Re: Bahr vs. Arteaga (Child Custody), Supreme Court Case No. 84306

Dear Ms. Arteaga:

We are returning, unfiled, the "Attachments to Fast Track Response" received in this office on April 19, 2022 in the above-entitled matter.

Pro se parties are not permitted to file an appendix to their briefs unless ordered to do so by this court. NRAP 30(i). If the court's review of the complete trial court record is necessary, the court will direct the district court to transmit the record. Pro se parties are not required to cite the record in their briefs, but are encouraged to do so if possible. See NRAP 28(c)(3).

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. Mercier", is written over the word "Sincerely,".

M. Mercier
Deputy Clerk
