

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

KYMBERLIE JOY HURD,
Appellant,
vs.
MARIO OPIPARI,
Respondent.

No. 85537

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

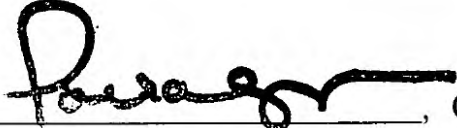

Attorneys Matthew Friedman and Christopher Phillips, who both purport to be counsel for respondent, have filed a notice informing this court that they will be unavailable from December 21, 2022, to January 3, 2023.

Initially, Phillips is not counsel of record for respondent in this court. Should Phillips wish to be recognized as counsel of record, he must file a notice of appearance in accordance with NRAP 46(a)(2). Respondent is also represented on appeal by attorney Chaka T. Henry Crome. However, the notice does not indicate that Crome will be unavailable.¹ And although the fast track response is due to be filed during Friedman's period of unavailability (January 3, 2023), see NRAP 3E(d)(2); NRAP 26(c), respondent has not filed a motion for an extension of time to file that document. Under these circumstances, this court takes no further action on the notice. If respondent requires an extension of time to file the fast track response, respondent shall file an appropriate motion in this court. Otherwise, the fast track response remains due to be filed by January 3, ¹If Crome is no longer counsel of record for respondent, Crome must file a motion to withdraw in compliance with NRAP 46(e)(3).

2022. Failure to timely file and serve the fast track response may result in the imposition of sanctions. NRAP 3E(i).

It is so ORDERED.
