MICHAEL F. BOHN, ESQ. states:

1. Declarant is the attorney for the appellant in this case and makes this declaration based on personal knowledge.

2. I am requesting an extension of 30 days from the date the court issues an order on this to file the reply brief.

3. The reply brief was due on Monday May 22, 2023.

4. I was involved in a jury trial during the week of May 15, 2023 which went until May 18,

5. Over the weekend on May 20, 2023, I had a minor medical episode which required theedics to attend to me at my home. Fortunately, I was not required to be hospitalized, but I wasl to seek medical attention by my family doctor during the week.

6. During the following week, in addition to scheduling a medical examination and follow up, I also had a number of matters which required my attention at the office.

7. These distractions caused me to neglect to timely move the court for an extension to file my brief.

8. Over the Memorial day week, I did leave town and experienced a separate minor medical which again distracted my attention from the matters at the law office.

9. I contacted opposing counsel by email regarding an extension or permission to represent court that an extension was not opposed. Counsel advised me to file my motion for him to and respond, if needed.

10. I believe that the respondent will not be prejudiced by an extension.

11. This is the first request for an extension of the reply brief.

1 12. If called upon to testify to the above facts, declarant could do so competently.

2 13. I declare under penalties of perjury under the law of the state of Nevada that the
3 foregoing is true and correct.
