Mr. Giordani advised the State would be ready, however, they were informed that due to the number of defts, they will not have a courtroom that could accommodate four defts. Matter Heard; Motion Denied; Defendant Kemp Severed

Journal Entry Details:

Arnold Weinstock, Esq. and Dan Winder, Esq. also present on behalf of Defendant Hickman. Michael Sanft, Esq. also present on behalf of Co-Defendant Davis. Thomas Ericsson, Esq. also present on behalf of Co-Defendant Woods. Mr. Weinstock noted the State disagreed to sever Defendant Hickman, however they were requesting to sever Co-Defendant Kemp. Mr. Weinstock noted there was only one witness, Makeisha Murphy, that had any evidence incriminating Defendant Hickman, who will testify that Defendant Hickman made statements to her, claiming that he shot the victim after the victim took out a gun and pointed it at him, and in order to rebut any of that testimony, Defendant Hickman will have to testify, which puts him in an antagonistic position with the Co-Defendants and requested Defendant Hickman be severed. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Weinstock stated Defendant Hickman testifying, while the other Co-Defendants invoke their right to remain silent, could cause a problem, therefore that justifies Defendant Hickman being severed. Mr. Di Giacomo argued that the Defendants have not implicated each other, Mr. Weinstock did not provide any basis as to how the testimony would be antagonistic, and requested Co-Defendant Kemp be severed. Mr. Weinstock noted the State granted immunity to Ms. Murphy in this case and would be making a statement against Defendant Hickman, which allows for cross-examination of Defendant Hickman, assuming the State would not be agreeable to limiting the cross-examination of Defendant Hickman, which could lead to an antagonistic situation. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Sanft had no objection to Co-Defendant Kemp being severed from the other Defendants. Court FINDS no Bruton issue in this matter, Motion lacks specificity as to antagonistic defenses, and therefore, ORDERED, Defendant Hickman's Motion to Sever DENIED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Co-Defendant Kemp SEVERED and SET for Central Trial Readiness Conference and upcoming hearings for Co-Defendants Hickman, Davis, and Woods STAND. Mr. Weinstock requested the Motion be denied without prejudice. Court noted this is on for central trial readiness, in regards to these deft's and inquired as to trial readiness if these deft's are placed on #14 2-08-21 trial stack. Mr. Giordani advised the State would be ready, however, they were informed that due to the number of defts, they will not have a courtroom that could accommodate four defts. Court noted the covid courtroom can only accommodate a maximum of two defts. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Sanft advised he can be ready for trial. Mr. Tomscheck advised he has a writ of mandamus in the Supreme Court and that needs to be decided before announcing ready. Mr. Ericsson advised he just received the discovery last week, and was recently appointed in December. Further, he can't be ready, based on the amount of discovery. Mr. Weinstock advised co-deft. Hickman waived his right to speedy trial, and he's not ready for trial. Further, counsel intends to file a motion to sever. Following statements by counsel, COURT ORDERED, all dates STAND, based on the number of defts and the complicated nature of this case.

- Arnold Weinstock, Esq. and Dan Winder, Esq. also present on behalf of Defendant Hickman. Michael Sanft, Esq. also present on behalf of Co-Defendant Davis. Thomas Ericsson, Esq. also present on behalf of Co-Defendant Woods.

Mr. Weinstock noted the State disagreed to sever Defendant Hickman, however they were requesting to sever Co-Defendant Kemp. Mr. Weinstock noted there was only one witness, Makeisha Murphy, that had any evidence incriminating Defendant Hickman, who will testify that Defendant Hickman made statements to her, claiming that he shot the victim after the victim took out a gun and pointed it at him, and in order to rebut any of that testimony, Defendant Hickman will have to testify, which puts him in an antagonistic position with the Co-Defendants and requested Defendant Hickman be severed. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Weinstock stated Defendant Hickman testifying, while the other Co-Defendants invoke their right to remain silent, could cause a problem, therefore that justifies Defendant Hickman being severed.

Mr. Di Giacomo argued that the Defendants have not implicated each other, Mr. Weinstock did not provide any basis as to how the testimony would be antagonistic, and requested Co-Defendant Kemp be severed.

Mr. Weinstock noted the State granted immunity to Ms. Murphy in this case and would be making a statement against Defendant Hickman, which allows for cross-examination of Defendant Hickman, assuming the State would not be agreeable to limiting the cross-examination of Defendant Hickman, which could lead to an antagonistic situation.

Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Sanft had no objection to Co-Defendant Kemp being severed from the other Defendants.

Court FINDS no Bruton issue in this matter, Motion lacks specificity as to antagonistic defenses, and therefore, ORDERED, Defendant Hickman's Motion to Sever DENIED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Co-Defendant Kemp SEVERED and SET for Central Trial Readiness Conference and upcoming hearings for Co-Defendants Hickman, Davis, and Woods STAND. Mr. Weinstock requested the Motion be denied without prejudice.
