MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter arises out of a motor vehicle accident that is alleged to have occurred on or about January 21, 2020 between vehicles operated by Defendants Amanda Avila and Christopher Vigil, who is alleged to have been acting within the course and scope of his employment with Raiser, LLC d/b/a Uber. See Plaintiff's Complaint, attached hereto as Exhibit "A." Plaintiff Anna Maryke Grey contends she was a passenger in Defendant Vigil's vehicle at the time of the accident. Id. Plaintiff communicated his settlement demand to Defendant Avila's insurer by written correspondence dated February 28, 2020, and received by Defendant's insurer on March 4, 2020. See Demand Letter, attached hereto as Exhibit "B"; see also Declaration of Danielle McGough, attached hereto as Exhibit "C." The demand was specifically conditioned on a response by March 30, 2020. See Exh. B. Defendant Avila's insurer responded to Plaintiff's demand on March 30, 2020 at 2:29 p.m. and accepted the policy limits demand. See Acceptance of Demand, attached hereto as Exhibit "D"; see Declaration of Danielle McGough; see also Fax Confirmation, attached hereto as Exhibit "E." Despite the timely acceptance of Plaintiff's demand, Plaintiff has now reneged on the settlement reached with Defendant Avila and is now proceeding forward with this litigation even though the current claim is already settled. As such, Defendant Avila has been required to file the current Motion to Enforce Settlement.

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

Essentially, the issue before this Court is whether there is a binding and enforceable contract in the form of a settlement agreement between the parties. Based on basic contract principles, a settlement agreement was formed and Plaintiff's claim against Defendant Avila is settled. Under Nevada law, basic contract principles require that for an enforceable contract to have been formed, an offer must be made and acceptance of the offer is communicated, with a meeting of the minds as to basic terms, and consideration. See In re Zappos.com, Inc., 893 F.Supp.2d 1058 (D.Nev. 2012) citing May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. 668 (2005). A contract is formed when the parties have agreed to the material terms, even though the contract's exact language is not finalized until later. May v.

1 Anderson, 121 Nev. 668, 672 (2005) citing Higbee v. Sentry Ins. Co., 253 F.3d 998, 998 (7th Cir.
2 2001); see also Resnick v. Valente, 96 Nev. 615 (1981).

3 In May, the Court held that the letter sent by counsel accepting a settlement offer constituted 4 a binding settlement agreement in that the “execution of a release document was not necessary to 5 enforce an otherwise valid settlement agreement.” Id. The Nevada Supreme Court upheld the 6 District Court’s ruling and held that the parties agreed upon the essential terms of the release, i.e., 7 all claims. Id. at 674. Thus, a party cannot back out their required performance under the terms of 8 an agreement by simply refusing to sign a finalized agreement when the parties already had a 9 “meeting of the minds” as to the agreement’s material terms. Id. at 668.

10 Nevada law specifically acknowledges the power of parties’ attorneys to resolve litigation
11 through a settlement agreement. EDCR 7.50 states,

12 No agreement or stipulation between the parties or their attorneys will 13 be effective unless the same shall, by consent, be entered in the 14 minutes in the form of an order, or unless the same is in writing subscribed by the party against whom the same shall be alleged, or by the party’s attorney.

15 The failure to complete formal settlement papers does not indicate that a settlement
16 agreement was not in fact reached. Id.; see also, Sadigi v. Daghighfekr, 66 F.Supp.2d 752, 763 17 (D.S.C. 1999) citing U.S. v. Centex-Simpson Constr. Co., 34 F.Supp.2d 397, 400 (N.D. W.Va.
18 1999). Indeed, although a written agreement was reached in this case, the agreement need not even 19 be in writing. Nolte v. Southern Cal. Home Bldg. Co., 28 Cal.App.2d 532, 535, 82 P.2d 946 (1938).
20 At least one Court has explained:

21 It may be conceded that where the minds of the parties have met 22 respecting the terms and conditions of the more formal writing that is 23 to be executed by them, and the agreed terms of the contract thereafter 24 to be executed are certain in all respects definitely understood and agreed upon in advance, either orally or by informal writing, there is in such a case an obligatory contract dating from the making of the earlier agreement.

25 Fly v. Cline, 49 Cal. App. 414, 425, 193 Pac. 615 (1920).

26 Moreover, a settlement agreement is not invalid because details are not worked out when 27 those details are not essential to the proposal and do not change its terms or purpose. See Assoc.
28 Fin. Serv. Co. of Hawaii, Inc. v. Mijo, 950 P.2d 1219, 1232 (Haw. 1998). “[A]n intent to

1 memorialize a contract in a subsequent writing will not prevent a reviewing court from finding an
2 enforceable contract so long as the parties intended to be bound by the earlier documents.” Sadighi,
3 66 F.Supp.2d at 763 citing Rennick v. O.P.T.I.O.N. Care, Inc., 77 F.3d 309, 313 (9th Cir. 1996); see
4 also Dominguez Estates Co. v. Los Angeles Turf Club, Inc., 259 P.2d 962 (Cal. Ct. App. 1953)
5 (concluding that an oral settlement agreement was not invalid by the fact that a written agreement
6 embodying the terms of the oral agreement was contemplated but was not signed by the defendant
7 and a third-party). The purpose of EDCR 7.50 is to provide the court with “an efficient method for 8 determining genuine settlements and enforcing them.” Resnick, supra at 615.

9 Under May, and the other case as cited above, it is clear that a binding and enforceable
10 Settlement Agreement was reached in this case between Plaintiff and Defendant Avila. Here, 11 Plaintiff made an offer for Defendant’s entire policy limit to Defendant and Defendant accepted that 12 offer through her insurance carrier. The basic terms of the settlement – payment of the policy limit
13 in exchange for resolution of claims asserted, or to be asserted, against Defendant Avila – was agreed 14 to by both parties. This is evidenced by the correspondence between Defendant Avila’s insurer 15 clearly communicating her acceptance of Plaintiff’s offer. See Exh. D. The consideration is clearly 16 represented as payment in exchange for a release.

17 Plaintiff has now attempted to repudiate the agreement by contending Defendant did not 18 timely communicate her acceptance; however, this position is not supported by the fax confirmation 19 and letter sent in compliance with Plaintiff’s arbitrary deadline on March 30, 2020. The attempted
20 rejection of the settlement is a breach of the settlement agreement that was formed between Plaintiff
21 and Defendant Avila to resolve this claim. Under the relevant authority in the State of Nevada, this 22 case is settled with respect to the claims against Ms. Avila. Under the terms of that settlement, 23 Plaintiff is prohibited from filing the current case against Ms. Avila and, as such, is prohibited from 24 making the claims in her Complaint against Ms. Avila.

25 In sum, this Motion requires a simple analysis: offer, acceptance, and consideration. Plaintiff
26 made an offer to Defendant Avila in the amount of $25,000, which was accepted by Defendant 27 Avila. Plaintiff’s initiation of litigation against Defendant Avila is in direct breach of the this 28

1 settlement agreement. Plaintiff's breach of the agreement is unenforceable as a settlement
2 agreement was clearly formed and is now enforceable against Plaintiff.

I.

INTRODUCTION

Defendant Amanda Maria Avila (“Avila”) has filed a Motion to Enforce Settlement Agreement (“Motion to Enforce”) asserting that there is a binding and enforceable settlement agreement between Plaintiff and Avila, and that Plaintiff is in breach of the settlement agreement by filing the foregoing lawsuit. In support of Avila’s argument, Avila contends that there was an offer, acceptance, and consideration, therefore, the parties have a binding and enforceable settlement agreement.

Avila’s argument fails for several reasons. First, Avila failed to timely accept Plaintiff’s offer, thereby terminating Avila’s power of acceptance. Second, even if Avila had timely accepted, there was no meeting of the minds as Plaintiff attached material conditions to the offer that Avila failed to accept. Third, in response to Plaintiff’s offer, Avila made a counteroffer and in so doing, Plaintiff’s offer was no longer open to acceptance. Nevada case law is clear that a valid contract cannot exist when material terms are lacking or are insufficiently certain and definite. Because there was no meeting of the minds as the parties had not agreed to the material terms of the settlement agreement, no contract was formed. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny Avila’s Motion to Enforce.

II.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On January 21, 2020, Plaintiff was a passenger in Defendant Christopher Vigil’s (“Vigil”) Ford Focus. See Plaintiff’s Complaint, dated July 7, 2021, ¶¶ 15-16.¹ At the time of the collision, Vigil was operating his vehicle within the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Rasier LLC d/b/a Uber. Id. at ¶ 7. As Vigil proceeded to make a left-hand turn at the three-way

¹ Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court take judicial notice of its entire docket herein. It is well established that this Court can take judicial notice of matters contained within its own files. NRS 47.140(8); Geary v. State, 112 Nev. 1434, 1437 (1996); Hampton v. Washoe County, 99 Nev. 819, 822 (1983); See also In re Wilson, 631 F.2d 118, 119 (9th Cir. 1980).

1 intersection of John Herbert Boulevard and Centennial Parkway to go eastbound on Centennial
2 Parkway, Defendant Amanda Maria Avila (“Avila”), traveling westbound on Centennial
3 Boulevard in a Honda Accord, failed to lower her speed, and failed to stop at the intersection,
4 causing her vehicle to strike Vigil’s Ford Focus. Id. at ¶¶ 18-19. Avila was charged with felony
5 driving under the influence. Id. at ¶ 20. The factual allegations in the Complaint establish that 6 Avila was at fault for the collision. Id. at ¶¶ 18-21. As a result of the collision, Plaintiff sustained
7 significant injuries, including injuries to her cervical spine and a traumatic brain injury. Id. at ¶¶ 8 22-28.

9 At the time of the collision, Avila held an automobile insurance policy with AAA Insurance
10 (“AAA”). See Def. Mot., Ex. C, Danielle McGough’s Declaration. On February 28, 2020, 11 Plaintiff’s counsel made a time limit-policy limit demand to AAA. See Plaintiff’s Time Limit-12 Policy Limit Demand, dated February 28, 2020, attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The offer was open 13 from February 28, 2020, to March 30, 2020, and was expressly and unambiguously contingent on 14 AAA timely delivering three (3) documents, including payment, to Plaintiff by 5:00 p.m. on March 15 30, 2020. Id. Specifically, the demand was contingent upon AAA providing (1) an affidavit of no 16 other insurance or assets; (2) checks for the policy limits of all applicable insurance policies; and 17 (3) the declarations pages with the limits of all policies related to this loss. Id. AAA was required 18 to accept the demand, in writing, by 5:00 p.m. on March 30, 2020, or Plaintiff’s offer was 19 withdrawn. Id.

20 At 7:09 p.m. on March 31, 2020, the day after Plaintiff’s time limit-policy limit demand
21 expired, AAA sent written acceptance of Plaintiff’s policy-limit demand and provided a Release
22 for Plaintiff’s signature. See Correspondence from Nicole Phillips, Claims Representative at AAA 23 Insurance, dated March 31, 2020, attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The proposed settlement failed to 24 materialize, however, because AAA rejected the demand by failing to provide an affidavit of no
25 other insurance or assets from its insured, by failing to provide payment, and by failing to provide 26 the declarations pages of all policies related to this loss, thereby failing to meet all the conditions 27 of the offer while the offer was still open, i.e., by the March 30, 2020 deadline. See Exs. 1 and 2.
28

1 AAA's failure to meet the conditions of the offer while the offer was open is further
2 evidenced by AAA's letter, nearly a month later, on April 20, 2020, in which AAA finally
3 provided a copy of its insured's declarations page. See Correspondence from Nicole Phillips, 4 Claims Representative at AAA Insurance, attached hereto as Exhibit 3. Further evidence of 5 AAA's failure to meet the conditions of the offer is AAA's acknowledgment that it was still 6 awaiting a signed affidavit of no additional insurance or assets from its insured, which would be 7 provided once it was received. Id. In this case, it is indisputable that there was no meeting of the 8 minds as Plaintiff attached material conditions to her offer that Avila did not accept. Thus, there
9 is no settlement agreement (i.e., a contract) between the parties and Avila's Motion to Enforce 10 must be denied.

11 II.

12 LEGAL ARGUMENT

13 A. Nevada Contract Law For An Enforceable Contract

14 Because a settlement agreement is a contract, its construction and enforcement are 15 governed by principles of contract law. May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. 668, 672, 119 P.3d 1254, 1257
16 (2005). Id. Basic contract principles require, for an enforceable contract, an offer and acceptance, 17 meeting of the minds, and consideration. Id. With respect to contract formation, preliminary 18 negotiations do not constitute a binding contract unless the parties have agreed to all material
19 terms. Id. A valid contract cannot exist when material terms are lacking or are insufficiently
20 certain and definite. Id. In the case of a settlement agreement, a court cannot compel compliance 21 when material terms remain uncertain. Id. The court must be able to ascertain what is required of 22 the respective parties. Id.

23 In contract law, a condition precedent is an act that must be performed before a contract 24 comes into existence. Serpa v. Darling, 107 Nev. 299, 303, 810 P.2d 778, 781 (1991). See also 25 Sala & Ruthe Realty v. Campbell, 89 Nev. 483, 487, 515 P.2d 394, 396 (1973) ("This is . . . a case 26 where no valid contract could possibly have come into existence until the condition precedent was 27 accomplished."). "Mutuality of obligation requires that unless both parties to a contract are bound,
28

1 neither is bound.” Serpa, 107 Nev. at 303-05, 810 P.2d at 781. See also Sala & Ruthe Realty, 89
2 Nev. at 487, 515 P.2d at 396 (1973).

3 For almost 150 years, Nevada courts have consistently and uniformly recognized that “[a]
4 condition precedent must be strictly performed in every particular in order to entitle the party
5 whose duty it is to perform it to enforce the contract against the other party[.]” See Virginia & T.
6 R.R. v. County Comm’rs of Lyon County, 6 Nev. 68, 72 (1870) (emphasis added) (internal citation 7 omitted). Moreover, irrespective of performance, a contract cannot exist without a meeting of the 8 minds. “[A]n enforceable settlement agreement cannot exist when the parties have not agreed to 9 the essential terms of the release because these provisions constitute a material term of the 10 settlement contract.” See May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. at 673-74, 119 P.3d at 1258.

11 It is a well-established rule that the burden of showing, by clear and satisfactory evidence, 12 a contract which it is sought to have specifically enforced, rests upon the party who is seeking its 13 enforcement. Forsyth V. Heward, 41 Nev. 305, 315, 170 P. 21, 24 (1918). In the present case, 14 Avila has failed to meet her burden that there is a binding and enforceable settlement agreement
15 between Plaintiff and Avila, therefore, Avila’s Motion to Enforce must be denied.

16 1. By The Rules Of Contract Formation, Plaintiff Made An Offer, Which Avila
17 Rejected.

18 Avila asserts that the parties have a “binding and enforceable Settlement Agreement”
19 because Plaintiff made an offer for Avila’s entire policy limit, and Avila accepted that offer 20 through her insurance carrier. See Def. Mot., at 4:9-12. Avila then contends that there was an 21 offer, acceptance, and consideration in the form of $25,000 to be paid to Plaintiff. Id. at 4:25-27.
22 Avila incorrectly concludes that “a settlement agreement was clearly formed” when these events
23 occurred. Id. at 5:1-2.

24 Avila’s chronology of the events in this case simply ignores the fundamentals of contract
25 formation. Avila contends that she accepted Plaintiff’s offer by the 5:00 p.m., March 30, 2020
26 deadline, which, she claims, is supported by a fax confirmation dated March 30, 2020 at 2:29 p.m.
27 See Def. Mot., at 2:12-16, and Exs. C, D, and E. Avila’s argument fails in its entirety as the acceptance letter is clearly dated March 31, 2020, a day after Plaintiff's offer expired, and was not faxed until 7:09 p.m. on March 31, 2020. Id.

Equally important, Avila failed to comply with the material terms and conditions precedent included in Plaintiff's offer and consequently, no contract was ever formed. See Ex. 1. As explained above, under Nevada law, for an enforceable contract to have been formed, the parties must have agreed to the material terms of the agreement. Here, no contract was formed because Avila never complied with the material terms of Plaintiff's demand by delivering the required documents by the stated deadline. Id. Plaintiff's demand unambiguously identified these material terms as conditions precedent to any agreement, hence, Avila's non-acceptance (and non-performance) prevented formation of a contract on Plaintiff's terms. See Serpa, 107 Nev. at 303-05, 810 P.2d at 781. See also Sala & Ruthe Realty, 89 Nev. at 487, 515 P.2d at 396 (1973).

Avila's assertion that a contract is created when there is merely an offer, acceptance, and consideration, is incorrect as a matter of law because the conditions Avila identifies are necessary to contract formation but by themselves, are insufficient for such formation. See May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. at 672, 119 P.3d at 1257 ("Basic contract principles require, for an enforceable contract, an offer and acceptance, meeting of the minds, and consideration.") (emphasis added). Thus, even if an offer, acceptance, and consideration are present, if the parties never agreed upon the material terms, no contract exists. Conveniently, Avila's Motion fails to address whether there was a meeting of the minds. The reason Avila's Motion fails to address this critical factor for contract formation is because there was no meeting of the minds seeing that the parties never agreed upon the material terms of the agreement. Thus, no contract exists.

2. Avila's Rejection Of Plaintiff's Offer And Counteroffer

Pursuant to Nevada law, to be effective, an acceptance must agree to the material terms of an offer. Pravorne v. McLeod, 79 Nev. 341, 346, 383 P.2d 855 (1963). As the Nevada Supreme Court has stated, echoing every first-year law school contracts course:

It is the law that when A offers B to enter into a contract on certain terms, and B declines to accept those terms but offers a counter-proposition, the original offer loses its effect, and is thereafter only open to acceptance by B when renewed by A.

Id. (emphasis added). See Heffern v. Vernarecci, 544 P.2d 1197, 1198, 92 Nev. 68, (Nev. 1976) (where essential terms of a proposal are accepted with qualifications or not accepted at all, there is no agreement.).

Here, because Avila’s response to Plaintiff’s offer, in the form of AAA’s Release, included material terms far different than those contained in Plaintiff’s offer, Avila’s response operated as a counteroffer. See Ex. 2, at p. 4/011. One of those material terms is a hold harmless provision, which states that:

The Releasor agrees to reimburse, indemnify and hold harmless each of the Releasee, persons, firms, corporations released herein and their insurer(s), including their agents and assigns, with respect to all known and unknown Medicare rights to recovery related to the accident or event referred to above for which the Federal government may seek repayment, as well as, any fine or penalty the Federal government may seek resulting from the sufficiency and/or accuracy of the information the Releasor provided to the parties released and their insurer(s) regarding Medicare rights to recovery known as of this date.

Id. (emphasis added).

Plaintiff’s offer did not include an offer to reimburse, indemnify, or hold AAA, or its insured, harmless. See Ex. 1. Plaintiff also did not agree to “give up all rights and claims for damages resulting from the accident or incident referred to in the Release, which you may not even know or suspect to exist and which if known by you would have materially affected your settlement.” See Ex. 2, at p. 4/011. Because the Release, providing for resolution of Plaintiff’s claim in exchange for consideration ($25,000 for Plaintiff, release of all claims for Avila), featured material terms far different from those contained in Plaintiff’s offer, AAA’s letter constituted a counteroffer. See Ex. 1. It is hornbook contract law that an offer of a counteroffer with different material terms constitutes a rejection of the original offer, which then loses all force unless it is renewed by the offeror. Thus, by sending its Release with a hold harmless agreement and additional material terms, Avila rejected Plaintiff’s initial offer, and that offer “los[t] its effect” and was no longer “open to acceptance” unless Plaintiff subsequently renewed it.

11 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

12 Defendant Christopher Vigil hereby joins the arguments in their entirety that Plaintiff Grey 13 makes in the Opposition and adopts same with respect to Defendant Vigil. Critically, no meeting of 14 the minds as to material settlement terms existed at any point between Plaintiff and Defendant Avila
15 pursuant to principles of contract law and May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. 668, 672, 119 P.3d 1254, 1257
16 (2005), requiring denial of Defendant Avila's Motion to Enforce Settlement Agreement. Defendant
17 Vigil therefore requests such denial and that this matter proceed in the regular course.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I.
3 INTRODUCTION

4 The instant litigation stems from an automobile accident which is alleged to occurred on 5 January 21, 2020. See generally Exh. A. Plaintiff alleges she was a passenger in Defendant Vigil's
6 vehicle while Defendant Vigil was acting within the course and scope of his employment as an Uber
7 driver when Defendant Vigil and Ms. Avila's vehicles collided. Id.

8 On February 28, 2020, Plaintiff's counsel sent a written policy limits demand to Ms. Avila's
9 insurer ("the Demand"). See Exh. B, and C. The Demand was titled "TIME LIMIT, POLICY
10 DEMAND VIA CERTIFIED MAIL." Exh. B, at p. 1. It opened with the following language:

11 As we discussed, our client was seriously injured by the extremely 12 negligent behavior of your insured Amanda Avila. You have 13 informed us that due to the nature of our client's injuries there are 14 potential limits issue [sic]. Therefore, we are submitting our clients claim and request for policy limits prior to obtaining all the medical records. Please accept this correspondence as a demand for your insured's policy limits which includes any and all applicable policies.

15 Exh. B, at p. 1 (emphasis added).

16 The Demand went on to state:

17 DEMAND

18 Our Client is now willing to accept Ms. Avila's policy limits which 19 includes any and all policies. We are also requesting that your 20 insured complete and sign the enclosed confidential affidavit regarding insurance and assets. This includes AAA providing documentation on the limits of all policies related to this loss.

21 You now have the opportunity to settle in the amount of your
22 insured's policy limits. If settlement is not achieved within thirty
23 days from the date of this letter, my client will seek full compensation 24 from your client regardless of the limits of liability coverage. This demand must be accepted in writing by 5:00 p.m., March 30, 2020 or
this offer is withdrawn.

25 Id. at p. 2 (emphasis added).

26 By the plain language of the Demand, it is patently clear that the Demand was for Ms. Avila's 27 policy limits in exchange for a settlement. The policy limits are the only material term. As Ms.
28 Avila outlined in detail in her Motion, and Plaintiff's Opposition ignored, Ms. Avila's insurer timely

1 accepted Plaintiff's policy limits demand. Nicole Phillips, a claims representative for CSAA, faxed
2 a response on March 30, 2020, which was inadvertently dated as March 31, 2020. See Exh. C, and 3 D. The response from Ms. Phillips stated "[e]nclosed is our Release for your bodily injury claim 4 prepared in the amount of our insureds limits of $25,000.00 which is the agreed settlement for the 5 above referenced matter." Exh. C, at p. 1. Ms. Phillips' response also included a standard release 6 form.

7 In sum, Plaintiff made a policy limits demand, which Ms. Avila's insurer timely accepted.
8 Ms. Avila's Motion established the existence of a valid settlement agreement. Plaintiff is now
9 attempting to renege on the settlement agreement with meritless arguments pertaining to an untimely 10 acceptance and material terms. As such, Plaintiff's Opposition fails to meaningfully refute Ms.
11 Avila's Motion.

12 II. 13 LAW AND ARGUMENT

14 A. Defendant Avila Timely Accepted Plaintiff's Offer

15 Plaintiff placed an arbitrary expiration date of March 30, 2020 at 5:00 p.m. on her Demand.
16 See Exh. B, at p. 2. Defendant's Motion established that Defendant's insurer timely responded to 17 the Demand on March 20, 2020 at 2:29 p.m. See Motion, at 4:17-19, Exhs. C, D, and E.

18 As Ms. Avila outlined in her Motion (see Exhs. C, D, and E), Nicole Phillips, a CSAA
19 claims representative, sent a timely response to Plaintiff's counsel's demand at 2:29 p.m. on March 20 30, 2020, which stated:

21 Enclosed is our Release for your bodily injury claim prepared in the 22 amount of our insureds limits of $25,000.00 which is the agreed settlement for the above referenced matter.

23 Please have your client sign the release in the presence of a notary and 24 have the signature notarized. Once we receive the properly executed release and well as the final hospital lien, we will properly forward 25 payment, made payable to you and your client, directly to you.

26 Thank you for your cooperation, Should you have any questions 27 about your client's claim, or if we can assist you in completing the enclosed forms, please let me know.

28 ///

1 Exh. D, at p. 1. Although this correspondence was dated March 31, 2020, Defendant's Motion
2 explained that this was an inadvertent error and established that this correspondence was sent to 3 Plaintiff's counsel via facsimile at 2:29 p.m. on March 30, 2020, well within Plaintiff's arbitrary 4 deadline.

5 Ms. Avila's Motion included a Declaration from Danielle McGough, a manager for Ms.
6 Avila's insurer CSAA, which explained why CSAA's acceptance letter was dated March 31, 2020.
7 See generally Exh. C. Ms. McGough explained:

8 3. On March 4, 2020, CSAA received a policy limits demand
9 from Plaintiff's counsel, Eglet Adams, which was dated February 28,
10 2020. Plaintiff's demand requested acceptance in writing by 5:00
11 p.m. on March 30, 2020.

12 4. On March 30, 2020 at 2:28 p.m., claims adjuster, Nicole Phillips, drafted a letter to Eglet Adams accepting Anna Grey's policy limits demand. The acceptance letter was sent via facsimile to counsel at (702) 450-5451 on March 30, 2020 at 2:29 p.m.

13 5. CSAA's system defaults to dating mailed correspondence to 14 the next day to be mailed by the mailing center. If correspondence is 15 to be emailed or faxed, the adjuster has to manually change the date to reflect the date of service; otherwise, per CSAA's computer system, the letter will default to the next day.

16 6. Due to an inadvertent error, the claim adjuster mistakenly
17 forgot to manually change the date of the acceptance letter to the date 18 of actual service, March 30, 2020, although the letter was sent to counsel via facsimile the same day, March 30, 2020.

19 7. That, to my knowledge, there was no equipment malfunction
20 or error in CSAA's facsimile machine that delayed sending the March 21 30, 2020 correspondence, which was sent via fax on March 30, 2020 at 2:29 p.m. based on the system-generated date and time stamped facsimile confirmation.

22 Exh. C, at ¶¶ 3-7. Ms. Avila's Motion also included a fax confirmation from CSAA demonstrating 23 that the facsimile was indeed sent on March 30, 2020 at 2:29 p.m. See Exh. E.

24 Plaintiff's Opposition summarily dismissed these facts out of hand. See Opposition, at 7:27-
25 8:2 (Avila's argument fails in its entirety as the acceptance letter is clearly dated March 31, 2020, a 26 day after Plaintiff's offer expired, and was not faxed until 7:09 p.m. on March 31, 2020.") (emphasis 27 in original). Nevertheless, Ms. Avila established that CSAA's response to Plaintiff's policy limits 28 demand on her behalf was timely as it was sent in writing at 2:29 p.m. on March 30, 2020.

1 Therefore, Plaintiff's arguments that no settlement agreement was reached because no timely 2 acceptance was delivered are without merit.

3 B. An Agreement was Reached Between the Parties to Settle for Policy Limits; The 4 Affidavit and Declarations Page were not Material Terms

5 Settlement agreements are contracts and their "construction and enforcement are governed
6 by principles of contract law." May v. Anderson, 121 Nev. 668, 672, 119 P.3d 1254, 1257 (2005)
7 (citing Reichelt v. Urban Inv. & Dev. Co., 611 F.Supp. 952, 954 (N.D.Ill.1985)). While contract
8 interpretation is subject to a de novo standard of review, "the question of whether a contract exists
9 is one of fact," and a district court's decision will be upheld on review unless "they are clearly 10 erroneous or not based on substantial evidence." Id. (citing James Hardie Gypsum, Inc. v. Inquipco, 11 112 Nev. 1397, 1401, 929 P.2d 903, 906 (1996), overruled on other grounds by Sandy Valley Assocs.
12 v. Sky Ranch Estates, 117 Nev. 948, 955 n. 6, 35 P.3d 964, 968–69 n. 6 (2001)).

13 In May, the Nevada Supreme Court provided a review of applicable contract law principles:

14 Basic contract principles require, for an enforceable contract, an offer 15 and acceptance, meeting of the minds, and consideration. With 16 respect to contract formation, preliminary negotiations do not 17 constitute a binding contract unless the parties have agreed to all 18 material terms. A valid contract cannot exist when material terms are 19 lacking or are insufficiently certain and definite. A contract can be 20 formed, however, when the parties have agreed to the material terms, even though the contract's exact language is not finalized until later. In the case of a settlement agreement, a court cannot compel compliance when material terms remain uncertain. The court must be able to ascertain what is required of the respective parties.

21 May, 121 Nev. at 672, 119 P.3d at 1257 (emphasis added). The Court went on to note that "what is 22 an essential release term necessarily varies with the nature and complexity of the case." Id. at 670, 23 119 P.3d at 1256.

24 Here, the legal and factual issues in this case are relatively straightforward. Plaintiff alleges 25 she sustained injuries due to Ms. Avila's alleged negligence. Per the clear terms of the Demand, 26 Plaintiff offered to release Ms. Avila from liability in exchange for Ms. Avila's policy limits. By 27 way of review, the Demand, which was titled "POLICY LIMITS DEMAND," states:

1 As we discussed, our client was seriously injured by the extremely
2 negligent behavior of your insured Amanda Avila. You have
3 informed us that due to the nature of our client's injuries there are
4 potential limits issue [sic]. Therefore, we are submitting our clients
5 claim and request for policy limits prior to obtaining all the medical 6 records. Please accept this correspondence as a demand for your
7 insured's policy limits which includes any and all applicable policies.

8 . . .

9 DEMAND

10 Our Client is now willing to accept Ms. Avila's policy limits which 11 includes any and all policies. We are also requesting that your
12 insured complete and sign the enclosed confidential affidavit
13 regarding insurance and assets. This includes AAA providing 14 documentation on the limits of all policies related to this loss.

15 You now have the opportunity to settle in the amount of your
16 insured's policy limits. If settlement is not achieved within thirty
17 days from the date of this letter, my client will seek full compensation
18 from your client regardless of the limits of liability coverage. This
20 this offer is withdrawn.

22 By the plain language of the Demand, Plaintiff sought Ms. Avila's policy limits in exchange 23 for a release from liability; these are the material terms. The only condition of the demand was 24 Plaintiff's arbitrary time limit, which as explained in the previous section, Defendant's insurer 25 satisfied. Plaintiff's Opposition argues that Plaintiff's request for an affidavit of no assets and an 26 updated declarations page are material terms. This argument fails because material terms are 27 generally terms which are sufficient to determine a course of performance and identify a breach.
28 See e.g. Turping v. United States, 134 Fed.Cl. 293, 303 (2017), aff'd, 913 F.3d 1060 (Fed. Cir. 2019) (noting that material terms required to form a binding contract in the context of government procurement contracts include those sufficient to provide a basis for determining the existence of a breach and for giving an appropriate remedy); Trustees of Teamsters Union Local No. 142 Pension Trust Fund v. McAllister, Inc., 602 F.Supp.2d 948, 955.(N.D. Ind. 2009) (noting that plaintiffs' settlement proposal provided the material terms of the settlement, namely, the settlement amount, defendant's obligation to send the check, and that dismissal would occur after the check cleared plaintiffs' bank). Here, once again, Plaintiff requested Ms. Avila's policy limits in exchange for a 1 release of liability. The declarations page and affidavit of no assets were non-material as they

2 merely confirmed the existence and amount of policy limits. Their addition does not change the 3 core substance of the agreement. Moreover, the plain language of the Demand demonstrates that 4 these were secondary requests – the Demand was titled “POLICY LIMITS DEMAND.”
5 Defendant’s insurer timely accepted the Policy Limits Demand; the affidavit and declarations page 6 are not material terms. Defendant accepted Plaintiff’s Offer; there was no counteroffer. Therefore,
7 an enforceable settlement agreement exists between the parties.

8 Finally, Plaintiff’s Opposition argues that the release sent by CSAA to Plaintiff materially 9 alters the agreement because the release sent by CSAA included a provision stating:

10 The Releasor [Plaintiff] agrees to reimburse, indemnify and hold 11 harmless each of the Releasee, persons, firms, corporations released 12 herein and their insurer(s), including their agents and assigns, with 13 respect to all known and unknown Medicare rights to recovery related 14 to the accident or event referred to above for which the Federal government may seek resulting from the sufficiency and/or accuracy of the information the Releasor provided to the parties released and their insurers(s) regarding Medicare rights to recovery known as of this date.

15 See Opposition, at Exh. 2. Contrary to Plaintiff’s assertions in her Opposition, this release is clearly 16 intended to indemnify and hold harmless CSAA and Ms. Avila from any claims Medicaid or 17 Medicare may make on the settlement proceeds with respect to Plaintiff’s treatment bills. Such 18 provisions are standard, boilerplate language included in every settlement release for bodily injury 19 claims due to federal laws requiring that Medicaid and Medicare liens be satisfied. Such a term in 20 no way constitutes a counteroffer. Plainly, Plaintiff made a Policy Limits Demand, which CSAA 21 timely accepted on behalf of Ms. Avila. CSAA’s timely response was not a counteroffer as the only 22 material term in the Demand was the policy limits in exchange for a liability release. The only 23 condition placed on the Demand was the time limit, which Defendant complied with. Therefore, a 24 valid and enforceable settlement agreement exists between the parties.

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT
AMANDA MARIE AVILA'S MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Date of Hearing: October 19, 2021

Time of Hearing: 10:00 a.m.

Defendant Amanda Marie Avila's Motion to Enforce Settlement Agreement came before the Honorable Adriana Escobar, Department 14, Eighth Judicial District Court, for oral argument via BlueJeans remote teleconference on October 19, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. Appearances were made by Robert T. Eglet, Esq. and Danielle C. Miller, Esq. of EGLET ADAMS on behalf of Plaintiff Anna Maryke Grey; Allison L. Rothgeb, Esq. of McCORMICK, BARSTOW, SHEPPARD, WAYTE & CARRUTH, LLP on behalf of Defendant Amanda Marie Avila; Kristina Miletovic, Esq. of BREMER WHYTE BROWN & O'MEARA LLP on behalf of Defendant Christopher Vigil; and Xheni Ristani, Esq. of WOOD, SMITH, HENNING & BERMAN LLP on behalf of Defendant Rasier, LLC.

PA-00075

1 The Court, having reviewed the moving papers and pleadings on file herein, hearing oral 2 argument, being fully advised in the premises, and for good cause appearing, hereby finds as 3 follows:

- 4 1) Plaintiff made an offer that was very specific in stating that it would remain open until 5 March 30, 2020, at 5:00 pm.
- 6 2) Defendant Amanda Marie Avila's insurer, AAA, failed to timely accept the offer, which 7 constitutes a rejection of the original offer.
- 8 3) Defendant Amanda Marie Avila's insurer, AAA, also failed to comply with the conditions 9 precedent included in Plaintiff's offer by failing to provide (1) an affidavit of no other 10 insurance or assets; and (2) the declarations pages with the limits of all policies related to 11 this loss, which were material terms that Defendant Amanda Marie Avila's insurer, AAA 12 failed to satisfy.
- 13 4) Therefore, because there was no meeting of the minds, no settlement agreement (i.e., no 14 contract), was formed.

15 Accordingly, the court finds that Defendant Amanda Marie Avila's Motion to Enforce 16 Settlement Agreement is DENIED.

17 ORDER

18 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Defendant Amanda
19 Marie Avila's Motion to Enforce Settlement Agreement is DENIED.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.
