DECLARATION OF ABRAHAM G. SMITH

1. I, Abraham G. Smith, make this declaration based upon my personal knowledge and information I believe to be true:

2. I am a partner at Lewis Roca Rothgerber Christie LLP and am licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada. I serve as appellate counsel of record for appellant A Cab Series LLC.

3. I came down with a serious strep infection the last two weeks in December.

4. My wife and children also had strep during that time, which required multiple visits to the emergency room, to urgent care, and to the pediatrician for myself and my children. I also had to care for my children myself, even when ill, while my wife was severely ill and seeking treatment.

5. Jessica Helm, our extraordinarily diligent paralegal, was also very ill, through most of December.

6. Immediately after my return from out-of-state travel for the holidays, I again fell severely ill with what appears to be a strep reinfection.

7. I have mostly recovered with the help of a second round of antibiotics, but upon my return to work I have had to address an emergency hearing for preliminary injunction that—though I originally planned to assist for just one day—has now consumed that past three business days.

8. I have had almost no opportunity to work on this or my other cases since my return from my illness.

9. Another senior attorney on this matter is unexpectedly on a temporary leave of absence, beginning in January.

10. This leave was also entirely unforeseen and has greatly impacted the work for the remaining attorneys.

11. As a consequence, I and my colleagues worked diligently to prepare a draft brief and appendix. But we have not yet had time to finalize it.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this this 9th day of January, 2024.
