Mr. Couvillier provided the proposed order at 2:30pm on Wednesday and imposed an arbitrary deadline of 10 am Friday, which did not even give a full two days to respond. I wanted to double check the numbers in the order, but I was swamped yesterday and I intended to get back to this today. At no point did I refuse to sign.

I approve it as to form in that the proposed order correctly states the Court's oral decision.

Zion's counsel refused to sign the order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards. Did not contact us with any objections. Did not contact us at all. We don't know what else to do to comply with the generic message below.

We know that Zion's counsel received the proposed order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards because he responded to the proposed order regarding the related joint motion to seal.

CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. A-17-764118-C

Attorneys Fees and Costs (Couvillier Declaration) was filed with the Court and the Opposition to the Declaration of Maximilliano D. Couvillier III., Esq. in Support of Award of Reasonable Attorney Fees and Costs was filed on January 11, 2019. COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that in order to recover its reasonable costs, a party is required to file and serve a memorandum [of costs] ... verified by the oath of the party ... stating that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief the items are correct, and that the costs have been necessarily incurred in the action or proceeding. Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (2015). Further, a party must demonstrate how such [claimed costs] were necessary to and incurred in the present action and provide justifying documentation for such costs. Id. at 1054 (internal citations and quotations omitted). COURT FURTHER FINDS after review of the merits of the Defendants Motion, the justifying documentation of such costs and the Couvillier Declaration, the costs requested in the amount of $190.90 are reasonable and necessarily incurred in connection with the Motion and are supported by sufficient justifying documentation pursuant to Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP. COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that in determining that reasonableness of Attorneys Fees, the Court shall apply the following factors: (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, time and attention given to the work; (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived. Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 50 (1969). COURT FURTHER FINDS after review of the merits of the Motion, the Couvillier Declaration and the hourly billing statements contained therein, the attorneys fees requested are related to the filing and prosecution of the Motion and are reasonable based upon: the abilities, skill, and experience of the counsel involved; the character of the work to be done; the intricacy required to examine and compile the facts and evidence related to service here, the importance of counsel s work to the progression of this case toward fair resolution involving all necessary parties, as well as the time required to do so; and the work performed by the lawyer, including investigating the services issues, strategizing, correspondence with the client and opposing counsel, drafting a motion and arguing the same before the Court and the favorable result obtained. Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 (1969). THEREFORE, COURT ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review pursuant to the merits of the Motion, the hourly billing statements, the Couvillier Declaration and the Brunzell factors and Cadle standard addressed hereinabove, Defendant Keith Redmond is entitled to a Judgment for $11,253.40, consisting of $11,062.50 for attorney s fees and $190.90 for costs. Defendants/Counterclaimants to prepare the order for submission in compliance with EDCR 7.21. Journal Entry Details:
Court advised a motion to stay pending appeal to enforce arbitration was filed in this matter. Counsel confirmed. Court inquired if counsel would like the hearing on the stay expedited or if they would like to proceed with the Motion for Summary Judgement. Mr. Couvillier advised he wished for today's motion to proceed. Mr. Couvillier indicated he and opposing counsel had discussed agreeing to dismiss Mr. Redman without prejudice and advised of what he anticipated would happen if the Court stayed the matter. Court advised Mr. Thomas when a party did have a cause of action to pierce the corporate veil and was alleging people acted as officers or directors, that did not necessarily present liability unless people acted outside of their scope. Mr. Thomas indicated Mr. Redman represented to him that he was never an officer or director of MMAWC. Mr. Thomas stated he could not in good faith argue against that. COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED for DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Defense was DIRECTED to cooperate with discovery. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Couvillier confirmed Mr. Redman's primary residence was in Nevada. Colloquy regarding participation in the case. Mr. Couvillier provided the proposed order at 2:30pm on Wednesday and imposed an arbitrary deadline of 10 am Friday, which did not even give a full two days to respond. I wanted to double check the numbers in the order, but I was swamped yesterday and I intended to get back to this today. At no point did I refuse to sign.

I approve it as to form in that the proposed order correctly states the Court's oral decision.

Zion's counsel refused to sign the order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards. Did not contact us with any objections. Did not contact us at all. We don't know what else to do to comply with the generic message below.

We know that Zion's counsel received the proposed order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards because he responded to the proposed order regarding the related joint motion to seal.

Mr. Couvillier provided the proposed order at 2:30pm on Wednesday and imposed an arbitrary deadline of 10 am Friday, which did not even give a full two days to respond. I wanted to double check the numbers in the order, but I was swamped yesterday and I intended to get back to this today. At no point did I refuse to sign.

I approve it as to form in that the proposed order correctly states the Court's oral decision.

Zion's counsel refused to sign the order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards. Did not contact us with any objections. Did not contact us at all. We don't know what else to do to comply with the generic message below.

We know that Zion's counsel received the proposed order granting joint motion to confirm arbitration awards because he responded to the proposed order regarding the related joint motion to seal.

- COURT FINDS after review that on November 9, 2018 Defendant Keith Redmond s Motion to Lift Default of Keith Redmond and to Quash Purported Service of Process and for Attorneys Fees (Motion) was filed with the Court and the matter was heard on December 13, 2018.

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that the Motion was granted with respect to Defendant Keith Redmond s attorneys fees and costs incurred in bringing the Motion. Defendant was ordered to submit documentation of his attorneys fees and costs and this matter was set for a Status Check on January 22, 2019.

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that on January 1, 2019 the Declaration of Maximiliano D. Couvillier III, Esq. in Support of Award of Reasonable Attorneys Fees and Costs (Couvillier Declaration) was filed with the Court and the Opposition to the Declaration of Maximilliano D. Couvillier III., Esq. in Support of Award of Reasonable Attorney Fees and Costs was filed on January 11, 2019.

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that in order to recover its reasonable costs, a party is required to file and serve a memorandum [of costs] ... verified by the oath of the party ... stating that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief the items are correct, and that the costs have been necessarily incurred in the action or proceeding. Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (2015). Further, a party must demonstrate how such [claimed costs] were necessary to and incurred in the present action and provide justifying documentation for such costs. Id. at 1054 (internal citations and quotations omitted).

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review of the merits of the Defendants Motion, the justifying documentation of such costs and the Couvillier Declaration, the costs requested in the amount of $190.90 are reasonable and necessarily incurred in connection with the Motion and are supported by sufficient justifying documentation pursuant to Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP.

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that in determining that reasonableness of Attorneys Fees, the Court shall apply the following factors: (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, time and attention given to the work; (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived. Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 50 (1969).

COURT FURTHER FINDS after review of the merits of the Motion, the Couvillier Declaration and the hourly billing statements contained therein, the attorneys fees requested are related to the filing and prosecution of the Motion and are reasonable based upon: the abilities, skill, and experience of the counsel involved; the character of the work to be done; the intricacy required to examine and compile the facts and evidence related to service here, the importance of counsel s work to the progression of this case toward fair resolution involving all necessary parties, as well as the time required to do so; and the work performed by the lawyer, including investigating the services issues, strategizing, correspondence with the client and opposing counsel, drafting a motion and arguing the same before the Court and the favorable result obtained. Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 (1969).

THEREFORE, COURT ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review pursuant to the merits of the Motion, the hourly billing statements, the Couvillier Declaration and the Brunzell factors and Cadle standard addressed hereinabove, Defendant Keith Redmond is entitled to a Judgment for $11,253.40, consisting of $11,062.50 for attorney s fees and $190.90 for costs.

- Court advised a motion to stay pending appeal to enforce arbitration was filed in this matter. Counsel confirmed. Court inquired if counsel would like the hearing on the stay expedited or if they would like to proceed with the Motion for Summary Judgement. Mr. Couvillier advised he wished for today's motion to proceed. Mr. Couvillier indicated he and opposing counsel had discussed agreeing to dismiss Mr. Redman without prejudice and advised of what he anticipated would happen if the Court stayed the matter. Court advised Mr. Thomas when a party did have a cause of action to pierce the corporate veil and was alleging people acted as officers or directors, that did not necessarily present liability unless people acted outside of their scope. Mr. Thomas indicated Mr. Redman represented to him that he was never an officer or director of MMAWC. Mr. Thomas stated he could not in good faith argue against that. COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED for DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Defense was DIRECTED to cooperate with discovery. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Couvillier confirmed Mr. Redman's primary residence was in Nevada. Colloquy regarding participation in the case.
