- Richard Scow, Deputy District Attorney, present on behalf of the State. Defendant present in custody and represented by Joshua Tomsheck Esq. and Peter Christiansen Esq.

Mr. Tomsheck argued in support of Petition stating; counts 5 and 15 deal with a minor child which there is no evidence in the record to support Defendant knew there was a child present at the time of the incident. Further, based on the recent Clay decision by the Nevada Supreme Court there is not enough evidence to support count 15. Argument by Mr. Scow in opposition stating, per the testimony at the Preliminary Hearing; all victims including the child sat up in the bed yelling/crying and the deceased victim jumped toward the child to protect the child which is supported by the testimony of the surviving victims. Court FINDS there to be adequate evidence to support counts; therefore, COURT ORDERED, Petition DENIED. State to prepare the appropriate order.

- Clark Patrick, Esq., appearing as stand-by counsel for the Defendant.

Deft. inquired if the State can force him to go to trial knowing that all discovery hasn't been produced. Court advised the Deft. that the State does not force anyone to go to trial. Mr. Raman stated discovery has been provided numerous times to numerous attorneys throughout the history of this case; Deft. is not making any specific requests so the blanket statement that the Deft. doesn't have discovery doesn't hold much value. Upon Court's inquiry, Deft. stated he is missing everything as there are four boxes that were sent by the last attorney the jail but the jail refuses to give all four boxes. Upon further inquiry, the Deft. states the jail refuses to provide all four boxes because they deem it as a fire hazard. Court stated it will make sure the Deft. has access to all four boxes by the end of today. Deft. further stated that he has a concern regarding the missing court date and advised the Court that he has a pinched nerve so it would have brutal to be shackled in a fixed position, however, the Court ordered to be brought to court by any means necessary and doesn't understand why that would happen. preparing for in the event that he gives up his right to proceed pro se in the middle of trial. Court advised the Deft. that's not how this process works as the Deft. has chosen to represent himself, Mr. Patrick is not preparing for a defense and that is something that is now up to the Deft. to do and that Mr. Patrick will aid the Deft. if any complex legal issues come up.

Mr. Raman stated he is ready to proceed to trial and Mr. Patrick stated he is ready to proceed to trial as stand-by counsel. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Raman stated there will be 14-18 witnesses in the case in chief, 4-6 witness for the penalty hearing and the trial should take 2-3 weeks. Mr. Patrick stated he will coordinate the Deft's wardrobe for trial. COURT ORDERED, Trial date STANDS and matter REFERRED to the Central Calendar Call. Mr. Raman noted there are no offers available for the Deft. at this time, COURT SO NOTED.
