Good afternoon.

Given that there is an apparent issue re representation, I will delay further communication until I speak with Mr. Farkas. Moreover, for clarification and for the avoidance of doubt, I was not involved in and did not participate in any settlement negotiations and/or the preparation of documents relating thereto.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

Re: TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC (the "TGC/Farkas Funding"), Case No. A-20-822273-C
(the "Case")

Evidence Preservation Demand

Mr. Nahabedian,

As you aware, this firm represents TGC/Farkas Funding. In your January 14, 2021, Letter you advised that you were "retained as counsel by TGC/Farkas Funding." You even prepared a pleading to that effect and demanded that it be executed by Garman Turner Gordon to effectuate your substitution. Also in your Letter, you represented that TGC/Farkas Funding had settled the Case. As we have demonstrated and Matthew Farkas admits, TGC/Farkas Funding is managed by TGC 100 Investor, LLC, and Mr. Farkas has not managed TGC/Farkas Funding since September 2020. Now we are informed by Mr. Farkas that you have purported to terminate your representation of TGC/Farkas Funding, a fact that you should have conveyed to the TGC/Farkas Funding itself.

But even more troubling is the fact that you have refused to respond to TGC/Farkas Funding's requests to produce all documents and communications related to the Case, including those related to the purported settlement of the Case, to TGC/Farkas Funding. This refusal begs additional questions, including: How did you learn of the settlement? When? How was it that Jay Bloom, the manager of those parties adverse to TGC/Farkas Funding, obtain your legal representation agreement to present to Mr. Farkas? What was the basis for your belief that Mr. Farkas was the manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, as opposed to the true manager, TGC 100 Investor, LLC. By refusing to comply with your duties and obligations to TGC/Farkas Funding, you are intentionally disadvantaging it to the benefit of Defendants (managed by Jay Bloom, your existing client).

Please review Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, including but not limited to NRPC 1.7 and 1.8(b), (g) (Conflict of Interest: Current Clients); 1.13(f) (Organizations as Clients); 1.15 (Safekeeping Property); 1.16 (d)(Terminating Representation); 3.4(a), (b) (Fairness to Opposing Party and Counsel); 4.2 (Communication With Person Represented by Counsel); 4.3 (Dealing with Unrepresented Person).

TGC/Farkas Funding has previously (repeatedly) demanded that you produce to it all documents related to the Case, including but not limited to all communications with Matthew Farkas, Jay Bloom, First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC aka 1st One Hundred Holdings LLC. You have not even bothered to pick up the phone and call us in response. Your refusal to acknowledge your ethical obligations, let alone comply with them, gives TGC/Farkas Funding no choice but to employ formal legal process.

Please be advised that under the circumstances, you have an unqualified duty to preserve information and documents that are relevant or reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and must suspend its routine document retention/destruction policy and put in place a "litigation hold" to ensure the preservation of relevant documents. See Zubulake v. UBS Warburg, LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212, 218-219 (S.D.N.Y. 2003); Surowiec v. Capital Title Agency, Inc., 790 F.Supp.2d 997 (D.Ariz. 2011); Melendres v. Arpaio, 2010 WL 582189, at *4 (D. Ariz. 2010)); YCB Intern., Inc. v. UCF Trading Co, Ltd., 2012 WL 3069526 (N.D. Ill. 2012)(duty to preserve extends to third-parties who should have known evidence may be relevant to future litigation). Thus, you should have already taken action to preserve all documents, including, without limitation, documents and communications (including text messages and emails) in your possession and/or control that concern or relate to TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, Matthew Farkas, Jay Bloom, First 100, LLC, First One Hundred Holdings, LLC aka 1st One Hundred Holdings LLC, or Maeir Gutierrez & Associates.

Please note that the term "document" should be broadly construed to include all written and electronically-stored information ("ESI"). ESI includes information located in individual computers, company hard-drives, removable electronic media like zip drives and portable hard-drives, etc. Electronically-stored information also includes, e-mails and other electronic communications, Internet activity, word processing documents, spreadsheets, databases, calendars, telephone logs, contact manager information, personal digital assistants, tablets, smart phones and network access information such as texts, SMS messaging, SLACK, and similar data.

Please also immediately cease all scheduled data destruction, rotation of backup tapes, and the sale, gift, transfer, or destruction of hardware or data. Notify all employees, agents, contractors, individuals and affiliated organizations of the duty to take the necessary affirmative steps to preserve the above-referenced evidence. As you are certainly aware, the failure to properly preserve such information can result in serious adverse consequences.

Counsel,

We have different recollections so we have ordered the transcript and will review and revert back as soon as we have had a chance to review. However, inclusive of our differences, I spoke to the court regarding the number of depositions I anticipated we would need and did not dare to speak for your side. We anticipated taking Jay Bloom, the 30(b)(6) for First 100 on categories we are still putting together, and Raffi. The 4th really depends and may be obviated. Respecting your trial schedule next week, lets start with Raffi on Feb 12 at 9 am and Jay Bloom on Feb 16 at 8 am, the 30(b)(6) for Feb 17 at 8 am and if those dates and times don't work, please offer alternatives during the span of those two weeks (except Feb 9-10). We will send out placeholder subpoenas for Raffi and Jay. Will you accept service for Jay?

Counsel,

I have attached our redline edits to the proposed order. It was my understanding that the court deferred ruling on all motions until the evidentiary hearing and limited us to four depositions total (two for each side). Four depositions total is consistent with the fact that we have only one day scheduled for the evidentiary hearing. Let me know which two witnesses you want to depose so we can start coordinating available dates and times in advance of the evidentiary hearing.

Thanks,

EXHIBIT "A"

NEVADA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 45

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court that issued the subpoena must enforce this duty and may impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required.

(i) A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(ii) If documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things are produced to the party that issued the subpoena without an appearance at the place of production, that party must, unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, promptly copy or electronically reproduce the documents or information, photograph any tangible items not subject to copying, and serve these items on every other party. The party that issued the subpoena may also serve a statement of the reasonable cost of copying, reproducing, or photographing, which a party receiving the copies, reproductions, or photographs must promptly pay. If a party disputes the cost, then the court, on motion, must determine the reasonable cost of copying the documents or information, or photographing the tangible items.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, or a person claiming a proprietary interest in the subpoenaed documents, information, tangible things, or premises to be inspected, may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The person making the objection must serve it before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made:

(i) the party serving the subpoena is not entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or tangible things or to inspect the premises except by order of the court that issued the subpoena;

(ii) on notice to the parties, the objecting person, and the person commanded to produce or permit inspection, the party serving the subpoena may move the court that issued the subpoena for an order compelling production or inspection; and

(iii) if the court enters an order compelling production or inspection, the order must protect the person commanded to produce or permit inspection from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena must quash or modify the subpoena if it:

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, unless the person is commanded to attend trial within Nevada;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to an undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena

may quash or modify the subpoena if it requires disclosing:

(i) a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order an appearance or production under specified conditions if the party serving the subpoena:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt; Costs. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court that issued the subpoena. In connection with a motion for a protective order brought under Rule 26(c), a motion to compel brought under Rule 45(c)(2)(B), or a motion to quash or modify the subpoena brought under Rule 45(c)(3), the court may consider the provisions of Rule 37(a)(5) in awarding the prevailing person

1 reasonable expenses incurred in making or opposing the motion.

NEVADA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 45

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court that issued the subpoena must enforce this duty and may impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required.

(i) A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(ii) If documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things are produced to the party that issued the subpoena without an appearance at the place of production, that party must, unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, promptly copy or electronically reproduce the documents or information, photograph any tangible items not subject to copying, and serve these items on every other party. If a party disputes the cost, then the court, on motion, must determine the reasonable cost of copying the documents or information, or photographing the tangible items.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, or a person claiming a proprietary interest in the subpoenaed documents, information, tangible things, or premises to be inspected, may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The person making the objection must serve it before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made:

(i) the party serving the subpoena is not entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or tangible things or to inspect the premises except by order of the court that issued the subpoena;

(ii) on notice to the parties, the objecting person, and the person commanded to produce or permit inspection, the party serving the subpoena may move the court that issued the subpoena for an order compelling production or inspection; and

(iii) if the court enters an order compelling production or inspection, the order must protect the person commanded to produce or permit inspection from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena must quash or modify the subpoena if it:

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, unless the person is commanded to attend trial within Nevada;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to an undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena

may quash or modify the subpoena if it requires disclosing:

(i) a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order an appearance or production under specified conditions if the party serving the subpoena:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt; Costs. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court that issued the subpoena. In connection with a motion for a protective order brought under Rule 26(c), a motion to compel brought under Rule 45(c)(2)(B), or a motion to quash or modify the subpoena brought under Rule 45(c)(3), the court may consider the provisions of Rule 37(a)(5) in awarding the prevailing person

1 reasonable expenses incurred in making or opposing the motion.

Ms. Turner

Given your email, I assume you read my letter to Mr. Farkas. Therein you will see that I have no idea as to who is representing Mr. Farkas; as such, it is and was impossible to ascertain who I was to coordinate any communication with him this morning relating to your subpoena.

At the time I was engaged by Mr. Farkas to act as counsel for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, it was represented to me (and I believed) that Mr. Farkas was the sole manager of the LLC and that he was authorized to retain legal counsel for the LLC. Until I received your letter, I did not know of an amendment to the LLC's operating agreement that replaced Mr. Farkas as the sole manager of the LLC. Thereafter, Mr. Farkas provided your referenced amendment.

Upon learning of the amendment, I immediately terminated my involvement in this matter. I have never represented Mr. Farkas in his individual capacity. Nevertheless, it is conceivable and reasonable that Mr. Farkas expected his communications with me to be and remain confidential. Such expectations and beliefs, whether right or wrong, valid or accurate are not irrelevant and trifling, and must substantively be considered and appreciated by counsel. Indeed, as an attorney, I am subject to the Rules applicable to the practice of law in Nevada, including NRPC 1.6, which requires that I not reveal confidential information without informed consent. Furthermore, the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility's Formal Opinion 473 suggests that an attorney has an obligation to request client permission before disclosing client information in response to a subpoena. Out of an abundance of caution and necessity, I reached out to Mr. Farkas after receiving your subpoena to inquire as to his position with respect to my response to the subpoena.

Mr. Farkas's position on the matter remains unclear. In fact, your email expressly reflects that you are serving as his counsel and, as such, I cannot learn of or be informed of his position (which seems/appears to give rise to substantive conflict issues). Accordingly, absent written and full consent from Mr. Farkas, coupled with an order from the court compelling my testimony and the parameters thereof, I cannot provide testimony regarding my involvement in this matter in response to your subpoena. While you may not like this reality, it is real since I believe that providing testimony would breach or expose me to a breach of my ethical obligations as an attorney; it would also expose me to potential professional liability.

Inasmuch as you have provided unsolicited legal advice and opinion, I cannot and will not accept such without a court order confirming your unsolicited positions (as valid and accurate), as well as a consideration of my compliance with my ethical obligations under the Rules (as deemed appropriate by the State Bar of Nevada). Again, this is a reality that will not escape your unsolicited legal proclamations.

Finally, to be clear, I have never claimed to control any privilege held by either Mr. Farkas or the LLC. I am simply trying to comply with my ethical obligations and avoid exposure. Despite your expressed certainty of the information contained in your email below, I do not believe the issue to be as straight forward as you proclaim based on the facts and circumstances presented. If you wish to provide any legal authority to support your position, I will consider it and respond, as I am certain the court will need to be included in this matter.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

As I was driving to a doctor's appointment, I was contacted by a Mr. Ken Hogan who stated that he was going to be representing Mr. Farkas. That contact, however, does not change or eliminate the substantive matters contained in my correspondence. Moreover, your threats and posture are becoming quite alarming and unfortunate given the facts and circumstances expressed in my communications. Certainly you, as a member of the Bar, are not encouraging and demanding professional violations of the Rules, as well as breaches to the rights/interests of former clients. Again, your unsolicited legal advice and positions have been provided without any support. I will not succumb to your pressure without the matter being decided by the court in conformity of the Rules.

Additionally, as I remain concerned about your own conflict, it appears that the court's guidance is warranted and needed to resolve the matter.

Mr. Nahabedian,

I see you are cc'ing an attorney, Bart Larsen. Is Mr. Larsen your counsel? If so, then we can conduct all further communications without your involvement.

If Mr. Larsen is counsel, he can respond. Otherwise, we ask you to respond without ambiguity or deflection:

Are you refusing to attend your duly noticed deposition scheduled for February 12, 2021? We are on a short timetable and need to know your intentions.

With respect to your deflection: Your accusations of a conflict of interest against me are without any factual or legal basis. I have represented, and continue to represent, TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Earlier this afternoon, you misrepresented that you did not know who was representing Mr. Farkas when you had actually been contacted by Mr. Hogan by that point in time. So, I am really confused what game you are playing. Neither TGC Farkas Funding, LLC nor Matthew Farkas are directing you not to attend the duly-noticed deposition, nor are either claiming your communications with Matthew Farkas were privileged.

We are entitled to your testimony regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding your retention and actions, purportedly on behalf of TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Again, all rights and remedies are expressly reserved, including those rights and remedies under NRCP 45 (30 and 37 as well), including appropriate sanctions for all fees and costs being incurred to address any refusal to comply with a duly-issued and noticed subpoena. There is no rule that has an application that would excuse your attendance.

Subject: RE: TGC Farkas Funding, LLC

Ms. Turner

Given your email, I assume you read my letter to Mr. Farkas. Therein you will see that I have no idea as to who is representing Mr. Farkas; as such, it is and was impossible to ascertain who I was to coordinate any communication with him this morning relating to your subpoena.

At the time I was engaged by Mr. Farkas to act as counsel for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, it was represented to me (and I believed) that Mr. Farkas was the sole manager of the LLC and that he was authorized to retain legal counsel for the LLC. Until I received your letter, I did not know of an amendment to the LLC's operating agreement that replaced Mr. Farkas as the sole manager of the LLC. Thereafter, Mr. Farkas provided your referenced amendment.

Upon learning of the amendment, I immediately terminated my involvement in this matter. I have never represented Mr. Farkas in his individual capacity. Nevertheless, it is conceivable and reasonable that Mr. Farkas expected his communications with me to be and remain confidential. Such expectations and beliefs, whether right or wrong, valid or accurate are not irrelevant and trifling, and must substantively be considered and appreciated by counsel. Indeed, as an attorney, I am subject to the Rules applicable to the practice of law in Nevada, including NRPC 1.6, which requires that I not reveal confidential information without informed consent. Furthermore, the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility's Formal Opinion 473 suggests that an attorney has an obligation to request client permission before disclosing client information in response to a subpoena. Out of an abundance of caution and necessity, I reached out to Mr. Farkas after receiving your subpoena to inquire as to his position with respect to my response to the subpoena.

Mr. Farkas's position on the matter remains unclear. In fact, your email expressly reflects that you are serving as his counsel and, as such, I cannot learn of or be informed of his position (which seems/appears to give rise to substantive conflict issues). Accordingly, absent written and full consent from Mr. Farkas, coupled with an order from the court compelling my testimony and the parameters thereof, I cannot provide testimony regarding my involvement in this matter in response to your subpoena. While you may not like this reality, it is real since I believe that providing testimony would breach or expose me to a breach of my ethical obligations as an attorney; if would also expose me to potential professional liability.

Inasmuch as you have provided unsolicited legal advice and opinion, I cannot and will not accept such without a court order confirming your unsolicited positions (as valid and accurate), as well as a consideration of my compliance with my ethical obligations under the Rules (as deemed appropriate by the State Bar of Nevada). Again, this is a reality that will not escape your unsolicited legal proclamations.

Finally, to be clear, I have never claimed to control any privilege held by either Mr. Farkas or the LLC. I am simply trying to comply with my ethical obligations and avoid exposure. Despite your expressed certainty of the information contained in your email below, I do not believe the issue to be as straight forward as you proclaim based on the facts and circumstances presented. If you wish to provide any legal authority to support your position, I will consider it and respond, as I am certain the court will need to be included in this matter.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

There is no "game playing" as you assert. As I indicated in my last communication to you, I was contacted by a Mr. Hogan while traveling to a doctor's appointment (such contact was made AFTER the sending of my letter this morning). Upon my return from the doctor's appointment, I prepared and sent a response to your communication. Those are the facts and there is no gamesmanship.

As for attending any deposition, my articulated positions are not "deflection" as you proclaim, but substantive concerns and issues that warrant judicial attention and direction to prevent any violations of the Rules or the exposure to professional liability for breaching confidences. It is unfortunate that you refuse to appreciate such and, worse, that you continue to provide unsolicited legal advice to support your demands and aggressive threats.

You included your former partner Mr. Hogan on this email, so I will include him as well. In terms of Mr. Larsen, he is included as counsel, but I will continue to respond on my behalf.

All rights reserved, none waived, including the right to fees and costs.

Respectfully,

I see you are cc'ing an attorney, Bart Larsen. Is Mr. Larsen your counsel? If so, then we can conduct all further communications without your involvement.

If Mr. Larsen is counsel, he can respond. Otherwise, we ask you to respond without ambiguity or deflection:

Are you refusing to attend your duly noticed deposition scheduled for February 12, 2021? We are on a short timetable and need to know your intentions.

With respect to your deflection: Your accusations of a conflict of interest against me are without any factual or legal basis. I have represented, and continue to represent, TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Earlier this afternoon, you misrepresented that you did not know who was representing Mr. Farkas when you had actually been contacted by Mr. Hogan by that point in time. So, I am really confused what game you are playing. Neither TGC Farkas Funding, LLC nor Matthew Farkas are directing you not to attend the duly-noticed deposition, nor are either claiming your communications with Matthew Farkas were privileged.

We are entitled to your testimony regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding your retention and actions, purportedly on behalf of TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Again, all rights and remedies are expressly reserved, including those rights and remedies under NRCP 45 (30 and 37 as well), including appropriate sanctions for all fees and costs being incurred to address any refusal to comply with a duly-issued and noticed subpoena. There is no rule that has an application that would excuse your attendance.

As I was driving to a doctor's appointment, I was contacted by a Mr. Ken Hogan who stated that he was going to be representing Mr. Farkas. That contact, however, does not change or eliminate the substantive matters contained in my correspondence. Moreover, your threats and posture are becoming quite alarming and unfortunate given the facts and circumstances expressed in my communications. Again, your unsolicited legal advice and positions have been provided without any support. There is no “game playing” as you assert. As I indicated in my last communication to you, I was contacted by a Mr. Hogan while traveling to a doctor’s appointment (such contact was made AFTER the sending of my letter this morning). Upon my return from the doctor’s appointment, I prepared and sent a response to your communication. Those are the facts and there is no gamesmanship.

As for attending any deposition, my articulated positions are not “deflection” as you proclaim, but substantive concerns and issues that warrant judicial attention and direction to prevent any violations of the Rules or the exposure to professional liability for breaching confidences. It is unfortunate that you refuse to appreciate such and, worse, that you continue to provide unsolicited legal advice to support your demands and aggressive threats.

You included your former partner Mr. Hogan on this email, so I will include him as well. In terms of Mr. Larsen, he is included as counsel, but I will continue to respond on my behalf.

Mr. Nahabedian,

I see you are cc'ing an attorney, Bart Larsen. Is Mr. Larsen your counsel? If so, then we can conduct all further communications without your involvement.

If Mr. Larsen is counsel, he can respond. Otherwise, we ask you to respond without ambiguity or deflection:

Are you refusing to attend your duly noticed deposition scheduled for February 12, 2021? We are on a short timetable and need to know your intentions.

With respect to your deflection: Your accusations of a conflict of interest against me are without any factual or legal basis. I have represented, and continue to represent, TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Earlier this afternoon, you misrepresented that you did not know who was representing Mr. Farkas when you had actually been contacted by Mr. Hogan by that point in time. So, I am really confused what game you are playing. Neither TGC Farkas Funding, LLC nor Matthew Farkas are directing you not to attend the duly-noticed deposition, nor are either claiming your communications with Matthew Farkas were privileged.

We are entitled to your testimony regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding your retention and actions, purportedly on behalf of TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Again, all rights and remedies are expressly reserved, including those rights and remedies under NRCP 45 (30 and 37 as well), including appropriate sanctions for all fees and costs being incurred to address any refusal to comply with a duly issued and noticed subpoena. There is no rule that has an application that would excuse your attendance.

As I was driving to a doctor's appointment, I was contacted by a Mr. Ken Hogan who stated that he was going to be representing Mr. Farkas. That contact, however, does not change or eliminate the substantive matters contained in my correspondence. Moreover, your threats and posture are becoming quite alarming and unfortunate given the facts and circumstances expressed in my communications. Certainly you, as a member of the Bar, are not encouraging and demanding professional violations of the Rules, as well as breaches to the rights/interests of former clients. Again, your unsolicited legal advice and positions have been provided without any support. I will not succumb to your pressure without the matter being decided by the court in conformity of the Rules.

Additionally, as I remain concerned about your own conflict, it appears that the court's guidance is warranted and needed to resolve the matter.

Subject: RE: TGC Farkas Funding, LLC

Ms. Turner

Given your email, I assume you read my letter to Mr. Farkas. Therein you will see that I have no idea as to who is representing Mr. Farkas; as such, it is and was impossible to ascertain who I was to coordinate any communication with him this morning relating to your subpoena.

At the time I was engaged by Mr. Farkas to act as counsel for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, it was represented to me (and I believed) that Mr. Farkas was the sole manager of the LLC and that he was authorized to retain legal counsel for the LLC. Until I received your letter, I did not know of an amendment to the LLC's operating agreement that replaced Mr. Farkas as the sole manager of the LLC. Thereafter, Mr. Farkas provided your referenced amendment.

Upon learning of the amendment, I immediately terminated my involvement in this matter. I have never represented Mr. Farkas in his individual capacity. Nevertheless, it is conceivable and reasonable that Mr. Farkas expected his communications with me to be and remain confidential. Such expectations and beliefs, whether right or wrong, valid or accurate are not irrelevant and trifling, and must substantively be considered and appreciated by counsel. Indeed, as an attorney, I am subject to the Rules applicable to the practice of law in Nevada, including NRPC 1.6, which requires that I not reveal confidential information without informed consent. Furthermore, the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility's Formal Opinion 473 suggests that an attorney has an obligation to request client permission before disclosing client information in response to a subpoena. Out of an abundance of caution and necessity, I reached out to Mr. Farkas after receiving your subpoena to inquire as to his position with respect to my response to the subpoena.

Mr. Farkas's position on the matter remains unclear. In fact, your email expressly reflects that you are serving as his counsel and, as such, I cannot learn of or be informed of his position (which seems/appears to give rise to substantive conflict issues). Accordingly, absent written and full consent from Mr. Farkas, coupled with an order from the court compelling my testimony and the parameters thereof, I cannot provide testimony regarding my involvement in this matter in response to your subpoena. While you may not like this reality, it is real since I believe that providing testimony would breach or expose me to a breach of my ethical obligations as an attorney; it would also expose me to potential professional liability.

Inasmuch as you have provided unsolicited legal advice and opinion, I cannot and will not accept such without a court order confirming your unsolicited positions (as valid and accurate), as well as a consideration of my compliance with my ethical obligations under the Rules (as deemed appropriate by the State Bar of Nevada). Again, this is a reality that will not escape your unsolicited legal proclamations.

Finally, to be clear, I have never claimed to control any privilege held by either Mr. Farkas or the LLC. I am simply trying to comply with my ethical obligations and avoid exposure. Despite your expressed certainty of the information contained in your email below, I do not believe the issue to be as straight forward as you proclaim based on the facts and circumstances presented. If you wish to provide any legal authority to support your position, I will consider it and respond, as I am certain the court will need to be included in this matter.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

Ms Turner

There is no “game playing” as you assert. As I indicated in my last communication to you, I was contacted by a Mr. Hogan while traveling to a doctor’s appointment (such contact was made AFTER the sending of my letter this morning). Upon my return from the doctor’s appointment, I prepared and sent a response to your communication. Those are the facts and there is no gamesmanship.

As for attending any deposition, my articulated positions are not “deflection” as you proclaim, but substantive concerns and issues that warrant judicial attention and direction to prevent any violations of the Rules or the exposure to professional liability for breaching confidences. It is unfortunate that you refuse to appreciate such and, worse, that you continue to provide unsolicited legal advice to support your demands and aggressive threats.

You included you former partner Mr. Hogan on this email, so I will include him as well. In terms of Mr. Larsen, he is included as counsel, but I will continue to respond on my behalf.

All rights reserved, none waived, including the right to fees and costs.

Respectfully,

Mr. Nahabedian,

I see you are cc'ing an attorney, Bart Larsen. Is Mr. Larsen your counsel? If so, then we can conduct all further communications without your involvement.

If Mr. Larsen is counsel, he can respond. Otherwise, we ask you to respond without ambiguity or deflection:

Are you refusing to attend your duly noticed deposition scheduled for February 12, 2021? We are on a short timetable and need to know your intentions.

With respect to your deflection: Your accusations of a conflict of interest against me are without any factual or legal basis. I have represented, and continue to represent, TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Earlier this afternoon, you misrepresented that you did not know who was representing Mr. Farkas when you had actually been contacted by Mr. Hogan by that point in time. So, I am really confused what game you are playing. Neither TGC Farkas Funding, LLC nor Matthew Farkas are directing you not to attend the duly-noticed deposition, nor are either claiming your communications with Matthew Farkas were privileged.

We are entitled to your testimony regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding your retention and actions, purportedly on behalf of TGC Farkas Funding, LLC.

Again, all rights and remedies are expressly reserved, including those rights and remedies under NRCP 45 (30 and 37 as well), including appropriate sanctions for all fees and costs being incurred to address any refusal to comply with a duly-issued and noticed subpoena. There is no rule that has an application that would excuse your attendance.

As I was driving to a doctor's appointment, I was contacted by a Mr. Ken Hogan who stated that he was going to be representing Mr. Farkas. That contact, however, does not change or eliminate the substantive matters contained in my correspondence. Moreover, your threats and posture are becoming quite alarming and unfortunate given the facts and circumstances expressed in my communications. Certainly you, as a member of the Bar, are not encouraging and demanding professional violations of the Rules, as well as breaches to the rights/interests of former clients. Again, your unsolicited legal advice and positions have been provided without any support. Ms. Turner

Given your email, I assume you read my letter to Mr. Farkas. Therein you will see that I have no idea as to who is representing Mr. Farkas; as such, it is and was impossible to ascertain who I was to coordinate any communication with him this morning relating to your subpoena.

At the time I was engaged by Mr. Farkas to act as counsel for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, it was represented to me (and I believed) that Mr. Farkas was the sole manager of the LLC and that he was authorized to retain legal counsel for the LLC. Until I received your letter, I did not know of an amendment to the LLC's operating agreement that replaced Mr. Farkas as the sole manager of the LLC. Thereafter, Mr. Farkas provided your referenced amendment.

Upon learning of the amendment, I immediately terminated my involvement in this matter. I have never represented Mr. Farkas in his individual capacity. Nevertheless, it is conceivable and reasonable that Mr. Farkas expected his communications with me to be and remain confidential. Such expectations and beliefs, whether right or wrong, valid or accurate are not irrelevant and trifling, and must substantively be considered and appreciated by counsel. Indeed, as an attorney, I am subject to the Rules applicable to the practice of law in Nevada, including NRPC 1.6, which requires that I not reveal confidential information without informed consent. Furthermore, the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility's Formal Opinion 473 suggests that an attorney has an obligation to request client permission before disclosing client information in response to a subpoena. Out of an abundance of caution and necessity, I reached out to Mr. Farkas after receiving your subpoena to inquire as to his position with respect to my response to the subpoena.

Mr. Farkas's position on the matter remains unclear. In fact, your email expressly reflects that you are serving as his counsel and, as such, I cannot learn of or be informed of his position (which seems/appears to give rise to substantive conflict issues). Accordingly, absent written and full consent from Mr. Farkas, coupled with an order from the court compelling my testimony and the parameters thereof, I cannot provide testimony regarding my involvement in this matter in response to your subpoena. While you may not like this reality, it is real since I believe that providing testimony would breach or expose me to a breach of my ethical obligations as an attorney; if would also expose me to potential professional liability.

Inasmuch as you have provided unsolicited legal advice and opinion, I cannot and will not accept such without a court order confirming your unsolicited positions (as valid and accurate), as well as a consideration of my compliance with my ethical obligations under the Rules (as deemed appropriate by the State Bar of Nevada). Again, this is a reality that will not escape your unsolicited legal proclamations.

Finally, to be clear, I have never claimed to control any privilege held by either Mr. Farkas or the LLC. I am simply trying to comply with my ethical obligations and avoid exposure. Despite your expressed certainty of the information contained in your email below, I do not believe the issue to be as straight forward as you proclaim based on the facts and circumstances presented. If you wish to provide any legal authority to support your position, I will consider it and respond, as I am certain the court will need to be included in this matter.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

Subject: confidential communication

Mr. Bloom

On or about January 4, 2021, you contacted me to ask if I would represent your brother-in-law, Matthew Farkas. I agreed to represent him in a limited capacity and emailed a retainer agreement and a Scope of Representation/Conflict letter for him to sign as he was the apparent manager of a company, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. You are aware of these items. As my services were very limited, I was not involved in and did not participate in any settlement negotiations or the preparation of any settlement documents. My services as understood by you and Mr. Farkas were merely to prepare a substitution of attorney based on Mr. Farkas' retention of my services, provide Garman Turner Gordon a letter of termination prepared/signed by Mr. Farkas, and to file a dismissal; nothing more.

As your attorneys in the underlying matter are aware (and may have informed you of), the law firm of Garman Turner Gordon has issued a subpoena for me to testify. As there are issues relating to the Rules and confidentiality from various perspectives, I contacted the State Bar of Nevada to speak with State Bar Counsel. During the discussion, it was confirmed and stated that communications with you, only, as you are a current client (in a completely unrelated matter) would and should be considered confidential and not subject to disclosure without your full written consent and/or judicial order.

Given the above, I am informing you of my intention to comply with Rules and the information as provided by State Bar Counsel. Unless instructed otherwise in a writing signed by you or via court order, I am constrained.

I have expressed a similar position to counsel who issued the subpoena, along with issues relating to a possible conflict of interest.

Should you have any questions, please contact me to discuss.

Mr. Bloom

Good afternoon.

As a follow up to my email below, please confirm that you have consulted with counsel and, based on our discussion, are instructing me to not disclose confidential communications. In this regard, please have your attorney prepare a letter that states that you have been notified of my concern and my statement that you are the holder of the privilege. This letter must reflect your signature to verify that you have been advised of and are aware of your rights, and that you are either waiving or enforcing your rights.

Additionally, it is critical to note that there was a discussion that was not exclusive to us, meaning that other persons (third parties) were on the telephone call or communication. In this regard, it is critical to ascertain your position regarding confidences and the maintenance of the privilege. This too must be set forth in writing to prevent any issues. If issues arise, then an objection will be made on the record and the Court, in conformity with the Rules and State Bar, must issue an order upon full briefing. If you disagree with the order, then it is understood that you will file an appeal.

Thank you and please confirm receipt of this email. Again, please confirm that you have informed your attorney and have been provided legal advice and counsel in this regard.

Mr. Bloom

On or about January 4, 2021, you contacted me to ask if I would represent your brother-in-law, Matthew Farkas. I agreed to represent him in a limited capacity and emailed a retainer agreement and a Scope of Representation/Conflict letter for him to sign as he was the apparent manager of a company, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. You are aware of these items. As my services were very limited, I was not involved in and did not participate in any settlement negotiations or the preparation of any settlement documents. My services as understood by you and Mr. Farkas were merely to prepare a substitution of attorney based on Mr. Farkas' retention of my services, provide Garman Turner Gordon a letter of termination prepared/signed by Mr. Farkas, and to file a dismissal; nothing more.

As your attorneys in the underlying matter are aware (and may have informed you of), the law firm of Garman Turner Gordon has issued a subpoena for me to testify. As there are issues relating to the Rules and confidentiality from various perspectives, I contacted the State Bar of Nevada to speak with State Bar Counsel. During the discussion, it was confirmed and stated that communications with you, only, as you are a current client (in a complete unrelated matter) would and should be considered confidential and not subject to disclosure without your full written consent and/or judicial order.

Given the above, I am informing you of my intention to comply with Rules and the information as provided by State Bar Counsel. Unless instructed otherwise in a writing signed by you or via court order, I am constrained.

I have expressed a similar position to counsel who issued the subpoena, along with issues relating to a possible conflict of interest.

Should you have any questions, please contact me to discuss.

Respectfully,

Raffi A Nahabedian

Dear Mr. Nahabedian,

This email is to confirm, after discussing the issue with my counsel, that I will not be waving privilege, with regard to any discussion we had, be they oral or in writing.

This is inclusive of all discussions we had directly, and to the full extent applicable, discussions we had with other persons in situations under which the privilege might be applicable as well.

I will ask counsel to prepare a letter reflecting this directive.

Thank you,

Good afternoon.

As a follow up to my email below, please confirm that you have consulted with counsel and, based on our discussion, are instructing me to not disclose confidential communications. In this regard, please have your attorney prepare a letter that states that you have been notified of my concern and my statement that you are the holder of the privilege. This letter must reflect your signature to verify that you have been advised of and are aware of your rights, and that you are either waiving or enforcing your rights.

Additionally, it is critical to note that there was a discussion that was not exclusive to us, meaning that other persons (third parties) were on the telephone call or communication. In this regard, it is critical to ascertain your position regarding confidences and the maintenance of the privilege. This too must be set forth in writing to prevent any issues. If issues arise, then an objection will be made on the record and the Court, in conformity with the Rules and State Bar, must issue an order upon full briefing. If you disagree with the order, then it is understood that you will file an appeal.

Thank you and please confirm receipt of this email. Again, please confirm that you have informed your attorney and have been provided legal advice and counsel in this regard.

Respectfully,

Good morning.

In discussing the upcoming deposition with Mr. Larsen and the morass of issues relating thereto, it has come to my attention that he is unavailable in the morning of February 12, 2021. As such, we will need to move the deposition to the afternoon. Please confirm (and indicate) that either 1 p.m. or 2 p.m., February 12, will work with your calendars so we may schedule accordingly.

Mr. Nahabedian,

I note as an initial matter that the deposition subpoena has been duly served for over a week. You knew the date when you hired counsel; thus, if there was any limitation in Mr. Larsen's availability, he should have declined the representation. Notwithstanding, as a professional courtesy to Mr. Larsen, we will agree to move the deposition to 1 pm; however, if we cannot finish the examination on Friday, then we may need to go to a second day.

1 SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF ADAM FLATTO

3 I, Adam Flatto (“Declarant”), declare as follows:

4 1. I am the manager of TGC Investor 100, LLC, 50% member of TGC/Farkas
5 Funding, LLC (“Claimant”). I am competent to testify to the matters asserted herein, of which I
6 have personal knowledge, except as to those matters stated upon information and belief. As to 7 those matters stated upon information and belief, I believe them to be true.

8 2. Attached hereto is a true and correct copy of Claimant’s Limited Liability
9 Agreement (the “Operating Agreement”).

10 3. As explicitly set forth in the Operating Agreement, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC
11 (“Claimant”) was formed as an investment vehicle relating to the $1 million capital contribution
12 to First 100, LLC, and Matthew Farkas’ 2% interest vested in First 100, LLC. See the Recitals.

13 4. Matthew Farkas was, and still is, the “Administrative Member” of Claimant, as that 14 term is defined in the Operating Agreement. See Sect. 4.1.

15 5. Under Section 3.4 of the Operating Agreement, the Administrative Member can 16 only take action to bind Claimant after consultation with, and upon the consent of, all Claimant 17 members.

18 6. TGC Investor 100, LLC did not consent to any redemption of the 3% membership
19 interest in First 100, LLC. The request for redemption appeared to reflect an interest in an entity 20 which was unknown to me, resulting in questions as to what interest was being redeemed and 21 whether there was a contention Claimant’s interest had been converted into ownership in another 22 entity. The request for redemption is one of the reasons for Claimant seeking to inspect the 23 business records of both entities.

24 7. Claimant did not receive any communication disputing its membership had been 25 effectuated from First 100, LLC until after a request for records was provided to counsel. As 26 previously provided, a schedule K-1 tax form reflecting 3% membership interest was provided to 27 reflect the membership interest in federal tax filings.

1           8.           Claimant did not receive any distribution relating to the 3% membership interest in
2 First 100, LLC, nor any notice of dissolution, merger or otherwise that would adversely impact
3 such interest.

4           9.           The Operating Agreement for 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC reflects a 1.5%
5 membership interest in 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC held by Claimant.

6           10.          Claimant has not ever received a fully executed copy of the Redemption Agreement
7 indicating that it was signed by Mr. Farkas on behalf of Claimant.

8           11.          Claimant has not received any distribution from 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC,
9 and there has been no Certificate of Dissolution, accounting or other information provided from 10 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC since the April 2017 Redemption Agreement.

12 Dated this 13th day of August, 2020.

The principal office of the Company in the United States shall be at such place as the Manager may designate from time to time, which need not be in the State of Nevada, and the Company shall maintain records there as required by NRS §86.241 and shall keep the street address of such principal office at the registered office of the Company in the State of Nevada. The Company may have such other offices as the Manager may designate from time to time.

2.4 PURPOSES. The purpose of the Company is everything allowable by law.

2.5 FOREIGN QUALIFICATION. Prior to the Company's conducting business in any jurisdiction other than Nevada, the Manager shall cause the Company to comply, to the extent procedures are available and those matters are reasonably within the control of the Manager or Members, with all requirements necessary to qualify the Company as a foreign limited liability company in that jurisdiction. At the request of the Manager or Members, each Member shall execute, acknowledge, swear to, and deliver all certificates and other instruments conforming with this Operating Agreement that are necessary or appropriate to qualify, continue, and terminate the Company as a foreign limited liability company in all such jurisdictions in which the Company may conduct business.

2.6 TERM. The Company commenced on the date the Nevada Secretary of State issued a certificate of organization for the Company and shall continue in existence for the period fixed in the Articles for the duration of the Company, or such earlier time as this Operating Agreement may specify.

2.7 MERGERS AND EXCHANGES. The Company may be a party to: (a) a merger; or (b) an exchange or acquisition permitted by the Act, subject to the requirements of this Operating Agreement.

2.8 NO STATE-LAW PARTNERSHIP. The Members intend that the Company not be a partnership (including, without limitation, a limited partnership) or joint venture, for any purposes other than federal and state tax purposes, and this Operating Agreement may not be construed to suggest otherwise.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERS

3.1 THREE CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST. The Company shall have three classes of Membership Interests: Class A Voting Membership Interests, Class B Non Voting Membership Interests and Class C Non Voting Membership Interests. Each of the Class A Membership Interests, Class B Membership Interests and Class C Membership Interests shall have certain rights, obligations and privileges, as provided in this Agreement.

3.2 MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS. The Member names and Class A Membership Interests of the Class A Members are set forth on SCHEDULE A. The Member names and Class B Membership Interests of the Class B Members are set forth on SCHEDULE A. The Member names and Class C Membership Interests of the Class C Members are set forth on SCHEDULE A.

3.3 CLASSES AND VOTING. The Company may issue voting Membership Interests and non-voting Membership Interests. The Membership certificates shall clearly designate so as to distinguish between voting and non-voting classes. Upon adoption of this Operating Agreement:

- i. Class A Members shall have voting rights. All references in this Operating Agreement to discretionary actions subject to a vote of Members shall solely refer to Class A Members.
- ii. Class B Members are non-voting Membership Interests.
- iii. Class C Members are non-voting Membership Interests.

3.4 VOTING; PROXIES. Each outstanding Class A Membership Interest shall be entitled to one vote per one full percent of Class A Membership Interest owned by the Member on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of Members. A Member may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless the proxy form conspicuously states that the proxy is irrevocable and the proxy is coupled with an interest.

3.5 QUORUM. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles, the holders of a simple majority of the Membership Interest entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Class A Members.

3.6 MAJORITY VOTE. With respect to any matter when a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a simple majority of the Membership Interest, present in person or represented by proxy, having voting power with respect to that matter, shall decide such matter brought before such meeting, unless the matter is one upon which, by express provision of the Articles or this Operating Agreement, or by an express provision of the Act which is applicable to such vote unless overridden by the Articles, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such matter.

3.7 PLACE AND MANNER OF MEETING. All meetings of the Members shall be held at such time and place, within or without the State of Nevada, as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof. Members may participate in such meetings by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all Persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting as provided herein shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a Person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

3.8 CONDUCT OF MEETINGS. All meetings of the Members shall be presided over by the chairman of the meeting, who shall be a Person designated by the Manager. The chairman of any meeting of Members shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as seem to him in order.

3.9 ANNUAL MEETING. An annual meeting of the Members shall be held each year. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work as a dissolution of the Company.

3.10 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by: (i) the Manager of the Company; (ii) the President of the Company if such office exists; or (iii) the holders of at least five percent (5%) of the Class A Membership interests. Unless waived, notice of such special meeting must be made in writing at least ten days prior to the meeting date, and such notice shall state the purpose of such special meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on thereat. A quorum must be present for such meeting to be recognized and effective.

3.11 NOTICE. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting either personally or by mail, to each Member, provided that such notice may be waived as provided in this Operating Agreement. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the Member at his address as it appears on the records of the Company, with postage thereon prepaid.

3.12 CLOSING RECORD BOOKS AND FIXING RECORD DATE. For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to distribution or in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose, the Manager may provide that the record books shall be closed for a stated period not exceeding sixty (60) days. If the record books shall be closed for the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members, such books shall be closed for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the record books, the Manager may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of Members, such date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days and in the case of a meeting of Members, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of which the particular action requiring such determination of Members is to be taken. If the record books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members, or Members entitled to receive distribution, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Manager, declaring such distribution is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of Members. When a determination of Members entitled to vote at any meeting of Members has been made as provided in this Section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, except where the determination has been made through the closing of record books and the stated period of closing has expired.

3.13 ACTION WITHOUT MEETING. Any meeting, or any action required by the Act to be taken at a meeting of the Members, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Members (including any action requiring less than unanimous vote of the members), may be taken without a formal meeting, and without prior notice, but only if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall have been signed by the holders of all the Membership Interest for each class entitled to vote and such consent shall have the same force and effect as vote by formal meeting of the Members. Written consents made pursuant to this Section shall be signed and dated.

3.14 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The Members acknowledge that from time to time, they may receive information from the Manager or other Persons regarding the Company or Persons with which it does business. Each Member shall hold in strict confidence any information it receives regarding the Company that is identified as being confidential (and if that information is provided in writing, that is so marked) and may not disclose it to any person other than to another Member or a Manager, except for disclosures: (i) compelled by law (but the Member must notify the Manager promptly of any request for that information, before disclosing it, if practicable); (ii) to advisers or representatives of the Member or Persons to which that Member's Membership Interest may be Disposed as permitted by this Operating Agreement, but only if the recipients have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this Section; or (iii) of information that Member also has received from a source independent of the Company that the Member reasonably believes obtained that information without breach of any obligation of confidentiality. The Members acknowledge that breach of the provisions of this Section may cause irreparable injury to the Company for which monetary damages are inadequate, difficult to compute, or both. Accordingly, the Members agree that the provisions of this Section may be enforced by specific performance. The Members acknowledge that the Manager from time to time may determine, due to contractual obligations, business concerns, or other considerations, that certain information regarding the business, affairs, properties, and financial condition of the Company should be kept confidential and not provided to some or all other Members, and that it is not just or reasonable for those Members to examine or copy that information.

3.15 LIABILITIES TO THIRD PARTIES. Except as otherwise expressly agreed in writing, no

Member or the Manager shall be liable for the debts, obligations or liabilities of the Company.

3.16 WITHDRAWAL / SURRENDER. A Member may unilaterally withdraw from the Company as a Member, but only by ways of a written surrender of membership interest tendered to the Company and all Members then in existence.

3.17 LACK OF AUTHORITY TO BIND OR OBLIGATE. The Company is Manager-managed. No Member (other than a Manager or a duly appointed officer) has the authority or power to act for or on behalf of the Company, to do any act that would be obligating or binding on the Company, or to incur any expenditures on behalf of the Company.

3.18 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. Each Member hereby represents and warrants to the Company and each other Member that (a) if that Member is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the law of the state of its incorporation and is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign corporation in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not incorporated therein); (b) if that Member is a limited liability company, it is duly organized, validly existing, and (if applicable) in good standing under the law of the state of its organization and is duly qualified and (if applicable) in good standing as a foreign limited liability company in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not organized therein); (c) if that Member is a partnership, trust, or other entity, it is duly formed, validly existing, and (if applicable) in good standing under the law of the state of its formation, and if required by law is duly qualified to do business and (if applicable) in good standing in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not formed therein), and the representations and warranties in Clause (a), (b), or (c), as applicable, are true and correct with respect to each partner (other than limited partners), trustee, or other Member thereof, (d) that Member has full corporate, limited liability company, partnership, trust, or other applicable power and authority to execute and agree to this Operating Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and all necessary actions by the board of directors, shareholders, Manager, Member(s), partners, trustees, beneficiaries, or other Persons necessary for the due authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Operating Agreement by that Member have been duly taken; (e) that Member has duly executed and delivered this Operating Agreement; and (f) that Member's authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Operating Agreement do not conflict with any other agreement or arrangement to which that Member is a party or by which it is bound.

3.19 ADMISSION OF ADDITIONAL MEMBERS. Following adoption of this Operating Agreement, the Company may admit one or more additional Members from time to time, but only upon the majority vote of all Class A Members then in existence. The terms of admission or issuance must specify the Capital Contributions applicable thereto, and may also provide for the creation of additional classes of Members and having different rights, powers, and duties, but is so then this Operating Agreement shall be amended to reflect such added classes. Upon the admission to the Company of any additional members, the Membership Interests of the other Members shall be reduced accordingly on a pro rata basis. SCHEDULE A shall be amended from time to time as of the effective date of the admission of an additional member to the Company. As a condition to being admitted to the Company, each additional member shall execute an agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3.20 RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERENCE OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Membership Interest and transferability of Membership Interest in the Company are substantially restricted. Neither record title nor beneficial ownership of a Membership Interest may be transferred or encumbered without the consent of all Members. This Company is formed by a closely-held group, who will have surrendered certain management rights (in exchange for limited liability) based upon their relationship and trust. Capital is also material to the business and investment objectives of the Company and its federal tax status. An unauthorized transfer of a Membership Interest could create a substantial hardship to the Company, jeopardize its capital base, and adversely affect its tax structure. These restrictions upon ownership and transfer are not intended as a penalty, but as a method to protect and preserve existing relationships based upon trust and the Company's capital and its financial ability to continue. Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions upon transfer and ownership, the following transfers are permitted:

A. Death of a Member Who Is A Natural Person. The personal representative of a deceased Member's estate, or his or her contract beneficiary, may exercise all of the decedent's rights and powers as a Member, and the decedent's Membership Interest in the Company will continue and pass to those entitled thereto upon the Member's death. It is specifically provided that a Member may prepare a written and acknowledged document in which he or she designates one or more beneficiaries of that Person's Membership Interest, and his or her written designation will be binding upon the Company if delivered to the Company before or within at least sixty 60 days after the death of the Member.

B. Estate Planning Transfers. A Member will also have the right to make estate planning transfers of all or any part of his or her Membership Interest in the Company. The term "estate planning transfer" will mean any transfer made during the life of a Member without value, or for less than full consideration, by way of a marital partition agreement and/or a transfer of all or any part of a Membership Interest to a trust whose beneficiary or beneficiaries are the Member and/or the spouse of a Member, and/or the descendants of a Member, and/or one or more beneficiaries qualified to receive a charitable gift under § 170(c) of the Code. The Articles and this Operating Agreement will bind the transferee of any estate planning transfer to the exact terms and conditions of the Articles and this Operating Agreement.

C. Transfers for Convenience. A Member who is a company may freely transfer its Membership to another company whose ownership is identical to the ownership of the assignor Member, provided, however, that such Member may not cause or permit an interest, direct or indirect, in itself to be disposed of such that, after the disposition, (a) the Company would be considered to have terminated within the meaning of §708 of the Code or (b) that Member shall cease to be controlled by substantially the same Persons who control it as of the date of its admission to the Company. On any breach of the provisions of clause (b) of the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall have the option to buy, and on exercise of that option the breaching Member shall sell, the breaching Member's Membership Interest all in accordance with Article XI as if the breaching Member were a Bankrupt Member.

D. Approved Sale or Transfers. A Member may transfer its Membership to another Person upon the unanimous vote of all Class A Members.

3.21 DISPUTED TRANSFERS. The Company will not be required to recognize the interest of any transferee who has obtained a purported interest as the result of a transfer of ownership which is not an authorized transfer. If the Membership Interest is in doubt, or if there is reasonable doubt as to who is entitled to a distribution of the income realized from a Membership Interest, the Company may accumulate the income until this issue is finally determined and resolved. Accumulated income will be credited to the capital account of the Member whose interest is in question.

3.22 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL. If any Person or agency should acquire the interest of a Member as the result of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction which the Company is required to recognize, or if a Member makes an unauthorized transfer of a Membership Interest which the Company is required to recognize, the interest of the transferee may then be acquired by the Company upon the following terms and conditions:

- (a) The Company will have the unilateral option to re-acquire the Membership Interest by giving written notice to the transferee of its intent to purchase within 90 days from the date it is finally determined that the Company is required to recognize the transfer.
- (b) The Company will have 180 days from the first day of the month following the month in which it delivers notice exercising its option to purchase the Membership Interest. The valuation date for the Membership Interest will be the first day of the month following the month in which notice is delivered.
- (c) Unless the Company and the transferee agree otherwise, the fair market value of a Member's Membership Interest is to be determined by the written appraisal of a Person or firm qualified to value this type of business. The appraiser selected by the Company must be a member of and qualified by the American Society of Appraisers, Business Valuations Division, [P. O. Box 17265, Washington, DC 20041] to perform appraisals.
- (d) Closing of the sale will occur at the registered office of the Company at 10 o'clock A.M. on the first Tuesday of the month following the month in which the valuation report is accepted by the transferee (called the “closing date”). The transferee must accept or reject the valuation report within 30 days from the date it is delivered. If not rejected in writing within the required period, the report will be accepted as written. If rejected, closing of the sale will be postponed until the first Tuesday of the month following the month in which the valuation of the Membership Interest is resolved. The transferee will be considered a non-voting owner of the Membership Interest, and entitled to all items of income, deduction, gain or loss from the Membership Interest, plus any additions or subtractions therefrom until closing.

- (e) In order to reduce the burden upon the resources of the Company, the Company will have the option, to be exercised in writing delivered at closing, to pay its purchase money obligation in 10 equal annual installments (or the remaining terms of the Company if less than 10 years) with interest thereon at market rates, adjusted annually as of the first day of each calendar year at the option of the Manager. The term “market rates” will mean the rate of interest prescribed as the “prime rate” as quoted in the money rates section of the Wall Street Journal, which is also the base rate on corporate loans at large United States money center commercial banks, as of the first day of the calendar year. If §§483 and 1274A of the Code apply to this transaction, the rate of interest of the purchase money obligation will be fixed at the rate of interest then required by law. The first installment of principal, with interest due thereon, will be due and payable on the first day of the calendar year following closing, and subsequent annual installments, with interest due thereon, will be due and payable, in order, on the first day of each calendar year which follows until the entire amount of the obligation, principal and interest, is fully paid. The Company will have the right to prepay all or any part of the purchase money obligation at any time without premium or penalty.
- (f) The Manager may assign the Company's option to purchase to one or more of the Members (this with the affirmative consent of no less than 50% of the remaining Members, excluding the interest of the Member or transferee whose interest is to be acquired), and when done, any rights or obligations imposed upon the Company will instead become, by substitution, the rights and obligations of the Members who are assignees.
- (g) Neither the transferee of an unauthorized transfer or the Member causing the transfer will have the right to vote during the prescribed option period, or if the option to purchase is timely exercised, until the sale is actually closed.

3.23 TAX TREATMENT OF TRANSFERRED MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS. With respect to any transferred Membership Interest that may occur, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit allocable to any transferred Membership Interest shall for tax purposes be allocated between the transferor and the transferee based on the portion of the calendar year during which each was recognized as owning that Membership Interest without regard to the results of Company operations during any particular portion of that calendar year and without regard to whether cash distributions were made to the transferor or the transferee during that calendar year; provided, however, that this allocation must be made in accordance with a method permissible under §706 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

ARTICLE IV: CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1 INITIAL CONTRIBUTIONS. Contemporaneously with the execution by such Member of this Operating Agreement, each Member shall make the Capital Contributions described for that Member in SCHEDULES A and B. No interest shall be earned or paid on Capital Contributions or a member's capital account.

4.2 SUBSEQUENT CONTRIBUTIONS. If necessary and appropriate to enable the Company to meet its costs, expenses, obligations, and liabilities, and if no lending source is available, then the Manager shall notify each Class A Member (“Capital Call”) of the need for any additional capital contributions, and such capital demand shall be made on each Class A Member in proportion to its Class A Membership Interest. Any such Capital Call notice must include a statement in reasonable detail of the proposed uses of the required additional capital contributions and a date (which date may be no earlier than the fifth Business Day following each Member's receipt of its notice) before which the additional capital contributions must be made.

4.3 FAILURE TO CONTRIBUTE. If a Member does not contribute all of its share of a Capital Call by the time required, then either:

- 1) One or more Class A Members may provide the additional capital, with such added capital to be reflected in that Class A Member's Capital Contribution, however, such additional capital to be entitled to priority return superior to those set forth in Article V.

or

- 2) Any other Members, individually or in concert (the "Lending Member," whether one or more), to advance the portion of the Delinquent Member's Capital Call that is in default, with the following results:

- (a) the sum advanced constitutes a loan from the Lending Member to the Delinquent Member and a Capital Contribution of that sum to the Company by the Delinquent Member pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Operating Agreement;
- (b) the principal balance of the loan and all accrued unpaid interest thereon is due and payable in whole on the tenth day after written demand therefore by the Lending Member to the Delinquent Member;
- (c) the amount loaned bears interest at the Default Interest Rate from the day that the advance is deemed made until the date that the loan, together with all interest accrued on it, is repaid to the Lending Member;
- (d) all distributions from the Company that otherwise would be made to the Delinquent Member (whether before or after dissolution of the Company) instead shall be paid to the Lending Member until the loan and all interest accrued on it have been paid in full to the Lending Member (with payments being applied first to accrued and unpaid interest and then to principal);
- (e) the payment of the loan and interest accrued on it is secured by a security interest in the Delinquent Member's Membership Interest, and the Lending Member may file a financing statement evidencing and perfecting such security interest; and
- (f) the Lending Member has the right, in addition to the other rights and remedies granted to it pursuant to this Operating Agreement or available to it at law or in equity, to take any action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) that the Lending Member may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Delinquent Member of the loan and all accrued and unpaid interest on it, at the cost and expense of the Delinquent Member.

4.4 RETURN OF CONTRIBUTIONS. Class A Members are not entitled to the return of any part of their Capital Contributions. In accordance with Article V, Class B Members and Class C Members are entitled to priority return of all of their Capital Contributions. An un-repaid Capital Contribution is not a liability of the Company or of any Member.

4.5 ADVANCES BY MEMBERS. If the Company does not have sufficient cash to pay its obligations, any Member(s) that may agree to do so with the Manager's consent may advance all or part of the needed funds to or on behalf of the Company. An advance described in this Section constitutes a loan from the Member to the Company, bears interest at the General Interest Rate from the date of the advance until the date of payment, and is not a Capital Contribution.

4.6 CAPITAL ACCOUNTS. A capital account shall be established and maintained for each Member, by Class. The Members' capital accounts also shall be maintained and adjusted as permitted by the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(iv)(f) and as required by the other provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(iv) and 1.704-1(b)(4), including adjustments to reflect the allocations to the Members of depreciation, depletion, amortization, and gain or loss as computed for book purposes rather than the allocation of the corresponding items as computed for tax purposes, as required by Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g). On the transfer of all or part of a Membership Interest, the capital account of the transferor that is attributable to the transferred Membership Interest or part thereof shall carry over to the transferee Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(l).

ARTICLE V: ALLOCATIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 DISTRIBUTIONS. From time to time (but at least once each calendar quarter) the Manager shall determine in its reasonable judgment to what extent (if any) the Company's cash on hand exceeds its current and anticipated needs, including, without limitation, for operating expenses, debt service, acquisitions, and a reasonable contingency reserve. If such an excess exists, the Manager shall cause the Company to distribute to the Members an amount in cash (or property other than cash) equal to that excess. Distributions by the Manager shall be mandatory upon the affirmative vote of 95% or more of the Class A Members, subject to Section 5.5.

5.2 ALLOCATION OF PROFIT DISTRIBUTIONS OF THE COMPANY. Profit distributions of the Company in each fiscal quarter shall be allocated to the Members as follows:

- i. first to the Class B Members, in proportion to their respective Class B Capital Contributions, in accordance with Section 5.3 ("Priority Return");
- ii. next to the Class C Members, in proportion to their respective Class C Capital Contributions, in accordance with Section 5.3 ("Priority Return");
- iii. next to the Class A Members in accordance with their respective Class A Membership Interests; provided, however, that Class A Members will only be allocated profit distributions after Class B Members and Class C Members have been paid their entire Priority Return.

5.3 TREATMENT OF CLASS B DISTRIBUTIONS. Class B profit distributions made pursuant to Section 5.2(i) shall be treated as a return of capital, and accordingly each Class B Member's Capital Contribution will be proportionately reduced by the dollar amount equal to the allocation of profit distributions made to that particular Class B Member, until their Capital Contribution is returned in full. Once each Class B Member's Capital Contribution is reduced to $0, the Class B class will cease to exist.

5.4 TREATMENT OF CLASS C DISTRIBUTIONS. Class C profit distributions made pursuant to Section 5.2(ii) shall be treated as a return of capital, and accordingly each Class C Member's Capital Contribution will be proportionately reduced by the dollar amount equal to the allocation of profit distributions made to that particular Class C Member, until their Capital Contribution is returned in full. Once each Class C Member's Capital Contribution is reduced to $0, the Class C class will cease to exist.

5.5 RIGHT TO RECEIVE DISTRIBUTIONS. Except as otherwise provided in NRS §86.391 and §86.521, at the time a Member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the Member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the Company with respect to the distribution.

5.6 LIMITATION ON DISTRIBUTION. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Article, the Manager may not make a distribution to the Company's Members to the extent that, immediately after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of this Company, other than liabilities to Members with respect to their interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of this Company, exceed the fair value of this Company assets, except that the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in this Company's assets only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability. However, a Member who receives such a distribution has no liability under the Act to return the distribution unless the Member knew that the distribution violated any provision of the Act.

ARTICLE VI: MANAGER

6.1 MANAGEMENT BY MANAGER.

A. Except for situations in which the approval of the Members is required by this Operating Agreement or by non-waivable provisions of applicable law, the powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of the Manager. - (1) sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of (other than by way of a pledge, mortgage, deed of trust or trust indenture) all or substantially all the Company's property and assets (with or without good will), other than in the usual and regular course of the Company's business, without complying with the applicable procedures set forth in the Act, including, without limitation, the requirements set forth in this Operating Agreement regarding approval by the Members (unless such provision is rendered inapplicable by another provision of applicable law);
- (2) be a party to (i) a merger, or (ii) an exchange or acquisition, without complying with the

(3) amend or restate the Articles, without complying with the applicable procedures set forth in the Act, including, without limitation, the requirements set forth in this Operating Agreement regarding approval by the Members, unless such provision is rendered inapplicable by another provision of applicable law.

6.2 ACTIONS BY MANAGER; DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY AND DUTIES.

A. In managing the business and affairs of the Company and exercising its powers, the Manager shall act: (i) collectively through meetings and written consents consistent as may be provided or limited in other provisions of this Operating Agreement; (ii) through officers to whom management authority and duties have been delegated, pursuant to subsection (C) below; and (iii) through committees comprised of Members and management, if any so may be appointed.

B. The Manager may, from time to time, designate one or more advisory boards to provide guidance and insight to the Company's strategic direction and operations, provided, however, that any such advisory board shall have no managerial authority or any other authority to act on behalf of or bind the Company.

C. The Manager may, from time to time, designate one or more natural persons to be officers of the Company. No officer need be a resident of the State of Nevada or a Member. Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Manager may, from time to time, delegate to them. The Manager may assign titles to particular officers. Unless the Manager decide otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation formed under the NRS Chapter 78, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such officer of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office but may also include other such specific delegation of authority and duties made to such officer by the Manager. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall be duly designated and shall qualify or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been terminated by Manager or the President of the Company, if any. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the Manager or the President of the Company (if such position has been appointed). Any officer may resign as such at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Manager. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation. Any officer may be removed as such, either with or without cause, by the Manager whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Company will be served thereby; provided, however, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the Person so removed. Designation of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by the Manager.

D. Any Person dealing with the Company, other than a Member, may rely on the authority of the Manager or officer in taking any action in the name of the Company without inquiry into the provisions of this Operating Agreement or compliance herewith, regardless of whether that action actually is taken in accordance with the provisions of this Operating Agreement.

6.3 AGENCY. The Manager and any appointed officers are agents of this Company for the purpose of any act carrying out the business of the Company, including the execution in the name of the Company of any instrument for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of this Company.

6.4 COMPENSATION. The Manager shall be paid reasonable compensation and reimbursed for all expenses incurred on behalf of the Company.

6.5 REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION. The Manager may not be removed or terminated by the Members except by unanimous vote. The Manager may resign at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein.

6.6 VACANCIES. Any vacancy occurring in the position of Manager may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of Class A Members by election at a special meeting of Members called for that purpose.

6.7 APPROVAL OR RATIFICATION OF ACTS OR CONTRACTS BY MEMBERS. The Manager in its discretion may submit any act or contract for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting of the Members called for the purpose of considering any such act or contract, and any act or contract that shall be approved or be ratified by 98% of the Class A Members shall be as valid and as binding upon the Company and upon all the Members as if it shall have been approved or ratified by every Member of the Company.

6.8 INTERESTED MANAGER, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

A. No contract or transaction shall be voidable between this Company and any other Person in which the Company's Manager, any Member, or any officer is (i) that Person or (ii) holds a financial interest in that Person, if:

(1) The material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to all of the Members, and the Manager or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction; or

(2) The material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to all Members entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the Members; or

(3) The contract or transaction is fair as to this Company as of the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified by the Manager or the Members.

B. A Member who is a Manager may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Members which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE VII: INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Article VII:

A. "Limited Liability Company" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of the Company in a merger, consolidation, or other transaction in which the liabilities of the predecessor are transferred to the Company by operation of law and in any other transaction in which the Company assumes the liabilities of the predecessor but does not specifically exclude liabilities that are the subject matter of this Article.

B. "Manager" means any Person who is or was a Manager of the Company and any Person who, while a Manager of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

C. "Expenses" include court costs and attorneys' fees.

D. "Official capacity" means: (1) when used with respect to a Manager, the office of Manager in the Company; and (2) when used with respect to a Person other than a Manager, the elective or appointive office in the Company held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Company; provided, however, that "official capacity" does not include service for any other foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, or any partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

E. "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral, or investigative, any appeal in such an action, suit, or proceeding, and any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such an action, or proceeding.

7.2 STANDARD FOR INDEMNIFICATION. The Company shall indemnify a Person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding because the Person is or was a Manager or Officer of the Company, or for any action, related to Company or non-Company matters, if it is determined either by the Manager for any reason, or in accordance with this Article, that the Person:

- A. conducted himself in good faith;
- B. reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity as a Manager of the Company, that his conduct was in the Company's best interests, and (ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the Company's best interests;
- C. in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; or
- D. for any other reason as may be determined solely in the discretion of the Manager.

7.3 PROHIBITED INDEMNIFICATION. Except to the extent permitted by this Article, a Manager or Member may not be indemnified under any Section of this Article in respect of a proceeding:

- A. in which the Person is found liable on the basis that personal benefit from company assets was improperly received by him; or
- B. in which the Person is found liable to the Company.

Either the Manager or majority of the membership may elect to provide for such indemnification of the Manager or any party under any circumstance.

7.4 EFFECT OF TERMINATION OF PROCEEDING. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the Person did not meet the requirements set forth in any Section of this Article. A Person shall be deemed to have been found liable in respect of any claim, issue or matter only after the Person shall have been so adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom. Until such time as to a final disposition, the Company shall provide the indemnification and defenses contemplated herein.

7.5 EXTENT OF INDEMNIFICATION. A Person shall be indemnified under this Article against judgments, penalties (including excise and similar taxes), fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the Person in connection with the proceeding; but if the Person is found liable to the Company or is found liable on the basis that Personal benefit was improperly received by the Person, the indemnification shall (a) be limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred, and (b) not be made in respect of any proceeding in which the Person shall have been found liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of such Person's duty to the Company.

7.6 DETERMINATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. A determination of indemnification under any Section of this Article may be made by (i) the Manager, (ii) legal counsel to the company, or (iii) by the Members in a vote.

7.7 AUTHORIZATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. Authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that: (i) if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the manner specified by the foregoing Section for the selection of special legal counsel; and (ii) the provision of this Article making indemnification mandatory in certain cases specified herein shall be deemed to constitute authorization in the manner specified by this Section of indemnification in such cases.

7.8 SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE OF PROCEEDINGS. Except as provided otherwise by law or by this Operating Agreement, the Company shall indemnify a Manager against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with a proceeding in which he is a named defendant or respondent if he has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding.

7.9 COURT ORDER IN SUIT FOR INDEMNIFICATION. Indemnification required by the foregoing Section shall be subject to Order upon request by an indemnified party in a court of competent jurisdiction upon claim by the Manager as to entitlement to indemnification under that Section, the court shall order indemnification and shall award to the Manager the expenses incurred in securing the indemnification.

7.10 COURT DETERMINATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. Upon application of a Manager, a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, that the Manager is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not he has met the requirements set forth in any Section of this Article or has been found liable in the circumstances described in any Section of this Article. The court shall order the indemnification that the court determines is proper and equitable; but, if the Person is found liable to the Company or is found liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the Person, the indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the Person in connection with the proceeding.

7.11 ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES. Reasonable expenses incurred by a Manager who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, without the authorization or determination specified in this Article, after the Company receives a written affirmation by the Manager of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Article and a written undertaking, which must be an unlimited general obligation of the Manager (and can be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment) but need not be secured, made by or on behalf of the Manager to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met that standard or if it is ultimately determined that indemnification of the Manager against expenses incurred by him in connection with that proceeding is prohibited by this Article. A provision contained in the Articles, this Operating Agreement, a resolution of Members or Manager, or an agreement that makes mandatory the payment or reimbursement permitted under this Section shall be deemed to constitute authorization of that payment or reimbursement.

7.12 EXPENSES OF WITNESS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the Company may pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a Manager in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding at a time when he is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding, given that such appearance or participation occurs by reason of his being or having been a Manager of the Company.

7.13 INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS. The Company may, at the discretion of the Manager, indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to a Person who is or was an officer of the Company to the same extent that it shall indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to Manager under this Article.

7.14 INDEMNIFICATION OF OTHER PERSONS. The Company may, at the discretion of the Manager, indemnify and advance expenses to any Person who is not or was not an officer, employee, or agent of the Company but who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise to the same extent that it shall indemnify and advance expenses to Manager under this Article.

7.15 ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES TO OFFICERS AND OTHERS. The Company shall indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, and may indemnify and advance expenses to an employee or agent of the Company, or other Person who is identified in the foregoing Section and who is not a Manager, to such further extent as such Person may be entitled by law, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise.

7.16 CONTINUATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. The indemnification and advance payments provided by this Article shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to hold his position as a Manager, officer, employee or agent, or other Person described in any Section of this Article, and shall inure to his heirs, executors and administrators.

7.17 LIABILITY INSURANCE. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance or another arrangement on behalf of any Person who is or was a Manager, officer, employee, or agent of the Company or who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such a capacity or arising out of his status as such a Person, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under this Article. If the insurance or other arrangement is with a Person or entity that is not regularly engaged in the business of providing insurance coverage, the insurance or arrangement may provide for payment of a liability with respect to which the Company would not have the power to indemnify the Person only if including coverage for the additional liability has been approved by the Members of the Company. Without limiting the power of the Company to procure or maintain any kind of insurance or other arrangement, the Company may, for the benefit of Persons indemnified by the Company, (1) create a trust fund; (2) establish any form of self-insurance; (3) secure its indemnity obligation by grant of a security interest or other lien on the assets of the Company; or (4) establish a letter of credit, guaranty, or surety arrangement. The insurance or other arrangement may be procured, maintained, or established within the Company or with any insurer or other Person deemed appropriate by the Manager regardless of whether all or part of the stock or other securities of the insurer or other Person are owned in whole or part by the Company. In the absence of fraud, the judgment of the Manager as to the terms and conditions of the insurance or other arrangement and the identity of the insurer or other Person participating in an arrangement shall be conclusive and the insurance or arrangement shall not be avoidable and shall not subject the Manager approving the insurance or arrangement to liability, on any ground, regardless of whether Manager participating in the approval are beneficiaries of the insurance or arrangement.

ARTICLE VIII: CERTIFICATES

8.1 CERTIFICATES. Certificates in the form determined by the Manager shall be executed representing all Membership Interests then outstanding, as may change from time to time. Such certificates shall be consecutively numbered, and shall be entered in the books of the Company as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the class of membership, the Membership Interest, and such other matters as may be required by the laws of the State of Nevada. They shall be signed by a Manager or officer of the Company, and may be sealed with the seal of the Company if adopted. A Member has the right to possess the original certificate, provided, however, that the Manager may keep a copy of such certificate in the records of the Company.

8.2 REPLACEMENT OF LOST OR DESTROYED CERTIFICATE. The Manager may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the Company alleged to have been lost or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder of record thereof, or his duly authorized attorney or legal representative who is claiming the certificate to be lost or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Manager in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, may require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates or his legal representative to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require or to give the Company a bond with surety and in form satisfactory to the Company (which bond shall also name the Company's transfer agents and registrars, if any, as obligees) in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Company or other obligees with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed, or to both advertise and also give such bond.

8.3 TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST. Upon surrender to the Company or the transfer agent of the Company of a certificate for Membership Interest duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the Company to issue a new certificate to the Person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

8.4 REGISTERED MEMBERS. The Company shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any certificate or certificate of Membership interest of the Company as the owner thereof for all purposes and, accordingly shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such Membership interest or any rights deriving from such Membership Interest on the part of any other Person, including (but without limitation) a purchaser, assignee or transferee, unless and until such other Person becomes a Member, whether or not the Company shall have either actual or constructive notice of the interest of such Person, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE IX: TAXES

9.1 TAX RETURNS. The tax matters partner, as defined in Section 9.3, shall cause to be prepared and filed any necessary federal and state income tax returns for the Company, including making the elections described in Section 9.2. Each Member shall furnish to the tax matters partner all pertinent information in its possession relating to Company operations that is necessary to enable the Company's income tax returns to be prepared and filed.

9.2 TAX ELECTIONS. The Company may make the following elections on the appropriate tax returns:

- A. to adopt the calendar year as the Company's fiscal year;
- B. to adopt the cash method of accounting and to keep the Company's books and records on the income-tax method;
- C. if a distribution of Company property as described in §734 of the Code occurs or if a transfer of a Membership Interest as described in §743 of the Code occurs, on written request of any Member, to elect, pursuant to §754 of the Code, to adjust the basis of Company properties;
- D. to elect to amortize the organizational expenses of the Company and the start-up expenditures of the Company under §195 of the Code as permitted by §709(b) of the Code; and
- E. any other election the Manager may deem appropriate and in the best interests of the Members.

9.3 TAX MATTERS PARTNER. The Manager shall designate itself to be the "tax matters partner" of the Company pursuant to §6231(a)(7) of the Code. The tax matters partner shall take such action as may be necessary to cause each other Member to become a "notice partner" within the meaning of §6223 of the Code. Any Member who is designated tax matters partner shall inform each other Member of all significant matters that may come to its attention in its capacity as tax matters partner by giving notice thereof on or before the fifth Business Day after becoming aware thereof and, within that time, shall forward to each other Member copies of all significant written communications it may receive in that capacity. The tax matters partner may not take any action contemplated by §§6222 through 6232 of the Code without the consent of a majority of Members but this sentence does not authorize any action left to the determination of an individual Member under §§6222 through 6232 of the Code.

ARTICLE X: NOTICE

10.1 METHOD. Whenever by statute or the Articles or this Operating Agreement, notice is required to be given to any Member or the Manager, and no provision is made as to how the notice shall be given, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but any such notice may be given in writing, postage prepaid, addressed to the Manager or Member at the address appearing on the books of the Company, or in any other method permitted by law. Any notice required or permitted to be given by mail shall be deemed given at the time when the same is thus deposited in the United States mail.

10.2 WAIVER. Whenever, by statute or the Articles or this Operating Agreement, notice is required to be given to any Member or Manager, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the Person or Persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of the Manager or a Member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Manager or Member attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE XI: BANKRUPTCY OF A MEMBER

11.1 BANKRUPTCY. If any Member becomes a Bankrupt Member, the Company shall have the option, exercisable by notice from the Manager to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative) at any time prior to the 180th day after receipt of notice of the occurrence of the event causing it to become a Bankrupt Member, to buy, and on the exercise of this option the Bankrupt Member's bankruptcy estate (or the trustee thereof) shall sell, its Membership Interest to the Company. The purchase price shall be a dollar amount equal to the Class A Capital Contribution of the Bankrupt Member plus the remaining Class B capital account, if any, of that Bankrupt Member. The payment to be made to the Bankrupt Member or its estate pursuant to this Section is in complete liquidation and satisfaction of all the rights and interest of the Bankrupt Member and its estate (and of all Persons claiming through the Bankrupt Member and its estate) in and in respect to the Company, including, without limitation, any Membership Interest, any rights in specific Company property, and any rights against the Company and (insofar as the affairs of the Company are concerned) against the Members.

ARTICLE XII: DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION, AND TERMINATION

12.1 DISSOLUTION. The Company shall dissolve and its affairs shall be wound up on the written consent of all Members.

12.2 LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION. On dissolution of the Company, the Manager shall act as liquidator or may appoint one or more Members as liquidator. If there is no Manager then the Members by majority vote will appoint one or more Members as liquidator. The liquidator shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the Act. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidator shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Manager. The steps to be accomplished by the liquidator are as follows:

- A. as promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made by a recognized firm of certified public accountants of the Company's assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable;
- B. the liquidator shall provide written notice to be mailed to each known creditor of and claimant against the Company;
- C. the liquidator shall pay, satisfy or discharge from Company funds all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company (including, without limitation, all expenses incurred in liquidation) or otherwise make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof (including, without limitation, the establishment of a cash escrow fund for contingent liabilities in such amount and for such term as the liquidator may reasonably determine); and
- D. all remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members as follows:
  - (1) the liquidator may sell any or all Company property, including to Members, and any resulting gain or loss from each sale shall be computed and allocated to the capital accounts of the Members;
  - (2) with respect to all Company property that has not been sold, the fair market value of that property shall be determined and the capital accounts of the Members shall be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss, and deduction inherent in property that has not been reflected in the capital accounts previously would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of that property for the fair market value of that property on the date of distribution; and

- (3) Company property shall be distributed among the Members in accordance with the positive capital account balances of the Members, as determined after taking into account all capital account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the partnership occurs (other than those made by reason of this Clause (3)); and those distributions shall be made by the end of the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs (or, if later, 90 days after the date of the liquidation). All distributions in kind to the Members shall be made subject to the liability of each distributee for costs, expenses, and liabilities theretofore incurred or for which the Company has committed prior to the date of termination and those costs, expenses, and liabilities shall be allocated to the distributee pursuant to this Section 12.2. The distribution of cash and/or property to a Member in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12.2 constitutes a complete return to the Member of its Capital Contributions and a complete distribution to the Member of its Membership Interest and all the Company's property and constitutes a compromise to which all Members have consented. To the extent that a Member returns funds to the Company, it has no claim against any other Member for those funds.

12.3 DEFICIT CAPITAL ACCOUNTS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Operating Agreement, and notwithstanding any custom or rule of law to the contrary, to the extent that the deficit, if any, in the capital account of any Member results from or is attributable to deductions and losses of the Company (including non-cash items such as depreciation), or distributions of money pursuant to this Operating Agreement to all Members in proportion to their respective Capital Contributions, upon dissolution of the Company such deficit shall not be an asset of the Company and such Members shall not be obligated to contribute such amount to the Company to bring the balance of such Member's capital account to zero.

12.4 ARTICLES OF DISSOLUTION. On completion of the distribution of Company assets as provided herein, the Company is terminated, and the Manager or a Member shall file Articles of Dissolution with the Secretary of State of Nevada and take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company.

ARTICLE XIII: GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1 BOOKS AND RECORDS.

A. The Company shall maintain those books and records as provided by statute and as it may deem necessary or desirable. All books and records provided for by statute shall be open to inspection of the Members from time to time and to the extent expressly provided by statute. The Manager may examine all such books and records at all reasonable times. The Company shall keep and maintain the following records in its principal office in the United States or make them available in that office within five days after the date of receipt of a written request as may be specified in the Act:

- (1) a current list that states:
  - (a) the name and mailing address of each Member;
  - (b) the percentage or other interest in the Company owned by each Member; and
  - (c) if one or more classes or groups are established in or under the Articles or this Operating Agreement, the names of the Members who are Members of each specified class or group;
- (2) copies of the federal, state, and local information or income tax returns for the Company's six most recent tax years.
- (3) a copy of the Articles and this Operating Agreement, all amendments or restatements, executed copies of any powers of attorney, and copies of any document that creates, in the manner provided by the Articles or this Operating Agreement, classes or groups of Members;

- (4) unless contained in the Articles or this Operating Agreement, a written statement of:
  - (a) the amount of the cash contribution and a description and statement of the agreed value of any other contribution made by each Member, and the amount of the cash contribution and a description and statement of the agreed value of any other contribution that the Member has agreed to make in the future as an additional contribution;
  - (b) the times at which additional contributions are to be made or events requiring additional contributions to be made;
  - (c) events requiring the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up; and
  - (d) the date on which each Member in the Company became a Member; and
- (5) correct and complete books and records of accounts of the Company.

B. The Company shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

C. The Company shall keep in its registered office in Nevada and make available to Members on reasonable request the street address of its principal United States office in which the records required by this Section are maintained or will be available.

D. A Member, on written request stating the purpose, may examine and copy, in person or by the Member's representative, at any reasonable time, for any proper purpose, and at the Member's expense, records required to be kept under this Section and other information regarding the business, affairs, and financial condition of the Company as is just and reasonable for the Person to examine and copy.

E. On the written request by any Member, the Manager shall provide to the requesting Member or assignee, without charge, true copies of:

- (1) the Articles and this Operating Agreement and all amendments or restatements; and
- (2) any of the tax returns described in the Act.

13.2 AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION. This Operating Agreement may be amended or modified from time to time only by a written instrument adopted by the affirmative vote of 98% or more of the Class A Members.

13.3 CHECKS, NOTES, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Company shall be signed or endorsed by one or more designated Persons appointed by the Manager or Chief Financial Officer of the Company, if such officer position exists.

13.4 HEADINGS. The headings used in this Operating Agreement have been inserted for convenience only and do not constitute matter to be construed in interpretation.

13.5 CONSTRUCTION. Whenever the context so requires, the gender of all words used in this Operating Agreement includes the masculine, feminine, and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural, and conversely. All references to Articles and Sections refer to articles and sections of this Operating Agreement, and all references to Exhibits or Schedules, if any, are to Exhibits or Schedules attached hereto, if any, each of which is made a part hereof for all purposes. If any portion of this Operating Agreement shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible:

- A. The remainder of this Operating Agreement shall be considered valid and operative; and
- B. Effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

13.6 ENTIRE AGREEMENT; SUPERSEDURE. This Operating Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Members of the Company and supersedes all prior contracts or agreements with respect to the Company, whether oral or written.

13.7 EFFECT OF WAIVER OR CONSENT. A waiver or consent, express or implied, to or of any breach or default by any Person in the performance by that Person of its obligations with respect to the Company is not a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance by that Person of the same or any other obligations of that Person with respect to the Company. Failure on the part of a Person to complain of any act of any Person or to declare any Person in default with respect to the Company, irrespective of how long that failure continues, does not constitute a waiver by that Person of its rights with respect to that default until the applicable statute-of-limitations period has run.

13.8 BINDING EFFECT. Subject to the restrictions on Dispositions set forth in this Operating Agreement, this Operating Agreement is binding on and inures to the benefit of the Members and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

13.9 DISPUTE RESOLUTION - BINDING ARBITRATION ELECTION. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof shall solely be settled by arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The parties specifically waive any rights to litigation as a dispute resolution methodology and further divest any Court of jurisdiction to determine disputes between the parties to this Agreement. Notwithstanding, judgment on the arbitrator's award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitration shall be held in the City of Las Vegas and State of Nevada, in the English language, and shall be conducted before three arbitrators, wherein the party calling for arbitration selects one arbiter, the party defending selects one arbiter and the arbiters select a third, agreeable to the parties or, if no agreement can be reached, then selected by the AAA. All costs related to the arbitration shall initially be borne by the aggrieved party. The arbitrators shall make findings of fact and law in writing in support of his decision, and shall award reimbursement of attorney's fees and other costs of arbitration to the prevailing party as the arbitrator deems appropriate. The provisions hereof shall not preclude any party from seeking post arbitration injunctive relief to protect or enforce its rights hereunder, or prohibit any court from making findings of fact in connection with granting or denying such injunctive relief after and in accordance with the decision of the arbitrator. No decision of the arbitrator shall be subject to judicial review or appeal; the parties waive any and all rights of judicial appeal or review, on any ground, of any decision of the arbitrator.

13.10 LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION. Should any party initiate a civil proceeding against any other, notwithstanding the binding arbitration provision above, such party initiating civil litigation shall recognize that it has caused material damage and harm to the other by way of their breach of this agreement, and agrees to provide to the named defendant party, liquidated damages in the amount of any costs of defense incurred by the aggrieved party plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).

13.11 GOVERNING LAW; SEVERABILITY. THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT IS GOVERNED BY AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, EXCLUDING ANY CONFLICT-OF-LAWS RULE OR PRINCIPLE THAT MIGHT REFER THE GOVERNANCE OR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT TO THE LAW OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION. In the event of a direct conflict between the provisions of this Operating Agreement and (a) any provision of the Articles, or (b) any mandatory provision of the Act, the applicable provision of the Act shall control. If any provision of this Operating Agreement or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Operating Agreement and the application of that provision to other Persons or circumstances is not affected thereby and that provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

13.12 FURTHER ASSURANCES. In connection with this Operating Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each Member shall execute and deliver any additional documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and perform the provisions of this Operating Agreement and those transactions.

13.13 NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. By executing this Operating Agreement, each Member acknowledges that it has actual notice of: (a) all of the provisions of this Operating Agreement, including, without limitation, the restrictions on the transfer of Membership Interests set forth in Article III; and (b) all of the provisions of the Articles. Each Member hereby agrees that this Operating Agreement constitutes adequate notice of all such provisions, including, without limitation, any notice requirement under the Chapter 86 of the Nevada Revised Statutes and under the Nevada Uniform Commercial Code, and each Member hereby waives any requirement that any further notice thereunder be given.

Vesting Letter

[to be attached]

First 100, LLC
Tivoli Village at Queens Ridge
410 S. Rampart Blvd., Suite 450
Las Vegas, NV 89145

October 18, 2013

Re: Vesting Terms for 1.5% Class A Voting Membership Interest Grant to TGC/Farkas Funding LLC.

Dear TGC/Farkas Funding LLC:

The Executive Committee of Directors of First 100, LLC (the "Company") at its April 26, 2012 meeting, undertook a review of its policies regarding employee equity compensation in connection with continued employment with the Company. Based on that review and in order to provide its employees with appropriate equity compensation as incentive to continue their employment with the company, the Executive Committee of the Board has concluded that all Membership Interest Incentive grants with certain employees, as may be awarded by the Board, is to provide employees with a specified amount of Membership Interest which will vest under certain circumstances as defined herein.

Summary of the Vesting Terms.

A description of the Vesting Terms for Membership Interests grants is as follows.

Each of your existing and any future Membership Interest Incentive grants that may be awarded to you will provide that, such Membership Interest Incentive granted shall vest at a rate of 1/3 of any such position per year for three (3) years of continuous employment, with such Vesting Term commencing on the hire date of Matthew Farkas of August 28, 2013.

In the event that you resign, any unvested Membership Interest Incentive granted is subject to forfeiture and will be surrendered back to the company, being deemed as unearned.

In the event that your employment is terminated without cause (including poor performance) or you otherwise resign within 12 months after the Company is acquired, then vesting under each Membership Interest Incentive granted will automatically accelerate to reflect 100% vesting in any such grant, notwithstanding any outstanding vesting period remaining. Such vesting acceleration will also be automatically provided in the event that the corporation that acquires the Company elects not to assume or otherwise substitute equivalent equity for the unvested portion of the Membership Interest Incentive granted.

In the event of forfeiture of a Membership Interest Incentive grant, the total percentage of vested Membership Interest will be equal to the sum of all Membership Interest vested through the time of termination of employment which is the number of whole years that you have been continuously employed by the Company (and the Company's successor, if applicable).

An example of the operation of this accelerated vesting is as follows: Assume that an employee who was hired on January 1, 2013 has a total of 3% Membership Interest Incentive grant in Class A voting equity and the employee is terminated without cause on February 28, 2014. In that hypothetical case, 14 months would have passed from the date that the employee was hired until his/her termination. Without vesting acceleration, the employee shall be subject to forfeiture of 2% of the Membership Interest, retaining 1% of the Membership Interest. Should vesting acceleration be applicable here (and in lieu of regular vesting) the employee would retain the entirety of the 3% Membership Interest.

During the vesting period, any unvested Membership Interest Incentive grant's voting rights shall be voted by the Board.

Please sign below where indicated to confirm your acceptance of the foregoing Vesting Terms for any such Membership Interest Incentive grant as may be held by you. By signing below, you and the Company also agree that:

(a) Other than as expressly stated in this letter agreement, the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement remain in full force and effect.

(b) This letter, together with any Membership Interest Incentive grant held by you (or that may be awarded to you in the future) sets forth the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements and undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof, however, remains subject to the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement, as amended, as the controlling document.

Very Truly Yours,

Agreed and Accepted

Dear Matthew Farkas,

Let this letter serve as a memorial to an agreement stating the following:

The directorship of First 100, LLC has granted a 2% equity position in the company for services rendered in the VP of Finance position to Matthew Farkas, and by extension, the TGC Partnership between Matthew Farkas and Adam Flatto.

The 1% purchase for $1,000,000 by Adam Flatto will be pooled with this position to make a total position of 3% ownership.

Matthew Farkas (with the consent of the board) has offered to split this position with Adam Flatto on a 50%/50% basis. This will leave Matthew with a 1.5% position in First 100, LLC and Adam Flatto with an identical 1.5% position with First 100, LLC.

DECLARATION OF JAY BLOOM

I, JAY BLOOM, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen (18) and I have personal knowledge of all the facts set forth herein. Except otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge, my review of the relevant documents, and my opinion of the matters that are the issues of this lawsuit. If called to do so, I would competently and truthfully testify to all matters set forth herein, except for those matters stated to be based upon information and belief.

2. This affidavit is made with respect to Case Number A-20-822273-C.

3. On or about October 17, 2013, Matthew Farkas, as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, signed a Subscription Agreement with 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC on behalf of and in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. (See Exhibit C-1)

4. On or about April 14, 2017, Matthew Farkas, as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC signed a redemption of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's membership interest in 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC, on behalf of and in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. (See Exhibit C-2)

5. From inception, First 100's only contact with TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC was exclusively through Matthew Farkas as it's Manager.

6. Upon information and belief, sometime prior to 2012, Matthew Farkas was terminated from his employment prior to First 100, was evicted from his apartment in New York, and was living with his wife and son in his mother's apartment in New York.

7. First 100 hired Matthew Farkas, initially as its CFO in 2013, and later reclassified his employment as Vice President of Finance.

8. As such, at all relevant times, Matthew Farkas was both a Manager and Member of plaintiff TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as well as an officer and Member of First 100.

9. Matthew Farkas was, at all times, a signer on all First 100 bank accounts, and as such, had full access to the books and records of First 100 as the Manager of the plaintiff, TGC/Farkas.

10. I negotiated the settlement in this case with Matthew Farkas directly in what both

1 Matthew Farkas and I believed to be in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as we
2 both desired that there be no more litigation.

3 11. Matthew Farkas represented to me up to and through January 11, 2021, that he had 4 never resigned his position as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. I reasonably relied upon this 5 representation, and I recalled seeing the declaration from Adam Flatto from August 2020 in the 6 underlying arbitration matter, where Mr. Flatto had confirmed that Mr. Farkas was the Manager of 7 TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC which added to my reasonable belief that Mr. Farkas had authority to sign
8 a settlement agreement on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. This is why I agreed to settle the 9 case with Mr. Farkas instead of reaching out to negotiate with Adam Flatto of TGC 100 Investor,
10 LLC, the other member of TGC/Farkas Funding, as I wanted to deal with the member that actually 11 had authority to bind TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

12 12. Matthew Farkas told me that he signed the August 2020 Declaration on behalf of 13 TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC in the Arbitration, as well as the Garman Turner Gordon ("GTG") retainer,
14 under duress because Adam Flatto told him that he "had one hour to sign the papers or be sued."

15 13. On or about the end of August 2020, Matthew Farkas told me that he signed the August
16 2020 Flatto papers consisting solely of a Declaration for Flatto's use in Arbitration, using the language
17 that he did so "under duress."

18 14. Matthew Farkas told me that he never met with the GTG firm prior to their 19 engagement, never discussed engaging counsel, nor had any conversations relating to engaging this 20 firm for the purposes of representation of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

21 15. Matthew Farkas told me as recently as January 11, 2021, that he had no recollection or 22 knowledge of resigning his position as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

23 16. In fact, Matthew Farkas told me that his conversations with his fellow member in 24 TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC related solely to his intentions not to engage counsel and that he wanted
25 no part of any litigation, against First 100 or otherwise.

26 17. Matthew Farkas told me that in his capacity as sole Managing Member and 50% owner
27 of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, he had terminated GTG from further representation of TGC/Farkas
28 Funding, LLC.

1           18.     Matthew Farkas retained the Law Firm of Raffi Nahabedian to substitute in as Counsel
2 for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

3           19.     On or about January 9, 2021, during a telephone conference with TGC/Farkas Funding,
4 LLC counsel, Raffi Nahabedian, Esq., Joseph Gutierrez, Esq., and myself, Matthew Farkas continued
5 to state that he has no recollection of resigning his position as Manager, but he would check his emails.

6           20.     It was not until on or about January 10, 2021, that Matthew Farkas, for the first time,
7 say that he found an email where he signed a September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas
8 Funding, LLC Operating Agreement.

9           21.     On or about January 11, 2021, Matthew Farkas told me that he signed such document
10 under duress, that he has not read the September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC
11 Operating Agreement, and did not realize that he had resigned his position until he found the email
12 and read the Amendment for the first time on or about January 11, 2021.

13           22.     At all relevant times, I understood Matthew Farkas to have the authority to sign the 14 Settlement Agreement based on:

- 15                   a.   Matthew Farkas' being the signer, as Manager, of the TGC/Farkas Funding, 16                        LLC Subscription Agreement,
- 17                   b.   Matthew Farkas' being the signer, as Manager, of the TGC/Farkas Funding, 18                        LLC Redemption Agreement,
- 19                   c.   Matthew Farkas signing the Settlement Agreement in this case in the same 20                        capacity.

21           23.     At no time prior to Matthew Farkas' execution of the Settlement Agreement did he 22 ever represent that he was no longer the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

23           24.     At no time prior to Matthew Farkas' execution of the Settlement Agreement did the 24 entity TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC ever represent or otherwise notify First 100 that Matthew Farkas
25 was no longer the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, and that First 100 should be communicating 26 with any other person or entity.

27           25.     It is now clear to me that Matthew Farkas didn't even know what he was signing when 28 he signed the August 2020 Declaration for TCG/Farkas or the September Amendment to the

1 TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement, as he told me that he didn't read what Adam Flatto
2 threatened him to sign, and therefore didn't know himself that he may not have been the Manager of 3 TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC at the time he entered into the Settlement Agreement.

4 26. Given the history of how Matthew Farkas has been bullied by his partner through GTG
5 with signing documents, without counsel, that he didn't read or understand under threat of litigation
6 by Adam Flatto, I believe that once again, when an attorney from GTG appeared at his house on a
7 recent Saturday morning, with a prepared Declaration for his signature, for which I do not believe
8 Matthew Farkas participated in the preparation, and for which Matthew Farkas did not have counsel
9 present individually to review said Declaration, that Matthew Farkas was once again threatened into 10 signing a document without reading or understanding.

11 27. After having reviewed the transcript of the telephone call between Matthew Farkas and 12 a GTG attorney, I spoke directly with Matthew Farkas and asked why he had lied during the call.

13 28. Matthew Farkas told to me that the GTG attorney got him very angry by lying to him
14 because he incorrectly believed that what he signed inadvertently extinguished a $1,000,000
15 investment, which is categorically false.

16 29. Matthew Farkas further told me that the statements he made during the call about me
17 were in anger and frustration after the GTG had lied to him, and that such statements were reactionary 18 and not really true.

19 30. On page 25, Lines 20 and 21, Dylan Ciciliano, Esq., told to Farkas that 20 "Well, I mean, it's bad. If they win on the motion and force settlement, they extinguish 21 a million-dollar investment."

22 31. However, in the Settlement Agreement, it clearly states:

23 NOW, THEREFORE, 1st 100 and the TGC hereby represent, warrant and agree as 24 follows:

25 1. 1st 100 agrees the TGC is currently owed $1,000,000.00 plus 6% per annum since the date of investment, and this amount is secured by the Judgment;

26 2. 1st 100 will pay the amount owed to the TGC as follows:

27 a. Concurrent with its collection of proceeds from the sale of its Award, 1st 100 and/or F100 will cause to pay $1,000,000 plus 6% interest accrued from the date of investment to TGC/Farkas;

28 3. Interest will continue to accrue on the balance until such time of payment;

5. Upon execution of the Agreement, TGC will file a dismissal with prejudice of the current actions related to this matter, including the arbitration award and all relation motions and actions pending in the District Court;

32. Dylan Ciciliano's statement is patently false on its face, and served its intended purpose of inciting Matthew Farkas into making false statements about me.

33. Matthew Farkas admitted to me that the statements made during the call were made out of anger and were not true.

34. It is my belief that the Declaration signed by Matthew Farkas is yet another document signed without being read, under duress, and such statements contravene Matthew Farkas' statements made directly to me and everyone else.

35. At no time has First 100 ever been notified by Matthew Farkas, Adam Flatto, or TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as to any change in Management.

36. Given Matthew Farkas was the signer, in his capacity of Manager, for both the initial Subscription Agreement, the Redemption Agreement and the Settlement Agreement, and no person or entity has ever indicated or notified First 100 that there was a change in Management, both Matthew Farkas and I believed that Matthew Farkas continued to have the authority to sign the settlement agreement which he negotiated on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States of America and the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

The foregoing representations and warranties are true and accurate as of the date hereof, shall be true and accurate as of the date of delivery of this Subscription Agreement and the other Offering Documents to the Company and shall survive that delivery. If, in any respect, those representations and warranties shall not be true and accurate prior to delivery of the payment pursuant to paragraph 1, the undersigned shall immediately give written notice to the Company specifying which representations and warranties are not true and accurate and the reason therefor.

All representations, warranties, covenants and acknowledgments contained in this Subscription Agreement and in the Subscriber Questionnaire and the indemnification contained in this paragraph 5 shall survive the acceptance of this subscription.

6. Modification. Neither this Subscription Agreement nor any provision hereof shall be modified, changed, discharged or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom any waiver, change, discharge or termination is sought.

14. Blue Sky Qualification.
