CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This is an appeal from a postjudgment order denying a motion to disqualify respondents' law firm. Initial review of the docketing statement and documents before this court reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the order challenged on appeal does not appear to be substantively appealable. This court "may only consider appeals authorized by statute or court rule." Brown v. MHC Stagecoach, LLC, 129 Nev. 343, 345, 301 P.3d 850, 851 (2013). No statute or court rule appears to authorize an appeal from the challenged order. See Gumm v. Mainor, 118 Nev. 912, 59 P.3d 1220 (2002) (recognizing that to be appealable as a special order after final judgment, the challenged order must affect the rights of a party growing out of the final judgment).

Accordingly, appellant shall have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Respondents may file any reply within 14 days of service of appellant's response. Failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction may result in the dismissal of this appeal. The briefing schedule in this appeal is suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
