AND ALL RELATED CLAIMS.

On January 13, 2022, at 11:00 a.m., a hearing took place before the above-captioned Court on Third-Party Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Injunction (“Motion”) filed by Third-Party Plaintiffs David Mahon, Intellectual Properties Holding, LLC, Full Color Games, LLC, Full Color Games, N.A., Inc., Jackpot Productions, LLC, and Full Color Games, Inc. (collectively “Full Color Parties”). Rory T. Kay, Esq., of the law firm McDonald Carano LLP, appeared on behalf of Third-Party Defendants Spin Games, LLC (“Spin Games”), Kent Young (“Young”), and Kunal Mishra (“Mishra”) (collectively, “Spin Defendants”), Steven A. Caloiaro, of the law firm, Dickinson Wright, appeared on behalf of Third-Party Defendants Bragg Gaming Group, Inc. and Oryx Gaming International, LLC (collectively, “Bragg Defendants”), and Todd W. Prall, of the law firm, Hutchison and Steffen, and Jeff Hulet, of the law firm Hogan Hulet PLLC, appeared on behalf of the Full Color Parties.¹ Based on the Motion, the Spin Defendants’ Opposition, the Bragg Defendants’ Joinder to the Opposition, the Third-Party Plaintiffs’ Reply in Support of the Motion, and argument by all counsel at the hearing, the Court DENIES the Motion consistent with these findings of fact and conclusions of law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On August 11, 2017, Mark Munger and other shareholders of FCGI (“FCGI Shareholders”) filed this lawsuit against the Full Color Parties. The FCGI Shareholders alleged various contract and tort claims related to their investment relationship with Mahon and the other related Full Color Parties.

2. On February 2, 2019, FCGI filed an Answer, Counterclaims, and Third-Party Complaint (“Third-Party Complaint”), through which FCGI added the Spin Defendants as third-party defendants. FCGI alleged various contract and tort claims against the Spin Defendants and claimed that the Spin Defendants and other newly named third-party defendants were responsible for some or all the alleged losses of the FCGI Shareholders. In the Third-Party Complaint’s Prayer for Relief, FCGI also demanded preliminary and permanent injunctive relief barring the Spin

1 Defendants from possessing and using FCGI's confidential information and from competing or 2 interfering with the Full Color Parties' "business interests in the use and commercialization of the 3 Full Color IP."

4 3. Spin Games is a software developer and game distributor based out of Reno, Nevada,
5 that had a prior game development and distribution relationship ("Development Relationship") with 6 some of the Full Color Parties and/or non-party Full Color Games Ltd.

7 4. On January 9, 2020, FCGI filed an amended third-party complaint, in which the other 8 Full Color Parties joined as third-party plaintiffs ("Amended Third-Party Complaint"). The 9 Amended Third-Party Complaint added new third-party defendants, including the Bragg
10 Defendants. The Amended Third-Party Complaint's Prayer for Relief repeated the demand for 11 preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and added the Bragg Defendants to that demand as 12 additional enjoined parties.

13 5. The Bragg Defendants are Canada-based gaming technology and content companies.
14 Oryx Gaming International LLC is a subsidiary of Bragg Gaming Group Inc.

15 6. In a May 12, 2021, press release ("Press Release"), the Spin Defendants and the 16 Bragg Defendants announced a transaction ("Bragg/Spin Transaction") through a merger agreement
17 where the Bragg Defendants would acquire Spin Games in exchange for $10 million in cash and 18 $20 million in common shares of Bragg. The Press Release noted that the Bragg/Spin Transaction
19 would close after regulatory approval. A copy of the Press Release is attached to the Spin
20 Defendants' Opposition as Exhibit 1.

21 7. In his declaration attached as Exhibit A to the Full Color Parties' Motion, Mahon
22 stated that he learned of the Bragg/Spin Transaction on May 12, 2021, through the Press Release.
23 Mahon is the founder and CEO of the Full Color Parties.

24 8. In the Motion, the Full Color Parties ask the Court to enjoin the Bragg/Spin
25 Transaction or any sale of Spin Games' assets to the Bragg Defendants.

26 9. The Full Color Parties claim the Bragg/Spin Transaction breaches the confidentiality,
27 non-circumvention, and non-competition provisions in a mutual non-disclosure agreement
28 ("MNDA") between FCGI and Spin Games. The Full Color Parties argue that they provided

1 confidential game assets (“Game Assets”) to Spin Games during the Development Relationship and
2 that the Bragg/Spin Transaction will require Spin Games to provide the Game Assets to the Bragg
3 Defendants. The Full Color Parties also argue that Spin partially or fully developed certain games
4 (“Full Color Games”) for the Full Color Parties during the Development Relationship and that the
5 Bragg/Spin Transaction will require Spin Games to provide the Full Color Games to the Bragg
6 Defendants.

7 10. The Full Color Parties also argue that the Bragg/Spin Transaction interferes with
8 Spin Games’ contractual obligations under a game development and distribution agreement titled
9 “Proposal v1.4.” The Full Color Parties argue Proposal v1.4 is a written contract that entitles some
10 or all the Full Color parties to an ownership interest in Spin Games, LLC’s remote gaming server
11 (“ROC RGS”) and its entire source code.

12 11. Finally, the Full Color Parties argue that they will suffer irreparable harm from the 13 above acts, which they view as wrongful competition not compensable by money damages. The
14 Full Color Parties contend Bragg is a direct competitor and will have access to the Game Assets,
15 Full Color Games, and ROC RGS despite the Full Color Parties’ purported contract rights in the 16 same.

17 12. In their Opposition, the Spin Defendants deny that the Game Assets are part of the 18 Bragg/Spin transaction, deny any breach of the MNDA or Proposal v1.4, and further contend that
19 the Full Color Parties will not suffer irreparable harm justifying a preliminary injunction. The Spin
20 Defendants also argue that the Full Color Parties delayed too long to obtain extraordinary injunctive
21 relief and that the Full Color Parties cannot provide sufficient security for the same.

22 13. In their Joinder, the Bragg Defendants confirm that neither the Game Assets nor any
23 games (completed or otherwise) that Spin Games created for the Full Color Parties are part of the 24 Bragg/Spin Transaction and that Bragg would consent to Spin Games returning the same to the Full
25 Color Parties upon the Full Color Parties’ written request.

26 14. In response to these arguments, the Full Color Parties argue that the fact that the
27 regulatory process, which generally requires a complete investigation into the parties to the merger
28 or sale, meant that the sale may not occur unless regulatory requirements are met. The Full Color

Parties argue that they believed, and anticipated, that the regulatory bodies would include an investigation of the allegations in this lawsuit prior to approval. Finally, the Full Color Parties argue it was not until later that the Full Color Parties learned that no such investigation was to occur.

15. Despite learning of the Bragg/Spin Transaction on May 12, 2021, the Full Color Parties did not file the Motion until November 22, 2021.

16. In the interim, the Spin Defendants and the Bragg Defendants have spent considerable time and money dealing with regulators for approval and executing the conditions to the closing of the Bragg/Spin Transaction.

17. The next conclusions of law are incorporated here if they constitute, or may be construed to include, findings of fact.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Standard for Injunctive Relief

18. Under NRCP 65, a party moving for injunctive relief must show “a likelihood of success on the merits of their case and that they will suffer irreparable harm without preliminary relief.” Shores v. Global Experience Specialists, Inc., 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d 1238, 1241 (2018). This substantial burden is because “[i]njunctive relief is extraordinary relief” invoked under the Court’s equitable powers. Dept. of Conservation & Natural Res. Div. of Water Res. v. Foley, 121 Nev. 77, 80, 109 P.3d 760, 762 (2005).

B. Doctrine of Laches and Delay in Seeking Extraordinary Injunctive Relief

19. A party may invoke the equitable doctrine of laches when “delay by one party works to the disadvantage of the other, causing a change in circumstances which would make the grant of relief to the delaying party inequitable.” Bldg. & Const. Trades Council of N. Nevada v. State ex rel. Pub. Works Bd., 108 Nev. 605, 610-11, 836 P.2d 633, 636-37 (1992).

20. Because a preliminary injunction is equitable relief, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the doctrine of laches applies to prohibit such relief after a period of delay. See Carson City v. Price, 113 Nev. 409, 412-13, 934 P.3d 1042, 1044 (1997). Courts from other jurisdictions have ruled the same in Nevada-based cases. See Lydo Enterprises, Inc. v. City of Las Vegas, 745

1 F.2d 1211, 1213 (9th Cir. 1984) (holding a movant who “sleep[s] on its rights” in moving for
2 injunctive relief “demonstrates a lack of need for speedy action.”).

3 21. “Laches is more than mere delay in seeking to enforce one’s rights, it is delay that
4 works a disadvantage to another.” Home Sav. Ass’n v. Bigelow, 105 Nev. 494, 496, 779 P.2d 85,
5 86 (1989). “[T]he condition of the party asserting laches must become so changed that he cannot
6 be restored to his former state.” Id. “The applicability of the doctrine of laches turns upon the
7 peculiar facts of each case.” Id. (citing Miller v. Walser, 42 Nev. 497, 181 P. 437 (1919)).

8 22. Here, the Full Color Parties have delayed too long to obtain preliminary injunctive
9 relief. Though the Full Color Parties demanded preliminary injunctive relief against the Spin
10 Defendants in the Third-Party Complaint dated February 2, 2019, and against the Bragg Defendants
11 in the Amended Third-Party Complaint dated January 9, 2020, the Full Color Parties did not move
12 for a temporary restraining order or file the Motion to bring the matter before the Court until 13 November 22, 2021. As a result, the Full Color Parties have delayed 22 months in seeking
14 preliminary injunctive relief as to the Bragg Defendants and 33 months in seeking the same as to 15 the Spin Defendants.

16 23. Even if the Court were to consider the Press Release dated May 12, 2021 as the event
17 triggering the Full Color Parties’ duty to move for injunctive relief related to the Bragg/Spin
18 Transaction, the Full Color Parties still delayed over six months in seeking extraordinary relief.

19 24. In that intervening time, the condition of the Spin Defendants and the Bragg
20 Defendants changed. The companies spent considerable time and money dealing with regulators
21 for approval and executing the conditions to closing of the Bragg/Spin Transaction.

22 25. The delay by the Full Color Parties would make the granting of the Motion
23 inequitable to the Spin Defendants and the Bragg Defendants.

24 26. As a result, the Court holds that the doctrine of laches prevents the preliminary
25 injunction that the Full Color Parties seek.

26 C. Lack of Irreparable Harm

27 27. Parties moving for injunctive relief must show that they will suffer irreparable harm
28 without it. See Shores, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d at 1241.

1 28. The moving party must articulate irreparable harm in specific terms, and general
2 claims of irreparable harm absent this specificity do not satisfy the standard under NRCP 65. See
3 Foley, 121 Nev. at 80, 109 P.3d at 762.

4 29. When compensatory damages sufficiently compensate the moving party for any loss,
5 there is no irreparable harm and an injunction is inappropriate under NRCP 65. See Excellent Cmty.
6 Mgmt. v. Gilmore, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 38, 351 P.3d 720, 720 (2015).

7 30. Finally, delay in moving for injunctive relief implies a lack of irreparable harm. See,
8 e.g., Oakland Trib., Inc. v. Chron. Pub. Co., 762 F.2d 1374, 1377 (9th Cir. 1985); Garcia v. Google,
9 Inc., 786 F.3d 733, 746 (9th Cir. 2015) (moving party's months-long delay "undercut" claim of 10 irreparable harm).

11 31. Here, the Full Color Parties have not shown in specific terms that they will suffer
12 irreparable harm absent preliminary injunctive relief.

13 32. First, the Full Color Parties delayed in seeking injunctive relief, thereby undercutting
14 their claim of irreparable harm. See id.

15 33. Even more, the Full Color Parties' purported damages can be adequately remedied
16 by money damages, as both Spin Games and the Bragg Defendants will remain parties here even
17 after the Bragg/Spin Transaction closes.

18 34. The Full Color Parties argue in their Motion that there is irreparable harm to the Full
19 Color Parties' "business operations and profits" because the Bragg/Spin Transaction will prevent
20 the Full Color Parties from distributing the Full Color Games to the market and therefore earning
21 "perpetual income with every deployment."

22 35. But as Spin Games argued in its Opposition, this position has at least two flaws.

23 36. First, the Game Assets and Full Color Games are not part of the Bragg/Spin
24 Transaction, and the MNDA appears to allow the Full Color Parties to recover the Game Assets by
25 demanding their return in writing, and Spin Games has stated it is ready and able to return the Game
26 Assets.

27 37. Second, the Full Color Parties can cure any alleged breach by contracting with a new
28 company to develop and distribute any games that the Full Color Parties wish to distribute. The

Full Color Parties state in their operative pleading that they have negotiated with many other digital gaming companies with remote gaming servers able to distribute games. See Consolidated Second Amended Counterclaim and Third-Party Complaint of Defendants David Mahon, Glen Howard, Intellectual Properties Holding, LLC, Full Color Games, LLC, Full Color Games, N.A., Inc., and Jackpot Production, LLC; and Third Amended Counterclaim and Third-Party Complaint of Full Color Games, Inc. (“Operative Pleading”). They may cure any breach by Spin Games or the Bragg Defendants by contracting with such companies to complete and distribute any games the Full Color Parties wish to bring to market.

38. If the Full Color Parties prevail on their breach of contract claims against Spin Games, the Full Color Parties can seek to recover the costs of curing the breach through money damages at trial. See Gilmore, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 38, 351 P.3d at 720 (no irreparable harm where money damages sufficiently compensate moving party); see also Fuller v. United Elec. Co., 70 Nev. 448, 273 P.2d 136 (1954) (where contract is partially performed, non-breaching party may recover damages for cost “of completing performance of the work”); Valladares v. DMJ, Inc., 110 Nev. 1291, 1294, 885 P.2d 580, 582 (1994) (landowner had a right to cost of cure damages where drilling contractor only partially performed).

39. As a result, the Court is unconvinced that the Full Color Parties would suffer irreparable harm without the Court’s equitable intervention to grant extraordinary preliminary injunctive relief.

D. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

40. Under NRCP 65, a party moving for injunctive relief must show a likelihood of success on the merits of the case, and district courts may also weigh the potential hardships on the parties and the public interest in the dispute. See Shores, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d at 1241.

41. “Determining whether to grant or deny a preliminary injunction is within the district court’s sound discretion, and the district court’s decision will not be disturbed absent an abuse of discretion or unless it is based on an erroneous legal standard.” Sarfo v. Bd. of Med. Examiners, 134 Nev. 709, 711, 429 P.3d 650, 652 (2018).

42. Because the Court has denied the Motion based on the doctrine of laches and the lack of irreparable harm, the Court does not reach any conclusion on the Full Color Parties' likelihood of success on the merits. The Court similarly does not reach any conclusion on the potential hardships to the parties or any public interest in the dispute.

AND ALL RELATED CLAIMS.

On January 13, 2022, at 11:00 a.m., a hearing took place before the above-captioned Court on Third-Party Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Injunction (“Motion”) filed by Third-Party Plaintiffs David Mahon, Intellectual Properties Holding, LLC, Full Color Games, LLC, Full Color Games, N.A., Inc., Jackpot Productions, LLC, and Full Color Games, Inc. (collectively “Full Color Parties”). Rory T. Kay, Esq., of the law firm McDonald Carano LLP, appeared on behalf of Third-Party Defendants Spin Games, LLC (“Spin Games”), Kent Young (“Young”), and Kunal Mishra (“Mishra”) (collectively, “Spin Defendants”), Steven A. Caloiaro, of the law firm, Dickinson Wright, appeared on behalf of Third-Party Defendants Bragg Gaming Group, Inc. and Oryx Gaming International, LLC (collectively, “Bragg Defendants”), and Todd W. Prall, of the law firm, Hutchison and Steffen, and Jeff Hulet, of the law firm Hogan Hulet PLLC, appeared on behalf of the Full Color Parties.¹ Based on the Motion, the Spin Defendants’ Opposition, the Bragg Defendants’ Joinder to the Opposition, the Third-Party Plaintiffs’ Reply in Support of the Motion, and argument by all counsel at the hearing, the Court DENIES the Motion consistent with these findings of fact and conclusions of law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On August 11, 2017, Mark Munger and other shareholders of FCGI (“FCGI Shareholders”) filed this lawsuit against the Full Color Parties. The FCGI Shareholders alleged various contract and tort claims related to their investment relationship with Mahon and the other related Full Color Parties.

2. On February 2, 2019, FCGI filed an Answer, Counterclaims, and Third-Party Complaint (“Third-Party Complaint”), through which FCGI added the Spin Defendants as third-party defendants. FCGI alleged various contract and tort claims against the Spin Defendants and claimed that the Spin Defendants and other newly named third-party defendants were responsible for some or all the alleged losses of the FCGI Shareholders. In the Third-Party Complaint’s Prayer for Relief, FCGI also demanded preliminary and permanent injunctive relief barring the Spin

Defendants from possessing and using FCGI's confidential information and from competing or interfering with the Full Color Parties' "business interests in the use and commercialization of the Full Color IP."

3. Spin Games is a software developer and game distributor based out of Reno, Nevada, that had a prior game development and distribution relationship ("Development Relationship") with some of the Full Color Parties and/or non-party Full Color Games Ltd.

4. On January 9, 2020, FCGI filed an amended third-party complaint, in which the other Full Color Parties joined as third-party plaintiffs ("Amended Third-Party Complaint"). The Amended Third-Party Complaint added new third-party defendants, including the Bragg Defendants. The Amended Third-Party Complaint's Prayer for Relief repeated the demand for preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and added the Bragg Defendants to that demand as additional enjoined parties.

5. The Bragg Defendants are Canada-based gaming technology and content companies. Oryx Gaming International LLC is a subsidiary of Bragg Gaming Group Inc.

6. In a May 12, 2021, press release ("Press Release"), the Spin Defendants and the Bragg Defendants announced a transaction ("Bragg/Spin Transaction") through a merger agreement where the Bragg Defendants would acquire Spin Games in exchange for $10 million in cash and $20 million in common shares of Bragg. The Press Release noted that the Bragg/Spin Transaction would close after regulatory approval. A copy of the Press Release is attached to the Spin Defendants' Opposition as Exhibit 1.

7. In his declaration attached as Exhibit A to the Full Color Parties' Motion, Mahon stated that he learned of the Bragg/Spin Transaction on May 12, 2021, through the Press Release. Mahon is the founder and CEO of the Full Color Parties.

8. In the Motion, the Full Color Parties ask the Court to enjoin the Bragg/Spin Transaction or any sale of Spin Games' assets to the Bragg Defendants.

9. The Full Color Parties claim the Bragg/Spin Transaction breaches the confidentiality, non-circumvention, and non-competition provisions in a mutual non-disclosure agreement ("MNDA") between FCGI and Spin Games. The Full Color Parties argue that they provided

1 confidential game assets (“Game Assets”) to Spin Games during the Development Relationship and
2 that the Bragg/Spin Transaction will require Spin Games to provide the Game Assets to the Bragg
3 Defendants. The Full Color Parties also argue that Spin partially or fully developed certain games
4 (“Full Color Games”) for the Full Color Parties during the Development Relationship and that the
5 Bragg/Spin Transaction will require Spin Games to provide the Full Color Games to the Bragg
6 Defendants.

7 10. The Full Color Parties also argue that the Bragg/Spin Transaction interferes with
8 Spin Games’ contractual obligations under a game development and distribution agreement titled
9 “Proposal v1.4.” The Full Color Parties argue Proposal v1.4 is a written contract that entitles some
10 or all the Full Color parties to an ownership interest in Spin Games, LLC’s remote gaming server
11 (“ROC RGS”) and its entire source code.

12 11. Finally, the Full Color Parties argue that they will suffer irreparable harm from the 13 above acts, which they view as wrongful competition not compensable by money damages. The
14 Full Color Parties contend Bragg is a direct competitor and will have access to the Game Assets,
15 Full Color Games, and ROC RGS despite the Full Color Parties’ purported contract rights in the 16 same.

17 12. In their Opposition, the Spin Defendants deny that the Game Assets are part of the 18 Bragg/Spin transaction, deny any breach of the MNDA or Proposal v1.4, and further contend that
19 the Full Color Parties will not suffer irreparable harm justifying a preliminary injunction. The Spin
20 Defendants also argue that the Full Color Parties delayed too long to obtain extraordinary injunctive
21 relief and that the Full Color Parties cannot provide sufficient security for the same.

22 13. In their Joinder, the Bragg Defendants confirm that neither the Game Assets nor any
23 games (completed or otherwise) that Spin Games created for the Full Color Parties are part of the
24 Bragg/Spin Transaction and that Bragg would consent to Spin Games returning the same to the Full
25 Color Parties upon the Full Color Parties’ written request.

26 14. In response to these arguments, the Full Color Parties argue that the fact that the
27 regulatory process, which generally requires a complete investigation into the parties to the merger
28 or sale, meant that the sale may not occur unless regulatory requirements are met. The Full Color

Parties argue that they believed, and anticipated, that the regulatory bodies would include an investigation of the allegations in this lawsuit prior to approval. Finally, the Full Color Parties argue it was not until later that the Full Color Parties learned that no such investigation was to occur.

15. Despite learning of the Bragg/Spin Transaction on May 12, 2021, the Full Color Parties did not file the Motion until November 22, 2021.

16. In the interim, the Spin Defendants and the Bragg Defendants have spent considerable time and money dealing with regulators for approval and executing the conditions to the closing of the Bragg/Spin Transaction.

17. The next conclusions of law are incorporated here if they constitute, or may be construed to include, findings of fact.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Standard for Injunctive Relief

18. Under NRCP 65, a party moving for injunctive relief must show “a likelihood of success on the merits of their case and that they will suffer irreparable harm without preliminary relief.” Shores v. Global Experience Specialists, Inc., 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d 1238, 1241 (2018). This substantial burden is because “[i]njunctive relief is extraordinary relief” invoked under the Court’s equitable powers. Dept. of Conservation & Natural Res. Div. of Water Res. v. Foley, 121 Nev. 77, 80, 109 P.3d 760, 762 (2005).

B. Doctrine of Laches and Delay in Seeking Extraordinary Injunctive Relief

19. A party may invoke the equitable doctrine of laches when “delay by one party works to the disadvantage of the other, causing a change in circumstances which would make the grant of relief to the delaying party inequitable.” Bldg. & Const. Trades Council of N. Nevada v. State ex rel. Pub. Works Bd., 108 Nev. 605, 610-11, 836 P.2d 633, 636-37 (1992).

20. Because a preliminary injunction is equitable relief, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the doctrine of laches applies to prohibit such relief after a period of delay. See Carson City v. Price, 113 Nev. 409, 412-13, 934 P.3d 1042, 1044 (1997). Courts from other jurisdictions have ruled the same in Nevada-based cases. See Lydo Enterprises, Inc. v. City of Las Vegas, 745

1 F.2d 1211, 1213 (9th Cir. 1984) (holding a movant who “sleep[s] on its rights” in moving for
2 injunctive relief “demonstrates a lack of need for speedy action.”).

3 21. “Laches is more than mere delay in seeking to enforce one’s rights, it is delay that
4 works a disadvantage to another.” Home Sav. Ass’n v. Bigelow, 105 Nev. 494, 496, 779 P.2d 85,
5 86 (1989). “[T]he condition of the party asserting laches must become so changed that he cannot
6 be restored to his former state.” Id. “The applicability of the doctrine of laches turns upon the
7 peculiar facts of each case.” Id. (citing Miller v. Walser, 42 Nev. 497, 181 P. 437 (1919)).

8 22. Here, the Full Color Parties have delayed too long to obtain preliminary injunctive
9 relief. Though the Full Color Parties demanded preliminary injunctive relief against the Spin
10 Defendants in the Third-Party Complaint dated February 2, 2019, and against the Bragg Defendants
11 in the Amended Third-Party Complaint dated January 9, 2020, the Full Color Parties did not move
12 for a temporary restraining order or file the Motion to bring the matter before the Court until 13 November 22, 2021. As a result, the Full Color Parties have delayed 22 months in seeking
14 preliminary injunctive relief as to the Bragg Defendants and 33 months in seeking the same as to 15 the Spin Defendants.

16 23. Even if the Court were to consider the Press Release dated May 12, 2021 as the event
17 triggering the Full Color Parties’ duty to move for injunctive relief related to the Bragg/Spin
18 Transaction, the Full Color Parties still delayed over six months in seeking extraordinary relief.

19 24. In that intervening time, the condition of the Spin Defendants and the Bragg
20 Defendants changed. The companies spent considerable time and money dealing with regulators
21 for approval and executing the conditions to closing of the Bragg/Spin Transaction.

22 25. The delay by the Full Color Parties would make the granting of the Motion
23 inequitable to the Spin Defendants and the Bragg Defendants.

24 26. As a result, the Court holds that the doctrine of laches prevents the preliminary
25 injunction that the Full Color Parties seek.

26 C. Lack of Irreparable Harm

27 27. Parties moving for injunctive relief must show that they will suffer irreparable harm
28 without it. See Shores, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d at 1241.

1 28. The moving party must articulate irreparable harm in specific terms, and general
2 claims of irreparable harm absent this specificity do not satisfy the standard under NRCP 65. See
3 Foley, 121 Nev. at 80, 109 P.3d at 762.

4 29. When compensatory damages sufficiently compensate the moving party for any loss,
5 there is no irreparable harm and an injunction is inappropriate under NRCP 65. See Excellent Cmty.
6 Mgmt. v. Gilmore, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 38, 351 P.3d 720, 720 (2015).

7 30. Finally, delay in moving for injunctive relief implies a lack of irreparable harm. See,
8 e.g., Oakland Trib., Inc. v. Chron. Pub. Co., 762 F.2d 1374, 1377 (9th Cir. 1985); Garcia v. Google,
9 Inc., 786 F.3d 733, 746 (9th Cir. 2015) (moving party's months-long delay "undercut" claim of 10 irreparable harm).

11 31. Here, the Full Color Parties have not shown in specific terms that they will suffer
12 irreparable harm absent preliminary injunctive relief.

13 32. First, the Full Color Parties delayed in seeking injunctive relief, thereby undercutting
14 their claim of irreparable harm. See id.

15 33. Even more, the Full Color Parties' purported damages can be adequately remedied
16 by money damages, as both Spin Games and the Bragg Defendants will remain parties here even
17 after the Bragg/Spin Transaction closes.

18 34. The Full Color Parties argue in their Motion that there is irreparable harm to the Full
19 Color Parties' "business operations and profits" because the Bragg/Spin Transaction will prevent
20 the Full Color Parties from distributing the Full Color Games to the market and therefore earning
21 "perpetual income with every deployment."

22 35. But as Spin Games argued in its Opposition, this position has at least two flaws.

23 36. First, the Game Assets and Full Color Games are not part of the Bragg/Spin
24 Transaction, and the MNDA appears to allow the Full Color Parties to recover the Game Assets by
25 demanding their return in writing, and Spin Games has stated it is ready and able to return the Game
26 Assets.

27 37. Second, the Full Color Parties can cure any alleged breach by contracting with a new
28 company to develop and distribute any games that the Full Color Parties wish to distribute. The

Full Color Parties state in their operative pleading that they have negotiated with many other digital gaming companies with remote gaming servers able to distribute games. See Consolidated Second Amended Counterclaim and Third-Party Complaint of Defendants David Mahon, Glen Howard, Intellectual Properties Holding, LLC, Full Color Games, LLC, Full Color Games, N.A., Inc., and Jackpot Production, LLC; and Third Amended Counterclaim and Third-Party Complaint of Full Color Games, Inc. (“Operative Pleading”). They may cure any breach by Spin Games or the Bragg Defendants by contracting with such companies to complete and distribute any games the Full Color Parties wish to bring to market.

38. If the Full Color Parties prevail on their breach of contract claims against Spin Games, the Full Color Parties can seek to recover the costs of curing the breach through money damages at trial. See Gilmore, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 38, 351 P.3d at 720 (no irreparable harm where money damages sufficiently compensate moving party); see also Fuller v. United Elec. Co., 70 Nev. 448, 273 P.2d 136 (1954) (where contract is partially performed, non-breaching party may recover damages for cost “of completing performance of the work”); Valladares v. DMJ, Inc., 110 Nev. 1291, 1294, 885 P.2d 580, 582 (1994) (landowner had a right to cost of cure damages where drilling contractor only partially performed).

39. As a result, the Court is unconvinced that the Full Color Parties would suffer irreparable harm without the Court’s equitable intervention to grant extraordinary preliminary injunctive relief.

D. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

40. Under NRCP 65, a party moving for injunctive relief must show a likelihood of success on the merits of the case, and district courts may also weigh the potential hardships on the parties and the public interest in the dispute. See Shores, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 422 P.3d at 1241.

41. “Determining whether to grant or deny a preliminary injunction is within the district court’s sound discretion, and the district court’s decision will not be disturbed absent an abuse of discretion or unless it is based on an erroneous legal standard.” Sarfo v. Bd. of Med. Examiners, 134 Nev. 709, 711, 429 P.3d 650, 652 (2018).

42. Because the Court has denied the Motion based on the doctrine of laches and the lack of irreparable harm, the Court does not reach any conclusion on the Full Color Parties' likelihood of success on the merits. The Court similarly does not reach any conclusion on the potential hardships to the parties or any public interest in the dispute.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Counsel met with Court in Chambers for the purpose of the Mandatory Rule 16 Conference. Court advised that the Department would handle discovery matters and all discovery motions should be directed to this Court's attention. Court noted counsel could consider today's conference to be their Rule 16.1 Conference. The Court also queried counsel as to the case being ripe for a Settlement Conference. Mr. Gutierrez stated his client may be interested and Mr. Prall stated he believes so, it all depends on what Plaintiff is seeking. Court directed counsel to speak amongst themselves and contact the Department's Judicial Executive Assistant if at some point there is a consensus for a Settlement Conference. Thereafter, Court stated that it still requires a Joint Case Conference Report and directed it to be submitted by the close of business on August 31, 2018; the JCCR is to comply with NRCP 16.1(c)(1,3, & 4). COURT ORDERED, status check SET for September 6, 2018 at 9:00 am to determine if the Joint Case Conference Report (JCCR) has been filed. If filed, attendance is not required. However, if the JCCR has not been filed counsel must appear to explain why it has not been filed and the amount of time needed for compliance. Upon Court's inquiry as to how much time counsel would require for discovery; both counsel confirmed they would require 15 months until the close of discovery. Court advised that it will issue a combined Scheduling/ Trial Order that reflects that discovery period. Upon Court's inquiry as to case management or a need for a protective order,

Mr. Prall advised he would be fine with a protective order and Mr. Gutierrez advised he does not oppose one. Court directed counsel to file a stipulation if one is reached.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- HAVING further reviewed and considered the record, briefs and arguments pertaining to the subjects of the Motions to Dismiss (Third Party Defendants/Counterdefendants Mark Munger, Valcros, LLC, and Munger & Associates, Inc.; and Third Party Defendants/Counterdefendant Teresa Moore, Larry Moore, B.L Moore Construction Inc., and Moore Family Trust) heard on July 8, 2019 and then taken under advisement, and being now fully advised in the premises, the Court GRANTS such Motions IN PART to the extent that they relate to the Twelfth Claim for Relief and to the extent that such Motions seek a determination that pleaded claims that do not identify the moving parties in the parentheticals under given claims for relief do not include such moving parties, but the Motions are DENIED IN PART in all other respects, as the Court is not persuaded that the other claims that are the subject of such Motions fail to state claims on which relief can be granted under the applicable standard of NRCP 12(b)(5). The within ruling is without prejudice to motion practice under NRCP 56.

Counsel for Defendants/Third Party Plaintiffs is directed to submit a proposed order or orders consistent with the foregoing and with briefing and argument supportive of the same. Prior to submission of such proposed order(s) to the Court, the same should be submitted to opposing counsel for signification of approval/disapproval. - Ava Schaefer, Esq. also present for Third Party Defendants John Brock III and John Brock IV. Steven Caloiaro, Esq. present for Third-Party Defendant Bragg Gaming.

Conference conducted telephonically and matter not recorded. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Prall advised they are still in the process of serving a group of Defendants that are out of Canada and he expects that to be done soon as they just had a Motion to Extend Time granted. Court noted there are upcoming Motions to Dismiss on June 18th. Mr. Smith advised the Motions have been filed by the Brock Defendants and they have been continued a couple of times. Given the service issues and upcoming Motions, Court inquired if the Conference is ripe at this time. Mr. Prall requested the Court address the issue of trial being set in August as it is not reasonable at this time and reset the conference after the Motions to Dismiss are heard. Court inquired if anyone was missing from the call. Mr. Prall advised they are missing some counsel. Court noted it is very unlikely this case is going to go on the August stack; however, it cannot continue trial at this time as not everyone is on the call. Mr. Clough added it has not seen Full Color Games represented after the disqualification of counsel occurred. Mr. Prall concurred. Court deemed the conference to not be ripe at this time as service is still ongoing and there is motion practice set in June. Court advised they will address what will happen with trial and the Rule 16 at the time of the Motions to Dismiss.

PARTIES

- HAVING further reviewed and considered the parties' filings and the argument of counsel pertaining to Defendants' "Motion for Summary Judgment on Plaintiffs' Thirteenth and Fourteenth Claims for Relief" and Plaintiffs' "Counter-motion for Sanctions," heard and taken under advisement on October 19, 2020 and being now fully advised in the premises, and noting that Defendants acknowledge in their filings that, notwithstanding the claimed dissolution of Full Color Games, Inc. ("FCGI"), such entity is in a position to litigate other claims (see e.g. Motion, p. 4, ll. 12-13), and noting, further, that Plaintiffs' Opposition alludes to documentation, including a notice of dissolution of FCGI, submitted as exhibits to Defendants' Motion (see Opposition, 22-16) as to which discovery is necessary, and being mindful of Plaintiffs' alter ego contentions relating to all of the entity Defendants, and determining that Plaintiffs have made a proper NRCP 56(d) showing, the Court DENIES Defendants' Motion without prejudice to renewal after there has been a reasonable opportunity for Plaintiffs to engage in the discovery on the matters referenced in the "Affidavit of Counsel Pursuant to NRCP 56(d)" at pages 5-6 of the Opposition. The Court also DENIES Plaintiffs' Counter-motion for Sanctions.

Counsel for Plaintiffs is directed to submit a proposed order consistent with the foregoing and with briefing and argument supportive of the same after submitting the same to opposing counsel for signification of approval/disapproval. Instead of seeking to clarify or litigate meaning or any disapproval through correspondence to the Court or to counsel with copies to the Court, any such clarification or disapproval should be the subject of appropriate motion practice.

Court met with counsel in Chambers via BlueJeans for the Supplemental Rule 16 Conference. Mr. Prall noted he is in settlement negotiations with Mr. Schonfeld, there are just a couple of things to resolve, and it will simplify the case greatly if resolved. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Prall advised they just need to reset the scheduling order. Mr. Clough noted the case was filed in 2017 and requested having a trial date on a stack in May or June of 2022. Colloquy regarding trial stacks. Court advised it will issue a combined Scheduling/ Trial Order and set the case for trial on the April 2022 stack. Upon Court's inquiry as to how long trial will take, Mr. Clough estimated three weeks to a month if the issues stay as they are now and two weeks if they narrow. Mr. Prall concurred. Colloquy regarding discovery deadlines. Court set the discovery period at 13 months with close of discovery on December 9, 2021. Court advised all other deadlines will go off of that date.

- HAVING further reviewed and considered the parties' filings pertaining to the Motions and Countermotions/Joinders heard and taken under advisement on June 10, 2021 (Third-Party Plaintiffs' Motion to Stay Discovery Pending Ongoing Criminal Investigation, various Third-Party Defendants' Motions to Compel Discovery Responses and Requests for Sanctions, Third-Party Plaintiffs' Countermotions for Protective Order), together with the in camera submissions made by Third-Party Plaintiffs relative to their stay Motion and protective order Countermotions, which submissions have been marked as Court Exhibits for retention under seal, and making note of the fact that the Court has considered it best to make no direct contact/ communication with the involved U.S. Attorney's office to corroborate Third-Party Plaintiffs' showings (Canon 2, Rule 2.9(A)), choosing, instead, to accept the same made by counsel as officers of the Court in conjunction with review of the first subpoena provided and representations that a second subpoena is in progress, and being thus adequately, for now, advised in the premises, the Court makes the following determination:

The Court is satisfied that, although the involved U.S. Attorney's office has requested that the existence of the subpoena(s) not be disclosed, counsel for Third-Party Plaintiffs have made the disclosure of the existence/forthcoming existence thereof in this case in keeping with their duties as officers of this Court, and that further disclosures and discovery, for now, should be stayed until further order of the Court. - KENT YOUNG AND KUNAL MISHRA'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT...STATUS
 CHECK: STAY

Counsel present via BlueJeans.

Mr. Prall stated he thought when the Court stayed discovery the Motion for Summary Judgment would be deferred during the stay. Mr. Kay advised they are prepared to argue the Motion and did not know if the stay applied to the Motion. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Prall advised they received another subpoena and requested the stay remain in place as the criminal investigation is still ongoing. Mr. Caloiaro advised they have not seen the subpoena, been able to review it, and respond to it. Mr. Caloiaro added he does not think there is legal authority where the Court has granted a stay based upon a Plaintiff's concern for a Defendant's fifth amendment rights. Argument by Mr. Caloiaro regarding Mr. Mahon's recent actions. Court noted those issues need to be addressed by way of motion and directed counsel to elaborate on the things that have been said so it can determine if the stay should be continued or modified. Further argument by Mr. Prall and Mr. Caloiaro regarding the stay. Court advised the stay will remain in place and directed counsel to address the stay issue by motion practice. COURT ORDERED, Kent Young and Kunal Mishra's Motion for Summary Judgment CONTINUED. Mr. Prall inquired if they can submit the second subpoena in camera. Mr. Caloiaro advised they are fine with the Court seeing the subpoena; however, counsel should be entitled as officers of the court to see the subpoena as attorney's eyes only. Court directed Mr. Prall to submit the subpoena in camera and it will consider attorney's eyes only when it sees the subpoena.
