Matter Continued; DEFT'S MOTION TO PLACE ON CALENDAR Court Clerk: THERESA LEE/TL Relief Clerk: APRIL WATKINS Reporter/Recorder: MARCIA HARNESS Heard By: Loehrer, Sally

Journal Entry Details:

Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Oram stated he calendared this matter so that he can get paid on everything. He was appointed to do the second appeal on the second trial. The first trial was not appealed, Deft. was convicted of battery of several people. The Court appointed the Public Defender to do the writ. The Public Defender did not file one. That is why he filed the writ on behalf of the Deft. The Supreme Court ordered him to file an appeal on the second trial, but informed them he needed to consolidate the issues and bring a writ from the first trial. He appealed the writ after the Court denied it, the issues were consolidated, filed a reply brief and everything has now been denied and is being sent back down. Mr. Oram requested to be paid for the entire bill. Mr. Pace stated Art Noxon of his office needs a copy of Mr. Oram's itemized statement. Mr. Oram stated he submitted one. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Oram to submit another statement and ORDERED, matter CONTINUED one week. NDC ;

*Court stated for the record, Deft was found guilty of murder in the first degree in 1995. Deft. received a sentence of Life With the possibility of parole and a consecutive Life With the possibility of parole for Use of a Deadly Weapon. Deft. filed a motion indicating he has an illegal sentence because he believes the Use of a Deadly Weapon was part of the murder, therefore, unlawful to impose an equal and consecutive sentence. Court noted, Deft. misapprehends the Law and Statutes in the State of Nevada. If the deft committed the murder with his hands, by way of strangulation or beating, then he would have received a first degree murder without the enhancement and received one life sentence. The Legislature in the State of Nevada says the use of a deadly weapon is to be discouraged and is not acceptable behavior. The Legislature has stated, the penalty is doubled for the use of a deadly weapon. Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, Deft's Pro Per Motion to Correct or Reduce Sentence is DENIED. Mr. Knapp to prepare the Order and Findings. NDC CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this minute order was placed in the U.S. Mail to deft at ID#45193, Lovelock Correctional Center, P.O. MINUTE ORDER RE: COURT'S DECISION Court Clerk: Larry Snyder Heard By: Stefany Miley
Matter Heard; MINUTE ORDER RE: COURT'S DECISION Court Clerk: Larry Snyder Heard By: Stefany Miley
Journal Entry Details:

olis matter was last before the Court on March 3, 2010 pursuant to Defendant s Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus or in the Alternative Petition for Writ of Mandamus or in the Alternative Petition for Declaratory Judgment and the State s Response and Motion to Dismiss Defendant s petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). Defendant was not transported for purposes of this hearing as the Court did not entertain oral argument. On January 9, 1995, Defendant was sentenced by the District Court to a sentence of Life with the Possibility of Parole, plus an equal and consecutive term for Defendant s use of a deadly weapon. The Judgment of Conviction was filed on January 20, 1995. Defendant did not file a direct appeal. Defendant s instant motion was filed on December 16, 2009. Defendant alleged the Nevada Court lacked jurisdiction over him due to the absence of enacting clauses in the Nevada Revised Statutes. Furthermore, Defendant alleged the deadly weapon enhancement was unconstitutional and violated his constitutional rights. The State disputed the Defendant s contentions alleging his claims were time barred as the Judgment of Conviction was filed over 14 years ago and the Defendant did not take a direct appeal. Additionally, the State alleged the Defendant failed to show good cause for the delay in order to overcome the strictly construed time bar. The State also alleged the Defendant s arguments regarding the enacting clause were not sufficient to demonstrate good cause. The State argued that while it is well established that the laws of Nevada must include an enacting clause, the Nevada Revised Statutes do not have the same requirement, as they are not laws enacted by the legislature. Rather, the Nevada Revised Statutes consist of previously enacted laws which have been classified, codified, and annotated by the Legislative Counsel. See NRS 220.120. Thus, the lack of an enacting clause in the Nevada Revised Statutes does not render them unconstitutional. Furthermore, the State argued that the deadly weapon enhancement has previously been found constitutional by the Nevada Supreme Court. Lastly, the State alleged laches should apply because of the excessive time delay between the filing of the judgment of conviction and the instant motion. COURT FINDS, Defendant's Motion is time barred pursuant to NRS 34.726 as it was not filed until nearly fourteen (14) years after the one year deadline. Furthermore, COURT FINDS, Defendant has failed to demonstrate good cause for failing to file his Petition within the required statutory time frame. Also, COURT FINDS, the Nevada Supreme Court has previously addressed the constitutionality of the deadly weapon enhancement per NRS 193.165 thus Defendant's claims are without merit. Lastly, COURT FINDS, Defendant's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches. As discussed above, over fourteen years elapsed between the filing of the Judgment of Conviction and Defendant's instant motion. The extensive time lapse is prejudicial to the State. COURT ORDERS Defendant's Petition DENIED. ;

*Robert Stephens, Deputy District Attorney, present for the State of Nevada. Deft. not present. Court noted this is post conviction and Deft. was not transported as it is not entertaining oral argument. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Stephens advised the State's response was filed 1/27/12. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED as time barred advising Deft. was sentenced on 4/29/97, District Court filed the Judgment of Conviction (JOC) on 5/23/97 and the Deft. didn't file a direct appeal. Court further advised Deft. filed a post conviction Writ on 7/10/98 saying he was denied the right to timely and direct appeal and the Court doesn't show anything after that. COURT FINDS it is time barred in as more than one year after the JOC and the Doctrine of Laches, as pled by the State, applies; there is a presumption of prejudice given the number of years that have passed. State to prepare an order consistent with the Court's findings. NDC CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this Minute Order was mailed to: Clyde Lewis #48875, P.O. - Upon inquiry by the Court, State advised does not believe an evidentiary hearing is necessary as it is a legal argument. Mr. Oram concurred as long as the Court does not establish who should have filed the notice. State advised believes everything should be up on appeal at one time, however, that is now what happened and now there are seperate issues. COURT ORDERED, MATTER CONTINUED TO 10:30 FOR HEARING. MATTER RECALLED, all parties present as before. Mr. Oram presented petition for post conviction relief on the charge of battery with use of a deadly weapon. Response by State referring to 174.015. Reply by Mr. Oram. Court advised as to the charges in count III, Mr. Waterman, the deft's attorney at that time, is very competent trial attorney. Court further finds that 174.015 does apply in this case and was waived as to double jeopardy was only charged with murder as to Molden and therefore would never has been double jeopardy and as to failure to effect appeal time, Mr. Waterman was not responsible for filing appeal. Court further finds there was no ineffective assistance of counsel for not perfecting appeal believes the Supreme Court should look at appealable issue. Mr. Oram requested pursuant to Lazado that his client be released for the record and moved for dismissal of the case. Court advised believes the remedy would be another trial. State advised believes there should be consolidation. Court advised finds no ineffective assistance of counsel for failure to perfect appeal and DENIED PETITION FOR POST CONVICTION RELIEF because has already been on direct appeal on other charges and doe not believe it will effect prison time. Court further advised finds there is nothing wrong with the say count III is pled. At the request of Mr. Oram. COURT ORDERED, C. ORAM APPOINTED COUNSEL FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE APPEAL OF DENIAL OF POST CONVICTION RELIEF. NDP

- Court stated for the record, Deft was found guilty of murder in the first degree in 1995. Deft. received a sentence of Life With the possibility of parole and a consecutive Life With the possibility of parole for Use of a Deadly Weapon. Deft. filed a motion indicating he has an illegal sentence because he believes the Use of a Deadly Weapon was part of the murder, therefore, unlawful to impose an equal and consecutive sentence. Court noted, Deft. misapprehends the Law and Statutes in the State of Nevada. If the deft committed the murder with his hands, by way of strangulation or beating, then he would have received a first degree murder without the enhancement and received one life sentence. The Legislature in the State of Nevada says the use of a deadly weapon is to be discouraged and is not acceptable behavior. The Legislature has stated, the penalty is doubled for the use of a deadly weapon. Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, Deft's Pro Per Motion to Correct or Reduce Sentence is DENIED. Mr. Knapp to prepare the Order and Findings.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- o1is matter was last before the Court on March 3, 2010 pursuant to Defendant s Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus or in the Alternative Petition for Writ of Mandamus or in the Alternative Petition for Declaratory Judgment and the State s Response and Motion to Dismiss Defendant s petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). Defendant was not transported for purposes of this hearing as the Court did not entertain oral argument.

On January 9, 1995, Defendant was sentenced by the District Court to a sentence of Life with the Possibility of Parole, plus an equal and consecutive term for Defendant s use of a deadly weapon. The Judgment of Conviction was filed on January 20, 1995. Defendant did not file a direct appeal. Defendant s instant motion was filed on December 16, 2009. Defendant alleged the Nevada Court lacked jurisdiction over him due to the absence of enacting clauses in the Nevada Revised Statutes. Furthermore, Defendant alleged the deadly weapon enhancement was unconstitutional and violated his constitutional rights.

The State disputed the Defendant s contentions alleging his claims were time barred as the Judgment of Conviction was filed over 14 years ago and the Defendant did not take a direct appeal. Additionally, the State alleged the Defendant failed to show good cause for the delay in order to overcome the strictly construed time bar. The State also alleged the Defendant's arguments regarding the enacting clause were not sufficient to demonstrate good cause. The State argued that while it is well established that the laws of Nevada must include an enacting clause, the Nevada Revised Statutes do not have the same requirement, as they are not laws enacted by the legislature. Rather, the Nevada Revised Statutes consist of previously enacted laws which have been classified, codified, and annotated by the Legislative Counsel. See NRS 220.120. Thus, the lack of an enacting clause in the Nevada Revised Statutes does not render them unconstitutional. Furthermore, the State argued that the deadly weapon enhancement has previously been found constitutional by the Nevada Supreme Court. Lastly, the State alleged laches should apply because of the excessive time delay between the filing of the judgment of conviction and the instant motion.

COURT FINDS, Defendant's Motion is time barred pursuant to NRS 34.726 as it was not filed until nearly fourteen (14) years after the one year deadline. Furthermore, COURT FINDS, Defendant has failed to demonstrate good cause for failing to file his Petition within the required statutory time frame. Also, COURT FINDS, the Nevada Supreme Court has previously addressed the constitutionality of the deadly weapon enhancement per NRS 193.165 thus Defendant's claims are without merit. Lastly, COURT FINDS, Defendant's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches. As discussed above, over fourteen years elapsed between the filing of the Judgment of Conviction and Defendant's instant motion. The extensive time lapse is prejudicial to the State. COURT ORDERS Defendant's Petition DENIED.

Deft. not present. Court noted this is post conviction and Deft. was not transported as it is not entertaining oral argument. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Stephens advised the State's response was filed 1/27/12. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED as time barred advising Deft. was sentenced on 4/29/97, District Court filed the Judgment of Conviction (JOC) on 5/23/97 and the Deft. didn't file a direct appeal. Court further advised Deft. filed a post conviction Writ on 7/10/98 saying he was denied the right to timely and direct appeal and the Court doesn't show anything after that. COURT FINDS it is time barred in as more than one year after the JOC and the Doctrine of Laches, as pled by the State, applies; there is a presumption of prejudice given the number of years that have passed. State to prepare an order consistent with the Court's findings.
