UNSWORN DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF CRIMINAL COMPLAINT¹

COMES NOW Detective Michael Marshowsky who declares the following to the above-entitled Court:

1. That your Declarant, who will present the remainder of this Declaration in the first person, is presently serving as a detective for the Elko Police Department.

2. That on or about March 11, 2021, I became involved in the investigation regarding Raj Naresh Duggal.

3. That I learned that Mr. Duggal, the owner of a local restaurant, had been accused of inappropriately touching "DF," a 19 year old female employee at Duggal's restaurant.

4. That during the course of my investigation I interviewed DF about the allegation, at which time DF informed me that on March 9, 2021, Duggal asked to speak with her, after which she got into his truck with him, where he provided "Truly" alcoholic beverages to her.

5. That DF further disclosed that while in Duggal's truck with him, he kissed her, put his tongue in her mouth, touched or tried to touch her breast, and tried to put his hand down her pants, all without the consent of DF.

6. That I interviewed Duggal, and he confirmed that DF had gotten into his truck with him, that he had provided her with alcoholic beverages, and that he had kissed DF and touched her breast; however, he claimed that the contact between DF and him was consensual.

7. Finally, based upon the information set forth above in this Declaration, I would allege and aver to the above-entitled Court that there is probable cause to believe that Raj Naresh Duggal committed the criminal offense pleaded against him in the attached Criminal Complaint.

Any matter whose existence or truth may be established by an affidavit or other sworn declaration may be established with the same effect (emphasis added by the State) by an unsworn declaration of its existence or truth signed by the declarant under penalty of perjury, and dated, in substantially the following form:

CASE NO. DC-CR-21-248

DEPT. NO. 3

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF ELKO, THE STATE OF NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA, Plaintiff,

vs.

RAJ N. DUGGAL,
Defendant,

MEMORANDUM OF PLEA AGREEMENT

I hereby agree to enter a plea of no contest to: one count
CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT BATTERY, A GROSS MISDEMEANOR AS DEFINED BY NRS
200.481 AND NRS 199.480, as is more fully alleged in the charging document.

My decision to plead no contest is based upon the plea agreement in this case in which the State has agreed to file a Criminal Information charging me with the above mentioned gross misdemeanor. The District Attorney's Office agrees that it will file no further charges arising out of facts related to this incident, now known by the District Attorney's Office. The State agrees to dismiss with prejudice case number EL-JC-CR-M-21-3170 after defendant is sentenced in the above-captioned matter.

At the time of sentencing, the parties will remain free to argue for what each deems an appropriate sentence to be imposed.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of no contest, I may be imprisoned for a period of not more than 364 days in the Elko County Jail and that I may be fined up to $2,000. I understand that the law requires me to pay an administrative assessment fee, and that in some instances I may be required to pay other costs incurred by the State in this prosecution, such as drug analysis fees or costs of extradition.

I understand that I may be ordered to make restitution to any victim of the offenses to which I am pleading no contest and to the victim of any related offense which is being dismissed or not prosecuted as a result of this agreement, and that even though charges have been dismissed or not brought as a result of this agreement, they may still be considered by the judge in determining the appropriate sentence to be imposed in my case.

I understand that I AM eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading no contest.

I understand that if I plead no contest to two or more charges, the sentences may be served concurrently or consecutively, at the discretion of the judge who sentences me.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by law. I understand that if my attorney, or the State, or both, recommends any particular sentence, the Court is not obligated to follow those recommendations.

I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will conduct an investigation into, and prepare a report on, my

1 background and other matters relevant to determining the 2 appropriate sentence to be imposed. My attorney and I, as well as 3 the District Attorney, unless he has otherwise agreed in this
4 document to remain silent, will all have the opportunity to comment
5 on the information contained in the report at the time of 6 sentencing.

7 FACTUAL BASIS FOR NO CONTEST PLEA

8 I understand that I am pleading no contest to a fictitious
9 charge. I also understand that a no contest plea will be treated
10 the same as a guilty plea for purposes of sentencing. In part, I 11 am pleading no contest to a fictitious charge to avoid the 12 possibility of being convicted of the original charge, OPEN OR 13 GROSS LEWDNESS.

14 If the matter proceeded to trial on the original charge, and 15 if the evidence was believed by the trier of fact, the State would 16 be able to prove the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

- 17 1. On March 9, 2021, in Elko County, Nevada;
18 2. I committed an act or acts of open or gross lewdness;
19 3. By kissing DF, and/or by touching her breast(s).

20 COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCE OF DEPORTATION

21 If you are not a citizen of the United States of America, you
22 are hereby advised that conviction of the offense for which you
23 have been charged may have the consequences of deportation,
24 exclusion from admission to the United States of America, or denial
25 of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States of 26 America.

1 me.

2 All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights and waiver
3 of rights, have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney. My 4 attorney has answered all of my questions regarding this plea
5 agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction.

6 I believe that pleading no contest and accepting this plea
7 bargain is in my best interest, and that a trial would be contrary
8 to my best interest.

9 I am satisfied that my attorney is skilled in criminal defense
10 and that I have been fully and fairly served by my attorney.

11 I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor,
12 controlled substance or other substance which would in any manner
13 impair my ability to comprehend or understand this agreement or the 14 proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea. I am signing this 15 agreement freely and voluntarily, after consultation with my 16 attorney, and I am not acting under duress, coercion, or promises
17 of leniency except as expressly set forth in this agreement.

V. OFFENSE SYNOPSIS

Records provided by the Elko County Sheriff's Office and the Elko County District Attorney's Office reflect that the instant offense occurred substantially as follows:

On 03/10/2021, at approximately 1:26 PM, officers were dispatched to the Elko Police Department in reference to a past-tense sexual assault. Upon arrival, the reporting person, a 19-year-old female, reported that she works for the Arctic Circle in Elko, Nevada and her boss, who she knows as "Raj", asked her to feed his animals while he and his family were out of town. The victim agreed to do that and went about her day. Later, "Raj" asked the victim to come to the back of the store and he asked her if she drank alcohol. The victim told "Raj" that she drank "Truly's" or "White Claws" at home with her parents on occasion. Mr. Duggal then asked the victim how old she was, and she told him she was 19 years old and went back to work. After approximately 20 minutes had passed Mr. Duggal asked her if he could talk to her outside.

The victim stated she had clocked out at approximately 8:00 PM and went outside to talk to Mr. Duggal. She stated she moved her car next to the defendant's truck and got in the passenger seat to talk to him. He asked her to drink with him and she had felt obligated to drink with him because he was her boss, and she didn't want to tell him no. Mr. Duggal provided her a "Truly" alcoholic seltzer drink and she opened one of them and drank approximately half of it and gave it to Mr. Duggal.

The victim stated at this time, Mr. Duggal began to tell her how pretty she is and how hard of a worker she is and he would help her become a business woman. She thanked him for the compliment and told him she was going to continue working for his business until she moved away, and Mr. Duggal then offered to rent her a room so she would stay in Elko to work for him. The victim told Mr. Duggal she should get home because it was late, and she had been at work for nine hours. Mr. Duggal held out his arms for a hug and the victim stated that it was not abnormal for them to hug in the store, but when she hugged him, he began to kiss her, starting on her cheek. The victim pulled away from Mr. Duggal and told him he was her boss, and she was not okay with that happening at all. The victim began crying while telling officers that Mr. Duggal grabbed her and put his tongue in her mouth while kissing her. She stated he proceeded to try to put his hands under her shirt and into her pants. The defendant tried to grab her breast; however, he only cupped her breast on the outside of her shirt. She stated that her work pants were tight, prohibiting the defendant from being successful at getting his hands in her pants. She told him to stop again, and he sucked on her lip so hard it bruised her lip. Officers noted that there was a bruise on the left side of the victim's lower lip.

The victim then stated that she got out of Mr. Duggal's truck as calmly as she could so she could go home to her mother. The defendant asked her to not tell her mother about him buying her alcohol and kissing her. He also asked the victim to not tell his family and the victim agreed she would not and left the scene.

Officers interviewed Mr. Duggal on 03/11/2021. During the interview, Mr. Duggal admitted to kissing and touching the victim's breast but claimed it was consensual and maintained that the victim initiated the contact between them. He admitted to giving the underage female alcoholic beverages and drinking with her. Video surveillance was able to verify the victim and the defendant's stories; however, it was unclear as to the nature of the consensual nature of the interactions.

During the course of the investigation, officers became aware of the possibility that other employees had experienced similar sexual interactions with Mr. Duggal; however, they were unable to verify the identity of victims of inappropriate sexual activity involving the defendant. The owner of the property that Mr. Duggal rents for one of his other businesses did confirm that his surveillance had captured Mr. Duggal inappropriately proposition an underage child for a sexual favor in exchange for using his phone. The owner of the property explained that Mr. Duggal likes to drink alcohol inside his business with females after it closes and recalled seeing Mr. Duggal drinking with a nude "hippie girl" inside the business one time.

Reports were forwarded to the District Attorney's office for prosecutorial review.

☐ Pursuant to NRS 239B.030, the undersigned hereby affirms this document does not contain the social security number of any person.

Pursuant to NRS 176.156 (1)(b), the Division shall afford an opportunity to each party to object to factual errors in the presentence investigation report. Any perceived factual errors should be immediately reported, in writing, to defense counsel, the prosecuting attorney, and the Division of Parole and Probation. The Court may order the Division to correct the contents of the report following sentencing if, within 180 days after the date on which the judgement of conviction was entered, the prosecuting attorney and the defendant stipulate to correcting the contents of the report. This presentence investigation report may be considered during future proceedings, including those held by the Nevada Board of Parole Commissioners, in accordance with NRS 176.156 (2),(3), and (4).

The information used in the Presentence Investigation Report may be utilized reviewed by federal, state and/or local agencies for the purpose of prison classification, program eligibility and parole consideration.

Should the court consider granting probation pursuant to a program of intensive supervision pursuant to NRS 176A.440, the Division requests the court to consider the following factors in making that determination:

- Intensive supervision with electronic monitoring may only be utilized if the defendant is capable of paying the daily fee for the electronic monitoring.
 - The monitoring fee ranges from $9.00 to $18.50 per day depending on factors such as alcohol monitoring, GPS, or radio frequency versus cellular connectivity.
 - This fee is payable from the defendant directly to the electronic monitoring vendor.
- Placement of the defendant on a term of intensive supervision may conflict with the level of supervision established by the risk assessment required under NRS 213.1078, which states:

Appellant's Appendix page 020

- Section 7: "Upon finding that a term or condition of probation ordered pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 176A.400 or the level of supervision set pursuant to this section does not align with the results of a risk and needs assessment administered pursuant to section 1 or 2, the supervising officer shall seek a modification of the terms and conditions from the court pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 176A.450".

In accordance with current Interstate Commission for Adult Offender Supervision rules and requirements, all felony convictions and certain [gross] misdemeanors are offense eligible for compact consideration. Due to Interstate Compact standards, this conviction may or may not be offense eligible for courtesy supervision in the defendant's state of residence. If not offense eligible, the Division may still authorize the offender to relocate to their home state and report by mail until the term of probation is complete and/or the case has been completely resolved.

3 THE COURT: The time is 10:05 -- or
4 10:05 a.m. It's December 10th, 2021. This is Case
5 DC-CR-21-248, the State of Nevada versus Raj N. Duggal.
6 The Defendant is here in the courtroom, out of custody,
7 along with counsel, Mr. Lockie. Mr. McCormick is here
8 from the District Attorney's Office.

9 On October 8th, 2021, the Defendant pled
10 guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit battery, a 11 gross misdemeanor level offense. This is the time set
12 for entry of judgment and the imposition of sentence.

13 Are the parties ready to proceed?

14 MR. MCCORMICK: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. LOCKIE: We're ready as well.

16 THE COURT: The Court did receive a
17 presentence investigation report that was prepared by 18 the Division of Parole and Probation on November 15th,
19 2021. I have reviewed that prior to court. Did either 20 party have any errors or omissions they needed to 21 correct, Mr. Lockie?

22 MR. LOCKIE: None for the Defense, Your
23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. McCormick, do you have 25 any?

1 MR. MCCORMICK: Not for the State, Your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. What's the State's
4 position on sentencing, Mr. McCormick?

5 MR. MCCORMICK: Your Honor, regardless of the 6 Defendant's lack of criminal history, the State would be 7 recommending the maximum possible sentence in this case.
8 That is 364 days to be actually served in jail and a
9 $2,000 fine.

10 The facts of this case are beyond disturbing
11 when you start to begin to unpack them. The fact that 12 the Defendant premeditated his move by inquiring as to 13 the Defendant's age and whether she drank alcohol is 14 disturbing to say the least.

15 He then provided her with that alcohol
16 knowing full well that she was under the legal drinking
17 age. He also requested that the victim not inform her 18 mother of what happened. Next, even if we accept his 19 account that this event was consensual, it raises some 20 serious issues as to what he believes is consent.

21 He was the victim's boss, much older than 22 her, and thought alcohol was necessary to obtain that 23 consent. Even if we play the hypothetical game and say 24 he wasn't her boss and she was close to his same age and 25 of legal drinking age, to say that anybody would need

1 alcohol to gain consent is questionable at best.

2 Not only was there this situation, but the 3 owner of the property also the reported -- has also 4 reported that he has seen the Defendant on surveillance
5 propositioning another underage child. This man's a 6 predator, and he needs to serve time in this case. The 7 State believes that not much weight should be given to 8 the fact that he doesn't have much criminal history, 9 because based on the reports, it looks like he just 10 hasn't been caught yet.

11 The leniency he received in this case is the 12 fact that he did get a gross misdemeanor, and that's 13 because the victim, who is here and in the back of the 14 courtroom right now -- we do not -- we put a lot of 15 weight, the State does, and my entire office, and I do
16 believe the City Attorney and a lot of D.A.'s Offices
17 around the State put a ton of weight in the fact that we 18 don't like to put this person on the stand and put them
19 through a situation where I have to bring up that 20 situation again and make them relive it and then subject
21 them to cross-examination where each Defense counsel who 22 comes through here has a duty to give their client the 23 best chance, which includes hammering a 19-year-old girl
24 on the stand about a situation of what happened. So 25 he's gotten leniency in this case. He doesn't have a

1 felony. He has a gross misdemeanor.

2 The actions of the Defendant in this case are 3 deplorable. They're absolutely wrong, and we don't
4 believe -- my office does not believe that any justice
5 in this case is anything short of serving that 364 days
6 in the Elko County Jail and the $200 -- or the $2,000
7 fine.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Lockie.

9 MR. LOCKIE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 Just a couple of issues that we take with the 11 District Attorney's argument is first of all, it's 12 speculation about other crimes of which there is 13 absolutely zero evidence before this Court, and that is 14 palpable and that is suspect. There is not one piece of 15 evidence presented to the Court whatsoever about other 16 crimes that he hasn't been caught yet, and it's an 17 improper argument on the part of the prosecutor to make.

18 The second is a misrepresentation to the 19 Court that the Defendant is lucky because he didn't get 20 a felony because the initial charge was a gross
21 misdemeanor. The prosecutor is now standing that he's 22 lucky somehow, misrepresenting the nature of the 23 negotiations in this case and insinuating to this Court
24 that the Defendant had a felony, which is false.

25 It's overtly false, and it's right there in

1 front of the District Attorney. It's in his computer,
2 and it's in his file, and the District Attorney makes a
3 false representation to the Court about his luck in not 4 having a felony. So we've got two issues with the 5 prosecution first of all.

6 THE COURT: Mr. McCormick, do you want to 7 clear up any of those --

8 MR. MCCORMICK: Yes, I would, Your Honor. To 9 say that there is no evidence of that is patently false.
10 Any evidence -- someone coming and giving testimony of 11 something and someone saying something, as reported to 12 the PSI and the facts of this case, is, in fact,
13 evidence, whether or not it's given the substantial 14 weight and whether or not it should be cross-examined is 15 for another issue.

16 But the fact that it is evidence, we do have 17 someone reporting that these things happened, which, in 18 fact, is testimony, is a report, is, in fact, evidence.
19 To say that it didn't happen is -- it would be a 20 situation for trial, but he did take a plea in this 21 case.

22 And the fact of the matter is, this case
23 didn't get unpacked as nearly -- as much as it could 24 have, but to say that he couldn't have faced a felony in 25 this matter is also speculative. There is, I guess, at

1 least probable cause or there's situations in the 2 reports given in how this situation -- or this matter
3 materialized to say that a felony could have happened.

4 So to say it's patently wrong for me to 5 suggest that that is incorrect because I do believe the 6 standard that a judge may consider in these situations
7 is whether or not it's arbitrary and completely out of 8 left field. It's a very standard that you shouldn't 9 consider something unless it's completely ridiculous and 10 completely wrong to do so.

11 So I believe that there is evidence of these 12 situations. The fact that it wasn't brought out at 13 trial or presented in a form where it was authenticated
14 and cross-examined is -- to say that it's not evidence 15 is incorrect.

16 THE COURT: But you're acknowledging the 17 complaint filed initially by your office on June 11th,
18 2021, charged Mr. Duggal with one count of open or gross
19 lewdness --

20 MR. MCCORMICK: Yes.

21 THE COURT: -- which would be the gross
22 misdemeanor?

23 MR. MCCORMICK: Yes, I do acknowledge the 24 fact that he was originally charged with that, but to 25 say that it couldn't have been more, it's -- yes, it is

1 speculative, but we also have taken a deal in this case.
2 But to say it's incorrect that that situation might have
3 presented itself is also incorrect.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And, obviously, had that 5 charge proceeded, that would have potentially put 6 Mr. Duggal in a situation where he would have been 7 classified as a sex offender where this charge would not
8 have such a consideration.

9 MR. MCCORMICK: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Lockie.

11 MR. LOCKIE: Yes, Your Honor, the second
12 point is accurate.

13 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

14 MR. LOCKIE: The first point we don't agree
15 with so much.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MR. LOCKIE: There was an opportunity to 18 arrest the Defendant. There was an opportunity to 19 review this case.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. LOCKIE: And those were the charges that 22 were filed. So before the Court is Mr. Duggal who is 59
23 years old in this case, which cuts both ways. He is 59
24 and has no record whatsoever of any kind of criminal 25 history, and it's hard to think of times when we come

1 before the Court with 59-year-old people with zero
2 record whatsoever.

3 And, again, we're looking at a proposition of 4 what the Court does in terms of protecting the community
5 and evaluating first. So to have a squeaky clean record
6 of criminal history at 59 years old is remarkable. He's 7 been a productive citizen here. He's a local business
8 owner, and, you know, has a family. He's contributed 9 significantly to the community, and he does so on a
10 frequent basis.

11 He clearly is an asset to the community on 12 balance, which doesn't minimize what he did here. It 13 doesn't minimize any of that, but it's balance. And the 14 State is right to the extent that the original charge in 15 this case could have been one that would have caused him
16 to register as a sex offender with regards to open and 17 gross lewdness, even though they exist at the same
18 level.

19 And we get to the point of a 59-year-old
20 gentleman with no record of criminal history whatsoever,
21 and so even the idea of coming to Court for him is a 22 horrifying proposition. You know, he's been in the 23 United States for a long time, but he comes from India.
24 And I had an opportunity to speak with him about the 25 nature of the criminal justice system in India, which is

1 probably a topic for a different conversation, but it's
2 -- it's not like here. Basically, you can buy your way
3 out of stuff there.

4 And I'm just prefacing that to the argument
5 here that the Defendant should receive a substantial 6 fine, and I want to clarify with the Court that he 7 already understood there's a clear distinction between 8 buying your way out of a problem, like in India, and a
9 legitimate fine basis that would occur.

10 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

11 MR. LOCKIE: And I think the Court can see 12 where that sort of misperception might exist, but it's 13 clearly punitive --

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MR. LOCKIE: -- in his view, not a way around
16 it.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MR. LOCKIE: There's $5,000 cash bail in this 19 case, and, obviously, the Court can impose a fine. The 20 question then becomes -- the two other issues on the 21 table are jail time, probation, or a combination of 22 both. Those are where we are.

23 So in addition to imposing a fine, the Court
24 has the authority to place him on probation for a period
25 of year and, potentially, impose some period of jail

1 time as a condition of that probation as a punitive
2 measure, or the Court could skip the probation, as 3 suggested by the State's case, and just send him
4 straight away to jail for a year.

5 Given the balancing, again, of interest and 6 what it means to this Defendant in terms of punishment,
7 it's our view that the 364 days in jail would be 8 excessive under current conditions as they exist at the 9 jail, which is not the Court's fault, not the D.A.'s 10 fault, or Mr. Duggal, but it's -- it's a relatively 11 untenable resolution to this case, not simply for that 12 reason, but for the other reasons of his age and 13 completely clean record that he has here.

14 So clearly, he's a suitable person for 15 probation when you look. It would be -- I'm just 16 talking about pure suitability versus deserving, two 17 different questions. But we do get over the suitability
18 hurdle rather quickly by looking at it. The question
19 is, is whether he should be placed on probation, and the 20 purpose of probation would be to provide supervision of 21 him to ensure that he complies basically with good
22 conduct because there isn't any drug or alcohol problem
23 here or anything like that.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MR. LOCKIE: And that -- that, nevertheless,

1 would provide an opportunity for Mr. Duggal,
2 understanding he's on probation, which constitutes and 3 reinforces a requirement of good conduct, I believe,
4 anyway to someone who has to interact with law
5 enforcement.

6 It means different things to different
7 people. Some defendants could come in on a gross
8 misdemeanor, probation, that's not a big deal.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. LOCKIE: For him, any contact with 11 authorities in the system is exceptionally meaningful.

12 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

13 MR. LOCKIE: Or the Court could not give 14 probation and just send him straight away to jail.

15 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

16 MR. LOCKIE: I've already discussed that. So
17 there's plenty in the mix here for the Court to balance
18 the interest of justice, plenty of tools available in 19 the chest that serve the interest of the community in 20 terms of protecting the community, but also serve the 21 interests of the community in keeping a person, you
22 know, not incarcerated for an enormous amount of time
23 and thereby, essentially, depriving the community of 24 that resource.

25 Mr. Duggal knows and appreciates what

1 happened here was wrong. That's where I prefaced
2 everything with the 59 years of age perhaps cutting in a
3 couple different directions, a clean record, but then we 4 got an age disparity of 40 years here.

5 We're not talking about an underage female in 6 this case, but there is a disparate position of both age
7 and relationship meaning occurring within the context of 8 employment. And so we understand that part. But to be 9 clear, this isn't, you know, a child sex case --

10 THE COURT: Right. Right.

11 MR. LOCKIE: -- which is distinguishable.

12 So, Your Honor, certainly, we don't concur
13 with the District Attorney with regards to 364 days in 14 jail and urge the Court to fashion a remedy in this case
15 that balances the interests of justice and that if there 16 is any jail time imposed within the mix of whatever the 17 Court decides, that he be allowed to do so
18 intermittently.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Does your client still own
20 this particular business establishment?

21 MR. LOCKIE: Yeah, he owns this one and 22 several others.

23 THE COURT: Several other businesses, okay.

24 Mr. Duggal, you do have an opportunity to 25 make a statement to the Court prior to sentencing.

1 You're not required to make a statement, but this is
2 your opportunity to do so if you would like to say
3 something to the Court. Is there anything you would 4 like to tell me before you're sentenced?

5 THE DEFENDANT: I rely on my attorney.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I'll just start this by 7 saying I did see the reference in the presentence
8 investigation report, which I'm sure comes from --
9 probably from the discovery materials of some variety
10 about the possibility that other employees had 11 experienced similar sexual interactions with Mr. Duggal
12 or that there might be some suggestion that he did this 13 with other people.

14 I'm really not putting much weight, if any,
15 on any such comments. Obviously, what's of concern here
16 is what -- what's alleged just in the facts of this 17 case. I think those are -- are disturbing enough,
18 right? And what concerns me in this case is what 19 appears to be sort of predatory type behavior, I guess
20 we could describe it as, right?

21 Someone is singling out a person, acquiring
22 alcohol attempting to, I guess, reduce the inhibitions
23 of a person, putting a person in sort of an untenable
24 position. A person, obviously, expresses their 25 displeasure or lack of acceptance of these things on

1 multiple occasions, according to the synopsis, and then,
2 of course, there are attempts made to sort of cover it
3 up by telling the -- the victim not to report it to 4 people such as the mother of the victim, etcetera.

5 I think this is a very serious offense,
6 and, obviously, I understand, as well, that he's nearly 7 60 years old and hasn't shown any propensity for 8 involvement with the criminal justice system up to this 9 point, but that being said, the Court also recognizes 10 that sometimes, even in light of not having any 11 particular criminal history, that the offense, in and of 12 itself, the serious nature of the offense itself, lends 13 itself to serious penalties being imposed, even in the 14 lack of the prior criminal history. And I think that's 15 what we have in this particular case.

16 So in this particular matter, the Court will 17 order that a Judgment of Conviction be entered 18 adjudicating the Defendant guilty of one count of 19 conspiracy to commit battery, a gross misdemeanor. The 20 Defendant is ordered to pay the various fees outlined in 21 the presentence investigation report. Those are noted
22 in the middle of page 6; $25 administrative assessment, 23 $3 DNA administrative assessment, $150 DNA testing fee.

24 He's also ordered to pay a $2,000 fine as 25 well in this matter. He's also required to submit to a

1 testing of his genetic markers as well. I don't believe
2 that he has done that as of this moment.

3 I'm going to order -- I'm going to follow the 4 State's recommendation and order a sentence of 364 days
5 in the Elko County Jail. The request for probation is 6 denied, and I'm going to have him remanded into custody
7 to begin serving that jail sentence.

8 Anything else at this time before we adjourn?

9 MR. MCCORMICK: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. LOCKIE: Nothing further, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Whereupon, proceeding concluded)

13
