DEPARTMENT 10

V,

WESLEY RUSCH ET AL.

DEFENDANT

Notice is hereby given that Wesley Rusch Defendant hereby appeals from the order entered in the court on May 25, 2022

BY /S/ Wesley Rusch
WESLEY RUSCH
Defendant

Out Home was sold by Red Rock on behalf of the Martin Condominium Unit Owners Association in VIOLATION OF NEVADA LAW and Constitutional Right of Due Process of Law and therefore the SALE IS NULL AND VOID. Therefore the Unlawful Detainer Action ("UD") is also void as there was not a valid sale of our home. The UD must be reversed as it is null and void.

Rusch and Longboy (“Rusch”) hereby request the return of their Martin Condominium that was illegally sold by Red Rock on behalf of the Martin Condominium Unit Owners Association in violation of Nevada constitutional due right of process of law.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

HOA Boards Beware: Nevada Courts Require Strict Statutory Compliance to Lien and Foreclose

Collecting assessments is a vital function to fund the HOA’s activities. It is unfair for some owners to avoid paying their fair share, and to have the other owners shoulder their burden. Recognizing this, the Legislature has granted Nevada HOAs the powerful tools to lien and foreclose under the Act. However, with those powerful tools comes the obligation to closely comply with each and every requirement of the Act. it is implicit that HOAs must also closely follow their own governing documents (CC&Rs, Bylaws, rules and policies), including adopting and following collection policies, in pursuing collection activities authorized under the Act.

Because of the technical nature of the Act and the courts’ apparent deference to err in favor of due process protections for HOA owners (not too dissimilar from the protections typically afforded to California tenants in unlawful detainer proceedings), the Act is fertile ground for mistakes. These recent cases make clear that even minor or technical violations can invalidate the lien and foreclosure process.

Please note the following court case:

G.R. No. 200969, August 03, 2015 - CONSOLACION D. ROMERO AND ROSARIO S.D. DOMINGO, Petitioners, v. ENGRACIA D. SINGSON, Respondent.

SECOND DIVISION

G.R. No. 200969, August 03, 2015

CONSOLACION D. ROMERO AND ROSARIO S.D. DOMINGO, Petitioners,
v. ENGRACIA D. SINGSON, Respondent.

When the deed of sale in favor of respondent was purportedly executed by the parties thereto and notarized on June 6, 2006, it is perfectly obvious that the signatures of the vendors therein, Macario and Felicidad, were forged. They could not have signed the same, because both were by then long deceased: Macario died on February 22, 1981, while Felicidad passed away on September 14, 1997. This makes the June 6, 2006 deed of sale null and void; being so, it is "equivalent to nothing"; it produces no civil effect; and it does not create, modify or extinguish a juridical relation."

And while it is true that respondent has in her favor a Torrens title over the subject property, she nonetheless acquired no right or title in her favor by virtue of the null and void June 6, 2006 deed. "Verily, when the instrument presented is forged, even if accompanied by the owner's duplicate certificate of title, the registered owner does not thereby lose his title, and neither does the assignee in the forged deed acquire any right or title to the property."<sup>35</sup>

In sum, the fact that respondent has in her favor a certificate of title is of no moment; her title cannot be used to validate the forgery or cure the void sale. As has been held in the past:

Insofar as a person who fraudulently obtained a property is concerned, the registration of the property in said person's name would not be sufficient to vest in him or her the title to the property. A certificate of title merely confirms or records title already existing and vested. The indefeasibility of the Torrens title should not be used as a means to perpetrate fraud against the rightful owner of real property. Good faith must concur with registration because, otherwise, registration would be an exercise in futility. A Torrens title does not furnish a shield for fraud, notwithstanding the long-standing rule that registration is a constructive notice of title binding upon the whole world. The legal principle is that if the registration of the land is fraudulent, the person in whose name the land is registered holds it as a mere trustee.<sup>36</sup> (Emphasis supplied)<sup>36</sup> Spouses Reyes v. Montemayor, 614 Phil. 256, 274-275 (2009) UD

Since respondent acquired no right over the subject property, the same remained in the name of the original registered owners, Macario and Felicidad. Being heirs of the owners, petitioners and respondent thus became, and remain co-owners - by succession - of the subject property. As such, petitioners may exercise all attributes of ownership over the same, including possession - whether de facto or de jure; respondent thus has no right to exclude them from this right through an action for ejectment.

In contrast to RM Lifestyles and Reynolds are two cases cited by Defendants. First, in an early Utah Supreme Court case, the court held a trust sale void where it was not performed by the person authorized under the deed of trust:

The deed of trust authorized the sale to be made by the United States Marshal. This was not done. One of his deputies made the sale as auctioneer. It is not claimed that he acted as deputy, but simply that a person who was a deputy acted as the auctioneer. Nor do we think that the marshal could have acted by deputy, unless the deed of trust had shown express authority to the effect, which it did not do. The fact that no injury or fraud in the sale has been shown, does not affect the question. Nor is it affected by the fact, that the purchaser was an innocent party.

The sale was made by one not authorized to make it. and cannot be upheld. It is simply void. and no one gains any rights under it.

A purchaser must know that the sale is made by the proper person. The deed of trust shows who could make the sale. A trustee can no doubt employ an auctioneer to act for him in crying off the property; but the trustee must be present and superintend the sale. The trustee in the present instance says that he does not think he was present at the sale.

Sinper Mfg. Co. v. Chalmers, 2 Utah 542, 546-47 (Utah Terr. 1880) (emphasis added).

More recently, the Court of Appeals affirmed a trial court ruling that a nonjudicial foreclosure sale for delinquent assessments owed to a condominium association was void where the sale was conducted by the association's attorney because "[t]he record reveal[ed] that, though its attorney may have qualified as a trustee under the Trust Deed Act, the Association failed to appoint its attorney as such." McQueen v. Jordan Pines Townhomes Owners Ass'n, Inc., 2013 UT App 53, ¶¶ 19-21 & 28, 298 P.3d 666.

Failure to send notice of sale as per Tex. Prop. Code § 51.002 is sufficient reason for a trial court to set aside a foreclosure sale and hold the sale to be void. Shearer v.

Sometimes homeowners aren't aware that a foreclosure sale has been scheduled until after it's already been completed. Even if your home has been sold, you might be able to invalidate the sale.

Sale of Rusch condo is void

If the property was foreclosed non judicially, the homeowner will usually have to file a lawsuit in state court to void the sale.

Reasons a Foreclosure Sale May Be Set Aside

Generally, to set aside a foreclosure sale, the homeowner must show:

irregularity in the foreclosure process that makes the sale void under state law

Irregularity in the Foreclosure Process

State statutes lay out the procedures for a foreclosure. If there are irregularities in the foreclosure process—meaning, the foreclosure is conducted in a manner not authorized by the statute—the sale can be invalidated

The Martin HOA's agent Red Rock did not comply with NRS 116.31162 et seq and CCR 17.2 when they sold Rusch and Longboy's home

Notice of Delinquent Assessments

Before starting the foreclosure, the HOA must mail a notice of delinquent assessment to the homeowner, which states:

the amount of the assessments and other sums that are due

a description of the unit against which the lien is imposed, and the name of the record owner of the unit. (Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31162).

NRS 116.31162 specifically provides that: Foreclosure of liens: Mailing of notice of delinquent assessment; recording of notice of default and election to sell; period during which unit's owner may pay lien to avoid foreclosure; limitations on type of lien that may be foreclosed.

Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, in a condominium, in a planned community, in a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is real estate under NRS 116.1105, or in a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is personal property under NRS 116.1105 and the declaration provides that a lien may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive, the association may foreclose its lien by sale after all of the following occur:

(a) The association has mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the unit's owner or his or her successor in interest, at his or her address, if known, and at the address of the unit, a notice of delinquent assessment which states the amount of the assessments and other sums which are due The Martin Failed to do this. in accordance with subsection 1 of NRS 116.3116, a description of the unit against which the lien is imposed and the name of the record owner of the unit.

(b) Not less than 30 days after mailing the notice of delinquent assessment pursuant to paragraph (a), the association or other person conducting the sale has executed and caused to be recorded, with the county recorder of the county The Martin failed to do this in which the common-interest community or any part of it is situated, a notice of default and election to sell the unit to satisfy the lien which must contain the same information as the notice of delinquent assessment and which must also comply with the following:

(1) Describe the deficiency in payment.

(2) State the name and address of the person authorized by the association to enforce the lien by sale.

(3) Contain, in 14-point bold type, the following warning:

WARNING! IF YOU FAIL TO PAY THE AMOUNT SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE,
YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME, EVEN IF THE AMOUNT IS IN DISPUTE

(c) The unit's owner or his or her successor in interest has failed to pay the amount of the lien, including costs, fees and expenses incident to its enforcement, for 90 days following the recording of the notice of default and election to sell.

2. The notice of default and election to sell must be signed by the person designated in the declaration or by the association for that purpose or, if no one is designated, by the president of the association.

3. The period of 90 days begins on the first day following:

(a) The date on which the notice of default is recorded; or

(b) The date on which a copy of the notice of default is mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the unit's owner or his or her successor in interest at his or her address, if known, and at the address of the unit, whichever date occurs later.

4. The association may not foreclose a lien by sale based on a fine or penalty for a violation of the governing documents of the association unless:

(a) The violation poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community; or

(b) The penalty is imposed for failure to adhere to a schedule required pursuant to NRS 116.310305.

(Added to NRS by 1991, 569; A 1993, 2371; 1997, 3121; 1999, 3011; 2003, 2244, 2273; 2005, 2608)

No Notice of the August 10 Sale as required by Nevada Law

Rusch did not receive any written or oral notice of a proposed sale of his property . Rusch first learned of the sale by a call from an attorney's office. Therefore the sale was illegal and must be reversed.

Declaration of Wesley A Rusch

Declarant has personal knowledge of the following and being deposed and sworn states under penalty of perjury under the Laws of the State of Nevada, as follow:

I am over the age of Eighteen.

That myself and Oliver B Longboy, are the two individuals who purchased the real property commonly known as 4471 Dean Martin, Apt 2206, Las Vegas NV 89103.

We own no other property and have no other place to live.

Hollyvale Rental Holdings, LLC is based on information and belief an entity that speculates in real estate. They are not a real person and do not need a place to live.

On the other hand Rusch and Longboy are two individuals who are two real people who need a place to live.

Neither Rusch or Longboy received any notice of any proposed or ported auction of their property for August 10, 2017. Red Rock as agent for the Martin violated Nevada law by selling their property without complying with Nevada law. The sale therefore must be voided and rescinded and the property returned to its rightful owners Rusch and Longboy.

Our real property was sold at auction purportedly for delinquent HOA fees on August 10, 2017. When in fact the Martin owed Rusch more than the HOA fees. On about June 29 a sprinkler pipe broke in the unit at the end of the 22nd floor causing water to flow down the hallway and into Rusch's unit.. According to Nigro there was water in Rusch's walls that had to be replaced. The Martin failed to mitigate the damage by not opening the sliding glass door to allow the water to flow down the side of the building instead of down the hall. The Martin also let the water flow for several hours before turning off the water. Had the Martin done either of the foregoing Rusch's Condo would not have suffered damage. As a consequence, Rusch was required to relocate for nearly four months while Nigro repaired his unit. Nigro did not even complete the job and Rusch had to hire his own contractor to complete the job. Rusch incurred expenses in excess of $25,000 as a result thereof. Rusch therefore claims that amount as a an offset to his HOA fess and therefore does not own the Martin any money and in fact the Martin owes Rusch money.

That neither myself nor Oliver B Longboy had received any notice of the impending HOA sale of our real property.

WESLEY A RUSCH

The sales of Rusch's condo was in violation of Nevada Law. Red Rock was required to comply with Nevada Law and they did not therefore the sale is VOID and the sale must be reversed and Rusch must be returned to his condo. Therefore the posession of the Martin condo must be restored to Rusch and Longboy immediately No Notice of the August 10 Sale as required by Nevada Law

Court noted on April 23, 2018, Deft. filed motion to proceed in forma pauperis and motion setting aside was returned to Deft. Rusch. Deft. Rusch stated Pltf. not real property in interest and argued property has been transferred. Mr. Nelson stated he received Justice Court pleadings, have communicated with Deft's counsel, Brian Nadafi, since January on this matter. Mr. Nadafi filed another case against HOA. Further, Mr. Nadafi has not confirmed as counsel in this matter and advised they have stipulated to default.

As Bryan Nadafi was not counsel in this case he could not stipulate to default. This is a fraud on the court.

and argued property has been transferred. Mr. Nelson stated he received Justice Court pleadings, have communicated with Deft's counsel, Brian Nadafi, since January on this matter. Mr. Nadafi filed another case against HOA. Further, Mr. Nadafi has not confirmed as counsel in this matter and advised they have stipulated to default. COURT ORDERED, default judgment GRANTED and quiet title in favor of Pltf. Mr. Nelson advised he was not able to pull motion to proceed in forma pauperis, argued Deft. claiming indigent status but are sitting on excess money from sale. Colloquy. Motion to Set Aside (9:30 AM) (Judicial Officer: Jones, Tierra)

Defendant Wesley Rusch's Pro Per Rule 60(B) Motion to Set Aside Default and Restore Possession of the Condo to Its Rightful Owners Rusch and Longboy
Case Closed;
Journal Entry Details:
Court noted last time the Court instructed Mr. Rusch to seek leave of Court before he filed further motions because this Court has ruled on the same thing five times, and this would be the sixth time. Statements by Mr. Rusch, advising this case is not resolved, and that he didn't receive that order. Further, counsel keeps sending their pleadings to the Martin address and it gets forwarded and he's not getting his mail timely. Court noted defendant Rusch was here last time when the Court made the Order, so he knew. Further, there was a default entered in this case and that does resolve this case. Further, the Court has no jurisdiction in the other case in department 29. COURT ORDERED, based on default that was entered under Rule 54 (b), this case is ORDERED, CLOSED. FURTHER, there will be no more motions filed in this case, because this case is closed.;

Defendant Rusch Request to Nullify Sale Based on Violation of Nevada Law and Constitutional Right of Due Process and Restore Possession of the Condo to it's Rightful Owners Rusch and Longboy and Reverse UD
Motion Denied; Defendant Rusch Request to Nullify Sale Based on Violation of Nevada Law and Constitutional Right of Due Process and Restore Possession of the Condo to it's Rightful Owners Rusch and Longboy and Reverse UD
Journal Entry Details:
Court advised it reviewed the history of this case and it came to her attention Judge Jones ordered Defendant not to file any additional motions. Court will allow Defendant to argue; however, it was the same argument. Mr. Rusch stated his condo was sold without any notice;

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. A-17-764643-C

therefore the sale was nullified. They learned of the sale from a call by an attorney. They had no notice whatsoever and under Nevada law there are strict requirements that must be met. Mr. Trout stated this argument was already brought and rejected by the Court. Court addressed findings from the prior Court and based on that there were no new facts or law presented to this Court; therefore, Court treated this as a Motion to Reconsider. COURT ORDERED, Defendant's request DENIED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, request for sanctions DENIED. COURT ADMONISHED Defendant not to file any more motions without leave of the Court, with regard to the same issues that have already been litigated; otherwise, the Court will entertain sanctions. Mr. Trout to prepare Order and include issue of not filing additional motions without leave of the Court. ;

- Court noted last time the Court instructed Mr. Rusch to seek leave of Court before he filed further motions because this Court has ruled on the same thing five times, and this would be the sixth time. Statements by Mr. Rusch, advising this case is not resolved, and that he didn't receive that order. Further, counsel keeps sending their pleadings to the Martin address and it gets forwarded and he's not getting his mail timely. Court noted defendant Rusch was here last time when the Court made the Order, so he knew. Further, there was a default entered in this case and that does resolve this case. Further, the Court has no jurisdiction in the other case in department 29. COURT ORDERED, based on default that was entered under Rule 54 (b), this case is ORDERED, CLOSED. FURTHER, there will be no more motions filed in this case, because this case is closed.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Court advised it reviewed the history of this case and it came to her attention Judge Jones ordered Defendant not to file any additional motions. Court will allow Defendant to argue; however, it was the same argument. Mr. Rusch stated his condo was sold without any notice; therefore the sale was nullified. They learned of the sale from a call by an attorney. They had no notice whatsoever and under Nevada law there are strict requirements that must be met. Mr. Trout stated this argument was already brought and rejected by the Court. Court addressed findings from the prior Court and based on that there were no new facts or law presented to this Court; therefore, Court treated this as a Motion to Reconsider. COURT ORDERED, Defendant's request DENIED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, request for sanctions DENIED. COURT ADMONISHED Defendant not to file any more motions without leave of the Court, with regard to the same issues that have already been litigated; otherwise, the Court will entertain sanctions. Mr. Trout to prepare Order and include issue of not filing additional motions without leave of the Court.
