ORDER GRANTING MOTIONS

Appellant has filed a motion requesting a third extension of time to file the opening brief and appendix, and the parties have filed a stipulation to extend the time to file these documents. The stipulation is treated as a joint motion. See NRAP 26(b)(1)(B) (barring further extensions of time after receiving a telephonic extension, except upon the filing of a written motion demonstrating extraordinary and compelling circumstances). Extraordinary and compelling circumstances having been demonstrated, the motions are granted. Id. Appellant shall have until February 25, 2022, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Any additional extensions will be granted only on showing of extraordinary and compelling circumstances. Id. Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. NRAP 31(d).

It is so ORDERED.
