DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed a “motion to compel” seeking to compel the correction and completion of the record in this case. Any challenges to the trial record must be raised in the district court. NRAP 10(c) (“If any difference arises about whether the trial court record truly discloses what occurred in the district court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court . . .”). Accordingly, the motion is denied.

It is so ORDERED.
