JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Michael Sanft, Esq., present on behalf of Co-Deft. Matus and Andrew Leavitt, Esq., present on behalf of Co-Deft. Diaz.

Mr. Bindrup stated a motion to continue has been filed, it's set for May 11, 2022 and requested it be reset to a closer date; further, this is a three deft. case which will take longer, this is the first trial setting and just received a huge amount of discovery from the District Attorney's office. Mr. Sanft stated he hasn't been able to speak with his client and as a result, cannot agree to a continuance at this point. Mr. Leavitt stated his client is out of custody and has no opposition to the continuance. Mr. Pesci advised the Court that defense counsel already was in possession of hundred of gigabytes of discovery and has recently obtained even more discovery regarding social media accounts. COURT ORDERED, Deft's Motion to Continue Trial that is currently set for May 11, 2022 is RESET. Mr. Pesci stated that he has no opposition to the continuance as long as it pertains to all three deft's. Mr.

Bindrup requested his client be allowed to return back to prison. COURT ORDERED, the Order Remanding Deft. Facio to the Clark County Detention Center is LIFTED and the Deft. can be transported back to the Nevada Department of Corrections. Court DIRECTED the State to prepare a transport order for the next court date.
