15 OBJECTION TO DISCOVERY COMMISSIONER'S REPORT
16 AND RECOMMENDATIONS FILED NOVEMBER 12, 2019

17 COMES NOW Defendant, ROY ZALMAN, by and through his 18 attorney of record, JENNIFER V. ABRAMS, ESQ., of THE ABRAMS &
19 MAYO LAW FIRM, and hereby objects to the Discovery Commissioner's 20 Report and Recommendations filed November 12, 2019.

21 ///

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. Roy objects to the finding at page 3, lines 19-22, that 3 “Defendant’s deposition this was properly noticed and 4 stipulated to be this morning at 10/4/19 at 9:00 a.m. with 5 Defendant appearing in Florida via video but Defendant 6 did not appear for the deposition and is present in Las 7 Vegas for this hearing a few hours later.”

8 The Discovery Commissioner essentially found that Roy didn’t 9 appear for his deposition. The Discovery Commissioner did not give 10 proper weight to the gamesmanship by Adi and her counsel in making 11 such finding.

12 There is a transcript of the Meet and Confer between Emily 13 McFarling and Trevor Hatfield on September 25, 2019. During the meet 14 and confer, Attorney McFarling represented that that she would prefer 15 to depose Roy in person and therefore, agrees to continue Roy’s 16 deposition from October 4th to the following week if Roy would appear in 17 person.¹ Before Attorney Abrams substituted in for Attorney Hatfield, 18 she contacted Attorney Hatfield out of concern that she would be 19 unavailable the morning of October 4th, which was the scheduled time 20 for Roy’s deposition. Based on this documented representation by 21 Attorney McFarling, Attorney Hatfield informed Attorney Abrams that 22 he didn’t believe Adi’s counsel would have any issue with continuing 23 ¹ Please see excerpt from the meet and confer attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 Roy's deposition from the 4th to the following week, so long as Roy 2 appeared in person. Attorney Abrams asked that the deposition be 3 rescheduled prior to her substitution back into the case even though, 4 based on the foregoing, Attorney Abrams did not believe that Attorney 5 McFarling would refuse to move the deposition.

6 As requested by Attorney Abrams, prior to the substitution, 7 Attorney Hatfield requested that Roy's deposition be continued from 8 October 4th to the following week, as he and Adi's counsel had previously 9 discussed. Attorney Hatfield's office offered that Roy would appear in 10 person and would be available all day avoiding the need to take Roy's 11 deposition over more than one day. After a follow up, Attorney 12 McFarling responded that she was "still making a decision on that issue 13 and will let you know as soon as I decide." A few hours after sending 14 that email, Attorney McFarling received the Substitution of Attorney.
15 She then took the unreasonable position, contrary to her earlier 16 representation, that she would now not agree to continue Roy's 17 deposition. Attorney Abrams pointed out that she was providing 18 thousands of pages of disclosures, that a status check hearing may not 19 even be necessary upon receiving same, that she had a schedule conflict

1 the morning of October 4th and both she and Roy would be available all 2 day on October 11, 2019.²

3 Accordingly, Adi's counsel was on notice as of Wednesday, October 4 2, 2019 that Roy's deposition would need to be continued. Nevertheless, 5 Kimber Laux apparently appeared at Depo International, purportedly 6 for Roy's Skype deposition from Florida even though she knew Roy was 7 in Las Vegas, even though she knew Roy's counsel was unavailable and 8 would be unable to appear, and even though it was clear that Emily 9 McFarling was going to depose Roy, not her associate Kimber Laux.
10 Emily McFarling was not at Depo International that morning.

11 Adi's counsel knew that Roy was in Las Vegas, not in Florida, 12 because Roy personally appeared at the safe deposit box inspection a day 13 or so earlier. Further, Adi confirmed that Roy was in Las Vegas as of 14 October 3rd at approximately 6:00 p.m. because she had the children call 15 Roy and specifically ask him if he was in Las Vegas, to which he 16 responded, "yes."³ Further, it was clear from all prior communications 17 that Emily McFarling was going to depose Roy, not her associate, and 18 ² Please see email exchanges attached hereto as Exhibit B.

19 ³ Roy was in the office of the undersigned when the call came in from the children.
20 Roy answered the phone on speaker and said "hello." A child's voice on the other end 21 of the call responded with something to the effect of "Abba (dad in Hebrew), are you in Las Vegas?" Roy responded "yes."

1 Emily McFarling was not available the morning of October 4, 2 2019 due to illness. The only reason that Kimber showed up at Depo 3 International was to incur unnecessary costs for the specific purpose of 4 playing victim, attacking Roy, and seeking awards of fees and costs from 5 Roy and his family. This is the definition of bad faith and vexatiousness.

6 Roy was deposed for a full day on October 21, 2019. He appeared 7 in person and both he and Attorney Abrams made themselves available 8 the entire day for the deposition. Therefore, there was no prejudice to 9 Adi or her counsel for the continuance of Roy's deposition as previously 10 agreed upon counsel. The allegation that Roy was non-compliant is a 11 farce – he was available. He, however, is entitled to counsel of his 12 choosing and he did not feel comfortable with Attorney Hatfield's 13 representation. The undersigned was unavailable and made that known 14 immediately. The allegation against Roy is nonsense and pure 15 gamesmanship as Attorney Abrams offered alternative dates and full 16 cooperation which was unreasonably rejected for the specific purpose of 17 "crying wolf."⁴

18 ///

19 ///

20 ⁴ To "cry wolf" is to keep asking for help when you do not need it.

21 www.dictionary.cambridge.org/us/dictionary/english/cry-wolf.

1 II. Roy objects to the Discovery Commissioner's finding at 2 page 4, line 5, that "any admissions still not responded to 3 should be deemed admitted."

4 The Discovery Commissioner recommended the following at the 5 September 20, 2019 hearing:

6 IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that Defendant's 7 responses to request for admissions are not deemed 8 admitted, but the objections therein are deemed waived as 9 they were late. Arguments for objections made in 10 Defendant's admission responses are reserved for 11 the October 4th status check.⁵ (Emphasis Added)

12 Based upon the language of the recommendation as drafted by Adi's 13 counsel (Attorney Abrams was not present at the September 20, 2019 14 hearing), Roy's counsel believed that she would have the opportunity to 15 argue for the objections to the Request for Admissions at the October 4th 16 Status Check hearing. Instead, the Discovery Commissioner summarily 17 deemed any Requests in which objections were made admitted, directly 18 contrary to the recommendations she made on September 20th.

19 It is noteworthy that at the September 20, 2019 hearing, the 20 Discovery Commissioner also found that the request for a three (3) day 21 extension for the Responses to Request for Admissions was reasonable
"considering discovery closes on October 7, 2019 and trial is November

20 ⁵ Please see page three (3), lines twenty-one (21) through twenty-four (24), of the 21 Report and Recommendations filed October 18, 2019.

1 15, 2019.” The Discovery Commissioner made this finding even though 2 she incorrectly believed that this case had been pending for two years
3 and that Trial was moving forward on November 15, 2019.

4 Considering that the Discovery Commissioner found the three-day 5 extension as reasonable and recommended that Roy address his 6 objections at the next hearing, it was completely reasonable for Roy to 7 believe that he would be able to argue his objections at the October 4, 8 2019 status check hearing. Instead, the Discovery Commissioner 9 summarily deemed any Request not responded to as admitted, directly 10 contrary to what she recommended on the record two weeks earlier. It is 11 noteworthy that since that hearing, Roy has supplemented his 12 Responses to the Request for Admissions for any request that had an 13 objection thereto.

14 Therefore, the objections to the Requests for Admissions should 15 not be deemed waived and none of the Admissions should be deemed 16 admitted.

17 III. Roy objects to the Discovery Commissioner’s 18 recommendation at page 4, lines 7-10 that “Plaintiff is 19 awarded from Defendant, Roy Zalman attorney’s fees and 20 costs in the amount of $5,270.50.”

21 In reviewing Adi’s counsel’s Memorandum of Attorney’s Fees and Costs re: Defendant, she appears to be including many fees and costs for

1 work that would have been necessary regardless of the Motion to 2 Compel. Specifically, she included approximately $990 in fees via her 3 July billing statement for preparing Subpoenas to Wells Fargo, Citibank, 4 Home Depot and Plasim Homes. Said Subpoenas were prepared prior to 5 propounding the Request for Production of Documents upon Roy.
6 Therefore, they had nothing to do with Roy's Responses and should not 7 have been included in the Memo of Fees and Costs. An additional 8 approximately $640 was included in August regarding the same 9 Subpoenas. Furthermore, at least $230 was included for the initial 10 noticing of depositions for Roy and his parents. Adi's counsel also 11 included fees for "reviewed MyCase correspondence" (included in 12 8/12/19 entry), "revised client's FDF" (included in 8/16/19 entry) and 13 "Audit and index client documents in preparation for 12th amended 14 disclosures" (included in 8/30/19 entry), which total approximately 15 $800 in fees. There are also invoices related to runner services in the 16 amount of $250 for serving subpoenas that would have been incurred 17 regardless.

18 There was an additional approximately $980 in fees related to 19 subpoenas in September's billing statement. Furthermore, there was 20 $160 for reviewing the Responses to Admissions (9/10/19 entry), $240
21 for reviewing emails, MyCase correspondence and Admission responses

1 (9/10/19 entry), $40 for reviewing documents from client (9/13/19
2 entry), $40 for reviewing the withdrawal of interested parties (9/23/19
3 entry), $40 for preparing a letter on log for Wells Fargo box (9/27/19 4 entry), as well as $388 in costs related to Subpoenas. Additionally, they 5 appear to be including $70 in October for their Errata to their 13th 6 Production of Documents. Finally, in addition to Attorney Laux billing 7 for preparation and attendance at the discovery status check hearing, 8 Attorney Vazquez also billed an additional $1,320 for also preparing for 9 and attending the very same hearing. Two attorneys were not necessary 10 at the hearing and in fact, Kimber Laux did not speak at all (her presence 11 at the hearing is not even noted in the minutes or the Report and 12 Recommendation). They are billing for two attorneys for a status check 13 hearing that they could have (and should have) agreed to continue to 14 allow time to review the documentation provided by Roy's new counsel.

15 On October 4, 2019, Kimber Laux billed 1.5 hours to attend a 16 deposition that she knew was not going forward and she knew she was 17 not taking. Presumably, this time consisted of .5 of travel time to Depo 18 International, .5 waiting and making a record, and .5 of travel time back 19 to her office. The deposition was scheduled to begin at 9:00 a.m. so 20 presumably, Kimber would have had to left her office by 8:30 a.m.
21 Kimber also billed 4 hours for alleged "preparation time" including

1 "Draft deposition questions and attach relevant exhibits" on October 4th
2 prior to leaving her office at 8:30 a.m. The proposition that Kimber 3 began working on this case at 4:30 a.m. or earlier on October 4th is just 4 not believable under these circumstances. It appears that in this "pre-5 bill," Adi and her counsel took the liberty of embellishing the charges for 6 the specific purpose of attacking Roy.

7 Furthermore, several of the entries are related to scheduling dates 8 and agreeing on the documentation which was discoverable. These are 9 typical expenses in coordinating on discovery matters. Furthermore, 10 many of the time entries relate to matters that are still in dispute when 11 you consider that the third-parties haven't intervened and have a 12 pending motion for protective order. Additionally, many of the 13 Interrogatories propounded by Adi's counsel were not reasonable. For 14 example, Interrogatory No. 25 requests "a full accounting and 15 itemization of all monies you personally have received from January 1, 16 2015 through the present, specifying the exact amount received and 17 from whom the same was received during each and every month, during 18 this time period." This request for a monthly accounting of every dollar 19 for 58 months is not a reasonable request. Another example is found in 20 Interrogatory No. 34 which requests "a complete accounting of all 21 deposits and withdrawals of $2,000 or more (or the approximate

1 equivalent in any other currency) from any bank account in your name 2 or under your control from the date of marriage to present.” This is 3 another unreasonable request, seeking an accounting for a period of 4 approximately 14 years. These are just two of many examples of 5 unreasonable requests propounded by Adi’s counsel for which she 6 continued to seek responses. Finally, it is also noteworthy that even 7 though Adi requests documentation from Roy, she submits blanket 8 objections to each and every single document disclosed by 9 Roy in violation of NRCP 16.2. Therefore, she expends fees 10 propounding discovery upon Roy just to object when he provides the 11 requested documentation.

12 Based upon the foregoing, Roy requests that this Court set aside 13 the award of attorney’s fees made by the Discovery Commissioner and 14 defer the issue until the time of Trial.

Chalese has a job and it is going to be very difficult to maintain a job with her unable to get any help on her days getting them to and from school like you and Jessica are able to do. Trying to make this as simple as possible so she can do what she needs to do.

If I don't get a reply from you I'll take it as you didn't receive it so I'll copy and paste the same message to Jessica so if you got this please let me know.

The report will be released from the FBI shortly

Today 8:32 PM

Attorney for Plaintiff

13 I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14 Plaintiff, ADAM MICHAEL SOLINGER (hereinafter referred to as 15 “Adam”), and Defendant, CHALESE MARIE SOLINGER (hereinafter 16 referred to as “Chalese”), were married seven (7) years ago on May 12, 17 2012, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife. There are 18 two (2) minor children of the marriage, to wit: Michael Adam Solinger, 19 date of birth: June 16, 2015, 4 years old and Marie Leona Solinger, date of 20 birth: August 28, 2017, 2 years old. The parties separated in November of 21 2018. Adam was awarded primary physical custody of the minor children,

1 with Chalese having visitation two days per week. Josh, who lives with 2 Chalese, is present when the children are at their home.

3 Josh's Involvement in Chalese and the Children's Lives

4 Chalese entered into a marriage ceremony with Josh on April 9, 5 2019 at the Neon Chapel downtown – while still married to Adam. Chalese 6 stated during her deposition that she and Josh are very close, are in a 7 long-term relationship and that the wedding ceremony was an expression 8 of their feelings for each other. Chalese stated she and Josh bought rings 9 just before they entered into their ceremony. Chalese went on to confirm 10 they told a number of family members and friends about the ceremony, 11 with people congratulating them on social media, and that Chalese and 12 Josh refer to her as “Chalese Anderson Lloyd” on social media.¹ Chalese
13 even confirmed Josh referred to Chalese to as his “wife” on a post.²

14 That is not the extent of their relationship though. Title to the 15 Curdsen Way property Chalese recently bought is actually in her name 16 and Josh's name. This is important because Chalese falsely testified 17 during her deposition that it was just Josh's Dad and her on the mortgage, 18 not Josh. Chalese and Josh also have two joint credit cards together, per 19 her FDF: A Capital One card and a Citibank card. Further, Chalese's

20 ¹ See the Facebook posts, attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

21 ² See the Facebook posts, attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

1 admitted during her deposition that Josh contributes towards at least half 2 of her monthly household expenses.

3 Unfortunately, Josh has a deep and disturbing past. He has a 4 criminal record, including domestic violence. He has a current mother of 5 his child whom he was recently involved in custody litigation with whom 6 again accused Josh of domestic violence.

7 Josh has also directed his violent tendencies and criminal behavior 8 towards Adam and the children. Josh has threatened the children stating 9 that he was going to “whoop their asses” and directly threatened to fight 10 Adam. Josh has left reviews on Adam’s employer’s website unrelated to 11 Adam’s professional services.³ Rather, it was because he did not like the 12 fact Adam had involved him in the litigation. In fact, Josh attempted to 13 coerce Adam, telling him he would contact his girlfriend and the 14 authorities regarding alleged child porn he supposedly had (which has 15 been disproven) if he did not agree to leave him out of the litigation.⁴ Even 16 Josh’s family has been involved in these matters, having called Adam’s 17 work and telling them Adam should be fired unless he signed documents 18 Chalese wanted him to sign.

19 ///

20 ³ See the online review from Josh, attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

21 ⁴ See the texts from Josh to Adam, attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

1 Josh additionally has a bad driving record, involving at least ten 2 traffic citations over the last ten years. Josh has smoked marijuana for 3 years, and continues to be a chronic user of marijuana. Josh also drinks 4 alcohol. Because of these concerns, the Honorable Cheryl Moss ordered 5 in March 2019 that Josh was not to drive the minor children. Despite the 6 fact, he has done so on numerous occasions. Josh was also not to be left 7 alone with the children. This order was also violated. Chalese admitted 8 this and Adam's PI confirmed as much.

9 Additionally, Josh has another ex-girlfriend who is unstable and 10 has made threats against Chalese and Josh. Chalese received a message 11 from a woman who was disgruntled with Josh that stated, "Don't fuck 12 with people who know where you live and where your kids sleep", "I hope 13 you all literally die", "It's a FUCKING PROMISE", "I know where you live.
14 I know where your kids go the school" and "karmas a bitch watch your 15 back and your bastard kids too." This woman alleges that Josh tried to 16 rape her mentally disabled younger brother.⁵ Obviously, this is alarming 17 to Adam and there are questions that Josh needs to be asked not only 18 because of this accusation but because someone is threatening Adam's 19 children because of Josh.

21 _____
⁵ See messages between Chalese and Lauren Elaine attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

1 The Scheduled November 15, 2019 Deposition

2 After Josh's deposition was noticed for November 15, 2019, a 3 potential conflict arose related to a hearing set before the Honorable Bill 4 Henderson for 1:30 p.m. Because of this potential conflict, the fact that 5 Mr. Mayo did not have Josh's contact information and Mr. Mayo had no
6 notice of whether Josh was represented, Mr. Mayo reached out Chalese's 7 counsel Mr. Fleeman on November 13, 2019, asking if he could have 8 Chalese notify Josh that Mr. Mayo wanted to start instead at 3:00 p.m. on 9 the 15th. Mr. Mayo then planned accordingly.

10 Mr. Mayo was in Court in front of Judge Henderson on a different 11 matter on the morning of the 15th and notified the Court's marshal that 12 Mr. Mayo needed to be done with the afternoon hearing by 2:00 p.m. and 13 absolutely no later than 2:30 p.m. The marshal stated he understood and 14 would convey the message to the Court. Unfortunately, the 1:30 p.m.
15 hearing went until 4:00 p.m.⁶ As a result, the deposition had to be 16 rescheduled, with Mr. Mayo's paralegal providing Josh, his attorney Ms.
17 Throne and Ms. Exley from Pecos Law Group said re-notices.

20

⁶ This was due to Judge Henderson attempting to have the parties reach a settlement 21 in Court when both counsel had told Judge Henderson at the commencement of the hearing that a settlement conference had been held at Mr. Mayo's office prior to the hearing and no settlement could be reached.

1 Mr. Mayo was able to get a hold of Ms. Throne via a telephone call 2 on Tuesday morning. He apologized for his missing the deposition but 3 stated he was willing to reimburse Ms. Throne for her fees related to the 4 time she spent at Mr. Mayo's office on November 15th, as well as 5 reimbursing Josh for his missed pay for that afternoon and his witness 6 fee. To that end, he asked for proof of Ms. Throne's billable rate for her 7 attendance as well as proof of Josh's hourly pay rate. Mr. Mayo also stated 8 that he could limit the time he needed for Josh's deposition to just two 9 hours. Ms. Throne said she would speak to her client and call Mr. Mayo 10 back. However, Ms. Throne also stated the afternoon was better for her 11 on December 2nd. Mr. Mayo stated he would consider moving Josh's 12 deposition until the afternoon at either 2:00 p.m. or 2:30 p.m. but he 13 needed to get confirmation from his client.

14 Next thing Mr. Mayo knew, he received an email from Ms. Throne 15 stating that Josh's employer was allegedly "upset" that he had missed 16 work and Josh did not want to risk "losing his job" if he had to take some 17 more time off for the deposition. No other objection was made to the 18 deposition by Josh's counsel.

19 Mr. Mayo also spoke to Ms. Exley, Chalese's counsel. Mr. Mayo told 20 Ms. Exley he was sorry for having missed the deposition, that he was in 21 the process of confirming the renoticed deposition time and that he was

1 willing to pay Ms. Exley for the time spent waiting on November 15th but 2 that he would need a copy of their retainer agreement showing her hourly 3 rate. It is of note discovery requesting same was previously propounded, 4 discovery that to date is still outstanding.

5 II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

6 A. Josh's Motion for a Protective Order Should be 7 Denied

8 NRCF 30(a) states in relevant part:

9 (a) When a Deposition May Be Taken.

10 (1) Without Leave. A party may, by oral questions, 11 depose any person, including a party, without leave of court 12 except as provided in Rule 30(a)(2). The deponent's attendance 13 may be compelled by subpoena under Rule 45.

14 (2) With Leave. A party must obtain leave of court, 15 and the court must grant leave to the extent consistent with Rule 16 26(b)(1) and (2):

17 (A) if the parties have not stipulated to the deposition 18 and:

19 (i) the deposition would result in more than 10 20 depositions being taken under this rule or Rule 31 by the 21 plaintiffs, or by the defendants, or by the third-party defendants, not counting any deposition that is solely a custodian-of-records deposition;

(ii) the deponent has already been deposed in the case; or

(iii) the party seeks to take the deposition before the time specified in Rule 26(a), unless the party certifies in the notice, with supporting facts, that the deponent is expected to leave Nevada and be unavailable for examination in the state after that time; or

(B) if the deponent is confined in prison.

1 Josh has no actionable grounds upon which to oppose his 2 deposition being taken. It is of note that Josh does not oppose the 3 need for his deposition to be taken, just that he doesn't want his 4 employer upset that he will miss more work. However, missing work is 5 not grounds upon which to refuse to be deposed. If that were the case, 6 everyone would be able to avoid being deposed.

7 People are subject to be involved in litigation and are required to 8 cooperate if subpoenaed, called as a witness, etc., even if they feel they are 9 not part of the matter. However, that is not even the situation with Josh.

10 Josh chose to live with Chalese and involve himself in her life.

11 He also chose to involve himself in Adam's life and this divorce.

12 Therefore, Josh not liking that his employer will be upset about missing 13 time from work is a result of his own actions.⁷

14 Josh's position is even less convincing due to the fact Mr. Mayo 15 could have scheduled Josh for an all-day deposition if it had been 16 necessary. If he had, Josh would not have been able to object to same.
17 Instead, Mr. Mayo was willing to set the rescheduled deposition for just 18 two hours. Even counting the missed time for the deposition on

19 _____
20 ⁷ Josh can also be immature and dishonest, meaning his representations are often not 21 credible. For example, Josh made a Facebook post the morning of the deposition stating he was leaving town that morning. Clearly Josh did not and it is this type of childishness which Adam has had to deal with. See the November 15, 2019 Facebook post by Josh, attached as Exhibit 6.

1 November 15th, that still would have been less than a full day Mr. Mayo 2 was entitled to under the statute.

3 It is of note Mr. Mayo having missed the scheduled deposition was 4 an honest miscalculation due to forces outside of his control. Obviously, 5 Mr. Mayo had no intention of setting a deposition just to intentionally 6 miss it. Nevertheless, apologized to Ms. Throne and Ms. Exley and offered 7 to make them and Josh whole.

8 As for Josh taking exception to the date unilaterally chosen when 9 Josh's deposition was re-noticed, a date obviously had to be set in the 10 notice. Mr. Mayo did tell Ms. Throne on November 19th though that he 11 was willing to be flexible with her as to the date and time.

12 In regard to the requested reimbursement of fees and missed pay, 13 Josh and his counsel are being greedy. The law does not entitle Ms.
14 Throne, Josh or Ms. Exley to be paid for fees incurred or work 15 missed for the actual deposition of Josh (other than the 16 witness fee). Mr. Mayo understands that Josh and counsel should be 17 reimbursed for fees and lost pay for the original deposition that did not go 18 forward.⁸ However, they are not entitled to be paid for attending the 19 make-up deposition other than an additional witness fee. Further, costs

21 ⁸ Ms. Throne's represented fees for the 11/15/19 date was $750; Josh's witness fee for the 11/15/19 date is $25. Ms. Exley represented fees for the 11/15/19 date was $660.

1 for travel are limited to attendance “before a court of record, master, 2 commissioner, justice of the peace, or before the grand jury...” NRS 3 50.225. The statute does not include depositions.

4 It is of note that Chalese also filed a Motion to join in with Josh’s
5 motion for protective order. Chalese’s motion adds nothing new to Josh’s 6 position, other than to try and make a weak attempt to influence the Court 7 by misrepresenting matters. For example, Chalese claims Adam “does not 8 pay her support” as is if he is in arrears when in fact Adam did until the 9 Judge ended Adam’s obligation. Chalese claims Adam is harassing her by 10 having a PI observe her and Josh, completely ignoring that by having the 11 PI do so, Adam was able to confirm Chalese has been violating the Court’s 12 orders. Chalese does not like that Adam contacted Josh’s ex-girlfriend 13 when the law 100% entitles to him to. Chalese complains that her counsel 14 has not been provided $660 for attendance at the missed deposition but 15 she omits that proof of her billable rate per her retainer agreement has yet 16 to be provided to Mr. Mayo for confirmation. Chalese complains that 17 Adam’s father has assisted him with his costs in this but Chalese herself 18 has received $80,000 from her wealthy mother in Florida for her fees.
19 Chalese complains that Josh took off a day of work and would have to 20 “take off a second day of work” for his deposition but Josh only took off 21 half a day for the 15th and would only need to take off a few hours for the 1 re-noticed date.

2 IV. COUNTERMOTION

3 A. Adam, Not Josh or Chalese, is Entitled to An Award
4 of Attorney's Fees

Adam is entitled to take Josh's deposition – neither side denies this.

5 However, their argument that Josh will miss work is not a sufficient 6 reason to avoid his re-noticed deposition. Mr. Mayo offered to make Josh 7 and counsel whole and instead, they filed motions for a protective order.

8 Further, there was no attempt to resolve the issue in good faith by either 9 Josh or Chalese. Josh's simply stated upon inquiry from Mr. Mayo that he 10 did not want to miss work so he would not be attending his re-noticed 11 deposition. Nor did Chalese's counsel provide their retainer agreement.

12 Instead, Josh and Chalese decided to be difficult and try to come up with 13 an excuse to avoid Josh being deposed. Adam should not be forced to be 14 out of pocket in this matter and should be awarded fees pursuant to NRCP 15 37(a)(5) and NRCP 30(d)(2).

1 IV. CONCLUSION

2 Based on the aforementioned facts, law and analysis, the Court
3 should deny the relief requested in Joshua Lloyd's and Chalese Solinger's 4 motions and grant the relief requested in Adam Solinger's Countermotion 5 in its entirety.

Josh, Carmen called me and said she thinks you guys have created a fake Facebook page and are harassing her on Facebook, and Chalese's husband will be looking into it. Please tell me you aren't doing this sort of childish bs. Your dad is at the painters meeting. I'm at a political event. What do you say about it? "

Chalese has a job and it is going to be very difficult to maintain a job with her unable to get any help on her days getting them to and from school like you and Jessica are able to do. Trying to make this as simple as possible so she can do what she needs to do.

If I don't get a reply from you I'll take it as you didn't receive it so I'll copy and paste the same message to Jessica so if you got this please let me know.

The report will be released from the FBI shortly

Today 8:32 PM

Did you get my message?
Pretty sure this wouldn't be good for your job if your habits got out to the media or the bar.

14 I. REPLY

15 Chalese's Opposition is nothing more than a slew of excuses all 16 designed to avoid her obligation to participate in discovery in good faith.
17 Chalese alleges that she was never provided Adam's discovery requests 18 by her prior counsel, Louis Schneider, but Mr. Schneider never admitted 19 he did not provide Chalese Adam's discovery. As for Chalese's "discovery 20 responses," served September 5th, they were nothing of the kind. Instead, 21 they merely repeated that Chalese would provide actual responses in the 1 future. However, a month later, Chalese still has not provided anything 2 responsive to Adam.

3 Adam's motion to compel was a culmination of repeated failures
4 by Chalese to respond to discovery. It was filed after her new counsel 5 had sufficient time to respond and did not.

6 Chalese statement that there was never a "definite date for 7 supplemental responses" requested by Mr. Mayo is a falsehood. First of 8 all, Chalese never gave actual discovery responses. Hence, her attempt to 9 designate the actual responses as "supplemental responses" is pure 10 fiction intended to deceive the Court as no discovery that was actually 11 responsive to Adam's discovery requests was provided on September 5th.
12 Second, a hard date of September 20th was clearly communicated to 13 Chalese's counsel and merely because Adam did not file a motion to 14 compel immediately that afternoon does not mean the deadline was 15 negated.

16 The same applies to Chalese's ludicrous claim that there was no
17 EDCR 5.602 conference. EDCR 5.602 only requires for counsel to confer 18 in person or at least over the phone. Counsel in fact conferred face to 19 face on September 16th, September 25th and October 3rd. The September 20 25th and October 3rd conferences were even after Adam's counsel sent an 21 email on September 23rd stating counsel needed to confer. Chalese's

1 counsel, who has been practicing exclusively in family law for many 2 years cannot now play ignorant and claim they did not understand Mr.
3 Mayo's repeated, face-to-face attempts to obtain responses to discovery 4 did not count because Mr. Mayo did not start the conversation with "You 5 are on notice that this is our EDCR 5.602 conference..."

6 As for Adam's opposition to Chalese's motion to continue trial, it 7 must be understood that the October 9, 2019 and October 10, 2019 trial 8 dates had been set since March 19, 2019 – seven months prior.
9 Therefore, and despite the fact she had seven months, Chalese refused to 10 cooperate in either propounding discovery or providing it. While Chalese 11 conveniently blames it on her prior counsel, Chalese chose to spend her 12 time insisting the parties "settle" while simultaneously taking a course of 13 action that guaranteed the parties would not be able to settle.
14 Specifically, Chalese reckless endangerment of the parties' children and 15 violation of Court orders resulted in Adam being awarded primary 16 physical custody. It was on Chalese to conduct herself in a fashion that 17 was in the children's best interest and that would permit for settlement 18 or else prudently prepare for trial. She failed to do either and Adam had 19 no interest in continuing trial for many more months due to Chalese's 20 misconduct and apathy when it came to properly working her own case.

1 Therefore, Adam had no option but to proceed to trial. He would 2 obviously had preferred to have Chalese's discovery responses for trial 3 but would have rather obtained a resolution to the matter through the 4 Court then let the uncertainty and fees pile on for months and months 5 via a continuance.

6 It is of note that as of the date Chalese filed her Opposition to 7 Adam's motion to compel on November 7th, she still had not provided 8 her discovery responses. Even when she did the next day, they were 9 massively deficient. Adam's counsel sent Chalese's a deficiency letter 10 pursuant to EDCR 5.602 pointing out the deficiencies and requesting 11 Chalese cure them by no later than November 22, 2019. The relevant 12 portions of the letter are as follows:

13 This letter is written pursuant to EDCR 5.602. After a review of the 14 supplemental discovery responses produced, we have noticed the 15 following information/documents that are either missing, or need to be supplemented pursuant to your client's continuing obligations under NRCP 16.2:

16 Interrogatory Number 1: As to Cookie Cutter, Chalese did not 17 disclose her average monthly tips received from said employment.
Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

18 Interrogatory Number 4: This response is missing the facts 19 Chalese based her belief on (especially the names, addresses and 20 contact information for every employer Chalese supposedly applied with). Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

1 Interrogatory Number 5: This response is missing name of 2 employer/shop, contacts name, what was discussed, whether positions were offered and dates. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

4 Interrogatory Number 6: This response is missing any past problems of significance (including her claim that she could not 5 drive on her medication), address for providers, conditions she was diagnosed with, dates of treatment, how long she has taken 6 medication, where she purchases it. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

7 Interrogatory Number 9: This response is entirely deficient.
8 Chalese has lived in the Curdsen Way residence since late August 2019, meaning she by now has bills for the monthly expenses 9 related to the residence. Further, many of the expenses are independent from where she resides. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

10 Interrogatory Number 10: This response is entirely deficient.
11 Chalese was asked to provide the facts upon which she is basing a request for alimony, not the legal basis. Chalese needs to answer 12 the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

13 Interrogatory Number 11: This response is missing the nature of trip, airlines utilized cost of travel, whether she was reimbursed, 14 etc. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

15 Interrogatory Number 13: Chalese needs to list what documents 16 support her separate property claim. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

17 Interrogatory Number 20: This response is entirely deficient.
18 Chalese states that she cannot remember “all” purchases she made, meaning she remembers at least some of them. Chalese can also 19 reference her bank statements. Chalese needs to answer this Interrogatory as best she can and with specificity.

20 Interrogatory Number 22: This response is missing the amount of 21 funds Josh contributes to Chalese or on her behalf. Chalese needs

1 to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

2 Interrogatory Number 23: This response is missing the amount of 3 funds Josh contributes to Josh. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

4 Interrogatory Number 25: This response is entirely deficient.
5 Chalese admitted she tried to sell community property. Therefore, 6 she must state why she believed she was entitled to do so. Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with specificity.

7 Interrogatory Number 27: This response is entirely deficient as 8 Chalese can easily list the artwork she has in her possession.
Chalese needs to answer the Interrogatory fully and with
specificity.

9 Request for Production Number 2: This response is missing all 10 documentation related to Chalese's compensation from employment, including but not limited to paystubs, tips registers, 11 etc. We were able to subpoena and obtained said documentation from Chalese's employer earlier this year and Chalese has the 12 ability to obtain more recent statements (and through the present) directly from her employer. Please have her disclose said documentation.

14 statements from 1/1/2016 to present. Aside from one Charles Schwab statement for January 2, 2019, Chalese has only provided 15 a few illegible screenshots of her accounts. She has not provided any of her statements. Please have her disclose said 16 documentation.

17 Request for Production Number 9: This response is entirely 18 deficient. Chalese has admitted Josh Lloyd contributes to her monthly expenses, which would include receipts, invoices, service statements, etc. Please have her disclose said documentation.

20 debt statements from 1/1/2018 to present. Aside from a loan quote, an unsigned promissory note and illegible account snap 21 shots, Chalese has not provided statements evidencing any and all

1 debt she has. Please have her disclose said documentation.

2 Request for Production Number 21: As Chalese can easily obtain 3 her credit report, these objections are not in good faith. Please have her disclose said documentation.

4 Request for Production Number 27: This response is missing the 5 October 2019 billing statement for firm and retainer, all billing 6 statements, all payments and retainer agreements for Chalese's previous two attorney's, and retention agreements and billing statements for any experts she has hired and utilized. Please have her disclose said documentation.

7 Request for Production Number 34: Again, this response is 8 deficient. As photos can be easily taken on Chalese's smart phone, 9 these objections are not in good faith. Please have her disclose said documentation.

10 Request for Production Number 37: This response is entirely
11 deficient. Chalese has admitted Josh Lloyd contributes to her 12 monthly expenses, which would include receipts, invoices, service
statements, etc. Please have her disclose said documentation.

13 You are requested to produce the requested information by the 14 close of business on November 22, 2019, at 5:00 p.m. As always, should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to call.

15 Chalese did not provide the required responses or documentation by the 16 deadline. However, what made this worse is that Chalese had 17 the information and simply chose not to provide it. For 18 example, Adam requested Chalese provide her tip information but chose 19 to only list her hourly rate for her salary. Adam requested to know 20 everyone she had applied for work with. Chalese did not list it. Adam 21 asked Chalese to provide her bank statements but refused to despite

1 telling Adam via text months ago that he had them all.¹ Adam asked for 2 her credit card statements but Chalese choose not to provide them.
3 These repeated failures on Chalese's part easily show that she is acting in 4 bad faith and willfully refused to abide by NRCP 26, 33 or 34.

5 Finally, Chalese's discovery responses were due on September 4, 6 2019. Chalese failed to provide them by that date. Further, Chalese's 7 shell response served the next day which simply stated Chalese would 8 provide responses in the future did not constitute timely or sufficient 9 notice of objections made with "specificity." NRCP 33(4) and NRCP 10 34(b)(2)(C). Chalese was also required to state what documents she had 11 and an objection explaining why she was refusing to provide them. She 12 refused to do this as well.

13 III. CONCLUSION

14 Based on the foregoing, this Honorable Court should grant the 15 relief requested in Adam's Motion in its entirety, consisting of the 16 following:

- 17 (1) Wavier of Chalese's objections;
- 18 (2) Ordering Chalese to respond accurately and in full to the 19 deficiencies Adam outlined in his letter by no later than 20 December 13, 2019 or if she does not, the Court grant an order allowing Adam to make inferences supportive to his case based on the missing information and barring Chalese from opposing same; and

(3) Awarding Adam an award of attorney's fees and costs.

18 I. INTRODUCTION

19 This is a divorce case. Plaintiff, Adam Solinger, ("Plaintiff") is a licensed 20 attorney, and has endless amounts of money to harass and litigate this case.
21 Defendant, Chalese Solinger, ("Defendant") had been a stay at home mother, with 22 minimal financial resources. This case was commenced on January 4, 2019, when 23 Plaintiff filed his complaint.

24 A divorce trial was originally scheduled to commence on October 9, 2019. On 25 October 3, 2019, the District Court continued the trial for a third time and three days 26 have been calendered for the trial to take place. The trial is now scheduled to be

1 commenced on January 13, 2020, and conclude on January 15, 2020. Discovery is 2 scheduled to close on December 13, 2019, at the close of business.

4 As indicated in both parties pleadings, Plaintiff has been well aware of 5 Plaintiff's relationship with Joshua since as early as April 2019. Yet, although the trial 6 was originally scheduled to commence on October 9, 2019, Plaintiff never elected to 7 conduct Joshua's deposition prior to the original discovery cut off. Pursuant to the 8 Case and Non-Jury Trial Management order entered on March 19, 2019, discovery 9 was to close on September 9, 2019.

11 It was not until after the evidentiary hearing/trial was continued, that Plaintiff 12 all of sudden felt the need to conduct Joshua's deposition. As indicated in Defendant's 13 joinder, Plaintiff never reached out to Defendant to schedule Joshua's deposition, and 14 instead scheduled Joshua's deposition for a day and time that presumably he would 15 be available to conduct Joshua's deposition. Joshua's deposition was scheduled based 16 solely on Plaintiff's availability for November 15, 2019, at 1:00 p.m.

18 On November 13, 2019, at 1:17 p.m., less than forty-eight hours before Joshua's 19 deposition was to commence, Plaintiff advised Defendant's counsel as follows: 20

21 I have a hearing that has been placed on calendar for this Friday at 1:30 22 p.m. It cannot be moved and Jennifer is unavailable to cover it.
23 Therefore, I will need to start Mr. Lloyd's depo at 3:00 p.m. instead of 24 1:30 p.m. I know that you do not represent Mr. Lloyd but could you do 25 me the favor of having Chalese notify him and confirming the same?
26 Being that it will result in his deposition being shorter than it would 27 have been, I would assume he would not have an issue with it.
28

1 Although Plaintiff gave less than forty-eight hours notice to Defendant and 2 Defendant's counsel, and never even bothered to reach out to Joshua to confirm there 3 would be no scheduling issues, Defendant's counsel, Joshua, and his attorney 4 appeared at Plaintiff's counsel's office willing and ready for Plaintiff to conduct his 5 deposition. Joshua, his counsel, and Defendant's counsel were informed shortly after 6 arriving that Plaintiff's counsel was on his way from court and would be a little late.

8 Defendant's counsel, Joshua, and his attorney waited at Plaintiff's counsel's 9 office for Plaintiff's counsel to arrive until around 4:30 p.m. During the hour and 10 half they waited, they were never told that Plaintiff's counsel would not be able to 11 make it and instead, had an Amended Notice of Taking Deposition for Joshua's 12 deposition handed to them. Despite waiting for an hour and a half, nobody consulted 13 with either counsel present regarding scheduling a new deposition date. Thus, for the 14 second time, Plaintiff on his own accord decided the date and time for when 15 everyone will appear for a second date for Joshua's deposition.

17 Plaintiff, in his opposition, spends several pages making personal attacks 18 against Defendant and Joshua. None of which are relevant to the pending issue 19 before the Discovery Commissioner. No one argued that Plaintiff was not entitled 20 to take Joshua's deposition. Joshua appeared on November 15, 2019 for Plaintiff to 21 conduct his deposition. Plaintiff's statements regarding Plaintiff and Joshua are 22 simply a red herring to distract the Discovery Commissioner from the true issues at 23 hand. The simple call of the question before the Discovery Commissioner, is whether 24 Joshua should be required to attend his deposition a second time, after Plaintiff failed 25 to appear to conduct his deposition on November 15, 2019. Toward that end, the 26
28

1 Discovery Commissioner should be cautious when determining whether Plaintiff 2 acted in good faith.

4 On page 6 of Plaintiff's opposition, Plaintiff's counsel attempts to explain 5 what happened on November 15, 2019. Specifically, Plaintiff's counsel states the 6 following:

- 7 1. After Josh's deposition was noticed for November 15, 2019, a 8 potential conflict arose related to a hearing set before the 9 Honorable Bill Henderson for 1:30 p.m.
- 10 2. Mr. Mayo was in Court in front of Judge Henderson on a different 11 matter on the morning of the 15th and notified the Court's marshal 12 that Mr. Mayo needed to be done with the afternoon hearing by 13 2:00 p.m. and absolutely no later than 2:30 p.m. The marshal 14 stated he understood and would convey the message to the Court.
15 Unfortunately, the 1:30 p.m. hearing went until 4:00 p.m.

16 Based upon the representations in Plaintiff's counsel email on November 13, 17 2019, and statements in his opposition, one would assume that an order shortening 18 time, or something to that nature occurred and Plaintiff's counsel's hands were tied.
19 This is obviously understandable. However, this is not the case.

20 Plaintiff's counsel did have a hearing before Judge Henderson on November 21 15, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. Plaintiff's counsel appeared before Judge Henderson in the 22 case of Michel v. Michel, Case Number D-17-558188-D. This hearing was not 23 scheduled on an order shortening time. The hearing was scheduled on October 11, 24 2019. See exhibit "1," which is an Order Mr. Mayo's office prepared in the Michel 25 case.

26 The court's order specifically provides that a hearing would be conducted on 27 November 15, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. Upon and information belief, the hearing on 28

1 November 15, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. was specifically calendered for that date and time 2 because it was anticipated to be a lengthy argument in the event the parties could not 3 settle before the November 15th hearing. Upon and information and belief, the parties 4 left the October 11, 2019, hearing believing that if a settlement was not reached, the 5 November 15, 2019, hearing would take more than a half an hour, and it would take 6 several hours to argue the pending issues. Thus, when Plaintiff's counsel served his 7 Notice of Deposition on October 29, 2019, Plaintiff already knew there would be a 8 calendering conflict. See exhibit "2."

11 The order in the Michel case clearly states that a settlement conference was to 12 be conducted on October 22, 2019, at 3:00 p.m. at Plaintiff's counsels office. See 13 exhibit "1" lines 4 to 6. In Plaintiff's Opposition, Plaintiff acknowledges that a 14 settlement conference was held. See Opposition, page 6, footnote 6. With this 15 information, the question must be asked, "Why would Plaintiff serve a Notice of 16 Deposition on October 29, 2019, for Joshua's deposition to be conducted on 17 November 15, 2019, at 1:00 p.m?"

20 Upon information and belief, the settlement conference did occur on October 21 22, 2019, at 3:00 p.m. Thus, at the time of sending a Notice of Deposition on October 22 29, 2019, Plaintiff knew there was a hearing before Judge Henderson on November 23 15, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. and yet, scheduled Joshua's deposition for the same day at 1:00
24 p.m. Plaintiff knew, or should have known, that he would be unavailable to conduct 25 the deposition at 1:00 p.m. on November 15, 2019, Joshua should not have been 26 served a Notice of Deposition when Plaintiff's counsel already had a conflict.

1 Moreover, Plaintiff knew or should have known, that the deposition would not 2 start at 3:00 p.m. The Michel case is a “bucket case.” Moreover, upon information and 3 belief, Plaintiff’s counsel was advised shortly before the hearing commenced on 4 November 15, 2019, that it would not be concluded by 2:00 p.m. There was no 5 reason to believe that the hearing would start promptly at 1:30 p.m. and would 6 conclude in time for a deposition across town to be conducted at 3:00 p.m.

8 II. ARGUMENT

9 1. Plaintiff’s Opposition is procedurally defective pursuant to EDCR 10 5.503(a).

11 EDCR 5.503(a) provides:

13 Every motion, opposition, countermotion, and reply shall 14 include points and authorities supporting each position 15 asserted. Points and authorities lacking citation to relevant 16 authority, or consisting of bare citations to statutes, rules or 17 case authority, do not comply with this rule. The absence 18 or deficiency of points and authorities may be construed as 19 an admission that the filing is not meritorious, as cause for 20 its denial, or as a disclaimer of all positions not supported.

21 Plaintiff’s underlying Opposition is deficient pursuant to EDCR 5.503(a).
22 Plaintiff’s Opposition provides no points and authorities to support his requested 23 relief. Plaintiff’s absence of points and authorities should be construed as an 24 admission that Plaintiff’s Opposition and Countermotion is not meritorious and thus, 25 should be construed by the District Court as good cause for its summary denial.

26 In his Opposition, Plaintiff points to no legal authority why a third party 27 witness has to appear multiple times for a deposition, especially after he appeared 28 once, and the Plaintiff failed to appear. His failure to provide any legal argument to 1 support his blanket statements that Joshua simply should have to appear are simply 2 not good enough pursuant to NRCP 45.

4 2. NRCP 45 provides that the a subpoena can be quashed if there is it 5 subjects a person to an undue burden.

6 First and foremost, it should be noted, that at the time of preparing this reply, 7 Plaintiff still has not served a subpoena on Joshua for his deposition to be conducted 8 on December 2, 2019. The only notice Joshua has received is an amended Notice of 9 Taking Deposition. Joshua is not a party to this action and thus, he needs to be 10 personally served a subpoena to appear at a deposition pursuant to NRCP 45.

12 Regardless of the fact that a subpoena has not been served, this issue still needs 13 to be resolved. The Plaintiff just makes a blanket statement that Joshua is required to 14 attend his deposition because it is reasonable for a person and his/her employer to 15 expect to be required to miss several days of work. This is not the case. NRCP 45 16 clearly states that a subpoena can be quashed if it would cause an undue burden.
17 Obviously, the rules of civil procedure would not contain language that a subpoena 18 can be quash for undue burden, if it was anticipated that a person could routinely be 19 subpoenaed as the Plaintiff would have the Discovery Commissioner believe.

21 Joshua would incur an undue burden if he is required to attend his deposition 22 again. Joshua already has missed 1/2 day of work because of Plaintiff's CHOICE to 23 schedule his deposition at a date and time when he ALREADY had a lengthy 24 hearing. This was Plaintiff's choice to schedule a deposition when he was otherwise 25 unavailable, and Joshua should not have to miss more work because of the Plaintiff's 26 choices.
28

1 Moreover, the Discovery Commissioner should question, if Joshua was such 2 an important witness, why his deposition was not originally conducted in advance of 3 the October 2019 trial. Had the trial not been continued, Plaintiff would not have 4 conducted Joshua's deposition. It was only after the trial was continued, that Plaintiff 5 suddenly wanted to conduct his deposition, and scheduled the same for a date and 6 time when he could not be available to conduct Joshua's deposition. Obviously, 7 Joshua's deposition is not that crucial.

10 Plaintiff not only served Joshua a notice for his November 15, 2019 deposition 11 but, he also served a trial subpoena. See exhibit "3." Pursuant to this subpoena, 12 Joshua is required to be at the trial on January 13th, 14th, and 15th. Thus, in total, 13 Plaintiff wants Joshua to miss a total FIVE days of work. This is unduly 14 burdensome to Joshua and Joshua should not be forced to miss more work because 15 of Plaintiff's own actions.

17 NRCP 45 also provides that Joshua is to be tendered the fee for 1 day 18 attendance and the milage allowed by the law. To date, Joshua has not been tendered 19 any money for the deposition notice or the trial subpoena. Plaintiff would have this 20 court believe that Joshua is not entitled to the fees as proscribed in NRCP 45 based 21 upon NRS 50.225. NRS 50.225 discusses the fees for a witness to appear at a 22 hearing, trial, etc. It does not apply to depositions.

25 The fees and cost reimbursement required to be paid for a witness to appear at 26 a deposition are clearly outlined in NRCP 45 (b)(1). Joshua is entitled to those fees 27 for attending the November 15, 2019, deposition, and in the event the Discovery 28

1 Commissioner does require Joshua to appear a second time, he is entitled to the fees
2 again pursuant to NRCP 45(b)(1).

4 2. Joshua's counsel is entitled to fees.

5 Plaintiff argues that Joshua's counsel is "greedy" for requesting an award of 6 attorney's fees. The sad reality is that Plaintiff is the party solely responsible for his 7 litigation tactics. Plaintiff is the one who is over-litigating this case in hopes of 8 draining the Defendant. It is Plaintiff who hired a private investigator to monitor 9 Defendant and Joshua. In the big picture, there is nothing greedy about an attorney 10 requesting an award of attorneys fees and costs for the work performed.

III. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing, Joshua Lloyd respectfully requests that this Court enter orders granting him the following relief:

1. Granting a Protective Order so that witness Joshua Lloyd does not have to appear a second time for Plaintiff to take his deposition;
2. Awarding Joshua attorney's fees and costs from Plaintiff; and
3. Awarding Joshua such other and further relief as this Court may deem appropriate in this matter.

1 inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials 2 or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored 3 information in the form or forms requested. The person making the 4 objection must serve it before the earlier of the time specified for 5 compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection 6 is made:

7 (i) the party serving the subpoena is not entitled to inspect, 8 copy, test, or sample the materials or tangible things or to inspect 9 the premises except by order of the court that issued the subpoena;

10 (ii) on notice to the parties, the objecting person, and the 11 person commanded to produce or permit inspection, the party 12 serving the subpoena may move the court that issued the subpoena 13 for an order compelling production or inspection; and 14 (iii) if the court enters an order compelling production or 15 inspection, the order must protect the person commanded to 16 produce or permit inspection from significant expense resulting 17 from compliance.

18 (3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

19 (A) When Required. On timely motion, the court that issued a 20 subpoena must quash or modify the subpoena if it:

21 (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, unless the person is commanded to attend trial within Nevada;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to an undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena may quash or modify the subpoena if it requires disclosing:

(i) a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

1 (C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances 2 described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order an appearance or production under specified conditions if the party serving the subpoena:

3 (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and 4 (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

6 (d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

7 (1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These 8 procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

9 (A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond 10 to the categories in the demand.

11 (B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must 12 produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or 13 in a reasonably usable form or forms.

14 (C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form.
The person responding need not produce the same electronically 15 stored information in more than one form.

16 (D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored 17 information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion 18 to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because 19 of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting 20 party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

1 (2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

2 (A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed 3 information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to 4 protection as trial-preparation material must:

5 (i) expressly make the claim; and 6 (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, 7 communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without 8 revealing information itself privileged or protected, will 9 enable the parties to assess the claim.

10 (B) Information Produced. If information produced in response 11 to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as 12 trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify 13 any party that received the information of the claim and the basis 14 for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, 15 or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not 16 use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take 17 reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it 18 before being notified; and may promptly present the information 19 under seal to the court for a determination of the claim. The person 20 who produced the information must preserve the information until 21 the claim is resolved.

11 I. INTRODUCTION

12 Paradoxically, Chalese's Motion uses a lot of words to not really 13 saying anything of substance while also not mentioning things that 14 speak volumes. Chalese claims that she only now discovered that a 15 custody evaluation would be helpful because of answers that Adam gave 16 during his deposition. However, Adam's deposition was taken over 17 sixty days ago by Chalese's current counsel. Adam's answers 18 were given to questions Mr. Shapiro asked and Mr. Shapiro was 19 obviously present when Adam's answers were given. How it was only 20 recently discovered remains to be seen. Additionally, Chalese has been 21 aware of Adam's issue with her fitness and parenting since his initial 1 motion for primary custody filed way back in February of this year.

2 What is clear is that Chalese's request is nothing more than a stall 3 tactic designed to delay trial yet again. Chalese knows that this 4 evaluation could not possibly be completed in time for trial, meaning she 5 is asking for another continuance. So, in her effort to make an argument 6 for why an evaluation is absolutely necessary, Chalese takes Adam's 7 deposition testimony out of context and endeavors to try and throw mud 8 at Adam. However, taking each allegation in turn shows that they are 9 completely baseless and actually further Adam's point that Chalese is not 10 fit to be a joint custodian. Further, the Court does not need a child 11 evaluation to tell it that Chalese's poor judgment, neglect of the minor 12 children, and her violation of Court orders threatens the children's safety 13 and therefore is not in their best interests.

14 II. OPPOSITION

15 Chalese's request for a custody evaluation is not based on why 16 Adam should not have primary custody or that Chalese is fit to have joint 17 physical custody. Instead, Chalese essentially states Adam is to blame for 18 her issues and a custody evaluation is therefore needed.

19 Chalese starts by attempting to paint Adam in a bad light. She 20 claims Adam did not originally ask for primary custody because of 21 Chalese's issues, but that his Complaint for Divorce stated he was 1 opposed to Chalese relocating. This is a half-truth. Adam, who is not a 2 family lawyer and commenced the case by representing himself, did not 3 know what exactly to include in his Complaint and how to artfully plead 4 it. As will be shown, Chalese messaged Adam around the time of the 5 Complaint to say that pursuant to the “120-mile rule¹” she would be 6 moving to Pahrump with the children and there was nothing Adam 7 could do about it. To Adam, this showed an obvious inability to co-8 parent because it meant that he would be unable to have a meaningful 9 relationship with the children. Given that Adam is not a family law 10 attorney, his inartful pleading of the above can be excused. While the 11 fact Adam was opposed to Chalese relocating was a major issue, it was 12 not the only issue.

13 Historically, Chalese was at home more with the children. It must 14 be remembered, though, that Adam was the glue that kept the family 15 together and Chalese somewhat grounded. It is not true that Adam was 16 fine with Chalese’s parenting when they were together. This was in fact a 17 constant battle. Adam not only worked full-time, but also did his best to 18 help Chalese focus on the children and prioritize their needs. Even this 19 was often not enough.

20 21 ¹ The 120-mile rule was a proposed change to the NRS that would allow a party to move 120 miles from their current residence without court permission. It was not passed by the legislation.

1 After the parties separated, Adam was no longer able to be a 2 positive influence on Chalese. This resulted in Chalese drinking in excess 3 and doing drugs around the children, neglecting the children's medical 4 care and hygiene, and Chalese overall exposing the young and 5 susceptible children to negative influences.

6 Chalese next claims that Adam only sought primary custody when 7 he discovered Chalese was dating someone else and that he continues to 8 have an issue with Chalese dating. This is not true and a few points must 9 be made clear. First, it was Chalese's behavior that caused Adam to seek 10 primary custody. Second, Adam did not know Chalese was dating 11 anyone in February 2019 when he filed his Opposition & Countermotion.
12 Indeed, Adam's Opposition & Countermotion does not even mention 13 another man. In fact, Chalese is the one who claims she did not start 14 seeing Josh until March 2019 so how could Adam know if she and Josh 15 were dating in February?

16 Third, Adam has stated numerous times that he has no issue, and 17 has never had an issue, with Chalese dating someone else. Adam is 18 dating someone else and knows Chalese has every right to move on as 19 Adam has. However, Adam does have issues with Josh, but these are 20 based on Josh's massive character problems:

- 21 • Josh's chronic use of marijuana around the parties' children;

- 1 • Josh driving the parties' children in violation of Court order and
- 2 despite Josh's horrible driving record;
- 3 • Josh's consumption of multiple alcoholic beverages while the
- 4 parties' children are around him;
- 5 • Josh's mistreatment of the minor children;
- 6 • Josh's criminal record, which includes a domestic violence
- 7 conviction;
- 8 • Josh physically threatening Adam when Adam was at the
- 9 marital residence to pick up his artwork;
- 10 • Josh attempting to blackmail and extort Adam by stating he
- 11 would tell Adam's significant other, and place on social media,
- 12 that Adam had child pornography unless Adam agreed to leave
- 13 Josh out of the litigation; and
- 14 • Josh placing a review on Adam's employer's website.

15 Chalese next claims that Adam wants primary custody so he can 16 replace Chalese as the children's mother with Jessica Sellers, his 17 significant other. Not only is this a ridiculous notion but an attempt by 18 Chalese to twist Adam's words. What Adam said at his deposition is that 19 it would be ideal for Chalese be a good parent and act in the children's 20 best interests. However, Adam would not be willing to sacrifice the 21 safety and well-being of the children in hopes that will one day happen.

1 Additionally, and for as long as she continues to display poor judgment
2 and neglect the needs of the children, Adam would rather the children 3 spend more time with people who display better judgment and are 4 committed to seeing the children well cared for. Adam has good reason 5 to feel that way since Chalese has done things that have caused 6 permanent damage to the children during the course of this litigation.
7 The following are just a few examples of Chalese's horrible judgment and 8 neglect of the minor children:

- 9 • Chalese originally terminated Michael's speech therapy sessions 10 as taking him was "inconvenient for her" and refuses to take 11 him to them now on her time;
- 12 • Chalese took both children quadding in the desert when they 13 had both had high fevers for days;
- 14 • Chalese drove the children while on medications she admitted 15 prevented her from driving;
- 16 • Chalese doing drugs and drinking while caring for a 3 and 1 year 17 old;
- 18 • Chalese continues to use marijuana despite the Court order 19 forbidding her from doing so. Her use is too frequent that 20 Chalese was caught by Adam's PI buying a detox kit right after 21

1 being notified by Adam to test. Chalese also refused to test a 2 prior time when requested, doing so only the next day;

- 3 • Chalese keeping the marital residence filthy;
- 4 • Chalese barring co-parenting by cursing and insulting Adam in 5 communications.
- 6 • Chalese depriving Adam of his custodial time with the minor 7 children;
- 8 • Chalese telling Michael that “daddy is mean to mommy”;
- 9 • Chalese’s attempt to blackmail and extort Adam by threatening 10 to disclose alleged child pornography she claimed Adam had 11 unless he agreed not to make her drug test anymore; and
- 12 • Chalese threatening to have her pseudo-husband physically 13 attack Adam.

14 In light of such reprehensive behavior, is it any surprise that Adam 15 is extremely concerned about the children’s well-being in Chalese’s care 16 and believes she should have supervised time with the children?

17 Chalese next blames Adam for bringing up parenting concerns that 18 make Chalese have angry outbursts. However, this is like blaming the 19 victim of domestic violence for burning dinner when her husband 20 blackens her eyes. As for “long lectures,” Adam’s goal isn’t to lecture 21 Chalese. Adam’s goal is to try to raise and address parenting concerns

1 with Chalese so that the children can be adequately taken care of.

2 Tellingly, Chalese leaves out Adam's most frequent issue with the 3 health of the children. Specifically, Marie has diaper rash every single 4 time they have been with Chalese even though Marie does not get diaper
5 rash when she is at her preschool or with Adam. It is of note that Chalese 6 already testified during her deposition that she does not give the 7 children a bath every day. Is Chalese really telling the Court she is upset
8 that Adam brings up his concerns regarding them being neglected 9 during her time?

10 Regardless, none of the communications between Chalese and 11 Adam show Adam to berate, demean or curse at her. Chalese simply 12 does not like that Adam brings up parenting issues to her.

13 Chalese next goes into a hodge-podge of excuses, all of which are 14 untrue. For example, Chalese claims Adam is late to get home in the 15 evenings. What Chalese is referring to is Adam not being home until late 16 on Thursdays. What Chalese intentionally omits to mention though is 17 that every Thursday for the past 9 weeks Adam has been attending the 18 parenting class ordered by the Court. This is the same class Chalese was 19 ordered to first complete prior to Adam doing so. Chalese knows this but 20 plays dumb in not mentioning this little detail to the Court.

21 ///

1 Chalese mentions the week of October 10th when Adam took 2 vacation time with the children anticipating his parents being in town 3 for trial and his parents wanting to spend time with the children. When 4 trial was continued, there were still all of the plans that week for the kids
5 related to Halloween type activities – i.e. pumpkin patches, pumpkin 6 carving, etc. On October 10th specifically, Adam had his mandatory 7 parenting class that the Court ordered him to attend. There was no 8 notice that Chalese's mother was coming into town until she was here 9 and Adam had already taken the vacation time and had made plans with 10 the children. Yet, somehow, Chalese's poor planning is somehow Adam's 11 fault.

12 With regards to the alleged "daycare double standard," there is no 13 double standard. Adam does insist that the children go to school every 14 day so that they can take part in the learning that takes place in the 15 morning (Chalese was in fact agreeable with this). The afternoons are 16 free play and more like traditional day care. So, there's no issue with the 17 children being picked up after nap time. The issue is when the children 18 don't go to school at all and miss out on the morning learning sessions.
19 That's why if Adam can get off early, he will pick the children up from 20 day care early, but after their nap when it is free play time, instead of 21 cutting into their learning. Chalese and her counsel would prefer that

1 Adam leave the children in day care all afternoon until 6 o'clock, which 2 doesn't make sense based upon Chalese's counsel trying to get Adam to 3 concede that the children are more regularly picked up closer to 6 4 o'clock during Adam's deposition.

5 Further, Adam's position is that Chalese cannot pick up the 6 children early from daycare on his custodial days as Adam often does so.
7 Adam wants to spend every minute that he can with the children. So, if 8 he can pick them up before the 6 o'clock custody exchange, he will in 9 order to spend more time with them.

10 Unlike what the defense would have you believe, this isn't a matter 11 of interrogation, Michael spontaneously talks about his time with 12 Chalese because it is so different from his time with his dad: he doesn't 13 get baths, he doesn't brush his teeth, he's dirty.

14 In addition, the defense misrepresents the issue with "grandma."
15 They go so far as quoting the word, but they're disingenuous enough to 16 hide the whole message in an appendix. Instead, the issue was that 17 Michael called Jessica "Old Grandma" because Chalese told him to.
18 Adam wasn't blaming Chalese because she is some kind of boogey man.
19 Adam was blaming Chalese because she is the cause of all of the harm 20 that has befallen the kids.

21 ///

1 The haircut isn't a matter of being done correctly, it's a matter of 2 cutting it every single time she has custody of the children, chopping 3 it in weird ways that is not part of a traditional haircut, and then not 4 shaving the neckline leaving a little mullet of thin baby hair on his neck.
5 It is of note that Carmen Disavio-Watson, Josh's ex-girlfriend who has 6 custody of their daughter Arielle, stated during her deposition that 7 Chalese also cuts her daughter's hair almost every time she is at 8 Chalese's home, going so far as to take several inches off without getting 9 Carmen's approval first.

10 For the "special drink," Michael again specifically said she was 11 drinking orange juice that she said was just for adults. Given that he said 12 that he wants to drink lots of beer when he grows up because that's what 13 grownups do and that's what "mommy and Josh" do, it stands to reason 14 that she was drinking in front of the children, possibly a screw driver or 15 mimosa.

16 As for Chalese's drug use, Adam doesn't call in a random drug tests 17 anymore because he knows it would be a failure or Chalese will use 18 another detox kit. In August, Chalese failed to report in time for her drug 19 test and waited nearly 24 hours before testing. In September, Adam's 20 private investigator followed Chalese to a smoke shop, watched her go 21 inside, and then asked the shop keeper what she purchased. She had

1 purchased a drug detox kit. She shook her head in the negative when 2 Adam testified about this at his deposition, but then admitted to it 3 during her depo. She specifically testified that she was around so much 4 second-hand marijuana smoke that she thought she would test positive 5 and it was only after she talked to her attorney that she realized "this 6 wouldn't happen." However, a subpoena later revealed that she had 7 purchased more than one detox kit and that she purchased something 8 when she went back to the smoke shop a second time to get her driver's 9 license back, which she claimed during her deposition to have left there 10 at the smoke shop. Chalese's past behavior would therefore seem to 11 justify Adam's suspicions.

12 Chalese next claims she has "tried to implement the lessons she 13 learned from her parenting class." Adam has been taking the same class 14 and he must have missed it when the teacher said to accuse your co-15 parent of being a pedophile to others when you've already testified under 16 oath that you've not seen any proof of same.

17 It's also extremely concerning that Chalese lacks candor to the 18 tribunal and wants to take statements made by Adam out of context, 19 move parts of those statements around, and completely omit other parts 20 for purposes of constructing a false narrative. Specifically, Adam 21 explained why he does not believe he will ever get along with Chalese in 1 a friendly capacity going forward. He does state though that he will 2 always work with her on co-parenting issues like the hygiene of the 3 children, Michael's speech therapy, etc.

4 Chalese references the children's day care trunk or treat event.
5 First of all, the event did not take place on Halloween, but the Friday
6 before. Second, the issue was that Adam relied upon Chalese's 7 representations that she would be at the event. Adam was indifferent as 8 to whether Chalese was actually there or not. The problem was that 9 Adam relied on those representations in getting the children ready to go
10 and they were very excited. When Adam stated Chalese and Josh 11 would not be, it nearly ruined the entire event for them.

12 Hence, it is doubtful Chalese actually learned much from the co-13 parenting classes. Chalese claims she was fine being around Jessica but 14 when Adam had to take his Thursday night UNLV parenting classes, 15 meaning Jessica had to coordinate the nightly communication, between 16 Chalese and the children, Chalese complains in her moving papers that 17 she had to call Jessica and that she was unable to video chat with the 18 children. However, Jessica offered Chalese the ability to video chat 19 through other means and Jessica was met with radio silence. Instead of 20 admitting this, Chalese tries to spin it as Chalese "being denied."

21 ///

1 On the topic of the alleged denial of Facetime/phone calls with the 2 children, Adam cannot think of more than possibly one occasion where 3 both children did not talk to Chalese as scheduled. While it doesn't 4 always happen at 7:00 p.m. on the dot, that is because Adam and Jessica 5 are both working professionals and they try to cook a good home cooked 6 meal for the children every night, instead of relying on take away or fast 7 food. In the event that one of the children went to bed early due to being 8 exhausted and not taking a nap that day, Adam has always offered a 9 make-up facetime the following morning, something Chalese has never 10 taken Adam up on. Instead, Chalese resorts to saying that she has "noted 11 it for her records."

12 Everything Adam does is for the safety of the children. Adam 13 raising safety and health concerns about the children is not beratement 14 and harassment. Rather, it's giving Chalese a chance to work on her 15 parenting. If Chalese would prefer, Adam can instead keep all of these 16 concerns to himself and then raise them at the time of trial.

17 Most important, is what Chalese's motion doesn't say. It doesn't 18 say that Chalese is compliant with the Court's orders. It doesn't ask to 19 revisit custody pending trial. It doesn't say that she's ready to go back to 20 joint custody. Instead, the intent of the motion is to have this Court 21 prejudge Adam on some allege parade of horrible that doesn't amount to 1 anything once the allegations are given complete context.

2 As can be seen by the baseless allegations, Adam does not 3 represent a risk to the children. Instead, the evidence will show that the 4 children have thrived and done better than ever while Adam has had 5 primary custody. Chalese is the one that represents a clear and present 6 danger to the children and, frankly, to Adam given her reckless disregard 7 for the well-being of the children. There is zero reason to order a custody 8 evaluation at this time because to order one would unnecessarily delay 9 trial. This is something that should have been requested shortly after 10 Adam's deposition, or months before then. Instead, Chalese realizes that 11 she cannot be rehabilitated and will continue to put the children at 12 constant risk. The only chance is that a psychologist, who prizes joint 13 custody above all else, will make that recommendation despite the 14 avalanche of evidence showing that she is a danger to the children. This 15 is clear because as mentioned above, often what goes unsaid speaks the 16 loudest: Chalese's own attorneys do not believe that she is ready for joint 17 custody even now because she cannot follow this Court's orders and 18 continues to put the children in danger.

21 ///

1 III. LAW AND ARGUMENT

2 There are two foundational authorities that must be analyzed when 3 considering Chalese's motion: EDCR 7.30, which governs requests to 4 continue trial; and EDCR 2.35, which governs requests to extend 5 discovery. Each has their own requirements—and Chalese has met 6 neither.

7 EDCR 7.30 – Motion to Continue Trial Settings

8 Chalese must show good cause in order to request a continuance of 9 trial under EDCR 7.30. Based on the above facts, Chalese has none.
10 Chalese's sole basis for requesting to continue trial is her weak claim that 11 she only "recently" learned of Adam's reasons for why he wants primary 12 physical custody. However, Adam has been saying in numerous 13 pleadings and in Court for over ten months that Chalese's poor 14 judgment, neglect and violation of Court orders pose a threat to the well-15 being of the minor children. This was stated in the pleadings and 16 arguments made by Adam at the March 19, 2019 hearing, the June 17, 17 2019, July 23, 2019 and August 1, 2019.

18 Hence, Chalese's prior counsel was well aware of this. Chalese's 19 current counsel was notified of this by both Chalese upon retaining 20 counsel in mid-August 2019, reviewing the pleadings and motions in 21 Odyssey upon substituting in on August 28th and reviewing Adam's first

1 three set of disclosures provided as a courtesy via flash drive on 2 September 4th. This was all on top of Chalese's current counsel deposing 3 Adam on September 16th. Therefore, there is no way for Chalese or her 4 counsel to have "only now" learned of Adam's reasons for wanting 5 primary custody and her claim otherwise is not in good faith.

6 Chalese's current counsel has already had discovery continued 7 twice and trial continued once. This will be Chalese's third request to 8 continue discovery and second request to continue trial. The parties, and 9 more importantly the children, need finality and trial in January will 10 provide that. The litigation has caused the parties to hemorrhage money, 11 forcing them both to obtain monies from their respective parents to fund 12 the litigation.

13 Further, child custody evaluations can be ordered under EDCR 14 5.305 "when necessary." Here, an evaluation is not necessary. Both 15 Adam and Chalese have the evidence they need to present their cases.
16 This evidence consists of the parties' testimony, discovery responses, 17 subpoenaed documentation and third-party witnesses. Now, Chalese 18 may "like" to have an evaluation but it is not "necessary" for her to 19 present her case – especially since an evaluation would delay the 20 adjudication of the matter indefinitely and costs tens of thousands of 21 dollars more.

1 It cannot be forgotten that this case has forced both parties to take 2 off significant time to attend hearings, depositions, meetings with 3 counsel, etc. Adam's work has suffered for it and Chalese has 4 complained about she and her pseudo husband Josh Lloyd having to 5 take time off for case related activities. In fact, Josh has a motion for 6 protective order on file based on his claim that he cannot miss any more 7 work related to this case. Undergoing a child custody evaluation is a 8 time-consuming process, requiring the parties and their significant 9 others living with the children to attend numerous appointments with an 10 evaluator. Hence, Chalese's own contradictory positions evidence her 11 request is not in good faith.

12 In the end, a child custody evaluation is Chalese's "Hail 13 Mary" pass. Chalese knows she has continuously demonstrated how 14 unfit she is, including poor judgment, neglect of the minor children, 15 denial of Adam's custodial time, poor co-parenting and repeated 16 violation of Court orders. Chalese admitted to these facts at her 17 deposition and in combination with PI reports, drug tests and third-18 party witnesses, Chalese cannot show she should have joint custody.
19 Hence, she sees a child custody evaluation as her last grasp. Chalese 20 hopes to put on a "good face" to evaluator and hopes they go easy on her.
21 However, Chalese's misconduct should not be rewarded with a custody

1 evaluation that is made just prior to trial.

2 Chalese's position does not even make sense as to why she wants a 3 child custody evaluation. Chalese has not suggested Adam parents 4 inappropriately or that she is a fit parent. Instead, Chalese's bases her 5 request for an evaluation on weak claims like Adam supposedly 6 "lectures" her on parenting issues, Adam does not like Josh or the 7 ridiculous allegation Adam wants to "replace" Chalese with Jessica. For 8 the reasons set forth above, these are patently untrue and absurd.

9 Adam, on the other hand, has pointed out innumerable issues that 10 make Chalese unfit to share joint custody. Many of these, even standing 11 alone, would make the typical litigant unfit for joint custody as they 12 show that Chalese does not have the children's best interests in mind.
13 Instead of addressing these or saying that she has rehabilitated, Chalese 14 endeavors to muddy the waters and make a mountain out of a mole hill.
15 Indeed, Chalese does not even ask to readdress custody on a temporary 16 basis. Therefore, Adam's position is that no evaluation is necessary and 17 the Court does not need an evaluation to see that Chalese is neglectful 18 and exercises wantonly poor judgment when it comes to the children.
19 The Court has already found that on a temporary basis.

20 In summary, Chalese waited until after the "eleventh hour" to 21 make her Hail Mary request for a child custody evaluation in hopes of 1 again continuing trial and biding time. Hence, the evaluation is not 2 about what is in the children's best interests—the evidence in the case 3 will establish that. Rather, an evaluation at this point is about what 4 Chalese hopes will be best for her.

5 Regardless, the Courts have a duty to grant litigants a final decree
6 of divorce as quickly as possible, and the granting of continuances 7 should be made only in exceptional circumstances. In this matter, such a 8 circumstance does not exist. After a year, Adam is ready to have this case 9 resolved.

10 EDCR 2.35 – Extension of Discovery Deadlines

11 Like requesting a trial continuance, motions to extend discovery 12 have certain requirements that must be met by the moving party. First, 13 EDCR 2.35(a) requires:

14 (a) Stipulations or motions to extend any date set by the 15 discovery scheduling order must be in writing and supported 16 by a showing of good cause for the extension and be received 17 by the discovery commissioner within 20 days before the 18 discovery cut-off date or any extension thereof. A request made beyond the period specified above shall not be granted unless the moving party, attorney or other person demonstrates that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

19 This Court cannot ignore that Chalese has had nine months to 20 prepare for trial, six months through her prior counsel and three 21 months through her present one. Chalese is now using her false claim

1 of only “recently” discovered Adam’s position to excuse her poor 2 planning and last-ditch attempt to rehabilitate herself.

3 Chalese also failed to meet the majority of the remaining 4 requirements of the rule. Specifically, EDCR 2.35(b) requires that “every 5 motion...to extend or reopen discovery shall include:”

6 (1) A statement specifying the discovery completed;

7 Chalese does not specify the discovery completed. She only makes 8 general statements to pending depositions and months-old discovery 9 requests.

10 (2) A specific description of the discovery that 11 remains to be completed;

12 Chalese does not provide a specific description of the remaining 13 discovery.

14 (3) The reasons why the discovery remaining was 15 not completed within the time limits set by the discovery 16 order;

17 Chalese only makes blanket claims of “gamesmanship” towards 18 Adam, but refuses to provide any reason why she failed to request the 19 child custody evaluation months ago.

20 (4) A proposed schedule for completing all 21 remaining discovery;

22 Chalese does not provide a proposed schedule, only that she wants a child custody evaluation. Such a request does not satisfy the rule.

1 The rules of this Court are purposefully designed to stimulate 2 fairness and boundaries between the parties. Chalese is ignoring all the 3 boundaries and trying to violate all the rules. Chalese has a 4 responsibility to make her case on the merits, based on the facts and 5 planning. Adam cannot control when she decides to pursue the 6 necessary discovery to make her case—and cannot hold her hand 7 through the process to ensure she is diligent about it, especially when 8 she is represented by competent counsel.

9 Strict rules were set by this Court's rule and order—and those same 10 rules were ignored. At the September 26th and October 3rd hearings, the 11 Court made it clear the parties would be able to obtain what they need 12 from their depositions and documentation. Because of this, the Court 13 stated it would not allow any fishing expeditions. If Chalese truly 14 believed she needed a child custody evaluation, she would have asked for 15 it on September 26th and October 3rd, especially after having taken 16 Adam's deposition on September 16th. Hence, she has no grounds upon 17 which to make a good faith request to continue the discovery deadlines 18 in this matter.

1 III. COUNTERMOTION

2 A. Adam Should be Awarded Attorney's Fees

3 Adam has prioritized this case and done everything asked of him, 4 despite the lies and harassment from Chalese, Josh and his family. Adam 5 has been forced to protect the children from Chalese's reckless decisions 6 and currently has primary custody. If anyone is causing attorney's fees to 7 be incurred unnecessarily, it's Chalese.

8 Adam should therefore not be out of pocket in this matter. In 9 addition to the cases where an allowance of fees is authorized by specific 10 statute, the Court may make an allowance of attorney's fees to a 11 prevailing party under NRS 18.010, and EDCR 7.60. As part of this 12 request, the parties must identify the legal basis for the award, and the 13 District Court must evaluate the *Brunzell Factors*² for the attorney and 14 their support staff:³

15 1. The Qualities of the Advocate: his ability, his training, 16 education, experience, professional standing and skill.

17 a. Attorney Vincent Mayo

18 Attorney Vincent Mayo has been practicing family law in Nevada 19 almost exclusively for over eight years. He is a Nevada Board Certified

2 Specialist, a member in good standing of the State Bar of Nevada, State
3 Bar of Nevada Family Law Section, American Bar Association, Nevada 4 Justice Association and Clark County Bar Association. Attorney Mayo is 5 admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the 6 District of Nevada.

7 Attorney Mayo started his legal career in Nevada working in the 8 Clark County Family Courts system. He worked directly for former 9 Clark County Family Court Judge Gloria O'Malley (F.K.A. Sanchez) as a

11 Abrams & Mayo Law Firm, he practiced for four years, primarily in 12 Family Law, with Bruce I. Shapiro, Esq. Attorney Mayo joined The 13 Abrams & Mayo Law Firm in March 2008 and has been practicing 14 exclusively in Family Law ever since. Attorney Mayo was a co-editor of 15 the Nevada Family Law Practice Manual and is a published attorney in 16 regard to family law matters with numerous credits to his name. He also 17 successfully completed the American Bar Association's Family Law Trial 18 Advocacy Institute program.

19 b. Certified Paralegal Stephanie Stolz

20 Stephanie Stolz is the current Firm Administrator / Lead Certified 21 Paralegal and began her legal career at The Abrams Law Firm eleven

1 years ago. She started at the receptionist position in May 2004. While 2 working full-time for the firm, she simultaneously completed the 3 Paralegal Studies Program with special emphasis in Nevada Practices 4 and Procedures, Contract Law, and Family Law from the University of 5 Nevada Las Vegas. In 2005 she was promoted to a Certified Paralegal 6 position. In 2006 she achieved the role of Lead Certified Paralegal.
7 Stephanie was promoted to the role of Firm Administrator in 2010. In 8 addition to her Lead Certified Paralegal duties, she is responsible for 9 numerous areas of the firm's business operations including accounting 10 and vendor relationships. In 2017, Mrs. Stolz obtained the prestigious 11 Certified Paralegal (CP) designation from the National Association of 12 Legal Assistants (NALA).

13 c. Advanced Certified Paralegal David Schoen

14 Advanced Certified Paralegal David Schoen received his paralegal 15 certificate from the United States Army's Judge Advocate General's 16 Corps Legal Center in 2009 as an Honor Graduate, before serving four 17 years as a Paralegal Non-Commissioned Officer with the decorated 18 XVIII Airborne Corps. Mr. Schoen gained extensive experience in 19 multiple legal disciplines, from capital litigation to military family law, 20 and supported challenging and intensive campaigns, including 21 Operation Unified Response – Haiti, and Operation New Dawn – Iraq,

1 where he received numerous awards and commendations for his service
2 and the quality of work in the legal field. In 2016, Mr. Schoen obtained 3 the prestigious Certified Paralegal (CP) designation from the National 4 Association of Legal Assistants (NALA). He has also earned his 5 Advanced Certified Paralegal (ACP) designation in Family Law – Child 6 Custody, Visitation, and Support. Mr. Schoen is responsible for 7 maintaining the General and Detailed Financial Disclosure Forms, used 8 state-wide by Family Court litigants and counsel. Recently, he prepared 9 and instructed courses on the Financial Disclosure Forms during the 10 Paralegal Tracks of the 2013 and 2015 Family Law Conferences.

11 d. Certified Paralegal Julie Schoen

12 Certified Paralegal Julie Schoen joined The Abrams & Mayo Law 13 Firm in 2014. Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Schoen was employed by the 14 local office of a national medical malpractice litigation law firm in an 15 executive level support capacity. In this role, she assisted in the defense 16 of several Las Vegas-area hospitals and medical clinics from various 17 types of lawsuits. She completed the Certified Paralegal Studies 18 Program at the University of Nevada Las Vegas in 2015 with special 19 emphasis in Contract Law and Tort Law, and is also a certified legal 20 transcriptionist. Ms. Schoen's volunteer work focuses on her dedication 21 to our nation's armed forces, where she has served as an Army Family

1 Readiness Group Leader. This role included being a liaison and advisor 2 to families of service members who are deployed throughout the world.

3 2. The Character of the Work to Be Done: the difficulty, the 4 intricacy, the importance, time and skill required, the responsibility 5 imposed and the prominence and character of the parties where they 6 affect the importance of the litigation. Attorney Mayo has diligently 7 reviewed the applicable law, explored the relevant facts and has properly 8 applied one to the other.

9 3. The Work Actually Performed by the Lawyer: the skill, time 10 and attention given to the work. Work is still ongoing regarding these 11 issues. Thus, redacted billing can be provided upon request.

12 4. The Result: whether the attorney was successful and what 13 benefits were derived. It is anticipated that, given the facts of this case 14 and the continued attempts by Chalese to delay this action while 15 harassing Adam and lying to this Court, the outcome of this hearing will 16 be favorable to Adam.

17 Each of these factors should be given consideration, and no one 18 element should predominate or be given undue weight. Miller v.
19 Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 119 P. 3d 727 (2005).

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. REPLY TO OPPOSITION

3 A. Adam Has Not Parented and Does Not Want to Parent

4 Adam's deposition testimony and his opposition show why a custody 5 evaluation is needed. Adam claims that Chalese was "somewhat grounded" when 6 he was living in the home, but that after they separated, Chalese began "drinking 7 in excess" and "doing drugs around the children." Adam, however, does not have 8 much personal knowledge before or after the parties stopped living together.
9 When the parties lived together Adam worked full-time while Chalese was a full-10 time stay at home mother. Adam did little parenting when the parties lived 11 together, and Adam relied on and trusted Chalese to care for the children. Adam 12 still does not want to parent. The only difference is that Adam would prefer his 13 new girlfriend, Jessica, care for the children, rather than Chalese.
14
15
16

17 Adam does not want to parent, he just does not want Chalese to parent. In 18 his deposition Adam made the following points:

- 19
- 20 • He was not concerned about Chalese's ability to care for the children 21 prior to the parties' separation.¹
 - 22 • Prior to the parties' separation, Chalese was responsible for the 23 children's doctor and dentist appointments due to the "division of labor" 24 in their relationship.²

25 ¹ See Excerpts from Deposition of Adam Solinger in Defendant's "Exhibit Addendum" (DEA") at page 71, line 8-12.

- Adam did not attend a single speech therapy session for Michael prior to the parties' separation.³
- Adam did not attend a single pediatrician appointment for Michael between April 21, 2016 and January 24, 2019.⁴
- Adam attended only one pediatrician appointment for Marie between September 2017 and June 2019.⁵

The fact is, Adam did not participate in these parenting tasks until after the parties separate and since he separated from Chalese, Jessica has gone with Adam every time. Adam does not parent. Chalese and Jessica do all the parenting, Adam simply prefers it be Jessica.

B. Adam Believes that Chalese Has a Mental Illness

Adam arrogantly believes that he is qualified to offer an opinion on mental illness, although he has no training. In his deposition, Adam testified at his deposition that nothing short of "several years of psychotherapy" for Chalese could make him comfortable with Chalese having joint physical custody because, as he testified, he was "concerned about late-onset mental illness["] [Emphasis added].⁶ Adam also stated that "even a mental health evaluation would not assuage my concerns,"⁷ but that he would not be willing to agree to a custody

1 evaluation.⁸ Adam also testified that he was concerned about Chalese's use of 2 antianxiety medication and the "comorbidity" to marijuana and alcohol,⁹ although 3 Chalese was medicated before the parties' separation. A custody evaluation by an 4 expert would alleviate these concerns and lead to better co-parenting between the 5 parties.

7 If Adam truly believes what he testified to under oath, how can he 8 reasonably oppose a child custody evaluation? It is obvious that a custody 9 evaluation is needed so an expert may ascertain, once and for all, how both 10 parties' actions affect the children. Either Adam truly and sincerely believes that 11 Chalese is suffering from mental health issues, or he is making baseless 12 allegations in his crusade to allow Jessica to care for the children rather than

15 Adam cannot argue that a custody evaluation is not needed. The alternative 16 is that Adam is only claiming to be concerned about Chalese's mental health as an 17 excuse to deny her joint custody rights to the children, in which case Adam must 18 recant his allegations as to Chalese's mental health. Essentially, either Adam's 19 "concerns" are legitimate, and an evaluation is needed, or his "concerns" are 20 insincere, and he should not be able to argue them at trial. Chalese believes a 1 qualified psychologist will testify that she is an appropriate parent to have primary 2 or joint physical custody.

3 C. Adam is Threatened by Chalese's Boyfriend

5 It is clear that Adam has zero respect for Chalese as a parent and will never 6 have any respect for Josh as a potential future step-parent. Adam unapologetically 7 believes it is better for his children to be cared for by his new girlfriend than their 8 mother. Despite the fact that Adam was having an extra-marital affair with Jessica, 9 moved out of the family home and filed for divorce from Chalese, Adam is clearly 10 jealous of Josh.
11

12 Adam claims his February 2019 "does not even mention another man." This 13 is untrue. In his opposition and countermotion filed February 26, 2019, beginning 14 at page nine, Adam spends a full two pages discussing his "discovery" that 15 Chalese was dating someone new, that she was on social media with a new ring, 16 and that Chalese was allowing Josh to wear Adam's clothing and using Adam's 17 tools. The court will also note that, despite Adam's contentions he has been 18 having Chalese and Josh followed by a private investigator because he was 19 worried about the children's safety, the records subpoenaed from the private 20 investigator show that Adam initially hired them to prove Chalese had a 21 boyfriend:
23

24 You and your wife are in the midst of a divorce, you are out of the 25 marital home, she is maintaining the residence and in your absence 26 she has moved a man into the home. He has a 5 year old son. They

1 claim that he does not reside there, but may stay the night
2 approximately 2 times a week. You believe he lives there full time.
3 There are also concerns about alcohol and drug use, but at this point 4 those issues are secondary, but if the opportunity comes up, document 5 any and all alcohol or drug use or behaviors.

6 [...]

7 Main Objectives: ... After the 2 week technology period, prove the 8 man is residing at the marital home.¹⁰

9 Adam's "issues" with Josh are exaggerated or lack evidentiary foundation.
10 Josh does not use marijuana around the children. Despite his claimed "horrible 11 driving record" and the fact that Adam has had a private investigator following 12 Josh for months, there were no notes by said private investigator that they 13 observed Josh driving erratically. Josh's "consumption of multiple alcoholic 14 beverages" refers to the one or two beers Josh occasionally drinks after work.
15 There have been no findings by CPS, or reports made to the police, that Josh is 16 "mistreating" the parties' children. There has been no evidence presented that Josh 17 was ever convicted of domestic violence, and Josh has not been involved in any 18 criminal matters (other than minor traffic violations) since his son Jesse was born.
19 The most recent traffic violation produced by Adam for Josh was from 2017. All 20 of these allegations of Adam's, however, only amplify the need for a child custody 21 evaluation.

23
24
25 ¹⁰ See Email from private investigator to Adam dated March 28, 2019 in DEA at BS 26 DEF000686-DEF000687.

1 Adam's other allegations against Josh, the Court will note, have to do with 2 conflict between Josh and Adam, not anything that would affect the minor 3 children. Adam's constant focus on Josh – even going as far as to depose his ex-4 girlfriend and subpoena his billing records from his attorneys, as well as his 5 insistence that Chalese and Josh are “married” – shows that Adam is obsessed 6 with Josh, despite his protestations otherwise.

8 D. Continuance of Trial

9 Adam claims Chalese's motion is to continue trial. Adam, however, does 10 not dispute and cannot dispute that EDCR 5.305(b) allows the court to appoint a 11 custody evaluator “[w]hen it appears that an expert medical, psychiatric, or 12 psychological evaluation is necessary for any party or minor child[.]” Not only 13 would a child custody evaluation be helpful to the court, Chalese believes that the 14 court requires a child custody evaluation to properly weigh Adam's allegations 15 and to make a custody decision that is in the best interests of the children. If that 16 necessitates a continuance of the trial, it is a small price to pay.

19 II. OPPOSITION TO COUNTERMOTION

20 Adam's unreasonable position on custody in this matter is what is driving 21 this litigation and causing the parties to incur fees. Further, had Adam agreed to a 22 custody evaluation, this motion would not have been necessary. Adam is not 23 entitled to fees and pursuant to Chalese's motion for fees which is being heard at 24 the same time as this motion, Chalese should be awarded temporary fees.
