Denied Without Prejudice;

Journal Entry Details:

Defendant made representations regarding his discovery motion and stated he was informed there are certain documents he is not entitled to because it is considered work product. Defendant argued for access to any video footage. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Scow stated there is nothing being held back, that defendant is entitled to under Brady. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Demonte indicated she did not respond to Defendant's Motion due to Defendant serving the wrong party, the State does not represent Clark County Detention Center (CCDC); Defendant needed to serve Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD). Colloquy between Court and State regarding counsel for LVMPD. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Demonte suggested LVMPD has in house counsel that would appear. COURT directed Defendant to serve his Motion on CCDC and LVMPD. Defendant made an oral request to proceed with co-counsel to help obtain the materials requested. Court reviewed the history of Defendant's requesting to represent himself, and noted the Court would be inclined to reappoint Mr. Coyer as counsel of record, not as co-counsel. Court advised Defendant can re-file his Motion to withdraw Mr. Coyer if parties are incompatible as long as the removal is not a tactic to delay trial. Colloquy between the Court and Defendant regarding legal materials requested. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant requested Mr. Coyer be confirmed as counsel of record. COURT ORDERED, Defendant's Oral Motion for Re-appointment of Counsel, GRANTED. Court directed Defendant to provide a copy of his brief to Mr. Coyer. Court stated there was a Feratta canvas after which defendant elected to represent himself and has now changed his mind. Court inquired if Mr. Coyer was available. Mr. Coyer stated he was not sure that is what defendant is requesting. Mr. Coyer informed the Court regarding the jail's highly restrictive access to the library highly restrictive in which defendant has to ask for a specific case or statute and then it is copied for defendant. Further, defendant is still being charged for materials to represent himself. Mr. Coyer stated those are some of the reasons defendant is rethinking his choice to represent himself. Ms. DeMonte stated defendant had previously requested co-counsel and wanted defendant to be clear he is either representing himself or he is not. Court stated it made that clear last date. Mr. Coyer stated it is the Court's task to ensure the defendant receives due process and if the defendant's library access fails to meet the due process threshold, Mr. Coyer believes the Court can and should intervene. Court stated it believes that would be a separate civil rights action as the underlying court would not have jurisdiction. Mr. Coyer further advised there is a corresponding forfeiture case pending and defendant wants assistance in that matter and Mr. Coyer informed defendant this Court does not appoint counsel in civil matters. Further Mr. Coyer's contract with Clark County requires that he not solicit business from Court appointed clients. Statement by defendant regarding the civil matter. Defendant stated he cannot rely on Mr. Coyer's advice on the same conduct that arises from the civil action. Court stated Mr. Coyer can provide names of resources with respect to pro bono for the civil action. Court inquired whether defendant wanted Mr. Coyer to represent him in the criminal matter. Colloquy regarding what Mr. Coyer could provide with respects to materials, resources and copies, within the jail's guidelines. Defendant declined the services of Mr. Coyer and stated he intends to continue in pro se and requested an investigator to help with his defense. Court stated he believes it is a bad decision. Defendant inquired if Mr. Coyer would be able to provide a book on the Hollis case. Mr. Coyer stated if it is something he can get into the jail, he will do so. Upon Court's inquiry, defendant stated he would accept Mr. Coyer's representation. COURT ORDERED, defendant's motion DENIED as moot and ORDERED, Greg Coyer, Esq., APPOINTED to represent defendant in this matter. Colloquy regarding the charges for research. Court stated it is willing to sign an order approving requisite funding. Defendant stated he has previously been charged and requested the order to be retroactive to include those costs. Colloquy. Court DIRECTED Mr. Coyer to file a separate motion with the total amount and it will determine whether it is an appropriate expenditure. CUSTODY (COC) ;

Colloquy between Court and State regarding counsel for LVMPD. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Demonte suggested LVMPD has in house counsel that would appear. COURT directed Defendant to serve his Motion on CCDC and LVMPD. Defendant made an oral request to proceed with co-counsel to help obtain the materials requested. Court reviewed the history of Defendant's requesting to represent himself, and noted the Court would be inclined to reappoint Mr. Coyer as counsel of record, not as co-counsel. Court advised Defendant can re-file his Motion to withdraw Mr. Coyer if parties are incompatible as long as the removal is not a tactic to delay trial. Colloquy between the Court and Defendant regarding legal materials requested. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant requested Mr. Coyer be confirmed as counsel of record. - Court stated there was a Feratta canvas after which defendant elected to represent himself and has now changed his mind. Court inquired if Mr. Coyer was available.

Mr. Coyer stated he was not sure that is what defendant is requesting. Mr. Coyer informed the Court regarding the jail's highly restrictive access to the library highly restrictive in which defendant has to ask for a specific case or statute and then it is copied for defendant. Further, defendant is still being charged for materials to represent himself. Mr. Coyer stated those are some of the reasons defendant is rethinking his choice to represent himself.

Ms. DeMonte stated defendant had previously requested co-counsel and wanted defendant to be clear he is either representing himself or he is not. Court stated it made that clear last date.

Mr. Coyer stated it is the Court's task to ensure the defendant receives due process and if the defendant's library access fails to meet the due process threshold, Mr. Coyer believes the Court can and should intervene.

Court stated it believes that would be a separate civil rights action as the underlying court would not have jurisdiction.

Mr. Coyer further advised there is a corresponding forfeiture case pending and defendant wants assistance in that matter and Mr. Coyer informed defendant this Court does not appoint counsel in civil matters. Further Mr. Coyer's contract with Clark County requires that he not solicit business from Court appointed clients.

Statement by defendant regarding the civil matter. Defendant stated he cannot rely on Mr. Coyer's advice on the same conduct that arises from the civil action. Court stated Mr. Coyer can provide names of resources with respect to pro bono for the civil action.

Court inquired whether defendant wanted Mr. Coyer to represent him in the criminal matter. Colloquy regarding what Mr. Coyer could provide with respects to materials, resources and copies, within the jail's guidelines. Defendant declined the services of Mr. Coyer and stated he intends to continue in pro se and requested an investigator to help with his defense.

Court stated he believes it is a bad decision. Defendant inquired if Mr. Coyer would be able to provide a book on the Hollis case. Mr. Coyer stated if it is something he can get into the jail, he will do so. Upon Court's inquiry, defendant stated he would accept Mr. Coyer's representation.

COURT ORDERED, defendant's motion DENIED as moot and ORDERED, Greg Coyer, Esq., APPOINTED to represent defendant in this matter.

Colloquy regarding the charges for research. Court stated it is willing to sign an order approving requisite funding. Defendant stated he has previously been charged and requested the order to be retroactive to include those costs. Colloquy. Court DIRECTED Mr. Coyer to file a separate motion with the total amount and it will determine whether it is an appropriate expenditure.

Mr. Coyer stated the procedural history, with respect to defendant's pro per motions, including Judge Scotti's previous rulings. Mr. Coyer stated defendant wishes to represent himself, or have another attorney appointed.

Defendant argued regarding his grievance against the State Bar and argued Judge Scotti stated he would consider defendant's motions. Further, defendant has a legal forfeiture matter and Mr. Coyer, as defendant's appointed attorney in the criminal matter, is unable to represent defendant in the civil proceedings.

Ms. Beverly argued defendant is represented by counsel; therefore, the motions are fugitive documents. Further, Ms. Beverly argued defendant can either hire an attorney or represent himself. Mr. Coyer stated he had met with defendant on 1/18/17 and had turned over discovery, except for the CD. Mr. Coyer requested an order to return the photographs. Representations by Mr. Coyer.

 Zadrowski, Bernard B. Attorney

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- ALL PENDING MOTIONS - MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF ATTORNEY AND REQUEST FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING...MOTION FOR CORRECTION OF ILLEGAL SENTENCE

Defendant Valencia NOT PRESENT in custody at NDC.

Court STATED this is an issue that should have been brought up on direct appeal. It would not be a proper PCR claim as PCR claims are typically limited to ineffective assistance of counsel and validity of the plea. A motion to correct illegal sentence can be brought at any time regardless of whether the claim was brought on appeal. The District Court always has jurisdiction to correct a sentence that does not meet legal requirements. If the claim was brought on appeal and ruled on by the Nevada Supreme Court that decision would have to be followed.

COURT ORDERED, Motions DENIED. Mr. Zadrowski to prepare the Order.
