11 FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
12 AND DECREE OF DIVORCE FROM TRIAL

13 THE ABOVE MATTER having come on regularly for Trial before the Honorable Judge 14 DENISE GENTILE, for non-jury trial with Plaintiff, DAVID STUCKE (“Plaintiff” or “DAVID”), 15 having appeared personally, and by and through his attorney, VINCENT MAYO, ESQ., and 16 Defendant, CHRISTIE (“Defendant” or CHRISTIE”), having appeared personally by and through 17 her attorney of record, FRED PAGE, ESQ. The Court heard the evidence of the witnesses sworn 18 and examined in open court, which included the parties, Christie and David and John Paglini, 19 PsyD. This Court had the opportunity to assess the demeanor and credibility of the witnesses. The 20 Court examined documentary exhibits admitted into evidence - Plaintiff’s Exhibits 1(b), 2, 12(a), 21 (b), and ©, 13-16, 21, 22, 26, 27, 29, 33-37, 39-42, 43(a) and (b), 44, 45(a) and(b), 46 (a) and (b), 22 47-50, 69, 86, 87, 121, 135, 136, 139, 140, 142, 153, 182, 184, 192, 194-198, 202, 204, 206, 207, 23 207(a), 208 - 217 were admitted; Defendant’s Exhibits A-E were admitted. Being advised as to 24 the law in this case and good cause appearing, this Court renders its decision, as follows:

25 I.

26 HISTORY OF THE CASE

27 THE COURT FINDS that the parties were married on May 28, 2016. The parties have two 28 children, Sarah Stucke, born July 22, 2016, age 4, and David Orion Stuck, born March 30, 2018, age 2. COURT FINDS that David filed this action on November 28, 2018. An Answer was filed by Christie on December 13, 2018. COURT FINDS that this matter was hotly contested and

STUCKE-1056

1 litigated with various motions, discovery disputes, numerous hearings in front of the Court, which 2 included custody, support orders, and related interim issues pertaining to the parties. The parties 3 were not sent to mediation because a joint physical custody schedule was entered by the TPO
4 hearing master, which was confirmed and adopted by this Court. The Court heard various motions 5 entered temporary family support orders, based upon the representations made by the parties as to 6 their financial situations. The case was set for trial after 2 years of discovery and litigation, and 7 this Decree follows:

8 Preliminary Findings

9 THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that the Court, as part of the process in formulating the 10 decision, listened to the testimony of witnesses and reviewed the Exhibits offered by the parties that 11 were admitted into the record. THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that the issues before the Court 12 included child custody, child support, the division of assets and debts, confirmation of separate 13 property, and attorney's fees.

14 The COURT FURTHER FINDS it is to the satisfaction of the Court that the parties are 15 residents of Nevada, as it was undisputed they have lived in the state of Nevada, and based upon 16 the parties' testimony, it is to the satisfaction of the Court that residence is established at least six 17 (6) weeks prior to the commencement of the action.. THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that it has 18 jurisdiction over these parties and the subject matter. THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that the 19 parties are incompatible, with no possibility of reconciliation.

20 TERMINATION OF THE PARTIES' MARRIAGE

21 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of 22 matrimony existing between Christie and David be, and the same are wholly dissolved, and an 23 absolute Decree of Divorce is hereby granted to Christie and David, and each of the parties is 24 restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

25 CUSTODY

26 COURT FINDS the parties have two children, born of this marriage, Sarah Stucke, age 4, 27 and David Stucke, age 2. COURT FINDS the applicable statutory authority that governs this case 28 is as follows:

NRS 125C.001 State Policy. The legislature declares that it is the policy of this state:

1. To ensure that minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents after the parents have ended their relationship, become separated or dissolved their marriage;
 2. To encourage such parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing; and
 3. To establish that such parents have an equivalent duty to provide their minor children with necessary maintenance, health care, education and financial support.
- As used in this subsection, “equivalent” must not be construed to mean that both parents are responsible for providing the same amount of financial support to their children.

NRS 125C.0015 Parents have joint custody until otherwise ordered by court.

1. The parent and child relationship extends equally to every child and to every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents.
2. If a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

LEGAL CUSTODY

COURT FINDS that NRS 125C.002 provides the court with its authority for establishing joint legal custody, as follows:

1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the legal custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

COURT FINDS the neither party presented a case to overcome the presumption that it is in the children's best interests for the court to order joint legal custody; therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that each party is awarded Joint Legal Custody of the minor children.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY

NRS 125C.0025 Joint physical custody.

1. When a court is making a determination regarding the physical custody of a child, there is a preference that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint physical custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the physical custody of the minor child; or

1 (b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful 2 relationship with the minor child.

3 2. For assistance in determining whether an award of joint physical custody is appropriate, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted.

4 NRS 125C.0035 Best interests of child: Joint physical custody; preferences; presumptions when court determines parent or person seeking custody is perpetrator of domestic violence or has committed act of abduction against child or any other child.

5 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court 6 that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

7 2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

8 3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

9 (a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 or to either parent pursuant to NRS 125C.003. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint 10 physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's 11 application.

12 (b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

13 © To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the 14 child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

15 (d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

16 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that in custody matters, the polestar for judicial 17 decision is the best interest of the child, the court has broad discretion. The Supreme Court has 18 held that the district court must make specific findings and provide an adequate explanation of the 19 reasons for a child custody determination, and must tie it to the best interest factors enumerated by 20 statute, and any other relevant factors relevant to the determination. Davis v. Ewalefo, 131 Nev.
21 Adv. Op 45, 352 P3d 1139 (2015).

22 COURT FINDS that the parties shared joint physical custody during the pendency of the 23 action. COURT FINDS that David and Christie could not agree on the final custodial orders and 24 thus, the Court granted permission for Dr. John Paglini to conduct a child custody evaluation, at 25 David's request. COURT FINDS that after a lengthy period of conducting the evaluation; the 26 custody evaluation was completed on July 27, 2020; including the national pandemic, several 27 factors delayed the divorce trial, but the Court was finally able to hear testimony from Dr. Paglini 28 at the second day of the parties' divorce trial conducted on 12/09/2020. COURT FINDS that Dr.

1 Paglini's report was admitted as evidence, Plaintiff's Exhibit 207(a). COURT FINDS that Dr.
2 Paglini's report was 88 pages and very detailed as to his findings and recommendations. COURT 3 FINDS that it adopts Dr. Paglini's findings and recommendations, as though set forth fully herein.
4 Dr. Paglini's report and testimony were CREDIBLE and are fair and even-handed when evaluating 5 the parties, their behaviors, and what is best for the parties' minor children.

6 Based upon the FINDINGS OF FACT, the Court makes the following CONCLUSIONS 7 OF LAW AND ORDERS:

8 NRS 125C.0035(4) states: In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall 9 consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

10 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

11 Based upon the foregoing Court FINDS there was no testimony presented about this factor, 12 and therefore inapplicable.

13 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

14 Neither party presented evidence of this factor. This factor is inapplicable.

15 © Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a 16 continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

17 Again this Court adopts the findings of Dr. Paglini on this issue. The Court is aware of the 18 struggles experienced during this case and the difficulty the parties have had co-parenting. COURT 19 FINDS that the most concerning was the continued theme learned about Christie in her efforts to 20 gain leverage or control in the custody proceedings. COURT FINDS that Christie made various 21 allegations against David, all in an attempt to gain an advantage, but none of which was 22 substantiated. COURT FINDS that Christie made allegations to denigrate David's image with the 23 Court, such as he was a cheater, that he raped her, that he was a pedophile, but also admitted in 24 some regards that he was good with the children. COURT FINDS that the context of each of such 25 allegations tended to occur when she was unable to gain ground in the divorce action, or there were 26 questions relating to her financial dealings, thus detracting the focus from what would otherwise 27 have been directed to the parties' money issues. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini's report addresses 28 this issue extensively in his factual recitation of the numerous reports of the parties regarding the

1 above issues. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini asserts and this Court ADOPTS that if David Stuck 2 truly were a pedophile or did in fact abuse his daughter, this would have serious ramifications on 3 the custodial recommendations and ultimately the orders. COURT CONFIRMS that there was no 4 evidence presented at trial to suggest that David was a pedophile, and Dr. Paglini's observation of 5 the children with their father indicated they were very bonded, while this would have been the 6 opportunity to observe discomfort of an issue between David and his daughter. COURT 7 FURTHER FINDS that Dr. Paglini asserts and this Court ADOPTS that if Ms. Stucke created sex 8 abuse claims or rape allegations for secondary gains, this would be the ultimate act of parental 9 alienation, and the Court would clearly give David primary custody. COURT ALSO FINDS that 10 there is evidence that Christie has a history of making similar allegations in her prior divorce with 11 the father of her elder children, which calls into question her credibility. However, her ex-husband 12 was unwilling to disparage Christie or offer negative testimony about Christie as he indicated to 13 Dr. Paglini that he and Christie have a good relationship now, and that she is a good mother. But, 14 there was a point when the relationship was not so cooperative.

15 While David attempted to utilize these findings by Dr. Paglini as a reason to seek primary 16 custody, Dr. Paglini testified that while the allegations of sexual abuse may not have been 17 substantiated, it does not mean that Christie reported it out of spite, but could have reported it 18 because she believed her daughter, as parents want to believe their children, and certainly do not 19 want to be in a position where they have chosen to ignore their children's claims of abuse, and then 20 it turns out to be true, so parents WANT to believe their children. COURT FINDS in conclusion, 21 that neither law enforcement, investigative agencies, nor Dr. Paglini or the Court could find that 22 any of such allegations were true. In this regard, this Court FINDS that it could find neither 23 scenario to be presented in the evidence admitted at trial. As it relates to this factor, there were 24 copious amounts of facts included in Dr. Paglini's report, and this Court adopts them herein. This 25 factor does not favor either party. See Dr. Paglini's report, Exhibit 207(a).

26 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

27 COURT FINDS that there is a high level of conflict between the parties at this time, due 28 to these proceedings; however, this Court believes once the case has concluded, the level of conflict

1 should subside to a degree, as this litigation has played a role in the parties' acrimonious 2 relationship. COURT FINDS that the Court's Orders should establish parameters within which the 3 parties shall function, and there should be a reduction in conflict and also instruction for those 4 behaviors the parties should avoid in the future, in order to reduce conflict. Dr. Paglini 5 acknowledged that Christie has demonstrated her dislike for David, and has expressed so in front 6 of the children, and has expressed that if it continues, it would be a hindrance to the parties' ability 7 to co-parent moving forward. This factor favors David. See Dr. Paglini's report, Exhibit 207(a).

8 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

9 Other than the acrimony in the parties' divorce, and the issues that have been identified 10 herein and in Dr. Paglini's report, COURT FINDS that historically, both parties have been able to 11 cooperate to meet the needs of the minor children, as evidenced by the testimony at trial.

12 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

13 There was a concern for Christie's mental health as Dr. Paglini referred to her emotional 14 dysregulation and the increased dysregulation over time when she was upset with David, when she 15 was jealous or angry with David; COURT FINDS that there is concern for Christie's assaults on 16 David and her continued disparagement of David in the presence of the children which could have 17 lasting effects on the children. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini indicates Christie is not aware of 18 the impact this behavior would have on the children, and needs to be more mindful of the same.
19 Dr. Paglini noted that David tended to video record certain incidents with Christie that caused the 20 situation to escalate, and cause additional frustration. COURT FINDS that said behavior of each 21 party was intended to prove a point, and caused frustration to the other party, without concern for 22 how this would affect the children. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini determined David appreciated 23 the impact this could have on the children, while Christie chose to focus on blaming David for 24 instigating the incidents. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini reports Christie also has admitted she 25 has borderline personality disorder - sufferers of such disorder tend to be a challenge in 26 relationships as they are emotional over-reactive or dysregulated, over idealize and devalue very 27 quickly. COURT FINDS that Dr. Paglini's recommendation is that whether Christie suffers from 28 Borderline Personality or not, she needs to learn to regulate her anger/emotions and to express

1 herself in a more appropriate manner, and should be addressed in therapy (this will be addressed 2 herein below in the Orders). While Dr. Paglini did not identify specific mental health factors that 3 would prevent either parent from being able to parent the children, Dr. Paglini raised issues of 4 concern that if continued to be present or if increased may support a change in custody in the 5 future. See Dr. Paglini's Report, Exhibit 207(a).

6 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

7 COURT FINDS that it needs to reiterate the concerns raised herein about the issues that 8 exist with the emotional dysregulation of Christie, and the continued acrimony that exists between 9 both parents, to the extent that the children are potentially pawns in the process. COURT FINDS 10 that while neither party demonstrated that either was incapable of providing the children what they 11 need on a day to day basis, physically, developmentally, emotionally, as a loving and caring parent, 12 each parent has behaved in such a way during this process and while in the process of the 13 dissolution of their relationship, that neither took into consideration that the triggering of the other 14 would create tension and behavior in the household to be witnessed by the children, NOT meeting 15 the children's emotional needs, but putting their own needs to win, gain an advantage, or prove a 16 point came first. Does this Court believes that each parent loves the children, yes. Does this Court 17 believe each is capable of meeting the physical, developmental and emotional needs of the children, 18 yes. Dr. Paglini's report indicates that each is a good parent, the children love their parents, and 19 the children are cared for, despite the negative interaction between the parents. COURT FINDS 20 that this factor does not favor either parent, but CAUTIONS both parents to be mindful of the fact 21 that while you may be able to feed, clothe, educate, and care for the children on a daily basis, their 22 emotional needs are important, and often the effects of your misconduct toward each other causes 23 an intangible effect that will come to light in later years, while the children are attempting to 24 conduct themselves in relationships, either familial or romantic type relationships. You are your 25 children's role models; straighten up and act like the two highly intelligent individuals capable of 26 understanding that a moment of indiscretion or inappropriate behavior may affect your children for 27 a lifetime. See Dr. Paglini's Report, Exhibit 207(a).

1 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

2 Based upon the testimony, and the report of Dr. Paglini, COURT FINDS the relationship 3 of the children with their parents is good. There was no evidence presented by either parent to 4 suggest otherwise, and Dr. Paglini indicates that during his observations the children were 5 comfortable and bonded with their parents.

6 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

7 COURT FINDS there are no other minor siblings; therefore the ability of the children to 8 maintain a relationship with any sibling is a non-issue, as these children remain together in the 9 custody schedule. COURT FINDS that Christie has children who are much older than the children 10 in this case and Christie is able to ensure the younger children maintain relationship with their elder 11 siblings during her timeshare.

12 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

13 COURT FINDS that while there have been multiple reports to CPS and a criminal 14 investigation, there was no evidence presented related to abuse or neglect of the children. This 15 factor is inapplicable.

16 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged 17 in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other 18 person residing with the child.

19 COURT FINDS there have been allegations of domestic violence by each party. COURT 20 FINDS that David pled no contest to a battery domestic violence case, and there was much 21 evidence presented to Dr. Paglini of Christie's volatile and violent behavior. COURT FINDS that 22 even with this behavior, Dr. Paglini concluded that this should not preclude either party from 23 having custody. This factor does not favor either party.

24 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed 25 any act of abduction against the child or any other children.

26 COURT FINDS that there was no evidence presented regarding this factor, and is 27 inapplicable.

28 Based upon the foregoing FINDINGS, the Court states its ORDERS as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that David and Christie are awarded Joint Legal and Joint Physical Custody of the minor children, to wit: Sarah Stucke and David Stucke. Based upon the

1 recommendations of Dr. Paglini, the Court FURTHER ORDERS that the parties shall share the 2 children on an approximately 60/40 time share. COURT ORDERS that David shall have the 3 children each week from Monday at 8 a.m. to Friday at 8 a.m., Christie shall have the children from 4 Friday at 8 a.m. to Monday at 8 a.m. David shall also have the 3rd weekend and the 5th weekend
5 of the month (if there are 5 weekends in a given month), from Friday at 8 a.m. to Monday at 8 a.m., 6 and Mom shall have the children from Monday at 8 a.m. to Wednesday at 8 a.m. of the week 7 following David's weekend. The 3rd weekend shall be defined by the weekend that has the 3rd 8 Friday of the month. COURT ORDERS that the parties shall share the children on a week on/week 9 off basis during the summer months, starting the first Friday of the children's summer school break; 10 the schedule shall continue until the weekend before the children return to school, at which point 11 their weekly custody schedule shall be reinstated. The children shall be with David the first week 12 after school ends, in odd years, and shall be with Christie the first week after school ends in even 13 years. COURT ORDERS that the parties shall take their respective vacations during the summer 14 months, and during their own custody time, and shall be no longer than one (1) week, unless 15 otherwise agreed by the parties. If the parties agree to extend vacation longer than the one week 16 as stated herein, they must do so in writing, and provide the other with compensatory time for the 17 time missed, to be exercised immediately after the children return from vacation.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that David and Christie will alternate the holidays, and adhere 19 to the following holiday schedule (if the holiday is not addressed herein, the holiday shall be 20 exercised by the person who has the children on that date, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the 21 parties, for any given holiday):

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Thanksgiving: The holiday visitation shall begin the day school ends for Thanksgiving break (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continue until the day school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school).	Dad	Mom

1	Christmas/Winter Break: Winter break shall be divided between the parents, with the first block of time commencing when school ends for the Winter Break (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school), and continue until the mid-point of the Winter Break at 12:00 p.m.. The second block of time shall commence on mid-point at 12:00 p.m. and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school). If the break has an odd number of days, the second half of the break shall receive the extra day.

CHILD SUPPORT

COURT FINDS that child support should be set pursuant to NAC 425 and the applicable NRS 125B. COURT FINDS David's most recent financial declarations, amongst other testimonial evidence, demonstrate a gross monthly income of $8,333 per month. Pursuant to NAC 423, applying the formula to David's income, twenty-two percent (22%) of David's gross monthly income is $1,833.26. COURT FINDS that Christie's most recent financial declaration from 9/2020 shows that she earns $4,100 per month, her financial declaration just prior to that which was served but never filed (and much more detailed and likely more accurate from the perspective of reporting from where her income is generated) indicates that she earns $7,228 gross monthly income; the prior filings had incomes of $4,100 (2/2019), $7,021 (4/16/2019), and $6,221 (4/23/2019).

1 COURT FINDS that it is almost impossible to discern what is actually Christie's monthly income.
2 Christie is a master of moving money between accounts, utilizing cash on hand, categorizing 3 personal expenses or paying personal expenses through her various business entities, receiving 4 income for one business entity but running it through a different entity, and frankly, making a 5 difficult accounting task almost insurmountable from the Court's perspective. What is obvious 6 from the information provided is that Christie does not accurately report her income on her 7 financial disclosure forms, as the figures provided do not match the cash withdrawals from the 8 various bank accounts owned by Christie, COURT FINDS that while Christie is willing to admit 9 to an income of $7,223 on February 2020 and various other numbers in that range until just prior 10 to trial in September 2020, the Court FINDS that Christie is able to earn at minimum the same 11 amount of income as David based upon the disclosures and the withdrawals, and thus the Court 12 shall attribute the same amount of income of $8,333 to Christie for purposes of calculating child 13 support. COURT FINDS that Christie's child support shall be set at $1,833.26 per month; and 14 when applying the formula which requires the parties to offset each party's child support against 15 the other, then the child support amount in this case shall be ZERO. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, 16 ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that NEITHER PARTY shall pay child support to the other.

17 CHILDREN'S HEALTH EXPENSES

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED the cost of the minor 19 children's medical insurance premium shall be paid by David, and said premium shall be shared 20 equally by the parties. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of all 21 the reasonable and necessary medical, surgical, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and optical 22 expenses of the minor children not paid by any medical or other insurance covering the minor 23 children. Each party shall be responsible for the payment of his or her share of such expenses, 24 regardless of which party actually pays or incurs such expense, and the party actually paying any 25 such expense shall be reimbursed by the other party for his or her one-half (1/2) share of the same, 26 in accordance with the 30/30 rules. In this regard, within thirty (30) days from the date either party 27 actually incurs and pays for any such medical related expense for the minor children, such party 28 shall provide the other party with the appropriate billing statement and written verification of such

1 expense, and such party also shall provide written verification of his or her actual payment of the 2 same. Any such reimbursement required pursuant to the terms of this provision shall be paid within 3 thirty (30) days of the party's receipt of the other party's written request for reimbursement which 4 includes the above-mentioned written verification of such expense having been incurred by the 5 other party, as provided above. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that if a receipt or request for 6 reimbursement is not tendered within thirty (30) days, the court may consider it a waiver of right 7 to reimbursement. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if there is no dispute, or payment, of a 8 reimbursement within the prescribed thirty (30) days, the obligated party may be subject to a 9 finding of contempt and appropriate sanctions.

10 TAX EXEMPTIONS

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Christie shall be entitled 12 to claim Sarah as a dependent on her tax returns, and David shall be entitled to claim David Orion, 13 as a dependent on his tax returns. When the eldest child reaches the age of majority, then the 14 parties shall alternate claiming David until such time he reaches the age of majority. In the event 15 the current custodial arrangement changes, the COURT retains jurisdiction to modify this 16 provision, as appropriate, so that it properly reflects which party should receive the exemption, 17 pursuant to I.R.S. Tax Code. COURT FINDS that if either party is unable to utilize the child on 18 his/her tax return, the parties may STIPULATE to the transfer the right to claim the children in any 19 given tax year; if the parties do so, the party transferring the right to claim said child shall sign the 20 necessary forms required to transfer the dependency exemption, if required.

21 LEGAL AUTHORITY REGARDING DIVISION OF ASSETS

22 THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that this Court considers the following statutory guidance 23 in evaluating the parties' competing property claims. First, Chapter 123 of the Nevada Revised 24 Statutes governs the property rights of a husband and wife. NRS 123.130 defines separate property 25 of a wife and husband while NRS 123.220 defines community property. NRS 125.150 governs the 26 adjudication of property rights, requiring an equal division, unless compelling circumstances exist 27 which warrant a different division. THE COURT FINDS that each party alleged in his/her 28 Complaints that there is community property, owned by the parties.

2 COMMUNITY PROPERTY AND SEPARATE PROPERTY

3 THE COURT FINDS the parties have the following assets to be adjudicated by the Court:

4 3485 W. Maule Ave., LV, NV (West Maule):

5 COURT FINDS this property was purchased in July 2015 by David during the parties' 6 domestic partnership. COURT FINDS that David argues that he signed a contract in March and 7 thus the property was his sole and separate property; however, the closing date for the purchase was 8 on July 28 2015. COURT FINDS that the date the property was acquired was during the domestic 9 partnership and the presumption is that the property acquired during this period is community in 10 nature. COURT FINDS that David argues several theories about the parties' intent, but provides 11 no independent evidence of these theories that he was to maintain the property as his own, prior 12 to the marriage, that the domestic partnership was not to have the legal effect that a partnership 13 applies to property acquired during the same, etc. David's argument fails, as the property was 14 purchased during the domestic partnership, the parties then married, and there is no legal writing 15 or contract, pre-nuptial agreement or post-nuptial agreement indicating that this presumed 16 community property was anything other than a community asset.

17 COURT FURTHER FINDS that the parties stipulated on March 2020 that David was to 18 purchase Christie's interest in the property, and said purchase was to be based upon the stipulated 19 value of $500,000. COURT FINDS that Christie argued that the home was worth more than this 20 amount at the time of trial, and that she should be bought out at the higher value, but this COURT 21 FINDS that the stipulation is enforceable pursuant to EDCR 7.50, as consent was given by both 22 parties in the minutes for this amount to be applied to the value of the property, when David is to 23 purchase Christie's interest. There was no time frame or expiration date for the stipulated 24 agreement. COURT FINDS that there was a delay in David's refinance of the home, due to 25 Christie's failure to pay the mortgage, leaving David with a problem with his application.
26 Throughout the proceedings, Christie failed to vacate the residence claiming she had no funds to 27 relocate, despite evidence in the record demonstrating that she continued to gamble consistently; 28 she claimed there were no movers, she claimed that she did not have to execute the quitclaim deed,

1 and intentionally delayed David from moving into the residence and refinancing the loan. COURT 2 FINDS the property is a community asset, acquired during the parties domestic partnership.
3 COURT ORDERS that the David shall be awarded the W. Maule home, and he shall owe Christie 4 one-half of the net equity interest in the home, as of the date of this Decree of Divorce; David shall 5 pay Christie said one-half after he deducts those amounts paid on her behalf for the mortgage and 6 the van.

7 (*COURT NOTES that David argued the property should have had a Malmquist calculation 8 applied to the home, as he argues 1) that he “purchased” the property in March 2015 prior to the 9 domestic partnership 2) that the home was intended to be his separate property until the parties 10 married 3) that there would only be a small share of the home awarded to Christie based upon these 11 arguments. COURT FURTHER FINDS that the Court was not provided a Malmquist calculation 12 for the date of trial, and was only provided Exhibits attached to the Pre-Trial Memorandum with 13 a summary of the calculation, and no underlying documentation to support the figures therein. A 14 brief review of the same, show that the figures do not match the mortgage statements for opening 15 loan amount or ending loan balance at time of trial.)

16 7211 Birkland Court, LV, NV (“Birkland Court”)

17 COURT FINDS that David purchased a home during the marriage at Birkland Court.
18 David testified that the funds came from a pre-marital retirement account, and this Court FINDS 19 this representation credible, especially based upon the parties’ conduct thereafter. COURT FINDS 20 that David would own this home with his friend, Jonathon Morrell as his own separate investment.
21 COURT FINDS that David testified that his partner refused to purchase the property with Christie, 22 so he ensured that the entirety of the transaction did not include Christie. COURT FINDS that 23 Christie contended that the reason for the purchase being in David’s name was due to her bad 24 credit. David contends that the home was purchased free and clear, and thus the argument that 25 credit was an issue is NOT CREDIBLE. COURT FINDS that Christie executed the documentation 26 for the home to be vested in the name of David, as his sole and separate property, and he and Mr.
27 Morrell purchased the home on April 13, 2018. COURT FINDS that the property was purchased 28 for the business purpose of rental through AirBnb and the property was transferred into an entity

1 called JD Investments, LLC, which was created during the marriage, but COURT FINDS that 2 because the entity was created for the purpose of the partnership entered into by David and Mr.
3 Morrell. COURT FINDS that Christie argues that because the entity was opened during the 4 marriage, and the property already owned by David was transferred into the entity, that this 5 transmutes the property BACK to being a community asset because the entity was formed during 6 the community. COURT FINDS that this shift in the titling of the asset from David as an 7 individual, as his sole and separate property to an entity where the ownership interest is held by 8 David, does not change the character of the separate property, but merely a vehicle for the two 9 owners of the property to take advantage of the protections afforded by the LLC; the entity would 10 be utilized to manage the expenses, document their business arrangement and ownership 11 percentages of the property, the agreement for distribution of profits related to their ownership, as 12 well as being able to deduct the expenses and utilize the tax benefits associated with holding the 13 property in an LLC. This is no different than transferring property to a family trust for estate 14 planning purposes, and the property is identified by the trust as separate property asset. The 15 character of the separate property asset does not change because a trustor takes advantage of the 16 estate planning vehicle. Christie waived her rights and interest in the property. David held title as 17 his sole and separate property and then later held his interest in the LLC, in which the property was 18 the only asset. Colman v. Collier (In re Colman Revocable Living Trust), 136 Nev Adv Rep 13, 19 460 P.3d 452 (2020), Sprenger v. Sprenger, 110 Nev. 855, 858, 878 P.2d 284, 286 (1994). If 20 David shared with Christie the profits therefrom, then that was a gift to the community. Christie 21 argued that the parties shared in the responsibility for the property, and that she participated heavily 22 in the maintenance and booking of the property, thus it was and intended to be a community asset.
23 COURT FINDS that there was no evidence that the community was owed money from improving 24 the property or to maintain the property.

25 Christie testified that the parties devoted time, energy, community money, to maintain the 26 property, but no independent evidence was presented about what amounts of community monies 27 were allegedly expended that would demonstrate the community was owed or somehow there was 28 a transmutation of the property, and therefore any claims of this nature are not credible and cannot

1 be sustained, and are hereby DENIED. In this regard, David is entitled to the proceeds from the 2 sale of the residence.

3 3740 Grandview Place, LV NV (“Grandview”)

4 COURT FINDS that another home was purchased during the marriage, in October 2017, 5 at Grandview. COURT FINDS title is held by David as a married man, as his sole and separate 6 property. COURT FINDS takes judicial notice of the fact that in Nevada, in order for a married 7 man to obtain title in real property as his sole and separate property, the wife must sign a deed 8 relinquishing all right, title and interest in the said property, as escrow will not close without her 9 waiver of her community property interest. COURT FINDS that the title of the property for the 10 Grandview residence was vested in David, a married man, as his sole and separate property. Any 11 and all interest in the monies put into the home for down payment as of the date of the purchase 12 would have been waived at the time of the transaction. COURT FINDS that there was testimony 13 from David that the money utilized to purchase the residence were from separate property sources.
14 COURT FINDS that while David was only able to trace some of the funds which were utilized to 15 purchase the home, his testimony and the tracing of which only confirms that the intent was for the 16 property to be David’s separate property. COURT FINDS that there was no credible evidence of 17 a credit problem or other reason as to why the home would be put into David’s name solely, but 18 still intended to be community property. COURT FINDS that there was no evidence presented at 19 the time of trial that any additional community monies were used to satisfy the debt on the 20 residence, that would have created a claim for community interest. Further, COURT FINDS that 21 if the down payment were in excess of $80,000 and the sales proceeds were less than the down 22 payment in the amount of $63,077.55, then the entirety of the proceeds from the Grandview 23 residence should be awarded to David. IT IS SO ORDERED.

24 Business Interests

25 ACTION RAD, ATOMIC RADIOLOGY, AND PCCG

26 COURT FINDS that the parties testified there were three businesses which were owned and 27 operated by the parties. COURT FINDS that Atomic Radiology contracted with physicians and 28 medical imaging centers to provide imaging services. COURT FINDS that the two other 1 businesses were software vendors for the software utilized by clients of Atomic Radiology.

2 COURT FINDS these three businesses were historically Christie's source of income and were 3 profitable. COURT FINDS that unfortunately Christie threatened and it appears made good on the 4 threat that she would ensure David did not receive anything from the businesses. COURT FINDS 5 that during the pendency of the proceedings this Court had difficulty discerning what was Christie's 6 actual income for purposes of child support, and at trial it was no different. COURT FINDS that 7 the difficulty lies in the fact that the accounting for the businesses was not completed by Christie.
8 There were accusations of theft of hard drives and deleting pertinent information. COURT 9 FURTHER FINDS that Christie tended to utilize the business accounts as both business and 10 personal, with transactions occurring between accounts, in casinos, ATM machines, to pay personal 11 expenses, making it almost impossible for the Court to discern what is business income, what is 12 personal income, what are business expenses versus personal expenses. COURT FINDS that the 13 businesses are alter-egos for Christie, as she failed to maintain the separate nature of the entities 14 from her personal transactions. COURT FURTHER FINDS that there were no business valuations 15 presented for the Court to be able to determine a value of the businesses for purposes of dividing 16 the assets or awarding Christie ownership and ascribing an amount for Christie to purchase the 17 business interest from David. In this regard, the Court has no alternative but to award a 50% 18 interest in the business interests to each party. COURT HEREBY ORDERS that the parties each 19 shall be awarded the 50% interest in the entities created during the marriage. COURT FURTHER 20 FINDS that there was some concern that Christie would commence a new business under a new 21 name and attempt to transfer the business away from the current entities to a new entity. COURT 22 CAUTIONS Christie that if this occurs, and it is brought to the Court's attention, the Court may 23 deem such entity to be the same business and a fraudulent effort to divest David of his ownership 24 interest in the same. COURT NOTES, should David choose not to be associated or retain his 25 ownership interest, he has the right to relinquish the same in writing and divest himself of any 26 interest in the businesses, but the Court cannot do so within the decree, as there is no other way to 27 divide the assets presently held by the parties. If David retains his ownership interest, Christie has 28 a fiduciary obligation to her partner and must conduct the businesses in this regard.

MARITAL WASTE

COURT FINDS that David alleges there is marital waste in the amount of thousands of dollars in excess of $100,000. COURT FINDS that David spent inordinate efforts to attempt to clarify this for the Court with the various spreadsheets and financial statements prepared with the information he obtained during discovery, but even then it was difficult to differentiate, as during testimony, it was clear that some of the statements lacked requisite information for the Court to reach a reasonable conclusion (i.e. there were statements presenting purported business profit, but lacked any information relating to business expenses). COURT has reviewed the records prepared by David, and takes into account that David is not a trained professional in this area, but has a mathematical background. COURT FINDS that while it appreciates the efforts expended by David in his preparation of financial statements with the assistance of his girlfriend who is in the accounting field, the Court cannot find that they are reliable for purposes of making a finding of marital waste. While the Court CAN make the finding that Christie functions in such a manner that causes this Court to question all of her financial dealings - unfortunately those financial dealings were not put to the test by an expert who could have evaluated the records. COURT FINDS that the information provided by David definitely convinced this Court that Christie had access to funds in excess of what she presented to the Court at the time of the interim hearings, but it is impossible for this Court to discern what Christie did with the money, what money was transferred between businesses, what paid for personal expenses, and what was utilized by Christie for this venture of advantage gambling, or just recreational gambling. COURT FINDS that Christie's credibility is questionable as it pertains to her representations, as the Court can plainly see that Christie continued to withdraw cash from the business; she did so in gaming establishments, and then expects the Court to believe she did so to pay business expenses. This Court rejects such a notion. HOWEVER, the Court cannot be tasked with performing its own accounting of those transactions within the financial statements, to make a determination as to which transactions were personal, business, gambling, without an expert forensic accounting of said transactions. COURT AGREES with the representations made by Christie's counsel that this Court is unable to make the finding, after a review of the documents admitted into evidence, to determine the actual amount of waste.

1 In this regard, while the Court believes there is likely wasteful spending and potential concealment
2 of monies by Christie, the Court must DENY the claim for recovery of a sum certain of wasted 3 funds. COURT FINDS however that the evidence supports the Orders that Christie be responsible 4 for the expenses of the business, any tax ramifications associated with the business, as she has been 5 the party solely operating the business, as well as the party who has sole access to the funds 6 received by the business, which she used for her sole support and enjoyment, and did not utilize 7 for purposes of paying community expenses, as ordered by the Court.

8 VEHICLES

9 Each party shall hereby be awarded the vehicle in his/her possession.

10 FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Christie shall be awarded 12 any and all financial accounts titled in her name solely (each party utilizes his/her own accounts
13 to function and pay bills on a monthly basis based upon this Court's distribution of community 14 income, so the value of these accounts vary from day to day).

15 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that David shall be awarded 16 any and all financial accounts titled in his name, including, (each party utilizes his/her own accounts
17 to function and pay bills on a monthly basis based upon this Court's distribution of community 18 income, so the value of these accounts vary from day to day).

19 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that any and all retirement 20 accounts shall be divided pursuant to the time rule, pursuant to Gemma and Fondi. COURT 21 FINDS that it did not receive independent documentary evidence of the actual value of the 22 retirement accounts which may be presently owned by the parties, but reference was made to the 23 same, and thus, they acknowledge the accounts were in existence at the time of the trial. In this 24 regard, the parties shall divide equally any and all retirement accounts COURT ORDERS that 25 David's counsel prepare the requisite orders necessary to effectuate the division of said retirement 26 account(s).

FURNITURE AND FURNISHINGS

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that neither party made any specific claims regarding the furniture and furnishings in either party's possession. COURT FINDS that certain property has already been divided by the parties, and there are certain furniture and furnishings remaining in the marital home. COURT FINDS that if the parties are unable to reach a resolution within 10 days of the date of this Decree of Divorce, then this Court hereby modifies its prior orders and orders David shall inventory all of the property owned by the parties (those in Christie's and David's possession), and prepare two lists A and B, with as equal a value as possible without having to have the properties valued. COURT ORDERS that David shall provide these two lists to his counsel within 30 days of the date of this Decree of Divorce, and Christie will be entitled to choose the list she desires to keep, and David will be left with the items on the remaining list. COURT ORDERS that Christie must make her selection within 7 days of receipt of the lists. Should she fail to make her selection in writing, then David will be entitled to choose the list he desires. COURT FINDS that the parties shall arrange with counsel the exchange of any items not already in his/her possession.

REMAINING PERSONAL PROPERTY

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall be awarded their individual clothing, shoes, accessories, jewelry, personal memorabilia and related personal property, already in his/her possession, or which may remain in the possession of the other. David has raised his desire to have his personal possessions returned, many of which have been resolved. David claims there remain items in Christie's possession, which she disputes. Christie is ORDERED to return any and all personal items, memorabilia, jewelry and effects which are in her possession, when she locates them.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

COURT FINDS the following debts are owed by the community:

TAX LIABILITIES

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that debts and obligations accumulated during a marriage are community in nature. Wolff v. Wolff, 112 Nev. 1355 (1996); Fuller v. Fuller, 106 Nev. 404

1 (1990); NRS 125.150(1)(b). COURT received no independent evidence as to the extent of what 2 is or potentially may be the parties' income tax debt and therefore this Court is unable to 3 specifically identify the amount which may be owed by the parties and who should assume said 4 obligations. COURT ORDERS that each shall be entitled to file his/her own tax returns for the tax 5 year 2021. Any tax filings prior to that tax year, if not already filed, shall be filed in the manner 6 in which the parties deem appropriate for themselves individually or jointly.

7 CREDIT CARDS

8 COURT HEREBY ORDERS that each party shall assume, pay, indemnify and defend any 9 and all debt currently owed, in his/her name solely, or incurred on his/her behalf.

10 CHRISTIE'S FAILURE TO PAY THE W. MAULE MORTGAGE AND VAN PAYMENT

11 COURT FINDS that Christie unilaterally stopped paying her portion of the monthly 12 expenses starting in late December 2019. Christie was ordered to pay the monthly mortgage on the 13 W. Maule residence, as well as the monthly loan payments on the 2015 Chrysler Van.
14 Commencing in December 2019, she alleged that she did not have the income to make the 15 payments, and she could not afford to satisfy the obligations. David contested the same, and 16 indicated that Christie continued to gamble at the same time she said she was broke.

17 COURT FINDS it did not have the requisite financial information to confirm or deny that 18 Christie had the funds to pay the expenses, so David was required to withdraw the funds from trust, 19 which held the proceeds from the sale of a residence, and David paid the same on behalf of 20 Christie, which was to be offset from any monies she was to receive in the divorce. COURT 21 FINDS that by the time the Pre-Trial Memorandum was filed the sum of $15,992.80 was owed for 22 the mortgage payments, and $2,321.20 was owed on the van payments. COURT ORDERS that 23 David is to be repaid said sums from Christie's portion of the community property, as Christie did 24 not prove that she was unable to pay, and in fact, the evidence demonstrated that she deposited and 25 withdrew significant funds from her business accounts, which could have been used to pay the 26 mortgage and van payments, and Christie's explanation as to why she failed to do so, and alleged 27 poverty was not credible. COURT FINDS that it is without the updated information as to the total 28 amounts paid by David as of the date of this Decree, but David is entitled to be reimbursed all

1 payments made on behalf of Christie; upon proof of payment of the additional monies, the amount 2 set forth herein, as well as the additional amounts paid by David since the filing of the Pre-Trial 3 Memorandum, through the date of this Decree.

4 ALIMONY

5 COURT FINDS that it must consider the following factors when making an alimony award 6 as enumerated in NRS 125.150(9):

- 7 (a) The financial condition of each spouse;
- 8 (b) The nature and value of the respective property of each spouse;
- 9 (c) The contribution of each spouse to any property held by the spouses, pursuant to NRS 123.030;
- 10 (d) The duration of the marriage;
- 11 (e) The income, earning capacity, age and health of each spouse;
- 12 (f) The standard of living during the marriage;
- 13 (g) The career before the marriage of the spouse who would receive the alimony;
- 14 (h) The existence of specialized education or training or the level of marketable skills attained by each spouse during the marriage;
- 15 (i) The contribution of either spouse as homemaker;
- 16 (j) The award of property granted by the court in the divorce, other than child support and alimony, to the spouse who would receive the alimony;
- 17 (k) The physical and mental condition of each party as it relates to the financial condition, health, and ability to work, of that spouse.

18 COURT FINDS that neither party sought alimony from the other, and therefore this issue 19 is foreclosed, and ORDERS there shall be no alimony award.

20 ATTORNEY'S FEES

21 THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that attorney's fees in this matter are governed by NRS 22 18.010, EDCR 7.60, and may make an award of fees pursuant to Sargeant v. Sargeant, 88 Nev.
23 223, 495 P.2d 618 (1972), to ensure that each party meets his adversary on equal footing at trial.
24 COURT FINDS that each party seeks attorney's fees from the Court. COURT FINDS that if either 25 party seeks attorney's fees, such request is permitted pursuant to NRCP 54, upon Motion for post-26 judgment award of fees.

27 MISCELLANEOUS

28 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall execute any and all legal documents, certificates of title, bills of sale, quitclaim deeds or other evidence of transfer necessary to effectuate this Decree within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce, unless specified otherwise herein. Should either party fail to execute any of said

1 documents to transfer interest to the other, then the parties shall seek relief from this Court pursuant 2 to NRCP 70, so that the Court may determine whether the Clerk of the Court shall sign the 3 necessary documentation on behalf of the non-signing party; in doing so, the Court will empower 4 the Clerk of the Court to sign, on behalf of the non-signing party, any of the said documents of 5 transfer which have not been executed by the party otherwise responsible for such.

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that if any claim, action or 7 proceeding is brought seeking to hold the other party liable on account of any debt, obligation, 8 liability, act or omission assumed by the other party, such party will, at his or her sole expense, 9 defend the other against any such claim or demand and that he or she will indemnify, defend and 10 hold harmless the other party.

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that if any joint debt, 12 obligation, liability, act or omission creating such liability has been omitted from this Decree and 13 is subsequently discovered, either party may petition the Court for an allocation of that debt, 14 obligation, liability, or liability arising from such act or omission, as permitted by statute.

15 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that except as specifically set 16 forth herein, each party hereto is released and absolved from any and all obligations and liabilities 17 for future acts and duties of the other, and except as specified herein, each of the parties hereby 18 releases the other from any and all liabilities, debts, or obligations of every kind or character 19 incurred up to this date.

20 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Christie has the right to 21 exercise the option and may to return to her maiden name, to wit: CHRISTIE MARTIN, if she 22 chooses.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall provide 24 the information required by NRS 125.130, NRS 125.230, and NRS 125B.055 on a separate form 25 to be submitted to the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources 26 ("Welfare Division") within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of this Decree of Divorce. IT 27 IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall update such information submitted to this Court 28 and the Welfare Division within ten (10) days should any of the information required to be

1 provided become inaccurate. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that such information shall be 2 maintained by the Clerk of this Court and the Welfare Division in a confidential manner, and the 3 same shall not be part of the public records.

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Court retains 5 jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter hereof for the purpose of making such other and 6 further orders as relates to the care, custody, support and maintenance of the minor children of the 7 parties as the Court may deem proper from time to time hereafter during the minority of said 8 children.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that in the event either party 10 believes this Court is in error, the parties should avail themselves of the remedies available, 11 including but not limited to Post-trial Motions pursuant to NRCP 52(b), NRCP 59, and NRCP 60.

12 STATUTORY NOTICES

13 THE PARTIES ARE HEREBY ON NOTICE that they may request a review of child 14 support every three years pursuant to NRS 125B.145.

15 THE PARTIES ARE HEREBY ON NOTICE that the non-custodial parent may be subject 16 to the withholding of wages and commissions for delinquent payments of support pursuant to NRS 17 31A.010, et. seq. and NRS 125.450(2).

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Nevada, United States 19 of America is the habitual residence of the parties' minor child.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the parties and each of 21 them shall be bound by the provisions of NRS125C.0045(6) which states in pertinent part:

22 PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, 23 CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS 24 ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN 25 NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of 26 custody to a child or any parent having no right to custody to the child who willfully 27 detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person 28 having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all the persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(7), the terms of the Hague
2 Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private 3 International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. IT 4 IS FURTHER ORDERED that the minor children's habitual residence is located in the United 5 States of America. NRS 125C.0045 (7) and (8) specifically provide as follows:

6 Section 7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, 7 all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague 8 Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague 9 Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully 10 retains a child in a foreign country.

11 Section 8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has 12 significant commitments in a foreign country:

13 (a) The parties may agree, and the Court shall include in the Order for custody 14 of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child 15 for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in 16 Subsection 7.

17 (b) Upon motion of the parties, the Court may order the parent to post a bond 18 if the Court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully 19 removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The 20 bond must be in an amount determined by the Court and may be used only to pay 21 for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the 22 child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual 23 residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country 24 does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully 25 removing or concealing the child.
