Gross monthly income is the income received from all sources. If you do not know the parent's gross monthly income, you can calculate the number with the formula on the last page.

② Determine Child Support Obligation.

*To Determine a Parent's Employment Income:

If you do not know a parent's gross monthly income from employment, you can calculate the number if you know the 1) hourly wage, 2) weekly income, or 3) annual income.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
LEGAL ARGUMENT

When determining physical custody of a child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the minor child. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider: a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her custody; b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent; c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent; d) The level of conflict between the parents; e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child; f) The mental and physical health of the parents; g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child; h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent; i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling; j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child; k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child; and l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child. NRS 125C.0035.

There is a presumption that joint physical custody and joint legal custody would be in the best interest of the child if: 1) the parents have so agreed; or 2) a parent has demonstrated, or attempted to demonstrate but had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the child. NRS 125C.0025. A court may award one parent primary physical custody if it determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of the child. NRS 125C.003.

The court shall also determine child support under NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080. A noncustodial parent shall pay the following percentage of gross monthly income:

- For one child, 18% of gross monthly income;
- For two children, 25% of gross monthly income;
- For three children, 29% of gross monthly income; and
- For each additional child, an additional 2% of gross monthly income.

A parent must pay a minimum of $100 per child, per month in child support. The maximum amount to be paid per month per child varies according to the parent's income. The court can deviate from the amounts above based on the factors listed in NRS 125B.080.

In a pending divorce case, the court may order one spouse to pay temporary spousal support to the other spouse. NRS 125.040. The court may also make orders affecting the property of the parties, including awarding one spouse temporary exclusive possession of the community residence. NRS 125.040 and EDCR 5.21.

FACTS AND ARGUMENT

1. Number of Minor Children. The parties have (number) 4 minor children in common.
2. Paternity. ( check one)
  - Paternity is not disputed.
  - Paternity needs to be determined.  A DNA test is requested.

3. Children's Residency. The minor children's names, dates of birth, states and lengths of residence are as follows:

| Child's Name:      | Date of Birth | State of Residence: | How long child has lived in the state: | Disability |
|--------------------|---------------|---------------------|--|------------|
| Abigail Williams   | 10/27/04      | Nevada              | 4                                      | No         |
| Herman II Williams | 8/24/08       | Nevada              | 4                                      | NO         |
| Matthew Williams   | 5/13/10       | Nevada              | 4                                      | NO         |

4. Jurisdiction. ( check one)

The children are residents of Nevada and have lived in Nevada for at least the past 6 months. This Court has the necessary UCCJEA jurisdiction to enter custody orders.

The children have not lived in Nevada for the past 6 months, however, Nevada should take jurisdiction over custody because: (explain why Nevada is the proper state to issue custody orders): _____

A. Request for Temporary Custody and Visitation

5. Legal Custody. Legal custody refers to the ability to make major decisions about the child, such as medical care, education, and religious upbringing. ( check one)

Joint legal custody of the minor children should be awarded to both parties.

Sole legal custody of the children should be granted to (name of parent)

Herman G Williams because (explain):

6. Physical Custody. Physical custody refers to the amount of time the child spends in the care of each parent. (☒ check one)

Joint physical custody generally exists when each parent has physical custody of the children roughly 40% (146 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

Primary physical custody generally exists when one parent has physical custody of the children more than 60% (219 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

- The parties should have joint physical custody of the minor children with a timeshare as proposed in Exhibit 1.
- Primary physical custody of the minor children should be granted to (name of parent) _____ with the other parent having visitation as proposed in Exhibit 1.
- Sole physical custody of the minor children should be granted to (name of parent) Herman G Williams.

7. Holiday Visitation.

- The proposed holiday visitation schedule is attached as Exhibit 1. The holiday visitation schedule should control when in conflict with the regular visitation schedule.

8. Best Interest of the Children. The proposed temporary physical custody and visitation arrangements are in the children's best interest because (explain why your proposed custody and visitation order is in the child(ren)'s best interest):

It is in the best interest of the children that they stay with me Herman Williams (father) is because she abuses them mentally and physically. The children do not want to stay with their mother because of that. They have told the social worker Kimberly Gibson that they feel safe with their dad and grandmother. Whenever she does speak with them they always end up crying because they are scared of her.

OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR ORDERS FOR TEMPORARY CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT, AND COUNTERMOTION

(Your name) NADINE WILLIAMS, in Proper Person, files this Opposition and Counter-motion to the motion for an order granting temporary custody, visitation, and/or child support.

Financial Disclosure Form ("FDF") Certification ( check one)

- I filed a Financial Disclosure Form in the last 6 months and have no changes to report.
- I understand that I must file my FDF within 2 judicial days of filing this opposition to support / oppose a request for temporary child support. Failure to file a timely, complete, and accurate FDF may result in the court ruling against me and/or imposing sanctions.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
LEGAL ARGUMENT

When determining physical custody of a child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the minor child. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider:

- a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her custody; b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent; c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent; d) The level of conflict between the parents; e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child; f) The mental and physical health of the parents; g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child; h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent; i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling; j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child; k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child; and l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child. NRS 125C.0035.

There is a presumption that joint physical custody and joint legal custody would be in the best interest of the child if: 1) the parents have so agreed; or 2) a parent has demonstrated, or attempted to demonstrate but had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the child. NRS 125C.0025. A court may award one parent primary physical custody if it determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of the child. NRS 125C.003.

The court shall also determine child support under NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080. A noncustodial parent shall pay the following percentage of gross monthly income:

For one child, 18% of gross monthly income;
For two children, 25% of gross monthly income;
For three children, 29% of gross monthly income; and
For each additional child, an additional 2% of gross monthly income.

A parent must pay a minimum of $100 per child, per month in child support. The maximum amount to be paid per month per child varies according to the parent's income. The court can deviate from the amounts above based on the factors listed in NRS 125B.080.

FACTS AND ARGUMENT

1. Number of Minor Children. The parties have (number) 4 minor children in common.
2. Paternity. ( check one)
  - Paternity is not disputed.
  - Paternity needs to be determined.  A DNA test is requested.

3. Children's Residency. The minor children's names, dates of birth, states and lengths of residence are as follows:

| Child's Name:       | Date of Birth | State of Residence: | How long child has lived in the state: | Disability |
|---------------------|---------------|---------------------|--|------------|
| ABIGAIL WILLIAMS    | 10/27/2004    | NV                  | 4 YEARS                                | NO         |
| HERMAN WILLIAMS III | 08/24/2008    | NV                  | 4 YEARS                                | NO         |
| MATTHEW WILLIAMS    | 05/13/2010    | NV                  | 4 YEARS                                | NO         |
| ELISHA WILLIAMS     | 04/26/2013    | NV                  | 4 YEARS                                | NO         |

4. Jurisdiction. ( check one)

- The children are residents of Nevada and have lived in Nevada for at least the past 6 months. This Court has the necessary UCCJEA jurisdiction to enter custody orders.
- The children have not lived in Nevada for the past 6 months, however, Nevada should take jurisdiction over custody because: (explain why Nevada is the proper state to issue custody orders):

OPPOSITION & COUNTERMOTION

A. Opposition & Countermotion for Temporary Custody & Visitation

5. Legal Custody. Legal custody refers to the ability to make major decisions about the child, such as medical care, education, and religious upbringing. ( check one)

- I agree to the other party's request for temporary legal custody (STOP. Go to Section 6).
- I do not agree with the other party's request for temporary legal custody. ( check one)
- The parties should have joint legal custody of the minor children.
- The court should grant (name of parent) NADINE WILLIAMS sole legal custody of the children because (explain):

The children are being emotionally abused by the defendant in having inappropriate conversation. The children are not being provided with appropriate support and guidance. The defendant has demonstrated on numerous occasions illegal activities in front of the children, allowed them to participate and validated that his actions are "ok". I have spoken to defendant on numerous occasions, about such occurrence, the importance of setting good examples for the children and he left the home for 8 months where I assumed full parental responsibility. The defendant has a very long criminal history within New York and Virginia including but limited conspiracy to commit murder and theft; (this information was not made privy prior to our nuptials)." More recently, January 2019, he was charged with misdemeanor assault within the Nevada which speaks to his unstable behavior, anger issues and volatility. See exhibit G. He has never attended church with us or participated in any of the activities or camping trips. If he gains legal custody of the children, it is not within the best interest of the children.

6. Physical Custody. Physical custody refers to the amount of time the child spends in the care of each parent. ( check one)

Joint physical custody exists when each parent has physical custody of the children at least 40% (146 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

Primary physical custody exists when one parent has physical custody of the children more than 60% (219 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

- I agree to the other party's request for temporary physical custody (STOP. Go to Section 7).
- I do not agree to the other party's request for temporary physical custody. ( check one)
- The parties should have joint physical custody with a timeshare as proposed in Exhibit 1.
- Primary physical custody of the minor children should be granted to (name of parent) NADINE WILLIAMS with the other parent having visitation as proposed in Exhibit 1.
- Sole physical custody of the minor children should be granted to (name of parent) _____

7. Holiday Visitation.

- I agree to the other party's request for holiday visitation. (STOP. Go to Section 8).
- I do not agree with the other party's request for holiday visitation. My proposed holiday visitation schedule is attached as Exhibit 1. The holiday visitation schedule should control when in conflict with the regular visitation schedule.

8. Best Interest of the Children. ( check one)

- I agree that the other party's requests for temporary legal custody, physical custody, and visitation are in the best interests of the child(ren). (STOP. Go to Section 9).
- I do not agree to the other party's requests for legal custody, physical custody, and/or visitation. My proposed custody and visitation arrangements are in the children's best interest because (explain why your proposed custody and visitation order is in the child(ren)'s best interest):

The defendant is not able to meet the children's physical and emotional needs: treats the children like his friends; food and medical care: has filed for welfare; proper assistance for education: secondary to his own deficits; loving support, and general parental guidance: he continues to commit illegal activities around the children and justify his actions, teaching them that it is okay to steal and deceive. See Exhibit F for police report of theft. His mental health is questionable secondary to his volatility and recent 72 hold psych hold, November 24, 2018, due to suicidal thoughts and ideation. See exhibit A. He has not been actively involved in the children's life and has left me to parent the children and discipline them. He has left for extended periods of time to stay in New York. The defendant has never been to any of the children's performance or participated in any classroom activities. In the meantime, I have enrolled them and participated in pathfinder and adventure church groups and camps to foster positive relationships, good behavior, and exposure to a Christian living. The defendant has never attended or participated. Even while in town, he would not attend any birthday events for the children and remain home.

Prior to and during the divorce process I have never communicated anything to the children that are can be perceived as negative. I have only communicated to the children that we just cannot get along anymore and we have decided to separate because the arguments are becoming too much. Instead the defendant pulled the children out of bed on 02/14 to tell them that I am kicking him out, other negative and derogatory comments as well as full length conversations that have eroded my relationship with the children. Since he removed the children from the home on March 8th, I have seen the children twice, March 23rd for an hour and April 26th for Elisha birthday for 2 hours. I have tried to visit the children at school; he told the children to call, he then visits the school and remove them. I keep abreast of what is going on in the classroom and went to the graduation for Elisha and Herman III without communication from him. The children have communicated that the defendant controls their phones and blocks my number, so I mostly speak with them when they call which is infrequent per the defendant's endorsement. I have had to message the children on Facebook to have them call me as it has been 3 weeks since I have spoken to them. The level of anger towards me has continued to interfere with being apart of the children's life, because I filed for divorce. He has poor conflict resolution skills and that is the reason I had requested a cancellation of mediation because there is no reasoning with him. I have tried to communicate effectively with him as it is in the best interest of the children.

The defendant has moved outside of the area, to north Las Vegas in which the children have lived for the past 3 years and seeks to remove them from the schools that they have attended. The defendant at every junction has been preventing me from maintaining a relationship with the children and has denied me access on many occasions, despite me trying to meet the defendant halfway or accommodate his schedule. He has had me wait in a park to see the children and does not show and failed to communicate his no show until days later on occasions.

I have always tried to maintain an stable environment, enforce proper bed times, provide extracurricular activities, provide wholesome home cooked meals, limit T.V, games and encourage outdoor play, spending time outside of the home, while working a fulltime job and functioning like a single mom. The defendant does not do any of those, but instead have them play games all the time, eat junk food, has no proper bedtime and unable to assist with homework. Having sole custody, I would not limit access to the children, as I have communicated to the defendant and that he could see the children at anytime as long as it does not interfere with their school. The defendant is seeking sole custody for monetary gains and wishes me to continue to support him for the next 20 years. I have requested no formal support and only want to see my children succeed in life and not become a burden to society by providing a stable environment and continued love and support.

  - Child support is being handled through the District Attorney, Family Support Division, case (insert case number) R_____ and should continue as ordered in that case.
  - Based on my proposed physical custody arrangement, (name of parent who should pay child support) _____ should pay (amount) $_____ per month in child support.
  - Child support should be set at the statutory minimum of $100/month per child.

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR TEMPORARY CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT & COUNTERMOTION

I declare, under penalty of perjury:

a. I have read the foregoing opposition, and the factual averments it contains are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, except as to those matters based on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe them to be true. Those factual averments contained in the referenced filing are incorporated here as if set forth in full.

b. Additional facts to support my requests include: (write anything else that the judge should know to make a decision about your case, or write "N/A" if there is nothing else to add)

The CPS case filed is false allegations and have taken incidents out of context to gain control of the children in an effort to obtain continued financial support. I have been a Registered Nurse for 11 years and aware of the fact that I can lose my job, made un hire-able or go to jail for any type of abuse. I do not and have not abuse my children. Please do not consider my mother as a valid person to be around my children as she as proven to being angry, biased and looking for continued financial gain as well. The defendant is not honest and has lied to the court about his income when he filed his original financial disclosure and choose to do another when I subpoenaed his employment for payments made in which he has earned consistent income since 11/29/2018. See exhibit B. He has lied as well regarding extra curricular activities. On his financial disclosure, he claims 56.00 monthly and YMCA summer camp; see exhibit E; In speaking with the children, they have only attended once and that they stay home every day.

c. Any Exhibit(s) in support of this Opposition will be filed separately in an Exhibit Appendix.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED July 8, 2019.

Narrative

On 03/27/19, I made contact with Williams, Nadine, DOB 11/21/82 who told me that she left her residence at about 0800 hours and later returned at about 1700 hours. Williams stated that she left all the doors of the residence locked, including her room's door. Williams said that she entered the house through the garage and then she went outside through the front door to pick up her mail. Williams said that when she returned to the house she noticed that her plants were missing, Williams then said that she noticed that the rubber of the frame was messed with. Williams then went to her room and she noticed that the door was opened. At that point Williams saw that her rings' box was open and she was missing the items listed before.

Williams stated that no one has permission to get in her house. Williams also wanted to prosecute.

I ran Herman Williams through LeadsOnline and found that he pawned two rings at the EZPawn #E0113 (3010 S. Valley View) on 3/28/19 at 1000 hours. The ticket number is 0194165. Based on the details and after speaking to Nadine, this is going to be a civil matter between she and her husband.

Section A

As per Nevada Child Abuse statute : Code Section: 432B.010, et seq. Physical or mental injury of a non-accidental nature; negligent treatment or maltreatment such that child's health or welfare is harmed, excessive corporal punishment (432B-150). The Plaintiff is not fit to have custody of the children under the grounds that she has physically, verbally and emotionally abused our children ; which has resulted in them being physically harmed and emotionally traumatized. Even now she continues to traumatize them during their visits or phone calls with her and as such, if she were to be given full custody of our children the abuse will continue. As evidenced in Exhibit HW1 CPS opted not to step in to take the children when the abuse was discovered and reported, under the condition that I would remove the children from the matrimonial home and provide a safer environment away from their mother who was abusing them. The physical abuse of our four children occurred while I was out of state, working in New York , making the necessary financial arrangements to be more financially stable in our relocation to Nevada. The most excessive of which was when she opted to beat our daughter with a metal pipe and subsequently bashing her in the head with a pot.

Section B

As it relates to my criminal history, the plaintiff was fully aware of my past convictions prior to our marriage in March 2004. These were mistakes of my youth and I have since paid my debt to society and maintained a life as a law abiding citizen, a husband, a good father and a business man.

In February, 2019. I pled guilty to a misdemeanor charge, which my wife now wishes to use to prejudice this case. The facts of the case are as follows: During the latter part of 2017. my daughter was being beaten and bullied at school. I made repeated reports and visits to the school with a view to resolving the situation. The bully in question lived a few houses away from us and had physically attacked my daughter on her way home from school. On the date of the young lady's expulsion from school I sought to resolve the issue with the parents(after my wife had escalated the situation), while speaking with the parents, the daughter, pounced on me to which I responded with a defensive stance. I in no way assaulted the young lady. By the time of the court hearing, the relationship between my wife and I had further deteriorated. I did not have the financial resources to hire a lawyer to defend a prolonged case, as well as. by then I was contending with the fact that my wife had been bringing to out matrimonial home (to our bed) the new man she was seeing, while I still lived and slept in the house. The kids were emotionally falling apart so I pled guilty(which I now regret) so that I could be done with the case and focus on my family in particularly the kids, as CPS had now gotten involved. I believe It was my wife's desire (in her twisted way) to provoke me to rage with a view to having me locked up. I also believe that it may have been her plan that night when she decided to engage the bully and her parents. Despite all her actions, throwing my clothes out of our room, changing the locks on the bedroom door, moving the other mans stuff in while I'm still living there I never laid a hand on her, neither did I argue with her , instead I tried to resolve what was happening as we(including her mother & sister) thought that she was having another mental breakdown similar to that which she had experienced as a teenager as evidenced by her mistreatment of both myself and the kids and finally when she physically assaulted her mother. Please see Exhibit HW2, evidence of assault. If she is truly fearful and believe that I have anger management issues, the question remains as to why with this belief that she would have in front of kids brought another man into the house while I am living there(yet I neither did nor said anything to express the hurt that my wife of 15 years was causing me.).

During this period I frequently sought the guidance of the police department as to my rights under the law and on many occasion sought the escort of the police to go home to take a shower to avoid any instigated altercation with my wife Her accusations are false and entirely fabricated, I never broke into our home after moving out on March 8th as I still had the remote to the garage. neither have I laid one finger on her (not ever in our marriage). And I have avoided being alone with her given her frequent threats both verbally and via text messages. As seen in Exhibit HW3.

Although myself and the kids along with my mother in law are now living in North Las Vegas, I have worked hard at maintaining normalcy and stability as best as possible in the lives of the kids. They have continued to attend school in Clark County District and are registered to continue doing so for the upcoming Term (assuming the district permits the application). I continue to take both my mother in law and the kids to the same church they have been attending for the past 3 years.

My wife in her jealousy had pulled the kids from that church temporarily and sent them to another church (which she didn't attend because she was busy working even when she didn't have to) and then eventually she lost interest and had the kids stay home. Our 3 older kids are christened in my mother's church in New York, however our youngest Elisha now 6, despite frequent requests was never christened because my wife refused due to her falling out with my mom. Therefore my wife actions are not in the best of the kids but her own self interest. Now that he is in my custody I will be having him christened. Also the kids are registered at the YMCA. They also have been swimming at the pool here at the complex and when its cooler we go to the skate Park for them to ride their bike. I am very committed to the well being and happiness of my children.

In the past I had relinquished the children's medical issues to their mom, given that she is a Registered Nurse and I am quick to take them to the ER for medical issues. However on September 2018 I received a call from the school that the boys were missing multiple shots. It was then that I discovered that my wife had taken the kids off her medical plan, since the relocation to Nevada and the kids had not been seeing a doctor. I had to take the boys to a free clinic for their shots. I also learned that my daughter had been prevented from doing extracurricular activities at school because she too was missing 2 shots. I have since taken the kids for their medical checks and brought their medical records and treatment up to date. Abigail the eldest will continue to see a physician every 3 months as we seek to resolve the extreme headaches she now suffers after being hit in the head with an aluminum pot by her mom.

My wife has become obsessed with her appearance at the expense of taking care of the kids. Our daughter needed to have her braces done however my wife felt that having plastic surgery done on her breasts again, her tummy tucked and braces for her teeth were put ahead of the children's medical needs.

My wife neglected to spend time with the children always choosing to work as she grew more frustrated with her life. She complained of having children too early and not being able to enjoy her youth and life. So I took on more responsibility with the kids, and allowed her the time to travel, she made frequent trips to Jamaica where she started seeing someone (I later learned). She took money I gave her for the kids to support this new lifestyle. She then cut back on her hours but saw the kids less and less as she would later leave the house for days with no indication of her whereabouts or when she would return as she had met someone new. My mother in law and I began co-parenting the children as my wife had abandoned her duties not only as my wife but also as mother to our children, She instead embraced the new kids from her new relationship, at the detriment of her own kids.

My wife has falsely filed a police report accusing me of breaking into the home on March 23rd 2019. This report is false as on March 8th when we moved from the home she sent me a text requesting that items be brought back and threatening to file a police report. I later went back to the home on March 19th with my mother-in law to recover her outdoor plants which had been left behind, the plaintiff was not present. After the kids refusal to be scooped up by their mom from school and the subsequent barring by the school, my wife decided to file false charges against me, alleging that she had just come home to find the home burgled etc, by me on March 23rd. Please see text message Exhibit HW4.

My wife now fights for custody simply because of the prospect of having to make financial payments for the kids. I wish it was from a place of deep seated love for them. She has behaved recklessly with the children and is a pathological liar. It is my hope that she seeks counseling, as she has spiraled out of control; so that one day she can be a better mother to our children. Therefore in light of the numerous evidence presented, legal custody of the children belongs with me. The parent who is able to provide a stable home and is focused on the well being of the children. It is in fact the Plaintiff who battles with anger management along with other psychological issues.

Great news! I hope you can resolve your other custody issues through the divorce process because the children reported they don't feel safe in the home without you or alone with their mother because of her extreme methods of discipline.

That's good that you have the children medical needs covered. Did you are your wife file for divorce or custody of the children? You need to address the custody of your children in the legal court to resolve any issues with parental rights due to the mother in this matter. Information regarding custody is online with Clark County Family Services Court.

Good morning Herman, I didn't get a chance to speak with you regarding some other concerns with the children. I wanted to see if you could make a medical appointment for Abigail to see a doctor regarding the mark (bump) on her head. I would like a medical doctor to look at that bump and document the type of damage was caused. And you can have the other children exam by their pediatrician to show medical records of the injuries related to the abuse over the years. I know you just got their Medicaid set up but if you could (or grandmother) could set up medical appointments for the children. Please update me ASAP. I am not sure if Abigail may have to see a skin specialist for the mark (bump) on her head? So you may have to get a referral from the primary pediatrician.

GENERIC MOTION

Electronically Filed
7/18/2019 11:20 AM
Steven D. Grierson
CLERK OF THE COURT

Filing Fee: The filing fee depends on the status of your case. If no order has been entered yet, there should not be a filing fee. If you are re-opening a case, there is usually a $25 fee. If you originally got a divorce by filing a Joint Petition, there is an additional $129 filing fee to file this motion.

You Have to Try to Resolve the Issue with the Other Party Privately: If you do not, you have to explain in the papers why you didn't try to work this out with the other party first. You may be sanctioned if the judge thinks you could have resolved this privately.

1. Fill out the Paperwork:

- Generic Motion
This form tells the judge and the other party what you want.
- Motion / Opposition Fee Information Sheet
This form tells the Clerk of Court whether you need to pay a filing fee.
- Financial Disclosure Form (ask staff for this form, since it is not included in this packet)
This form is REQUIRED if you are asking for any kind of financial orders. WARNING!! If you do not file this form within TWO DAYS of filing your motion, the judge may deny all of your requests for financial assistance, or may grant the other party's request for financial assistance. You must attach your last three paystubs to this form.
- Exhibit Appendix – if you have exhibits to file, ask the SHC staff for this form.

2. File the Paperwork:

In person: Bring the documents listed above and your filing fee to the Family Courthouse. You will file them with the Clerk of Court.

Online: You can upload your documents at <http://wiznet.wiznet.com/clarknv/pages/login.jsp>. There is a $3.50 fee for each document you upload.

3. Serve the Other Party:

What to Serve: A copy of every document you filed.

Who To Serve: If you do not mail your documents to the right person, your case may be delayed.

- If the other party has an attorney: Mail a copy of the documents to the attorney.
- If the other party does not have an attorney: Mail a copy of the documents to the other party. Mail them to the address the court has listed for the party, AND any other address where you know the person lives.

When To Serve: You must mail the documents WITHIN THREE CALENDAR DAYS after getting the filed copies back from the Clerk's Office.

How To Serve: The documents can be sent by regular mail.

4. File the Certificate of Mailing:

This form tells the Court when and where you mailed the documents. File this after mailing the papers to the other party. WARNING!! If you do not do this, the judge may cancel your hearing.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

LEGAL ARGUMENT. (explain all relevant laws and legal authorities that support your motion. If you do not provide and explain the legal basis that supports each of your requests, your motion may be considered without merit and denied.)

The minor children were taken from the home without plaintiff prior knowledge. There has been limited contact and association to facilitate continued relationship per NRS 125C.001

The minor children have been withheld by defendant and have actively prevented contact with children violating NRS 125C.0015

The defendant has been claiming physical/domestic violence against the children and grand parent in an effort to gain sole custody of the minors for continued financial support with divorce pending. There was an incident that occurred with grandmother; however the incident was orchestrated by defendant with grandmother being the primary aggressor.

The court has not decided temporary custody; however efforts are continuously frustrated by defendant with plaintiff trying to reestablish relationship that is broken with children NRS 125C.0025

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

I declare, under penalty of perjury:

- a. I have read the foregoing motion, and the factual averments it contains are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, except as to those matters based on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe them to be true. Those factual averments contained in the referenced filing are incorporated here as if set forth in full.
- b. Additional facts to support my requests include: (write anything else that the judge should know to make a decision about your case, or write "N/A" if there is nothing else to add)

The primary reason for ending the marriage is his reluctance to change from a life of illegal activites and my need to protect the children as they are at an impressionable age and my fear is that his activities will negatively impact theses young adolescence moving into adulthood.

- c. Any Exhibit(s) in support of this Motion will be filed separately in an Exhibit Appendix.
