DEFENDANT'S MOHAMAD ALHULAIBI'S EX PARTE PETITION/MOTION FOR AN ORDER REQUIRING PRODUCTION OF THE MINOR CHILD; FOR THE ISSUANCE OF A WARRANT FOR THE PICK-UP OF THE MINOR CHILD; FOR AN ORDER PREVENTING ABDUCTION OF THE MINOR CHILD PURSUANT TO NRS 125D; FOR A RETURN ORDER FOR THE MINOR CHILD TO HIS HOME COUNTRY OF SAUDI ARABIA...PLAINTIFF'S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT FOR FAILURE TO ABIDE BY THE COURT ORDER REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S TIMESHARE, FOR PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS AGAINST DEFENDANT, FOR AN EMERGENCY PICK UP ORDER, FOR MAKEUP TIME, TO AMEND PLEADINGS, FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS, AND FOR OTHER RELATED RELIEF...MOHAMAD'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S COUNTERMOTION

This matter is a companion case with T-20-203688-T heard simultaneously.

Court interpreter (Arabic), Dalyia Ahmed, present on behalf of the Plaintiff.

Both parties, Court interpreter, Attorney Green, Attorney Markman, and Attorney Willick appeared telephonically, pursuant to the Administrative Orders for public safety.

Court noted this hearing stems from the disposing of the granting of the Motion To Dismiss. Further, Defendant filed timely the Notice Of Appeal.

Court stated the case was dismissed, the matter is on appeal, and the Defendant's Motion and Plaintiff's Countermotion seek relief not collateral to the appeal. Further, filing these Motions in a case that was dismissed, is not appropriate and the relief requested is DENIED for lack of jurisdiction.

If the result of the appeal results in the reverse of the dismissal of the case, then these issues can be heard. Until that happens, this Court is not the appropriate place to file these Motions. The appeal will proceed.

PROCEEDINGS

[THE PROCEEDING BEGAN AT: 11:52:32.]

MS. GREEN: ... turned over pending appeals filed by first by the Defendant, then the Plaintiff's counter motion. Then everything would have been all for not. The - the mother would have been deprived of the parent child relationship and they're asking we make arrangements with Mr. Markman for video with - with the [indiscernible] to take place until we got to this hearing. So we have a pending appeal, we have abduction prevention measures, we have motions filed under 125 D. After 12 the quarantine those motions were filed and we took the position that the Court would make a decision less the child be taken out of the country in the meantime which would destroy the mother child relationship. The child lived with the mother all of his life, bonded to the mother, and we needed this Court to weigh in and that's why we're here today.

THE COURT: Well, I'm sure you don't want me to make a finding of wrongful deprivation of time and to essentially keep the child from your client for two or three months at time, are you? I - I mean that seems obvious, right? It's it's - Judge Norheim - and I know you were not the lawyer from legal aid that argued this - or the hearing master found that even with these allegations, it was appropriate to issue that split week custody, and ordered that the split week custody schedule be enforced. It's not been modified by that Court or this Court, and with the dismissal.

MS. GREEN: [Indiscernible], Your Honor?

THE COURT: I - look, it's not - it's not - the Court is not supporting the decision that you made or the mom made to keep the child from him. Now the health issues might - I mean I can't make a finding of wrongful denial without knowing the detail of whether or not - the pandemic had contributed to these exchanges, but this nonsense about - you know - the child has been with mom the entire life and - and so dad shouldn't be entitled to visitation that way. That's not a valid argument that's gonna have any particular.

MS. GREEN: Well, Your Honor, there were motions in front of you to give us - both - both asking the Court to make abduction prevention measures. He's stated with a - firstly, that he intends to get the child and go to Saudi Arabia. We have an appeal pending with the Nevada Supreme Court. We 18 | believe that the District Court has a duty and an obligation to - protect the outcome of the appeal - in this case. That is the - the parent child relationship, the mother child relationship. We believe we have a meritory appeal, had the child ben turned over there would be no point in even having 23 | this - this hearing. These - these motions were pending before you. We believed that we would get a decision before you. We did - we did not want to do anything that would cause the 1 child to be taken out of the country.

THE COURT: Okay, well, I can issue orders that \parallel specifically address that issue. Hold on, hold on. The - the the interpreter is way behind. Please let her do the job. The - okay, Ms. Green, anything further?

MS. GREEN: Not at this time, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Markman, the posture of this case is that the civil domestic case has been dismissed and the protective order case is extended until February 14th, 10 2021. Don't answer yet, go ahead madame interpreter. The Court 11 reviewed the record as I stated and find that there was more 12 than sufficient evidence for the hearing officer to grant the 13 extension of the protective order. After reviewing the papers 14 that had been filed since that hearing, the Court concludes 15 | that the protective order should not be dissolved. Now, Mr. 16 Markman, you - you made a filing on July 28th, in response to 17 | filings that they made. I wanna specifically focus on the $18 \parallel \text{request}$ to stay the order in the D case pending the appeal. 19 | Did you wanna speak to that?

MR. MARKMAN: I mean I think the U.S. Supreme Court is very clear. What is it, Chafin [sic], whether it's - Monasky. That prompt return - and especially Chafin - that no state 23 ||issues when you - you know - just 'cause you lose a case 24 | doesn't mean a stay should be issued. What's needed is to 25 ∥return the child to their home country, and I understand that

1 you're not affording belief on that at this point, but that's what the Court - that's what Chafin says. It says that if you ∥lose - if - if you were granted a stay then everyone would just file an appeal because what everyone wants is the kid to remain in the United States, so Chafin, the U.S. Supreme Court 6 | has said no. We can't just issue a stay just because you wanna stay 'cause it wouldn't moot it, 'cause in fact it doesn't moot it. This Court could assume jurisdiction to file an order ||if he - if he did not follow a subsequent order that requested 10 | the return of the - of the child to America, so there's no need to stay the case to some degree 'cause this Court is not going to issue a return order - does not want to hear arguments on the return order. It - I don't know that - it's a huge deal. At this point I'm mostly focused - if - if that's the case, I'm mostly focused on getting Mohamad the ability to see his son again, and - and I think that there's so much...

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MARKMAN: ... that I'd like to address from paper all - on that regard.

THE COURT: All right, one of you let the interpreter interpret that and then I have - I'm gonna turn - I'll give you a chance to do that. Okay, Mr. Markman, briefly, what other questions or points do you have to make?

MR. MARKMAN: Well, mainly it goes to the email between April and myself, and this is a email from - it's been part of exhibit 15 and the motion to dissolve, and it's Friday, June 26th, at 2:05. So this is before the motion to return was filed, and - and April's response to me when I'm asking about

- Ryan's health - which is the minor child is - okay, we'll - although that I have not heard that neither of them have the virus. It may be they are on lock down - other reasons, and that's 2:05, so at 2:08 on Friday, I respond. Okay, can you please find out? Confirm the reasons they are on lock down as Mohamad is very concerned about the health of Ryan - and is entitled to information about his son's health. And there's no on response - you know - Friday. There's no response on Saturday, Sunday, or Monday, and then I filed a motion for return order at roughly 6 p.m. that following Monday.

25 l

THE COURT: Okay, hold on. You - you gotta let the interpreter - you gotta - you gotta - I got the gist of it.

Let the interpreter interpret, please. All right. Mr. Markman, Ms. Green's comments were clear that it was a combination of considerations as to what happened with the visitation. I - I don't want to get into the detail of it. Obviously you believe that there was - that it not should not have been done, right?

MR. MARKMAN: That's correct, and I just wanna make - I just wanna make one last statement about that. They filed this - this opposition and counter motion July 1st, so two days - two days after I filed a motion for return order - on page eight, line 13 and 14 - so it'd be - you know - the - the -

the Defendant has threatened to abscond with the minor child, 1 however, because of the preventative measures taken by Ahed, 3 she is not allowed to occur, so-4 THE COURT: Yeah - that's fine. I - I read the papers. I 5 also saw the July 9th hearing, and I know you didn't get to make a long argument then, but I - I - I know - I've read this, okay? I) need to move on - I need - I - I - we - we're 7 already - it's 12:10, okay? Madame interpreter, interpret that and then I need to ask Mr. Willick a question or two. Okay, 10 Mr. Willick. 11 MR. WILLICK: Yes, Your Honor? 12 THE COURT: If you prevail on appeal, it's get remanded a reversal, the Court picks up the divorce case, right? 13 14 MR. WILLICK: Yes, sir. 15 THE COURT: Okay, if you don't prevail on appeal then we have this protective order in place until February 14th, 2021, 16 l 17 and it has custody provisions, right? 18 MR. WILLICK: Yes, Your Honor, I believe so. 19 THE COURT: All right, and the - the only thing - I mean 20 | the things that will happen at that time would be it would 21 dissolve on it's own. It would - there would be a request in advance to that for extraordinary findings to extend it, 23 right? 24 MR. WILLICK: Yes. Actually, the current law I believe has the extended maximum time for a D-V out to one to two years.

25 l

THE COURT: Well, you - you may not have reviewed the hearings like I did recently, but Norheim made a ruling that there were no extraordinary terms to go passed the year, but that could be revisited by this Court upon...

MR. WILLICK: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: ... request, okay? So there's irreparable harm as it relates to the - because of the decision of the Court to deny the dissolving of the protective order, and to have custody orders with restrictions like travel and - and so I 10 suppose you can ask for stay from the Supreme Court but I don't see it right now. Maybe as we get closer to the deadline of February, 2021. Madame interpreter, will you - will you interpret, please? So Mr. Willick, the - the Court just wants to have this dialogue with you that says if I do not grant the stay now, that's without prejudice as these events occur 'cause it's probably unlikely the Supreme Court will resolve this by February, right?

MR. WILLICK: I - I have learned from long experience not second guess the timing of how long a Supreme Court decision might take, so I really would rather not go on the record with expressing - the Court series of orders largely encompass the same concepts that were involved in the stay. It's been clear from Mr. Markman's comments that the Defendant remains fixated on the concept of what he calls prompt return and what Ms. Green refers to as an international kidnapping. We believe

1 that self help remains a very significant concern, so we have the Court in dealing with the T-P-O enters - and the 125 D 3 applications on both sides - and there's sufficient orders to essentially ensure that there is no self help and the child is 5 not spirited away, then the effect of the request for the stay that has been granted despite the denial of the stay itself, and I'm sorry if that sounded circular but I hope it's clear.

THE COURT: All right. Let - let the interpreter interpret and then I'll see whether we can sort of agree. Okay, whether the - whether a departure would be an abduction or not is really about a point of view, Mr. Willick. The-

We -17 respect the fact that we have a protective order that requires a split custody schedule temporarily, right?

MR. WILLICK: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay, so as it relates to the filing that you made as appellate counsel - I forget the date now but it was I think the 17th of July - the request for stay is denied without prejudice for the reasons that we've established.

MR. WILLICK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Madame interpreter. Okay, so - let's talk

 $1 \parallel$ about the orders. We have jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter. I directed that an order be processed that denies the request to dissolve the protective order. I've directed an order that denies the request for a stay of the D case, so that's gotta be filed in the D case. That's without prejudice.

The Court is gonna be issuing two bench orders in the T case. One is going to be to amend the protective order, to modify the visitation and custody provisions for the shared 10 | physical arrangement to include supervised exchanges of the children since they have not - or the child - since the child has not been exchanged. We'll be using the supervised exchange center and the exchanges will take place on Thursday at six o'clock and Sunday at five P.M. Adverse Party will have the child from Thursday at six until Sunday at five.

MS. GREEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Applicant will have the child each week Sunday at five through Thursday at six P.M. There is no restriction on the custody schedule except as to time, and as to the restriction pursuant to 125 D 150, in that the child at this time will not travel outside the United States or Nevada until further of the Court. Ms. Green, I want you to make sure that your client is able to do the orientation or the instruction for Donna's House Central as soon as possible.

MS. GREEN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And Mr. Markman, you can do the same.

MR. MARKMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. So we're - the - the D case is essentially closed. I mean I - I don't - there shouldn't be filings in the D case anymore unless it's I guess some sort of 6 request - Mr. Willick - for a stay on the eve of the expiration of the protective order if you find yourself in that position, okay?

MR. WILLICK: I understand.

THE COURT: You know I hope - I - you know - this is -11 this is an important matter. It's - it's time sensitive. I 12 hope that the Supreme Court will give it - you know - swift attention and make a ruling one way or another, and the T-P-O is essentially even more important now than it was when it was granted in March - in my mind. Now Mr. Markman, if you have any issues, or Ms. Green, any issues of enforcement or any 17 | relief seeking Court assistance related to the T case, it 18 | should be filed in the T case - and this Court is responsible 19 || for the T case. The hearing master's role in this case is over.

MS. GREEN: I understand, Your Honor. I do have a question.

THE COURT: All right. Let the interpreter interpret that, please. Okay, Ms. Green, your question.

MS. GREEN: I - I just wanted to say with intention if

THE COURT: For the child? Does the child have a passport? MS. GREEN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah, that's fine. That - that'll be consistent with the order that I wrote out today, and it would - it - it's time sensitive so you can get that to me. Mr. 10 | Markman, if it's overreaching then you can ask to modify it or dissolve it down the road, okay?

MR. MARKMAN: Oh, so I just - are you requesting the minor's passport?

THE COURT: No, no, no, I'm not requesting the passport. 15 What she's talking about is - as part of 125 D, there's a 16 | notice that - an order that can be entered that the State 17 | Department would recognize to flag any travel. I'm not suggesting your client would - would violate the orders, but it just is another safeguard to protect - and I know that your client's point of view is that with the dismissal of the case - you know he - if it were up to him he would dissolve the protective order and he would litigate this in Syria or Saudi Arabia, that's his point of view. I'm not - I'm not really commenting on that one way or another, but that's something that we can't have in the short term, do you understand?

MR. MARKMAN: Understood, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Madame interpreter will you interpret that, please? Mr. Markman, before we go, any questions from your side?

MR. MARKMAN: Just a quick question. So counsel for Ahed is gonna prepare for the D case, and then my understanding was that yours and [indiscernible] was gonna include the description on the minor's passport and that's gonna come from the bench, is that correct, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Well, a protective order order came from the 11 | bench and the Donna's House Central referral came from the 12 | bench and Ms. Green is gonna submit an order in the T case that has that flag notice - and - and so all of that will be reviewed and processed. Now a protective order form may come out after this hearing - after they get my handwritten order, that's typical, and just - that's a - form of process where the presiding judge approves the hearing master's orders. I -I'm gonna be signing these orders, okay?

Do - the - so yeah, you're gonna get notice of any of the orders and they're gonna run the other two orders by you because they're not exigent. So madame interpreter, will you interpret that, please? Great job, madame interpreter. Thank you very much.

INTERPRETER: You're welcome, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right, so - I'll receive the orders. Thank

PROCEEDINGS

[THE PROCEEDING BEGAN AT: 11:01:59.]

THE COURT: [Through an interpreter throughout] ... prejudgment proceeding. The case number is D-606093. This is a divorce case and initial appearance. We are in the Regional Justice Center, on the record. The parties and counsel for the parties are appearing by phone pursuant to administrative order. We are assisted in this hearing by the Court certified interpreter. Mister interpreter, will you state your appearance for the record.

MR. RIFAAT: Omar J. Rifaat.

THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Green, will you state your appearance for the plaintiff.

MS. GREEN: [Through an interpreter throughout] April Green, Your Honor. Legal Aid Center, bar number 8-3-4-0, for Ahed Senjab.

THE COURT: Mr. Markman, will you state your appearance for the defendant.

MR. MARKMAN: [Through an interpreter throughout] Good morning, Your Honor. David Markman, from Markman Law on behalf of Mohamad Alhulaibi, bar number 1-2-4-4-0.

THE COURT: I am the judge responsible for the divorce case. I have reviewed the pleadings and the papers that have been on file. I also reviewed the papers in case T-203688.

   Before I go over those papers, are they any matters that are 2 resolved by agreement?
3
        MS. GREEN: No, Your Honor.
        MR. MARKMAN: No, Your Honor.
4
5
        THE COURT: Okay, go ahead, mister interpreter. Ms. Green, 6
   I want to confirm a couple of notes that I have based on these 7
   files.
8
        MS. GREEN: Mm-hm.
9
        THE COURT: You allege that the parties were married in 10
   Saudi Arabia in February, 2018.
11
        MS. GREEN: Let me look at complaint, Your Honor.
12
        THE COURT: Well, hold on. Let - let the interpreter 13 translate.
14
        MS. GREEN: Yes, correct.
15
        MS. SENJAB: [Through an interpreter throughout.] Yes,
16 | Your Honor.
17
        THE COURT: Okay, and you allege that they have one child born the issue of their relationship, Ryan, age one.
18
19
        MS. GREEN: Yes, Your Honor.
20
        MS. SENJAB: Yes, Your Honor. Right.
21
        THE COURT: Okay. I did not see a jurisdiction enforcement 22 act affidavit, but the motion says that mom moved to the United States with the child in January of this year.
23
24
        MS. GREEN: Yes, Your Honor.
25
        THE COURT: Well, let the interpreter interpret, please.

1 MR. RIFAAT: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. 2 MS. SENJAB: Yes, Your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Markman? 4 MR. MARKMAN: Yes, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: If she moved to the United States with the 6 child on January 13th, of 2020-7 MR. MARKMAN: Yes. THE COURT: I'm - the interpreter needs to interpret, 8 please. And this - and this case for divorce was filed on 9 March 24th. And the plaintiff alleges - or mom alleges physical - physical presence in Nevada with the intent to make Nevada her home. This Court has jurisdiction to grant her 12 II 13 l divorce. It has nothing to do with your client's intention or 14 his physical presence or his visa status. On the other hand, Nevada courts are required to have subject matter jurisdiction 15 over custody in order to enter divorce decrees with custody 16 orders. Okay, which is a segway into the discussion about 17 whether or not the motion to dismiss should be focusing on the 18 scope of claims or whether the case itself can be dismissed. Okay, so Mr. Markman I want to ask you a couple questions and 20 21 then after the interpreter translates then you can respond, 22 okay? MR. MARKMAN: Okay, [indiscernible]. 23 THE COURT: Do you have any evidence that would refute the 24

25 | physical presence of mom in Nevada from January 13th, 2020?

  Mr. Markman?
2
        MR. MARKMAN: I do not have any evidence that she's not in 3
   the State of Nevada, no.
4
        THE COURT: Okay. Is your client arguing - oh, I'm sorry 5
   mister interpreter. I'm so sorry. Go ahead.
6
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor?
7
        THE COURT: He said no, so you can interpret - you can 8 translate that. Mr. Markman, is your client's position that the home state of the child is not Nevada?
10
        MR. MARKMAN: Yes, Your Honor. My - my client is - believes that Saudi Arabia is the home state of the child.
        THE COURT: Well, he alleged in the motion that the plaintiff and defendant are residents of Syria.
14
        MR. MARKMAN: The child has lived in Saudi Arabia and they 15 are - have been in Saudi Arabia for the six months prior to them moving to the United States and I believe even longer 17 l
   than that.
        THE COURT: So did the Court make a mistake when it wrote 18
   a note that the allegation is that - well, it doesn't really 20 matter. If - if the home state is not Nevada, it's - it's 21
   either Syria or Saudi Arabia, right?
22
        MR. MARKMAN: Correct, Your Honor.
23
        THE COURT: Go ahead, mister interpreter.
24
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.
25
        THE COURT: Okay.

1	MS. SENJAB: Yes, Your Honor.
2	THE COURT: Okay. Okay, the Court is aware that there's a
3	protective order that's been entered and extended until
4	February of next year.
5	MR. RIFAAT: Should I go, Your Honor?
6	THE COURT: Yes, that's fine. I'm sorry - I'm sorry.
7	MR. RIFAAT: No problem, Your Honor.
8	THE COURT: The Court is also aware that that protective
9	order provides for a split week custody schedule with dad
10	having Friday to Monday. And I understand you were not the
11	lawyer Mr Markman, but I do not see any objection to the 12	jurisdiction of the Court to enter that visitation order. The
13	- it would be appropriate to issue a custody order in an
14	emergency protective order case. But in order for a judgment
15	to be entered concerning custody, this Court must have custody
16	jurisdiction. Okay, is there any other case besides the
17	protective order case and this divorce case involving these
18	parties?
19	MS. GREEN: No, Your Honor. Not in any other jurisdiction
20	and there were no other cases - and no other cases in Nevada.
21	THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Markman, are you aware of any other
22	cases?
23	MR. MARKMAN: Not that I'm aware of, Your Honor.
24	THE COURT: Okay, so let me visit with Ms. Green for a
25	second. Go ahead, mister interpreter.

MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Green, my - my take on this case right now - and - I - I haven't made any kinda orders but your client - if she's been physically here since January 13th,...

MS. GREEN: Mm-hm.

THE COURT: ... she's entitled to a divorce.

MS. GREEN: Yes.

THE COURT: But you cannot move here from another country, live here for six weeks and establish custody jurisdiction in Nevada this way. Mister interpreter, you can interpret that.

MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The only justification for a - for a custody order in a case under this - these facts would be as an emergency order, or under the vacuum jurisdiction under the Uniform Enforcement Act. Which would allow only limited orders until a court of - of jurisdiction could make those orders.

Are there any - are there any-

MS. GREEN: [Indiscernible].

THE COURT: Yeah, Ms. Green, why don't you make whatever points you think are important for the court to understand.

MS. GREEN: Okay. Your Honor, all of the - the parties and the child are here in this jurisdiction. There is no action pending in any other country or state, so just in terms of judicial economy and appropriate forum, it is appropriate for Nevada to exercise jurisdiction. The mother had a path to 1 citizenship independent from the father, and you've already said you have jurisdiction over her but I - I believe that it would be an absurd result and in contrary to the law and theories of the U.C.C.J.E.A., and this is a matter where the Court has already exercised jurisdiction over the parties and the child without objection, and the defendant has indicated his is following the orders of this court.

The child has a doctor, he's [indiscernible], utilize various [indiscernible] services in the state. As I said the parents are here, a divorce action is pending here. We're asking the Court assume jurisdiction on all - under all of the vacuum authorities of the U.C.C.J.E.A., and if it would please the Court, Your Honor, we would be pleased to brief this issue. This is more narrow issue now that - you know you determined what - what happens with the parents in the divorce case. It's not a issue of the U.C.C.J.E.A. and the Court exercising jurisdiction over the child for all of the reasons I've stated before. I believe that the Court should exercise jurisdiction and they did the most appropriate forum. They are all here already in front of this court. There is nobody there, no action filed in Saudi Arabia.

My client, a domestic violence victim, does not to 23 | intend to return to Saudi Arabia and she doesn't have to 24 | because she has her own independent right to [indiscernible] which she had pursued. So for those reasons, Your Honor, we're

1 asking you to exercise jurisdiction. Nevada is the most appropriate forum for the child. There's no action pending 3 anywhere else and the parents are here and the mother intends 4
   to stay here.
5
        THE COURT: All right. Mister interpreter, I can't expect you to interpret all of that argument, but it's part of the 6
7
   record, okay?
8
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor. I got it, I can go ahead and 9
   proceed if you-
10
        THE COURT: Why don't you give it a shot?
11
        MR. RIFAAT: Absolutely.
12
        THE COURT: Okay - all right, look - stop - stop the 13 dialogue between a party and - and the interpreter, okay? I 14 can't have that as part of the record, okay? 'Cause I'm not 15 soliciting information from mom or dad on that, okay?
16
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.
17
        THE COURT: All right, that's fine - that's fine. All right, look - the Court has to have initial custody jurisdiction. We don't have initial custody jurisdiction but 19 20
   the court may find that it can have temporary emergency 21 jurisdiction under N.R.S. 125 A .335. Ms. Green, I don't 22 have...
23
        MS. GREEN: Yes, Your Honor.
24
        THE COURT: ... discretion. I either have subject - this

Court either has subject matter jurisdiction or it doesn't,

and Nevada's not the home state, and before final orders are made concerned of custody, you better be prepared to walk through the theory - the elements of child custody because the emergency jurisdiction of the Court is only so long as - as it is a bridge between the time that that order's made and the time that the Court that actually has jurisdiction issues an order. Now Mr. Markman-

THE COURT: The Court can issue an emergency order and the jurisdiction for the T-P-O order was emergency jurisdiction - a vacuum. There was no state that had a case and we had physical presence of the parties and the child here. It is a problem for the plaintiff in this case as it relates to subject matter jurisdiction. Now I think Saudi Arabia is a signator on the Hague Convention but that's something you need to - you need to know about, and whether or not that impacts the analysis on how we deal with the jurisdictional dispute between courts. 'Cause that's either - that - that may happen.

The case can't get dismissed for a couple reasons.

Number one, she has a right to get a divorce here, and she probably has a good minimum connection case regardless of your client's visa status to connections with Nevada to litigate property issues if there are property issues. The custody piece of it is the one that's problematic for the Court, and something that I'm not gonna make a final ruling on today. Do

1 you understand? 2 MR. MARKMAN: Yes, Your Honor, and can I - can I - address 3 some of those? [Indiscernible]. 4 THE COURT: Well, I think I just-5 MR. MARKMAN: [Indiscernible]. THE COURT: What I'm concerned about is that I'm talking 7 too much. I can't - I'm not giving the interpreter an 8 opportunity to interpret what I said, so why don't I let mister interpreter, I know that I - I completely forgot that 10 you're need to translate. 11 MR. RIFAAT: Not a problem, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: Just do what you can to translate the - the -13 the comments of the Court for plaintiff, please. 14 MR. RIFAAT: Yes. Copy, Your Honor. 15 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Markman, the - I want you to be 16 able to make a couple of points on the record too. Before you 17 do let the interpreter translate. 18 MR. MARKMAN: Okay. 19 THE COURT: Mr. Markman. MR. MARKMAN: Your Honor - as for domicile, I don't 20 believe - if you look at Toll case, which is a U.S. Supreme 21 Court case, the plaintiff can't establish domicile which is 22 necessary in Nevada in order to even have a divorce action. 24 | It's because - because recovered aliens can't have the 25 subjective intent to remain in the United States.

THE COURT: Oh, yeah, you can. We got millions of 'em with the subjective intent with not a valid visa, okay? So - they - physical presence with intent is the standard that the Court is applying there, okay?

21

MR. MARKMAN: If you - and this is - you know - if you look at the Parr [sic] case - if you look at the Parr case, it's - it's pretty similar in the non-immigrant alien sought a divorce and the Ninth Circuit actually voided the divorce because she could not have the proper domicile, or was not properly domiciled in order to get the divorce.

THE COURT: I know but look counsel, look, they - we grant divorces by the hundreds with folks who are undocumented. We treat them with the same due process and rights to dissolve their marriages, okay? I - I understand - I - I'll have to look at that case and before I close this case, I will have to give you a ruling on each one of these legal points. This - this case is - has got many nuances with it, okay? But this notion that somebody has to be a - a citizen in the United States to get divorced - if they're physically here and testified that they have the intention to make Nevada their home for an indefinite period of time, forget the overlap of the Violence Against Women's Act and domestic violence allegations and things like that - you have - there is no bar to a person seeking a divorce who's physically here and can state the intent to be here from getting a divorce here, okay?

I - I - I - and - and I appreciate - you know the immigration cases and some of these other jurisdictional nuances that I'm gonna have to really get my arms around before I make final orders in this case, but I will look at the case - I mean I'll look at these cases and give you a specific ruling one each one, okay?

MR. MARKMAN: Okay, I - and I appreciate it, Your Honor. That - that - that is - I mean that's just how - I read the cases and I think they - that they - they really touch upon [indiscernible] and - and make it somewhat - in my opinion clear that - that they actually cannot get a divorce here 12 | because they're never supposed to have the - the subjective intent to stay. That's part of the visa condition and - and the cases go further and I'm not - you know - advocating for this, but they go to the sense that if you form that subjective intent it's actually the [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Well, I have to have - I have cases where 18 people come in and their visa's expired, and their immigration lawyers come in and testify saying you're not here illegally, and maybe some months or years down the road someone will notice a hearing and have them come in, okay? But they're still physically here, all right? This comes up in the custody context where somebody says I need to get permission 23 | $24 \parallel$ to remove because I'm required to leave the country - okay -25 | by law, but do they leave the country? No, they don't.

So look, I - I appreciate the argument. This is an important process of this case. I - if I don't have jurisdiction to grant - the order then I need to make sure that - that I don't issue a void order, okay? Now, your - qo on.

MR. MARKMAN: And - and as for the abuse allegations, I don't think they've been substantiated in any means, and you're right, I wasn't a part of the T-P-O hearing, but when the officers came out on February 9th, she admit to the officers it was verbal only. When Mr. - when Mohamad went back the next day to collect some belongings that he needed from 12 | the apartment, then after she had time to - I - I'm not gonna 13 | say concoct a story but after she had time to think about what 14 | she wanted to say to the officers, she then claims physical 15 | abuse and - and on the - I think there's some family dynamic -16 \(\) 'cause if you look at the T-P-O, what she's - really asking 17 for is to be able to stay here and to help immigrate her 18 family here, and - and she specifically requests that in the T-P-O, so my client is under the belief that this might be something she's using in order to not only become a legal resident here, but also to help immigrate her family here.

THE COURT: Now let me - let me-

MR. MARKMAN: And that's why-

THE COURT: All right, let me ask you this Mr. Markman because - you know - you cite the Dale [sic] case, you cite

6	THE COURT: In the reply that was filed when?
7	MR. MARKMAN: It was filed in the 13th.
8	THE COURT: May 13th? All right, and - because I - I'm

11	MR. MARKMAN: Toll - Toll versus Moreno, and Santilk [sic]
12	and - and then also the - the most recent one was the Ninth

14	THE COURT: Yeah.
15	MR. MARKMAN: Which was Park v. Barr and that was decided
16	earlier this year.
17	THE COURT: Okay, and you think that there's some - either
18	on - it's on all fours or there's some analogies for that?
19	MR. MARKMAN: I think Park v. Barr is pretty much on -
20	completely on point. I think the - the Elkins and Toll case
21	talk about the subjective intent and - you know - establishing

23	THE COURT: Yeah, well it's interesting because you know
24	most of the time when you look at the cases regarding content

1 know Nevada has a rich history of divorce cases where people would come here and - you know - so I'm - I'm interested in looking at that, but I'm not gonna dismiss this case at this 3 stage. As far as the protective order matter, that's - the standard of proof on a protective order isn't even. It doesn't 5
   - I mean it's the lowest civil standard, and the protective 7 order's been extended and that - and the provisions of that are fine, that's not the issue. If mom wants to prove domestic 9 violence relevant to custody, she'll have to prove it by the 10 legal standard in the divorce case and that - that hasn't been 11
   done, okay?
12
        MR. MARKMAN: Yeah.
13
        MS. GREEN: May I reply, Your Honor?
14
        THE COURT: No, not yet. Okay, so let me see where we are.
15
        MS. SENJAB: Excuse me, Judge. Can interpreter tell me 16 what - what they said? What-17
        THE COURT: Yeah. Mister - I'm sorry - mister interpreter, 18
   will you-
19
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.
   THE COURT: Just - Mr. Markman has offered arguments saying 21 that - questioning whether or not there is jurisdiction, or 22 whether the plaintiff can establish that she is a resident of Nevada, okay?
23
24
        MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right, so Mr. Markman, are there any other

MS. SENJAB: Okay.

THE COURT: Mr. Markman. Mr. Markman, were there any other-

MR. MARKMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any other points that you wanted to mention to the Court?

MR. MARKMAN: I talked about it briefly in the reply as well and it's really does she even have the subjective intent to stay in Nevada. If you don't find it on the first issue and it's mentioned in - in the police report that was submitted with the reply. That she was waiting for her brother in law to come from the state of Maryland and - and it basically was my reading or understanding of it is that, she was waiting for her brother in law to come from the state of Maryland so that she - they could pick her and Ryan up - up to go to Maryland. So I think that also is - does she have even have a subjective intent to remain in Nevada is - is also potential issue if the first one - if the - if she can even form the subjective intent to remain in the United States which I think she think that's also a potential issue. 3 And - and it's fairly what we're just asking for that Mohamad be - not Mohamad - that Ryan, the minor child, be 4 5 ordered to be on the plane ticket where they - they have these round trip ticket, and it's set for June 18th. Mohamad's done 7 with school and if he doesn't leave within - you know - 60 days from the expiration of his visa - which was actually May 16th - then he - you know - he's gonna be in violation and he doesn't wanna violate the - he doesn't wanna violate - you 10 l know - his visa status and just wants to return home with 11 12 Mohamad. 13 THE COURT: Yeah, well I - I have - I - I appreciate that and I - and I also understand that - you know - we have the 15 legal aspect of it and the practical aspect of it, and I - I tell you what I'm - I'll tell you what I'm gonna do. Let the -16 17 let the interpreter translate what you said. MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor. Yes, Your Honor. 18 19 THE COURT: All right, thank you. So - this is what I'm 20 gonna do for today. 21 MS. GREEN: May I speak, Your Honor? 22 THE COURT: Why? Yeah, Ms. Green, sure. MS. GREEN: Because I have a couple of responsive points. 23 24 Just very briefly, Your Honor.

really, but just to kinda quote that next level analysis I

THE COURT: Yeah.

MS. GREEN: Okay. I just wanna say, Your Honor, that the reply motion papers presented by counsel were way beyond the scope of my [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Yeah, I - I - look, I-

MS. GREEN: So-

THE COURT: I'm way ahead - I'm way ahead of you there. It is - it is a problem that the - that the authority that he would like the Court to rely on wasn't filed 'til last week, and you haven't had a chance to even know or respond to it, okay? And that - that - the - the point that I wanna make is - is this, okay? And mister interpreter, you can interpret that interchange if you want.

MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Let me just - let me just say this 15 and then - then we'll - we're gonna segway into - into sort of 16 how we're gonna stage the resolution of this case. This divorce case presents many layers of analysis. The issue of 18 jurisdiction to grant a divorce, the issue of custody jurisdiction, the issue of personal jurisdiction. Each one of these issues could form the basis for a need to litigate factual disputes. Go ahead, mister interpreter.

MS. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The Court has already addressed it's view that the plaintiff may be able to get a divorce. She may even be able to persuade the Court to issue custody orders, and she

1 may be able to persuade the Court that there's personal jurisdiction over the defendant. Go ahead, mister interpreter. 3 MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Each of these issues involve legal questions 5 and factual questions. Go ahead. The Court is going to allow the plaintiff to supplement the memoranda of law to address each of these issues; jurisdiction to grant the divorce, custody jurisdiction, and personal jurisdiction over the defendant. The defendant will have an opportunity to brief 10 these - each of these issues also if he does not feel - or Mr. 11 | Markman does not feel that his reply brief filed last week sufficiently addresses those issues. 13 The deadline for the briefs to be filed and served will 14 be Monday, June 8th. This matter will be hard on Tuesday, June 16th. At 9 A.M. Mr. Markman, I will read the cases that you cited and I'll read the - any authority that Ms. Green 16 17 provides prior to that date. 18 MR. MARKMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. 19 MS. GREEN: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Now the motion is-21 MR. MARKMAN: Your Honor, I have a quick-22 THE COURT: If - if the motion to dismiss is dependent on factual disputes, then you know that I'm gonna deny the motion to dismiss until we've had the chance to do discovery. If there is a - a legal basis to deny the plaintiff's claims, then the Court may consider the motion to dismiss at that time.

MR. MARKMAN: Understood, Your Honor. And - and is there any way we could move those deadlines up from the practical perspective?

THE COURT: Well I'm - I - how can I - I mean that's only two weeks from now.

MR. MARKMAN: I understand. Is there any way to move it to June, 1st? Does that - does that give enough time? I - I don't know opposing counsel's schedule.

MS. GREEN: I - I - I would like [indiscernible] -

THE COURT: Well - all right, look. You're asking me to find that she cannot get divorced in Nevada because of her visa status. I'm gonna look at these cases, I'm gonna give them a chance since - since these cases weren't even cited 16 until last week to brief it. I gotta give 'em at least 10 days to do it.

MS. GREEN: Thank you, Your Honor. I need it.

THE COURT: So, look. This is a challenge for counsel, 20 | it's a challenge for the Court because each one of these issues which is often an uncontested matter in these cases is 22 | being challenged. The Court needs to make sure that I can 23 articulate the basis for determining that we can proceed in 24 | this case, and certainly since we're not the home state, I 25 | have to articulate a basis to issue and enter a judgment with 1 custody orders under this - under the uniform enforcement act 2 adopted in Nevada.

I would say that the focus for the plaintiff is probably to address the analysis that was provided by the defendant in the filing last week, and probably the focus for the defendant is to address the comments of the Court related to - you know - the vacuum or the emergency jurisdiction, okay? Now the - the protective order is - is a valid order. It's a one year order, the parties are following it. That is gonna be what they - what they - I mean I - I'm not worried about them sharing the child on the short term, but if the protective order affected by the civil orders, then we'll - you guys need to know that the Court is gonna have to amend that protective order to deal with any orders that are entered in the D case. So mister interpreter, will you - will you try to cover that? Piece of it.

MR. RIFAAT: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. ALHULAIBI: Your Honor, this is Mohamad.

MR. MARKMAN: So Your Honor, we're - we're staying with the - and I apologize for bringing this back up, but we're staying with the June, 8th date for briefing for both sides?

And the reason I ask is just - I'm just trying to figure out for my - my client. His plane ticket is June 18th and I mean - the 8th is - is 19 days, which is five more days if he even gets to file an opposition. Even if it was a motion for summary judgment, and so I'm just - I'm just trying to see so I can help him figure out what he needs to do. If he needs to move the plane ticket or what he needs to do. THE COURT: Right. Well, I mean even-

THE COURT: Even - all right, look - the - I - I think that you need to understand the practicality of this. In that \parallel if this case goes forward it's not gonna be resolved in June. 11 I mean even under the administrative orders I'm keeping these 12 calendars so that I can address matters in these cases, but -13 | you know - the - the kind of deadlines for even simple things 14 | like discovery and custody proceedings. We're - we're doing the best we can to keep the court business moving, so you're gonna have to advise him however you see fit. You know - he's - he's - they're in the same boat from the legal point of view as far as - you know - he graduated, his visa expires, and he - and - and you're gonna have to advise him that way. I can't help you there, okay? We're gonna have a hearing on the 16th at 9 A.M., and-

MS. GREEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. ALHULAIBI: Excuse me, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah.

        MR. ALHULAIBI: Can I speak? This is Mohamad. Your Honor,
  I just need for now, if she gives me permission. Ms. Senjab, my [indiscernible] bank card. She has it for no way or 5 reasons, and she tried to get some personal information from 6 my bank, and then she used my [indiscernible].

        THE COURT: Well, you can't - look. Mr. - I - I appreciate that there's probably a lot of detailed information that you're seeking from the Court, but you're asking the Court to 10 dismiss the case. You can't ask me for relief and then ask the 11
   Court to dismiss the case at the same time. That's what the 12
   Vail [sic] case stands for, okay? So - so I'm sorry, I - you know that's something you, your lawyer and Ms. Green can try
