SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF SETH T. FLOYD

I, Seth T. Floyd, declare as follows:

1. I am the Director of Community Development for the City of Las Vegas. I have held this position since April 2021 and have been an employee of the City since August 1, 2017. I am one of the custodians of records for the City of Las Vegas Planning Department. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, except as to those stated on information and belief and, as to those, I am informed and believe them to be true. If called as a witness, I could and would competently testify to the matters stated herein.

2. I make this declaration in support of the City's Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment. The facts stated in this declaration demonstrate that the Developer's claim, raised for the first time in its Reply Evidentiary Brief #2, that the Badlands were designated "M" in the City's General Plan in 1981, is false. There was no "M" General Plan designation in the City's General Plan at that time. Moreover, the General Plan designation of the Badlands in 1981 is irrelevant because the City Council designated the Badlands "P" for parks, recreation and open space in the 1992 General Plan and reconfirmed that designation in at least five separate ordinances since 1992.

3. Nevada law provides that "[t]he planning commission shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive, long-term general plan for the physical development of the city . . . which in the commission's judgment bears relation to the planning thereof. . . . The plan must be known as the master plan" NRS 278.150(1) & (2). The City's laws use the terms "general plan" and "master plan" interchangeably.

4. "The master plan shall be a map, together with such charts, drawings, diagrams, schedules, reports, ordinances, or other printed or published material, or any one or a combination of any of the foregoing as may be considered essential to the purposes of NRS 278.010 to 278.630, inclusive." NRS 278.200.

5. The master plan must contain a land use element. NRS 278.160; NRS 278.150(5). The land use element must contain "[a] land use plan, including an inventory and classification of types of natural land and of existing land cover and uses, and comprehensive plans for the most desirable utilization of land." NRS 278.160(1)(d)(2).

1 6. In accordance with the requirements of NRS Chapter 278, the City adopted a
2 General Plan containing a Land Use and Rural Neighborhoods Preservation Element (“Land Use
3 Element”). The Land Use Element includes maps that identify the land use classifications assigned
4 to different areas of the City.

5 7. It is my understanding that Plaintiffs Fore Stars Ltd., 180 Land Co LLC, and Seventy
6 Acres LLC (“Developer”) argue that the general plan designation for the Badlands has been “M” or
7 “MED” since 1981 based on the Peccole Property Land Use Plan attached as Ex. QQQQ-1. There
8 was no “M” or “MED” general plan designation in the City’s General Plan in 1981.

9 8. Throughout the 1980s, the City’s General Plan used only three residential land use
10 designations: “suburban,” “urban,” and “rural.” Ex. QQQQ-2 at 2456-57; Ex. QQQQ-3 at 2488-90.
11 The City was divided into residential planning districts and a variety of housing types were permitted
12 in each district based upon the overall character and design concept established by the suburban,
13 urban, or rural general plan designation for that district. Ex. QQQQ-2 at 2456.

14 9. The letters “MED” on the Peccole Property Land Use Plan referred to a density
15 category and not a general plan designation. Both the 1975 General Plan and the 1985 General Plan
16 used density categories to balance the different housing types in a residential planning district to 17 achieve the overall density established by its general plan designation. Ex. QQQQ-2 at 2459; Ex.
18 QQQQ-3 at 2484.

19 10. For example, as the 1985 General Plan explained, urban residential planning districts
20 were expected to have 50% high density development (over 20 units per acre), 25% medium density 21 development (12-20 units per acre), and 25% medium-low density development (6-12 units per 22 acre). Ex. QQQQ-2 at 2460. If development exceeded one of these categories, the difference had 23 to be made up from other density categories to maintain the overall character and density pattern for 24 the entire residential planning district. Id.

25 11. The 1985 General Plan included sixteen community profiles, each with a separate
26 land use map and supporting text. Id. at 2461. The purpose of the community profiles was to “enable
27 the City to review individual development projects in terms of the policies contained in the General
28 Plan.” Id.

12. The community profile maps identified the “preferred location” of various land uses and density categories. Id. at 2460. The 1985 General Plan anticipated that “[t]he amount of land allocated to land uses and the densities on each profile map [would be] continually balanced by City staff . . . to result in the designed number of residential dwelling units and support uses.” Id.

13. The Badlands Property was located in Community Profile No. 13. Ex. QQQQ-4 at 2677. The supporting text for Community Profile No. 13 stated that “[t]he profile is designated for suburban development.” Id. at 2673. On the map for Community Profile No. 13, the area that included the Badlands Property was designated “L” for low density residential and “ML” for medium low density residential. Id. at 2677.

14. The supporting text for Community Profile No. 13 also stated that “[m]ost of the area between Sahara Avenue and Angel Park has been master planned and is known as the Peccole property.” Id. at 2673. New master plans for the Peccole property were approved in 1986 and subsequently in 1989. Ex. QQQQ-5; Ex. QQQQ-6.

15. In 1990, the City approved a master development plan amendment featuring an 18-hole golf course in the same general location as the Badlands Property. Ex. QQQQ-7. When the City began preparing the 1992 General Plan, the general location of the Badlands was designated “P” for Parks/Recreation/Open Space on Community Profile Map No. 13. Ex. QQQQ-8 at 2803. This designation conformed to the master development plan amendment approved in 1990.

16. The 1992 General Plan established the original Southwest, Northwest, and Southeast Sector Maps. Ex. QQQQ-9 at 2818. The Sector Maps were created by aggregating the sixteen Community Profile Maps of the 1985 General Plan. Id. In Ordinance No. 3636, the City Council approved the Southwest Sector Map in the land use element of the General Plan showing the proposed Badlands golf course as “PR-OS” for “Parks/Recreation/Open Space.” Ex. QQQQ-10. After designating the Badlands as PR-OS in 1992, the City Council adopted five ordinances updating the land use element that continued to assign a PR-OS general plan designation to the Badlands.

17. In 2000, the City Council adopted the 2020 Master Plan. Ex. QQQQ-11. The 2020 Master Plan retained the Land Use Element from the 1992 General Plan designating the Badlands as PR-OS. Id. at 3259; Ex. QQQQ-12 at 3335.
