ORDER

Appellant's motion for an extension of time to file the opening brief and appendix is granted. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Appellant shall have until March 18, 2024, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Given the length of this initial extension request, no further extensions shall be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of this appeal. NRAP 31(d).

Respondent Rural Remedies, LLC, has filed a "motion for extension of time to file opening brief and appendix." Rural Remedies has been designated as a respondent to this appeal,¹ and a respondent is to file an answering brief, not an opening brief. NRAP 28(b). An answering brief ¹Appellant notes that the caption in this matter may need to be revised to accurately reflect the proper parties to this appeal and indicates that the parties will submit information as necessary to amend the caption accordingly.

is not due until 30 days after appellant's opening brief is served. NRAP 31(a)(1). Thus, Rural Remedies' motion is deemed unnecessary and denied.

It is so ORDERED.
