Pursuant to NRAP 30(d), Appellant’s counsel is incapable of reproducing the exhibits in the appendix for reasons outside of Counsel’s control, as it is a very large file and Counsel was not the attorney of record for Appellant at the time of trial. Appellant’s counsel does not have access to the entirety of the voluminous exhibits admitted at the time of trial, which took place on September 14, 2020, December 9, 2020, December 10, 2020, December 11, 2020, and December 17, 2020.

1 The exhibits listed above are necessary to the appeal, as they contain
2 relevant, crucial information that was relied upon during the non-jury trial and
3 admitted therein. The exhibits listed above speak to all five (5) issues presented
4 in Appellant's appeal and provide necessary explanation needed to determine the 5 outcome of issues presented.
6

8 Because the trial exhibits are directly relevant to the issues raised on appeal
9 and are necessary for this Court's determination of the issues, Counsel graciously
10 requests that the District Court be directed to transmit the original exhibits.
