ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

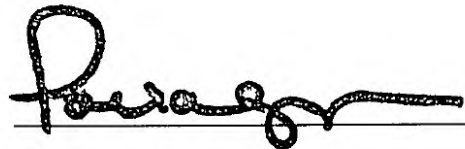

This is an appeal from a judgment upon a jury verdict. Initial review of the docketing statement and documents before this court reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. As acknowledged by appellants in the docketing statement, it appears the notice of appeal was prematurely filed in the district court after the filing of timely tolling motions but before those motions were formally resolved in a written order entered by the district court. See NRAP 4(a)(6). This court lacks jurisdiction to consider a prematurely-filed notice of appeal. See id.

Accordingly, appellants shall have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. In responding to this order, in addition to points and authorities, appellants should provide this court with copies of any written, file-stamped district court orders formally resolving the pending tolling motions. Respondents may file any reply within 14 days of appellants' response. Failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction may result in the dismissal of this appeal.

The deadlines to file documents in this appeal are suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
