Deputy District Attorney (DDA): Gerard Costantian Parties sworn and testified, Respondent participated via telephone conference. DDA reported Respondent's requested today's hearing. The amount of $3,213.00 was seized from Respondent's bank account in 8/2017. Paternity was confirmed in prior order from 5/2017. Respondent is on Nevada birth certificate for child Gabriel and Paternity was res judicata. No findings in Family Court order indicating Respondent is not the father. Arrears through 9/30/2017 are $4,849.16. Respondent stated he did not sign the birth certificate, requested Genetic Testing (GT) and disagrees of bank seizure without GT. Petitioner informed Parties had GT while she was pregnant and results were positive. He signed birth certificate voluntarily. Petitioner advised Respondent told her he does not want anything to do with child. COURT FINDS: PATERNITY confirmed at Established Hearing based on Nevada birth certificate; Parties were present at that hearing. NO OBJECTION FILED by Respondent subsequent to Master Recommendation Order/Judgment (MROJ) FINDINGS. MROJ is now an ORDER as such PATERNITY is finalized. Dispute of PATERNITY is not defense to FIDM seizure. MASTER RECOMMENDED: ARREARS are REDUCED to JUDGMENT. Respondent's request is DENIED and seizure will be released to Petitioner as CHILD SUPPORT payment. Based on JUDICIAL ECONOMY, court further VACATED 1/30/2018 hearing whereby Respondent FILED Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment based on both Parties present today and MROJ not Default Judgment and Paternity has been resolved. ;

Respondent participated via telephonic. DDA reported today's hearing is Respondent's motion to set aside, motion for debt validation and notice of fraud. DDA noted that Supreme Court appeal dismissed on December 20, 2018. Court heard testimony from both parties. Respondent is making regular payments every two weeks. COURT FINDS, this Court has previously ruled and established paternity. In subsequent hearings, this Court has denied Respondent's repeated requests to disestablish paternity. Again, this Court denies R's request to dis-establish paternity based on res judicata. Child Support Court CONFORMS to District Court orders in D565588. Decision and Order filed on November 30, 2018 reflects Respondent's "serial filings" and his filings do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the orders from those prior hearings. Child Support Court also recommends that Respondent's filings in R196685 do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the orders from those prior hearings. Finally, District Court has also issued an Order After Hearing Certifying Intent to Grant Relief, that was filed on January 18, 2019 in R196685 and other cases, finding Respondent to be "vexatious litigant". DDA indicated that Respondent has a credit balance on his arrears, unaudited. As such arrears payment REMOVED. If arrears should occur in the future, the arrears payment of $60.00 will be REINSTATED. Having reviewed Respondent's motion's and Family Court proceedings and his demands for relief addressed in his numerous filings are DENIED. Respondent's motions do not contain Notice of Hearings as required by EDCR 5.502. Despite the January 2019 Order deeming Respondent to be a Vexatious Litigant in both the District Court and Child Support Court, Respondent has filed approximately 16 motions in case R196685 between 4/2/20 and 6/29/20. COURT FINDS, pursuant to EDCR 5.503, Respondent's motions are DENIED based on lack of legal authority and are not meritorious. Respondent's Motion to Set Aside is DENIED, based on the prior Master's Recommendation and Order/Judgment, and affirmance by the District Court and Nevada Supreme Court. Court telephoned Respondent, call sent to voicemail. COURT FINDS, As to Respondent's various motions/demand/requests/notices there is a common nucleus to Respondent's dispute over paternity, jurisdiction and enforcement of a child support obligation. On May 13, 2020, the Nevada Supreme Court issued an Order of Affirmance in 78067-COA finding no abuse of discretion for determining paternity as Respondent did not timely object on numerous Master's Recommendations and testimony of parties obtaining a prenatal DNA test and Respondent's voluntarily signing minor child's birth certificate. Additionally, res judicata applies as this Court has previously denied Respondent's repeated requests to disestablish paternity. Child Support CONFORMS to District Court orders. In D565588, Decision and Order filed 11/30/18 reflects Respondent's "serial filings" and Respondent's filings do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the order from those prior hearings. Child Support Court recommends that Respondent's filing in R196685 do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider prior hearings' orders. Finally, District Court has found Respondent to be "vexatious litigant" in Order After Hearing Certifying Intent to Grant Relief filed January 18, 2019. Respondent's demand for a BIRTH CERTIFICATE is DENIED, he is able to get his own copy. Respondent's motion to Suspend is DENIED, all issues have previously been ruled on. Parties sworn and testified. Respondent participated via telephonic.

DDA reported today's hearing is Respondent's motion to set aside, motion for debt validation and notice of fraud.

DDA noted that Supreme Court appeal dismissed on December 20, 2018. Court heard testimony from both parties. Respondent is making regular payments every two weeks.

COURT FINDS, this Court has previously ruled and established paternity. In subsequent hearings, this Court has denied Respondent's repeated requests to disestablish paternity. Again, this Court denies R's request to dis-establish paternity based on res judicata. Child Support Court CONFORMS to District Court orders in D565588. Decision and Order filed on November 30, 2018 reflects

Respondent's "serial filings" and his filings do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the orders from those prior hearings. Child Support Court also recommends that Respondent's filings in R196685 do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the orders from those prior hearings. Finally, District Court has also issued an Order After Hearing Certifying Intent to Grant Relief, that was filed on January 18, 2019 in R196685 and other cases, finding Respondent to be "vexatious litigant".

DDA indicated that Respondent has a credit balance on his arrears, unaudited. As such arrears payment REMOVED. If arrears should occur in the future, the arrears payment of $60.00 will be REINSTATED. Having reviewed Respondent's motion's and Family Court proceedings and his demands for relief addressed in his numerous filings are DENIED.

MASTER RECOMMENDED, Respondent shall PAY $562.00 per month CURRENT SUPPORT and $51.00 per month MEDICAL SUPPORT, for a TOTAL MONTHLY PAYMENT of $613.00.

numerous Master's Recommendations and testimony of parties obtaining a prenatal DNA test and Respondent's voluntarily signing minor child's birth certificate. Additionally, res judicata applies as this Court has previously denied Respondent's repeated requests to disestablish paternity. Child Support CONFORMS to District Court orders. In D565588, Decision and Order filed 11/30/18 reflects Respondent's "serial filings" and Respondent's filings do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider the order from those prior hearings. Child Support Court recommends that Respondent's filing in R196685 do not state any facts or arguments that constitute adequate cause to reconsider prior hearings' orders.

Finally, District Court has found Respondent to be "vexatious litigant" in Order After Hearing Certifying Intent to Grant Relief filed January 18, 2019. Respondent's demand for a BIRTH CERTIFICATE is DENIED, he is able to get his own copy. Respondent's motion to Suspend is DENIED, all issues have previously been ruled on. Respondent's motion to DISESTABLISH can not be ruled on in this case and is DENIED. Respondent's motion for return of Stimulus funds of $1200 is DENIED the authority to take such funds is 31 CFR 585.3. RESPONDENT'S Motion for modification of child support is DENIED, Respondent failed to provide his financial disclosure form. Based upon the finding that Respondent is a vexatious litigant the court orders, in this court case R-17-196685-R, Respondent cannot file any motions concerning jurisdiction or paternity. Any other motions must be submitted to the court prior to filing. Only after review by the court and permission of the court will any future motion be allowed in this case.
