This notice pertains to the ORDER RESOLVING PENDING ISSUES AND VACATING HEARING, filed 2/4/22. The Notice of Entry of Order was filed on 2/7/22 as well. At issue is the court's decision relating to child custody, decisions against the weight of the evidence relating to best interest of the child, and the court's failure to determine Plaintiff's evidence "credible, relevant or supportive of the decision based upon evidence." This included significant abuse and neglect court and Department of Family Services documents that are undoubted relevant to the best interest of the child. Even the court's descending attitude toward Plaintiff is concerning. Plaintiff believes the court's decision is not supported by the evidence.

Dated this 23rd day of February, 2022.

Journal Entry Details:

MOTION TO RESOLVE CO-PARENTING ISSUES, TO DISSOLVE TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER, FOR AN AWARD OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS, AND RELATED RELIEF. Court reviewed the matters at issue. Discussion regarding Plaintiff having terminated attorney James Jimmerson as his counsel of record; the alleged sexual abuse allegations by Defendant's boyfriend, Nick; the police investigation; the child exchange protocol issued by the Hearing Master in case T-17-178387-T; Plaintiff having removed the minor child from school; and an incident between Plaintiff and Defendant and Ms. LaForgia prior to the hearing. Court admonished Plaintiff about his behavior in Court. Ms. LaForgia stated she would like to file a Motion to modify custody. The Court shall order the records from Child Protective Services (CPS) dating back to 1/1/17 for in-camera inspection. 2. DEFENDANT'S EX PARTE MOTION FOR PICK UP ORDER, RETURN OF CHILD AND FOR SOLE CUSTODY ... EMERGENCY PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PICK UP ORDER, RETURN OF CHILD AND FOR SOLE CUSTODY AND TO SET A HEARING PURSUANT TO THE ORDER ENTERED ON June 5, 2017. Mr. Zernich stated the parties have reached a resolution on most issues with the exception of a conversation the parties had regarding Plaintiff and Defendant's boyfriend, Nick, taking a polygraph test at Plaintiff's cost. Ms. LaForgia stated the Court does not have jurisdiction over Nick, which could create an issue. Court noted it does not have jurisdiction over Nick; however, the Court does have jurisdiction over the minor child and who is around the minor child, and it is the Court's preference for the polygraph test to go forward with the understanding of the Court's view regarding a polygraph test's admissibility. COURT ORDERED, as follows: 1. Per STIPULATION, the parties shall maintain JOINT LEGAL and JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the minor child. 2. Per STIPULATION, Plaintiff's PARENTAL TIMESHARE shall be every Monday at 9:00 AM to Thursday at 5:00 PM. Per STIPULATION, the minor child shall continue to attend Kid's Campus until such a time as the parties are able to transfer the minor child to Mary Hill Academy on Tropicana and Durango. Plaintiff shall pay for the cost of the school with no offsets or contributions from Defendant. 6. Per STIPULATION, the minor child shall continue attending counseling once a week with Abigail Adams and until such a time as Ms. Adams or the parties agree to cease counseling. 7. Per STIPULATION, the parties shall attend family counseling until such a time as the counselor or the parties agree to cease counseling. PLTF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE COURT'S ORDER OF FEBRUARY 20, 2018... DEFT'S OPPOSITION AND COUNTERMOTION AND MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION FOR AN ORDER TO ENFORCE AND OR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING CONTEMPT... REPLY TO OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO MODIFY CUSTODY AND OPPOSITION TO DEFT'S COUNTERMOTION FOR AN ORDER TO ENFORCE AND/OR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE Roger Croteau, Esq., #4958, present with Plaintiff in an unbundled capacity. Court noted the case was reassigned from Dept. Q, and the re-hearing is because of due process concerns. Mr. Croteau advised he believes a CPS case was opened based on what the child said to the therapist, and there have been three sessions with the therapist. Court noted its Law Clerk will request any CPS reports. The child has been meeting with mandatory reporters. Statement by Mr. Croteau regarding the motion, the reply and opposition. Statement by Mr. Aaron regarding the opposition and the countermotion. Mr. Croteau advised he needs the informed consent for the counseling since the parties have joint legal custody and that any information can be disbursed to the Court. Mr. Croteau handed a form to Mr. Aaron in open court. COURT ORDERED, Return date SET 5/1/18 at 10:00 a.m. If there is information that the Plaintiff has the Court needs Mr. Aaron to see it. If there is sensitive information that needs to be submitted to Court in camera everyone needs to be on the same page. The child needs to be protected if there is a need to protect the child. It is not in anybody's best interest that we continue to litigate this case every few months forever. The parties need to feel that the child is safe The concern still is with Nick, valid or invalid. In the meantime, NICK IS NOT TO HAVE ANY UNSUPERVISED TIME with the child. Court is putting the onus on Defendant. Perhaps there are new allegations that have occurred since June and July. If Court finds that those are untrue then Court will take action with regard to that. If there is a basis under Truax for Court to set an evidentiary hearing on modification Court will set that on the return date. Court is DEFERRING that determination. Attorney's fees DEFERRED. Based upon Court's 2/20/18 Order Without Hearing, the parties have reverted back to the 7/31/17 Order and contact should have been had. If Defendant is sending Nick to pick up the child then Plaintiff probably has a justification for withholding the child. If Nick is the only one there, Plaintiff does not need to drop off the child. Mr. Croteau suggested that Defendant drop off the child at the maternal grandparents' residence. Mr. Aaron advised Defendant prefers that exchanges be at a police station rather than Defendant's parents' residence. Court noted its concern that Defendant believes that is in the best interest of the child. PER STIPULATION, child exchanges are to be at the 621 North 9th Street Police Station on Thursday at 5:00 p.m. and Monday at 9:00 a.m. MATTER RECALLED: Mr. Croteau advised Defendant has issues with the informed consent. Mr. Aaron advised Defendant is upset that Plaintiff took it upon himself to choose someone without consulting her first, and she would like someone mutually agreed to. Court noted its understanding of the release is to make sure that Defendant and potentially the Court can receive the same reports. Court understands Defendant's concern but it is not sure that is related to the release. Court does not know that it needs the information yet but it may at some point and Court is more concerned with Defendant having that information. Defendant can always get an expert of her own. Mr. Aaron noted Defendant will sign it now that Court has provided clarification. ;

Mr. Croteau suggested that the parties keep the current schedule and see where the investigation goes and return for a status check. Mr. Aaron advised the visitation and exchanges have been working out. Court noted the issue

MOTION: DEFT'S MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION TO MODIFY CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT...OPPOSITION & COUNTERMOTION: OPPOSITION TO MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION TO MODIFY / CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND OR CHILD SUPPORT AND COUNTERMOTION Court Clerks: Sandra Martinez and Blanca Madrigal. All Parties present via Bluejeans Audiovisual Court noted it had reviewed Defendant's motion, Plaintiff's opposition and Child Protective Services (CPS) report. Defendant (Mom) argued that Plaintiff (Dad) has a history of consistently calling law enforcement on Defendant, causing disruptions. Plaintiff harrassed Defendant at the minor child's cancer treatment facility and was removed from the property. The minor child is still undergoing cancer treatment and doing very well. However, the child does not want to visit with Dad and did not want any more "crazy time" with Dad; she felt safe with Mom. Defendant further advised that she found a therapist for the minor child. Attorney Miley argued Plaintiff has not been able to see the minor child in over two (2) months, and Plaintiff consistently calls the police because Defendant denies contact. Plaintiff suggested Defendant have a psychiatric evaluation and argued Defendant was not giving the minor child her cancer medication. Plaintiff called Child Protective Services (CPS) for an investigation. The Court indicated his concern for the minor child. According to CPS reports, the minor child admitted that Plaintiff coached her into saying that Defendant was not providing medication and unsubstantiated the allegations. (CPS reports were substantial and all allegations baseless) The Court believes the problems lie with the Plaintiff and his inability to let things go and has failed to make decisions based on the minor child's best interest. COURT ORDERED the following: 1) According to Truax and Rooney, it appears it may be in the best interest to modify custody. The matter was set for an Evidentiary Hearing on Defendant's Motion to Modify custody on 11/2/2021 at 1:30 PM. (Half Day - Stack #4) The SCHEDULING Order shall be prepared by the Court's Judicial Executive Assistant (JEA) and provided to the parties and/or counsel; 2) Calendar call is set for 10/19/2021 at 11:00 AM; 3) Temporarily, the parties shall continue with joint physical custody. The Court instructed Mr. Miley to discuss with the Plaintiff in taking steps not to harm his relationship with the minor child and to make decisions as a parent; 4) Child support is DEFERRED; 5) Defendant's request to temporarily modify custody or visitation is DENIED; 6) Defendant instructed to keep Plaintiff informed of the child's therapy; 7) The Minute Order shall suffice, and a written Order is not required. Pursuant to EDCR 7.50.;

CALENDAR CALL. Both parties appeared in person. Court noted that this Calendar Call is continued from 10/19/2021. The Court had reviewed each party's Pre-Trial Memorandum and asked if each party was prepared to go forward with Evidentiary Hearing, set for 11/29/2021 at 1:30 p.m. Mr. Bahr noted that he did not believe that 90 minutes for the upcoming Evidentiary Hearing would be enough time for him to present all his evidence. He stated that he had 5 subpoenas, narrowed down from 15, including a guidance counselor from the child's school. He further claimed that there was an active investigation of abuse and neglect against the Defendant, Ms. Arteaga. Court informed Mr. Bahr that the Evidentiary Hearing will be on Defendant, Ms. Arteaga's, motion for

Ms. Arteaga noted that she was prepared for the Evidentiary Hearing, that she was still planning on taking a parenting course, and that she had no idea to what Mr. Bahr was referring. Mr. Bahr then requested more time to prepare the hearing, and upon the Court's inquiry, Mr. Bahr clarified that the allegations were under investigation and not an active action against Ms. Arteaga. COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff, Mr. Bahr's request to reschedule the Evidentiary Hearing is DENIED. Both parties will appear in person for the upcoming Evidentiary Hearing scheduled on 11/29/2021 at 1:30 PM-Firm Setting. Case No.: D-16-538413-C

ORDER RESOLVING PENDING ISSUES AND VACATING HEARING

This Court having reviewed this matter in preparation for the hearing, scheduled for February 9, 2022 and FINDS that NRCP 1 and EDCR 1.10 state that the procedure in District Courts shall be administered to secure efficient, speedy, and inexpensive determinations in every action.

The parties were last before this Court for Evidentiary Hearing on November 29, 2021. At that hearing, this Court took evidence from both parties and, after taking the matter under advisement, entered Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order (Order) on December 6, 2021. That Order modified the prior physical custody order and awarded primary physical custody of the child to Defendant, Gesenia Arteaga (Gesenia).

1           On December 23, 2021, Plaintiff, Thomas Bahr (Thomas), filed his
3 Motion to Alter or Amend the Court’s Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law,
4 and Order (Entered on December 6, 2021) and/or for a New Trial; and for 5 Related Relief. Within that Motion, Thomas expresses disagreement with 6 the findings and conclusions reached by this Court in the Order. While this 7 Court has no doubt that Thomas does not agree with its findings and 8 conclusions, he is not the finder of fact. The Court took the evidence
9 presented and applied it to law to achieve the decision.
10

12           On January 31, 2022, Gesenia filed her Opposition to Alter or Amend 13 the Court’s FFCL and/or New Trial. That same date she filed her Motion to 14 Modify Child Custody, Visitation, and/or Child Support, requesting a 15 modification to sole legal custody and sole physical custody citing Thomas
16 as “abusive.” Gesenia also indicates that, notwithstanding this Court’s
17 Order, Thomas has not paid his child support obligation of $127.00 per 18 month. She also asks for a restraining order, but did not file for a Temporary 19 Protective Order.
20

22
23           On February 1, 2022, this Court entered an Order Shortening Time
24 which set all matters on the same date and time. However, this Court, after 25 reviewing the file and relevant papers and pleadings, will resolve the 26 pending issues without oral argument.
27
28

1 Thomas cites NRCP 59 as support for his requests. That rule states:

3 (a) In General.

4 (1) Grounds for New Trial. The court may, on motion, grant a new 5 trial on all or some of the issues--and to any party--for any of the 6 following causes or grounds materially affecting the substantial rights of the moving party:

7 (A) irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, master, or 8 adverse party or in any order of the court or master, or any 9 abuse of discretion by which either party was prevented from having a fair trial;

10 (B) misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

11 (C) accident or surprise that ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

12 (D) newly discovered evidence material for the party making
13 the motion that the party could not, with reasonable diligence,
14 have discovered and produced at the trial;

15 (E) manifest disregard by the jury of the instructions of the court;

16 (F) excessive damages appearing to have been given under the 17 influence of passion or prejudice; or

18 (G) error in law occurring at the trial and objected to by the party making the motion.

19 (2) Further Action After a Nonjury Trial. On a motion for a new trial 20 in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if 21 one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of 22 fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

23 (b) Time to File a Motion for a New Trial. A motion for a new trial 24 must be filed no later than 28 days after service of written notice of entry of judgment.

25 (c) Time to Serve Affidavits. When a motion for a new trial is based 26 on affidavits, they must be filed with the motion. The opposing party
27 has 14 days after being served to file opposing affidavits. The court
28 may permit reply affidavits.

1                   (d) New Trial on the Court's Initiative or for Reasons Not in the
2                   Motion. No later than 28 days after service of written notice of entry
3                   of judgment, the court, on its own, may issue an order to show cause
4                   why a new trial should not be granted for any reason that would
5                   justify granting one on a party's motion. After giving the parties notice
6                   and the opportunity to be heard, the court may grant a party's timely
7                   motion for a new trial for a reason not stated in the motion. In either
8                   event, the court must specify the reasons in its order.

9                   (e) Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment. A motion to alter or 10                  amend a judgment must be filed no later than 28 days after service of 11                  written notice of entry of judgment.

12               (f) No Extensions of Time. The 28-day time periods specified in this 13               rule cannot be extended under Rule 6(b).

14               Rule 59 is permissive. Thomas argues that there was irregularity in the 15               proceedings because the Court refused to permit him to present witnesses.
16               Such is belied by the record. While the Court did attempt to assist Thomas 17               in understanding burdens and evidence, it did not prohibit the presentation of 18               any relevant evidence. Ultimately, there were no errors of law or any 19               manifest injustice resulting from the Order.

20               Thomas spends several pages arguing the specifics of the findings and 21               conclusions within the Order. However, all findings and conclusions are
22               supported by the record. While there are items which Thomas would like
23               added to those findings and conclusions, this Court, as the finder of fact, did
24               not choose to determine those items credible, relevant or supportive of the 25               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the
26               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the
27               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the 28               decision based upon evidence.

1 Order. For example, the voluminous records of the Department of Family
2 Services were reviewed, in their totality by this Court. However, this Court
3 is not bound by their findings or investigations. Abuse and Neglect Court
4 applies different standards for safe placement than this Court does for
5 custodial determinations.

8 Thomas even challenges findings which were based upon his own
9 testimony as “not supported by the evidence presented at the evidentiary
10 hearing.” Clearly, Thomas is not an expert, but he is permitted to opine
11 concerning such issues and the Court may accept his testimony as credible
12 or not.

15 This Court will not respond to every proposed amendment within
16 Thomas’ Motion except to state that the Order is supported by the evidence
17 and no amendment or clarification is necessary.
18

19 Thomas then argues, in the alternative, that this Court should set a
20 new evidentiary hearing. His argument is not supported. This Court took
21 evidence and rendered a decision. No new evidence which would permit
22 setting a new evidentiary hearing was presented.
23

24 Gesenia argues that the custody determination, rendered December 6,
25 2021, be modified and she be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody.
26 In determining whether to modify a primary physical custodial order, the 27
28

1 movant must establish that there has been a substantial change of
2 circumstances, affecting the child, since the most recent custody order and
3 that the child's best interests would be served by the change. Ellis v.
4 Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 147, 161 P.3d 239, 240 (2007). Gesenia does not
5 provide adequate cause of anything which may have occurred since
6 December 6, 2021, to justify setting further proceedings on her request.

9 Gesenia also argues that Thomas has failed to pay the court-ordered
10 child support amount of $127.00 per month. Thomas' obligation began in
11 December 2021 and support is owed for December 2021 and January 2022.
12 As February is not yet over, the obligation has not yet come due. Thus,
13 Thomas owes $254.00 in child support. Thomas did not oppose Gesenia's
14 request.

16
17 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Thomas' Motion to Alter
18 or Amend the Court's Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order
19 (Entered on December 6, 2021) and/or for a New Trial; and for Related
20 Relief is DENIED.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Gesenia's request to modify legal
24 and physical custody is DENIED.

27 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Gesenia's request to receive the
28 court-ordered monthly child support obligation from Thomas was previously

1 granted and remains an order of the Court. If Thomas has failed to make the
2 support payments to Gesenia, he shall cure any arrears and timely make his
3 support payments.

5 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all prior orders, not modified by
6 this Order, shall remain in full force and effect.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the hearing scheduled for February
9 9, 2022 shall be VACATED as all pending issues were resolved within this

20               Thomas spends several pages arguing the specifics of the findings and
21               conclusions within the Order. However, all findings and conclusions are
22               supported by the record. While there are items which Thomas would like
23               added to those findings and conclusions, this Court, as the finder of fact, did
24               not choose to determine those items credible, relevant or supportive of the
25               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the
26               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the
27               decision based upon evidence. As such, they were not included in the 28               decision based upon evidence.

1 Order. For example, the voluminous records of the Department of Family
2 Services were reviewed, in their totality by this Court. However, this Court
3 is not bound by their findings or investigations. Abuse and Neglect Court
4 applies different standards for safe placement than this Court does for
5 custodial determinations.

8 Thomas even challenges findings which were based upon his own
9 testimony as “not supported by the evidence presented at the evidentiary
10 hearing.” Clearly, Thomas is not an expert, but he is permitted to opine
11 concerning such issues and the Court may accept his testimony as credible
12 or not.

15 This Court will not respond to every proposed amendment within
16 Thomas’ Motion except to state that the Order is supported by the evidence
17 and no amendment or clarification is necessary.
18

19 Thomas then argues, in the alternative, that this Court should set a
20 new evidentiary hearing. His argument is not supported. This Court took
21 evidence and rendered a decision. No new evidence which would permit
22 setting a new evidentiary hearing was presented.
23

24 Gesenia argues that the custody determination, rendered December 6,
25 2021, be modified and she be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody.
26 In determining whether to modify a primary physical custodial order, the 27
28

1 movant must establish that there has been a substantial change of
2 circumstances, affecting the child, since the most recent custody order and
3 that the child's best interests would be served by the change. Ellis v.
4 Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 147, 161 P.3d 239, 240 (2007). Gesenia does not
5 provide adequate cause of anything which may have occurred since
6 December 6, 2021, to justify setting further proceedings on her request.

9 Gesenia also argues that Thomas has failed to pay the court-ordered
10 child support amount of $127.00 per month. Thomas' obligation began in
11 December 2021 and support is owed for December 2021 and January 2022.
12 As February is not yet over, the obligation has not yet come due. Thus,
13 Thomas owes $254.00 in child support. Thomas did not oppose Gesenia's
14 request.

16
17 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Thomas' Motion to Alter
18 or Amend the Court's Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order
19 (Entered on December 6, 2021) and/or for a New Trial; and for Related
20 Relief is DENIED.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Gesenia's request to modify legal
24 and physical custody is DENIED.
25

27 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Gesenia's request to receive the
28 court-ordered monthly child support obligation from Thomas was previously

1 granted and remains an order of the Court. If Thomas has failed to make the
3 support payments to Gesenia, he shall cure any arrears and timely make his
4 support payments.

5 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all prior orders, not modified by
7 this Order, shall remain in full force and effect.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the hearing scheduled for February
10 9, 2022 shall be VACATED as all pending issues were resolved within this 11 Order.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED

- DEFENDANT'S EX PARTE MOTION FOR PICK UP ORDER, RETURN OF CHILD AND FOR SOLE CUSTODY ... EMERGENCY PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PICK UP ORDER, RETURN OF CHILD AND FOR SOLE CUSTODY AND TO SET A HEARING PURSUANT TO THE ORDER ENTERED ON June 5, 2017.

Mr. Zernich stated the parties have reached a resolution on most issues with the exception of a conversation the parties had regarding Plaintiff and Defendant's boyfriend, Nick, taking a polygraph test at Plaintiff's cost. Ms. LaForgia stated the Court does not have jurisdiction over Nick, which could create an issue. Court noted it does not have jurisdiction over Nick; however, the Court does have jurisdiction over the minor child and who is around the minor child, and it is the Court's preference for the polygraph test to go forward with the understanding of the Court's view regarding a polygraph test's admissibility. COURT ORDERED, as follows:

1. Per STIPULATION, the parties shall maintain JOINT LEGAL and JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the minor child.

3. Per STIPULATION, the CHILD EXCHANGES shall take place at the minor child's school/ daycare. However, in the event the school/ daycare is not open, then the CHILD EXCHANGES shall take place at the McDonald's located on Tropicana and Fort Apache.

4. Per STIPULATION, during any exchanges which do not take place at the school/ daycare the Plaintiff shall remain in his vehicle and Defendant shall be responsible for getting the minor child to and from Plaintiff's vehicle.

5. Per STIPULATION, the minor child shall continue to attend Kid's Campus until such a time as the parties are able to transfer the minor child to Mary Hill Academy on Tropicana and Durango. Plaintiff shall pay for the cost of the school with no offsets or contributions from Defendant.

6. Per STIPULATION, the minor child shall continue attending counseling once a week with Abigail Adams and until such a time as Ms. Adams or the parties agree to cease counseling.

7. Per STIPULATION, the parties shall attend family counseling until such a time as the counselor or the parties agree to cease counseling. Defendant shall select the names of three counselors and Plaintiff shall select one of the three to serve as the family counselor. Plaintiff shall pay for any cost not covered by insurance.

8. The prior Order restricting Nick's contact with the minor child remains IN EFFECT until such a time as polygraph test has been taken. Once Nick takes the polygraph test, regardless of the result, the restriction shall be LIFTED.

9. The hearing set for 7/10/17 at 8:30 AM is hereby VACATED.

REPLY TO OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO MODIFY CUSTODY AND OPPOSITION TO DEFT'S
COUNTERMOTION FOR AN ORDER TO ENFORCE AND/OR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Roger Croteau, Esq., #4958, present with Plaintiff in an unbundled capacity.

Court noted the case was reassigned from Dept. Q, and the re-hearing is because of due process concerns.

Mr. Croteau advised he believes a CPS case was opened based on what the child said to the therapist, and there have been three sessions with the therapist.

Court noted its Law Clerk will request any CPS reports. The child has been meeting with mandatory reporters.

Statement by Mr. Croteau regarding the motion, the reply and opposition. Statement by Mr. Aaron regarding the opposition and the countermotion.

Mr. Croteau advised he needs the informed consent for the counseling since the parties have joint legal custody and that any information can be disbursed to the Court. Mr. Croteau handed a form to Mr. Aaron in open court.

COURT ORDERED,

Return date SET 5/1/18 at 10:00 a.m.

If there is information that the Plaintiff has the Court needs Mr. Aaron to see it. If there is sensitive information that needs to be submitted to Court in camera everyone needs to be on the same page.

The child needs to be protected if there is a need to protect the child. It is not in anybody's best interest that we continue to litigate this case every few months forever. The parties need to feel that the child is safe

The concern still is with Nick, valid or invalid. In the meantime, NICK IS NOT TO HAVE ANY UNSUPERVISED TIME with the child. Court is putting the onus on Defendant.

Perhaps there are new allegations that have occurred since June and July. If Court finds that those are untrue then Court will take action with regard to that.

If there is a basis under Truax for Court to set an evidentiary hearing on modification Court will set that on the return date. Court is DEFERRING that determination.

Attorney's fees DEFERRED.

Based upon Court's 2/20/18 Order Without Hearing, the parties have reverted back to the 7/31/17 Order and contact should have been had. If Defendant is sending Nick to pick up the child then Plaintiff probably has a justification for withholding the child. If Nick is the only one there, Plaintiff does not need to drop off the child.

Mr. Croteau suggested that Defendant drop off the child at the maternal grandparents' residence. Mr. Aaron advised Defendant prefers that exchanges be at a police station rather than Defendant's parents' residence. Court noted its concern that Defendant believes that is in the best interest of the child. PER STIPULATION, child exchanges are to be at the 621 North 9th Street Police Station on Thursday at 5:00 p.m. and Monday at 9:00 a.m.

MATTER RECALLED: Mr. Croteau advised Defendant has issues with the informed consent. Mr. Aaron advised Defendant is upset that Plaintiff took it upon himself to choose someone without consulting her first, and she would like someone mutually agreed to.

Court noted its understanding of the release is to make sure that Defendant and potentially the Court can receive the same reports. Court understands Defendant's concern but it is not sure that is related to the release. Court does not know that it needs the information yet but it may at some point and Court is more concerned with Defendant having that information. Defendant can always get an expert of her own. Mr. Aaron noted Defendant will sign it now that Court has provided clarification.

- RETURN HEARING: RECORDS / MOTIONS TO MODIFY CUSTODY / ATTY'S FEES

Roger Croteau, Esq. present with Plaintiff in an unbundled capacity.

Court noted it reviewed the updated CPS reports and has not received any additional records beyond that. Mr. Croteau advised apparently Metro is doing an investigation. Mr. Croteau suggested that the parties keep the current schedule and see where the investigation goes and return for a status check. Mr. Aaron advised the visitation and exchanges have been working out.

Court noted the issue as to Defendant's significant other was resolved in June with a polygraph, and the reports from CPS are unsubstantiated. Certainly if the Metro investigation finds there is an issue there will be a removal and the parties will be back in court. Court is not going to set a status check.

COURT ORDERED,

Prior orders remain in place. Court is not making any modifications.

- MOTION: DEFT'S MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION TO MODIFY CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT...OPPOSITION & COUNTERMOTION: OPPOSITION TO MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION TO MODIFY / CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND OR CHILD SUPPORT AND COUNTERMOTION

Court noted it had reviewed Defendant's motion, Plaintiff's opposition and Child Protective Services (CPS) report.

Defendant (Mom) argued that Plaintiff (Dad) has a history of consistently calling law enforcement on Defendant, causing disruptions. Plaintiff harrassed Defendant at the minor child's cancer treatment facility and was removed from the property. The minor child is still undergoing cancer treatment and doing very well. However, the child does not want to visit with Dad and did not want any more "crazy time" with Dad; she felt safe with Mom. Defendant further advised that she found a therapist for the minor child.

Attorney Miley argued Plaintiff has not been able to see the minor child in over two (2) months, and Plaintiff consistently calls the police because Defendant denies contact. Plaintiff suggested Defendant have a psychiatric evaluation and argued Defendant was not giving the minor child her cancer medication. Plaintiff called Child Protective Services (CPS) for an investigation.

The Court indicated his concern for the minor child. According to CPS reports, the minor child admitted that Plaintiff coached her into saying that Defendant was not providing medication and unsubstantiated the allegations. (CPS reports were substantial and all allegations baseless) The Court believes the problems lie with the Plaintiff and his inability to let things go and has failed to make decisions based on the minor child's best interest.

COURT ORDERED the following:

- 1) According to Truax and Rooney, it appears it may be in the best interest to modify custody. The matter was set for an Evidentiary Hearing on Defendant's Motion to Modify custody on 11/2/2021 at 1:30 PM. (Half Day - Stack #4) The SCHEDULING Order shall be prepared by the Court's Judicial Executive Assistant (JEA) and provided to the parties and/or counsel;
- 2) Calendar call is set for 10/19/2021 at 11:00 AM;
- 3) Temporarily, the parties shall continue with joint physical custody. The Court instructed Mr. Miley to discuss with the Plaintiff in taking steps not to harm his relationship with the minor child and to make decisions as a parent;
- 4) Child support is DEFERRED;
- 5) Defendant's request to temporarily modify custody or visitation is DENIED;
- 6) Defendant instructed to keep Plaintiff informed of the child's therapy;
- 7) The Minute Order shall suffice, and a written Order is not required. Pursuant to EDCR 7.50.

- CALENDAR CALL.

Both parties appeared in person.

Court noted that this Calendar Call is continued from 10/19/2021. The Court had reviewed each party's Pre-Trial Memorandum and asked if each party was prepared to go forward with Evidentiary Hearing, set for 11/29/2021 at 1:30 p.m.

Mr. Bahr noted that he did not believe that 90 minutes for the upcoming Evidentiary Hearing would be enough time for him to present all his evidence. He stated that he had 5 subpoenas, narrowed down from 15, including a guidance counselor from the child's school. He further claimed that there was an active investigation of abuse and neglect against the Defendant, Ms. Arteaga.

Court informed Mr. Bahr that the Evidentiary Hearing will be on Defendant, Ms. Arteaga's, motion for a request to modify custody not on any of his oral motions. Court noted that his only responsibility will be to respond to her arguments and any evidence that she presents in this regard.

Ms. Arteaga noted that she was prepared for the Evidentiary Hearing, that she was still planning on taking a parenting course, and that she had no idea to what Mr. Bahr was referring.

Mr. Bahr then requested more time to prepare the hearing, and upon the Court's inquiry, Mr. Bahr clarified that the allegations were under investigation and not an active action against Ms. Arteaga.

COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff, Mr. Bahr's request to reschedule the Evidentiary Hearing is DENIED. Both parties will appear in person for the upcoming Evidentiary Hearing scheduled on 11/29/2021 at 1:30 PM-Firm Setting.
