

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

DAMON LAMAR CAMPBELL,
Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 83188

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER REGARDING WRITTEN JUDGMENT OR ORDER

This is a pro se appeal from a district court order denying a petition for a writ of prohibition. On August 2, 2021, this court entered an order directing the district court to, within 60 days, enter a written order of its decision, inform this court that it is reconsidering its decision, or inform this court that additional time is needed. On August 5, 2021, the district court entered an order denying the petition for writ of prohibition. However, that order also directed the attorney general to respond to appellant's claim regarding the condition of his confinement. Thus, it appears that the August 5, 2021, order is not a final judgment or order. Sandstrom v. Second Judicial Dist. Court, 121 Nev. 657, 659, 119 P.3d 1250, 1252 (2005) (explaining that a final order disposes of all issues and leaves nothing for future consideration).

Accordingly, the district court shall have 14 days from the date of this order to (1) enter a final written judgment or order, (2) inform this court that it is reconsidering its decision, or (3) inform this court in writing that additional time is needed to enter a written decision. In the event the district court enters a written judgment or order (or has already entered a written judgment or order of which this court is unaware), the clerk of the district court shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the judgment or order to the clerk of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
