08/08/2016	 All Pending Motions (8:30 AM) (Judicial Officer: Cadish, Elissa F.) Denied; Journal Entry Details: DEFENDANT'S PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL...DEFENDANT'S PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS At the request of the Defendant and counsel, Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Counsel is WITHDRAWN. As to Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Mr. Wood argued that there is no slight or marginal evidence and it doesn't meet the standard of probable cause. There is no evidence of what the deadly weapon was and no testimony regarding inherently dangerous objects. Opposition by Mr. Rose. He stated that this should be an issue for the jury to decide and it is not appropriate to strike any counts as requested by the defense. COURT FINDS, based on the evidence presented from the Preliminary Hearing this Court is not in the position to say that it is so clear as a matter of law that it cannot be a separate charge of kidnapping or false imprisonment as well as the robbery charge. Obviously the jury will be instructed as to what they need to find in order to convict on these different charges and what is required to distinguish them. With regard to the deadly weapon, the victim didn't know what was used. She saw something metal that the Defendant cut her ear with, resulting in nine stitches on her ear. Given the way the deadly weapon statute is written, there is sufficient evidence for probable cause that the item used was capable of causing substantial bodily harm or death and that does warrant proceeding on a charge that includes a deadly weapon's enhancement. COURT ORDERED, the Petition for Habeas Corpus is DENIED. The State to prepare the order. CUSTODY (COC);

Mr. Portz announced the State is ready for trial; 10-12 witnesses, 4-5 days. Mr. Gill stated he's ready for trial, noting there were discussions about potential things to be litigated, and inquired if it would be litigated at Overflow. Court noted a Material Witness Warrant has been signed. Mr. Gill stated, that's not it, there's a recording. Mr. Portz advised the Defendant has 2 open cases and it's been learned the victim in the sex trafficking matter may have been a witness in this case and received information, or heard statements by the Defendant in regards to this incident; once that was learned, the witness was noticed and counsel was contacted as a courtesy, letting him know the State has this information and what its expected the witness will testify too; the audio of the detectives interview was provided late last night. Mr. Gill stated he received and listened to the tape late last night, which was about 11 minutes and the State has been told issue will not be taken with it's timeliness, reserving the right to challenge the admissibility. Court stated motions are to be resolved prior to being sent to overflow and inquired as to the general nature of the objection.

According to the recording and summary provided, Mr. Gill stated it's not believed to be specific enough and does not talk about the actual victim in this case; the challenge is there's not enough and it's unknown what she is talking about. Mr. Portz stated that's a foundational objection which is believed could be handled by the trial Judge outside the presence of the jury; there's much more to the statement and there's no point litigating it at this time; the State's belief is the incident she's describing is this incident, which can be handled by the trial Judge. Mr. Rose advised it's a short statement that they may be able to have the transcripts ready to clarify with the trial Judge and witness to make certain all are on the same page to know what she's talking about. Upon the inquiry of the Court, Mr. Portz stated it was only the lead detective and witness when the statement was taken. Court stated it's believed to be a matter that can be handled by the trial Judge and ORDERED, case REFERRED to Overflow. Upon the inquiry of the Court in regards to the Material Witness Warrant, Mr. Portz stated he's been waiting to file it until it's been confirmed there's a court setting, as it remains a dynamic situation. Mr. Portz inquired if the Court's trial next week does not proceed, will this case be brought back to this department. Court stated should this departments case go away prior to the overflow calendar, this Court would take the case back; should it be after overflow, the logistics would have to be seen; the overflow Judge will be notified so they're not caught off guard by a couple of outstanding matters. - DEFENDANT'S PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL...DEFENDANT'S PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

At the request of the Defendant and counsel, Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Counsel is WITHDRAWN.

As to Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Mr. Wood argued that there is no slight or marginal evidence and it doesn't meet the standard of probable cause. There is no evidence of what the deadly weapon was and no testimony regarding inherently dangerous objects. Opposition by Mr. Rose. He stated that this should be an issue for the jury to decide and it is not appropriate to strike any counts as requested by the defense.

COURT FINDS, based on the evidence presented from the Preliminary Hearing this Court is not in the position to say that it is so clear as a matter of law that it cannot be a separate charge of kidnapping or false imprisonment as well as the robbery charge. Obviously the jury will be instructed as to what they need to find in order to convict on these different charges and what is required to distinguish them. With regard to the deadly weapon, the victim didn't know what was used. She saw something metal that the Defendant cut her ear with, resulting in nine stitches on her ear. Given the way the deadly weapon statute is written, there is sufficient evidence for probable cause that the item used was capable of causing substantial bodily harm or death and that does warrant proceeding on a charge that includes a deadly weapon's enhancement. COURT ORDERED, the Petition for Habeas Corpus is DENIED. The State to prepare the order.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Portz announced the State is ready for trial; 10-12 witnesses, 4-5 days. Mr. Gill stated he's ready for trial, noting there were discussions about potential things to be litigated, and inquired if it would be litigated at Overflow. Court noted a Material Witness Warrant has been signed. Mr. Gill stated, that's not it, there's a recording. Mr. Portz advised the Defendant has 2 open cases and it's been learned the victim in the sex trafficking matter may have been a witness in this case and received information, or heard statements by the Defendant in regards to this incident; once that was learned, the witness was noticed and counsel was contacted as a courtesy, letting him know the State has this information and what its expected the witness will testify too; the audio of the detectives interview was provided late last night. Mr. Gill stated he received and listened to the tape late last night, which was about 11 minutes and the State has been told issue will not be taken with it's timeliness, reserving the right to challenge the admissibility. Court stated motions are to be resolved prior to being sent to overflow and inquired as to the general nature of the objection. According to the recording and summary provided, Mr. Gill stated it's not believed to be specific enough and does not talk about the actual victim in this case; the challenge is there's not enough and it's unknown what she is talking about. Mr. Portz stated that's a foundational objection which is believed could be handled by the trial Judge outside the presence of the jury; there's much more to the statement and there's no point litigating it at this time; the State's belief is the incident she's describing is this incident, which can be handled by the trial Judge. Mr. Rose advised it's a short statement that they may be able to have the transcripts ready to clarify with the trial Judge and witness to make certain all are on the same page to know what she's talking about. Upon the inquiry of the Court, Mr. Portz stated it was only the lead detective and witness when the statement was taken. Court stated it's believed to be a matter that can be handled by the trial Judge and ORDERED, case REFERRED to Overflow. Upon the inquiry of the Court in regards to the Material Witness Warrant, Mr. Portz stated he's been waiting to file it until it's been confirmed there's a court setting, as it remains a dynamic situation. Mr. Portz inquired if the Court's trial next week does not proceed, will this case be brought back to this department. Court stated should this departments case go away prior to the overflow calendar, this Court would take the case back; should it be after overflow, the logistics would have to be seen; the overflow Judge will be notified so they're not caught off guard by a couple of outstanding matters.
