HEARD BY: Silva, Cristina D.COURTROOM: RJC Courtroom 11BCOURT CLERK: Kory SchlitzRECORDER: Gina VillaniREPORTER:*PARTIES

PRESENT: Dixon, Jerry Lee Defendant

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Deputy District Attorney Victoria Villegas present on behalf of the State.

Defendant argued there is factual innocence in this case, and since he is no longer in custody he has met the bars for the time constraints to file certain motions to proceed to try and overturn the charges. Defendant further argued the only mechanism to prove the factual innocence, is factual innocence, adding this Court is the only Court to re-hear the case and overturn the charges. Defendant further stated one of the main factors is that Judge Bixler sat on this case, for the hearings of the initial Motions, and since this case involves and includes however is not limited to possession with intent to distribute marijuana, it would cause Judge Bixler's involvement to merit a mistrial. COURT STATED the Defendant has not set forth in a written pleading that talks about what the factual innocence would be for the Court to evaluate, which needs to be done before the Court can determine if the Defendant would be entitled to a attorney to file any post conviction pleadings. COURT ORDERED, Motion for Appointment of Attorney DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE; adding if the Defendant is going to re-file the Motion a Points and Authorities needs to be attached for the Court to review the request. Defendant requested Mr. Thomas Ericsson be appointed on this case. COURT STATED since there is no basis before the Court, they cannot appoint an attorney.
