ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING MOTION IN PART

Respondent Precision Assets, LLC, has filed a motion for a 60-day extension of time to file an answering brief based on having just retained new counsel. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). The motion is opposed. Respondent Acry Development, LLC has filed an untimely motion for an extension of time to file a joinder in Precision Assets' motion. Acry's motion is granted. The joinder was filed on September 27, 2022.

Having considered the arguments of the parties, the motion for an extension of time to file the answering brief(s) is granted to the following extent. Precision Assets shall have 30 days from the date of this order, to file and serve its answering brief. Within the same time period, Acry shall file and serve its answering brief or a joinder in Precision Assets answering brief. Failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions, including the resolution of this appeal without an answering brief from Precision Assets and Acry. See NRAP 31(d).

It is so ORDERED.<sup>1</sup>
