ORDER REGARDING MOTIONS

Appellants have filed a motion to extend a stay imposed by the district court of the court's order unsealing commercially sensitive documents and transcripts from the trial and a motion to file those documents in the appendix filed with the motion for stay under seal. Appellants inform this court that the district court stayed the unsealing order until November 14, 2022, directing the parties to then seek a stay in this court. On November 10, 2022, this court entered a temporary stay pending resolution of the motion. Respondents oppose the motion to extend the stay and the motion to file the appendix under seal and ask this court to allow the documents to be released. Appellants have filed a reply. Having considered the arguments of the parties, this court grants the motion to extend the stay and to seal the appendix to the motion. See NRAP 8(c). The stay is extended pending further order of this court. The clerk of this court shall file the appendices received on October 31, 2022, and November 1, 2022, under seal.

Appellants' stipulated motion for an extension of time to file the opening brief is granted. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Appellants shall have until April 18, 2023, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Given the length of this initial extension request, no further extensions shall be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. NRAP 31(d).

It is so ORDERED.
