NOTICE OF APPEAL OF VERDICT PURSUANT TO NRS
177.015(3) AND NRAP 3B AND WITTER V STATE 452 P.3d 406 (Nev. 2019)
AND TO TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE

COMES NOW Defendant Kim Blandino ("Kim") to give notice that Kim

this NOTICE OF APPEAL OF VERDICT PURSUANT TO NRS 177.015(3)
AND WITTER V STATE 452 P.3d 406 (Nev. 2019) AND TO TAKE JUDICIAL
NOTICE. That Kim appeals the Verdict finding Kim guilty of Extortion and Impersonation of an Officer, signed and filed in this case on March 9, 2022 less than (12) twelve days ago, that Kim appeals both findings of guilt. See Exhibit 1N attached. That Kim less than (12) twelve days ago discovered that WITTER V STATE 452 P.3d 406 (Nev. 2019) even existed and that this court acknowledge in a published case that a defendant could appeal a verdict of guilty. That a copy of this case is attached as Exhibit 2N. Witter could not be more clear a defendant can appeal a verdict under NRS 177.015(3).

This is especially important since Kim's sentencing is purportedly not until July 7, 2022. Kim demands this court take judicial notice that this was only announced orally on March 9, 2022 and no minutes have been prepared of this. Kim also demands that judicial notice be taken that Our Nevada Judges based on this oral pronouncement has published that they will cover this live. See https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9wzw\_bQqjLk and attached Exhibit 3N and see <https://www.ournevadajudges.com/home> .

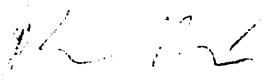

Also judicial notice must be taken that Kim discharged forced counsel Ben Bateman on March 14, 2020 in accord with Rule 3 of the Statewide Rules of Criminal Procedure. See attached Exhibit 4N EMERGENCY DISCHARGE OF Kim had counsel forced upon him for trial against his will and over Kim's objections. Forced counsel told Kim that he will do nothing for Kim even order transcripts post verdict. That Kim has never waived his right to represent himself at any time.

That Bennair Bateman ("Ben") has expressed that he will do nothing whatsoever post verdict in Kim's behalf even though Ben knows there are meritorious issues to present to the court. Ben acknowledged in open court that he is not an appellate attorney and has no effectiveness in post verdict proceedings.

OPINION

407 By the Court, STIGLICH, J.:<sup>407</sup> When a district court determines that restitution is appropriate in a criminal case, Nevada law requires that the court set forth the specific amount of restitution in the judgment of conviction. Thus, this court has held that the district court errs if it states in the judgment of conviction that restitution will be imposed in an amount to be determined sometime in the future. And going a step further, this court has held that a judgment of conviction with that kind of language is not a final judgment for purposes of an appeal to this court or for purposes of triggering the one-year deadline for filing a postconviction habeas petition. We are asked to determine whether those prior decisions allow appellant William Lester Witter to raise direct appeal issues related to his 1995 capital trial in this appeal from an amended judgment of conviction entered in 2017. They do not, for two reasons. First, the judgment of conviction in this case arose from a jury verdict that was appealable under NRS 177.015(3) regardless of any error with respect to restitution in the subsequently entered judgment of conviction. Second, and more importantly, Witter treated the 1995 judgment of conviction as final for more than two decades, litigating a direct appeal and various postconviction proceedings in state and federal court. He does not get to change course now.

Although the amended judgment of conviction is appealable, the appeal is limited in scope to issues stemming from the amendment. Because Witter does not present any such issues, we affirm.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Witter was tried before a jury; found guilty of first-degree murder with use of a deadly weapon, attempted murder with use of a deadly weapon, attempted sexual assault with use of a deadly weapon, and burglary; and sentenced to death in 1995. The district court entered a judgment of conviction setting forth the adjudication and sentence for the murder count on August 4, 1995, and amended the judgment of conviction on August 11, 1995, and September 26, 1995, to add the adjudication and sentences for the nonhomicide counts. The amended judgments further required Witter to pay restitution "in the amount of $2,790.00, with an additional amount to be determined." Witter filed a notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction, and this court affirmed the judgment of conviction and sentence on appeal. Witter v. State, 112 Nev. 908, 921 P.2d 886 (1996), abrogated in part by Nunnery v. State, 127 Nev. 749, 263 P.3d 235 (2011). Witter then litigated a timely postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus on the merits and two untimely and successive postconviction petitions for a writ of habeas corpus. Witter v. State, Docket No. 36927 (Order of Affirmance, August 10, 2001); Witter v. State, Docket No. 50447 (Order of Affirmance, October 20, 2009); Witter v. State, Docket No. 52964 (Order of Affirmance, November 17, 2010). Witter never challenged the indeterminate portion of the restitution provision or the finality of the judgment of conviction in any of the prior proceedings. Witter has also sought relief from his conviction in the federal courts.

Witter pointed to the indeterminate portion of the restitution provision in the judgment of conviction for the first time in a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed in state court in 2017. In particular, he asserted that his conviction was not final because the judgment of conviction 408 contained *408 an indeterminate restitution provision and therefore the procedural bars could not be applied to his petition. The district court agreed that the conviction was not final but nonetheless denied the petition.<sup>2</sup> The district court also amended the judgment of conviction to delete the indeterminate part of the restitution provision. Witter filed this appeal from the third amended judgment of conviction.

2 Witter's appeal from that decision is pending in Docket No. 73431.

DISCUSSION

Witter argues that because of the indeterminate restitution provision in the 1995 judgment, his conviction was not final until entry of the third amended judgment of conviction in 2017. Consequently, Witter argues, the direct appeal decided in 1996 and the subsequent postconviction proceedings were null and void for lack of jurisdiction and therefore he should be allowed to raise any issues stemming from the 1995 trial without regard to the law of the case. The State argues that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal. Both parties are wrong.

NRS 176.105(1)(c) states that a judgment of conviction must include the amount and terms of any restitution. NRS 176.033(1)(c) likewise requires the district court to set forth the "amount of restitution for each victim of the offense." Despite these statutory requirements, some district courts have entered judgments of conviction that imposed restitution in an uncertain amount to be determined in the future. That clearly constitutes error, as this court first explained in Botts v. State, 109 Nev. 567, 569, 854 P.2d 856, 857 (1993). Accord Roe v. State, 112 Nev. 733, 736, 917 P.2d 959, 960-61 (1996); Smith v. State, 112 Nev. 871, 873, 920 P.2d 1002, 1003 (1996).

Botts and its progeny, however, did not address what effect, if any, an indeterminate restitution provision has on the finality of a judgment of conviction. See Slaatte v. State, 129 Nev. 219, 221, 298 P.3d 1170, 1171 (2013) ("None of our prior decisions addressed whether the judgment was final given its failure to comply with NRS 176.105(1)."). That question is significant in at least two respects: the defendant's right to appeal from a "final judgment" under NRS 177.015(3) and the starting point for the one-year period under NRS 34.726 to file a postconviction habeas petition. This court considered the question of finality when a judgment of conviction includes an indeterminate restitution provision in Whitehead v. State, 128 Nev. 259, 285 P.3d 1053 (2012). There, this court held that a judgment of conviction that imposed restitution in an uncertain amount was not final and therefore did not start the clock on the one-year period under NRS 34.726 for filing a postconviction habeas petition. 128 Nev. at 263, 285 P.3d at 1055. A year later in Slaatte v. State, this court similarly held that it lacked jurisdiction over an appeal from a judgment that imposed restitution in an indeterminate amount because the judgment was not final. 129 Nev. at 221, 298 P.3d at 1171.

The State urges us to reconsider whether a judgment that includes an indeterminate restitution provision is final. Focusing on this case, the State argues that restitution was "insignificant and utterly inconsequential to the parties." And more generally, the State argues that federal courts have suggested that the failure to include restitution in a judgment is not a jurisdictional bar to filing an appeal. See, e.g., Dolan v. United States, 560 U.S. 605, 617-18, 130 S.Ct. 2533, 177 L.Ed.2d 108 (2010) ; United States v. Gilbert, 807 F.3d 1197, 1199-1200 (9th Cir. 2015) ; United States v. Muzio, 757 F.3d 1243, 1246-47 (11th Cir. 2014). Although we acknowledge that federal courts have interpreted federal statutes differently than we have interpreted the relevant Nevada statutes, the State has not offered any compelling reasons to overrule our prior decisions. Armenta-Carpio v. State, 129 Nev. 531, 535, 306 P.3d 395, 398 (2013) ("[U]nder the doctrine of stare decisis , [this court] will not overturn [precedent] absent compelling reasons for so doing." (quoting Miller v. Burk, 124 Nev. 579, 597, 188 P.3d 1112, 1124 (2008) )). And we remain convinced that given our statutory scheme, the specific amount of restitution is a weighty matter that must be included in the judgment of conviction when the 409 sentencing *409 court determines that restitution is warranted. See Martinez v. State, 115 Nev. 9, 12-13, 974 P.2d 133, 135 (1999) (recognizing that "[r]estitution under NRS 176.033(1)(c) is a sentencing determination," and while the defendant is not entitled to a full hearing, a defendant is entitled to challenge restitution at sentencing). In particular, the amount of restitution is not an inconsequential matter when a judgment imposing restitution "constitutes a lien in like manner as a judgment for money rendered in a civil action," NRS 176.275(1), which may be "enforced as any other judgment for money rendered in a civil action," NRS 176.275(2)(a), and "[d]oes not expire until the judgment is satisfied," NRS 176.275(2)(b). Although we adhere to our prior decisions, they are distinguishable in two respects and therefore not controlling in the circumstances presented by this case.

Our decision in Slaatte focused on the provision in NRS 177.015(3) that allows a defendant to appeal from a "final judgment." But NRS 177.015(3) also allows a defendant to appeal from a "verdict." That part of the jurisdiction statute was not at issue in Slaatte because the conviction in that case resulted from a guilty plea.<sup>3</sup> See Slaatte, 129 Nev. at 220, 298 P.3d at 1170. In contrast, the conviction in this case arose from a jury verdict. Because Witter could appeal from the verdict, the finality of the subsequently entered judgment of conviction would not have been determinative of this court's jurisdiction under NRS 177.015(3), unlike in Slaatte.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Contrary to Witter's argument, Slaatte does not implicate this court's subject matter jurisdiction. Nev. Const. art. 6, § 4 (providing that the Nevada Supreme Court has appellate jurisdiction "in all criminal cases in which the offense charged is within the original jurisdiction of the district courts").

More importantly, our prior cases do not stand for the proposition that a defendant can treat a judgment of conviction with an indeterminate restitution provision as final by litigating a direct appeal and postconviction habeas petitions only to later change course and argue that the judgment was never final. The defendants in the two cases addressing finality, Whitehead and Slaatte, raised the error regarding the indeterminate restitution provision during the first proceeding in which they challenged the validity of their judgments of conviction—on direct appeal ( Slaatte, 129 Nev. at 220, 298 P.3d at 1170 ), and in a first postconviction habeas petition where no direct appeal had been filed ( Whitehead , 128 Nev. at 261, 285 P.3d at 1054 ). Like those defendants, Witter had the benefit of Botts, which had been decided before his trial and conviction. Witter, however, litigated a direct appeal and state and federal postconviction proceedings without raising any issues about the indeterminate restitution provision.

This distinction implicates finality, a compelling consideration for courts when reviewing a challenge to the validity of a conviction. Trujillo v. State, 129 Nev. 706, 717, 310 P.3d 594, 601 (2013) (recognizing that this court has "long emphasized the importance of the finality of judgments"). A challenge to a conviction made years after the conviction is a burden on the parties and the courts because "[m]emories of the crime may diminish and become attenuated," and the record may not be sufficiently preserved. Groesbeck v. Warden , 100 Nev. 259, 260, 679 P.2d 1268, 1269 (1984). Thus, the concern expressed in Whitehead that piecemeal litigation could result from restitution being imposed in an indeterminate amount, 128 Nev. at 263, 285 P.3d at 1055, must be counterbalanced against the interest in the finality of a conviction. This court has long precluded a litigant from arguing that a judgment was not final or that this court lacked jurisdiction in a prior appeal when the party treated the judgment as final. See, e.g., Renfro v.

Forman, 99 Nev. 70, 71-72, 657 P.2d 1151, 1151-52 (1983) (holding that a party is estopped from asserting that the judgment was not final after treating the judgment as final); Gamble v. Silver Peak Mines , 35 Nev. 319, 323-26, 133 P. 936, 937-38 (1913) (determining that when a party has treated a judgment as final, that party may not later argue that this court lacked jurisdiction over the appeal because the judgment was not final);
 410 *410 Costello v. Scott , 30 Nev. 43, 88, 94 P. 222, 223 (1908) ("Even if there was room for argument as to whether the judgment rendered in this case was a final judgment, appellants by treating it as such, and appealing therefrom, are estopped to deny the finality of the decree."). From 1995 to 2017, Witter treated the judgment of conviction as a final judgment. He therefore is estopped from now arguing that the judgment was not final and that the subsequent proceedings were null and void for lack of jurisdiction.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup> We conclude that Witter's argument that the State invited the error by requesting an amendment to the judgment of conviction to eliminate the indeterminate restitution provision is without merit. Further, in light of our decision, we decline to address whether Whitehead and Slaatte apply retroactively.

Finally, we reject the State's argument that this court lacks jurisdiction over this appeal. An amended judgment of conviction is substantively appealable under NRS 177.015(3). See Jackson v. State, 133 Nev. 880, 881-82, 410 P.3d 1004, 1006 (Ct. App. 2017). The scope of the appeal is limited, however, to issues arising from the amendment. Id. ; see also Sullivan v. State, 120 Nev. 537, 541, 96 P.3d 761, 764 (2004) (recognizing that an amendment to a judgment of conviction may provide good cause to present claims challenging the amendment in an untimely postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus). Here, Witter only raises issues arising from the 1995 trial. Because those issues are not properly before us in this appeal, we have not considered them and express no opinion as to their merit. And because Witter has not demonstrated any error with respect to the amendment to his judgment of conviction, we affirm the third amended judgment of conviction.

We concur:

EMERGENCY DISCHARGE OF BENNAIR BATEMAN AS COUNSEL
FOR KIM BLANDINO PURSUANT TO RULE 3 OF THE STATEWIDE RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE AS ADOPTED BY ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 21-02 BY CHIEF JUDGE BELL AND DEMAND TO TAKE JUDICIAL AND THAT JUDGE LEAVITT MUST STILL DISQUALIFY HERSELF AND HAVE A JUDGE APPOINTED FROM A DIFFERENT DISTRICT

COMES NOW Defendant Kim Blandino (“Kim”) who is appearing by special appearance and not general appearance as a peculiar pro se pursuant to 1 Peter 2:9 (which states: But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. KJV (Emphasis added)

REASONS FOR EMERGENCY

Kim was just days ago found guilty of extortion and impersonating an officer by a jury being represented by forced counsel Bennair Batemen (Bar #9338 “Ben”) has been forced upon Kim in violation of the U.S. Constitution and fareta and now Ben refuses to even ask the court for trial transcripts nor file a Motion for New Trial under NRS 176.515(4) nor even file for an extension of time to file a Motion for New Trial.

1. That Kim has been taking care of Evelyn Pendergraft (“Evie”) who is now 96 years of age since August 2, 2021 and is a WWII veteran whose husband died in 1999 and only son died in 2013 due to hospital malpractice. That Kim made a vow in 2013 to take care of this “Wonder Woman” and has been her house mate ever since to fully fulfill that vow. Evie helped both to defeat Hitler and Hillary (by different means of course). Evie now has a pacemaker and is in very much pain every day due to a back injury and arthritis in her knees. And just lately her nephrologist told Evie that one of her kidneys had “died” .

Evie knows all of the circumstances behind this prosecution that is really a persecution. Her health is being dramatically and negatively affected day after day due to the uncertainty and worry she experiences because of the constitutional violations Kim has experienced and what Evie sees as deliberate torment. Despite Kim’s consistent glad countenance and the “happy warrior” attitude that all Christians have, as both a command and a gift from the Creator, Evie still worries about this situation and vindictive prosecution of Kim and fears Kim unjustly and illegally going to jail every day.

Yet Evie’s health is Kim’s emergency concern. Kim is very much concerned that Evie will not make it to 100 years of age if this “persecution” keeps on for much longer. if Evie survives to August 2, 2025 then Evie would receive a congratulatory letter from either then current active President Trump or DeSantis. It is vital that this matter be resolved so that Evie’s life is not cut short because of this unjust and vindictive prosecution that has now dragged on unjustly for over 2 and a half years. That even over this last week Evie’s morale has suffered greatly and this latest denial by the NSC has further hit Evie’s morale and her health has suffered. Kim told Evie that there was still hope with the federal district court, yet because of these repeated past court denials this does not offer the reassurance that Kim’s statements of hope had in the past. This increased concern over Evie is affecting Kim negatively and is reducing Kim's ability and capacity to even prepare these documents. Kim is being greatly prejudiced. Kim must give Evie some real tangible hope in the form of some encouragement.

Kim does not wish Evie to die prematurely yet this injustice is slowly robbing Evie of the will to live and without the will to live, Kim believes that Evie will not last long. Kim's sons Zachary and Andrew have both lost their maternal and paternal grandparents. They both have willingly adopted Evie as their adopted Grandmother and she has adopted them as her adopted grandsons. It would be nothing less than criminal for the courts to be accessories to her premature death by refusing to act when clear manifest injustice is being done.

That Kim has valid grounds for a new trial and some of them involve the fact that Ben was forced to represent Kim against his will and over his objections and despite Ben's motion to withdraw and Kim's filing to have Ben removed and either get back Kim's self representation or in the alternative to have other counsel appointed which was titled as, EMERGENCY NOTICE AND DEMAND WHICH A BIASED OR UNBIASED JUDGE UNDER RIPPO V BAKER 137 S.CT. 905 (2017) AND ECHAVARRIA V FILSON 896 F.3D 1118 (9TH CIR. 2018) CAN CONSTRUE AS A MOTION TO REMOVE FORCED COUNSEL BEN AND GIVE KIM BACK HIS RIGHT TO REPRESENT HIMSELF OR

IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO APPOINT NEW COUNSEL

FACTS AND ARGUMENT

On Dec. 29, 2020 the Nevada Supreme Court issued an ORDER ADOPTING STATEWIDE RULES OF CRIMINAL PRACTICE. See attached Exhibit A1. These rules were adopted by Administrative Order 21-02 in the Eighth Judicial District Court ("EJDC"). See attached exhibit B1. In this administrative order it is clear by the language of this order stating:

The Nevada Supreme Court adopted the Rules of Criminal Practice for the District Courts (N.R.Cr.P.). In re the Creation of a Comm. On Statewide Rules of Criminal Procedure, ADKT 491 (Order Adopting Statewide Rules of Criminal Practice, Dec. 29, 2020). The rules become effective March 1, 2021, and "supersede and replace any local district court rules concerning criminal actions." N.R.Cr.P. 1. The "rules do not apply to juvenile proceedings or post-conviction proceedings." Id

Therefore, it cannot be disputed that these are the rules of Criminal procedure for the state and that the EJDC is bound by them. The N.R.Cr.P. Rule 3 states in pertinent part:

Rule 3. Appearance and Withdrawal of Attorney

1. When a defendant is represented by an attorney, that defendant cannot appear on their own behalf in the case without the consent of the court. An attorney who has appeared for the defendant shall represent that defendant in the case and shall be recognized by the court and by all parties as having control of the defendant's case until: the attorney withdraws; another attorney is substituted; or the attorney is discharged by the defendant in writing, filed with the court. The court in its discretion may hear from a defendant in open court, although the defendant is represented by an attorney.

Kim therefore invokes this rule and discharges Ben as forced counsel and further asks that Ben be returned as stand by counsel. As Kim has the right to self representation under Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975).

Rule 3 above is not discretionary Kim has discharged Ben as attorney.

Further when Kim filed his EMERGENCY NOTICE AND DEMAND WHICH A BIASED OR UNBIASED JUDGE UNDER RIPPO V BAKER 137 S.CT. 905 (2017) AND ECHAVARRIA V FILSON 896 F.3D 1118 (9TH CIR. 2018) CAN CONSTRUE AS A MOTION TO REMOVE FORCED COUNSEL BEN AND GIVE KIM BACK HIS RIGHT TO REPRESENT HIMSELF OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO APPOINT NEW COUNSEL this was and is a discharge of Ben as counsel under rule 3.

Therefore, Kim demands that this court order that the discharge of Ben as counsel be ordered Nunc Pro Tunc to the date the above Notice and Demand was filed on Feb. 10, 2022. See attached Exhibit C1 Less exhibits for brevity.

Therefore, Kim's "trial" must now be considered a nullity which Kim will brief in the upcoming Motion for New Trial.

Ben's ineffectiveness was clearly shown at trial in that the only instruction for acquittal was on a defense of entrapment and this is heavily dependent on character an yet Ben called absolutely no character witnesses even though Kim gave numerous names of such witnesses. Including judge Dianne steel and judge Marty Hastings.

Ben did not have a mistake of fact instruction ready for the judge under NRS 194.010(4) when asked for or a similar type instruction. Nor did Ben have a no evil design intention or culpable negligence instruction under NRS 194.010(6) prepared even though Kim repeatedly told Ben of NRS 194.010 weeks and weeks ahead of trial. That Ben only did a perfunctory defense. See:

“Even if [trial] counsel is competent, a serious breakdown in communications can result in an inadequate defense.” Daniels v. Woodford, 428 F.3d 1181, 1198 (9th Cir. 2005).....
..... (“[A] court may not deny a substitution motion simply because [it] thinks current counsel's representation is adequate.”), overruled on other grounds by United States v. Garrett, 179 F.3d 1143(9th Cir. 1999).” Daniels v. Woodford, 428 F.3d 1181, 1198 (9th Cir. 2005)

Similarly, in Brown, we found that the defendant was constructively denied his right to counsel where he "was forced into a trial with the assistance of a particular lawyer with whom he was dissatisfied, with whom he would not cooperate, and with whom he would not, in any manner whatsoever, communicate." Brown, 424 F.2d at 1169. In that case, the defendant and his public defender became embroiled in an irreconcilable conflict. Id. at 1169. Brown's repeated motions for substitution of counsel were all denied by the state trial court, which did not attempt to determine the extent of Brown's dissatisfaction or to appoint alternative counsel. Id. As a consequence, Brown's lawyer was unable to prepare an adequate defense. At trial, Brown's attorney offered only a perfunctory defense, and Brown did not testify in his own behalf. Daniels v. Woodford, 428 F.3d 1181, 1198 (9th Cir. 2005) (emphasis added)

Even though Kim did his absolute best to help Ben he did not aggressively defend kim nor adequately cross examine prosecution witnesses. Not once did ben start his cross with any "isn't it true" questions which is a must for prosecution or hostile witnesses.

In U.S. v. Jensen, No. CR-08-054-JLQ (E.D. Wash. Sep. 27, 2010) all of what that counsel did or didn't do Ben did or didn't do:

The court finds that trial counsel's failure to adequately prepare for trial by failing to interview witnesses, failing to present a theme of defense or adequate opening statement, failing to adequately cross-exam the Government's witnesses, and failure to call any defense witnesses rendered counsel's performance deficient and that these errors rose to the level of trial counsel failing to function as the counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment. See Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. at 687 (1984). Mr. Weatherhead concluded: "While neither I nor any other lawyer could swear that Mr. Jensen would have certainly been acquitted given a proper defense, I can say without reservation that the verdict actually rendered in Mr. Jensen's case, on the defense provided, is not entitled to confidence given the critical failures by defense counsel." (C.R. 282 p. 5). The court agrees. Mr. Jensen need not establish that he would have certainly been acquitted, but rather "must show that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 694. U.S. v. Jensen, No. CR-08-054-JLQ (E.D. Wash. Sep. 27, 2010)

JUDICIAL NOTICE

Judicial Notice must be taken that Kim tried numerous times to get Leavitt disqualified from this case. Maybe Leavitt can now obey her conscience and now disqualify herself and do so Nunc Pro Tunc to the day this case was before her. Leavitt is and was an interested party because Kim has and is dedicating himself to see that the NCJD removes Leavitt from her judgeship or that Leavitt shows some grace and resigns. Further, the risk of bias was and is absolutely clear pursuant to Rippo and Echavarria as Leavitt denied Kim to testify that Kim's motivation and intent in his actions that are alleged to be criminal were mainly motivated by Leavitt's lying to the NCJD and her subsequent discipline in 2015 which Leavitt "plea bargained" to, see Exhibit D1 attached. This will be further explored in Kim's motion for new trial that will be filed. Leavitt could have and in fact should have been removed as judge in 2015 as a result of her actions. Further, she should have and could have been criminally prosecuted under 18 U.S.C. 242 and/or Oppression under Color of office NRS 197.200 for what she did to Rita Dotson.

CONCLUSION

Kim has discharged Ben as forced counsel and again resumes his role in representing himself as a peculiar pro se and either ben returns in his stand by role or some other stand by counsel be appointed. Rule 3 is not discretionary as to Kim discharging counsel. And because Kim tried to discharge Ben on Feb. 10, 2022 The court by and through a judge of another judicial district must make this discharge Nunc Pro Tunc to the Feb. 10, 2022 date and thereby declare the trial and the verdict a nullity

CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. C-19-341767-1

Michael Dickerson, Esq., present on behalf of the State. Mr. Blandino advised he was fareta canvassed in the other case. Court stated a new Faretta Canvas is to be done. Mr. Dickerson advised the Indictment was provided to the Defendant. MATTER TRAILED. Melanie Marland, Esq., present on behalf of the State. Michael Dickerson not present. All other parties present as before. Court stated is only on for arraignment. Defendant stated he is a vexatious litigant; therefore, has not been able to file anything into the case and would like to disqualify this Court. Defendant requested a District Judge outside of this District be appointed given the investigations that he has against certain judges, including this Court. Following argument by the Defendant. COURT ORDERED, Defendant has leave of Court file a Motion to Disqualify; Defendant will not be held in contempt for filing a Motion to Disqualify in this matter before Department 12; State is to prepare an Order. Court stated Judge Bell will be contacted in regards to this Order. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check regarding Arraignment. Court stated there is nothing more to be represented at this time given the pending Motion to Disqualify. Defendant inquired regarding house arrest and the impulse control class. Ms. Marland clarified and agreed with Mr. Dickerson that the Defendant no longer is required to complete the impulse control counseling program; however, if the Defendant has issues as to his custody status, that is to be addressed once the Motion to Disqualify has been filed. Defendant inquired as to the conditions of house arrest. State requested the conditions set by Judge Bell at the time of the Indictment Return to remain. Court stated there is an understanding that those conditions remain. Court stated that because the Defendant wants to Disqualify this Court, house arrest conditions are not to be addressed at this time. Defendant noted further concerns of house arrest and requested a copy of the JAVS from today's hearing of Kathleen Delaney's testimony. Court directed the Defendant to contact Court administration in regards to the request for JAVS as that matter has nothing to do with the Defendant's case. State noted the Defendant has no basis to request Judge Delaney's case JAVS and as to the discovery, once trial is set, the discovery will be provided under the Statutes of the Nevada Constitution. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED. Defendant noted he will have to file his Motion in Open Court to serve the Court. Court confirmed there is no issue with that. STATE'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO REMAND DEFENDANT FOR COMPETENCY ... STATUS CHECK: CONFIRMATION OF COUNSEL (STANDBY COUNSEL) Steve Altig, Esq., and Bennair Bateman, Esq., appearing for the purpose of standby counsel. Upon review of this matter, Mr. Altig advised there is a conflict. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman agreed to accept appointment. Defendant objected. Court reminded the Defendant that he does not get to decide who is standby counsel as it is the Court's decision; if the Defendant wants to hire his own standby by counsel, the Defendant may do so. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Bateman APPOINTED as standby counsel. Defendant further noted his objection. Court state the Defendant does not have the right to interview counsel before the Court appoints counsel. Defendant further noted his objection. Court advised the Defendant's objection and disagreement is noted. Ms. Marland clarified there was an error in the title of the State's motion; the title should read "refer", not "remand". Upon Defendant's inquiry, Court confirmed no one is seeking to remand the Defendant. Defendant stated he has a few things to put on the record. Court clarified and noted that today is only on for standby counsel and the referral for competency. Court directed the Defendant to file an appropriate Motion if anything else needs to be addressed. Defendant stated he cannot file anything as he is a vexatious litigant. Court inquired as to what Motion the Defendant would like to file. Mr. Dickerson advised Defendant would need to be evaluated by two psychologists or psychiatrists pursuant to the Court's order therefore the trial and calendar call dates would need to be vacated. Mr. Blandino advised he objects to all competency court proceedings as it is vindictive by the District Attorney's office. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Blandino advised he does not have an objection to vacating the trial dates only a general objection as to the competency proceedings. Upon Court's further inquiry, Mr. Bateman has no objection to vacating the trial dates. Mr. Blandino inquired if there was a written request pursuant to Rule 18 that allows Judge Marquis to sit in for Judge Bell. regarding Defendant being allowed to file a motion to disqualify. Defendant requests this Court to sua sponte recuse itself and appoint a District Court Judge from another division. State objected to Defendant's request as there is no basis to the request. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman has no response. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Defendant's oral motion DENIED. Upon Court's inquiry, State advised this is the second time the Defendant has failed to follow through with the evaluations as well as it has come to their attention the Defendant has been making contact with Pro Tem Judge Williams, at her personal office, who is in fact intimidated and in fear of the Defendant. State requested Defendant be remanded as Defendant is failing to comply with the Court's order in obtaining the psychiatric evaluations and Defendant is continuing to violate the Court's order on being on good behavior while out on bond and house arrest. Statement by Defendant regarding letter being service of process, public records showing addresses of Judge's, and receiving permission from his house arrest office. COURT ORDERED, State's motion to remand DENIED, Defendant shall within 7 days contact Dr. Kapel and Dr. Slagel for evaluations to be scheduled with verification from the doctors. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant advised he has a card from the doctors who have refused to see the Defendant because they are unable to complete the appointments in the time frame allotted by the Court. Defendant further advised after receiving the Order signed by Judge Marquis he called the doctors and went to their office the same day to schedule the appointment and view the office. Upon Court's further inquiry, Defendant did not have an appointment when he went to the doctors office. Defendant provided documents to the Court which the Court reviewed. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant advised he was not given dates of December 11 or December 16 for appointments. State advised those dates came from the doctors or court staff via an email where the doctors provided those dates and Defendant was unavailable. Defendant advised he was never made aware of any appointments. Statement by Defendant regarding house arrest restrictions. Upon Court's inquiry, State provided the Court with representations made at last hearing regarding details of Defendant's actions while on House Arrest. Court noted, based on the review of the documents Defendant wants the evaluations completed when Defendant wants them done not when the doctors can complete them. Defendant requested an evidentiary hearing. Upon Court's inquiry, State advised the evidence they have that he failed to comply is a letter from Green Valley associates to court staff. Statement by Defendant. Documents provided by State to Court and Defendant. Discussion regarding interpretation of the time frame in the Order to have the evaluations completed. Defendant advised he did make an appointment for December 26th. State noted Defendant was supposed to make the appointment with two doctors COURT FINDS, Defendant refers to a December 06th Order where Judge Marquis put a number of things on the record and made a number of findings, specifically that within 7 days of this Order Defendant shall make appointments with Dr. Kapel and Dr. Slagel. Additionally, COURT FINDS, the office attempted to schedule appointments for Defendant on December 11 and December 16 but Defendant advised he was "unable for the December 11th date" and has provided no reason why he could not be seen on the December 16th date. COURT FINDS, the appointment was to be made by December 20th and with only one doctor, therefore Defendant did 50% of the work. COURT ORDERED, State's request GRANTED, Defendant REMANDED into custody for the evaluation to be completed within the ordinary course. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for further proceedings. CASE NO. C-19-341767-1

Courtroom and FINDS Defendant did violate the Courts oral Order from December 6th where he was ordered to have the appointments made and verified within 7 days of the order. The evidence before the court shows that he attempted to comply however he admitted in open court that he did not go to the December 11th date, he deny's that he was ever contacted about the 16th and provided no justification or explanation for missing the December 11th date and instead relied on a date of December 26th. While that was partial compliance it was not full complains and it is not the first time as the Court understands the Defendant has refused to go to the competency evaluations as ordered. Defendant was previously released from custody and this Court does not find that the Defendant was under any punitive pre-trial action or any other issue with pre-trial release, he was subject to the standard release of a pre-trial detainee with conditions which are proper. Court noted documents provided today shall be left side filed in the case and per State's request email information shall be redacted. CUSTODY 01/24/20 10:00 AM FURTHER PROCEEDINGS: COMPETENCY;

Bennair Bateman, Esq., present as stand-by counsel. Court marshall represented to the Court that the Defendant showed up out front and would not wear a mask; therefore, would not allow him to enter into the Courthouse. COURT SO NOTED. Mr. Bateman advised he spoke with the Defendant outside of the Courthouse. Court made it abundantly clear that if the Defendant does not want to wear a mask in the Courthouse, the Defendant is free to appear by Blue Jeans, like a lot of people do, including lawyers. Court again noted the Defendant is welcome to be present in the Courtroom; however, the Defendant does not get to dictate the rules. Due to the Defendant's failure to show up, refusing to wear a mask in the courtroom and also refusing to appear by Blue Jeans, State requested a bench warrant. Court directed Mr. Bateman to convey to the Defendant that the State is asking for a bench warrant and although the Court is not inclined to grant it today, if the Defendant continues to refuse to appear at these Court appearances, the Court will probably consider that remedy. Mr. Bateman stated he will convey that to the Defendant and further represented that there are discovery issues as the Defendant has not received all of the discovery. Further, Mr. Bateman noted the Defendant has a religious exemption and possibly a medical exemption as to not wearing a mask. Court stated that the Defendant can then appear by Blue Jeans. *Bennair Bateman, Esq., appearing as stand by counsel. Defendant not present in person or by video with stand by counsel. State requested the Court first address the State's Motion and then second, the State is now requesting a bench warrant be issued as the Defendant is not in compliance with the conditions of his release and it appears that the only way the Defendant will appear for Court is in custody. Court inquired from stand by counsel as the Defendant refuses to appear. Court stated it appears the Defendant does not want trial set before this pandemic is over as the Defendant refuses to comply with the public health directives. Mr. Bateman confirmed his understanding, advised he is stand by counsel and the Defendant is his own attorney in this matter; however, noted the Defendant is not waiving his right to speedy trial and it is not proper for him to make arguments as the Defendant is his own attorney. COURT STATED there is only one conclusion that the Court can reach when the Defendant will not comply with public health directives when entering a public building; therefore, COURT FINDS the Defendant has WAIVED his right to a speedy trial and ORDERED, trial dates VACATED and RESET to the end of next year, hopefully the end of the pandemic as it is clear that the Defendant is refusing to comply with reasonable public health directives when coming into a public building. Further, Court stated there is no inclination to issue the bench warrant as there is a concern with the Defendant going into the Clark County Detention Center when the Defendant has not been complying with public health directives; therefore, FURTHER ORDERED, this Court is not going to issue a bench warrant. Court encouraged stand by counsel to prepare to take over the defense in this matter as it appears that is very likely the direction that this is heading, if the Defendant refuses to comply with Court directives and public health directives. Court confirmed the Motion will not be granted at this time and that the Defendant needs to be aware; if the Defendant continues to refuse, Mr. Bateman is going to take over the Defense as this Court cannot allow the Defendant to continue to impede and obstruct the proceedings due to not complying with very reasonable directives. State requested clarification as to the State's Motion. COURT ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check regarding trial readiness; Motion CONTINUED and pending based upon the Defendant's behavior in the future. Court inquired as to the Defendant being aware of the RJC currently being shut down right now. Mr. Bateman stated that is his belief. Court Marshall, Randall Hawkes, stated the Defendant appeared downstairs today and was informed that the Courthouse is shut down and will need to appear by blue jeans as there is no in-person court. Mr. Dickerson stated it would be a good idea to have someone from downstairs, that had contact with the Defendant, to make those representations. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for Mr. Bateman to advise the Defendant of the RJC being closed down to in-person appearances. Court stated the only way that the Defendant can appear right now is by video. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman confirmed the Defendant is more that welcome go to his office and appear by video with him. Bennair Bateman, Esq., standby counsel for Defendant, present. Defendant not present. Mr. Bateman advised Defendant is downstairs refusing to wear a mask and not wanting to appear to the hearing by BlueJeans. Argument by Mr. Dickerson regarding Defendant violating the rules of the Court. Mr. Bateman noted as standby counsel he does not think it is proper to argue on behalf of Defendant and Defendant has cited a religious exception to wearing a mask. Mr. Bateman added Defendant mentioned to him he still has an outstanding discovery request regarding his hard drives. Court directed Mr. Bateman to convey to Defendant his refusal to comply with the rules of the Court and obstructive behavior will result in the Court revoking his self representation. Mr. Dickerson requested the Court appoint counsel now. Court noted it is leaning towards revoking self representation; however, it will continue the matter. Colloquy regarding the discovery issue. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED two weeks and trial dates VACATED. Mr. Dickerson requested resetting trial on December 1st in order to coordinate with counsel. Court so noted. Court advised it will rule on the Motion on December 1st regardless of Defendant's presence. BOND/ EM CONTINUED TO: 12/1/20 10:15 AM ;

COURT STATED an additional way for the Defendant to appear has been made available; if the Defendant does not want to wear the mask, the Defendant can sign into Blue Jeans and make his representations that way. COURT STATED the Defendant filed another Motion to Disqualify and that Motion is made in bad faith as it is clear that the Defendant has filed this Motion in an attempt to continue to impede and obstruct this Court, which also included Judge Jones in the Motion. Bennair Bateman, Esq., now present as stand by counsel. Colloquy regarding Defendant's appearance. Mr. Dickerson state he will never again assist the Defendant in appearing by video as that is beyond his position as a prosecutor. COURT STATED the Defendant's non-appearance today is believed to be an attempt to impede and obstruct this Court from going forward therefore, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, all pending matters are to be heard on Thursday; Mr. Bateman is to relay to the Defendant that if the Defendant refuses to appear, a warrant will be issued and the Defendant can appear by blue jeans for this matter; if Defendant wants any pleadings considered by the Court as to the Motion to Revoke Self-Representation as well as the Motion for Audio Visual, then the Defendant needs to have the pleadings filed before Thursday. COURT STATED the Motion to Disqualify will not be ruled upon as it is not made in good faith. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Dickerson stated this is the 16th or 17th Motion to Disqualify. COURT STATED it is an attempt to impede and obstruct the Court and at some point the Motion is not filed in compliance with the rules and is not made in good faith. 12/02/21 1:00 PM ALL PENDING MATTERS CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order has been distributed to: 'Kim Blandino' <kim43792@earthlink.net>; 'brb@brblv.com'; 'michael.dickerson@clarkcountysda.com' hvp/12/01/21;

- Defendant stated he has a number of things to go over. Court stated nothing is to be reviewed at this time as the Defendant indicated he wanted to file a Motion to Disqualify. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant stated he can get the Motion done in another week or two week. Defendant made a record of not appearing at liberty. COURT SO NOTED. Defendant requested the Grand Jury Transcript to move to disqualify the District Attorney's Office. Copy of Grand Jury Transcript provided to the Defendant in OPEN COURT. Further, Defendant noted the State violated their word of honor as they were to provide discovery in July per a Justice Court Order and discovery still has not been received. Defendant noted further concerns of house arrest and requested a copy of the JAVS from today's hearing of Kathleen Delaney's testimony. Court directed the Defendant to contact Court administration in regards to the request for JAVS as that matter has nothing to do with the Defendant's case. State noted the Defendant has no basis to request Judge Delaney's case JAVS and as to the discovery, once trial is set, the discovery will be provided under the Statutes of the Nevada Constitution. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED. Defendant noted he will have to file his Motion in Open Court to serve the Court. Court confirmed there is no issue with that. Once the Motion to Disqualify is filed, Defendant requested this Court transfer this matter to another District Court as he has ongoing investigations with the other judge's. Following further concern from the Defendant, State requested all of the Defendant's concerns be addressed in the Motion to Disqualify. Defendant inquired as to his restriction. Court encouraged the Defendant to comply with all court orders. COURT STATED Defendant cannot request anything of this Court as he is going to file a Motion to Disqualify.

- STATE'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO REMAND DEFENDANT FOR COMPETENCY
... STATUS CHECK: CONFIRMATION OF COUNSEL (STANDBY COUNSEL)

Steve Altig, Esq., and Bennair Bateman, Esq., appearing for the purpose of standby counsel.

Upon review of this matter, Mr. Altig advised there is a conflict. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman agreed to accept appointment. Defendant objected. Court reminded the Defendant that he does not get to decide who is standby counsel as it is the Court's decision; if the Defendant wants to hire his own standby by counsel, the Defendant may do so. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Bateman APPOINTED as standby counsel. Defendant further noted his objection. Court state the Defendant does not have the right to interview counsel before the Court appoints counsel. Defendant further noted his objection. Court advised the Defendant's objection and disagreement is noted. Ms. Marland clarified there was an error in the title of the State's motion; the title should read "refer", not "remand". Upon Defendant's inquiry, Court confirmed no one is seeking to remand the Defendant. Defendant stated he has a few things to put on the record. Court clarified and noted that today is only on for standby counsel and the referral for competency. Court directed the Defendant to file an appropriate Motion if anything else needs to be addressed. Defendant stated he cannot file anything as he is a vexatious litigant. Court inquired as to what Motion the Defendant would like to file. Defendant stated there is no authority for permission to file a Motion. COURT STATED and reminded the Defendant that if he wants to file a Motion, the Defendant can request permission from this Court and this Court would allow that permission. Defendant argued regarding the permission to file a Motion. Based upon the record, everything that the Court has seen and out of abundance of caution, COURT ORDERED, matter REFERRED to Competency Court and SET for Further Proceedings. Defendant requested a Judge's address be ordered as stricken from a motion. Court confirmed that will not be ordered. State requested the Court review the record as well as the Defendant's filings and have the Court make the referral to Competency. Court confirmed the referral is coming from the Court. Defendant objected. COURT SO NOTED.

Mr. Dickerson advised the Defendant has not yet been evaluated and this matter needs to be continued for the evaluation as well as the trial dates be vacated. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Blandino advised he has been evaluated by his friends and family as well as at the Hope Clinic. Mr. Dickerson advised Defendant would need to be evaluated by two psychologists or psychiatrists pursuant to the Court's order therefore the trial and calendar call dates would need to be vacated. Mr. Blandino advised he objects to all competency court proceedings as it is vindictive by the District Attorney's office. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Blandino advised he does not have an objection to vacating the trial dates only a general objection as to the competency proceedings. Upon Court's further inquiry, Mr. Bateman has no objection to vacating the trial dates.

Mr. Blandino inquired if there was a written request pursuant to Rule 18 that allows Judge Marquis to sit in for Judge Bell. Court advised it was assigned to hear these matters today at the request of the Chief Judge. Mr. Blandino advised it would like the Court to take Judicial Notice that there is a vexatious litigant order. Additionally, Mr. Blandino advised he believes this case should be assigned outside of this district.

Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Dickerson has no objection to this Court hearing this matter. COURT ORDERED, calendar call and trial dates VACATED, matter SET for Status Check. Mr. Dickerson advised the State will prepare an order. Upon Mr. Dickerson's inquiry, Court confirmed all proceedings are being stayed pursuant to NRS 178.405. Judge Linda Marquis presiding over this matter.

Defendant advised the Court of a motion to disqualify this Court as well as Judge Bell and Judge Leavitt that he wishes to file in open court; further the order issued by this Court is insufficient and does not qualify with the statute. COURT ORDERED, request to file disqualification motion DENIED. Colloquy regarding Defendant being allowed to file a motion to disqualify. Defendant requests this Court to sua sponte recuse itself and appoint a District Court Judge from another division. State objected to Defendant's request as there is no basis to the request. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman has no response. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Defendant's oral motion DENIED.

Upon Court's inquiry, State advised this is the second time the Defendant has failed to follow through with the evaluations as well as it has come to their attention the Defendant has been making contact with Pro Tem Judge Williams, at her personal office, who is in fact intimidated and in fear of the Defendant. State requested Defendant be remanded as Defendant is failing to comply with the Courts order in obtaining the psychiatric evaluations and Defendant is continuing to violate the Courts order on being on good behavior while out on bond and house arrest. Statement by Defendant regarding letter being service of process, public records showing addresses of Judge's, and receiving permission from his house arrest office.

COURT ORDERED, State's motion to remand DENIED, Defendant shall within 7 days contact Dr. Kapel and Dr. Slagel for evaluations to be scheduled with verification from the doctors. Further, in addition to the conditions of Defendant's release, Defendant is to have no contact with Telia Williams, Judge Delaney, Judge Marquis, Judge Leavitt or any Justice Court Judge sitting or Pro Tem privately or in their professional capacity. MATTER HEARD BY JUDGE SILVA

State advised this is the 8th time this matter has been on calendar and the Defendant has failed to have the evaluations completed and requested Defendant be remanded for the evaluations to be completed. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant advised he has a card from the doctors who have refused to see the Defendant because they are unable to complete the appointments in the time frame allotted by the Court. Defendant further advised after receiving the Order signed by Judge Marquis he called the doctors and went to their office the same day to schedule the appointment and view the office. Upon Court's further inquiry, Defendant did not have an appointment when he went to the doctors office. Defendant provided documents to the Court which the Court reviewed. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant advised he was not given dates of December 11 or December 16 for appointments.

State advised those dates came from the doctors or court staff via an email where the doctors provided those dates and Defendant was unavailable. Defendant advised he was never made aware of any appointments. Statement by Defendant regarding house arrest restrictions. Upon Court's inquiry, State provided the Court with representations made at last hearing regarding details of Defendant's actions while on House Arrest. Court noted, based on the review of the documents Defendant wants the evaluations completed when Defendant wants them done not when the doctors can complete them. Defendant requested an evidentiary hearing. Upon Courts inquiry, State advised the evidence they have that he failed to comply is a letter from Green Valley associates to court staff. Statement by Defendant. Documents provided by State to Court and Defendant. Discussion regarding interpretation of the time frame in the Order to have the evaluations completed. Defendant advised he did make an appointment for December 26th. State noted Defendant was supposed to make the appointment with two doctors

COURT FINDS, Defendant refers to a December 06th Order where Judge Marquis put a number of things on the record and made a number of findings, specifically that within 7 days of this Order Defendant shall make appointments with Dr. Kapel and Dr. Slagel. Additionally, COURT FINDS, the office attempted to schedule appointments for Defendant on December 11 and December 16 but Defendant advised he was "unable for the December 11th date" and has provided no reason why he could not be seen on the December 16th date. COURT FINDS, the appointment was to be made by December 20th and with only one doctor, therefore Defendant did 50% of the work. COURT ORDERED, State's request GRANTED, Defendant REMANDED into custody for the evaluation to be completed within the ordinary course. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for further proceedings.

Court noted Defendant has been removed from the Courtroom and FINDS Defendant did violate the Courts oral Order from December 6th where he was ordered to have the appointments made and verified within 7 days of the order. The evidence before the court shows that he attempted to comply however he admitted in open court that he did not go to the December 11th date, he deny's that he was ever contacted about the 16th and provided no justification or explanation for missing the December 11th date and instead relied on a date of December 26th. While that was partial compliance it was not full complains and it is not the first time as the Court understands the Defendant has refused to go to the competency evaluations as ordered. Defendant was previously released from custody and this Court does not find that the Defendant was under any punitive pre-trial action or any other issue with pre-trail release, he was subject to the standard release of a pre-trial detainee with conditions which are proper.

Court noted documents provided today shall be left side filed in the case and per State's request email information shall be redacted.

- Bennair Bateman, Esq., present as standby counsel by video. State appeared by video.

Defendant not present. Court noted the Defendant is refusing to wear a mask and has been given the opportunity to appear by blue jeans and is not sure why the Defendant does not want to appear by blue jeans. Ms. Marland advised she spoke with the Defendant this morning to remind him to wear a mask and he has declined for religious reasons. Further, Ms. Marland stated she spoke with Standby counsel regarding a request from the defendant for a USB drive as the State has additional discovery for the Defendant. Court noted the Defendant dropped off documentation and ORDERED it be marked and admitted as part of the record. Mr. Bateman made a record of the two outstanding motions. Court noted there is one motion as to the Motions to Disqualify. State noted there is a Motion in Federal Court as to the mask mandate. COURT SO NOTED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for trial. Court noted the Defendant has been given an opportunity like everyone else to appear by blue jeans as there are several other parties, including attorneys and District Attorney's, that have been appearing by blue jeans as well. Court further noted that it appears the Defendant does not want to take advantage of that option.

- Bennair Bateman, Esq., present as stand-by counsel.

Court marshall represented to the Court that the Defendant showed up out front and would not wear a mask; therefore, would not allow him to enter into the Courthouse. COURT SO NOTED. Mr. Bateman advised he spoke with the Defendant outside of the Courthouse. Court made it abundantly clear that if the Defendant does not want to wear a mask in the Courthouse, the Defendant is free to appear by Blue Jeans, like a lot of people do, including lawyers. Court again noted the Defendant is welcome to be present in the Courtroom; however, the Defendant does not get to dictate the rules. Due to the Defendant's failure to show up, refusing to wear a mask in the courtroom and also refusing to appear by Blue Jeans, State requested a bench warrant. Court directed Mr. Bateman to convey to the Defendant that the State is asking for a bench warrant and although the Court is not inclined to grant it today, if the Defendant continues to refuse to appear at these Court appearances, the Court will probably consider that remedy. Mr. Bateman stated he will convey that to the Defendant and further represented that there are discovery issues as the Defendant has not received all of the discovery. Further, Mr. Bateman noted the Defendant has a religious exemption and possibly a medical exemption as to not wearing a mask. Court stated that the Defendant can then appear by Blue Jeans. Mr. Beaumont confirmed that is what the State is requesting. Court noted that there are many people that have appeared by Blue Jeans and this Court has also appeared by Blue Jeans. COURT ORDERED, trial dates VACATED and RESET. Court noted the Defendant is still in an INVOKED status. Court inquired as to what discovery is missing. Mr. Bateman stated it is in regards to the Defendant's hard drives that were taken from him and the contents of those is what is needed. Mr. Beaumont confirmed he will pass that information along to Mr. Dickerson.

Defendant not present. Mr. Bateman advised Defendant is downstairs refusing to wear a mask and not wanting to appear to the hearing by BlueJeans. Argument by Mr. Dickerson regarding Defendant violating the rules of the Court. Mr. Bateman noted as standby counsel he does not think it is proper to argue on behalf of Defendant and Defendant has cited a religious exception to wearing a mask. Mr. Bateman added Defendant mentioned to him he still has an outstanding discovery request regarding his hard drives. Court directed Mr. Bateman to convey to Defendant his refusal to comply with the rules of the Court and obstructive behavior will result in the Court revoking his self representation. Mr. Dickerson requested the Court appoint counsel now. Court noted it is leaning towards revoking self representation; however, it will continue the matter. Colloquy regarding the discovery issue. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED two weeks and trial dates VACATED. Mr. Dickerson requested resetting trial on December 1st in order to coordinate with counsel. Court so noted. Court advised it will rule on the Motion on December 1st regardless of Defendant's presence.

Defendant not present. Mr. Bateman advised he received notice that the Defendant has been at the RJC since 10:10 AM. Court inquired as to the Defendant being aware of the RJC currently being shut down right now. Mr. Bateman stated that is his belief. Court Marshall, Randall Hawkes, stated the Defendant appeared downstairs today and was informed that the Courthouse is shut down and will need to appear by blue jeans as there is no in-person court. Mr. Dickerson stated it would be a good idea to have someone from downstairs, that had contact with the Defendant, to make those representations. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for Mr. Bateman to advise the Defendant of the RJC being closed down to in-person appearances. Court stated the only way that the Defendant can appear right now is by video. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Bateman confirmed the Defendant is more that welcome go to his office and appear by video with him. COURT SO NOTED and DIRECTED Mr. Bateman to be sure that the Defendant is aware of that option.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Bennair Bateman, Esq., appearing as stand by counsel.

Defendant not present in person or by video with stand by counsel. State requested the Court first address the State's Motion and then second, the State is now requesting a bench warrant be issued as the Defendant is not in compliance with the conditions of his release and it appears that the only way the Defendant will appear for Court is in custody. Court inquired from stand by counsel as the Defendant refuses to appear. Court stated it appears the Defendant does not want trial set before this pandemic is over as the Defendant refuses to comply with the public health directives. Mr. Bateman confirmed his understanding, advised he is stand by counsel and the Defendant is his own attorney in this matter; however, noted the Defendant is not waiving his right to speedy trial and it is not proper for him to make arguments as the Defendant is his own attorney. COURT STATED there is only one conclusion that the Court can reach when the Defendant will not comply with public health directives when entering a public building; therefore, COURT FINDS the Defendant has WAIVED his right to a speedy trial and ORDERED, trial dates VACATED and RESET to the end of next year, hopefully the end of the pandemic as it is clear that the Defendant is refusing to comply with reasonable public health directives when coming into a public building. Further, Court stated there is no inclination to issue the bench warrant as there is a concern with the Defendant going into the Clark County Detention Center when the Defendant has not been complying with public health directives; therefore, FURTHER ORDERED, this Court is not going to issue a bench warrant. Court encouraged stand by counsel to prepare to take over the defense in this matter as it appears that is very likely the direction that this is heading, if the Defendant refuses to comply with Court directives and public health directives. Court confirmed the Motion will not be granted at this time and that the Defendant needs to be aware; if the Defendant continues to refuse, Mr. Bateman is going to take over the Defense as this Court cannot allow the Defendant to continue to impede and obstruct the proceedings due to not complying with very reasonable directives. State requested clarification as to the State's Motion. COURT ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check regarding trial readiness; Motion CONTINUED and pending based upon the Defendant's behavior in the future.

STATE'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO REMAND THE DEFENDANT AND/OR ORDER ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

Following argument, COURT STATED the no contact order was not lifted and ORDERED, State's Motion DENIED; Defendant is to have no contact with Mr. Federico and/or Shannon Nordstrom; Mr. Dickerson to prepare the Order.

STATE'S SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION TO REVOKE DEFENDANT'S SELF-REPRESENTATION AND APPOINT COUNSEL

Argument by Mr. Dickerson and Defendant. COURT STATED it is clear that the Defendant does not want to follow the rules; the Defendant continues to conduct obstructionist behavior and is impeding the State from moving forward. COURT ADMONISHED and reminded the Defendant that if the Defendant does not want to comply with the rules, the Court will revoke the Defendant's self-representation; the Defendant will be appointed an attorney and the Defendant's attorney will litigate this case, not the Defendant. Further, Court stated if the Defendant wants to appear in the Regional Justice Center, then the Defendant will be required to follow the rules and wear a mask and if not, then the Defendant will need to appear via blue jeans. Court further ADMONISHED the Defendant. COURT ORDERED, Motion to Revoke DENIED. Based upon State's representations, Court assured the State that it will not let the Defendant go on with this another year. Court stated it is clear that a record has been made as to warning the Defendant. At request of the Defendant, COURT STATED there is no stay that is going to be issued today.

91] DEFENDANT EMERGENCY EX PARTE MOTION FOR RELEASE FROM GPS MONITORING Defendant stated this Motion was not phrased as a Motion. COURT again ADMONISHED the Defendant and ORDERED, Defendant is not permitted to contact chambers; Defendant is to put his request in writing or have Mr. Bateman communicate with the Court. Based upon Defendant's representations, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Motion VACATED.

EMERGENCY JUDGE JIM WILSON EX-PARTE MOTION TO TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE AND TO MAKE FULL DISCLOSURE OF ANY POSSIBLE DISQUALIFYING FACTORS AND TO TAKE STEPS TO CORRECT ERROR ON HIS RECORD
COURT ORDERED, Motion VACATED.

DEFENDANT MOTION TO STRIKE THE AFFIDAVITS OF JUDGES TIERRA JONES AND NANCY ALLF
COURT ORDERED, Motion VACATED.

CALENDAR CALL

Mr. Dickerson confirmed the State can be ready to proceed with trial with two to three days for trial and 6 to 10 witnesses max. Defendant stated he is not ready for trial as Mr. Christensen's office is not calling him back as to the funds for investigation of witnesses. Colloquy regarding current trial setting. COURT ADMONISHED the Defendant as to his trial witness. Colloquy regarding new trial setting. COURT ORDERED, trial dates VACATED and RESET. COURT ADMONISHED and reminded the Defendant that if he continues to challenge the jurisdiction of this court after four motions to disqualify have been heard and denied, the Defendant will leave the Court no choice but to revoke the Defendant's self-representation.

Defendant not present. State requested a bench warrant. Officer Hawkes stated that he was informed of the Defendant refusing to put on a mask to come inside the building; refusing to conform with the rules. Mr. Dickerson stated this is Calendar Call and again requested a bench warrant. Court stated the Defendant will be given a few more minutes to appear. MATTER TRAILED.

MATTER RECALLED. All parties present as before. COURT STATED it is almost 1:00 PM and this matter was set to be heard at noon; therefore, since the Defendant is not signed into blue jeans, it appears that the Defendant is also refusing to appear by Blue Jeans. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED and made a record ADMONISHING the Defendant that if he refuses to appear, a bench warrant will be issued for his arrest, as a party cannot refuse to appear for Court at the time of Calendar Call. COURT STATED an additional way for the Defendant to appear has been made available; if the Defendant does not want to wear the mask, the Defendant can sign into Blue Jeans and make his representations that way. COURT STATED the Defendant filed another Motion to Disqualify and that Motion is made in bad faith as it is clear that the Defendant has filed this Motion in an attempt to continue to impede and obstruct this Court, which also included Judge Jones in the Motion. Bennair Bateman, Esq., now present as stand by counsel. Colloquy regarding Defendant's appearance. Mr. Dickerson state he will never again assist the Defendant in appearing by video as that is beyond his position as a prosecutor. Further, Mr. Dickerson noted there are some Pre-Trial matters that need to be addressed and again requested a bench warrant. COURT STATED the Defendant's non-appearance today is believed to be an attempt to impede and obstruct this Court from going forward therefore, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, all pending matters are to be heard on Thursday; Mr. Bateman is to relay to the Defendant that if the Defendant refuses to appear, a warrant will be issued and the Defendant can appear by blue jeans for this matter; if Defendant wants any pleadings considered by the Court as to the Motion to Revoke Self-Representation as well as the Motion for Audio Visual, then the Defendant needs to have the pleadings filed before Thursday. COURT STATED the Motion to Disqualify will not be ruled upon as it is not made in good faith. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Dickerson stated this is the 16th or 17th Motion to Disqualify. COURT STATED it is an attempt to impede and obstruct the Court and at some point the Motion is not filed in compliance with the rules and is not made in good faith.
