- While a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus was filed on March 13, 2017, that petition has never been set on calendar. Additionally, the Court notes that service appears to be defective, as the certificate of service indicates an incorrect address for the Attorney General office. Therefore, COURT ORDERS Defendant's Motion to Transport for Court Appearance is DENIED, and the hearing set on May 16, 2017, is VACATED.

PARTIES

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- It having come to the attention of the court that the minutes of the Petitioner Jones s Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus on January 11, 2022, hearing where no parties were present, the Court ruled that Petitioner s petition was procedurally time barred without him demonstrating good cause or undue prejudice and erroneously directed the Attorney General to prepare the order. The District Attorney was the more appropriate entity to prepare the order as this was not a time computation challenge. The District Attorney s Office is hereby DIRECTED to promptly prepare the order within 30 days from the issuing of this order. It is so ordered.
