wilburn 22 so that the child could learn to cope with his anxiety condition. Brayden has been 23 significantly impacted, emotionally damaged upon witnessing his father violently
24 destroying the house. Rather than to cooperate to meet the needs of the child, 25 Bradley retaliated and prohibited the child from continuing his counseling sessions 26 with Ms. Wilburn only after Ms. Wilburn made a suggestion to the parties about coming up with a consistent schedule and that for now Bradley's current visitation with the children shall remain the same. Bradley was not keen to the idea and therefore, he made the decision to prevent Brayden from continuing to see Ms.
Wilburn. As a matter of fact, Bradley has offered no alternative solution to the problem other than bully Emily for visitation time. Emily has tried to communicate with Bradley regarding the issue and the need for the child to continue to see a therapist, however Bradley continues to ignore the topic. This factor supports Emily's request for primary physical custody of the minor

***

1           (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

2           Emily is in good mental and physical health.

3           Bradley's current mental and physical health status are suspect at best.
4 Throughout the parties' marriage, Bradley was verbally abusive to Emily and 5 continues to do so. As illustrated in text communication between the parties,
6 Bradley has demonstrated he suffers from anger management issues and obsessive
7 jealousy outbursts. His fixation with thinking that Emily was having marital 8 affairs during their marriage caused him to begin drinking heavily. In November 9 of 2018, Bradley was arrested for a DUI.

10           Approximately a year later, in August of 2019 he violently attacked Emily, 11 and one month later in September of 2019, Bradley broke into Emily's house and 12 aggressively destroyed with his bare hands the walls, furniture, appliances, 13 electronics, and other personal property all while the children were present.
14 Brayden witnessed that incident with his eyes and as a result, he has been 15 traumatized severely that Emily felt compelled to enroll the child in counseling 16 therapy.

17           Recently, Bradley has decided that he wants to be more involved in the 18 children's lives. However, Bradley is more so forcing himself into the children's 19 lives by trying to control how he should have his visitation time with the children.
20 Bradley has been in and out of the children's lives since their birth. The children
21 have a relationship with Bradley, however they're emotionally closer to Emily.
22 Apparently, Bradley now thinks that he can delegate his custodial timeshare with 23 the children simply because he has completed a few domestic violence courses,
24 paid a fine, and has stayed out of trouble. Only six months ago he physically 25 attacked Emily. Subsequently, he broke into her home and destroyed it without 26 caring that his children were present in the home. The reality is that Bradley is delusional and further needs psychological treatment. His violent behavior and drinking problem suggest that he may have serious mental health problems. This factor supports Emily's request for primary physical custody of the minor
children.

22           (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

23           Brayden is 5 years old. At such a young age the child is already having to 24 see a therapist following the dramatic and traumatizing incident he witnessed on 25 September 16, 2019. Blake is 3 years old. The child is old enough to know that 26 what her father did is not right. Emily tried to get her enrolled in therapy, but

1 unfortunately Emily couldn't find a counselor willing to perform therapy on a 3 2 year-old child. Brooklyn is 2 years old and there exists a 50/50 probability that the 3 child may or may not remember much as she gets older. Nonetheless, chances are 4 that if Bradley doesn't get the counseling he needs to balance his mental and 5 emotional distress, it is certain that Bradley will take out his anger on the children.
6 All children are in good physical health. The children do not have the 7 developmental and emotional needs of normal healthy children in their age group.
8 Studies have shown that children who have witnessed domestic violence are 9 considered traumatized, such effects of the trauma become evident as a child 10 becomes older. The children require consistent emotional support. Bradley has 11 been absent from the children's lives in the last two years. Emily has been the only 12 parent who has provided all the emotional support they need. This factor supports 13 Emily's request for primary physical custody of the minor children.

15 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

16 Emily has a close and loving relationship with the children. Although Emily
17 doesn't doubt that Bradley loves the children too, he has shown quite the contrary 18 approach with his negative actions. A positive and healthy relationship between 19 Bradley and the children will not be fruitful if he continues to be aggressive, 20 controlling and destructive. Emily is not objecting to the children continuing a 21 relationship with their father, so long as he is able to prove that he gets the help he 22 needs, such as anger management classes so that he can learn to control his erratic 23 anger outbursts, counseling, AA/NA meetings, and whatever other resources the 24 Court may deem as necessary. This factor supports Emily's request for primary 25 physical custody of the minor children.

26 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

This factor does not apply.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

As previously mentioned, Bradley has shown quite the negative approach with the children. The children oftentimes have told Emily that their father quickly becomes frustrated with them. His patience is exceedingly thin. Emily fears that Bradley's bipolar mood swings will eventually result in him physically harming one of the kids. This factor supports Emily's request for primary physical custody of the minor children.

1 Bradley leaving the marital home and/or being absent for days at a time is 2 neglect. His destruction of the marital home is domestic violence in the form of 3 abuse, and him pulling Brayden from counseling when it was apparently necessary is additional neglect.

4 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody 5 has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the 6 child or any other person residing with the child.

7 On August 1, 2019 Bradley violently attacked Emily. Subsequently,
8 Bradley was charged with domestic battery and accepted a plea deal on December 9 9, 2019. Bradley received 90 days suspended jail sentence, was ordered to take 10 impulse control counseling classes, serve 24 hours of community service, and was 11 ordered stay out of trouble. Successful completion of his plea deal requirements would result in a dismissal of the case. It is obvious that Bradley's criminal defense attorney, Mr. Ross Goodman, got him the deal of a lifetime, however the photographs of Emily's bruises tell the truth to what happened to her on August 1st.

12 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody
13 has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

14 This factor does not apply.

15 Emily has been the children's primary care giver since their birth. She 16 works part time in her father's company. The primary parenting responsibilities 17 have always fallen on her. For two years (2018-2019), Bradley has been in out of 18 the children's lives. He has never been consistent with his visitation. Even before 19 this all started last Spring, Bradley would leave for days at a time leaving 20 everything up to Emily as it relates to caring for the children.

22 Bradley has had all the freedom he wants, paying little to no attention to 23 the children's needs. Emily has fed, bathed, clothed, loved, and nurtured the 24 children. It is certain that Emily wants Bradley to have a relationship with the 25 children.

1 children and she has tried to encourage that relationship but cannot support it until 2 Bradley straightens out. Bradley has shown little interest in helping Emily raise
3 the children. His involvement in the children's day to day care has been minimal 4 at best.

6 Additionally, Bradley is a sole practitioner and according to his online
7 website, he practices law exclusively in personal injury matters. It is assumed that 8 Bradley has been extremely busy focusing on his career and building his practice, 9 therefore this too justifies that he has a limited schedule and inability to care for 10 the children equal amounts of time.

12 Emily would therefore respectfully request that the Court award the parties 13 joint legal custody of their minor children and that she have primary physical 14 custody, subject to Bradley's right of supervised visitation at Donna's House

16 17 2. The Minor Child, Brayden Should Continue Counseling Sessions with 18 Donna Wilburn; and Bradley Shall be Subjected to an Outsourced Alcohol
& Psychological Evaluation

19 The oldest child, Brayden witnessed his father vandalizing the house
20 aggressively and yelling at his mother violently on September 16, 2019. Brayden
21 stood behind Emily crying and screaming hysterically as he watched his father
22 tear the house apart. The aftermath of this tragic event lead to Brayden developing 23 anxiety and separation anxiety. The effects consisted of poor school performance 24 and abnormal behavioral problems. Brayden's school-teachers noticed such

1 changes in the child that it was immediately brought up to Emily's attention.

2 Initially Brayden was seeing the school's counselor, Ms. Kendra Bott.

3 Emily was then referred to Donna Wilburn and Brayden began counseling
4 sessions with her, but only after a month Bradley fired Ms. Wilburn after she 5 recommended that the children continue to see him every other weekend per 6 month. It is important and urgent that Brayden continue to see Donna Wilburn.

8 ii. Bradley should be subjected to an outsourced alcohol and 9 psychological evaluation:
10

11 For as long as Emily has known Bradley, he has had a serious drinking 12 problem. Emily has had her suspicion that Bradley may have been at times under 13 the influence of prescription narcotics or illegal street drugs, which can possibly 14 be factors to his angry and erratic behavioral instability. In the alternative, anger 15 management is necessary at the very least. The cost of all testing should be 16 Bradley's sole and separate responsibility.

18 3. Emily's Request to Consolidate & Confirm Temporary Protective 19 Order & for a Behavior Order

20 There was a Temporary Protective Order (TPO), case number T-19-21 200404-T, that was issued in September of 2019 following Bradley braking into 22 Emily's house. Subsequently a Protection Order Against Domestic Violence was 23 filed on September 25, 2019 (see Exhibit 9 of Exhibit Index). Upon inquiry, the 24 TPO is currently in place. The undersigned counsel became aware of this and 25

1 therefore, he asks that this Court consolidate and confirm the TPO issued on 2 September 25, 2019, with the exception that the parties shall be allowed to 3 communicate via Our Family Wizard or a similar communication app limited to 4 issues pertaining to only the minor children.

6 Over the last several weeks there have been instances wherein Bradley has 7 become more demanding and verbally aggressive towards Emily via text message
8 communication. Bradley continues to have anger management issues and his 9 erratic and odd behavior continue to escalate, spiraling out of control forcing 10 Emily to file yet another TPO with the Court. Bradley must be admonished and 11 stopped for his unnecessary bullying towards Emily. As such, Emily would 12 respectfully ask that a Behavior Order be issued precluding Bradley from 13 continuing to act in such foolish ways.
14

15 4. Bradley Shall be Ordered to Pay Child Support
16 Pursuant to Chapter 425 NAC

17 Bradley is able bodied and capable of paying child support. If Emily is 18 awarded primary physical custody of the parties' minor children, Bradley
19 shall pay child support pursuant to Chapter 425 NAC. Upon Bradley filing a 20 Financial Disclosure Form (FDF) with the Court, Emily will be able to 21 calculate Bradley's child support obligation.

23 5. Bradley Should be Required to Pay Temporary Spousal Support:

24 Emily should be awarded temporary spousal support.

1       NRS 125.040 Orders for support and cost of suit during 2       pendency of action.

3       1. In any suit for divorce the court may, in its discretion, upon 4       application by either party and notice to the other party, require either 5       party to pay moneys necessary to assist the other party in 6       accomplishing one or more of the following:

- 7       (a) To provide temporary maintenance for the other party;
- 8       (b) To provide temporary support for children of the parties; or
- 9       (c) To enable the other party to carry on or defend such suit.

10      2. The court may make any order affecting property of the 11      parties, or either of them, which it may deem necessary or desirable to 12      accomplish the purposes of this section. Such orders shall be made by 13      the court only after taking into consideration the financial situation of 14      each of the parties.

15      3. The court may make orders pursuant to this section
16      concurrently with orders pursuant to NRS 125C.0055.

17      The Court has the authority to order a spouse to pay money to another 18      spouse during the pendency of a divorce action in order “[t]o provide temporary 19      maintenance for the other party” pursuant to NRS 125.040. Spousal support is not 20      limited to cases where the party seeking support is “destitute or practically so”;
21      instead, spousal support is awarded out of fairness when a spouse should be 22      granted financial assistance for support during the divorce action. Engebretson v.
23      Engebretson, 75 Nev. 237, 240, 338 P.2d 75, 76 (1959).

24      Throughout the marriage, Bradley was the primary earner as it relates to 25      finances. Emily was more of the homemaker and cared for the children.
26      Throughout the marriage, Emily supported Bradley physically and emotionally on.
27      She also supported him as he grew his law practice.

28      Bradley is a lawyer, owns his own firm, and has not yet filed an FDF for 29      obvious reasons. Emily earns about $800.00 per month working for her father

1 part-time with his flooring business. There is an income discrepancy, but the 2 amount of discrepancy is unknown. Therefore, as of this moment and without 3 much known about Bradley's income, Emily should receive spousal support 4 during the pendency of this action which should convert to alimony post-divorce.

6 6. Emily Should be Awarded Her Attorney's Fees & Costs
7 Pursuant to NRS 18.010 provides as follows:

9 NRS 18.010 provides as follows:

10 2. In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by 11 specific statute, the court may make an allowance of attorney's fees
12 to a prevailing party:

13 (a) When he has not recovered more than $20,000.00; or

14 (b) Without regard to the recovery sought, when the court finds 15 that the claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party 16 complaint or defense of the opposing party was brought 17 without reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party.

18 NRS 125.150(3) states: Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.141, 19 whether or not application for suit money has been made under the provisions of 20 NRS 125.040, the court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to either party to an 21 action for divorce if those fees are in issue under the pleadings.

22 Emily is entitled to attorney's fees. The Supreme Court of Nevada held in 23 Sargent v. Sargent, 88 Nev. 223, 495 P. 2d 618 (Nev. 1972), that a wife must be 24 afforded her day in court without destroying her financial position. This would 25 imply that she should be able to meet her adversary in the courtroom on an equal 26 basis." Emily needs "equal footing" as it relates to preliminary attorney's fees.

1 Emily would not have had file a Motion if Bradley was not erratic or a criminal.
2 She would not need to proceed this way if he was not canceling appointments for 3 the children and dictating his time by threats.

5 Emily should prevail on this issue and thus satisfies NRS 18.010(2)(b).

6 With specific reference to Family Law matters, the Supreme Court has 7 recently adopted "well known basic elements," which, in addition to hourly time
8 schedules kept by the attorney, are to be considered in determining the reasonable 9 value of an attorney's services, qualities, commonly known as the Brunzell factors.

11 When considering the reasonableness of fees, the Court must evaluate the 12 factors outlined in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455
13 P.2d 31, 33 (1969), which are as follows:

14 (1) The qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, 15 experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the character of the 16 work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and 17 skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and 18 character of the parties where they affect the importance of the 19 litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, 20 time and attention given to the work; (4) the result: whether the 21 attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

22 Each factor should be given consideration, and no one element should be 23 given undue weight or predominate. Miller v. Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 119 P.3d
24 727 (2005). Counsel in this case is well-qualified and a member in good standing 25 of the State Bar of Nevada. Counsel has been practicing law for 12 years and is 26 Preeminently Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. Counsel volunteers with the Nevada
State Bar Editorial Board and Advertising Committee.

1 This Motion is critical to protect Emily's rights and the children's best
2 interests. The issues presented in this motion required a good deal of time and skill
3 that is particular to family law cases. Emily's counsel diligently checked facts and 4 reviewed the law. Counsel has, through application of law to facts, striven to 5 present a concise and logical picture of where these parties are and what was the 6 appropriate conclusion for the court to reach. The result is unknown at this time.

8 For the reasons outlined above, Emily respectfully requests an award of 9 attorney's fees and costs in the amount of $5,000.00.

10 WHEREFORE, in the best interest of the minor child, Emily is requesting 11 that he have the relief sought in the foregoing Motion.

Just split the time with the kids. I'm good.

I will find a place to stay.

Let's work out a maybe Thursday-Sunday visitation schedule.

You can come visit them on the weekends

Or any night show me how much they mean to you and be there for them

Dear EMILY CARDONA,

The following calculations summarize our settlement agreement:

1. The full cost of repair or replacement is	$ 10,040.45
2. The recoverable depreciation is	$ 1,950.50
3. The non-recoverable depreciation is	$ 0
4. The actual cash value of the loss is	$ 8,089.95
5. Less Advance payments	$ 0
6. Your deductible is	$ 1,000.00
7. Prior ACV payments made	$ 0
8. The actual cash value payment is	$ 7,089.95

Depreciation has been deducted from the full cost of the repair or replacement to your property to determine the actual cash value.

To make a claim for the recoverable depreciation for an amount in excess of actual cash value, you must repair, rebuild or replace the damaged property within 180 days of the actual cash value payment. Please mail your receipts and any other documentation (building permits, contracts, invoices, etc.) to support that the repair or replacement has been completed within the 180 days period. In no event will the actual cash value payment and supplemental payment exceed the amount actually and necessarily spent, less the deductible.

About Replacement Cost Reimbursement

Keep in mind that your policy contains a replacement cost reimbursement provision for personal property up to a negotiated replacement value. In other words, your policy gives you 180 days following the payment of your loss to replace personal property and submit the receipts for reimbursement. We can then provide you with reimbursement for the difference between our actual cash value payment and the amount you spent to replace the item with one of like kind and quality -- up to the replacement price determined for that item.

Your replacement cost provision does not include items where coverage limits already apply. Please remember that coverage limits may apply to your loss after we receive your replacement cost receipts. We will let you know if this is the case.

Narrative

(BODY CAMERA RECORDING AVAILABLE)

On 08/01/2019 at approximately 2230 hours 1 Officer C. Larose P#16948 while operating as marked patrol unit 1V22 along with Officer V. Dias P#17074 while operating as marked patrol unit 1V31TV were dispatched to a domestic disturbance call located at 1913 Sondrio Drive Las Vegas, Wada 69134. The details of the call stated that the person reporting Emily Bellisario DOB ( )/1988) was hit by her husband Bradley Bellisario DOB ( )/1985) and that Bradley had left.

Upon arrival I made contact with Emily, and I immediately observed a red mark on Emily's left face cheek. Emily then showed me welts and reddening on her left arm which appeared to be fresh. Digital photos were taken of Emily's injuries and Emily denied medical attention. Emily then explained the situation that took place previous to officers arriving as follows.

Emily and Bradley are still legally married however have been separated since April of 2018 and Bradley has not lived with Emily at 1913 Sondrio Drive in several months. They do not have much contact outside of picking up and dropping off their 3 children. However, Bradley offered to watch the children the night of 08/01/2019 at 1913 Sondrio so Emily could go out with her friends to celebrate her birthday which had just recently passed. Bradley came over to watch the children at approximately 1800 hours and Emily returned home at approximately 2200 hours.

As soon as Emily entered the residence Bradley began verbally harassing her and explaining his frustration with Emily for being out for several hours while he was at home watching the children. Emily then engaged in the verbal altercation until Bradley decided to leave the house. As Bradley was storming out of the house towards the garage, he punched the wall one time with a closed fist and put a hole in the wall. Emily was following behind Bradley to lock the door after he left due to Bradley leaving with the door open or unlocked several times in the past. As Bradley walked through the doorway towards the garage he slammed the door behind him in an attempt to hit Emily. Emily's left shoulder and arm were struck by the door. As Emily attempted to open the door with her left arm after being hit by it, Bradley slammed the door shut on her arm crushing it between the door frame and door. As Emily tried to pull her arm out from between the door and door frame, Bradley then used his right palm and hit Emily in the left side of her face approximately 4-5 times with an open hand. Bradley then entered the garage and began kicking the children's toys and anything that was within arms reach. As Emily followed Bradley into the garage screaming at him to leave, Bradley picked up a green push broom and threw it at Emily, hitting her. Bradley then continued to walk out of the garage which was open and kicked the sensor off of the rail rendering the garage door useless. Bradley then used both hands to yank on the garage door which was in an open position multiple times causing several wheels to either break off or disconnect from the track. After breaking the garage door Bradley got into his truck and left the residence.

Emily then called the police and stood by at her residence until officers arrived. Due to the fact that Bradley shares a domestic relationship with Emily as defined by NRS 33.018 and used force or violence upon Emily, this report was taken for domestic battery.

Dear Bradley and Emily,

We acknowledge receiving Mr. Belisario's requests for the following:

1. Medical notes in regards to your children. (will be sent separately)
2. Not to pull out the children by the school counselor without notifying you in advance.
3. Not to enroll the children for next year without father's agreement.

We value partnering with you in educating your children, and would like to avoid becoming entangled in any marital dispute. We hope that communicating all matters with both of you will benefit the children and our partnership. We will continue to share information about the kids with both of you, unless there is a court order to guide us differently.

Thank you so much,

7 result of the case conference, together with any objection that the 8 document is not authentic or genuine. The failure to state any 9 objection to the authenticity or genuineness of a document constitutes 10 a waiver of such objection at a subsequent hearing or trial. For good 11 cause, the court may permit the withdrawal of a waiver and the 12 assertion of an objection;

13 (E) A written list of all documents not provided under Rule 14 16.2(d), together with the explanation as to why each document was

23 Rule 16.2(d)(5) and (d)(6);

immediate global resolution of the case along with a description of 3 6. You are under the continuing obligation to supplement any 4 disclosures required herein or by court rule. You must make 5 additional or amended disclosures whenever new or different

6 information is discovered or revealed. Such additional or amended
7 disclosures, including corrections to your financial disclosure form, 8 shall be made within 14 days after acquiring the additional 9 information or after otherwise learning that your disclosure is 10 incomplete or incorrect. However, if a hearing, deposition, case
11 management conference, or other calendared event is scheduled less 12 than 14 days from the discovery date, then the update must be filed and served within 24 hours of the discovery of new information.

13 7. If you fail to timely complete, file, or serve the appropriate
14 financial disclosure form required by this rule, or the required 15 information and disclosures under this rule, the court shall impose an 16 appropriate sanction upon you, your attorney, or both, unless specific 17 affirmative findings of fact are made that you have proven: (1) either 18 good cause for the failure by a preponderance of the evidence or that 19 the violating party would experience an undue hardship if the 20 penalty is applied; and (2) that other means fully compensate the 21 non-violating party for any losses, delays, and expenses suffered as a 22 result of the violation. Sanctions may include:

23 (A) An order finding the violating party in civil contempt
24 of court, an order requiring the violating party to timely file and serve the disclosures, to pay the opposing party's reasonable expenses

1 including attorney fees and costs incurred as a result of the failure,
2 and any other sanction the court deems just and proper; and/or

3 (B) An order refusing to allow the violating party to 4 support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that 5 party from introducing designated matters in evidence, and/or any 6 other sanction the court deems just and proper.

7 8. Failure to include any asset or accurately report income will 8 result in sanctions if the non-violating party can establish by a 9 preponderance of the evidence that there is not good cause for the 10 failure. Sanctions may include:

11 (A) An order finding the violating party in civil contempt
12 of court, an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs to the non-13 violating party, and any other sanction the court deems just and proper; and/or

14 (B) An order awarding the omitted asset to the opposing 15 party as his or her separate property or making another form of 16 unequal division of community property, and/or any other sanction
17 the court deems just and proper.

1                                   MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2                   I.     FACTS

3                   Plaintiff Emily Bellisario (hereinafter referred to as “Emily”) and
4                   Defendant, Bradley Bellisario (hereinafter referred to as “Bradley”) were married
5                   on or about August of 2014 in Sandy, State of Utah. There are three minor
6                   children born the issue of this marriage, namely to wit: Brayden Bellisario, born
7                   on: January 15, 2015; Blake Bellisario, born on November 20, 2016; and
8                   Brooklyn Bellisario, born on: February 1, 2018 (hereinafter collectively referred to 9                   as “children” or “kids”).

12                  Emily has always been the primary caretaker for the children and has 13                  worked part time. As stated in Emily’s motion, the parties separated in 2018.
14                  Bradley left her with the children and showed up at the marital residence as he 15                  chose.

16                  Bradley’s Opposition is filled with misrepresentations and untruths. Emily 17                  will address each of his claims.
18

19                   A. CPS

20                  Bradley attached the Order terminating Wardship filed January 7, 2020, yet
21                  he claims, “it was assumed the parties would be SHARING PHYSICAL 22                  CUSTODY.” (See Opposition pg. 5, lines 2-3). Bradley had supervised visitation 23                  prior to this order, and it is a clear misrepresentation to claim that he had joint
26

1 custody while supervised or that he would automatically be given joint custody
2 after the supervision ended.

3 B. Emily's Temporary Restraining Order Against Bradley

4 To date, Bradley refuses to accept responsibility for his actions. Although 5 his Opposition states that he "broke a few things in the home.", this is the 6 understatement of the year. Bradley destroyed their home, causing over 7 $30,000.00 in damage and this was done in front of Brayden. Bradley smashed 8 the children's fish tank causing all the fish to die and slashed the children's 9 trampoline, leaving a large knife in a nearby tree. Despite the children being 10 home and four (4) year old Brayden witnessing this overwhelming destruction, 11 Bradley also claims the children were not injured. He completely fails to 12 acknowledge the emotional damage he caused to their four (4) year old son, who 13 has since turned five (5).

14 Bradley was verbally abusive and physically abusive throughout the 15 marriage. The incident where Bradley destroyed their home and threw a large 16 television in front of their child was just one example of Bradley's temper. His 17 extreme anger issues have not been resolved by a few counseling sessions and 18 failing to accept any fault. It is even more concerning that Bradley "admits to 19 calling Plaintiff a prostitute and whore" because he claims this was her profession
20 prior to marriage. (See Opposition pg. 5 lines 12-13). Emily was never a prostitute
21 or whore, and this is just another example of Bradley's verbal abuse that he admits
24
26

1 to using these insults. Not that it is relevant, but Emily was part owner of a 2 clothing store before she married Bradley. Bradley has always been jealous and 3 possessive, which is why he calls Emily these names. One of the only truths in 4 Bradley's Opposition is that the parties do not get along. However, they do not get 5 along because Emily is no longer willing to suffer from Bradley's temper and 6 abuse.

8 C. Emily's Request for a Second TPO and Order to Show Cause

9 Since the parties separated, Emily has struggled with her desire to reach an 10 agreement with Bradley and his escalating anger which makes agreements 11 impossible. Emily felt pressured to drop the Temporary Protective Order, even 12 though she felt it was still necessary. After it was dissolved, Bradley immediately 13 started harassing and threatening her. When Emily applied for another Temporary 14 Protective Order ("TPO"), she was told by the TPO office that she still had a TPO
15 in effect and would need to file for an Order to Show Cause. Emily's confusion
16 over this issue does not discount the fact that Bradley has been violent towards her 17 and she requested protection.

20 D. Bradley's Multiple Criminal Cases

21 Bradley has had three (3) serious criminal charges since 2018. Bradley
22 spends no time on his November 5, 2018 DUI conviction and claims he does not 23 have an alcohol problem. Bradley also misrepresents the August 1, 2019 battery 24 charge where he slammed Emily's arm in the door, more than once. Emily has 25

1 provided the police report from this incident as Exhibit “6” included within the 2 original Motion. Next, Bradley was charged with Felony Home Invasion,
3 Misdemeanor Battery and Felony Aggravated Stalking with the Use of a Deadly 4 weapon for his actions on September 17, 2019. Bradley accepted a plea deal,
5 which included a submittal on a simple battery. The fact that Bradley was not 6 convicted of these crimes, does not mean that he did not commit them. The battery
7 charge was against Emily and occurred while the children were home. While 8 Bradley attempts to focus the Court’s attention on the fact that he was not 9 convicted of battery domestic violence, this is only because Emily was pressured 10 into not testifying against him.

13 D. Brayden’s Birthday

14 In January 2020, Emily planned a birthday party at a trampoline park for 15 their son, Brayden. Emily did not want Bradley to attend the party due to his 16 anger towards her and offered Bradley time on Brayden’s actually birthday. (See 17 Exhibit “10”, Text Messages between Parties in January 2020). Bradley
18 continued to request to attend the party and Emily eventually agreed because it
19 was at a public place and she felt it would be good for their son. After the party, 20 Bradley did drop some of the party gifts off at Emily’s home and when Brayden
21 asked him to put together a train set, she allowed him in for about ten (10) minutes 22 to set up the train. Emily’s constant actions of trying to co-parent with Bradley for 23 the benefit of their children does not mean that she is not afraid of him.
26

1                   E. Bradley has Misrepresented the Custody schedule

2                   Since the separation, more than a year ago, the children have lived with
4                   Emily and had visitation with Bradley. Bradley's calendar Exhibit "F" shows that 5                   he had visitation for a few hours per day, several days per week. Bradley's first 6                   overnight with the children, which his mom supervised was in December 2019.
7                   Thereafter, Emily agreed that Bradley would have the children from Friday March
8                   13, 2020 at 4:30 p.m. to Sunday, March 15, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. Over Emily's
9                   objection, Bradley decided to keep the children through Monday, March 16, 2020
10                  and missed Brayden's post-surgery appointment, on March 16, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.
11                  despite several reminders from Emily. Further, after keeping the children beyond 12                  the agreement, Bradley subsequently demanded joint physical custody. (See 13                  Exhibit "11", Our Family Wizard Messages between the party's March 13, 2020
14                  to March 16, 2020). Bradley's action of keeping the children longer than agreed
15                  upon was a setback for Brayden. Further, although Brayden's therapist 16                  recommended daily calls with the children and other parent, Bradley refuses to 17                  allow Emily any calls with the children when they are with him.
18

20                   F. Custody Exchanges at the Police Department and Bradley's False
21                   claim of Alienation.

22                  Despite the fact that the parties have been exchanging at the police station,
23                  Bradley continues to harass Emily. At the exchange on April 6, 2020, Bradley
24                  forced Brayden to go with him, by picking him after the child ran from his father.
25

1 Throughout the video, Emily is heard encouraging Brayden to go with his dad and 2 telling him he will have a good time. (See Exhibit “12”, Video of Custody
3 Exchange on April 24, 2020). At this exchange, Bradley’s mother got hostile with 4 Emily, yelling in her face and even bumped Emily with her belly. Emily did show
5 the video to the police, but because the video does not show Bradley’s mother’s 6 belly making contact with Emily, no further action was taken.

8 Since the April 6, 2020 incident where Bradley forcibly put Brayden in his 9 car, Brayden has refused to go with his father. Brayden has struggled with his 10 emotions since Bradley fired his therapist on February 25, 2020. Emily has 11 repeatedly asked Bradley to agree to a new therapist for Brayden, but Bradley 12 refuses to agree to any therapist in a list provided by Emily. Emily has not had 13 contact with these therapists, other than to confirm they see children and dates for 14 first available appointments. Brayden needs to resume therapy and if this issue is 15 not resolved prior to the hearing, Emily requests permission to select a therapist
16 for Brayden with the understanding that both parents will speak to the therapist 17 prior to the first appointment.

20 Emily has never alienated the children from Bradley. Bradley’s violent 21 behavior in front of Brayden traumatized their son. Brayden does love his dad and 22 feels comfortable if Emily is there. However, any time Brayden has had to go with 23 Bradley alone, it is a struggle. Unfortunately, Emily does not feel safe with 24 Bradley and cannot supervise his visitation. Brayden’s therapist, Donna Wilburn

1 was working on this issue and Brayden was starting to feel more comfortable with 2 his dad before Bradly unilaterally fired the therapist. It should be noted that 3 Bradley fired Ms. Wilburn because she suggested that the parties continue to 4 follow the temporary schedule they had been following for many months. This 5 was not a joint schedule and Bradley's focus has been on obtaining joint custody
6 since he retained counsel.

8 A. Bradley's career as an Attorney

9 To date, Bradley has been able to avoid punishment from the Nevada State
10 Bar. This is not because he has done nothing wrong, but merely because Emily did 11 not want him to lose his law license. As an officer of the Court, he should be 12 accepting responsibility for his actions. Bradley was fortunate to be able to hire a 13 high-profile attorney who helped him reach an extremely favorable plea deal on 14 his felony charges. An Officer of the Court should never threaten to kill/harm 15 people and Bradley offers no explanation for his numerous threats contained in 16 Exhibit "2". Bradley's ability to get away with bad behavior has merely increased 17 the risk he poses to Emily.
18

19 B. Bradley's Deception

20 Throughout this case, Emily has attempted to foster Bradley's relationship 21 with the children, even when she was personally fearful of him. She has 22 consistently offered Bradley time with the children and the children have done
23 better with daytime visits, which lasted a few hours. Emily understands that
26

1 because the parties have three (3) children together, Bradley will never be 2 completely out of her life and her decisions to try to keep peace between the 3 parents should not be used against her.

4 Through counsel, the parties recently reached a temporary custody
5 schedule. Further, guidelines for the custody exchange were set up, specifically 6 that the parties should park 10 feet away during the exchange and make sure that 7 the children safely made it to the other parent. Right after this agreement was 8 made, on April 24, 2020, Bradley went right up to Emily's car and taunted her that 9 the parties only had to park 10 feet away. Emily's video taken on April 24, 2020
10 demonstrates Bradley's disregard for the agreement and shows him right next to 11 her vehicle. (See Exhibit "13", Video of Bradley outside Emily's car on April 12 24, 2020). Emily was scared, but a policeman approached and facilitated the

16
17 Bradley has included Exhibit "K" as a typed list of things he claims the 18 children said. None of the alleged statements in this list were from Emily. The 19 children have witnessed Bradley's lack of impulse control for all of their lives and 20 it does not surprise Emily that Brayden has made observations about his father.
21 However, Emily has consistently encouraged the children to spend time with their 22 father and will continue to do so.

23
24 In addition to the above, Bradley has falsely represented the parties' 25 finances. Bradley's Exhibit "G" claims that Emily was lying about money. The 26

1 parties have a joint Wells Fargo account. Bradley attached only page 1 of 3 from 2 their statement, showing that he had deposited $5,495.01 into the account between 3 March 2, 2020 and March 19, 2020. He conveniently failed to attach the whole
4 statement which would have shown his withdrawals. It is true that Bradley
5 transfers money from his law firm to the joint account, but he continues to spend 6 funds from the joint account and transfers money back to his law firm. From 7 February 10, 2020 to March 6, 2020, Bradley deposited $6,695.01. Bradley then 8 transferred $1,900.00 back to his law firm and took $600.00 in ATM withdrawals.
9 With the remainder going for community bills, Bradley's student loans and the 10 mortgage, Emily's card was declined at the grocery store more than once. Emily 11 asked Bradley to deposit money on March 22, 2020 when the account balance was 12 at $97.12 and the account had just been in overdraft on March 18, 2020, due to a 13 payment to Southwest gas. (See Exhibit "14", Wells Fargo Statement for March 14 7, 2020 to April 7, 2020). On page 2 of the Wells Fargo Statement, the daily 15 balance of the account from March 9, 2020 through March 18, 2020 ranges from 16 $325.13, to negative $202.88. Bradley's misrepresentation of Emily's request for 17 him to deposit funds in the joint bank account is demonstrative of his multiple 18 attempts to mislead the Court.

1 II. OPPOSITION TO COUNTERMOTION FOR SHARED CUSTODY

2 Bradley has not cited any authority or demonstrated that it would be in the 3 children's best interest to share joint physical custody. In fact, Bradley is blatantly
4 asking the Court to ignore his violence committed in front of the children as well
5 as his physical violence against Emily. The Court cannot and should not ignore the 6 best interest factors outlined in NRS 125C.0035(1). Brayden witnessed domestic 7 violence against his mother by his father. Thereafter, Bradley unilaterally
8 terminated the therapy that was helping Brayden deal with the anxiety and stress
9 caused by Bradley's actions. In addition, there is a high level of conflict between 10 the parties and even though they are exchanging at the police station, Bradley has 11 caused conflict in front of the children. Emily has continued her attempts to 12 cooperate with Bradley for the children, but he only tries to use this against her.
13 Bradley does not allow Emily phone calls or facetime when he has the children
14 and has not demonstrated any willingness to encourage the children's relationship 15 with their mother. The analysis of all factors in Emily's motion demonstrates that 16 it would be in the children's best interest for her to have primary physical custody.
17 Emily has stipulated to share joint legal custody of the children and will continue 18 her best efforts to co-parent with Bradley. Bradley may need to attend a co-19 parenting class if he cannot improve his communication skills with Emily and 20 work together for the children.
22
23
25

Bradley Shall be Ordered to Pay Child Support
Pursuant to Chapter 425 NAC and Temporary Spousal Support

Bradley has filed his Financial Disclosure Form and child support should be calculated pursuant to 425 NAC. There is a vast disparity of income between the parties as Emily has historically worked part time and cared for the children. According to Bradley's FDF, his gross monthly income from his business is $18,000.00, and claim $6,710.00 in business expenses. Further, Bradley claims he is paying $3,495.00 per month for child support. While Bradley does deposit funds into their joint account, he has not been paying a set amount and it is disingenuous for him to claim he is paying the mortgage and giving Emily $3,495.00.

At this time, Emily is at Bradley's mercy for financial support. As detailed above, Bradley does deposit funds into their joint account, but many of his personal bills are taken from this account and he also transfers money back to his law firm as he chooses. Emily cannot rely on sufficient funds in the bank account and her debit card has been declined at the grocery store on more than one occasion in the last few months. Temporary financial orders are necessary to allow Emily to provide for the children's needs and to survive during this action.

1                   Emily Should be Awarded Preliminary Attorney's Fees

2                   Emily is entitled to attorney's fees pursuant to Sargent v. Sargent, 88 Nev.
3 223, 495 P. 2d 618 (Nev. 1972). Not only is Bradley a lawyer, but he has also 4 hired counsel. Emily cannot be expected to receive her day in Court on equal 5 footing without an award of preliminary attorney's fees and requests $5,000.00.

7                   In addition, Emily repeats her request for an award of fees pursuant to NRS
8 18.010. Bradley's actions necessitated the filing of her initial motion and now she 9 has had to incur additional fees to defend against his false allegations and to 10 protect the children's best interest.

12                   III. CONCLUSION

13                   For all the reasons set forth hereinabove, Emily respectfully requests that 14 this Court deny Defendant's Opposition and Countermotion in its entirety and 15 grant the relief in her Motion in its entirety.

I do not agree to that schedule. It is in the best interest of the kids to maintain their normal schedule that they are used to. Please have them back by 5:30 on Sunday. They have never spent 3 consecutive nights with you and they are not ready to do so. The first time they ever spent two nights with you was 3 weeks ago when you withheld the kids from me on Saturday against my will, I did not agree to you keeping them the two nights and we never agreed to that schedule. So two days is already more than they are used to please return the kids Sunday the 15th at 5:30

4 Judge Pomrenze. Judge Pomrenze stated then made statements demonstrating bias.
5 Judge Pomrenze, after reviewing the Ponzio report, stated "I don't think it's an 6 alienation that Plaintiff has necessarily created. I do think its an alienation that 7 Defendant has somehow contributed to." Judge Pomrenze's statement goes entirely
8 against the findings of court appointed therapist Nicolas Ponzio. Judge Pomrenze's 9 statement of Defendant's alleged involvement in alienation lacks merit and any basis.
10 Judge Pomrenze's statement demonstrated that she prejudged the issue and 11 demonstrated actual bias toward Plaintiff.

14 19. Judge Pomrenze then placed Defendant on SCRAM monitoring, despite notice that 15 Defendant was unable to pay for said services. Judge Pomrenze based her decision on 16 Plaintiff's counsel's baseless assertion that Defendant's social media accounts prove 17 that Defendant is drinking. Defendant's counsel provided no evidence yet Judge
18 Pomrenze granted Plaintiff's request.

20 20. Judge Pomrenze stated Plaintiff's counsel, Mrs. Amanda Roberts, shall prepare the 21 Order.

22 21. On November 24, 2020 the parties had another return hearing regarding custody and 23 child support issues.

25 22. At the beginning of the hearing Judge Pomrenze finally acknowledged Defendant's 26 Counsel's motion to withdraw and Mr. Tillman was released from the case.

1 23. Plaintiff's attorney, Mrs. Amanda Roberts, then opened the hearing claiming that there
2 were numerous violations of the Court's Orders and numerous issues with visitation
3 between Defendant and the minor children. Notably, Mrs. Roberts claimed the minor 4 child, Brayden, refused to go to visitation and they had videos of his fits. However,
5 Plaintiff's Counsel produced no evidence.

7 24. Defendant was then sworn in and Judge Pomrenze began speaking. Defendant
8 attempted to answer Judge Pomrenze's questions, however, Judge Pomrenze quickly
9 cut off Defendant or angrily lashed out at Defendant claiming Defendant was deflecting.
10 Judge Pomrenze then accused Defendant of being a "bully" after Defendant inquired if 11 he had the fundamental right to be heard.
12

13 25. Judge Pomrenze then claimed Defendant was in violation of Court Orders, although no 14 Orders have ever been produced by Mrs. Amanda Roberts, and no Court Orders have 15 ever been filed or entered.

17 26. Defendant requested that Orders be filed so that Defendant was afforded his due 18 process rights. Judge Pomrenze then accused Defendant of "scorched earth" litigation, 19 thereby demonstrating actual bias. Judge Pomrenze turns a blind eye to Plaintiff's
20 numerous procedural and factual improprieties, however, willfully scolds Defendant 21 for requesting he be afforded due process as required by law.
22

23 27. Judge Pomrenze then decided to punish Defendant for violating non-enforceable orders 24 by reducing Defendant's meager visitation by nearly half, from Saturday 11am-6pm to 25 Saturday 12-4.
26

27 28. Pursuant to Blanco v. Blanco, 311 P.3d 1170 (Nev. 2013), 129 Nev. Adv. Op. 77, "a 28 court may not use a change of custody as a sword to punish parental misconduct, such

1 as a refusal to obey lawful court orders, because the child's best interest is paramount
2 in such custody decisions. Judge Pomrenze's actions constitute actions specifically 3 prohibited by established case law.

5 29. Judge Pomrenze then went further to violate Defendants rights by reducing all
6 previously ordered sums to judgement. However, no Orders have ever been prepared,
7 filed, or entered as required by Mrs. Amanda Roberts. Pursuant to State, Div. Child
8 Fam. Servs. V. Dist Ct., 120 Nev. 445 (Nev. 2004), 92 P.3d 1239, "dispositional court 9 orders that are not administrative in nature, but deal with the procedural posture or 10 merits of the underlying controversy, must be written, signed, and filed before they 11 become effective."

13 30. Judge Pomrenze violated multiple Cannons of Conduct as provided for in the Revised 14 Nevada Code of Judicial Conduct, including but not limited to: Cannon 1, Rule 1.2; 15 Cannon 2, Rule 2.2; Cannon 2, Rule 2.3(A); Cannon 2, Rule 2.5(A); and Cannon 2, 16 Rule 2.6(A).

28 AFFIDAVIT REGARDING GROUND FOR DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE - 6

1 31. Judge Pomrenze has demonstrated clear, actual bias from the beginning of this
2 litigation by failing to hold Plaintiff or Plaintiff's attorneys responsible for egregious
3 violations of NRCP made for the purpose of procedural posturing, by failing to allow 4 Defendant to be heard, by failing to acknowledge or give credit to court ordered expert
5 reports and opinions, by failing to uphold the law, by making statements in advocacy
6 of Plaintiff despite evidence to the opposite, by punishing Defendant and/or holding 7 Defendant in contempt for non-compliance with court orders which are not effective, 8 and by punishing Defendant by reducing Defendant's visitation in contradiction to 9 established case law.

Dept No.: P

13 vs.

14 BRADLEY BELLISARIO,
15 Defendant

NOTICE OF PLAINTIFF'S NON-COMPLIANCE WITH COURT ORDER

16 COMES NOW the Defendant, Bradley Bellisario, pro se, and hereby provides notice that 17 the Defendant failed to comply with the Court's Order from the hearing held November 24, 2020, 18 wherein she was Ordered to conduct a child custody exchange on November 28 at 3 p.m.

19 On Saturday, November 28, 2020 at 11:00 am Defendant called 311 to arrange a LVMPD
20 stand-by at Plaintiff's Residence to ensure the child exchange proceeded without any incident.
21 The 311 operator told Defendant it was not necessary to call so early, call back five (5) minutes
22 before the scheduled pickup. At 11:52 AM Defendant arrived at Starbucks near Plaintiff's
23 residence and called 311. The 311 took my information and dispatched two units. At 12:20 PM
24 LVMPD arrived at Starbuck with Defendant. LVMPD gathered information and called Plaintiff
25 to inform Plaintiff that they were ready to arrive at the residence and oversee the exchange.
26 Plaintiff and LVMPD spoke on the phone for several minutes. The LVMPD Officer hung up the

28 NOTICE OF PLAINTIFF'S NON-COMPLIANCE WITH COURT ORDER - 1

1 phone and informed me that Plaintiff refused to exchange the children. LVMPD left Starbucks at 2 12:53 PM. Around 1:03 PM Defendant received a phone call from Saira McKinley who stated
3 Plaintiff had now decided that she would exchange the children. At 1:04 PM Defendant once
4 again called 311 and requested a stand-by for the child exchange. The 311 operator dispatched a
5 unit to Starbucks near Plaintiff's house. At 2:15 PM the same LVMPD officer as the previous call 6 arrived at Starbucks. The Officer called Emily once again told Emily he was ready for the 7 exchange. Once again, the Officer hung up the phone and told Defendant that Plaintiff had 8 changed her mind again and refused the child custody exchange. The LVMPD Officer prepared
9 an information card for Defendant in reference to event number LLV201100120144. At 2:30 PM
10 the Officer left the scene.

13 Defendant contacted Counsel for Plaintiff on Monday to work out a time for makeup
14 visitation. Plaintiff's attorney's office attempted to manufacture multiple excuses why makeup
15 visitation wasn't able to proceed. Finally, visitation was confirmed for Tuesday 3:00 PM to 7:00
16 PM. On Tuesday at 3:00 PM Tom McKinley drove to Plaintiff's Residence to pick up the children.
17 Approximately twenty (20) minutes later, Tom picked up Defendant and stated that my son was 18 not in the vehicle. Plaintiff had yet again manipulated my son and caused emotional and 19 psychological damage to her own child.

21 On Wednesday, December 2, 2020 Defendant again contacted Plaintiff's Counsel's office
22 and requested make-up visitation with Brayden on Wednesday or Thursday. Plaintiff's Counsel's 23 office argued that visitation was not possible at this time because the TPO only accounted for 24 visitation on Saturdays. Counsel for Plaintiff also attempted to argue that Plaintiff was "protecting"
25 my son. However, as Dr. Nicolas Ponzo opined, Plaintiff's conduct is damaging to my son's
26 emotional and psychological development. Plaintiff's Counsel then sent a letter stating Plaintiff's 27

1 position is that I received my visitation. (See Letter from Amanda Roberts dated December 2, 2 2020 attached hereto). Plaintiff's delusion is unacceptable. Due to Plaintiff's refusal to conduct a 3 civil custody exchange, Defendant was forced to unnecessarily waste over three (3) hours of my 4 time waiting on Plaintiff to act in accordance with the Court's instruction. As to this date
5 Defendant has not received court ordered visitation with Defendant's minor son since the 6 November 24, 2020 hearing.

24 STATEMENT OF FACTS

25 Plaintiff and Defendant first met on November 7, 2013 and were married on August 16,
26 2014. Ever since the parties met Plaintiff has engaged in extreme mental abuse and manipulation
27 against Defendant. Most significantly, Plaintiff engaged in the mental abuse tactic commonly 28 referred to as gaslighting. The cyclical nature of the abuse and manipulation continued through the parties' separation and Plaintiff's filing of a Complaint for Divorce on March 5, 2020.
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS REQUESTED - 2

1 Although the parties are separated and divorcing, Plaintiff continues to gaslight Defendant
2 through litigation tactics, filing false statements and documents, and manipulating Defendant
3 through refusing/withholding child visitation. Plaintiff has also attempted to blackmail Defendant
4 by withholding visitation/custody on multiple occasions.

6 On March 9, 2020 Plaintiff filed Plaintiff's Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the 7 Minor Children; for Child Support & Health Insurance Coverage; for an Outsourced
8 Alcohol/Psychological Evaluation of the Defendant; to Confirm & Consolidate the Temporary 9 Protective Order; for Spousal Support; and for Plaintiff's Attorney's Fees and Costs Incurred
10 Herein. Plaintiff's Motion exemplified her gaslighting strategy as she made numerous false
11 claims, despite proof to the opposite. Furthermore, Plaintiff and her attorneys Boris Avramski
12 and Joseph Riccio intentionally violated Eighth Judicial District Court Rules by filing her Motion
13 before Defendant was even served with a Complaint, a clear violation of EDCR 5.501, and a clear
14 attempt to gain procedural advantage by filing first. Further, Plaintiff's undersigned Counsel, 15 Joseph Riccio claims to have served Plaintiff's Financial Disclosure Form by USPS mail on 16 March 9, 2020, however, since Defendant was not yet served the Complaint, service through 17 USPS was not allowable. Further, Defendant never received Plaintiff's Financial Disclosure 18 Form in the mail. Once service was accepted Plaintiff and her attorneys refused to send the 19 General Financial Form, and with good cause, it is a complete lie.

22
23 After several months of delay due to Covid-19, the Court finally held a hearing regarding 24 Plaintiff's Motion on July 30, 2020. During the hearing Judge Pomrenze made decisions 25 regarding, among other issues, alimony and visitation. Ms. Amanda Roberts was instructed to 26 prepare the Order, however, no Order has ever been prepared, signed, or filed. On October 6, 27 2020 Christopher Tillman filed a Motion to Withdraw as counsel for Defendant. The parties had
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 3

1 two more return hearings on October 22, 2020 and November 24, 2020. Ms. Amanda Roberts
2 was instructed to prepare the Order for both hearings. Ms. Roberts has never prepared an Order
3 for the October 22, 2020 hearing. On November 25, 2020 Defendant contacted Ms. Roberts'
4 office requesting when the proposed order would be prepared. (See Email to Amanda Roberts, 5 attached hereto as Exhibit A). Defendant received no response until November 30th when Ms.
6 Roberts' legal assistant sent a copy of an Order (See Order After Hearing, attached hereto as 7 Exhibit B), with no signature block for Defendant, claiming that the Order was submitted to the 8 Judge immediately after the hearing as instructed by the Judge (See 11-30 Email from Colleen 9 O'Brien, attached hereto as Exhibit C). However, this is a lie. Judge Pomrenze did not instruct 10 the Order to be submitted directly to her chambers without following court rules and passing to 11 the opposing party (See Minutes from 11-3-20, attached hereto as Exhibit D). Ms. Roberts
12 attempted to use this Order to once again violate Defendant's due process rights. The November 13 24th Order attempts to confirm previous court orders which have never been prepared or filed,
14 and attempts to reduce to judgment sums which has never been made enforceable by a written,
15 signed, and filed Order.

18
19 Plaintiff and her Counsel have used abusive litigation practices to continuous prejudice 20 Defendant. Judge Pomrenze's bias has allowed Plaintiff to continue this conduct. Plaintiff and 21 her Counsel are not above the law and must be sanctioned to deter future violations and stop the 22 undue prejudice to Defendant.
23

24 II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

25 The refusal to obey a lawful order issued by the court is an act of contempt. NRS
26 22.010(3). Likewise, abusing the process or proceedings of the courts or falsely pretending to act
27
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 4

1 under the authority of an order or process of the court is an act of contempt. NRS 22.010(7). The 2 facts of contempt must be presented to the court through an affidavit. NRS 22.030(2). A person
3 found guilty of contempt may be fined up to $500 for each act of contempt, may be imprisoned
4 for up to 25 days, or both. A person found guilty of contempt may also be required to pay the 5 reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, of the person seeking to enforce the order. NRS
6 22.100.

9 Additionally, the district court has "inherent power to protect the dignity and decency of 10 its proceedings and to enforce its decrees, and thus it may issue contempt orders and sanction or 11 dismiss an action for litigation abuse." Halverson v. Hardcastle, 123 Nev. 245, 261, 163 P.3d 12 428, 440 (2007).
13

14 1. Plaintiff and/or Plaintiff's Counsel Should be Held in Contempt for Intentionally
15 Failing to Prepare Court Orders as Directed.

16 Plaintiff and/or Plaintiff's Counsel may be held in contempt for acts constituting contempt
17 listed by NRS 22. "Once a trial, motion, or other proceeding is completed, the court may request 18 additional information or documentation, draft a dispositional order, or render a decision and 19 designate a party to prepare the necessary documents for the court's review and signature. In the 20 absence of any specific direction, the moving party (or plaintiff, for final dispositions) should 21 draft the documents." EDCR 5.521(a). "The court may issue an order to show cause for failure 22 of a party to prepare and submit the necessary documents as directed within the time allotted by 23 the court." "Notwithstanding the directives of any local rule...[t]he party obtaining an order, 24 judgment, or decree shall have 7 days to prepare it and request the countersignature of the 25 opposing party as to its form and content." EDCR 5.522(a)(1).

IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 5

1 In this matter, Plaintiff's Counsel, Amanda Roberts, and Plaintiff's Previous Counsel,
2 Boris Avramski and Joseph Riccio, have exhibited a course of conduct that violates court rules,
3 violates rules of ethics, violates Defendant's rights, and is specifically designed to prejudice
4 Defendant.

6 As previously stated, Boris Avramski and Joseph Riccio have colluded with Plaintiff to 7 circumvent court rules in an attempt to gain strategic advantage in litigation. Further, Boris
8 Avramski and Joseph Riccio advised Plaintiff to file a Motion for Contempt for Violation of TPO
9 regarding a TPO that Plaintiff already dissolved (See Motion For An Order to Show Cause
10 Regarding Contempt, Attached hereto as Exhibit E). This is however, despite Emily and her 11 attorneys knowing the TPO was dissolved in open court on January 7, 2020 (See Texts from 12 Plaintiff to Jean Bellisario on January 13, 2020, attached hereto as Exhibit F). Emily has since 13 been sued for, among other claims, abuse of process (See Complaint, attached hereto as Exhibit
14 G). Plaintiff is in Default regarding that Complaint (See Default, attached hereto as Exhibit
15 H). Despite their unethical approach and willingness to violate the law for Plaintiff, Marathon Law
16 Group was terminated when, upon information and belief, they advised Plaintiff that this matter
17 would result in joint custody. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was then referred to Roberts
18 Stoffel Law Group by Donna Wilburn with the primary objective of achieving primary custody 19 by any means necessary.

21 Counsel for Plaintiff, Amanda Roberts, Esq., has lived up to that objective. From the 22 beginning of her representation of Plaintiff Ms. Roberts has been unethical and in violation of 23 court rules. Amanda Roberts filed a Substitution of Attorney on May 5, 2020. On June 10, 2020
24 Amanda Roberts filed a Stipulation and Order regarding interim orders until the parties had an 25 initial court hearing. (See Stipulation and Order, attached hereto as exhibit I). Ms. Roberts and
26 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
27 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 6
28

1 Roberts Stoffel Law Group have been sued regarding fraudulent inducement relating to the 2 Stipulation and Order (See Complaint, attached hereto as Exhibit J).

3       On July 30, 2020 the parties attended the initial hearing in this matter regarding the Case
4 Management Conference and Plaintiff's Motion. At the end of the hearing Judge Pomrenze
5 instructed Counsel for Plaintiff, Amanda Roberts, to prepare the Order (See Video of July 30, 6 2020 Hearing at 20:01). To this date, NO order regarding this hearing has been prepared by 7 Amanda Roberts. On October 22, 2020 the parties returned for a return hearing regarding 8 Donna's House Visitation. Once again, at the end of the hearing Judge Pomrenze instructed 9 Counsel for Plaintiff to prepare an Order (See Video of October 22, 2020 Hearing 2 of 2 at 6:30).
10 To this date, NO order regarding this hearing has been prepared by Amanda Roberts. On 11 November 24, 2020 the parties returned for a hearing regarding financial issues. Once again, at 12 the end of the hearing Judge Pomrenze instructed Counsel for Plaintiff to prepare an Order. On 13 November 24, 2020 Defendant emailed Counsel for Plaintiff asking when the Proposed Order
14 would be ready (See Email from Colleen O'Brien, attached hereto as Exhibit A). Defendant 15 received no response until November 30, 2020 when Colleen O'Brien (Legal Assistant to Amanda 16 M. Roberts, Esq.) sent Defendant an email stating "Good morning. Pursuant to the Judge's Order, 17 it was submitted to the Court [the] day of the hearing. I have attached a copy for your records."
18 (See Email from Colleen Obrien, Attached hereto as Exhibit C). Ms. O'Brien then attached a 19 copy of the Order After Hearing which was never sent to Defendant for review and signature.
20 The proposed order contains a final line stating, "THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Ms.
21 Roberts shall prepare the Order and submit it to the Court." (See Order After Hearing, Attached
22 hereto as Exhibit B). However, this is once again a blatant lie by Ms. Roberts and an intentional
23 attempt by Ms. Roberts to circumvent Court Rules and prejudice Defendant. Judge Pomrenze
24 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
25 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 7

1 NEVER stated that Ms. Roberts should immediately present the Order to the Court without
2 adhering to EDCR 5.521 and EDCR 5.52. Specifically, the Court states, "Ms. Roberts, please
3 prepare the Order from today." (See Video of November 24, 2020 hearing at 26:45).

4 Ms. Roberts intentionally misrepresented the Court's instructions in an attempt to 5 prejudice Defendant yet again. The proposed order from November 24, 2020 contains multiple 6 orders regarding issues that were supposedly ordered in previous hearings. Specifically, the 7 proposed order addresses orders from previous hearings regarding disclosure of financial 8 documents, child support, spousal support, SCRAM monitoring, and visitation. All of the 9 proposed orders were based on previous orders from prior hearings, however, Plaintiff's Counsel
10 has NEVER PREPARED AN ORDER regarding those hearings, although she was instructed to 11 by Judge Pomrenze. Ms. Roberts knows this, however, she is attempting to legitimize those 12 previous orders by sneaking the proposed order passed Defendant.
13

14 Defendant has been greatly prejudiced by Ms. Roberts deceitful, manipulative tactics.
15 Failure to prepare and file previous orders as ordered by Judge Pomrenze has deprived Defendant 16 his due process rights regarding the substantive issues of the previous hearings. Defendant has 17 had no means to apply for post-hearing relief as all avenues require the filing of an Order,
18 otherwise the issues are premature. Further, Ms. Roberts' intentional failing of preparing orders
19 benefits Plaintiff as Defendant cannot request contempt of Court unless there is an enforceable 20 court order. "Dispositional court orders that are not administrative in nature, but deal with the 21 procedural posture or merits of the underlying controversy, must be written, signed., and filed 22 before they become effective. State, Div. Child Fam. Servs. V. Dist. Ct., 120 Nev. 445 (Nev.
23 2004), 92 P.3d 1239. Without an Order Plaintiff has continued to withhold visitation, practice
24 pathogenic parenting, and create an ongoing list of new rules Plaintiff is forced to follow in order

1 to see the minor children. Additionally, Defendant has had no means to challenge Ms. Roberts
2 baseless accusations that led to Defendant wearing a SCRAM bracelet, costing Defendant
3 significant expense and freedom.

4 Ms. Roberts is not a novice attorney. She is fully aware of the rules of the court and has 5 intentionally refused to follow the rules of the court to benefit her client and prejudice Defendant.
6 Plaintiff and Counsel for Plaintiff must be sanctioned harshly to prevent future actions of the same
7 nature and other further misconduct in this matter. Ms. Roberts' actions have not simply cost
8 Defendant money, but her actions have significantly increased the cost of litigation, have 9 significantly multiplied extent of litigation, have allowed Plaintiff to continue to mentally abuse
10 the parties' minor son, and have cost Defendant significant visitation time to be refused by 11 Plaintiff.

14 2. Plaintiff Should be Held in Contempt for Intentionally Violating the Stipulation
15 and Order Entered June 10, 2020.

16 Since late September 2019 Emily has embarked on a despicable course of action to secure 17 an advantageous child therapist report for purposes of litigation. On or around the beginning of 18 October 2019 Emily took the parties' minor son to FirstMed for a therapist evaluation. Plaintiff 19 took the parties' minor son to FirstMed on one occasion, however, after assessment, it was 20 determined that "no services were needed," according to Bethany Andis of Child Protective 21 Services. (See Texts from Bethany Andis, attached hereto as Exhibit K).

22 Plaintiff then waited several months before claiming that the parties' minor son needed
23 services again. Plaintiff, without notice to Defendant or CPS (who had legal custody of the child 24 at the time), took Brayden to All About You Counseling on or around January 6, 2020. Defendant
25 found out about the visit to All About You Counseling, despite Plaintiff refusing to tell Defendant 26

28 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 9

1 if, and to where, Plaintiff took their minor son for "treatment." Eventually, Defendant found the 2 therapist and requested records. The All About You Counseling assessment was full of "mom
3 reports" regarding much of the information. The therapist specifically stated they needed to 4 contact Defendant to get information before proceeding with services, however, Defendant was 5 never contacted.

7 Months later, Plaintiff then took the parties' minor son to Donna Wilburn, claiming that 8 Brayden had anxiety and needed therapist treatment. Plaintiff only informed Defendant of the 9 therapist visit the day of the appointment, even giving Defendant an incorrect time to ensure 10 Defendant would not be at the appointment. However, Plaintiff did ensure to inform Defendant
11 that he needed to pay for the services. Defendant rushed to the appointment to meet the therapist 12 and made it in time for the last several minutes. Defendant was introduced to the therapist and 13 Ms. Wilburn set up a follow-up appointment for Defendant to give information and explain
14 services. Defendant attended that session and a follow-up session with Defendant and Defendants'
15 minor son. However, two (2) weeks after, and approximately one (1) hour after Plaintiff met with 16 Donna Wilburn, Donna sent an email to the parties stating that the parties should abide by certain 17 recommendations. Included in said recommendations was a custody recommendation which 18 Plaintiff and Donna Wilburn discussed during their final session with the parties' minor son.
19 Defendant terminated Donna Wilburn's services as she was acting as an advocate for Plaintiff, 20 not a child therapist, and she had exceeded her scope of employment. Defendant requested 21 records and videos from Ms. Wilburn who made numerous excuses for failing to disclose any 22 information. Upon information and belief, Ms. Wilburn then referred Plaintiff to her current 23 attorney, Ms. Amanda Roberts. Ms. Roberts, her husband Jason Stoffel, and Ms. Wilburn are 24 friends and maintain an inappropriate referral relationship. Ms. Wilburn was ultimately sued by
25 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
26 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS
27 HEARING REQUESTED - 10
28

1 Defendant for malpractice, among other causes of action. (See Complaint, attached hereto as 2 Exhibit L).

3 After Ms. Wilburn was terminated on February 25, 2020 Plaintiff did not seek immediate 4 therapy care for the parties' minor son. However, Plaintiff did state on April 19, 2020 that "the 5 therapist is actually in the process of writing her assessment you will see everything once my 6 attorney responds." (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as exhibit M). Plaintiff
7 was referencing Donna Wilburn as Ms. Wilburn would not release the medical records and was 8 apparently attempting to write an expert report which would have been entirely inappropriate.
9 Several days later on April 24, 2020 Plaintiff contacted Defendant regarding a new therapist for 10 the parties' minor son. Plaintiff stated;

13 "[t]hese are the two therapist that have gotten back to me, Cindy 14 Osborn & Anna Trujillo they have availability as early as this 15 Monday the 26th. Please let me know which of these you agree to 16 let Brayden to be seen by. I'd like to have him start going asap."
17 (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as Exhibit M)

18 Defendant replied;

19 "I will not accept either. We should both research a therapist then 20 email only communication to them with both attached when we've 21 agreed on one. Both of us need to be included with every 22 communication. And that needs to be spelled out with the therapist.
23 I will not have a repeat of Donna. You have been shopping Brayden 24 around trying to get the result you want. We need someone that has 25 not had an ex-parte communication with either of us." (See Our 26 Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as Exhibit M)

27 Plaintiff continued to talk about a therapist for the parties' minor son and specifically 28 stated that she would simply ask the Judge to appoint a therapist. On April 26, 2020 Plaintiff sent 29 Defendant a message on Our Family Wizard stating, "I have never spoken to Anna Trujillo can 30 you give me a reason why you are opposed to her?" (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached

31 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD

1 hereto as Exhibit N). Defendant replied “[y]our message you sent me said here’s two names of 2 people that have gotten back to me. I’m not sending Brayden to anyone you’ve had prior contact
3 with. Next.” (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as Exhibit N). Upon information
4 and belief, Plaintiff already had an appointment scheduled with Anna Trujillo as Plaintiff took 5 Brayden for “treatment” with Anna Trujillo on April 27, 2020 with knowledge that Defendant
6 objected to the choice of therapist. On May 22, 2020 without prior notice to Defendant, Plaintiff
7 states that “Brayden has been seen by the therapist, and we have had a discussion with the 8 therapist regarding you having overnights.” (See Our Family Wizard Messages, attached hereto 9 as Exhibit O).
10

12 On June 10, 2020 Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel finalized negotiations with Defendant 13 and Defendant’s Counsel regarding a stipulation and order addressing various issues. Among 14 those issues was the hot topic of a child therapist. The Stipulation and Order specifically states 15 that “THE PARTIES STIPULATE AND AGREE that Brayden shall be enrolled in therapy with 16 a neutral therapist, and it must be someone other than Donna Wilburn.” (See Stipulation and 17 Order, attached hereto as Exhibit I).
18

19 After June 10, 2020 Defendant did not hear another peep from Plaintiff regarding a child
20 therapist other than Nicolas Ponzo, who the parties agreed to for reunification therapy. It wasn’t 21 until October 22, 2020 at the parties’ return hearing that Defendant was informed of the non-22 neutral therapist treatment when Ms. Roberts stated the therapist, who was secretly “treating”
23 Brayden, attempted to contact Dr. Ponzo in an attempt to influence him.
24

25 Defendant then contacted Anna Trujillo regarding a copy of records. Ms. Trujillo
26 attempted to dodge the request, but ultimately gave Defendant medical records, partial billing, 27 and partial intake records. To Defendant’s surprise, Plaintiff had the parties’ minor son “treating”
28
MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 12

1 with Anna Trujillo since April 27, 2020 despite Defendant's adamant stance that Ms. Trujillo was 2 not an appropriate or neutral therapist. Ms. Trujillo's employment was especially surprising to 3 Defendant as Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel had represented from April 27, 2020, through the 4 negotiations regarding the June 10, 2020 stipulation and order, that Brayden was not treating with 5 a therapist. Incredibly, it gets better! Not only did Plaintiff take Brayden to Anna Trujillo for 6 initial assessment the day after Defendant specifically rejected Ms. Trujillo as a therapist, Plaintiff
7 lied on the informed consent form Plaintiff filled out for Ms. Trujillo's services. On the informed 8 consent form Plaintiff replied "Yes" to the question "Do both parents provide consent for 9 treatment?" Clearly Plaintiff knew Defendant did not consent to "treatment" as Defendant had 10 vehemently denied Ms. Trujillo as a service provider less than 24 hours prior.

13 Plaintiff's actions violating the June 10, 2020 Stipulation and Order are gross and 14 disgusting acts. Plaintiff secretly had Brayden "treating" with Ms. Trujillo solely for purposes of 15 litigation, as demonstrated by Ms. Roberts' insistence during hearing that it was unbelievable that 16 Dr. Ponzo would not take Ms. Trujillo's calls (See Video of October 22, 2020 hearing at 5:20).
17 However, thankfully, Dr. Ponzo is a truly independent party to this matter and maintained 18 professional integrity. Although Dr. Ponzo maintained independence, Defendant was still 19 damaged and prejudiced. Defendant was denied access to vital discovery until after October 22, 20 2020 and Defendant was forced to sue Ms. Trujillo for damages done to Defendant and the parties' 21 minor child.

24 As Such, Plaintiff should be held in contempt for willfully violating the Stipulation and 25 Order filed June 10, 2020.

26 3. Plaintiff Should be Sanctioned for Filing of Inaccurate Financial Disclosure 27 Form Containing Falsified Evidence.

IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS REQUESTED - 13

1 Plaintiff willfully mislead this Honorable Court and perpetrated a fraud upon this 2 Honorable Court by failing to disclose assets and by presenting fraudulent evidence of 3 employment. "The court may construe any motion, opposition, or countermotion not supported
4 by a timely, complete, and accurate financial disclosure as admitting that the positions asserted 5 are not meritorious and cause for entry of orders adverse to those position, and as a basis for 6 imposing sanctions." EDCR 5.507(g) (emphasis added).

8 On March 9, 2020 Plaintiff, Emily Bellisario, by and through her attorneys, Boris
9 Avramski and Joseph Riccio, filed a General Financial Disclosure Form (See Plaintiff's General
10 Financial Disclosure Form, attached hereto as Exhibit P). Plaintiff's disclosure form is a blatant 11 attempt to hide assets, to under report income, and to deceive and manipulate this Honorable 12 Court. Among numerous blatant lies, Plaintiff claims to be employed (even filing falsified 13 paystubs), claims to pay car loan/lease payments and auto insurance, fails to report multiple 14 assets/bank/investment accounts, and claims underreported property value.
15

17 i. Plaintiff is NOT Employed, However, She Receives Significant Income.

18 Plaintiff has never been employed throughout the duration of the parties' marriage. Prior 19 to the marriage Plaintiff was part-time employed as the owner of Lili Boutique, a clothing and 20 accessories boutique she owned. While Plaintiff was pregnant, and prior to marriage, Plaintiff
21 closed the business and was unemployed. The parties' first child was born on January 15, 2015
22 and Plaintiff has been a stay-at-home mom ever since.
23

24 However, Plaintiff miraculously claims on page one (1) of eight (8) that she has been 25 employed by her Father's company, Allied Flooring, since 2015. Plaintiff even goes so far as to 26 list a work schedule of 2:00 pm to 7:00 pm on Mondays & Fridays. This would lead any 27 reasonable person to conclude that Plaintiff claims to work ten (10) hours per week, not the thirty
28 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 14

1 (30) hours per week reported on her paystub (See Plaintiff's General Financial Disclosure Form,
2 attached hereto as Exhibit P). Plaintiff even failed to get the name correct for her supposed
3 employer. Under information and belief, Plaintiff is unaware that Allied Flooring changed their 4 name to AAA Flooring Inc. in 2016 when Emily's Father was attempting to open a competing
5 business to Allied Flooring, to coerce his now ex-wife, Emily's Mother, into a favorable
6 settlement. Plaintiff, however, listed the name of her employer as "Alied Flooring." (See 7 Plaintiff's General Financial Disclosure Form, attached hereto as Exhibit P).

9 Plaintiff is merely on the AAA Flooring payroll for insurance purposes only. Plaintiff 10 herself can't seem to keep straight if she is employed or not. On multiple occasions Plaintiff has 11 made statements that directly contradict her claim that she's employed.
12

13 Going as far back as March 29, 2016 Plaintiff herself exclaims her appreciation for being 14 able to stay home with the parties' first child. Plaintiff posted on Facebook; "Can't imagine
15 loving him anymore, I'm so lucky I get to spend all day everyday with this little handsome stud
16 muffin. Thank you Brad Bellisario for making that possible for me. :)" (See Plaintiff's Facebook 17 post from March 29, 2016, attached hereto as Exhibit Q).
18

19 Plaintiff also seems to be confused through information that she provided to CPS case 20 worker Bethany Andis and medical professionals. When Bethany Andis was involved in the 21 parties' case, Ms. Andis informed Plaintiff she should get a job. Plaintiff claimed to be starting 22 work for her friend "Diego" at his baking company. Plaintiff claimed to travel to California for 23 five (5) days to train for this job (Plaintiff did so without notice to Defendant thereby robbing 24 Defendant of custodial time with the children. Plaintiff left the children with a babysitter instead.),
25 and subsequently changed the trip to seven (7) days. However, Plaintiff does not seem to have 26 worked at this job any longer than needed to please Ms. Andis. Plaintiff also confuses her claim 27
28 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD

1 of having a job with Donna Wilburn and Anna Trujillo. On video, Plaintiff states that she wishes
2 that she had a job. Plaintiff then claimed that she is working for her Dad's company and that she 3 "just started." Further, she stated that she works Mondays and Fridays, not consistent with her
4 General Financial Disclosure Form. Plaintiff, according to Ms. Trujillo's records, reported that 5 she was a receptionist at a local contractor.

7 On March 9, 2020, the same day Plaintiff filed her initial motion, Defendant stated that 8 being a stay-at-home job isn't a job when you're divorced, and that Plaintiff should find a job.
9 Plaintiff responded "[i]t's crazy to hear you say that stay home mom isn't a job! It's a full-time
10 job and one of the most important." (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as Exhibit 11 R). Plaintiff then went on to manipulate and blackmail Defendant, attempting to withhold 12 visitation until Defendant signed paperwork until Defendant signed over primary custody to 13 Plaintiff; "[m]y attorney is sending you over that draft please sign it an once it's signed your mom 14 can get the kids!" (See Our Family Wizard messages, attached hereto as Exhibit R).
15

16 Additionally, Plaintiff's Father, Javier Cardona, Owner of AAA Flooring Inc. (previously 17 Allied Flooring), acknowledges that Plaintiff's paystubs are fraudulent. On June 11, 2020
18 Defendant contacted Javier Cardona via email stating that Javier's business should give Emily a 19 raise as her claimed wages of $7.25 per hour are minimum wage. "$7.25 an hour after 5 years.
20 Give that girl a raise. NRS 199.210." (See Email from Defendant to Javier Cardona, attached 21 hereto as Exhibit S). Defendant included reference to NRS 199.210, Nevada's law against 22 offering false evidence. Plaintiff's Father replied back on June 11, 2020; "Since you brought this 23 up my office stopped Emily's paycheck and her and the children health insurance..." (See Email 24 from Javier Cardona to Defendant, attached hereto as Exhibit S). Mr. Cardona did not state that 25 Emily stopped working, he stated that his company stopped her paycheck, because I had
26 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD 27 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS
28 HEARING REQUESTED - 16

1 referenced the illegality of providing false evidence yet again. Plaintiff's own Father's statement
2 demonstrates that Plaintiff is not employed by AAA Flooring Inc., Allied Flooring, or for anyone 3 else for that matter.

4       The paystubs attached to Plaintiff's General Financial Disclosure Forms are false evidence.
5 NRS 199.210 states that "a person who, upon any trial, hearing, inquiry, investigation, or other
6 proceeding authorized by law, offers or procures to be offered in evidence, as genuine, any book,
7 paper, document, record or other instrument in writing, knowing the same to have been forged or 8 fraudulently altered, is guilty of a Category D Felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS
9 193.130." The Nevada Revised Statutes state that the word forged includes "false making,
10 'counterfeiting' and the alteration, erasure or obliteration of a genuine instrument in whole or in 11 part, the false making or counterfeiting of the signature of a party or witness, real or fictitious, 12 and the placing or connecting together with intent to defraud, of different parts or the whole of 13 several genuine instruments." NRS 205.085. Additionally, the making of "any false entry in any 14 public record or account" constitutes forgery. NRS 205.095. Not only is Emily's General
15 Financial Disclosure Form inaccurate as she is not employed, Plaintiff offered false evidence 16 which may constitute a crime.

17       Additionally, upon information and belief, Plaintiff failed to report income she receives 18 from her cash business operating as an escort. From the time the parties' met until after the parties'
19 were married, Plaintiff claimed that she would go "gambling" on the strip. However, Plaintiff's 20 definition of "gambling" included mulling around casino bars and table games with the intent to 21 meet wealthy, older gentlemen. Or she would claim that she had "friends" in town, but Defendant
22 found it odd that all of Plaintiff's "friends" were older, wealthy men in their 40's and 50's.
23 Defendant became especially concerned regarding Plaintiff's activities after finding a purse full
24 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
25 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 17

1 of condoms and keycards with men's names printed on them from high-end hotels, specifically 2 Wynn and Encore Tower Suites. Additionally, Defendant became suspicious of Plaintiff as 3 Plaintiff would immediately shower when she came home from "gambling" and would receive 4 numerous texts from numbers that were not saved in her phone the day after. When confronted,
5 Plaintiff claimed these texts were from friends, however, a reasonable person would expect that 6 if they were friends they would be saved in her phone. Defendant also saw emails from a
7 gentleman using email handle eagleneva@hotmail.com who met Plaintiff on at least two (2)
8 occasions at the M resort and Casino and the Venetian. The emails indicated that Plaintiff got 9 rooms for the two and was compensated for her time.
10

12 It wasn't until September of 2017 that Defendant decided to confirm his suspicions. On 13 or around September 17, 2017, while sitting on the couch with Plaintiff, Defendant noticed 14 Plaintiff texting with an unsaved number, with the initial text stating that the unknown person
15 was flying into Las Vegas and stated, "let me know if you want some work." Defendant 16 memorized the phone number and began texting the number the next day. The gentleman on the 17 other end quickly confirmed that he was texting for sex stating "who are we fooling here. I want 18 you between the sheets." (See Texts between Defendant and Derek White, attached hereto as 19 Exhibit T, pg. 3 of 31). He then furthers Defendant's confirmation of Plaintiff's actions inquiring
20 if Plaintiff was working for an agency; "Haha, I don't gamble. Are you staying with me or blow 21 and go?" (Texts between Defendant and Derek White, attached hereto as Exhibit T, pg. 9 of 31).
22
23 "No agency bullshit tonight?" (See Texts between Defendant and Derek White, attached hereto
24 as Exhibit T, pg. 13 of 31). He then offered money in exchange by sending a picture of hundred-25 dollar bills and stating, "That's $1,000.000 in the pic." (Texts between Defendant and Derek 26 White, attached hereto as Exhibit T, pg. 17 of 31). Defendant then set up a time to meet and met 27
28 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD

1 the gentleman in person. After meeting, Defendant asked the man how he met Emily. He stated;
2 "I think her and her friend Barbara would show up at events at hotel pools. Kind of like Bud
3 Light Girls." (Texts between Defendant and Derek White, attached hereto as Exhibit T, pg. 29
4 of 31). Defendant then stated "Gotcha. But she definitely proposed a pay for play arrangement
5 right," "and was Barbara doing this stuff too?" (Texts between Defendant and Derek White,
6 attached hereto as Exhibit T, pg. 29 of 31). To which he responded, "I think it was pretty obvious
7 they were working in that fashion." (Texts between Defendant and Derek White, attached hereto
8 as Exhibit T, pg. 30 of 31).

10 Over time Defendant found various other warning signs, however Plaintiff denied all 11 allegations and made repeated implausible excuses. Defendant also spoke with another individual 12 Steven Relyea who confirmed Defendant's suspicions. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff 13 now has a full-time live in illegal immigrant housekeeper, Betty, who lives in the marital 14 residence (Brayden no longer has a room as Betty has taken his room). Upon information and 15 belief Betty sleeps at the marital residence allowing Plaintiff to leave at night. Defendant is 16 concerned that Plaintiff has begun "gambling" again exposing the children to an unsavory
17 environment. Further Plaintiff has failed to report income from her cash business on her General 18 Financial Disclosure Form.

21 Plaintiff's intentional misrepresentations to the court are inexcusable. Plaintiff
22 intentionally filed false documents in an attempt to support her false claims that she is employed.
23 Plaintiff did so in an attempt to deceive and manipulate the Court into believing she had low 24 income and no assets. However, this is a blatant lie and Plaintiff must be sanctioned to prevent 25 similar future behavior, and to redress prejudice and actual harm Defendant has suffered as a 26 result of Plaintiff's intentional misrepresentations.

IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 19

1           ii.     Plaintiff did NOT pay Auto Lease Payments or Insurance Payments

2           Plaintiff, on page four (4) of eight (8) of her General Financial Disclosure Form, claims
3 to pay $420.00 for an auto lease and an additional $200.00 for auto insurance. Plaintiff, once
4 again, has blatantly lied to this Honorable Court.

6           On June 12, 2018 Defendant leased a 2018 Ford Explorer XLT from Team Ford LLC
7 located at 5445 Drexel Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89130. Defendant began making monthly payments
8 of approximately $413 on June 12, 2018 and has made every payment on the vehicle ever since
9 it was leased. Likewise, Defendant has made every insurance payment on the Ford Explorer XLT
10 from the time it was leased. Defendant pays approximately $245.00 per month to Geico for 11 insurance. Plaintiff had an insurance policy in her name when she had a leased BMW 3 series, 12 however, after the lease was returned (prior to Defendant leasing the Ford Explorer) she 13 deactivated the policy. Upon information and belief Plaintiff has no insurance policy other than 14 that provided by Defendant.
15

16           Due to Plaintiff's willful misrepresentation of expenses and inaccurate Financial 17 Disclosure Form, this Honorable Court has a basis for imposing sanctions. Defendant requests 18 that Plaintiff be required to transfer the lease into her name (Defendant has provided the 19 paperwork to Plaintiff several times, however Plaintiff refuses) and pay for all associated 20 expenses of the auto lease and insurance obligations as she claims to already pay said expenses.
21 Defendant would love if Plaintiff's Counsel could provide evidence of a single payment made by 22 Plaintiff for the Ford Explorer lease or Geico Insurance policy associated with that vehicle.
23 Plaintiff, however, will be unable to do so, and if she does, I would gladly once again refer the 24 court to NRS 199.210.
27

IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 20

1 Plaintiff's assertions that she pays auto lease and insurance payments are false. Yet again
2 a blatant lie produced by Plaintiff in an attempt to deceive and manipulate the court. Plaintiff
3 should be sanctioned to punish her intentional misrepresentations.

5 iii. Plaintiff Willfully Failed to Disclose Multiple Assets/Income

6 Plaintiff is required to list all assets on page six (6) of eight (8) of her General Financial 7 Disclosure Form. Plaintiff lists a total of three (3) assets; 193 Sondrio – Real Estate (in her name
8 only), Wells Fargo Checking (in both party's names), and Wells Fargo Savings (in both party's 9 names). The Wells Fargo accounts are joint accounts both parties have access to.

11 Plaintiff failed to list multiple accounts on her General Financial Disclosure Form.
12 Defendant, throughout years of marriage, has become aware of Plaintiff's assets. Those assets
13 include, but are not limited to, Bank of Nevada accounts, Bank of America accounts, an account
14 with First Allied FBO, and ownership interests in business income derived from The Mayday
15 Corporation (Emily is Secretary and Treasurer). (See Nevada Secretary of State Business 16 Information, attached hereto as Exhibit AA).

18 Additionally, Plaintiff receives regular income from her stake of the Lease of the premises
19 located at 1605 W. Brooks Ave., N Las Vegas, NV 89032. As a wedding gift to the parties',
20 Plaintiff's Father, Javier Cardona, cut Plaintiff into a new business venture, to wit, GREENMART
21 OF NEVADA, LLC. Plaintiff was given a 5.0% ownership stake of the company. (See Operating 22 Agreement of Greenmart of Nevada NLV, LLC, attached hereto as Exhibit T). Over the next 23 year, Javier Cardona and the other investors had their differences, and the deal was re-worked.
24 Instead of contributing property as part of GREENMART OF NEVADA, LLC, Javier decided to 25 simply lease the building to GREENMART OF NEVADA, LLC. On or around August 2015,
26 Javier Cardona and Emily Cardona signed a Lease Agreement and associated Joinder and Consent
27 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
28 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 21

1 of Related Parties, transferring their interest back to GREENMART OF NEVADA, LLC. (See
2 Lease Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit U). However, Plaintiff did not give up her 5% share
3 without consideration. As a result of the new business arrangement, Javier Cardona paid Plaintiff
4 20% (representing the same 1/5th share of Javier's stake in Greenmart) of lease revenue on a
5 monthly basis. Upon information and belief, Javier Cardona directly transferred this money to 6 Plaintiff's Bank of Nevada Bank Account (Her previous account, not the new Bank of Nevada
7 Account Ms. Roberts advised her client to open to attempt and hide the previous account). This 8 transfer is evidenced by Plaintiff's text to Defendant on September 8, 2017 stating "I wonder why
9 he is giving cash that's so weird maybe Jimena is hassling him even more for helping me out.
10 Stupid Whore." (See Texts between Plaintiff and Defendant, attached hereto as Exhibit V).
11 Plaintiff was referencing Javier's new wife who Plaintiff detests for no reason except she took a 12 portion of Javier's Will previously allocated to Plaintiff, even referring to Jimena as a "fake bitch," 13 "fake [prostitute] and bastard child," and "fucking bastard and prostitute." (See Texts between 14 Plaintiff and Defendant, attached hereto as Exhibit W).

17 The most obvious evidence of Plaintiff's deceit once again comes from Plaintiff's
18 inaccurate General Financial Disclosure Form. Plaintiff attached three (3) of her most recent pay 19 stubs she claims are from employment at AAA Flooring Inc, a business owned by her Father.
20 Taking a closer look at the paystubs you can find the statement "[y]our entire Net pay of $181.56 21 has been deposited in your bank account(s)." (See Paystubs attached to Plaintiff's Financial 22 Disclosure Form, Attached hereto as Exhibit P). However, there are ZERO deposits to the joint 23 Wells Fargo checking or savings accounts in the amount of $181.56 during the paystub periods.
24 (See Wells Fargo Personal Account Statements, attached hereto as Exhibit X). Further, there are 25 ZERO deposits in the joint Wells Fargo checking or savings accounts in any amount from AAA
26
IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 22

1 Flooring Inc. This could only lead any rational person to one of two conclusions. Either (1)
2 Plaintiff never had a direct deposit from AAA Flooring Inc., or (2) Plaintiff failed to disclose a
3 bank account to which she receives a direct deposit. In either situation, Plaintiff knowingly lied
4 under penalty of perjury in order to deceive Defendant and this Honorable Court.

6 Additionally, upon information and belief, Plaintiff is hiding assets by and through the 7 help of investment companies and her Father. On or around May 2020, Defendant received a 8 phone call from 702-255-4000. Defendant answered the call and the person on the other end of 9 the call requested to speak with Emily. I stated that I was Bradley, Emily's husband and the 10 person on the other end of the line immediately became flustered, stated she had the wrong person, 11 and immediately terminated the call. After the call Defendant searched the phone number online.
12 The number is listed to Johnson Martin Advisors, a financial portfolio management company
13 handling assets for high-net-worth individuals in Las Vegas, NV. (See Business Listing, attached 14 hereto as Exhibit Y).
15

16 Plaintiff's willful misrepresentation, deceit, and manipulation of this Honorable Court is 17 inexcusable. Plaintiff's misrepresentations have prejudiced Defendant in that Judge Pomrenze
18 for some reason believed Plaintiff's representations and made findings regarding financial issues
19 adverse to Defendant. As such, Plaintiff should be sanctioned appropriately.
20

21 iv. Plaintiff Willfully Under Reported the Value of the Marital Residence

22 On March 28, 2012 the Clark County Recorder's office recorded a Deed memorializing
23 the sale of parcel # 137-24-717-031, commonly referred to as 1913 Sondrio Drive, Las Vegas,
24 NV 89134. The Deed establishes that Emily Bellisario purchased the property for a total sale 25 price of $195,100.00. Plaintiff and Defendant were married on August 16, 2014. At the time of 26 marriage Defendant was already paying the mortgage on said property and had been for some
27 MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PLAINTIFF AND/OR PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD
28 IN CONTEMPT AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS HEARING REQUESTED - 23

1 time while Plaintiff and Defendant were dating. From August 2014 through the filing of 2 Plaintiff's Complaint, Defendant provided money for every monthly mortgage payment, less one
3 or two miscellaneous months where Plaintiff contributed money.

4 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Father, Javier Cardona, have repeatedly attempted to claim that 5 Defendant has no rights in the property, despite case law to the opposite of their opinion. Now,
6 Plaintiff has intentionally misrepresented the value of the property in an attempt to manipulate 7 the court regarding division of assets and payment of financial support.

9 The marital residence, 1913 Sondrio Drive, currently has an estimated value of over 10 $400,000.00, and has had such an estimated value since the filing of Plaintiff's Complaint and 11 Financial Disclosure Form. (See Property Estimates, attached hereto as Exhibit Z). On page six 12 (6) of eight (8) of Plaintiff's Financial Disclosure Form, Plaintiff claims the real estate is valued
13 at $300,000.00. However, the property has not been valued at or near $300,000.00 since 14 approximately 2015. Currently, Zillow and Realtor.com list the estimated value of the property
15 in excess of $400,000.00. Plaintiff's willful misrepresentation of value is baseless, made in bad
16 faith, and made to deceive and manipulate this Honorable Court. As such, Plaintiff's Financial 17 Disclosure Form is inaccurate and should be a basis for sanctions.

20 III.
21 CONCLUSION

22 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel have embarked on a course of conduct which is entirely 23 outside the acceptable standards of this Court. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel have both 24 intentionally violated rules of procedure and intentionally violated Defendant's rights in an 25 attempt to gain procedural advantage. Judge Pomrenze has turned a blind eye to Plaintiff and 26 Plaintiff Counsel's intentional misconduct; however, Plaintiff must not be allowed to continue to

1 gain favorable outcomes by circumventing court rules, causing unnecessary delay, violating 2 Defendant's due process rights, and committing fraud upon this Honorable Court. Plaintiff and 3 Plaintiff's Counsel must be sanctioned to redress prejudice and damage incurred by Defendant, 4 and to deter their despicable conduct through the remainder of this litigation.
