8 MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON,

9 Petitioner-appellant,

Supreme Court No. 84281

10 — vs —

District Court Case No. C357927

12 THE STATE OF NEVADA,

13 Respondant.

15 EMERGENCY MOTION TO EXPEDITE APPEAL

16 AND PETITION FOR REHEARING

17 COMES NOW, the Appellant Matthew Travis Houston 18 and in proper moves this Honorable Court for an ORDER to 19 expedite his DIRECT APPEAL to schedule an immediate re-
20 hearing to prevent any further miscarriage of justice
21 in the above-entitled case.

22 Proceeding in forma pauperis, due to no fault of his own,
23 the Appellant can demonstrate a prima facie need as both 24 this motion and appeal are made and based on newly 25 discovered evidence, the attached Factum, a Memorandum of Points and Authorities and grounds substantiating equitable tolling.

* PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that due to the petitioner-appellants state of indigency, the attached factum and memorandum that further substantiates grounds for equitable tolling are being included in motions to the Eighth Judicial District Court. His being a victim of judicial and legal malpractice is the cause of his state of being indigent.

MEMORANDUM AND CONCLUSION

page # 8

ARGUMENT:

Petitioner-appellant prays that this court read ALL pages of ^{DIRECT} APPEAL,

1-12. Any jurisdictional defect in petitioner-appellant's

DIRECT APPEAL is the result of the fact that the petitioner-appellant was extremely prejudiced by individuals not limited to Tierra Danielle Jones. The Supreme Court of Nevada has a duty to prevent dereliction within the judicial system of government and to correct manifest injustice pursuant to common sense first and foremost.

Second is that 126.165 predated the year 1994 in 1967.

Furthermore, Mr. Lozada might have been provided a copy of the complete NRAP, but no proof has been provided thusfar.

13 Moved for sanctions to be imposed on the following:
14 Comes now, Plaintiff in Error HOUSTON who 15 moves this Honorable Court to impose sanctions
16 upon officials not limited to Tierra Jones, her substitute, 17 Michael P. Villanig, Magistrate De la Garza,
18 Scott Poisson, Brian P. Clank, Christopher Burk,
19 Erica Tash, Jason Barnus, Andrew Fhahive,
20 Daniel Schwartz, Sheriff Joe Lombardo, NDOC C/O
21 Popalauskas and whomever else is to be called 22 by this court in the manifestation of justice; to improve 23 the community of Las Vegas, Nevada and to ensure 24 that all injured workers are properly compensated.
25 This Appeal is made upon all papers, pleadings,
26 pleadings, documents on file and newly discovered 27 evidence, to which this court has been 28 attempting to keep hidden from the truth, while 29 demonstrating nothing [Page # 7] more than its venality.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

This will be presented more elegantly as soon as the Law Library or this court provides the petitioner-appellant with a complete and up-to-date copy of our beloved Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure. It is probable that Lozada has some sort of effective counsel or at least something more than a warm body to prepare arguments. It is also probable that Lozada was not a pro se litigant and not indigent. It is highly doubted that Lozada was a survivor of ONE OCTOBER, 2017 nor was he involved in case no. A-17-758861-C. This petition is in no way intended to throw mud at the Supreme Court of Nevada but it is made so that Clark County courts will cease and desist in their negligence towards other injured workers. It is made so that Clark County courts will cease and desist in their exploitation of the injured workers, prisoners and other victims of crime. There will come a time when Las Vegas Metropolitan Police will know what it means to serve and protect without injustice. Until that time it would be a human rights violation for the Supreme Court of Nevada to blatantly ignore this petition which would show cause of action for another disability discrimination complaint which would hinder the forces of good in a Hell on Earth. WHEREFOR, petitioner-appellant prays that this Honorable court X.  provide a more complete ^{March 17th} 2022. Matthew Travis Houston, pro se analysis of truth. Representative of the Natural Law Party and the National Lawyer's Guild.
