MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

HEARING REQUESTED

17 Defendant El Capitan Ranch Landscape Maintenance Association (the "Association"), by 18 and through its attorneys of record, Leach Kern Gruchow Anderson Song, hereby moves the 19 Court for an award of attorneys' fees and costs. This Motion is made pursuant to NRCP 68, 20 NRS 116.4117, NRS 18.010(2)(b) and the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 21 pleadings and papers on file herein, and any oral argument the Court may allow.

22 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

23 I. INTRODUCTION AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

24 On February 19, 2019, Plaintiff filed its Complaint against the Association asserting 25 claims of negligent/intentional misrepresentation, breach of the duty of good faith and 26 conspiracy. See Compl. On March 13, 2019, the Association filed its Answer to the Complaint.

1 On April 29, 2019, the Court appointed an Arbitrator to the case. On February 24, 2020,
2 the arbitration hearing was held. See Arbitrator’s Decision. On March 9, 2020, the Arbitrator
3 filed his decision in favor of the Association. Id. On April 6, 2020, the Plaintiff filed a Request
4 for Trial De Novo. See Request for Trial De Novo. On May 21, 2021, the Association filed its 5 Motion for Summary Judgment. See Motion for Summary Judgment. On July 20, 2021, the 6 Court entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in favor of the Association’s Motion
7 for Summary Judgment. See FFCL.

8 On July 23, 2021, the Association submitted its Verified Memorandum of costs in the 9 amount of $1,876.03, which Plaintiff did not dispute. See Memo of Costs. The Association as 10 the prevailing party to this case is entitled to its reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to 11 NRCF 68 and NRS 116.4117.

12 II. LEGAL STANDARD

13 In Nevada, “the method upon which a reasonable fee is determined is subject to the 14 discretion of the court,” which “is tempered only by reasons and fairness.” Shuette v. Beazer 15 Home Holding Corp., 121 Nev. 837, 864, 124 P.3d 530, 548-49 (2005). The lodestar approach is 16 the most appropriate approach for this case and involves the multiplying the number of hours
17 reasonable spent on the case by the reasonable hourly rate. Herbst v. Humana Health Ins. of 18 Nevada, 105 Nev. 586, 590, 781 P.2d 762, 764 (1989). The factors the court must consider in its 19 analysis of the required amount of attorneys’ fees include:

- 20 1. The qualities of the advocate: his ability, training, education, 21 experience, professional standing and skills;
- 22 2. The character of the work done; its difficulty, intricacy,
23 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility
24 imposed and the prominence and character of the parties
25 where they affect the importance of the litigation;
- 26 3. The work actually performed by the lawyer, the skill, time and attention given to the work; and
- 27 4. The result; whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

III. ARGUMENT

A. This Court may Award to the Association its Reasonable Attorneys’ Fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117.

Pursuant to NRS 18.010(2), a party is entitled to attorneys’ fees and costs in "cases where an allowance is authorized by specific statute." NRS 116.4117 provides a basis upon which an award of attorneys’ fees may be granted to the Association as a prevailing party in this matter.

Pursuant to NRS 116.4117(6) “[t]he court may award reasonable attorney’s fees to the prevailing party.” Statutory interpretation is an issue of law that this Court reviews de novo. Washoe Medical Center v. Second Judicial Dist. Court of State of Nev. ex rel. County of Washoe, 122 Nev. 1298, 1302, 148 P.3d 790, 792-93 (2006). When a statute is clear on its face, a Court “will not look beyond the statute’s plain language.” Id. at 793.

On May 21, 2021, the Association filed its Motion for Summary Judgment seeking summary judgment on all claims. The Association, as the prevailing party in this matter, has incurred attorneys’ fees in the amount of $29,586.50. See attached Detailed Itemization Attorneys’ Fees attached to the affidavit of Chase Pittsenbarger as Exhibit A-1. Based on the clear and unambiguous language of NRS 116.4117, this Court may award to the Association its reasonable attorneys’ fees as the prevailing party. See NRS 116.4117(6).

B. The Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Incurred by the Association are Reasonable.

The attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by the Association are reasonable, economical and customarily charged to the clients of Leach Kern Gruchow Anderson Song. Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969); see attached Affidavit of Chase Pittsenbarger, Exhibit A. Sean L. Anderson, lead counsel for the Association, is a partner with Leach Kern Gruchow Anderson Song and has practiced extensively in the area of commercial litigation and common-interest community litigation for more than 20 years and enjoys a reputation in the community for quality advocacy. Id. Mr. Anderson, where appropriate, made the prudent decision to assign this matter to an associate attorney, Chase Pittsenbarger, to handle the day-to-day management of the case, which lowered the per-hour billing significantly. Id. In addition, Mr. Anderson reviews all client billings for reasonableness and makes any and all adjustments to ensure that the charges are commensurate with the value of the services provided. Id. Leach Kern Gruchow Anderson Song charges hourly rates that are similar to those rates charges by comparable law firms for similar legal services. Id. As this Court is aware, this was and has continued to be a heavily litigated matter and the ability, training, education, experience, professional standing and skill of each of the professionals involved with this action were demonstrated in their pleadings, motions and other documents filed with this Court.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Association, as the prevailing party is entitled to an award of its attorneys’ fees in the amount of $29,586.50 and costs in the amount of $1,876.03.

19 Chase Pittsenbarger, being duly sworn and under all penalties of perjury do hereby 20 depose and say as follows:

21 1. I am an Associate with the law firm of Leach Kern Gruchow Anderson Song
22 (“LKG”), counsel for El Capitan Ranch Landscape Maintenance Association (the “Association”)
23 in the above action.

24 2. I have personal knowledge of all matters stated herein.

25 3. I am over the age of eighteen (18) years and am competent to testify to the matters
26 set forth herein.

27 4. I hereby submit this Affidavit in Support of the Application for Attorneys’ Fees &
28 Costs (“Motion”).

1           5.     LKG has extensive experience in commercial litigation and common-interest
2 community litigation and is an AV rated firm that devotes the vast majority of its practice to the 3 representation of Nevada common-interest communities.

4           6.     On February 19, 2019, Plaintiff filed its Complaint for negligent/intentional
5 misrepresentation, breach of the duty of good faith and conspiracy.

6           7.     On February 24, 2020, the parties participate in an Arbitration.

7           8.     On March 9, 2020, Arbitrator Leung issued the Arbitrator's Decision and Award
8 in favor of the Association.

9           9.     The Association, as the prevailing party in this action, is entitled to its attorneys'
10 fees and costs pursuant to NRS 116.4117 and NRS 18.010 in the amount to $31,462.53.

11          10.    The attorneys' fees incurred by the Association in this matter are reasonable,
12 economical and customarily charged to the clients of LKG. See Detailed Itemization Attorneys'
13 Fees and costs, Exhibit A-1.

14          11.    Sean L. Anderson, lead counsel for the Association, is a partner with Leach Kern
15 Gruchow Anderson Song and has practiced extensively in the area of commercial litigation and 16 common-interest community litigation for more than 20 years and enjoys a reputation in the 17 community for quality advocacy.

18          12.    Mr. Anderson, where appropriate, made the prudent decision to assign this matter 19 to myself, an associate attorney, to handle the day-to-day management of the case, which 20 lowered the per-hour billing significantly.

21          13.    I am an associate with LKG and have practiced extensively in the area of 22 commercial litigation and common-interest community litigation for more than 5 years.

23          14.    In addition, Mr. Anderson reviews all client billings for reasonableness and makes 24 any and all adjustments to ensure that the charges are commensurate with the value of the 25 services provided.

26          15.    LKG charges hourly rates that are similar to those rates charges by comparable 27 law firms for similar legal services.

MAINTENANCE ASSOCIATION’S MOTION FOR ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

Hearing Date: October 21, 2021
Hearing Time: 10:00 a.m.

19 Plaintiff Daisy Trust (“Plaintiff”), by and through its attorneys, Roger P. Croteau &
20 Associates, LTD., requests that the Court deny Defendant El Capitan Ranch Landscape
21 Maintenance Association’s (the “HOA”) Motion for Attorney’s Fees and Costs (the “Motion”) for 22 the following reasons: First, NRS 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorney’s fees in this
23 case, because the basis for Plaintiff’s claims against the HOA arose before Plaintiff was a member 24 of the HOA. Further, Plaintiff’s claims do not arise from the HOA’s assessments or operation of 25 the HOA, so Section 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorney’s fees. Second, HOA’s

1 alleged attorney’s fees are excessive and should not be granted in part or in full under Brunzell due
2 to a portion of the amounts set forth appearing to be from a different, related matter.

3 RELEVANT BACKGROUND

4 The instant matter is one of the many cases currently being litigated that involve the 5 interpretation of common law and NRS Chapter 116 and the duties of disclosure of homeowners’
6 associations and their collection/foreclosure agents under applicable law.

8 This action relates to real property commonly known as 8721 Country Pines Avenue, Las 9 Vegas, Nevada 89129 (APN 138-08-611-076) (“Property”). Plaintiff is the current owner of the 10 Property, which Plaintiff acquired at the HOA Foreclosure Sale at issue.

11 Plaintiff filed its Complaint on February 19, 2019, alleging three causes of action: (1)
12 intentional, or alternatively negligent, misrepresentation, (2) breach of the covenant of good faith,
13 and (3) conspiracy. Defendant HOA filed a Motion for Summary Judgment of Plaintiff’s Complaint 14 (“MSJ”) on May 27, 2021, which was opposed by Plaintiff. The MSJ was granted by this Court on 15 July 20, 2021. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law granting the motion set forth detailed 16 reasons for the dismissal, which did NOT include that Plaintiff’s claims were baseless or brought 17 without reasonable ground. The HOA’s Motion for Attorney’s Fees was filed on August 11, 2021.

18
19 LEGAL STANDARD TO AWARD ATTORNEY’S FEES

20 Under Nevada law, “attorney’s fees are not recoverable absent a statute, rule, or contractual 21 provision to the contrary.” Rowland v. Lepire, 99 Nev. 308, 315 (1983) (citations omitted).
22 Moreover, a party is entitled to an award of attorney’s fees, if and “when the court finds that the 23 claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint or defense of the opposing party was 24 brought or maintained without reasonable ground.” NRS 18.010(2)(b).
25

26 Courts also have discretion to decline to make an award of attorney’s fees under NRS
27 18.010(2)(b). See Foley v. Morse & Mowbray, 109 Nev. 116, 124 (1993). The Supreme Court of 28

1 Nevada, in Chowdhry v. NLVH, Inc., determined that, when that court reviews an order granting
2 attorney’s fees on appeal, “there must be evidence in the record supporting the proposition that the
3 complaint was brought without reasonable grounds or to harass the other party.” 109 Nev. 478, 486
4 (1993). In assessing a motion for attorney’s fees under NRS 18.010(2)(b), the trial court must
5 determine whether the plaintiff had reasonable grounds for its claims. Such an analysis depends
6 upon the actual circumstances of the case rather than a hypothetical set of facts favoring plaintiff’s
7 averments.” Bergmann v. Boyce, 109 Nev. 670 (1993) (citing Fountain v. Mojo, 687 P.2d 496, 501
8 (Colo. Ct. App. 1984)), abrogated on other grounds as stated in Copper Sands HOA v. Copper Sands
9 Realty, LLC, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 161877, at *15 – 16 (D. Nev. Sep. 29, 2017) (unpublished
10 disposition). Moreover, “[i]f an action is not frivolous when it is initiated, then the fact that it later
11 becomes frivolous will not support an award of fees.” Duff v. Foster, 110 Nev. 1306, 1309 (1994).

14 LEGAL ARGUMENT

15 1. THE HOA IS NOT ENTITLED TO ATTORNEY’S FEES UNDER NRS 116.4117

16 In its Motion, the HOA claims that it is the prevailing party and therefore entitled to attorney’s
17 fees under NRS 116.4117, which provides in relevant part:

18 1. Subject to the requirements set forth in subsection 2, if a declarant, community
19 manager or any other person subject to this chapter fails to comply with any of its 20 provisions or any provision of the declaration or bylaws, any person or class of 21 persons suffering actual damages from the failure to comply may bring a civil action
22 for damages or other appropriate relief.

23 2. Subject to the requirements set forth in NRS 38.310 and except as otherwise
24 provided in NRS 116.3111, a civil action for damages or other appropriate relief for 25 a failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this chapter or the governing 26 documents of an association may be brought:

27 (a) By the association against:

- 28 (1) A declarant;
- (2) A community manager; or
- (3) A unit’s owner.

(b) By a unit’s owner against:

- (1) The association;
- (2) A declarant; or
- (3) Another unit’s owner of the association.

1 (c) By a class of units' owners constituting at least 10 percent of the total
2 number of voting members of the association against a community manager.

3 The HOA's argument fails for multiple reasons. First, Section 116.4117 does not allow for 4 an award of attorney's fees in this case, because the basis for Plaintiff's claims against the HOA arose
5 before Plaintiff was a member of the HOA. The HOA's and HOA's agent's acts and omissions in 6 misrepresenting material facts to Plaintiff, and in hiding material facts from Plaintiff, led to Plaintiff
7 becoming a unit owner, but by definition took place before Plaintiff became an owner. Plaintiff's
8 allegations all pertain to acts/omissions that took place before the HOA Foreclosure Sale and before
9 Plaintiff was a "unit owner" within the HOA.

10
11 Second, Plaintiff's claims do not arise from the HOA's assessments or operation of the HOA,
12 so Section 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorney's fees. See NRS 116.4117(1), (2).
13 Section 116.4117 allows a civil action to be brought "for a failure or refusal to comply with any 14 provision of this chapter or the governing documents of an association." This lawsuit, for 15 misrepresentation, civil conspiracy, and NRS 116.1113 violations of HOA and HOA's agents, does
16 not fit the types of actions covered by NRS 116.4117.

17
18 A recent Order of the Nevada Supreme Court made a distinction as to NRS 116.4117 and a 19 contract dispute between a bidder and a homeowner's association, and denied a homeowner's
20 association attorney fees under NRS 116.4117 following a contractual dispute. See Order Affirming
21 (Docket No. 79593) and Affirming in Part and Vacating in Part (Docket No. 80312) in the matter
22 REEC Enters. v. Savannah Falls Homeowners' Ass'n, 481 P.3d 1258 (Nev. 2021) (unpublished
23 disposition) ("REEC Matter"), attached as Exhibit 1. In the REEC Matter, REEC sought to enforce 24 an agreement to purchase property from a homeowner's association following a bidding process, the 25 homeowner's association obtaining the property following a foreclosure under NRS 116. REEC
26 alleged Quiet Title and Cancellation of Instruments, against all defendants, which included the 27 homeowner's association and holder of the first deed of trust, and claims of Breach of Contract and 28

1 Equitable Estoppel against the homeowners' association. In the consolidated matter, the
2 homeowners' association also sought Quiet Title, Declaratory Relief, and Slander of Title claims
3 against the holder of the first deed of trust. The district court found that REEC had failed to form a
4 contract with the homeowners' association, without addressing any issue pertaining to NRS 116 in
5 the Order. The Nevada Supreme Court reversed, finding that the district court did not interpret NRS
6 116, or the CC&R's or bylaws, and thus fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117 were not proper. Thus, the 7 REEC Matter commences setting forth the limitations of awarding attorney fees under NRS
8 116.4117, differentiating matters that simply involve homeowner's associations from matters which 9 analyze NRS 116, the CC&Rs, or the bylaws. The overbroad approach in this matter offers another 10 opportunity to address the metes and bounds of NRS 116.4117, and determine the extent to which 11 homeowner associations are entitled to attorney fees in good faith, fraud, and conspiracy matters are 12 brought against homeowner associations and their agents.

15 Third, it is Plaintiff's contention that the HOA failed to act in good faith under NRS 116.1113
16 in the matters leading up to and including the HOA Foreclosure Sale of the Property. Plaintiff 17 maintains that under NRS 116.1113 and Nevada case law, the HOA had a duty to disclose any 18 attempted tender/payment made by the lender to either the HOA or its agent upon inquiry by 19 Plaintiff prior to the HOA Foreclosure Sale. In Noonan v. Bayview Loan Svcng., LLC, the Supreme 20 Court of Nevada held that "[s]ummary judgment was appropriate on the negligent misrepresentation
21 claim because Hampton neither made an affirmative false statement nor omitted a material fact it
22 was bound to disclose." 438 P.3d 335 at *2 (Nev. 2019) (unpublished disposition).

24 Notably absent from the unpublished Noonan decision, however, is an express holding that 25 the HOA trustee never has a duty to inform potential bidders about a tender or an attempted
26 tender/payment from a lender or its agent, or an express holding that the only basis for pleading
27 intentional/negligent misrepresentation is NRS 116.31162(1)(b)(3)(II) (2017). A statute that 28

1 derogates the common law shall be narrowly construed – that is settled Nevada law – and the issue
2 of whether there is a common-law duty to disclose the existence of the material fact of a lender’s
3 attempted tender of the superpriority lien upon inquiry does not appear to have been explicitly
4 decided in any published or unpublished opinion from Nevada’s appellate courts.

6 The allegations contained in Plaintiff’s Complaint relate primarily to the actions of the HOA
7 Trustee, as an agent of the HOA, with the HOA being vicariously liable for the actions of the HOA
8 Trustee, up to and including the HOA Foreclosure Sale. There are no allegations that require an 9 interpretation of the CC&Rs or any governing documents of the HOA. NRS 116.4117 pertains to 10 claims by unit owners related to the CC&Rs and the mandates of NRS Chapter 116 as it relates to 11 Chapter 116’s imposition of control over the CC&Rs, assessments, and general matters. Plaintiff
12 does not assert claims that give rise to attorney’s fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117. Moreover, it must 13 be highlighted that Plaintiff’s allegations all pertain to acts/omissions that took place before the HOA
14 Foreclosure Sale and before Plaintiff was a “unit owner” within the HOA.
15

16 Any award of attorney’s fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117(6) is discretionary with the court
17 and not mandatory. See NRS 116.4117(6) (“The court may ...”) (emphasis added). This matter will 18 not be resolved until the Nevada Supreme Court provides guidance on the issues addressed in 19 Plaintiff’s Complaint and the case law developed in other jurisdictions interpreting the uniform act
20 that is embodied in NRS Chapter 116 regarding the duties of the HOA. Particularly, the issues of 21 honesty in fact, candor, and disclosure of material facts known to the HOA and/or its agent related
22 to the HOA Foreclosure Sale and what should be disclosed to the public and/or potential bidders
23 upon inquiry by a bidder and/or Plaintiff.
24

25 Plaintiff filed this case in good faith and pled valid, cognizable claims. Even though the Court
26 ruled in favor of the HOA, the ultimate answer will be rendered by the Nevada Supreme Court. As 27 such, Plaintiff asserts that any award of fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117 is inappropriate and not 28

1 reasonable, because the statute does not address the matters as asserted in the Complaint. Given the
2 discretion awarded to the Court in NRS 116.4117(6), and based on the argument herein, Plaintiff
3 requests that the Court decline to award attorney’s fees pursuant to NRS 116.4117.

4 2. THE HOA’S REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY’S FEES IS UNWARRANTED AND
5 FAILS UNDER A BRUNZELL ANALYSIS

6 In its Motion, the HOA relies on Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 455 P.2d 31 (1969)
7 in an effort to establish reasonableness and a justification for requesting an exorbitant amount of 8 attorney’s fees totaling $29,586.50. The HOA’s claim that the requested attorney’s fees are 9 “reasonable” and “economical,” for essentially filing a Motion for Summary Judgment used 10 previously is incorrect. See Mot. at Ex. A, ¶ 10 (Affidavit of T. Chase Pittsenbarger in Support of 11 Motion for Attorney’s Fees and Costs).<sup>1</sup>

12 According to the HOA’s attorney invoice, multiple billing entries were entered for identical 13 work done by Mr. Sean Anderson (“SA”) and Mr. Chase Pittsenbarger (“CP”):

- 14 • April 6 and April 8, 2020 – .3 hours billed by timekeeper SA to “Review and analyze 15 Request for Trial de Novo” and .2 hours billed by timekeeper CP for the same 16 described activity.
- 17 • July 16 and July 17, 2020 – .3 hours billed by timekeeper SA to “Review and analyze 18 Notice of Intent to serve Subpoena Duces Tecum to Alessi & Koenig” and .3 hours
19 billed by timekeeper CP for the same described activity.
- 20 • July 31 and August 3, 2020 – 1.2 hours billed by timekeeper CP to “Received and 21 review Plaintiff’s First Supplement to Initial Disclosures” and .3 hours billed by 22 timekeeper SA for the same described activity.
- 23 • March 24 and March 26, 2021 – .7 hours billed by timekeeper SA to “Review and
26
27

28 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff obviously disagrees with HOA’s characterization, but this allegation highlights the inconsistency with HOA’s arguments.

1 analyze Plaintiff's Responses to El Capitan's Second Set of Interrogatories to Daisy
2 Trust" and 2.6 hours billed by timekeeper CP to "Analyze Plaintiff's responses to 3 written discovery."

- 4 • May 19 and May 21, 2021 – .5 hours billed by timekeeper SA to "Review and analyze
5 Plaintiff's Amended Responses to El Capitan's Second Set of Interrogatories to Daisy
6 Trust" and .3 hours billed by timekeeper CP to "Receive and review Plaintiff's
7 Amended Response to HOA's Second Set of Interrogatories."
8
- 9 • June 10 and June 11, 2021– 1.3 hours billed by timekeeper SA to "Review and analyze 10 Plaintiff's Opposition to El Capitan Ranch Landscape Maintenance Association's 11 Motion for Summary Judgment" and .7 hours billed by timekeeper CP to "Receive 12 and review Plaintiff's Opposition to El Capitan's Motion for Summary Judgment."
13

14 Additionally, there are extensive entries for standard activities, such as the following:

- 15 • July 8, 2020 – timekeeper CP billed 3.9 hours to "Prepare for and participate in 16 Mandatory Rule 16 conference" While the calendar was long, these conferences are 17 not extensive, and a full morning of billing is excessive for a seasoned attorney.
- 18 • May 26 to May 28, 2021 – timekeeper CP billed 1.4 hours to "Review file in 19 preparation for drafting the Association's Motion for Summary Judgment" then 4.2
20 hours to "Commence drafting the Association's Motion for Summary Judgment," on 21 May 26, 2021. This was followed by .9 hours to "Continue drafting the Association's 22 Motion for Summary Judgment" and .6 hours to "Finalize and execute the Motion for 23 Summary Judgment" on May 27, 2021. The next day, SA billed 2.0 hours to "Review
24 entire file, discovery and pleadings to date" and then an addition 3.4 hours to "Revise 25 and edit El Capitan Ranch Motion for Summary Judgment;" followed by an entry of 26 1.0 hours for "Additional research regarding Intention/Negligent misrepresentation"
27

1 for a Motion that had been “finalize[d] and executed[d]” the prior day.

- 2 • June 28 and June 29, 2021 – timekeeper CP billed 2.7 hours to “Commence preparing 3 for the hearing on the Association’s Motion for Summary Judgment, which was 4 followed by 3.6 hours on June 29 where CP also billed 3.6 hours to “Continue
5 preparing for and attend the hearing on the Association’s Motion for Summary
6 Judgment.”

8 Plaintiff should not be held responsible for duplicative work and excessive billing for 9 standard tasks and hearing by seasoned attorneys. Plaintiff maintains that the Court should deny the 10 Motion in its entirety. However, if an analysis under Brunzell is conducted under the facts and 11 circumstances this case presents, Plaintiff urges this court to consider the following in making its 12 determination.
13

14 Plaintiff does not argue the abilities of the advocates’ legal prowess.

15 As to the second and third Brunzell factors, the work performed in this case was not 16 complicated and, as shown by the Motion for Summary Judgment, had been done previously.

17 Finally, as to the fourth Brunzell factor, Plaintiff acknowledges that HOA’s MSJ was granted
18 by this Court; however, nothing in the order granting that MSJ even hinted at grounds for sanctions
19 since no bad faith existed on the part of Plaintiff, and the claims pleaded were not characterized as 20 “groundless” or “baseless.” Plaintiff submits that the Motion is without merit and must be denied.
21 Each party should bear its own fees.
22

23 While Plaintiff defers to this Court’s wide discretion, Plaintiff urges the Court to consider the 24 reasonableness of, and more accurately stated, lack thereof, in awarding attorney’s fees that are not 25 supported by fact or law. Alternatively, in the event that this Court determines HOA is entitled to an 26 amount of attorney’s fees, Plaintiff maintains that no more than three (20.0) hours of legal services,
27 calculated at $300.00/hour, is more than reasonable to resolve this dispute.
28

1 Plaintiff submits that any amount over $6,000.00 is unreasonable, unsupported by the facts
2 and circumstances presented in this case, and flies in the face of governing law.

3 CONCLUSION

4 Based upon the foregoing, this Opposition should be sustained, and the HOA's Motion for 5 Attorney's Fees and Costs should be denied.

No. 79593 FILED

MAR 10 2021

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

No. 80312

*ORDER AFFIRMING (DOCKET NO. 79593) AND AFFIRMING IN PART
AND VACATING IN PART (DOCKET NO. 80312)*

Docket No. 79593 is an appeal from a district court summary judgment in a quiet title and contract action, and Docket No. 80312 is an appeal from a district court order granting a postjudgment motion for attorney fees and costs.<sup>1</sup> Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jacqueline M. Bluth, Judge. Because the appeals involve the same parties and arise from the same district court case, we elect to consolidate them for disposition. See NRAP 3(b)(2).

Docket No. 79593

Appellant argues that the district court erred by granting summary judgment because genuine issues of material fact remain. Specifically, appellant argues that it was undisputed that respondent's letter inviting bids stated that the subject property would be conveyed to the "successful bidder," and that, upon the highest bidder's failure to tender

---

the bid amount, appellant constituted the “successful bidder.” Appellant therefore asserts that the solicitation letter required respondent to accept its bid and convey the property. At the very least, appellant argues, there are genuine issues of material fact regarding whether appellant was the successful bidder and the distinction, if any, between the highest or winning bidder and the “successful bidder.”

We review de novo, see Nev. Recycling & Salvage, Ltd. v. Reno Disposal Co., Inc., 134 Nev. 463, 465, 423 P.3d 605, 607 (2018) (“[A] district court’s order granting summary judgment is reviewed de novo.”), and disagree. Appellant’s argument fails because an invitation to bid does not constitute a contractual offer. Instead, appellant’s bid constituted an offer, which respondent refused to accept. Gulf Oil Corp. v. Clark Cty., 94 Nev. 116, 118, 575 P.2d 1332, 1333 (1978) (“It is established that a bid in response to a solicitation therefor constitutes no more than an offer and until its acceptance, a contract does not exist.”); see also 17A Am. Jur. 2d Contracts § 49 (2021) (“[C]ompliance with the requirements of a general invitation to make an offer involves nothing more than an offer, which may or may not be accepted by the party who issued the invitation.”). And, because respondent rejected the offer, the district court did not err by finding that the parties had not formed a contract. See May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. 668, 672, 119 P.3d 1254, 1257 (2005) (“Basic contract principles require, for an enforceable contract, an offer and acceptance, meeting of the minds, and consideration.”).

Next, appellant argues that the district court erred by granting summary judgment on the issue of equitable estoppel. We review de novo, see Nev. Recycling & Salvage, 134 Nev. at 465, 423 P.3d at 607, and disagree. Because an invitation for bids is not an offer for purposes of forming a contract, the letter itself stated that payment would be due only upon acceptance of the bidder's offer, and appellant was left in the same position as before it submitted its bid, we conclude that the district court did not err by finding that equitable estoppel did not apply.<sup>2</sup> See Goldstein v. Hanna, 97 Nev. 559, 563, 635 P.2d 290, 293 (1981) ("The doctrine of equitable estoppel is properly invoked whenever 'unconscionable injury would result from denying enforcement of the contract after one party has been induced by the other seriously to change his position in reliance on the contract.'" (quoting Alpark Distrib. Inc. v. Poole, 95 Nev. 605, 607-08, 600 P.2d 229, 230-31 (1979))); see also Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp., 112 Nev. 663, 674, 918 P.2d 314, 321 (1996) (holding that the district court abused its discretion in applying equitable estoppel because "there [was] no evidence in the record to show that [the party asserting estoppel] was induced to make a detrimental change of position").

Docket No. 80312

Appellant next challenges the legal basis for the district court's attorney fees award, arguing that NRS 116.4117 does not apply to its complaint.<sup>3</sup> We review de novo, Albios v. Horizon Cmtys., Inc., 122 Nev. 409, 417, 132 P.3d 1022, 1027-28 (2006) (holding that this court generally reviews district court attorney fees determinations for an abuse of

---

<sup>2</sup>Because we conclude that the district court did not err by granting summary judgment on the issues of contract formation or equitable estoppel, essentially finding appellant had no interest in the property, we need not address appellant's argument that the district court erred by finding that it waived its claim to any interest in the property.

<sup>3</sup>Appellant does not challenge the award of costs. We therefore affirm that portion of the appealed order in Docket No. 80312.

discretion, but that questions of statutory interpretation are reviewed de novo), and agree.

“A district court is not permitted to award attorney fees or costs unless authorized to do so by a statute, rule or contract.” U.S. Design & Const. Corp. v. Int’l Bhd. of Elec. Workers, 118 Nev. 458, 462, 50 P.3d 170, 173 (2002). NRS 116.4117 does not apply here because the complaint did not allege that respondent violated any provisions of NRS Chapter 116 or its Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions (CC&Rs) or bylaws. See NRS 116.4117(1), (6) (providing for a civil action for damages for failure or refusal to comply with provisions of NRS Chapter 116 or a homeowner’s associations own governing documents, and further providing that “the court may award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing party” in such an action). The order granting summary judgment similarly makes no reference to NRS Chapter 116, respondent’s CC&Rs, or its bylaws. Thus, the district court erred by relying on NRS 116.4117 to award attorney fees.

We also agree with appellant that respondent could not recover attorney fees under NRS 18.010(2)(a), which permits awards of attorney fees to the prevailing party under certain circumstances, as it was a defendant that did not receive a money judgment. See Smith v. Crown Fin. Servs. of Am., 111 Nev. 277, 280, 890 P.2d 769, 771 (1995) (reaffirming the rule that a defendant does not satisfy the requirements for an award of attorney fees under NRS 18.010(2)(a) where it does not recover a money judgment below). And respondent waived any argument that it was entitled to attorney fees under NRS 18.010(2)(b) (allowing an attorney fees award when claims were “brought or maintained without reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party”), by failing to make such arguments below or on appeal.<sup>4</sup> See Old Aztec Mine, Inc. v. Brown, 97 Nev. 49, 52, 623 P.2d 981, 983 (1981) (“A point not urged in the trial court, unless it goes to the jurisdiction of that court, is deemed to have been waived and will not be considered on appeal.”); Powell v. Liberty Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 127 Nev. 156, 161 n. 3, 252 P.3d 668, 672 n. 3 (2011) (explaining that issues not raised on appeal are deemed waived).

In sum, we affirm the summary judgment in Docket No. 79593 and we affirm the portion of order in Docket No. 80312 awarding costs to respondent but vacate the portion of that order awarding respondent attorney fees.

It is so ORDERED.

19 Reply in Support of Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. This Reply is made pursuant to NRS
20 116.4117, NRS 18.010(2)(b) and the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 21 pleadings and papers on file herein, and any oral argument the Court may allow.

22 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

23 I. ARGUMENT

24 A. This Court may Award to the Association its Reasonable Attorneys' Fees pursuant 25 to NRS 116.4117.

26 Plaintiff argues that the Association cannot be awarded attorneys' fees because: (1) its 27 complaint concerns allegations which arose before Plaintiff was a unit owner within the 28 Association; (2) because Plaintiff did not allege a violation of the governing documents; and (3)

1 that Plaintiff alleged that the Association failed to act in good faith. See Opposition at 4. As set
2 forth in more detail below, Plaintiff’s arguments are either irrelevant or incorrect under the law.

3 Plaintiff first argues that NRS 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorneys’ fees
4 because the basis for Plaintiff’s claims arose before Plaintiff was a unit owner within the 5 Association. Id. This argument is extremely disingenuous. Plaintiff only had standing to bring
6 this lawsuit in the first place because it is a unit owner within the community. Indeed, NRS
7 116.4117(2)(b) only permits “unit owners” to sue their HOAs for violations of NRS 116. To the 8 extent Plaintiff really means to argue that he cannot be held liable to pay for the Association’s
9 fees and costs under 116.4117, then the fees and costs should be awarded under NRS 18 as such 10 claims would have necessarily been “brought or maintained without reasonable ground.” See
11 NRCP 18(2)(b). Plaintiff cannot wear the hat of unit owner in order to assert claims for breach 12 of NRS Chapter 116 and then claim that it is not a unit owner when the time comes for it to be 13 held responsible for the attorneys’ fees and costs under the very statute that authorized its claims 14 to begin with.

15 Next, Plaintiff argues that NRS 116.4117 only permits an award of attorneys’ fees and 16 costs if the dispute arose from “the HOA’s assessments or operation of the HOA.” See 17 Opposition at 4: 17-18. Plaintiff relies on an unpublished decision of the Supreme Court of 18 Nevada to support this position. However, Plaintiff is incorrect.

19 Plaintiff’s reliance on REEC Enters. v. Savannah Falls Homeowners’ Ass’n, 481 P.3d
20 1258 (Nev. 2021) (unpublished disposition) fails. Its interpretation of the Supreme Court of 21 Nevada’s decision in that case does not align with the actual language of the order or the plain 22 language of NRS 116.4117. Indeed, counsel for the Association is intimately familiar with the 23 REEC Enters. case because it was the firm that represented the Savannah Falls Homeowner’s
24 Association in that matter. Contrary to Plaintiff’s misrepresentation, the actual holding of the 25 Supreme Court of Nevada was that the district court erred in awarding attorney’s fees and costs
26 pursuant to NRS 116.4117 because “the complaint did not allege that respondent violated any 27 provisions of NRS Chapter 116 or its Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions (CC&Rs) or 28 bylaws. See NRS 116.4117(1), (6) (providing for a civil action for damages for failure or refusal

1 to comply with provisions of NRS Chapter 116 or a homeowner's associations own governing 2 documents, and further providing that "the court may award reasonable attorney fees to the 3 prevailing party" in such an action).”

4 In REEC Enters., the Supreme Court of Nevada relied upon the plain language of NRS
5 116.4117 which provides that homeowners have the ability to assert claims against an HOA “for 6 a failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this chapter or the governing documents.”
7 See NRS 116.4117(2)(emphasis added.) That is exactly what Plaintiff did here. Plaintiff alleged 8 that the Association violated its duties of good faith under NRS 116.1113 by failing to notify 9 Plaintiff of a bank’s attempt to pay a portion of the Association’s lien prior to the foreclosure
10 sale. See Complaint at 12-13. NRS 116.4117 then specifically authorizes this Court to grant
11 attorneys’ fees to the Association because it was the prevailing party on a claim maintained by 12 Plaintiff which alleged a “failure or refusal to comply with [the] provision[s] of [NRS Chapter
13 116].” Indeed, the Nevada Supreme Court recently confirmed that an award of attorneys’ fees
14 was appropriate in a case where the claim stemmed from an allegation that the HOA violated
15 NRS Chapter 116 and not the governing documents. See Order Affirming in Part, Reversing in 16 Part, and Remanding, Case No. 77721 (Jun. 1, 2020), Exhibit A. Thus, Plaintiff’s argument that 17 NRS 116.4117 only authorizes attorneys’ fees and costs in cases dealing with “HOA assessments 18 or operation of the HOA” is incorrect.

19 B. The Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Incurred by the Association are Reasonable.

20 Next Plaintiff argues the Association’s fees as unreasonable. Plaintiff’s unsupported 21 conclusion that $6,000.00 of attorney’s fees and costs is all that was necessary to defend the 22 Association in this case defies reason. Legal research and careful briefing were critical in 23 ensuring that the issues were correctly presented before this Court. It simply absurd for Plaintiff 24 to argue that $6,000.00 of attorney’s fees and costs would cover the time it took to draft the 25 Motion for Summary, participate in discovery conferences, draft written discovery, produce
26 relevant documents, find and disclose witnesses, review the prior case Plaintiff litigated with the 27 Bank, etc.

28 ///

1 In support of this argument, Plaintiff argues that unnecessary billing occurred generally
2 because multiple attorneys and staff worked on the case. See Opp. at 7-8. However, there is no
3 rule which prohibits a law firm from using multiple attorneys to represent a client in a matter. In 4 fact, doing so allowed the Association to bill less on the file. As set forth in the affidavit
5 attached to the Motion, Mr. Anderson was the lead attorney on the file and where appropriate left
6 much of the day-to-day handling of the case to Mr. Pittsenbarger who operated at a reduced rate.
7 See Affidavit of Chase Pittsenbarger attached to Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs at Exhibit
8 A. As lead attorney on the file, Mr. Anderson did review some of the same documents Mr.
9 Pittsenbarger was required to review in order to ensure that the file was being litigated correctly.
10 Once again, Plaintiff offers no authority that lead counsel on a case cannot bill for reviewing 11 documents that other counsel review in the course of litigation.

12 Plaintiff appears to argue that it was unreasonable for counsel for the Association to bill
13 for time spent at the Mandatory Rule 16.1 conference held by the Court. See Opp. at 8: 15.
14 Plaintiff acknowledges that the calendar was long on the date of the hearing however, appears to 15 imply that the Association is not entitled to the fees and costs incurred for attending this hearing
16 and waiting for the case to be called. Plaintiff offers no analysis, let a lone legal authority that 17 would support its belief that billing for preparing and attending this mandatory hearing was not 18 reasonable. As such, Plaintiff's argument that the billing associated with that hearing was 19 unreasonable should be rejected.

20 Plaintiff also takes issue with counsels 1.4 hours to review the file in preparation for 21 drafting the Association's Motion for Summary Judgment and the time spent on drafting the 22 Motion for Summary Judgment which is absurd given the Motion that was filed. See Opp. at 8:
23 19. The Motion for Summary Judgment totals 16 pages of detailed legal analysis on the claims
24 asserted in the Complaint. In a normal setting where a reasonable attorney had not been familiar 25 with the legal issues present in this matter, it would have taken more than 20 hours to draft the 26 Motion for Summary Judgment. Accordingly, the time billed to draft the Motion for Summary
27 Judgment in this matter is more than reasonable.

28 ///

1 Finally, Plaintiff copies and pastes the time entries related to the hearing on the Motion
2 for Summary Judgment but offers no analysis of the same. See Opp. at 9: 2-7. As such, the 3 Association is left to assume why that entry was included in the Opposition. It is assumed that
4 Plaintiff will argue that the time spent on preparing for and attending the hearing on the Motion
5 for Summary Judgment was unreasonable. Again, Plaintiff offers no analysis, let a lone legal 6 authority that would support its belief that billing for preparing and attending this important
7 hearing was not reasonable. The briefing on the Motion for Summary Judgment totaled 71
8 pages. In a normal setting where a reasonable attorney had not been familiar with the legal 9 issues present in this matter, it would have taken more than 15 hours to prepare for and attend the 10 hearing on the Motion for Summary Judgment. Accordingly, the time billed to prepare for and 11 attend the hearing on the Motion for Summary Judgment in this matter is more than reasonable.

12 In sum, the attorneys’ fees incurred by the Association are reasonable, economical and a 13 customarily charged to the clients of LKG. Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev.
14 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969); see also Affidavit of Chase Pittsenbarger attached to the 15 Motion for Attorney’s Fees as Exhibit A. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Pittsenbarger have practiced 16 extensively in the area of commercial litigation and common-interest community litigation and 17 enjoy reputations in the community for quality advocacy. Mr. Anderson, where appropriate,
18 made the prudent decision to assign this matter to Mr. Pittsenbarger to handle the day-to-day
19 management of the case, which lowered the per-hour billing significantly. Id. In addition, LKG
20 reviews all client billings for reasonableness and makes any and all adjustments to ensure that
21 the charges are commensurate with the value of the services provided. Id. LKG charges hourly
22 rates that are similar to those rates charges by comparable law firms for similar legal services.
23 Id. The ability, training, education, experience, professional standing and skill of each of the 24 professionals involved with this action were demonstrated in their pleadings, motions and other 25 documents filed with this Court.

26 As a result of LKG’s representation of the Association, this Court granted the 27 Association’s Motion for Summary Judgment. Accordingly, the Association should be awarded 28 its attorneys’ fees in the amount of $29,586.50 and costs in the amount of $1,876.03.

*ORDER AFFIRMING IN PART, REVERSING IN PART,
AND REMANDING*

This is an appeal from a district court postjudgment order awarding attorney fees and costs. Fourth Judicial District Court, Elko County; Alvin R. Kacin, Judge.

In the underlying litigation, appellant and property owner Artemis Exploration Company challenged respondent Ruby Lake Estates Homeowner's Association's (Ruby) authority under NRS Chapter 116 to levy assessments against Artemis. Following nonbinding arbitration in which the arbitrator ruled in favor of Ruby, Artemis filed a complaint in district court. Ruby answered the complaint and asserted counterclaims and a cross-claim. The parties eventually stipulated to dismiss Ruby's counterclaims and cross-claim and "agree[d] to bear their own fees and costs incurred in the prosecution and/or defense of the [c]ounterclaims and [c]rossclaim." After the final judgment was entered, Ruby moved for attorney fees and costs and attached as exhibits its billing invoices and supporting attorney affidavits. Artemis opposed Ruby's motion, attaching as exhibits Ruby's billing invoices on which it highlighted contested billing entries.

In determining whether Ruby was entitled to attorney fees and costs, the district court analyzed NRS 116.4117 and reasoned the statute provided it discretion to award attorney fees to the prevailing party. The court determined that "there is little doubt that [Ruby] is now a 'prevailing party' for the purposes of NRS 116.4117," and was thus "entitled to an award of reasonable attorney[ ] fees." The district court then calculated the reasonableness of Ruby's requested attorney fees under the factors set forth in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969). Under the Brunzell factors, the district court concluded that the majority of Ruby's requested attorney fees were reasonable except for those fees sought when Ruby erroneously pursued enforcement of the arbitrator's decision before the finality of the case. As a result, the district court reduced Ruby's requested attorney fees from $115,688.14 to $85,097.<sup>1</sup> The district court also awarded Ruby costs in the amount of $2,872.47 pursuant to NRS 18.050. Artemis appeals the district court's order.

"[T]he district court may not award attorney fees absent authority under a statute, rule, or contract." Albios v. Horizon Cmtys., Inc., 122 Nev. 409, 417, 132 P.3d 1022, 1028 (2006). The district court's decision to award fees is within its sound discretion. Allianz Ins. Co. v. Gagnon, 109 Nev. 990, 995, 860 P.2d 720, 724 (1993). "However, where a district court exercises its discretion in clear disregard of the guiding legal principles, this action may constitute an abuse of discretion." Id. A district court must consider certain factors to determine the reasonableness of the attorney fees before awarding such fees. Gunderson v. D.R. Horton, Inc., 130 Nev. 67, 81, 319 P.3d 606, 615-16 (2014) (listing the Brunzell factors as “the qualities of the advocate,” “the character of the work to be done,” “the work actually performed by the lawyer,” and “the result” (internal quotation marks and emphasis omitted)).

The district court properly relied on NRS 116.4117 to award Ruby attorney fees and costs

Artemis argues the district court abused its discretion by awarding Ruby attorney fees and costs pursuant to NRS 116.4117 because Artemis brought its claims only under NRS Chapter 30, and thus, any fees and costs awarded pursuant to NRS 116.4117 were inapplicable. Artemis further contends the district court erred when it relied on Ruby’s voluntarily dismissed countersuit as a basis for awarding such fees and costs pursuant to NRS 116.4117.<sup>2</sup> In the stipulation and order dismissing Ruby’s countersuit, the parties “agree[d] to bear their own fees and costs incurred in the prosecution and/or defense of the [c]ounterclaims and [c]rossclaim.” While we agree the district court improperly relied on Ruby’s dismissed countersuit as a basis for awarding attorney fees and costs pursuant to NRS

---

<sup>2</sup>Artemis additionally contends for the first time on appeal that the district court abused its discretion when it awarded Ruby attorney fees in the amount of $2,796 and costs in the amount $821.24 incurred as a result of Artemis’s original complaint filed in February 2011. The parties stipulated shortly thereafter to dismiss this complaint so that the matter could proceed to nonbinding arbitration. Artemis argues this dismissal in 2011 makes Ruby’s 2018 request for attorney fees and costs related to this portion of the litigation untimely under NRCP 54. However, because Artemis failed to raise this issue in the district court, we do not consider it on appeal. See Old Aztec Mine, Inc. v. Brown, 97 Nev. 49, 52, 623 P.2d 981, 983 (1981) (“A point not urged in the trial court, unless it goes to the jurisdiction of that court, is deemed to have been waived and will not be considered on appeal.”).

116.4117, we disagree that NRS 116.4117 is inapplicable to this matter.

NRS 116.4117(2)(b)(1) authorizes a unit's owner to bring "a civil action for damages or other appropriate relief for a failure or refusal to comply with any provision of [NRS Chapter 116] or the governing documents [including the covenants, conditions, and restrictions (CC&Rs)] of an association . . . against . . . [an] association." See also NRS 38.300(3) (defining "[c]ivil action" as "an action for money damages or equitable relief"); NRS 38.310(1) (limiting the initiation of certain civil actions brought in district court under NRS Chapter 116 and requiring the action to first be submitted to mediation); NRS 38.243(3) (providing that, "[o]n application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under NRS 38.239, 38.241 or 38.242, the court may add reasonable attorney[ ] fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred in a judicial proceeding after the [arbitration] award is made to a judgment confirming . . . an award"). NRS 116.4117(6) provides that "[t]he court may award reasonable attorney[ ] fees to the prevailing party."

The district court found that "[w]hile the parties are fundamentally in a dispute over the legality of [Ruby]'s existence, they agree [Artemis] stopped paying assessments as required by governing documents when its owner took the position that the association was not valid." Moreover, in an earlier appeal stemming from the same underlying litigation, we concluded that Ruby is a validly constituted common-interest community within the meaning of NRS 116.021 and was authorized to assess Artemis. See Artemis Expl. Co. v. Ruby Lake Estates Homeowner's Ass'n, 135 Nev. 366, 370-72, 449 P.3d 1256, ____ (2019). Because Artemis sought a declaration that Ruby was not a valid association under NRS Chapter 116, and Ruby prevailed and established it was a valid association, we conclude that the district court properly relied on NRS 116.4117 to award Ruby attorney fees and costs. We now turn to whether the district court's award of attorney fees and costs to Ruby was an abuse of discretion. The district court abused its discretion in awarding a portion of Ruby's attorney fees

The district court's award of attorney fees to Ruby included $5,112 incurred as a result of its counterclaims. Artemis argues that the district court abused its discretion in awarding these fees because the parties had stipulated "to bear their own fees and costs incurred in the prosecution and/or defense of the [c]ounterclaims and [c]rossclaim." We agree and thus reverse that portion of the district court's order and remand this matter to the district court with instructions for it to reduce Ruby's attorney fees award by $5,112.

Artemis also contends the district court abused its discretion when it awarded Ruby attorney fees in the amount of $19,296 and costs in the amount of $3,897.43 incurred as a result of the nonbinding arbitration. Artemis further contends that "NRS 38.300 to [NRS] 38.360 do not provide for an award of attorney[ ] fees and costs from a non-binding arbitration," relieving the district court of authority to award Ruby such fees and costs. We agree that NRS 38.310 does not provide for attorney fees and costs, and that it was an abuse of discretion if the district court found otherwise. However, on the record before us, it is unclear what reductions were included in the district court's $30,591 overall adjustment to Ruby's award of attorney fees and cost and whether those reductions included the arbitration fees and costs.

Moreover, NRS 116.4117(2) requires parties to adhere to NRS 38.310 unless an exception applies under NRS 116.3111 (detailing tort and contract liability). Neither party argues that NRS 116.3111 applies here.

Pursuant to NRS 38.243(3), a district court may, “[o]n application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under NRS 38.239, 38.241 or 38.242, . . . add reasonable attorney[ ] fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred . . . after the [arbitration] award is made to a judgment confirming . . . an award.” But none of those statutory provisions apply here either. Additionally, NRS 116.4117(2) and (6) provide that in an action such as the underlying litigation here, which is “[s]ubject to the requirements set forth in NRS 38.310,” “[t]he [district] court may award reasonable attorney[ ] fees to the prevailing party.” But, again, NRS 38.310 does not provide for attorney fees and costs.

Accordingly, we conclude that there is no statutory authority upon which the district court could rely to award Ruby attorney fees and costs related to the arbitration proceeding. See Albios, 122 Nev. at 417, 132 P.3d at 1028 (stating that “the district court may not award attorney fees absent authority under a statute, rule, or contract”). Therefore, when parties enter into mediation or arbitration proceedings pursuant to NRS 38.310, as required by NRS 116.4117, unless the parties provide for attorney fees and costs in an agreement resulting from a mediation or arbitration under NRS 38.310, attorney fees and costs cannot be awarded as a matter of law. The parties had no such agreement here.

However, as we note above, it is unclear from the record before us whether any of the attorney fees and costs stricken by the district court included those associated with the arbitration proceedings. In its order, the district court determined that Ruby “should not be awarded attorney[ ] fees incurred in seeking and attempting to protect the [arbitration] order.” The district court then goes on to award Ruby “all fees” totaling $85,097.00, “save and except for the entries stricken by the court” as indicated on certain exhibits attached to its order. Those exhibits included multiple billing invoices that appear to have been redacted and/or have items lined through as though they had been stricken by both the parties and the court, making it unclear exactly what was included in the district court's award of attorney fees and costs.

Therefore, having concluded there is no statutory basis upon which to award Ruby attorney fees and costs associated with the arbitration proceeding, we affirm the remainder of the district court's award of attorney fees and costs to Ruby so long as that amount does not include any fees and costs incurred as a result of the arbitration proceedings. Thus, on remand we further instruct the district court to reevaluate the remainder of its award of attorney fees and costs to Ruby to determine whether that award should be further reduced because its award improperly included fees and costs associated with the arbitration proceedings. The district court should state with specificity in a written order those attorney fees and costs that are being stricken and its reasoning for doing so.<sup>3</sup>

For the reasons set for above, we ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED IN PART, REVERSED IN PART, AND REMANDED with instructions for the district court to reduce Ruby's

<sup>3</sup>Artemis also argues that Ruby's billing invoices included multiple slips for many days, duplicative services, and some billing entries that were for staff time. Ruby's motion for attorney fees and costs was accompanied by several affidavits from its counsel attesting to the work performed and that the billing invoices were redacted to protect attorney-client privilege. These affidavits appear to have gone unrefuted in the district court. Because Artemis offers no cogent argument or relevant authority supporting its claim on appeal, we decline to consider this argument. See Edwards v. Emperor's Garden Rest., 122 Nev. 317, 330 n.38, 130 P.3d 1280, 1288 n.38 (2006) (detailing that we need not consider claims not cogently argued or supported by relevant authority).

attorney fees award of $85,097 by $5,112 and to further reevaluate the remainder of its award consistent with this order.

EL CAPITAN RANCH LANDSCAPE
MAINTENANCE ASSOCIATION, a domestic
Nevada non-profit corporation,

Defendants.

Case No: A-19-789674-C
Dept. No: 14

ORDER DENYING EL CAPITAN RANCH
LANDSCAPE MAINTENANCE
ASSOCIATION’S MOTION FOR
ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

Hearing Date: October 21, 2021
Hearing Time: 10:00 a.m.

This matter came before the Court on Defendants El Capitan Ranch Landscape Maintenance Association’s (the “HOA”) Motion for Attorney’s Fees and Costs (the “Motion”) on October 21, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.. Mr. Christopher L. Benner, Esq., appeared on behalf of Plaintiff Daisy Trust (“Plaintiff”). Mr. Chase Pittsenbarger, Esq., appeared on behalf of the HOA. After a review of the pleadings, and good cause shown, the court FINDS and ORDERS as follows:

This action relates to real property commonly known as 8721 Country Pines Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada 89129 (APN 138-08-611-076) (“Property”). Plaintiff is the current owner of the Property, which Plaintiff acquired at the HOA Foreclosure Sale at issue.

1 Plaintiff filed its Complaint on February 19, 2019, alleging three causes of action: (1)
2 intentional, or alternatively negligent, misrepresentation, (2) breach of the covenant of good faith,
3 and (3) conspiracy. Defendant HOA filed a Motion for Summary Judgment of Plaintiff's
4 Complaint ("MSJ") on May 27, 2021, which was opposed by Plaintiff. The MSJ was granted by
5 this Court on July 20, 2021. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law granting the motion set
6 forth detailed reasons for the dismissal, and do not state Plaintiff's claims were baseless or brought
7 without reasonable ground. The HOA's Motion for Attorney's Fees was filed on August 11, 2021

9 NRS 116.4117 provides in relevant part:

10 1. Subject to the requirements set forth in subsection 2, if a declarant, community
11 manager or any other person subject to this chapter fails to comply with any of its 12 provisions or any provision of the declaration or bylaws, any person or class of
13 persons suffering actual damages from the failure to comply may bring a civil action
14 for damages or other appropriate relief.

15 2. Subject to the requirements set forth in NRS 38.310 and except as otherwise
16 provided in NRS 116.3111, a civil action for damages or other appropriate relief for
17 a failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this chapter or the governing
18 documents of an association may be brought:

19 (a) By the association against:

- 20 (1) A declarant;
- 21 (2) A community manager; or
- 22 (3) A unit's owner.

23 (b) By a unit's owner against:

- 24 (1) The association;
- 25 (2) A declarant; or
- 26 (3) Another unit's owner of the association.

27 (c) By a class of units' owners constituting at least 10 percent of the total
28 number of voting members of the association against a community manager.

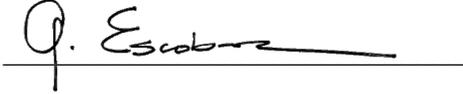

29 Plaintiff's claims do not arise from the HOA's assessments or operation of the HOA, so
30 Section 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorney's fees. See NRS 116.4117(1), (2).
31 Section 116.4117 allows a civil action to be brought "for a failure or refusal to comply with any 32 provision of this chapter or the governing documents of an association." This lawsuit, for
33 misrepresentation, civil conspiracy, and NRS 116.1113 violations of HOA and HOA's agents, does
34 not fit the types of actions covered by NRS 116.4117.

ORDER DENYING EL CAPITAN RANCH
LANDSCAPE MAINTENANCE
ASSOCIATION’S MOTION FOR
ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

Hearing Date: October 21, 2021
Hearing Time: 10:00 a.m.

This matter came before the Court on Defendants El Capitan Ranch Landscape Maintenance Association’s (the “HOA”) Motion for Attorney’s Fees and Costs (the “Motion”) on October 21, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.. Mr. Christopher L. Benner, Esq., appeared on behalf of Plaintiff Daisy Trust (“Plaintiff”). Mr. Chase Pittsenbarger, Esq., appeared on behalf of the HOA. After a review of the pleadings, and good cause shown, the court FINDS and ORDERS as follows:

This action relates to real property commonly known as 8721 Country Pines Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada 89129 (APN 138-08-611-076) (“Property”). Plaintiff is the current owner of the Property, which Plaintiff acquired at the HOA Foreclosure Sale at issue.

1 Plaintiff filed its Complaint on February 19, 2019, alleging three causes of action: (1)
2 intentional, or alternatively negligent, misrepresentation, (2) breach of the covenant of good faith,
3 and (3) conspiracy. Defendant HOA filed a Motion for Summary Judgment of Plaintiff's
4 Complaint ("MSJ") on May 27, 2021, which was opposed by Plaintiff. The MSJ was granted by
5 this Court on July 20, 2021. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law granting the motion set
6 forth detailed reasons for the dismissal, and do not state Plaintiff's claims were baseless or brought
7 without reasonable ground. The HOA's Motion for Attorney's Fees was filed on August 11, 2021

9 NRS 116.4117 provides in relevant part:

10 1. Subject to the requirements set forth in subsection 2, if a declarant, community
11 manager or any other person subject to this chapter fails to comply with any of its 12 provisions or any provision of the declaration or bylaws, any person or class of
13 persons suffering actual damages from the failure to comply may bring a civil action
14 for damages or other appropriate relief.

15 2. Subject to the requirements set forth in NRS 38.310 and except as otherwise
16 provided in NRS 116.3111, a civil action for damages or other appropriate relief for
17 a failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this chapter or the governing
18 documents of an association may be brought:

19 (a) By the association against:

- 20 (1) A declarant;
- 21 (2) A community manager; or
- 22 (3) A unit's owner.

23 (b) By a unit's owner against:

- 24 (1) The association;
- 25 (2) A declarant; or
- 26 (3) Another unit's owner of the association.

27 (c) By a class of units' owners constituting at least 10 percent of the total
28 number of voting members of the association against a community manager.

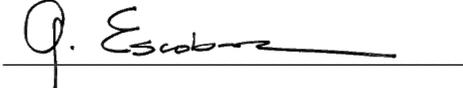

29 Plaintiff's claims do not arise from the HOA's assessments or operation of the HOA, so
30 Section 116.4117 does not allow for an award of attorney's fees. See NRS 116.4117(1), (2).
31 Section 116.4117 allows a civil action to be brought "for a failure or refusal to comply with any 32 provision of this chapter or the governing documents of an association." This lawsuit, for
33 misrepresentation, civil conspiracy, and NRS 116.1113 violations of HOA and HOA's agents, does
34 not fit the types of actions covered by NRS 116.4117.
