IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

FRANK STILE, M.D., AN INDIVIDUAL; AND FRANK STILE M.D., P.C., A NEVADA PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION,

Appellants,

vs.

EVA KORB, AN INDIVIDUAL,

Respondent.

No. 82189

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This is an appeal from a district court order granting a special motion to dismiss under NRS 41.660. Preliminary review of the docketing statement and documents before this court reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. It appears that the order is not a final judgment appealable under NRAP 3A(b)(1), as it orders that respondent be awarded statutory damages pursuant to NRS 41.670(1)(b) but reserves the amount of damages for determination at a later date. It also appears that counterclaims asserted by respondent may remain pending in the district court. Accordingly, it appears that the order is not appealable as a final judgment under NRAP 3A(b)(1). See Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 426, 996 P.2d 416, 417 (2000) ("[A] final judgment is one that disposes of all the issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney's fees and costs.").

Appellants shall have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. In responding to this order, in addition to points and authorities, appellants should provide this court with a file-stamped copy of any district court order or orders finally awarding an amount of damages under NRS 41.670(1)(b) and resolving respondent's counterclaims. Respondent may file any reply within 14 days of service of appellants' response. Failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction may result in the dismissal of this appeal.

The deadlines to file documents in this appeal are suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
