

1 And in looking at this case, what we'd 2 suggest for this Court is that justice would be having 3 these two life sentences run concurrently, and this is a 4 couple reasons why I initially say that. Elizabeth A. Brown 5 have to remember that at the point in time in Clerk of Supreme Court 6 Mr. Hockemier's life when he committed these offenses, 7 he was a child himself. He was under the age of 8 majority. He was 17.

9 And I would suggest to the Court that anyone 10 who has been involved in this business, namely, criminal 11 defense, whether it's prosecuting, defending, or 12 presiding over the case, these types of cases, I think 13 we all recognize that people, when they're under the age 14 of 18, oftentimes make decisions that they would not 15 make if they were over the age of 18. That's just the 16 reality. As you get older, you mature and you make 17 better decisions.

18 So that's the first thing I'd like to point 19 out, Judge. It's not an excuse, but the fact that 20 Mr. Hockemier was 17 at the time that these offenses 21 were committed, certainly is a factor to be considered 22 by this Court in determining whether these two sentences 23 should be concurrent or consecutive.

24 The other thing I'd like to point out, Judge, 25 is the actual interview that was played for this Court

(393)

1 just a few minutes ago. We recognize that during that 2 interview, there was some initial hesitation on 3 Mr. Hockemier's part in terms of disclosing what he had 4 done approximately four or so years previously. And I 5 think that we can all understand that that is 6 understandable; namely, suddenly, you are looking into 7 the mah (phonetic) of some pretty serious allegations.
8 I think you're initial reaction, for most people, would 9 be to deny them.

10 But ultimately, Mr. Hockemier came clean, and 11 he not only came clean, Judge, he ultimately provided 12 information to Detective Hessing that the two victims in 13 this case had not even provided for the officer. So 14 ultimately stepped up to the plate, said yes, I did 15 this. Not only did what these boys said I did, but I 16 actually did more, and he provided that information to 17 the detective.

18 If you run these two sentences concurrent, 19 Mr. Hockemier is still looking at a life sentence. The 20 only difference and the only question is is when would 21 he be parole eligible. And if the two sentences are run 22 concurrent, parole eligibility, and that's all it is is 23 eligibility, begins after serving ten years.

24 And at this point in time, Mr. Hockemier has 25 a little bit less than one year in in terms of credit

(394)

1 for time served. So before he's even parole eligible, 2 he's looking at an additional nine years. And that's 3 all it is eligibility, Judge. Just because you're 4 parole eligible does not mean that you are paroled. And 5 it's been my experience in these types of cases over the 6 last 24 years that it is very rare, very rare for a 7 person in Mr. Hockemier's position to be paroled on the 8 first go-around. It just doesn't happen, Judge.

9 So we know that Mr. Hockemier is going to be 10 looking at a minimum of ten years, and it could be a 11 great deal longer than that. But ultimately, whether 12 Mr. Hockemier paroles, whether it's after 10 years, 15 13 years, 20 years, he's not off the hook at that point in 14 time, Judge, because he is subject to lifetime 15 supervision.

16 And lifetime supervision is pretty draconian.
17 At a minimum, you have to be on lifetime supervision for 18 ten years before you can even apply to try and get off 19 of lifetime supervision. And as I indicated, lifetime 20 supervision, in terms of the conditions, can be 21 extremely onerous. You are subject to being told where 22 you're allowed to go, where you're allowed to live, no 23 access to the Internet, no access to social media, 24 subject to polygraph examinations, a laundry list of 25 conditions that Mr. Hockemier is going to be subject to (395)

1 for an extended period of time.

2 Now, I understand where the State is coming 3 from. I mean, it just sort of makes sense, I guess, if 4 you wish to use that term, two victims, run the 5 sentences consecutive. But what we're talking about 6 here is justice, and justice does not always mandate the 7 maximum sentence.

8 I've got a young man who, as a client, who is 9 going to prison for a long period of time one way or 10 another, and I have no idea what ultimately the Parole 11 Board will do with Mr. Hockemier. I just do not know, 12 but I suspect that they are going to be very leery about 13 allowing Mr. Hockemier back out into society, and 14 understandable. That's understandable.

15 But what I would really like to have, and 16 this is for Mr. Hockemier, is I would like Mr. Hockemier 17 to have some light at the end of the tunnel. I'm hoping 18 that he will be provided programs in prison where he can 19 deal with his issues so, ultimately, if he is released, 20 he does not find himself back in this situation again.

21 And so what I'm suggesting to this Court, 22 Judge, is when you look at all the factors, particularly 23 Mr. Hockemier's age at the time these offenses occurred, 24 justice is that the two sentences be run concurrent.

25 And I'm not suggesting that because I'm trying to make

396

1 light of what Mr. Hockemier did to these young boys, but 2 justice suggests that these two sentences should be run 3 concurrently. And that is our recommendation, Your 4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Mr. Hockemier, you have the opportunity at 7 this time to make a statement on your own behalf.
8 You're not required to but you're entitled to. Is there 9 anything further you'd like to state?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor. First off, 11 I would like to apologize to the family and the kids 12 because after hearing what they told me, it was already 13 very heavy on my heart. It was a heavy burden I 14 carried, and I just buried it deep within me instead of 15 seeking out some help I needed. So I really want to get 16 my apologies out there to this family.

17 Let's see, I do -- this has been a positive 18 experience for me so far, and I will make the best of it 19 I can. I will do any and all programs at all possible 20 to get me some help, counseling, help me further my 21 education and just basically keep myself busy within the 22 Department of Corrections. And I'm just willing to do 23 whatever I have to do to get back to my family and get 24 back to work and get a sense of normalcy in my life.

25 But I really feel terrible for what I did

(397)

1 back then. It has been years, and I just want to be 2 able to move on from that, you know, get some help 3 because I feel like I was the victim of a similar crime, 4 and not just be an example, but somehow be a solution to 5 this problem that we have going on in this country.
6 It's pretty bad because it's just a constant cycle 7 repeating itself.

8 And I do hope these boys get the help that 9 they need, that O'Ryan can get counseling and so can 10 Scotty so that they can move on with their lives as well 11 and so they don't end up victimizing anybody or they 12 don't have any further issues, and they can live with a 13 sense of normalcy as well. And I think that about 14 covers it, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. MacFarlan was exactly right 16 when he said these cases are very difficult. They're 17 difficult for everyone. I can see all the sadness on 18 everybody's faces when I look out into the courtroom.
19 It's sad for these children who are victims, it's sad 20 for their parents, it's sad for your family, 21 Mr. Hockemier. I can see the pain on their face as 22 well.

23 And I'm looking at a 22-year-old young man 24 who's facing life in prison. I've thought about this 25 situation a lot since this case was assigned to this

(398)

1 court, and particularly a lot over the last several 2 days. The only discretion this Court has is whether to 3 sentence you concurrently or consecutively, and I have 4 struggled with that for the reasons stated by both 5 attorneys.

6 We have two victims here. You were 7 originally charged in the Justice Court with 23 counts.
8 You could have been convicted of up to eight counts.
9 You did save these children and their families and your 10 family a trial by entering a guilty plea and by 11 admitting to what you had done. And I realize that you 12 may have been 17 at the time some of these acts 13 occurred, the charged timespan crosses over when you 14 turned 18. Science says that people's brains aren't 15 fully formed until age 25, but what you did here was 16 very, very wrong. I see the fear in your face looking 17 at you because you know that I hold your fate in my 18 hands.

19 This Court is charged with the protection of 20 the public. That's what I have to keep in mind at all 21 times, and I'm very concerned that you don't understand 22 the seriousness of what you did or the impact that it 23 has had on other people. I think maybe you're beginning 24 to, but I don't think you've fully taken that in. The 25 evaluator for the sexual -- psychosexual evaluation is

(399)

1 concerned that you will re-offend, and I am concerned as 2 well.

3 The Court will order that a Judgment of 4 Conviction be entered against the Defendant finding him
5 guilty of Count 2, lewdness with a child under 14 years 6 of age, a category A felony, and Count 14, lewdness with 7 a child under 14 years of age, a category A felony.

8 The Defendant shall pay the $25
9 administrative assessment fee, the $150 genetic testing
10 fee, and $855 for the psychosexual fee. The Defendant 11 shall submit to testing of his blood and/or saliva for 12 purposes of genetic markers.

13 For Count 2, the Defendant is sentenced to a 14 maximum term of life with the possibility of parole
15 after 10 years in the Nevada Department of Corrections 16 with credit for 339 days previously served. For 17 Count 14, the Defendant is sentenced to a maximum term 18 of life with the possibility of parole after 10 years in 19 the Nevada Department of Corrections. That sentence 20 shall run consecutively with the sentence for Count 2.

21 (Celebration in the gallery)

22 THE COURT: All right, all right, no, no, no.
23 One more word, and you're out of here.

24 Pursuant to NRS 176.0931, the Defendant is 25 sentenced to lifetime supervision commencing after any

(400)

1 period of probation or any term of imprisonment and any 2 period of release on parole.

3 Mr. Hockemier, you also will be required to 4 register. You have a duty to register initially with 5 the local law enforcement agency of the jurisdiction in 6 which you are convicted. You have a duty to register in 7 this State during any period in which you are a resident 8 of this State or a non-resident who is a student or 9 worker within the State and the time within which you 10 are required to register, pursuant to NRS 179D.460.

11 You have a duty to register in any other 12 jurisdiction during any period in which you are a 13 resident of the other jurisdiction or a non-resident who 14 is a student or worker within the other jurisdiction.
15 If you move from this State to another jurisdiction, you 16 have a duty to register with the appropriate law 17 enforcement agency in the other jurisdiction.

18 You have a duty to notify the local law 19 enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction you formerly 20 resided in person or in writing if you change the 21 address at which you reside, including if you move from 22 this State to another jurisdiction or change the primary 23 address at which you were a student or worker.

24 You have a duty to notify immediately the 25 appropriate local law enforcement agency if you are or

(401)

1 expect to be or become enrolled as a student at an 2 institution of higher education or change the date of 3 commencement or termination of enrollment at an 4 institution of higher education or if you are or expect 5 to be or become a worker at an institution of higher 6 education or change the date of commencement or 7 termination of your work at an institution of higher 8 education.

9 Let the record reflect that the Court Clerk 10 has handed the Defendant a copy of the requirements for 11 registration. Mr. Hockemier, I need you to read those 12 fully and carefully and sign the form indicating you 13 have read the requirements. So I need you to do that 14 now.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

16 THE COURT: The record will reflect that the 17 Defendant has read and signed the registration 18 requirements.

19 Mr. Hockemier, the aggregate minimum term you 20 will serve is 20 years with a maximum term of life with 21 the possibility of parole. I am very mindful of the 22 fact that I've just told a 22-year-old he's going to be 23 in prison until he's at least 41 years old. I wish it 24 didn't have to be that way, but it's my judgment that it 25 does.

402

1 I hope that you will get all the help that 2 you need in prison like you said that you want to. I 3 hope that you will, and I hope that you will find some 4 way to make a positive life for yourself while you're 5 there.

6 Is there anything further?

7 MR. SCHULMAN: No, Your Honor.

8 MR. MACFARLAN: No, Your Honor.

COUNT 20: KIDNAPPING IN THE SECOND DEGREE, A CATEGORY B

FELONY AS DEFINED BY NRS 200.310(2).

App., p. 1. An Amended Memorandum of Plea Agreement was filed on February 18, 2015. App., p. 10. The Agreement contemplated that the parties would be free to argue for any sentences they deemed appropriate, including whether the sentences should be run concurrently or consecutively. App., p. 10. On March 16, 2015, Mr. Hockemier entered pleas of guilty to Counts 2 and 14 of the Criminal Information, both counts being LEWDNESS WITH A CHILD UNDER 14 YEARS OF AGE. App., p. 33. Sentencing occurred on May 21, 2015. On Count 2, Mr Hockemier was sentence to life in prison with the possibility of parole after 10 years, with credit for 339 days previously served. On Count 14, he was sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole after 10 years, said sentence to run consecutively with the sentence for Count 2. App., p. 34.

III. STATEMENT OF ISSUES

A. WHETHER THE DISTRICT COURT ERRED IN RUNNING APPELLANT'S TWO SENTENCES CONSECUTIVELY RATHER THAN CONCURRENTLY.

IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

As noted above, the Criminal Information was filed on August 29, 2014. The offenses were alleged to have occurred "from on or about the 1st day of September, 2009, to on or about the 28th day of February, 2010." App., p. 1. Mr. Hockemier, whose date of birth is November 24, 1992, was seventeen (17) years of age when the offenses occurred. App., p. 18.

The victim in Count 2 of the Criminal Information was identified as "O.M." Count 14 of the Information identified the victim for that count as "S.B." App., p. 2, 6.

After Mr. Hockemier had entered his pleas of guilty on March 16, 2015, the Division of Parole and Probation (P & P) prepared a Presentence Investigation Report (PSI). App., p. 17. At the conclusion of the report P & P recommended that the

1 sentences for Counts 2 and 14 of the Criminal Information be run concurrently. App., 2 p. 25.

3 At the sentencing hearing, the State called two witnesses: Hydie Overhooser 4 and Charles Bridge. App., p. 45, 49. Ms. Overhooser is the mother of O.M. and the 5 step-mother of S.B. App., p. 46. Mr. Bridge is the father of S.B. and the step-father 6 of O.M. App., p. 50. Both parents recommended that the two sentences be run 7 consecutively. App., p. 48, 51. The State also recommended that the sentences be 8 run consecutively, while the defense argued for concurrent sentences. App., p. 55, 9 60. At the conclusion of the sentencing hearing, Judge Porter ordered that the two 10 sentences be run consecutively. App., p. 63, 34.

11 V. ARGUMENT

12 THE DISTRICT COURT ERRED IN RUNNING THE SENTENCES
13 CONSECUTIVELY RATHER THAN CONCURRENTLY.

14 NRS 176.035(1) provides that a District Court has the discretion to run two or 15 more sentences concurrently or consecutively with each other. Appellant recognizes 16 that, normally, a sentence within statutory limits will not be disturbed on appeal 17 unless the sentencing court relied on "highly suspect or impalpable information." 18 Smith v. State, 112 Nev. 871, 873 (1996); Silks v. State, 92 Nev. 91, 94 (1976). In 19 the instant case, the sentences imposed were within the statutory limits. However, the 20 district court appeared to have simply ignored the recommendations made by both the 21 defense counsel and the Division of Parole and Probation (PSI).

22 Of greatest concern to Appellant is that the sentencing court appears to have 23 simply disregarded P & P's recommendation. Recommendations by P & P are not 24 binding on the sentencing court. See Etcheverry v. State, 107 Nev. 782, 786 (1991).
25 However, the upward deviation in this case was so dramatic that it can only be 26 deduced that the lower court failed to give any weight or credence to the 27 recommendation in the PSI.

28 It is Appellant's position that P & P is the entity with the greatest ability to

415

1 determine an appropriate sentencing structure. It was P & P's position that the 2 appropriate structure was to have the two sentences be run concurrent. By ignoring 3 this recommendation, and imposing the maximum sentence, the lower court abused 4 its discretion in sentencing Appellant. Thus the matter should be remanded for an 5 new sentencing hearing.

6 VI. CONCLUSION

7 Based on the foregoing, Appellant respectfully requests that the Court reverse 8 and remand his case to the District Court for a new sentencing hearing.

"Formal Letter"

State Of Nevada,
Mark TORVINEN, District Attorney
Plaintiff.

It comes now Defendant Devon Ray Hockemier, in proper person (i.e. in pro se) through the assistance of an inmate lay person does humbly present this "Formal Letter" as mentioned above in the titled caption for these foregoing reasons:

(1.) that this litigation is the defendants initial legal process to obtain his pertinent documents pertaining to the court record in his case, so he can support claims within his "Post-Conviction Writ of Habeas Corpus".

(2.) that the defendant is preparing his "State Post-Conviction Petition Writ Of Habeas Corpus", and would be prejudiced if this

#0406

HONORABLE Court denied the two motions he has before the Court, which is to say, that without the support of facts within the record the defendant would be presenting "bare and naked" allegations and by this meriting dismissal of his petition. (PLEASE SEE: "Motion For Production Of Transcripts At State Expense"), and,

(3) that the defendant has the entitled Constitutional right to bring forth errors of counsel effective assistance during pre-trial plea negotiation, at plea negotiation, and post counsel effectiveness during sentencing phase. Moreover, the defendant also has the entitled Constitutional rights to challenge the errors committed by appointed counsel on direct appeal. These are absolute rights under the United States Constitution and Nevada Constitution. Therefore without an "Order" by this Honorable Fourth Judicial District Court granting the motions: "Motion For Production Of Transcripts At State Expense", and "Notice Of Motion And Motion For Order Of Delivery Of Records", the defendant would be clearly prejudiced because he would not be able to support his "grounds" within his post-conviction writ of habeas corpus petition. Peterson v. Warden, 87 Nev. 134, 483 P.2d 204, 205 (1971); SEE E.g. Gardner v. California, 393 U.S. 367, 89 S.Ct. 580, 582 (1969).

The defendant prays for this Honorable Courts just decision in granting his motions before the Court.

Respectfully submitted:

Dated this 22nd day of June 2016.

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR ORDER OF DELIVERY OF RECORDS

COMES NOW Defendant Devon Ray Hockemier ("Defendant"), in pro se, and submits his Notice of Motion and Motion for Order of Delivery of Records, moving the Court to Order that former counsel of record Sherbarne M. MacFarlan III ("Counsel") deliver to Defendant at the above address all files, documents, papers, records and personal property which are in Counsel's possession and control.

This motion is made and based upon NRS 7.055; all documents on record herein; the below points and authorities; and the attached affidavit of Defendant in support hereof.

NOTICE OF MOTION

YOU, AND EACH OF YOU, WILL TAKE NOTICE that the undersigned will bring for hearing the foregoing motion before the above-

4 such is not available above.

6 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

7 Counsel has withdrawn from this case, and therefore no 8 longer represents Defendant. Upon being discharged, the 9 attorney shall, upon demand of the client, "immediately deliver 10 to the client all papers, documents, pleadings and items of 11 tangible personal property which belong to or were prepared for 12 that client." NRS 7.055(1). See also RPC 1.16(d) (upon 13 discharge, attorney to surrender to former client all papers and 14 property to which client is entitled).

15 Despite having been discharged, Counsel has failed to 16 comply with Defendant's instructions to forward to him all 17 papers and property which were prepared in relation to the 18 above-entitled case and/or which belong to him. See Affidavit 19 attached hereto. This failure of Counsel not only omits to 20 protect Defendant's interests as required by RPC 1.16, but 21 directly disregards the mandates of NRS 7.055(1).

22 Counsel has no lawful basis to withhold Defendant's papers 23 in this matter, as Defendant owes Counsel NO fees which would 24 permit Counsel to maintain same under a lien. Michel v. Eighth 25 Judicial Dist. Court, 117 Nev. 145, 17 P.3d 1003, 1008 n. 2 (2001). See also Affidavit.

26 CONCLUSION

27 For the reasons set forth above, the Court should order 28 Counsel to deliver to Defendant the entirety of documentation in

ROCKEMIER

1 the above-entitled case, or should otherwise direct counsel to 2 show cause why they have failed to do so.

COMES NOW, I, Devon Ray Hockemier, who first being duly sworn and on my own oath, do hereby depose and state the following:

(1) I am the Defendant in the above-entitled matter.

(2) My former attorney Sherburne M. MacFarlan III has been removed as my counsel of record in these criminal proceedings. I have instructed counsel to forward to me my case files in accordance with NRS 7.055, inasmuch as the following has occurred (explain what you have done to attempt to obtain your records from counsel, and what, if anything, has been counsel's response to such attempts):

I, Devon Ray Hockemier, have requested from former counsel, Sherburne M. MacFarlan III, on May, 12th, 2016, to please send all documents, papers, pleadings, transcripts - including transcripts of motion to bring defendant to juvenile court. Counsel still has not complied with this request, which is a violation of NRS 7.055. My request with this honorable court is to order former counsel to comply with NRS 7.055. Lastly, I am under the one year time constraints of Nevada's post-conviction Habeas Corpus.

Sincerely, Devon Hockemier

(3) Counsel fails to forward to me said records. I am therefore submitting the instant motion in good faith, as I have no other remedy than this Court's power to enforce my interests under NRS 7.055.

1 and the following points and authorities.

2 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

3 Petitioner/Defendant has filed a ☒ petition for writ of 4 habeas corpus ___ motion to/for ___ 5 ___, presenting ground(s)/claim(s) for relief. NRS 6 34.730(4) and NRS 34.760(2) require that the presentation of 7 habeas petitions be supported by affidavits, records, 8 transcripts or other relevant evidence. Id. Petitions and 9 motions which are not supported by such evidence render the 10 claims therein to be bare and naked allegations, unsupported by 11 the record and meriting dismissal. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev.
12 498, 686 P.2d 222 (1984). See also Griffin v. State, 122 Nev.
13 737, 137 P.3d 1165, 1170 (2006) (defendant must support his 14 claims with "specific facts" demonstrating entitlement to relief 15 sought); Berjarano v. Warden, 112 Nev. 1466, 929 P.2d 922 (1996) 16 (defendant bears burden of establishing factual allegations in 17 support of his claims).

18 In order to obtain this Court's order to produce the 19 requested transcripts, Petitioner/Defendant need show that they 20 would serve a useful purpose and that he would be prejudiced 21 without them. Peterson v. Warden, 87 Nev. 134, 483 P.2d 204, 22 205 (1971). Petitioner/Defendant requires the transcripts at 23 bar in order to support his ground(s)/claim(s), which have 24 merit, as shown on the separate page(s) annexed hereto as page 25 (s) see ^{"formal letter," attached} (you must describe your grounds/claims and 26 demonstrate how the requested transcripts are necessary to avoid 27 a dismissal/denial of same), and as are incorporated as if set 28 forth herein. Prejudice is demonstrated inasmuch as due to the merit of Petitioner/Defendant's claims, same would be dismissed/denied without the transcripts at issue.

Devon for "quiner" # 1140143

Petitioner/Defendant is a pauper, as evidenced by his having proceeded as a pauper in these proceedings. Therefore, the transcripts must be provided at State expense so as to satisfy the concerns of due process and fairness herein. See e.g. Gardner v. California, 393 U.S. 367, 89 S.Ct. 580, 582 (1969) (transcripts in habeas proceedings may not be supplied those who can afford them and denied to those who cannot).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Court should grant the instant motion via ordering the Clerk of the Court to produce the above-described transcripts and serve same upon Petitioner/Defendant at his place of confinement.
