CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

Appellant has filed a renewed pro se “emergency” motion to stay the remittitur pending application to the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of certiorari.¹ Pursuant to appellant’s prior motion, this court entered an order on August 9, 2002, staying issuance of the remittitur in this matter until November 30, 2022. Accordingly, the instant motion is denied as moot.

It is so ORDERED.

 P.J.

cc: Matthew Travis Houston
Bernstein & Poisson

¹The motion does not comply with NRAP 27(e), which governs emergency motions, and does not explain why emergency relief is necessary. Accordingly, the motion was handled in the ordinary course.

The motion also lacks a certificate of service. See NRAP 25(d). This court waives the requirement to file proof of service in this instance. See NRAP 2. However, appellant is reminded that he is required to provide proof of service for all papers filed in this court. Future failure to comply may result in this court declining to take action on appellant’s filings. See NRAP 25(d)(3).
