ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY:
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DIRECTING ATTORNEY GENERAL TO OBTAIN AND TRANSMIT CERTIFIED COPY OF NOTICE OF APPEAL LOG OR OTHER LOG MAINTAINED BY THE PRISON

This is a pro se notice of appeal from a district court order denying a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. This court's preliminary review of this appeal reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the district court entered the order denying appellant's petition on November 8, 2022, and the clerk of the district court served notice of entry of that order on November 14, 2022. Appellant's notice of appeal was due on December 19, 2022. See NRAP 4(b); Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 709, 918 P.2d 321, 325 (1996). Appellant's notice of appeal, however, was not filed in the district court until December 21, 2022, two days beyond the relevant appeal period. "[A]n untimely notice of appeal fails to vest jurisdiction in this court." Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 352, 871 P.2d 944, 946 (1994).

Appellant signed his notice of appeal on November 20, 2022. Under NRAP 4(d), if appellant delivered his notice of appeal to a prison official for mailing on or before December 19, 2022, his notice of appeal would be deemed timely filed. See also Kellogg v. Journal Communications, 108 Nev. 474, 477, 835 P.2d 12, 13 (1992) (holding that a notice of appeal is deemed "filed" when it is delivered to a prison official). Because appellant has not submitted documentation verifying the actual date he may have delivered his notice of appeal to a prison official, this court is unable to determine at this time whether his notice of appeal should be deemed timely pursuant to NRAP 4(d). Any documents verifying the actual date of delivery are in the sole custody and control of state prison officials. In addition, appellant is not represented by counsel in this matter and is proceeding pro se. Therefore, counsel for the State is in the best position to obtain and transmit to this court the documents necessary to establish whether appellant timely invoked this court's jurisdiction to consider this appeal.

Accordingly, the attorney general shall have 30 days from the date of this order within which to obtain and transmit to the clerk of this court a certified copy of the notice of appeal log maintained at the prison indicating the actual date upon which appellant delivered to a prison official his notice of appeal.¹ If the notice of appeal log does not indicate that appellant delivered the notice of appeal to a prison official, the attorney general shall so inform this court. If appellant used any other log or system designed for legal mail during the relevant time period, the attorney general shall inform the court of this fact and provide this court with a certified copy of the log or system used by appellant.

It is so ORDERED.
