OPENING STATEMENT

PROSE POST CONVICTION RELIEF

A petitioners pleadings should be liberally construed to do substantial Justice U.S. v Garth 188 F.3d 44 (3rd Cir 1999), see also Berry v Mc Donnell 454 U.S. 364 70 LEd 2d 551 102 S.Ct 740 (1981) EFFECT OF A writ of Habeas corpus is to vacate a conviction and release petitioner from custody Capps v Sullivan 13 F.3d 350 (10th Cir 1993)

This petition is a challenge to the subject matter Jurisdiction of both the Justice court & District court. A Jurisdictional challenge cant be waived. A Jurisdictional challenge can be raised at any time, even 10, 20, or 30 years from now or the time of conviction. Lamweth v Malik 221 P.3d 1265, 2009 WL 78, 2009 WL 251 P.3d 163 (2011), Galloway v Trusdel 83 N.W.3d 422 P.2d 237 (1967); Pretay v Comm'r 501 U.S. 368 111 S.Ct 2631 2648 (1991); see also Philbrook v Glabbe 95 S.Ct 1893 1902, 421 U.S. 707 (1975)

THE PINLH

The entire crux of this case is subject matter Jurisdiction
"A court cannot acquire Jurisdiction to try a person for an act made criminal only by an unconstitutional Law, and thus, an offense created by an unconstitutional statute, is no longer a crime and a conviction under such statute cannot be a legal cause for imprisonment."
State v Benze 583 N.W.2d 434, 220 W.S. 2d 588 (1998)
THE STEALTH FRAUD ACT OF THE 48TH SESSION OF THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE
ADOPTING AND ENACTING NEVADA REVISED STATUTES AND PUBLISHING THEM WITHOUT THE MANDATED ENACTING CLAUSE REVELED AND EXPOSED HERE IN.

NO GRAND JURY INDICTMENT U.S. CONST. AMENDMENTS.

IV V VI VIII XIV

COUNT ONE

The Fifth amendment provides in relevant part:

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury" U.S.

CONST. AMEND V; see also Ex parte Barr 121 U.S. 1, 12-13 (1887) the Accused can be tried for infamous crime only after Grand Jury indictment.

The Supreme Court has defined "infamous crimes" as those crimes

"punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary" Mackin v U.S. 117

U.S. 348, 354 (1886) or by "imprisonment for a term of years at hard Labor" Ex parte Wilson, 114 U.S. 417, 424 (1885) The sentence that the law may impose, not the sentence actually imposed, determines whether grand jury indictment is required. see U.S. v Moreland 258

U.S. 433, 441 (1922) Because persons convicted of offences punishable by imprisonment for more than one year may be confined in a penitentiary,

18 U.S.C. § 4083 any crime punishable in this manner is infamous. Rule

7(a) of The Federal Rules of criminal procedure codifies the Supreme Court's interpretation of The Constitutional requirement of an indictment for infamous crimes. "An offense (other than criminal contempt) must be prosecuted by an indictment if it is punishable; (A) by death, or (B)

by imprisonment for more than 1 year" FED. R. CRIM. P. 7(a)(1) see e.g. U.S. v Couchman 752 F.2d 685, 689 n.24 (D.C. Cir. 1985) most of petitioners charges at Arrest was 10 years minimum, The max was

Life, or life without, so petitioner now poses this question to the court. where is the indictment?

The state cannot argue this does not apply to them, when it does

1 apply to them Through clause 2 of the U.S. CONST Amend 6 That is the 2 Supremacy clause which is applied to the states Through the 14th Amend
3 of the U.S. CONST The Supremacy clause states That federal law and
4 the U.S. CONST are Law of the Land, That any State Law in conflict
5 with them MUST YIELD Broad v Sealaska Corp 85 P 3d 422
6 (Alaska Cir 1996)
7 when it comes to petitioner He was not indicted, therefore 8 is/was wrongly charged and imprisoned, in violation of HIS 9 Civil Rights; Federal Law.

1. NO ENACTMENT CLAUSE ON FACE OF ACT

2. COUNT TWO

3. The procedural process for the passage of a state Law Generally
4. consist of the following flow chart:

5. (1) The law is passed by both houses;

6. (2) The Bill is sent to The Governor, who then signs or doesn't sign it;

7. (3) If the Governor signs The Bill, then it goes to The Secretary of state;

8. (4) in Nevada, The Secretary of state is The constitutional keeper of all
9. legislative records;

10. (5) The Secretary of state also possesses The official state seal and
11. affixes them to laws that have been passed to certify that it is a
12. true and valid document.

13. The laws that are passed by The state legislature are prima facie
14. evidence that it has been passed, but the laws that are issued
15. and published by The Secretary of state are irrefutable proof that
16. the law exists. statutes are presumed to be valid, and The challenger
17. bears The burden of showing that a statute is unconstitutional
18. Hulverson v Secretary of State, 124 Nev 484, 487, 186 p. 3d at
19. 896 (2008) Therefore this ~~petitioner~~ proceeds with His challenge
20. the passage of The NRS which are alleged to have been passed
21. legislatively en mass through senate Bill NO 2 (1957).

22. UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION

23. FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT

24. in pertinent part...

25. NO STATE SHALL MAKE OR ENFORCE ANY LAW WHICH SHALL ABRIDGE THE

26. PRIVILEGES OR IMMUNITIES OF CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES; NOR SHALL

27. ANY STATE DEPRIVE ANY PERSON OF LIFE, LIBERTY, OR PROPERTY, WITH

28. OUT DUE PROCESS OF LAW; NOR DENY TO ANY PERSON WITH IN ITS

1 JURISDICTION THE EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAWS.

3 therefore THIS petitioner proceeds with HIS challenge to the 4 constitutionality of the passage of the NRS. which are alleged to have 5 been legislatively passed en mass by Senate Bill No 2.

6 The mode of a statute depends on constitutional Meacham v. Hell 1791

7 p. 2d 410, 117 Idaho 960 (1940) and statutory requirements Harris v

8 Shanahan 387 p. 2d 771 192 Kan 183 (1963): The Nevada Revised

9 statutes are alleged to have been passed into law on May 1, 1951 in the

10 form of a copy of an "ENGROSSED BILL" - commonly known as Senate

11 Bill No. 2 [herein SB-2] THIS Bill was, in fact, not a Bill at all.

12 Further, there were so many constitutional and other mandatory

13 protocols that were violated as to the manner and method of the passage

14 of SB-2, which VOIDED the entire act. The passage of any law in Nevada

15 must meet certain criteria for its "LAWFUL" passage.

16 The first set of issues are related to "mode, style and identification"

17 of a Bill.

NEVADA CONSTITUTION

19

ARTICLE 4 § 23

20 requires that each bill enacted shall contain the following language.

21 "THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE

22 AND ASSEMBLY DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS"

23 The Senate Concurrent Resolution used, providing that the 24 official engrossed copy of Senate Bill No 2 may be used as the enrolled

25 Bill. Fails to contain the constitutionally mandated enacting clause.

26 see Exhibit 1, 1(a), 1(b), 1(c) The enacting clause is mandatory and

27 cannot be cured by a Joint Resolution. A Joint Resolution adopted

28 by both houses cannot become applied Law if it does not contain

1 the enacting clause required by this section, AGO 85 (07/25/1951)
2 This constitutional provision is mandatory and an act not in proper
3 form is void and unenforceable.
4 State ex rel Chase v Rogers 10 Nev 250 (1875) The words "REPRESENT 5 ED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY" expressive of the authority which passed the 6 Law, are as necessary as the words "THE PEOPLE" or any of the other
7 words of the enacting clause. See also Nevada Highway Patrol Ass'n v State
8 107 Nev 547, 815 p.2d 508 (1991) In state ex rel Chase v Rogers, 10 Nev
9 250 (1875), the court held that where the enacting words were prescribed,
10 it was mandatory they be included in the act, without the words
11 required by the constitution, and without the concurrence of the senate,
12 the people had no power to enact any law.
13 The county recorder contended that when the Bill was presented to the 14 legislature the words were in the enacting clause. The court ruled that 15 it could only look at the enrolled Bill in the office of the secretary of 16 state in order to ascertain the terms of the law. The problem with 17 this is that the secretary of state cannot produce a copy of the enrolled
18 Bill as the office is not in physical possession of any legislative act
19 passed in Nevada AGO 85 (07/25/1951) citing Chase v Rogers 10 Nev
20 250 (1875) held that the omission of the words "SENATE AND" from 21 the enacting clause of an act of the legislature rendered the act unconstitution
22 al and void. The court in passing upon the matter said:
23 Our constitution expressly provides that the enacting clause of every law
24 shall be "THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND 25 ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS" This language is susceptible of but one 26 interpretation. There is no doubtful meaning as to the intention. It is in 27 our judgment, an imperative mandate of the people in their sovereign
28 capacity to the legislature, requiring that all laws to be binding upon

1. them shall, upon their face, express the Authority by which they were
2. enacted, and as this act comes to us without such authority appearing
3. upon its face, it is not a Law.

4. pursuant to RULE 7 OF THE JOINT RULES OF THE NEVADA SENATE
5. and Assembly. A Joint Resolution can only be used for the purpose
6. set forth therein, as follows:

7. (1) propose an amendment to the Nevada constitution;
8. (2) Ratify a proposed amendment to the United States constitution;
9. (3) Address the president of the United States, Congress, either house
10. or committee or member of Congress, any department or agency of
11. the Federal Government, or any state of the Union.

12. A Concurrent Resolution must be used for:

13. (1) Amendment of these joint standing rules, which require a majority
14. vote of each House for adoption;

15. (2) Request the return from the Governor of an enrolled Bill for further
16. consideration;

17. (3) Request the return from the Secretary of State an enrolled Joint or
18. Concurrent Resolution for further consideration;

19. (4) Resolve the return of a Bill from one House to the other House if
20. necessary and appropriate;

21. (5) Express facts, principles, opinions and purposes of the Senate and
22. Assembly;

23. (6) Establish a Joint Committee of the two Houses;

24. (7) Direct the legislature commission to conduct an interim study.

25. A Concurrent Resolution or a Resolution of one House may
26. be used to memorialize a former member of the legislature or other
27. notable or distinguished person upon his or her death.

28. A Resolution of one House may be used to request the return

1 From the Secretary of state of an enrolled resolution of the same House
2 for further consideration. see Nevada Highway Patrol Ass'n v State
3 107 Nev 547 815 p 2d 608 (1991) which states as follows:

4 First, by its nature, an assembly concurrent resolution is not
5 intended to have the force and effect of law.
6 along with the request or direction of the legislative commission to 7 conduct interim studies, on occasion a concurrent resolution is 8 also used to memorialize a former member of the legislature or 9 other distinguished person upon death, or to congratulate or to 10 commend any person or organization for a significant and 11 meritorious accomplishment.

12 NEVADA CONSTITUTION

13 ARTICLE IV § 35

14 Second Every Bill which may have passed the legislature shall,
15 before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor...

16 A review of the legislative history of the aforementioned Assembly
17 concurrent Resolution no 29, indicates that this resolution, like other 18 concurrent resolutions passed by the legislature during the same time
19 period, was never presented to the Governor for approval or disapproval.

20 See generally FINAL VOLUME ASSEMBLY HISTORY 1961 AT 218-288

21 Accordingly this Assembly concurrent Resolution attached as exhibit 1, 22 (1a), (1b), (1c) cannot be construed as the Law of this State.

24 THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND

25 ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS: And no Law shall be enacted except 26 by Bill. NEV CONST ART IV § 23 (emphasis added).

27 By this provision a title is required to be on all Laws. The title is

28 another one of the forms of a law required by the constitution. this type

1 of constitutional provision "MAKES THE TITLE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF EVERY LAW"

2 Thus the title "IS AS MUCH A PART OF THE ACT AS THE BODY ITSELF"

3 Leininger v Alger 26 N.W. 2d 348, 351, 316 Mich. 644 (1947).

4 The title to a legislative act is a part thereof, and

5 must clearly express the object of legislation.

6 State v. Burlington & M. R.R. Co., 60 Neb. 741, 84 N.W. 254 (1900).

7 "A state constitution is binding on the courts of the state and on every

8 officer and every citizen, any attempt to do that which is prescribed in

9 any manner than that prescribed or to do that which is prohibited is

10 repugnant to the supreme and paramount law, and void." Posch v. Patterson

11 39 Nev. 251, 268, 156 P. 434, 445 (1916)

12 "where rights secured by the constitution are involved there can be 13 no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them" Davis v.

14 Wechsler 263 U.S. 22, 24.

15 ACT MUST EMBRACE BUT ONE SUBJECT AND TITLE

16 COUNT THREE

17 NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 4 § 17: EACH LAW ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE

18 SHALL EMBRACE BUT ONE SUBJECT AND MATTER.

19 SB-2, which embraced the passage of the NRS, embraced every subject

20 in Nevada law. SB-2 violated the Nevada constitution, placing all the 21 subjects of the laws of Nevada under the penumbra of the NRS, does not

22 meet the requirements that the bill embrace only one subject. This constit

23 utional provision is mandatory. State ex. rel. Chase v. Rogers 10 Nev. 250

24 (1875); State v. Ahsum 15 Nev. 27 (1880) compliance with this section is 25 essential to the validity of every law enacted by the legislature.

26 State ex. rel. Wilson v. Stone 24 Nev. 308 53 P. 497 (1898); Bell v. First

27 Judicial Dist. Ct. 28 Nev. 280, 51 P. 875 (1905) Any act passed in

28 disregard of the letter and spirit of this provision is pro tanto void State

1 V. Ah Sam, 15 Nev. 27 (1880)

2 The title to a legislative act is a part thereof, and

3 must clearly express the subject of legislation.

4 State v Burlington & M.R.R. Co., 60 Neb. 741, 84 N.W. 254 (1900)

5 nearly all legal authorities have held that the title is part of the 6 act, especially when a constitutional provision for a title exists.

7 37 ALR Annotated, pp. 948, 949. What then can be said of a law

8 in which an essential part of it is missing, except that it is not a

9 Law under the State Constitution.

10 This provision of the State Constitution, providing that every

11 Law is to have a title expressing one subject, is mandatory and is

12 to be followed in all Laws, as stated by the NEV. SUP. CT.: see 13 State v Rogers, 10 Nev. at 254-257; compare Boll v King 286 N.W.

14 311, 313 (Minn 1939).

15 The constitutional provisions for a title have been held in many

16 other States to be mandatory in the highest sense. State v

17 Beckman, 185 S.W. 2d 810, 816 (Mo 1945); Leidinger, 26 N.W. 2d at

18 351, 82 Eds Statutes¹⁹ § 64, p. 102. The provision for a title in the 19 CONSTITUTION⁶⁶ "RENDERS A TITLE INDISPENSABLE"⁷³ 73 Am Jur. 2d.

20 "Statutes"⁷¹ § 99, p. 325, citing People v Monroe 344 Ill. 270, 182

22 Since such provisions regarding a title are "MANDATORY AND

23 INDISPENSABLE"⁷¹, the existence of a title is necessary to the validity

24 of the act. Should a title not exist, then it is not a Law pursuant

25 to the paramount NEV. CONST. ART. 4 § 17 (1864). In speaking of

26 the constitutional provision requiring one subject to be embraced

27 in the title of each Law, the Supreme Court of Tennessee iterated:

28 that requirement of the organic law is mandatory

1 and unless obeyed in every instance, the legislation

2 attempted is invalid and of no effect whatever

3 State v. Yardley 32 S.W. 481, 482, 95 Tenn. 546 (1895)

4 COMPLAINT AND/OR INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT

5 MUST CONTAIN ENACTING CLAUSE ON ITS FACE

6 COUNT FOUR

7 DEFINITION OF FACE IN THIS INSTANCE IS AS FOLLOWS:

8 The surface of anything, especially the front, upper, or outer part or 9 surface, that which particularly offers itself to the view of a spectator.

10 That which is shown by the language employed, without any explanation,

11 modification, or addition from extrinsic facts or evidence.

12 BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY, 8TH ED., P. 530.

13 A complaint and/or information or indictment in a criminal case is the 14 main means by which a court obtains subject matter jurisdiction, and

15 is the "JURISDICTIONAL INSTRUMENT UPON WHICH THE ACCUSED STANDS TRIAL."

16 State v. Chutkan 671 P.2d 531, 538 (Kan. 1983)

17 The complaint and/or the information in question alleged that the accused

18 Appellant has/had committed several crimes by the violation of 19 certain laws/statutes, which are listed in said complaint and/or

20 information. To wit: Attached as exhibit 2, 2a

21 PURPOSE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL

22 PROVISION OF AN ENACTING CLAUSE

23 to determine the validity of using laws without an enacting

24 clause against citizens, we need to determine the purpose and

25 function of an enacting clause; also to see what problems or evils

26 were intended to be avoided by including such provisions in our

27 state constitution.

28 one object of the constitutional mandate for an enacting clause is to

1 show that the law is one enacted "by the legislative body which has
2 been given the law making authority under the constitution"

3 Thus the purpose of prescribing an enacting clause "THE 4 STYLE OF THE ACTS" is to establish it; to give it permanence,
5 uniformity and certainty, to identify the act of legislation as of 6 the assembly, to afford evidence of its legislative statutory nature
7 and to secure uniformity of identification, and thus prevent
8 inadvertence, possibly mistake and fraud. State v. Patterson 4 S.E.
9 350, 352, 98 N.C. 600 (1887); 82 C.U.S. "STATUTES" § 65, p. 104;
10 Jeiner v. State, 155 S. 2d 8, 10, 223 Ga 367 (1967)

11 WHAT IS THE OBJECT OF A BILL OR ENACTING CLAUSE

12 To show the Authority by which the Bill is enacted into Law; to 13 show that the act comes from a place POINTED out by the constitution
14 as the source of legislation. Ferrill v. Keel, 151 S.W 269, 272, 105
15 Ark 380 (1912)

16 The Appellant/Accused has learned that these Laws or statutes used 17 in the complaint and/or information against him are located in 18 and derived from a collection of books entitled "NEVADA REVISED
19 STATUTES (NRS)" upon looking up said laws in this "copyrighted"
20 publication, The Appellant/Accused realized they do not adhere to 21 "SEVERAL CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS" of the Nevada constitution.
22 (NEV CONST.) The Nev Const affords the citizens of Nevada more
23 protection than the Federal constitution. see Wilson v. State 123
24 Nev 587, 595 (Nev 2007) citing Miranda v. State 114 Nev 385, 387
25 (1998) The purpose of an enacting clause of a statute is to identify 26 it as an act of legislation by expressing on its face the authority
27 behind the act. 73 Am Jur 2d "STATUTES" § 93, p. 314, 320;
28 Preckel v. Byrne 243 N.W 823, 824, 62 N.D. 356 (1932)

1 The complaint/information is the foundation of the jurisdiction
2 of the magistrate or court, thus, should these charging instruments be
3 invalid, there is a lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

4 "Without a formal and sufficient information, a
5 court does not acquire subject matter jurisdiction
6 and thus an accused may not be punished for a crime."

7 Honomichi v State, 333 N.W. 2d 797, 798 (S.D. 1983)

9 A formal accusation is essential for every trial of a crime, without 10 it the court acquires no jurisdiction to proceed, even with the consent 11 of the parties, and where the indictment and/or information or 12 complaint is invalid the court is without jurisdiction ex parte
13 Carlson 186 N.W. 722, 725, 176 Wis. 538 (1922).

14 "Without a valid complaint (or information) any 15 judgment or sentence rendered is 'void ab initio'."

16 Ralph v Police Court of El Centro, 140 P. 2d 632, 634, 84 Cal. App. 2d 257
17 (1948).

18 The charging instrument must not only be in the particular mode
19 or form prescribed by the constitution to be valid, yet it also must contain 20 reference to valid laws, without a valid law, the charging instrument is 21 insufficient and no subject matter jurisdiction exists for the matter to 22 be tried.

23 Jurisdiction to try and punish for a crime cannot be acquired by the 24 mere assertion of it, or invoked otherwise than in the mode prescribed
25 by law, and if it is not so acquired or invoked any judgment is a
26 nullity. 22 C.J.S. "Criminal Law" § 167, p. 202.

1 where an information charges no crime, the court lacks jurisdiction to
2 try the accused. people v Hardiman 347 N.W 2d 460, 462, 132 Mich App

4 THE LAWS REFERENCED TO IN THE COMPLAINT AND/OR

5 INFORMATION CONTAIN NO TITLES

6 The laws listed in the complaint(s) and/or information in question, as 7 cited from the "NRS" contain no titles. All laws are to have titles
8 indicating the subject matter of the law, as required by the Nev Const.

9 ART 4 § 17 Each law enacted by the legislature shall 10 embrace but one subject and matter, properly connect
11 ed there with, which subject shall be briefly expressed 12 in the title; and no law shall be revised or amended by 13 reference to its title only; but in such case, the act,
14 as revised or sections as amended, shall be re-enacted
15 and published at length.

16 The purported laws in the complaint and/or information, which the Accused/
17 Appellant is said to have violated, are referenced to various laws found
18 printed in the NRS. The accused/Appellant has looked up the laws/statutes
19 charged against him in the NRS book and found NO ENACTING CLAUSE
20 for any of these laws. A citizen is not expected or required to search
21 through other records or books for enacting authority, should such enacting
22 authority not be "ON THE FACE" of the laws which are referenced in a
23 complaint and/or information, then "THEY ARE NOT LAWS OF THIS STATE"
24 and thus are not laws to which the accused/Appellant is subject. Caine
25 131 p. 2d at 518, State v Rogers 10 Nev 2d 261. Since they are not laws of 26 this state, the above-named court has/had no subject matter jurisdiction,
27 as there can be no crime which can exist from failing to follow laws
28 which do not constitutionally exist.

1 NRS/STATUTES MUST CONTAIN AN ENACTING CLAUSE

2 ON ITS FACE

3 COUNT FIVE

5 By constitutional mandate "All" Laws must have an enacting clause:

6 one of the forms that all laws are required to follow by the constitution
7 of Nevada (1864), is that they contain an enacting style or clause.

8 This provision is stated as follows:

9 ARTICLE 4 § 23 "The people of the State of Nevada represented in senate and 10 Assembly, do enact as follows"

11 none of the Laws cited in the complaint or information against the 12 accused/petitioner, as found in the NRS for the year of 2015
13 contain any enacting clauses.

14 The constitutional provision which prescribes an enacting clause for 15 "All Laws" is not directory, yet is mandatory. This includes and

16 encompasses laws which have been classified, ~~codified~~ and annotated

17 because the Nevada constitution is "PARAMOUNT". This provision is to 18 be strictly adhered to as asserted by the Supreme Court of Nevada. see:

19 State of Nevada v. Rogers 10 Nev. 250, 255, 256 (1875); Caine v. Robbins,

20 61 Nev. 416 (31 p. 2d 516, 518 (Nev. 1942)) citing Sjoberg v. Security Savings

23 and Public Safety, Nevada Highway Patrol Div, 107 Nev. 547, 549,

24 815 p. 2d 608, 610 (Nev. 1991)

25 The almost unbroken custom of centuries has been to preface laws with 26 a statement in some form declaring the enacting authority. The purpose of

27 an enacting clause of a statute is to identify it as an act of legislation by

28 expressing on its face the authority behind the act. 73 Am. Jur. 2d

1 "STATUTES" § 93, p. 314, 320; Preckel v. Syne, 243 N.W. 823, 826, 62 N.D.

3 The Court of Appeals of Kentucky held that the constitutional provision 4 requiring an enacting clause is a basic concept which has a direct affect 5 upon the validity of a law. (Emphasis added to original the Accused down)

6 The court in dealing with a law that had contained no enacting
7 clause, stated:

8 the alleged act or law in question is UNNAMED; it shows
9 no sign of authority; it carries with it no evidence
10 that the general Assembly or any other law making power
11 is responsible or answerable for it  By an enacting 12 clause, the makers of the constitution intended that the 13 General Assembly should make its impress or seal, as it
14 were, upon each enactment for the sake of identity,
15 and to assume and show responsibility.  while 16 the constitution makes this a necessity, it did not 17 originate it. The custom is in use practically every 18 where and is as old as parliamentary government, as 19 old as king's decrees and even they borrowed it. The 20 decrees of cyrus, king of persia, which Holy writ
21 records, were not the first to be prefaced with a 22 statement of authority. The Law was delivered to 23 moyses in the name of the Great I Am, and the prologue
24 to the great commandments is no less majestic and 25 impelling. But, whether these edicts and commands
26 be promulgated by the Supreme Ruler or petty kings,
27 or by the sovereign people themselves they have 28 always begun with some such form as evidence of power and authority

SEPERATION OF POWERS

COUNT SIX

According to the LCB their predecessor, the statute revision commission, was originally created by the Nevada Supreme Court in 1951. However Senate Bill No. 182, attached as Exhibit 3, approved

March 9, 1951 created the statute revision commission. This commission consisted of three NEVADA SUPREME COURT JUSTICES:

(1) Milton Budt

(2) Edgar Eather

(3) Charles Merrill

Later a rather mysterious man named Russell West McDonald would be appointed by these justices as "the director" this commission became increasingly involved in bill drafting as an adjunct to its statute revision work.

The origin of the statute revision commission is some

1 what of a mystery as well, providing conflicting and
2 multiple representations from various sources making it
3 unclear as to its actual origin. The Legislative Counsel Bureau
4 states in their literature that the Supreme Court formed this
5 commission. Regardless of its origin, the entire commission
6 was constitutionally compromised from the start. The commission
7 was unlawful for several reasons, the most obvious being its 8 very operation, the justices who served on it did so in violation
9 of the NEVADA CONSTITUTION and the SEPERATION OF POWERS
10 DOCTRINE, which is discussed as follows, CONSTITUTIONAL

11 VIOLATIONS: The placement of the three Nevada Supreme Court
12 justices on the statute revision commission violated the 13 NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE VI § 11, which states in 14 pertinent part, the justices of the Supreme Court and the District
15 Judges shall be ineligible to any office, other than a judicial 16 office, during the term for which they shall have been elected or 17 appointed and all elections or appointments of any such judges
18 by the people, legislature, or otherwise, during said period,
19 to any office other than judicial shall be void.

20 the NRS has been the illegal creation of an unconstitutional
21 commission, due to the fact that, sitting justices of the NEV.
22 Sup. Ct whom were a part of the "JUDICIAL BRANCH" and no
23 persons charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging
24 to one of these departments shall exercise any functions,

6 Justice Badt OF THE NEVADA SUPREME COURT in rendering the

7 opinion OF THE COURT, acknowledged the "SEPERATION OF POWERS"¹⁹

8 under ARTICLE 3 §1 as iterated in KING v Board of Regents, 65 nev

9 553, 557, 200 p.2d 221, 232 (1948) The court held:

10 A constitution being paramount Law of a state,

11 designed to separate the powers of government and

12 to define their extent and limit their exercise by

13 the several departments as well as to secure and

14 protect private rights no other instruments of 15 equal significance it has been very properly ~~defined~~

16 defined to be a legislative act of the people

17 themselves in their sovereign capacity, and

18 when the people have declared by it that

19 certain powers shall be possessed and

20 duties performed by a particular officer

21 or department, their exercise and discharge

22 by any other officer or department are

23 forbidden by a necessary and unavoidable.

24 However, seven (7) years later in 1955, Justice Badt failed

25 to adhere to his own opinion in KING, 65 nev at 557, 200 p.2d

26 at 232, that a CONSTITUTION BEING PARAMOUNT LAW OF A STATE,

3 attached as exhibit 5 again amended by chapter 248 statutes
4 of Nevada 1955 attached as exhibit 6 The legislature of the 5 STATE OF NEVADA created the statute Revision Commission. (notice
6 Required enacting clauses). comprised of three Justices of the supreme 7 court, authorized such commission to appoint a revisor of the 8 statutes to be known as the Director of the statute Revision
9 Commission, and charging this commission to commence
10 the preparation of a complete revision and compilation of the 11 Laws of the State of Nevada to be known as NEVADA REVISED
12 STATUTES for further duties and authority of the statute Revision
13 Commission relating to the preparation of Nevada Revised Statutes,
14 the numbering of sections, bindings, printing, classification, revision
15 and sale thereof

16 As iterated in this court the true origin of this commission is a 17 true mystery, with various, conflicting representations on how 18 it was created, by who.

19 Thus the Separation of powers Doctrine was violated as three (3)
20 Justices were involved in the drafting of legislation and the passage
21 of Bills in the legislature, a purely legislative function.

22 It is important to note here that the statute Revision Commission was 23 not legally created until 1955. on APRIL 26, 1963, the legislature
24 committed an illegal act by backdating the appointment of the 25 statute Revision Commission and revisor of statutes to 1951 to 26 cover up their pre-existing criminal fraud. see attached exhibit 7

11 functions of the legis. of Nev. NO PERSON CHARGED with the 12 EXERCISE OF POWERS PROPERLY BELONGING TO ONE OF THESE 13 DEPARTMENTS SHALL EXERCISE "ANY" FUNCTION, APPERTAINING TO 14 EITHER OF THE OTHERS. ART 3 § 1 OF THE NEVADA CONSTITUTION

15 "A STATE CONSTITUTION IS Binding on the courts of 16 STATE, and on every officer and on every citizen.
17 Any attempt to do that which is prescribed in any 18 manner than that prescribed or to do that which 19 is prohibited, is repugnant to that supreme and 20 paramount Law and is invalid. (6. R. C. L. p. 410)"

21 porch v patterson, 34 Nev. 251, 268, 156 p. 439, 445 (1916)

22 In 1956-57 the Committee on Judiciary in the senate passed
23 Concurrent Resolution No 1 Attached as exhibit 1(b) this legislation
24 was an attempt to bootstrap the illegal passage of the (NRS) by SB-2
25 this was done by the usage of a Joint Resolution that provided that 26 the "official engrossed copy of SB-2 may be used as the Enrolled Bill."
27 AS Appellant stated above Resolutions cannot be used to pass
28 any Bill into Law, rendering any Law using this legislative vehicle

1 VOID

2 Even the LCB's preface which is attached to Accused motion
3 to Dismiss for Lack of Subject matter Jurisdiction as exhibit
4 which describes work done by the Statute Revision Commission
5 as a delegation of the legislature's own duties, RUSSELL WEST
6 McDonald was engaged in "REVISING" which the LCB states in 7 their preface as follows

8 "REVISING" The statutes, on the other hand, involves these 9 additional and distinguishing operations: (1) The collection into 10 chapters of all sections and part of sections that relate to the 11 same subject and the orderly arrangement into sections of the 12 material assembled in each chapter. (2) The elimination of 13 inoperative or obsolete, duplicated, impliedly repealed and 14 unconstitutional (as declared by the Supreme Court of the State of 15 Nevada) sections and parts of sections. (3) The elimination of 16 unnecessary words and the improvement of the grammatical 17 structure and physical form of sections.

18 The revision, instead of the recompilation, of the statutes was 19 undertaken, therefore, first, to eliminate sections or parts of 20 sections which, though not specifically repealed, were never 21theless ineffective and, second to clarify, simplify, classify and 22 generally make more accessible, understandable and usable the 23 remaining effective sections or part of sections.

24 The changing of any word, whether it is redundant, or 25 unnecessary, ineffective, simply, clarifying, or just simply an 26 improvement of the grammatical structure is a legislative function, 27 and not a judicial function.

28 Let us not forget these corrections were being approved FIRST

1 by these (3) Three Justices of the NEVADA SUPREME COURT in
2 blatant violation of the SEPERATIONS OF POWERS DOCTRINE NEV.
3 CONST ART 3 §1

4 The harsh reality of both of the amorphously hollow
5 Resolutions that are alleged to have caused the passage of SB-2
6 while at the same time revoking Nevada's existing statutes
7 and Replacing them with the NRS, is that the entire program
8 is legally and legislatively Bankrupt. This means that the entire 9 process is void.

10 "If words mean nothing, then our constitution means
11 nothing. mattox v U.S. 156 U.S. 237, 243 (1895); S. carolina v.
12 U.S. 194 U.S. 437, 448 (1905) "we are bound to interpret the 13 constitution in the light of the law as it existed at the time
14 it was written." or "The constitution is a written instrument, as 15 such its meaning does not alter, that which it meant when it
16 was adopted, it means now. If our constitution means nothing
17 then we have no rights. If we have no rights, then we only have 18 privileges and immunities that are granted by the government. we 19 are then but subjects of a tyrannical government, it is a
20 maxim of law. "That which creates, has the power to destroy."
21 Therefore privileges are worthless because they can be legislated
22 away for any reason, where as Constitutional Rights cannot be 23 legislated away without the consent of the Body politic. our 24 state law has been morphed into a form of territorial federal 25 Law. This destroys the Sovereignty of the state and its 26 citizens.

27 the constitution of the UNITED STATES guarantees each state
28 a REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT. A Republican form of Government

1 means that we have the rule of law. Currently we have no rule of 2 law in Nevada, in fact we have nothing but lawlessness. we have 3 an oligarchy, a nation ~ state where our Representatives have 4 become rulers who are a law unto themselves and our rules are lying 5 to us in order to maintain the facade that we are in an orderly, free 6 society ~ when the truth is we are living under an oppressive and 7 tyrannical government.

8 There are multiple errors that were committed, for instance the 9 requirement for the passage of a Bill is that it be read three times
10 over (3) three separate days as required by NEVADA CONSTITUTION;
11 ARTICLE 4 § 17 There is no evidence that this was ever accomplished
12 and this information cannot be obtained from the constitutional
13 Record keeper ~ that being the SECRETARY OF STATE see NEVADA
14 CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 5 § 20 which requires that legislative records
15 to be maintained by the SECRETARY OF STATE see attached Exhibit 9
16 In Bryan P. Burham v Barbara K. Legawaska case NO 27-cv-wr32019
17 2039 defence counsel argues in OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY
18 JUDGMENT They argue that the letter from Secretary of State
19 stating she is not in possession of legislative acts attached here
20 as Exhibit 8 does not prove that defendant violated Her
21 Out of Office (Fraud upon court) they also argue NRS 375.355

22 AS argued above the constitution means now what it meant
23 when it was adopted/written.

24 Therefore should state attempt to argue that an NRS OR STATUTE
25 can amend what petitioner/Accused has argued that NEVADA
26 CONSTITUTION Requires specific functions be followed. "A statute
27 cannot amend the constitution" see Seminole Tribe of Florida v
28 Florida, 517 U.S. 44, 116 S. CT 1114 (U.S. Fla 1996), Pennsylvania v

9 COURT see also Baker v Carr 369 U.S. 189, 215, 82 S. Ct 641 709, 7 L
10 Ed 2d 663 (1962) which the United States Bankruptcy Court relied 11 upon in IN RE TESSIER 140 B.R. 396 (1995). To make the following
12 conclusion:

13 Finally, in attempting to deny the supreme courts
14 determination of its own capacity to adjudicate,
15 the congress invades a province properly left
16 to a coordinate Branch, and in so doing impermi-
17 ssibly exceeds its legislative authority.

18 Nevada's sister state, California, has had something to say about 19 similar circumstances in their state. "The constitutional provision
20 was a law made directly by the people instead of the legislature, 21 and such laws are to be construed and enforced in all respects as 22 though they were statutes" Winchester v Mabury 122 Cal 552, 55
23 e 393, "in effect. These constitutional provisions are but statutes, 24 which the legislature cannot repeal or amend." Winchester v Howard
25 136 Cal. 432, 439, 64 P. 642, 64 P. 27, 74, 84 Am St. Rep 153
26 "The courts statutory... power to adjudicate" is defined
27 as subject matter Jurisdiction Cotton v United States 535 U.S.
28 625, 630. (2005)

1 It logically follows that an unconstitutional law deprives a court
2 of subject matter jurisdiction rendering judgments void. see
3 WRIGHT V WEST 505 U.S. 277, 285 (1992) "court is without 4 jurisdiction to impose sentence under unconstitutional statute"
5 citing Ex parte Siebold 100 U.S. 371, 377 (1880); Ex parte Smith
6 126 P. 655, 664 (Nev 1912) an unconstitutional law "is a jurisdiction
7 al defect"; Ex parte Rosenblatt, 19 P 248, 249 (Nev 1887) holding 8 that an unconstitutional law is void and insufficient to give 9 jurisdiction to the court, (citing Ex parte Siebold, supra.)

10 THE NEVADA CONSTITUTION did not nor does not permit
11 the Nevada legislature of Nevada to appoint sitting Justices of the 12 SUPREME COURT, to a legislative commission, to perform acts, duties, 13 and functions of the Legislature of Nevada, furthermore, especially 14 without the approval or consent, will or vote of the people/citizens 15 of the State of Nevada, especially where the NRS publication would 16 omit the mandated enacting clause of the NEVADA CONSTITUTION
17 ARTICLE 4 § 23

18 That is that this court must follow the construction of the 19 constitution of this state (the will of the people), and adhere to 20 those sound decisions of the state Appellate Court relative 21 to the issues, arguments and case law cited herein, due to 22 the fact that there is not any conflict with those decisions;
23 holdings; opinions; or rulings etc. cited by the petitioner/
24 accused herein, relative to the mandate of the Articles of the 25 NEVADA CONSTITUTION specifically ARTICLE 4 § 17 & ARTICLE 4 § 23

26 That, the act of the Nevada legislature in creating the 27 commission, later known as the STATUTE REVISION COMMISSION,
28 then the LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, now believed

1 to be the LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL BUREAU was not acting to protect
2 the people/citizens of the STATE OF NEVADA, nor for the security
3 and benefit of the people/citizens of the STATE OF NEVADA, and
4 obviously not for the public good. NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE
5 1 § 2. Especially, in allowing the NRS publication to be held out
6 to be "LAWS" of the STATE OF NEVADA, when the NRS
7 publications do not contain the mandatory enacting clause
8 as delineated in the NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 4 § 23
9 the act of the Nevada Legislature in utilizing said commission,
10 was to simplify the statutes of Nevada publication, for the 11 purpose of "convenience". However, the commission
12 convoluted the process when the commission sought enactment
13 of the NRS publication, to be published/republished without 14 the required enacting clause(s), and/or other prerequisites of the 15 people/citizens, as more fully prescribed, mandated, and 16 commanded in the paramount Law of the STATE OF NEVADA,
17 THE NEVADA CONSTITUTION

18 This court has jurisdiction to determine whether the 19 NEV. CONST., the will of the people/citizen is mandated that 20 "EVERY LAW" published, republished in the STATE OF NEVADA
21 must contain the enacting clause, as iterated in the NEV. CONST.
22 ART 4 § 23 the NEV. CONST ART 4 § 23, and the clearly delineated,
23 well established cases cited herein, & especially those of the NEV
24 SUP. CT. indicated that this court must answer in the affirmative
25 There may be issues, questions which this court would 26 gladly avoid, yet the issues, questions herein this court should,
27 must not avoid them.

28 This court ~~can~~ must exercise and perform its duty,

1 because of whatever difficulties the issues herein present, Judges
2 we not to consider the political or economic impact that might
3 ensue from upholding the Constitution of Nevada as written

12 be done" "Justice delayed is Justice Denied" Dougan v. Gustafson

14 IT IS THE DUTY OF THE COURTS TO BE WATCHFUL FOR THE 15 CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF THE CITIZEN, AND TO GUARD
16 AGAINST ANY STEALTHY ENCROACHMENTS THEREON.

17 Coolidge v. New Hampshire, 403 U.S. 443, 454 (1971)

18 The petitioner/Accused respectfully request that this 19 court be watchful for the Accused/petitioner's state and federal 20 constitutional rights. It should be relatively easy to determine 21 that (1) the statutes of NEVADA for the year of 2015, do not 22 contain the constitutionally mandated enacting clause upon
23 their face, NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 4 § 23; that the NRS
24 publications listed on the complaint, or information and/or 25 indictment do not contain the constitutionally mandated
26 enacting clause(s); (2) that the NEVADA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE
27 4 § 23 mandates enacting clauses on "EVERY LAW"
28 that, the NRS publications are laws of the STATE OF NEVADA

CONDENSED VERSION WITHOUT EXHIBITS ATTACHED

Preliminary Statement

Gary Walters, once had a personal bank account containing over one hundred million dollars and had exclusive control of over one billion dollars in investment funds. Mr. Walters was arrested and prosecuted for the forgeries committed by Robert Earl Ford and Effraim Mizrahi (In another court case Effraim Mizrahi testified that he and Robert Earl Ford forged the documents that put Mr. Walters in prison). This recorded testimony was not permitted to be used in Mr. Walter's defense by Judge Michael P. Villani in Eighth Judicial District Court No. 17. While Mr. Walters was in custody, with no bail, he was systematically robbed and stripped of hundred's of millions of dollars by the surviving and un-prosecuted members of Nevada's notorious HOA scandal.¹²³⁴ Mr. Walters was prosecuted by the surviving spouse of HOA conspiracy member, David Amesbury.⁵ Mr. Walters has come forward and released this phenomenal historical and legal research effort which was completed after spending over eight years in prison. Mr. Walter's conviction was reversed on a Post-Conviction Writ. This puts his case in the one-half of one percentile that are granted in Nevada State Courts. In other words, Mr. Walters Writ was one of the only 0.05 which are granted relief. Many of the documents obtained by Mr. Walters within the walls of Nevada's Department of Correction are no longer available to the public.⁶ Once Mr. Walters made this information generally available, Nevada's Governor Brian Sandoval quickly signed a Bill into law denying all Prisoner's access to public records.⁷ Mr. Walter's discovery follows:

Preface to Mr. Walters' discovery:

To understand the nature and validity of codification and revision of statutes at large, there needs to be an understanding that there are rules that direct the execution and making of them. These are generally found in every States' Constitution. These Constitutional directives are mandated, in other words, they must be followed or the codification or revision is a nullity. There are two levels that control this process. They are procedural and substantive in nature. By comparison, somewhat like a obtaining a driver's license: First you have a written test (substantive), eye test (substantive), and then you take a driving test (procedural).

The procedural process for the passage of a State Law generally consists of the following flow chart:

1. The Law is passed by both houses;
2. The bill is sent to the Governor, who then signs or doesn't sign it;
3. If the Governor signs the bill, then it goes to the Secretary of State;
4. In Nevada, the Secretary of State is the Constitutional keeper of ALL legislative records;
5. The Secretary of State also possesses the official state seal and affixes them to laws that have been passed to certify that it is a true and valid document.

The laws that are passed by the State Legislature are prima facie evidence that it has been passed, but the laws that are issued and published by the Secretary of State are irrefutable proof that the law exists. Statutes are presumed to be valid, and the challenger bears the burden of showing that a statute is unconstitutional. Halverson v. Secretary of State, 124 Nev. 484, 487, 186 P.3d at 896 (2008). Therefore, Mr. Walters proceeds with his challenge to the Constitutionality of the passage of the Nevada Revised Statutes [NRS] which are alleged to have been Legislatively passed en mass by Senate Bill No. 2.

I.

THE ENTIRE NEVADA REVISED STATUTES SCHEME IS NULL & VOID, AS THEY PERTAIN TO THIS INSTANT CASE AT BAR

- A. The mode of a statute depends on constitutional, Mead v. Arnell, 791 P.2d 410, 117 Idaho 660 (1990); and statutory requirements. Harris v. Shanahan, 387 P.2d 771, 192 Kan. 183 (1963). The Nevada Revised Statutes are alleged to have been passed into law on May 1, 1951 in the form of a copy of an "engrossed Bill" - commonly known as Senate Bill No. 2 [hereinafter SB-2]. Mr. Walters discovered that this Bill was, in fact, not a Bill at all. Further, there were so many Constitutional and other mandatory protocols that were violated, as to the manner and method of the passage of SB No. 2, which voided the entire act. The passage of any law in Nevada must meet certain criteria for its "lawful" passage.

The first set of issues are related to "Mode, Style and Identification" of a Bill. The purpose of prescribing an enacting clause -- "the style of the acts" -- is to establish it; to give it permanence, uniformity, and certainty; to identify the act of legislation as of the general assembly; to afford evidence of its legislative statutory nature; and to secure uniformity of identification, and thus prevent inadvertence, possibly mistake, and fraud. State v. Patterson, 4 S.E. 350, 352, 98 N.C. 660 (1887); 82 C.J.S. "Statute," §65, p. 104; Joiner v. State, 15 S.E.2d 8, 233 Ga. 367 (1967). The object of the style of a bill or enacting clause is to show the authority by which the bill is enacted into law, to show that the act comes from a place pointed out by the Constitution as the source of legislation. Ferrill v. Keel, 151 S.W. 269, 272, 105 Ark. 380 (1912). In sum and substance, the enacting clause is that portion of a statute that gives it jurisdictional identity and constitutional authenticity. Joiner v. State, 155 S.E.2d 8, 10 (Ga. 1967). State

The mode, style and identification issues are as follows:

- a. The Nevada law mandates that each Bill that is passed contain the following language:

"The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:"

- SB No. 2 does not contain this language.
- Nor is a Joint Resolution used as a band aid to pass it into law.

- b. Nevada Constitution Article 4, §17, requires that each Act embrace only one subject; to wit:

"Each law enacted by the Legislature shall embrace but one subject, and matter properly connected therewith, which subject shall be briefly expressed in the title; and no law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only; but, in such case, the act as revised or section as amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length."

SB-2, which embraced the passage of the NRS embraced every subject in Nevada Law. SB-2 violated the Nevada Constitution. Placing all the subjects of the laws of Nevada under the penumbra of the NRS does not meet the requirements that the Bill embrace only one subject. This Constitutional provision is mandatory. State, ex rel. Chase v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250 (1875); State v. Ah Sam, 15 Nev. 27 (1880). Compliance with this section is essential to the validity of every law enacted by the Legislature. State, ex rel. Wislon v. Stone, 24 Nev. 308, 53 P. 497 (1898); Bell v. First Judicial Dist. Ct., 28 Nev. 280, 81 P. 875 (1905). Any act passed in disregard of the letter and spirit of this provision is pro tanto void. State v. Ah Sam, 15 Nev. 27 (1880).

- c. Authentication Procedures:

SENATE BILL NO. 109, sponsored by Whitacre, Brown and Seevers, in Chapters 385 and again as referenced in the JOINT RESOLUTION, which states in §2,

"All Bills or Resolutions shall be introduced in triplicate, and one copy of each Bill or Resolution shall be marked "Original," one shall be marked "Duplicate," and one shall be marked "Triplicate." The copy marked "duplicate" shall be sent to the State printer for the purpose of printing and the copy marked "triplicate" shall be referred to the Amendment Clerk."

In §3 it states that,

"The printer shall immediately after receipt of the copy of any Bill or Resolution print, in addition to the regular number herein before authorized, one copy thereof upon heavy buff paper, which copy shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The Amendment Clerk shall then certify to the correctness of the bound copy.

In §4 it states that,

The official and engrossed copy may by Resolution be used as the enrolled Bill.

SB-2 was passed using a Joint Resolution. The severity of the problem with the Joint Resolution used in connection with the copy of the Engrossed Bill [SB-2] is that it does not contain mandatory enactment language. The State Senate's Committee on Judiciary, File No. 1, passed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1, which provides that the official engrossed copy of SB-2, may be used as an enrolled Bill.

- d. The enacting clause is mandatory and cannot be cured by a Joint Resolution.

"A joint resolution adopted by both houses cannot become a valid law if it does not contain the enacting clause required by this section. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINION 85 (07-25-1951). This constitutional provision is mandatory and an act not in the proper form is void and unenforceable. State, ex rel. Chase v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250 (1875). The words "represented in Senate and Assembly" expressive of the authority which passed the law, are as necessary as the words "the people" or any of the other words of the enacting clause. State, ex rel. Chase v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250 (1875). See also, Nevada Highway Patrol Assoc. v. Nevada DMVPS, 107 Nev. 547, 815 P.2d 503 (1991).

§ → In State, ex rel. Chase v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250 (1875), the court held that

The court held that where the enacting words were prescribed, it was mandatory they be included in the act. Without the words required by the constitution and without the concurrence of the senate, the people had no power to enact any law. The county recorder contended that when the bill was presented to the legislature the words were in the enacting clause. The court ruled that it could only look at the enrolled bill in the office of the secretary of state in order to ascertain the terms of the law.

- e. Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Joint Rules of the Nevada Senate and Assembly, a Joint Resolution can only be used for the purposes set forth therein, as follows:

1. A Joint Resolution may be used to:
 - (a) Propose an amendment to Nevada Constitution;
 - (b) Ratify a proposed amendment to the United States Constitution;
 - (c) Address the President of the United States, Congress, either House or any Committee or member of Congress, any department or agency of the Federal Government, or any other State of the Union.
2. A Concurrent Resolution must be used for:
 - (a) Amendment of these Joint Standing Rules, which required a Majority Vote of each House for Adoption;
 - (b) Request the return from the Governor of an enrolled Bill for further consideration;
 - (c) Request the return from the Secretary of State an enrolled Joint or

- Concurrent Resolution for further consideration;
- (d) Resolve the return of a Bill from one House to the other House if necessary and appropriate;
- (e) Express facts, principles, opinion and purposes of the Senate and Assembly;
- (f) Establish a Joint Committee of the two Houses;
- (g) Direct the Legislative Commission to conduct an interim study;
- 3. A ~~Concurrent Resolution~~ or a ~~Resolution of one House~~ may be used to memorialize a former member of the Legislature or other notable or distinguished person upon his or her death.
- 4. A ~~Resolution of one House~~ may be used to request the return from the Secretary of State of an Enrolled Resolution of the same House for further consideration.

See Nevada Highway Patrol Association v. The State of Nevada, DMV&PS, 107 Nev. 547, 815 P.2d 608 (1991), which states as follows:

"First, by its nature, an assembly concurrent resolution is not intended to have the force and effect of law. Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Joint Rules of the Nevada Senate and Assembly, the purpose of a concurrent resolution is to direct the Legislative Commission to conduct interim studies, to request the return of a bill from the other House, and to request an enrolled bill from the Governor. On occasion, a concurrent resolution is also used to memorialize a former member of the Legislature or other distinguished person upon death, or to congratulate or commend any person or organization for a significant and meritorious accomplishment.

Second, "[e]very bill which may have passed the legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor . . . Nev. Const. Art. IV, §35. A review of the legislative history of the aforementioned Assembly Concurrent Resolution, No. 29, indicates that this resolution, like other concurrent resolutions passed by the legislature during the same time period, was never presented to the Governor for approval or disapproval. See generally FINAL VOLUME ASSEMBLY HISTORY, 1969 at 218-288. Accordingly, this assembly concurrent resolution cannot be construed as the law of this State.

Finally, "[t]he enacting clause of every law shall be as follows: 'The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows; and no law shall be enacted except by bill. Nev. Const. Art. IV, §23. (Emphasis added.) We have previously ruled that this enacting clause is mandatory and must be included in every law created by the Legislature. See State v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250

(1875). Since Concurrent Resolution, NO. 29 and other similar resolutions do not contain the requisite enactment language, they cannot represent the law of this State.

The Illegally Operated Legislative Commission:

According to the Legislative Counsel Bureau [LCB] the Nevada Revised Statutes were created in 1951 by a enigmatic member of the Statute Revision Commission. Currently, the LCB illegally maintains the history of all Nevada Legislation. It is unknown as to whether or not the LCB is a State agency or department. The LCB appears as a common thread that is ever present as we wind down this rabbit hole to legislative fraud and lawlessness. It appears that the LCB has been slowly and illegally absorbing State government functions, some of which are Constitutionally mandated. This has been surprisingly accomplished, in part, by amending the State Constitution through the use of newly created State statutes, which have been used to illegally transfer the power from an elected office with Constitutional duties, to the LCB.

According to the LCB, their predecessor, the Statute Revision Commission, was originally created by the Nevada Supreme Court in 1951. However, Senate Bill No. 182, approved March 2, 1951, created the Statute Revision Commission.⁸ This Commission consisted of three Nevada Supreme Court justices: (1) Milton Badt; (2) Edgar Eather, and (3) Charles Merrill. Later a rather mysterious man named Russell West McDonald would be appointed by these Justices as "the Director."

This Commission became increasingly involved in bill drafting as an adjunct to its statute revision work. These same three Supreme Court Justices appointed a man named Russell W. McDonald to their committee as the Director. Russell McDonald was allegedly hired in 1951 to begin work on the Nevada Revised Statutes, but it appears that he had been working on it long before he was hired to do so. McDonald was alleged by the Statute Review Commission to: (1) be a native Nevadan (born in Nevada), (2) have gone through and graduated from Nevada's public education system, (3) be a Rhodes Scholar, (4) have graduated from Stanford School of Law. Mr. McDonald's biography is contradictory and varies widely depending on the source. His personal history cannot be verified. Russell West McDonald is a ghost. Even a Google search of McDonald reveals surprisingly little. A check of these credentials reveals that many of the statements made about Russell McDonald's qualifications are false. Oxford University denies that Russell McDonald was a Rhodes Scholar; Stanford University's school of law denies that he was a graduate therefrom; Even the statement that he was a native-born Nevadan is contradicted by a newspaper article stating that was born in California. Whether he attended any of Nevada's public schools could not be confirmed. Mr. Russell has been revered and exalted by the members of the Legislature and newspapers as a pillar of the community and yet, his background appears to be a total fraud. Just who was Russell West McDonald? That question, to this day, has still never been answered completely.

The origin of the Statute Revision Commission is somewhat of a mystery as well, providing conflicting and multiple representations from various sources making it unclear as to its actual origin. The Legislative Counsel Bureau states in their literature that the Supreme Court formed this Commission. While other sources state that the Legislature formed this Commission. Regardless of its origin, the entire Commission was Constitutionally compromised from the start. The Commission was unlawful for several reasons, the most obvious being its very operation. The Justices who served on it did so in violation of the Nevada Constitution and the separation of powers doctrine. Which is discussed as follows,

Constitutional Violations:

The placement of three Nevada Supreme Court justices on the Statute Revision Commission violated Nevada Constitution Article 6, §11, which states in pertinent part,

~~The justices of the Supreme Court and the district judges shall be ineligible to any office, other than a judicial office, during the term for which they shall have been elected or appointed and all elections or appointments of any such judges by the people, Legislature, or otherwise, during said period, to any office other than judicial shall be void.~~

The Statute Revision Commission inherently involved legislative functions and generated other income for these Justices. For instance Justice Bandt was paid an additional $6,500 more a year to sit on the Commission. Therefore, the placement of three members of the Nevada Supreme Court on the Statute Review Commission clearly violated Article 6, §11 of the Nevada Constitution. This also violated Nevada Constitution's Separation of Powers prohibition in Article 3, §1, which states in pertinent part,

Three separate departments; separation of powers; legislative review of administrative regulations.

1. The power of the Government of the State of Nevada shall be divided into three separate departments, – the Legislative, – the Executive and the Judicial; and no persons charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any functions, appertaining to either of the others, except in the cases expressly directed or permitted in this constitution.

Thus, the separation of powers doctrine was violated as the three Justices were involved in the drafting of legislation and the passage of Bills in the Legislature, a purely legislative function. Further, the Statute Revision Commission was completely responsible for the generation of the Nevada Revised Statutes [NRS]. The generation of these Revised Statutes specifically state that there were actual changes in the statement of the law as they were compiled into the NRS. Changes were made to existing statutes, entire words were deleted as being redundant, grammar was changed, sentence structures were altered. All in the name of progress. Changing even one jot or tittle' was a legislative act and the Statute Revision Commission's members were Constitutionally prohibited from participating in this conduct. It is important to note here that the Statute Revision Commission was not legally created until 1955. On April 26, 1963, the Legislature committed an illegal act by back dating the appointment of the Statute Revision Commission and revisor of statutes to 1951 to cover up their pre-existing criminal fraud. See April 26, 1963 Act Bill No. 24, Chapter 403. Reading the Forward provided by the Statute Revision Commission reveals some interesting facts (if true), to wit:

FOREWORD

By the provisions of chapter 304, Statutes of Nevada 1951, amended by chapter 280, statutes of Nevada 1953, and chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1955, the legislature of the State of Nevada created the statute revision commission comprised of the three justices of the supreme court, authorized such commission to appoint a revisor of the statutes to be known as the director of the statute revision commission, and charged the commission to commence the preparation of a complete revision and compilation of the laws of the state of Nevada to be known as Nevada Revised Statutes for further duties and authority of the statute revision commission relating to the preparation of Nevada Revised Statutes, the numbering of sections, binding, printing, classification, revision and sale thereof.

The commission employed as director Russell W. McDonald, a member of the State bar of Nevada, who, with his staff, undertook and performed this monumental task, with such methods, care, precision, completeness, accuracy and safeguarded against error as to evoke the highest praise of the commission and the commendation of the bench and bar of the state.

As the work progressed, Mr. McDonald submitted drafts of chapter after chapter as recompiled and revised, and the members of the commission individually and in conference meticulously checked all revision. In the vast majority of cases these revisions were promptly approved. Many required further conferences with the director. Some were modified and redrafted. As the several chapters were returned with approval to the director, they were in turn delivered to the superintendent of state printing for printing, to the end that upon the convening of the 1957 legislature Nevada Revised statutes were ready to present for approval. By the provisions of chapter 2, statutes of Nevada 1957, Nevada Revised Statutes, consisting of NRS 1.010 to 710.590, inclusive, was "adopted and enacted as law of the State of Nevada."

STATUTE REVISION COMMISSION

Milton B. Badt

Edgar Ether

Charles M. Merrill

This foreword sets forth that the Statute Revision Commission is a Legislatively created State entity. The Statute Revision Commission has now been absorbed by the Legislative Counsel, i.e., Russell W. McDonald, who then made the Legislative Counsel a division of the LCB. After which Russell W. McDonald then took the LCB director's position. Why and how did the LCB obtain the copyright and the rights to sell the NRS (and keep the money)? The LCB makes it appear through innuendo and subliminal word play by speaking or writing about them simultaneously, making people think that they are one and the same, when in fact the copyrights are under LCB control. Why and how did the Statute Revision Commission obtain the copyright and the rights to sell the NRS (and keep the money)? Why doesn't the State of Nevada own the copyright? Who gets the money from the sale of the NRS? Perhaps the intended purpose was to create a slush fund which could then be raided by a number of individuals for their illegal and nefarious means.

The Supreme Court says that the Statute Revision Commission was created by the Legislature, but the LCB states that the Statute Revision Commission was created by the Nevada Supreme Court,

The Statute Revision Commission was originally created by the Nevada Supreme Court in 1951 and became involved in bill drafting as an adjunct to its statute revision work.

And, further

The 1945 law establishing the bureau [LCB] charged it with assisting the Legislature to find facts concerning government, proposed legislation, and various other public matters.

The LCB goes on further to state that,

During the next several years, the duties of the bureau and its staff were modified and expanded. In 1963, the Nevada Legislature reorganized the Legislative Counsel Bureau, giving it structure and responsibilities similar to those it has today. One part of this change was the incorporation of the Statute Revision Commission [via legislative counsel, Russell W. McDonald] into the Legislative Counsel Bureau as the Legal Division. . . . The 1963 legislation also added a Fiscal and Auditing Division and a Research Division.

Who actually created the Statute Revision Commission? How did the LCB end up with the copyrights to the NRS? Is the LCB even a State entity? Why doesn't the State own the copyright? How much money does the LCB make off of the NRS copyright? We will revisit these issues later.

In 1956-57 the Committee on Judiciary in the Senate passed Concurrent Resolution No. 1. This legislation was an attempt to bootstrap the illegal passage of the NRS by SB-2. The Senate attempted to do so by using a Joint Resolution to provide that the "official engrossed copy of SB-2 may be used as the enrolled bill." As set forth above Resolutions cannot be used to pass any Bill into law, rendering any law using this legislative vehicle as void.

In that same year, not to be out done by the Senate, the Committee on Judiciary of the Assembly passed Concurrent Resolutions No. 1 and 2, which extolled the virtues of Russell West McDonald and his involvement with the creation of the NRS stating as following:

- Expressing congratulations and gratitude to Russell West McDonald upon completion and enactment of the Nevada Revised Statutes;
- Stating that the preparation of Nevada Revised Statutes was a monumental undertaking requiring a degree of intelligence, knowledge, technical ability and dedication possessed by few men;
- That the Justices of the Supreme Court, in their capacity as the Statute Revision Commission, secured the employ of Russell West McDonald as its director;
- The Assembly extolled Russell West McDonald's false curriculum vitae;

An offense created by an unconstitutional statute is no longer a crime and a conviction under such statute cannot be a legal cause for imprisonment, even if the conviction was based on a plea agreement; the conviction must be vacated. [See]

- Explicated that the Nevada Revised Statutes marked the culmination of 6 years of exceptionally devoted public service by Russell West McDonald as a statute reviser and legislative bill drafter;

Even the LCB's Preface to the NRS describes the work done by the Statute Revision Commission as a delegation of the Legislature's own duties. Russell McDonald was engaged in "revising" which the LCB states in their preface as follows:

"Revising" the statutes, on the other hand, involves these additional and distinguishing operations: (1) the collection into chapters of all the sections and part of sections that relate to the same subject and the orderly arrangement into section of the material assembled in each chapter. (2) the elimination of inoperative or obsolete, duplicated, impliedly repealed and unconstitutional (as declared by the Supreme Court of the state of Nevada) sections and parts of sections. (3) The elimination of unnecessary words and the improvement of the grammatical structure and physical form of sections.

The revision, instead of the recompilation, of the statutes was undertaken, therefore, first, to eliminate sections or parts of sections which, though not specifically repealed, were nevertheless ineffective and, second to clarify, simplify, classify and generally make more accessible, understandable and usable the remaining effective sections or part of sections.

Doesn't this sound remarkably like legislating? Changing any word, whether it is redundant, unnecessary, ineffective, simplifying, clarifying or just simply an improvement of the grammatical structure is a legislative function, not a judicial function. Lest we forget these corrections were being approved first by three State Supreme Court Justices. This is a blatant violation of the separation powers doctrine. Literally, the Nevada State Legislature abdicated their Legislative powers to the judiciary. They were then told by the Statute Review Commission that every thing was already checked out and was fine. The Legislature then supposedly passed it, even though we don't know this for sure because the record of their voting on it is either missing or is being hidden from public view. We don't even know if the Legislature even read it, because there is no record that it was read three times as required before its passage. It is alleged to have been voted on, but we don't really know this for a fact because the records are not in their Constitutional repository and, therefore, legally do not exist. Literally, the Statute Review Commission was passing (or attempting to pass) laws in complete derogation of the three Justices oath of office, and in blatant violation of Constitutionally prohibited practices. Effectively the predecessor to the LCB and then later the LCB took over the official duties of Nevada's elected officials and ran the entire State legislative system through one guy - Russell West McDonald - a character who the Legislature was told was an attorney who graduated from Stanford's Law School, was a Rhodes Scholar, was educated in Nevada's public schools, and was a native-born Nevadan.¹⁰ None of it verifiable. Russell West McDonald was a mystery man, who obtained almost unlimited and certainly unchecked power.

The harsh reality of both of the amorously hollow Resolutions that are alleged to have caused the passage of SB-2, while at the same time revoking Nevada's existing Statutes and replacing them with the NRS, is that the entire program is legally and legislatively bankrupt. That means that the entire process was voided by the plethora of Constitutional violations, but included acts of a criminal nature, not to mention the passage of SB-2 violated the Legislature's own Rules. The passing of legislation is not like Horseshoes and Hand Grenades. Close does not count. If it did then why would they even make rules for the passage of a Bill? The passing of legislation is more like flying a plane. All aircraft have a checklist that must be completed before take off and before landing as well. Suppose that a pilot did everything that he was supposed to do to prepare to land, but he forgot one simple thing - he forgot to put the landing gear down. Is the Horseshoes and Hand Grenades theory going to win the day for that pilot when he kills everyone on board including himself? This writer thinks not. The Nevada Constitution prohibits the passage of Bills in the manner that was done for the entire NRS. The NRS is void ab initio, meaning from its inception.

The Joint House Rules of the Nevada Legislature were clearly violated on the method of the passage of Bills into law which also prevented the NRS' alleged en mass passage through these violations as well. How many Constitutional provisions or legislative rules need to be violated in order to negate its passage? The answer should be only one. Here there are so many errors of constitutional dimensions that it literally boggles the mind. The Bible states that it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than it is for a rich man to gain the kingdom of heaven. By way of analogy, SB-2, is a camel and the method by which the Legislature attempted to pass it into law is as remarkable as passing a camel through the eye of a needle. In other words it DID NOT HAPPEN, it constitutes a literal impossibility. There are other revealing Constitutional violations as well as the violations of the Legislature's own rules which are just as egregious, which are yet to be discussed.

For instance, the NRS's very passage violates Senate Bill No. 109, which states as follows:

Sec. 4. Section 8 of the above entitled act, being chapter 3, Statute of Nevada 1949, at page 4, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. The amendment clerk shall transmit copies of passed bills or resolutions without delay, in the order of their receipt, to the state printer, taking his receipt therefor. Such receipt shall bear the date of delivery, and given the bill or resolution number. The state printer shall without delay enroll (print) the bills or resolution in the order of the receipt by him, and they shall be printed in enrolled form, retaining symbols indicating amendments to existing law only. In printing enrolled bills amending existing law, the state printer in cooperation with the amendment clerk shall cause to be printed between brackets, the words, phrases, or provisions of the existing law, if any, which have been stricken out or eliminated by the adoption of the amendment, and they shall cause to be printed in italics all new words, phrases or provisions, if any, which have been inserted into or added to the law by the passage of such amendment. In ascertaining the correct reading, status, and interpretation of an enrolled bill amending existing law, the matter inserted within brackets shall be omitted, and the matter in italics shall be read and interpreted as part of the enrolled bill. At least one enrolled copy, with proper blanks for the signatures of the officers whose duty it is to sign enrolled bills and resolutions, shall be printed on bond paper, and the state printer shall deliver the enrolled copy of the bill or resolution to the amendment clerk. The amendment clerk shall then carefully compare the enrolled copy with the official engrossed copy, and if the enrolled copy is found to be correct the amendment clerk shall present it to the proper officers for their signatures. When the officers sign their names thereon, as required by law, it is enrolled. The official engrossed copy may by resolution be used as the enrolled bill.

Literally, the term "enrolled" Bill means a "printed and signed" Bill. An examination of the engrossed bill referred to or, more succinctly, SB-2, which was used to pass the NRS's en masse

→ shows that ~~it was type written - not printed~~. The LCB even admits this.

Other errors were committed. For instance the requirement for the passage of a Bill is that it be read three times over three separate days as required by Nevada Constitution; Article 4, §17.

There is no evidence that this was ever accomplished and this information cannot be obtained from the Constitutional Record Keeper - that being the Secretary of State. See Nevada Constitution; Art. 5, §20, which requires the legislative records are to be maintained by the Secretary of State, to wit:

20. Secretary of State: Duties. The Secretary of State shall keep a true record of the Official Acts of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government, and shall when required, lay the same and all matters relative thereto, before, either branch of the Legislature

The Constitution's language is very clear. Further, NRS 225.100, provides that the Secretary of State has a...

"Duty to furnish certified copies of laws, records and instruments. The Secretary of State shall furnish, on request, to any person who has paid the proper fee for it, a certified copy of all or any part of any law, act, record or other instrument of writing on file or deposited with the Office of the Secretary of State of which a copy may properly be given."

However, the LCB has once again taken action to cover their fraud by getting the Nevada Legislature to become co-conspirators in their criminal enterprise. This was accomplished by the Nevada Legislature amending the Constitution through the passage of Statute.¹¹ This was done through NRS 225.070, which transfers all authority of record keeping from the Secretary of State to the LCB. Yet, a search of the NRS shows that NRS 225.070 does not exist. Curiously, the Secretary of State directs all inquiries into the records of the Senate and Assembly to the State Archives. Who controls the State Archives? Inquiring parties will discover that the State Archives is a very unassuming small block building located in Carson City with no frontage name. Inquiring parties who grace this building with questions of the history of the Legislature are then directed to the LCB for the information. How is it possible that the Nevada Constitution can be amended without a Constitutional Amendment [or by a Statute?]. The Nevada Constitution requires that the procedures set forth in Article 16, §1 and/or §2 be followed to amend the Constitution. These do not include amendment by statute or amendment by subterfuge and guise. Holding that a Statute can amend the State Constitution violates every citizen's constitutional right to procedural and substantive due process under the Nevada Constitution [Art. 1, §8(5)] and under the United States Constitution's, 1st, 5th and 14th Amendments. Holding that a Statute can diminish or negate the constitutional authority mandated in the Constitution violates the separation of powers doctrine (Amending the Constitution must be effectuated by the Body Politic. Not legislating from the bench; nor amended by the passage of a statute). "A statute cannot amend the constitution." Seminole Tribe of Florida v. Florida, 517 U.S. 44, 116 S.Ct. 1114 (U.S. Fla. 1996) Pennsylvania v. Union Gas Co., 491 U.S. 1, 24, 109 S.Ct. 2273, 2286, 105 L.Ed.2d 1 (1989); Counselman v. Hitchcock, 142 U.S. 547, 12 S.Ct. 195 (1892); "... [A]n unconstitutional statute is to be regarded as nonexistent and no defense to state officers acting under it. ..." Rockaway Pacific Corporation v. Statesbury, 255 F. 345 (D.C.N.Y. 1917). See also, Cooper v. Aaron, 358 U.S. 1, 18, 78 S.Ct. 1401, 1409-1410, 3 L.Ed.2d 5 (1958) (holding that an oath to support the Constitution is an oath to support its interpretation by the United States Supreme Court). See also, Baker v. Carr, 369 U.S. 186, 215, 82 S.Ct. 691, 709, 7 L.Ed.2d 663 (1962), which the United States Bankruptcy Court relied upon in In Re Tessier, 190 B.R. 396 (1995) to make the following conclusion:

Finally, in attempting to deny the Supreme Court's determination of its own capacity to adjudicate, the Congress invades a province properly left to a coordinate Branch, and in so doing, impermissibly exceeds its legislative authority.

Nevada's sister State, California, has had some things to say about similar circumstances in their State: "The constitutional provision was a law made directly by the people instead of the Legislature, and such laws are to be construed and enforced in all respects as though they were statutes." Winchester v. Mabury, 122 Cal. 522, 55 P.393. "In effect, these constitutional provisions are but statutes, which the legislature cannot repeal or amend." Winchester v. Howard, 136 Cal. 432, 439, 64 P. 692, 69 P. 77, 79, 89 Am. St. Rep. 153.

The LCB has and allegedly maintains all of the legislative records in clear violation of the Nevada Constitution. Bill Resolution Journals and all other records were allegedly taken away from the secretary of state and transferred to the LCB through the passage of NRS 225.070. A statute that does not exist.

Even if the Legislature did everything lawfully by following the correct rules and guidelines, we still will never know if the NRS were passed into law because there are no records at the Secretary of State's Office. See Letter from Secretary of State stating that they do not have these records (as the Nevada Constitution; Art. 5, §20, commands the Secretary of State to maintain and protect). Even the proofs of the unconstitutional NRS, passed off as law, has been unconstitutionally hidden by an entity that may deny access to the information to anyone.

There exists even more disturbing issues regarding the legality of the NRS in that there are no records even showing that the Governor signed SB-2 into law. On February 4, 2014, the Secretary of State was asked to produce several documents, this being one of them and their office related the following;

We received your request, via mail, for the following information:

- * The bill from the 48th session of the Nevada Assembly, passed January 25, 1957;
- * The governor as of January 25, 1957;
- * Proof that the bill was signed into law by the governor during the 48th Session.

Our office reviewed your request and determined that we do not have legal custody and control of the information. You may contact Nevada State Archives to determine if they have documents related to your request. The contact information for the Nevada Archives is: 100 N. Stewart Street, Carson City, Nevada, 89701.

Interestingly, although the Secretary of State is Constitutionally mandated to maintain the legal custody and control of this information and provide it to any party seeking the information, the Secretary of State avers that it does not have legal custody and control of it.

The Secretary of State alleges that it doesn't even know where it is. This is absurd! The Attorney General's office has addressed a similar issue before and stated that, A joint resolution appropriating money from the highway fund, adopted by both houses but never presented to the Governor for his signature, does not become law; thus, an appropriation is invalid under this section. Attorney General Opinion 85 [AGO 85 (7-25-1951)].

Currently the Secretary of State states that their office does not have the files that will prove Mr. Walters' argument. This poses a serious problem for two reasons: (1) the loss or hiding of these records prevents Mr. Walters' story from being proven conclusively; and (2) losing, destroying or hiding these records constitutes a crime. See NRS 239.320, which discusses the crime of any public officer causing INJURY TO, CONCEALMENT OR FALSIFICATION OF RECORDS OR PAPERS, to wit:

An officer who mutilates, destroys, conceals, erases, obliterates, or falsifies any record or paper appertaining to his office, is guilty of a category C felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

Further, the documents which were submitted for the passage of SB-2 do not conform to the Constitutional requirements or the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly. Since this document was submitted by the LCB, the Senate and the Assembly, this unqualified document was not a true Bill. Since it was not a true bill it was a false or fraudulent bill. NRS 239.330, discusses the penalties for submitting or offering false instrument for filing or for recording. The statute reads in pertinent part as follows;

A person who knowingly procures or offers any false or forged instrument to be filed, registered or recorded in any public office, which instrument, if genuine, might be filed, registered or recorded in a public office under an law of this state or of the United States, is guilty of a category C felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

See: STATE V. BRIGGS, 218 W.S. 2d 61, 579 N.W.2d 783 (Ct. App. 1998)

There is no question that SB-2, was passed off as a legitimate document, when it was not. Therefore, this constituted the offering of a false instrument and caused it be filed, registered or recorded in a public office. Currently the Secretary of State, who is the Constitutionally mandated office, does not have the documents or at least is not willing to admit that they do. But, since the Secretary of State is Required to maintain these Legislative and Executive Records, you would think that at least the Secretary of State would at least know where they are. They state they don't. Currently, the Secretary of State is feigning any knowledge of their location and, it is assumed, that this office will continue to maintain this position because it has been ordered to do so. The probable explanation is that if we don't maintain that the NRS is the law in Nevada it could cause complete and total chaos, even anarchy. However, the United States Constitution in Article 4, §4, states that the United States government shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican form of government. Everybody these days is being told that our soldiers are fighting for Democracy, but this is not true. They are fighting to maintain the Rule of Law, which is what a Republic is based upon. So, even our politicians and educators don't know what kind of government we have. It is rather interesting that the Constitution does not guarantee every state a "Democratic form of government."¹² But it does guarantee each State a Republican form of government.

See: STATE V. BENZEL, 220 W.S. 2d 588 (1988)

Nos. 97-3528-CR, 97-3529-CR Page 14 of 20

A court cannot acquire jurisdiction to try a person for an act made criminal only by an unconstitutional law. see also: KELLEY V. MEYERS, 124 Or. 322, 263 P. 903 (1928)

CONCLUSION

So what is the answer to all of these problems? Mr. Walters' assessment is that what is good for the goose should be good for the gander. In other words, we need to follow the same protocols that the gaming industry does when it enforces gaming rules on the citizens of the State and that is: ZERO tolerance for any kind of non-conformance with the rules. The gaming industry calls any non-conformance with the gaming rules CHEATING! Cheating is a criminal act.

So why does the government think they can get away with something that is much, much more egregious than cheating at gaming. The State is putting the citizens of the State of Nevada in jail or prison and even putting them to death, based upon laws that are completely void. This must be seen for what it is - a criminal act. Arresting and incarcerating someone on a bogus law is "Kidnaping" and "False Imprisonment." Putting someone to death, even if they deserve it, for a law that doesn't exist is "Murder." SB-2 is literally a Bill of attainder and/or a Bill of Pains and Penalties, which are prohibited by the United States Constitution, Article 1, §10 and it has been executed against the entire populace of the State.

What will the government have to say about all of this? The answer is nothing, because they have already brought the Secretary of State into the fold and instructed her not to release any documents, in fact, the office is denying that the office even has or maintains them. What would happen if the Secretary of State produced these documents, as the office is required to do, and it shows that every single thing that Mr. Walters has been saying is true? Well, most certainly they will say that we can't just set aside the NRS because when they passed the NRS they voided all of the old general statutes, so they are gone too. We'll be left with nothing - no law at all. They'll say that we will have no law and no law means anarchy. The absurdity of this legal viewpoint is that if we have laws that were never properly passed and they are null and void - don't we already have no law? In fact, isn't what we have even worse than no law? The United States Supreme Court has addressed this issue in Merritt v. Welsh, 104 U.S. 694, 702 (1881), stating, "It has been said, with much truth, 'where the law ends, tyranny begins.'" So, let's call it what it is: Tyranny.

The vastness of this conspiracy goes all the way to the top. After all, Governor Sandoval just signed into law a Bill that prohibits inmates from having access to public records. This can't be just a coincidence, can it? Sandoval is a former Federal Judge, prior to signing this Bill of Attainder into law he received one of Mr. Walters packages outlining the illegality of the NRS. He was duly noticed and is therefore fully informed. Prisoners don't lose all of their civil rights just because they are in prison, they only lose their freedom. They still have the same civil rights as everyone else does outside, the only difference is that those rights may be conformed to a standard that will not compromise the security of the prison. Mr. Walters has also made other allegations regarding his stay in Nevada's Department of Corrections such as: (1) the prison collects absentee ballots for prisoners and votes for them in order to stuff ballot boxes; (2) the prison is serving food to the prisoners that is visibly marked "Not Fit For Human Consumption;" (3) theft of prison resources by its own management for their own personal gains; (4) the use of nepotism in key positions to prevent prisoners from timely filing their legal documents.

Long before 1984 gave us the adjective "Orwellian" to describe the political corruption of language and thought, Thucydides observed how factional struggles for power make words their first victims. Describing the horrors of civil war on the island of Corcyra during the Peloponnesian War, Thucydides wrote,

"Words had to change their ordinary meaning and to take that which was now given them."

Orwell explains the reason for such degradation of language in his essay "Politics and the English Language": "Political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible." Tyrannical power and its abuses comprise the "indefensible" that must be verbally disguised. The gulags, engineered famines, show trials, and mass murder that occurred in the Soviet Union required that it become a "regime of lies," as the disillusioned admirer of Soviet communism Pierre Pascal put it in 1927. And so we already know that the State will respond accordingly. Is this really what we have become? Mr. Walters is sad to say that it is.

If words mean nothing, then our Constitution means nothing. If our Constitution means nothing then we have no rights. If we have no rights, then we only have privileges and immunities that are granted by government. We are then but subjects of a tyrannical government. It is a maxim of law, "That which creates, has the power to destroy." Therefore, privileges are worthless because they can be legislated away for any reason, whereas Constitutional Rights cannot be legislated away without the consent of the body politic. What has happened, quit literally is that the Judicial courts of Nevada have been illegally legislatively morphed into Legislative/administrative courts where Statutes are more like administrative regulations, which are subject to agency interpretation. This is very disconcerting because the down side is that the Bill of Rights do not exist and have no province in legislative Courts. The United States Supreme Court has stated that claims of Constitutional rights can [only] be adjudicated in Article I [legislative/administrative] courts established for geographical enclaves such as federal territories or the District of Columbia, see, e.g., Palmore v. United States, 411 U.S. 389 (1973), and in military courts, see, e.g., United States ex rel. Toth v. Quarles, 350 U.S. 11, 17 (1955). This means that within the 50 States only a Judicial Court (not a legislative/administrative court) may hear a case or controversy concerning Constitutional rights. The States have attempted to mimic the administrative agencies of the Federal Government, whose only authority lies in a territorial jurisdiction. Territorial jurisdictions do not enjoy the full protection of the United States Constitution because Congress has absolute authority over all territories and possessions¹³ of the United States. Federal citizens who live in these federal enclaves are subject to the complete and total control of Congress under United States Constitution; Article 4, §3, Cl. 2, which states in pertinent part,

The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needed Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory or other Property belonging to the United States;

Our state law has been morphed into a form of territorial federal law. This destroys the sovereignty of the State and its citizens. The Legislature has taken it upon themselves to take total power away from the State Constitution - the law of the body politic - the citizens of the State. However, "A state constitution is binding on the courts of the State, and on every officer and every citizen. Any attempt to do that which is prescribed in any manner than that prescribed or to do that which is prohibited, is repugnant to the supreme and paramount law, and invalid." Porch v. Patterson, 39 Nev. 251, 268, 156 P. 439, 445 (1916). The Constitution nullifies sophisticated as well as simple-minded modes of infringing on Constitutional protections. Lane v. Wilson, 307 U.S. 268, 275, 59 S.Ct. 872, 876, 83 L.Ed. 1281 (1939); Harman v. Forseenus, 380 U.S. at 540-541, 85 S.Ct. at 1185. Cited in U.S. Term Limits, Inc. v. Thornton, 514 U.S. 779, 829, 115 S.Ct. 1842 (1995). Like its counterpart in the Fifth Amendment, the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment was intended to prevent government "from abusing [its] power, or employing it as an instrument of oppression," Davidson v. Cannon, 474 U.S. 344, 348 (1986).

The Constitution of the United States guarantees each State a Republican form of government. A Republican form of government means that we have the rule of law. Currently we have no rule of law in Nevada, in fact we have nothing but lawlessness. We have an oligarchy, a Nation-State where our representative has become rulers who are a law unto themselves and our rulers are lying to us in order to maintain the facade that we are living in an orderly, free society - when the truth is we are living under an oppressive and tyrannical government. "No state legislator or executive or judicial officer can war against the Constitution without violating his undertaking to support it." Copper v. Aaron, 385 U.S. 1, 78 S.Ct. 1401 (1958). The United States Supreme Court has spoken, "We [judges] have no more right to decline the exercise of jurisdiction which is given, than to usurp that which is not given. The one or the other would be treason to the Constitution." U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 200, 216, 101 S.Ct. 471, 66 L.Ed.2d 392, 406 (1980); Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. (6 Wheat.) 264, 404, 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821). The illegally passed NRS denies the Courts their jurisdiction to act. The legislative branch, the judicial branch, and the members of the executive branch (police & prosecutors), have all made war against the Nevada Constitution and is in doing so have declared war on its citizens and have committed high treason in doing so.

David Amesbury, a Deputy District Attorney, found suicided at his brother's cabin in California, was found hanged, after other members of the conspiracy attempted to silence him by breaking both of his legs. Which proves the old Las Vegas saying, "Three men can keep a secret, if two of them are dead." Dead men tell no tales. The death of David Amesbury and three other key members of the conspiracy insulated the members who were higher up on the conspiracy pyramid. In order for conspiracies to be successful, they are required to be compartmentalized so that if one rung on the ladder is taken out this eliminates the connection to the next rung. The fact that District Attorney David Roger resigned from his position before his term was up and went into private practice is rather curious.

The Legislative Counsel Bureau [LCB] is an illegally created private corporate entity, which maintains all of the public records in violation of the Nevada Constitution. This Corporation has obtain untold powers over the years and controls many aspects of the State Government including the writing and drafting of all Bills in the Legislature, the State Mail room, the State printing office and the ownership of the copyrights on the Nevada Revised Statutes, which have brought millions of dollars of profit to the private corporation.

7.

This law violates the Federal Constitution and is a lesser version of the Bill of Attainder, commonly called a Bill of Pains and Penalties. The difference is a Bill of Attainder would apply to a death sentence and the Bill of Pains and Penalties has no threat of death attached to its illegality.

This Senate Bill [No. 182] also sets forth that, "as soon as practicable after the effective date hereof the commission shall commence the preparation of a complete revision and compilation of the Constitution and the laws of the State of Nevada of general application, together with brief annotations and marginal notes to sections thereof. Such compilation when completed shall be known as "revised Laws of Nevada. . . ." and the year of first publication shall be filled in the blank space of such title, for brevity such title maybe cited as "Rev. Laws."

The phrase 'jot or tittle' is somewhat tautological, as both jot and tittle refer to tiny quantities. A jot is the name of the least letter of an alphabet or the smallest part of a piece of writing. It is the Anglicized version of the Greek iota - the smallest letter of the Greek alphabet, which corresponds to the Roman 'I'. This, in turn, was derived from the Hebrew word jod, or yodr, which is the smallest letter of the square Hebrew alphabet. Apart from its specialist typographical meaning, we still use the word jot more generally to mean 'a tiny amount'. Hence, when we have a brief note to make, we 'jot it down'. A tittle, rather appropriately for a word which sounds like a combination of tiny and little, is smaller still. It refers to a small stroke or point in writing or printing. In classical Latin this applied to any accent over a letter, but is now most commonly used as the name for the dot over the letter 'I'.

A newspaper article titled "Russ McDonald Celebrates 30 years of Public Service," states that Russell W. McDonald was born in Prosser Creek, California. What happened to his native born Nevadan status that was pontificated about by the State Legislature in SB-1?

The Nevada Supreme Court ruled in State, ex rel., Chase v. Rogers, 10 Nev. 250 (1875), which states in pertinent part, "The court ruled that it could only look at the enrolled bill in the office of the secretary of State in order to ascertain the terms of the law."

12.

A "Democracy" is mob rule, directed and controlled by an oligarchy. Currently in this Country we have a Nation-State type of government that operates as a democratic-welfare state, where laws are not obeyed or enforced because they might offend someone. Whereas a Republican form of Government is a government of laws, where laws are enforced regardless of whether we will offend somebody or not - simply because it is the law.

These territorial jurisdictions include Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, the American Virgin Islands, Somoa and Guam. Those citizens literally have NO RIGHTS only privileges granted by Congress. These US citizens have no rights - except what Congress says they have. Any decision made by the United States Supreme Court which originated in one of these territorial jurisdictions has no application in the 50 States because these people exist under a diminished capacity that is not shared by State Citizens. Yet, these decisions are illegally applied across the board. These territorial citizens are all "subjects," just like the inhabitants of the original 13 colonies and that is the mission of our State governments, to render us all as mere subjects of the State to be trifled with as though we were the same. This is why the Bush administration stuck all of these combatants in Guantanamo Bay, being a military installation, in a territory or possession of the United States the right to the Writ of Habeas Corpus does not exist and the combatants were not availed of the Bill of Rights. The only reason why Boumediene was permitted access to the Writ of Habeas Corpus by the United States Supreme Court is that he was taken from his residence within a State and involuntarily taken to this facility. Once these combatants are moved into the United States, as Obama has planned, then the entire Bill of Rights will apply to them and they will have to be tried or released.

Russ McDonald celebrates 30 years of public service

"It wasn't for the money," Russ McDonald explained, in the wake of a standing ovation Tuesday.

The Washoe County commissioners had just taken a break in their regular meeting to celebrate a special anniversary.

McDonald, 60, is celebrating 30 years of public service. His last full-time post was as Washoe County manager, but along the line, he's worn a large share of the other hats that government in all its forms has to offer.

While public service may not pave the path to financial wealth, McDonald said, it has its own treasures to offer.

He told the overflow crowd of county employees and friends in the commission chambers Tuesday that one of his greatest delights in working in government is "the ability to always know what's going to happen next."

Casting a grin and an eye toward the scattered reporters in the chambers, he added, "...even before the press knew."

County employees treated McDonald to an anniversary cake-cutting in February. The commissioners cut their part Tuesday, adopting a resolution which started out conventionally enough, with five "whereases." But the "therefore be it resolved" had a brand new twist. It did not say

McDonald's a jolly good fellow, in legalese. Instead, the commissioners resolved to throw a party.

The official subject of the county party, according to the resolution, is to provide "an opportunity for his countless friends and admirers to spend an evening of remembering and congratulation."

It all will take place at Harrah's Convention Center in Reno Saturday, June 24.

McDonald, who was sworn in as Washoe County manager in 1978, is a former Nevada state legislator. He has been elected in the past for accomplishing on his own what entire legislatures couldn't do en masse.

McDonald started his career as a 200-a-month Reno deputy city attorney. He spent another 21 years as director of the state's Statute Revision Commission and then as director of the state's Legislative Counsel Bureau. In 1971, he was appointed Washoe County manager, a post he held until his retirement in 1978.

Since that time, McDonald has been working for the county as a consultant and lobbyist.

McDonald's writing of the complete Nevada Revised Statutes often is cited as his greatest accomplishment in government. He also worked in the preparation of the municipal government codes for Reno, Sparks, Winnemucca, Lovelock and Washoe County.

FROM: GARY W. WALTERS

RE: "THE BIGGEST LEGAL FIND IN

I am finally got released, my offenses and pre -2007, I have 8.5 years of flat 6.5 years of stal time , 58 percent of 2 sentence is 11.6 years, I am owed gat forced by NDOC / Warden Williams to go to a parole hearing even though I fought it in court, Judge Linda Bell automatically denied my writ forcing me to go to the Supreme Court, and being placed on an illegal and unlawful Parole,

All Parole is in Nevada is just a bed move, and a person can be violated for just doing nothing, only to have a police officer call you over and question you , then find out your on parole and brings you into jail, and you are violated for what they call an altercation with Metro Police, most shameful designed failures...

I was sent to prison deprived of a fair and impartial hearing by Judge Michael P. Vallani, whom should resign and for crimes of real estate forgeries and filings of false instruments with the Clark County Recorders office by which I have never been to the Recorders office and could not even tell anyone on how to get there...

After the filings of my Ex- Parte Memorandums etc, The Nevada Supreme Court on July 15th, 2011, Reversed and Remanded my case back to District Court and a New Judge Douglas Herndon was appointed and a Court order for appointment of counsel and evidentiary hearing by the Nevada Supreme Court was made, only after Judge Herndon's denial of my Writ of Habeas Corpus, and I had the filed a notice of Appeal..

Judge Micheal P. Vallani was sued by me in federal Court and an Ethics Violation Complaint caused this Judge to recuse himself from the conflict generated against him, this is how Judge Douglas Herndon received the case c-217569 DC 3...

On Feb 9th, 2016, I finally had an evidentiary hearing, after being on a reversal and remand from the Nevada Supreme Court on July 15th, 2011, it took over 5 years for my hearing, finally it was ruled ineffective counsel and other issues.

I raised the unlawful and unconstitutional issues in the Writ of Habeas Corpus on the NRS STATUTES, and Judge Herndon did all he could to not allow it in to expand the record.

The Judicial Branch of Nevada Government will never ever allow any fier to expand the record, it would mean the release of thousands and thousands of unlawfully and unconstitutionally withheld pioneers.

Under Gidden vs. Wainwright , Clearance Gidden an illiterate frail and humble man that was incarcerated in a Florida prison was able to free or get new trials for 4,300 inmates in Florida Prisons, and as a result of his work taught to him by his cell mate a lawyer doing life, the result of Gidden's work and research he single handedly changed the Judicial system in Florida.

I plan to free up or get new trials for 8,000 inmates in Nevada none violent and others evaluated as none threats to public safety.

Through the pursuit of my actual innocence I have discovered years of gathered research the "irrefutable evidence" and "factual proof" that the NRS STATUTES failed from their "Creation and Inception" and are illegal, unlawful, unconstitutional, invalid and "void ab initio"....

with the irrefutable evidence and factual proof , of documents, shepherized case laws, AGO opinion 85, and 9th Cir. Court of Appeals Justices Opinions , a law historian book author Charles Weisman , "The Authority of Law, exposes Nevada and many officials from the decades past to the present day Governor Sandoval, former Attorney General, Cathleen Cortez Masto, Senator Harry Reed and others to being tyrants of Tyranny, Usurpation, perjury of their own oaths of office , including the Clark County District Attorney Steve Wolfson, former judge Jackie Glass, many Eighth District court judges , like Judge Kathleen Delaney , Judge Micheal P Vallani has committed perjury of their oath and swear , signed by these officials under their signatures of pains of penalties , a class C Felony and a 5,000.00 dollar fine for such breach , and Now those mentioned herein could even face up to 4 years in jail for such known and proven violations that is documented and can now be disclosed to this media ,

There are literally thousands of foreigners , blacks, Mexican Americans , Russian , Asian, Islanders etc, and including OJ Simpson, being held against their will , unlawfully and unconstitutionally , by the NRS Statutes , that was illegal, unlawful, invalid and void from the creation and inception of those Nevada Revised Statutes ranging from 1.010 to 7.510 all these statutes including those that fall within the 1 to 7 range all fail to be the laws of Nevada,

This was done in May of 1951, and continued on until January 1957.....

The citizens of the state of Nevada are clueless that , there exists a fourth level of government , that has absolutely no relationship directly with any connection to any of the three branches of state government , it is the so called LCB , legislative Counsel Bureau illegally established on July 1st, 1963 , and the Statute Revision Commission was abolished and all legislative power and authority was transferred illegally to the Lawyer Russell W McDonald of whom also got himself not only to be the Director of the Statute Revision Commission but also continued to wear multiple hats and became the legislative Counsel, taking all the power and authority away from the pretenders of being state senators and legislators ,,,,

This was also done by three corrupted Justices of the Nevada Supreme Court, Justice Milton B Badt ,Justice Edgar Eather, and Justice Charles Merrill, had disregarded the Nev.Const. Art. 3, section 1 separation of powers , and Nev. Const. Art6 , section 11 , that no justice shall perform "ANY Function " other than that appertaining to their own elected judicial office,

These three Justices had absolutely no right to even performing any Quasi Function, it violated their oath of office, and the Paramount laws of State Of Nevada I.e. Nevada State Constitution,

The Joint Concurrent Resolution no. 1 and no.2 used to repeal all the Statutes of Nevada and create the NRS Statute Laws, as well as commingle such Joint Concurrent Resolution with memorials and congratulations , and also used in conjunction with a COPY of an Engrossed Bill, dubbed Senate Bill No. 2. Was used to create from it's inception "The Nevada Revised Statutes"

The Joint Concurrent Resolution violates the Nev. Const. Art 4, section 17 and section 23' section 17, deals with the Single Subject rule, the Resolution has multiple commingled subject matters etc,

The violation of section 23, totally voids the Joint Concurrent Resolution No.1 and No. 2 by not containing the enactment language upon it's face as follows

" We the people in the state of Nevada , in Senate and assembly do hereby enact as follows"

Nothing can even be considered laws if it does not contain such enactment language upon it's face,

The Joint Concurrent Resolution does not contain such language and thus constitutionally fails,

The Joint Concurrent Resolution also fails to comply with Joint house rule No. 7, and by which a Joint Concurrent Resolution can be used.

The Joint Concurrent Resolution No1 and No. 2 fails to comply with Chapter 385, section 2, on page 733, and section 4 on page 734, the Resolution does not conform to the Statute laws of Nevada , in identifying the Copy of the engrossed bill SB No.2 as original, duplicate , or triplicate etc, same for three branches of state government have all operated on the "PRESUMPTION" of law, that the NRS Statutes were lawfully and Constitutionally created and were the valid laws of the of Nevada, this is simply not true.

The PRESUMPTION of law is now displacement with the "KNOWLEDGE " of law, and that for all the reasons disclosed herein, that ,when you now have the irrefutable evidence and factual proof, when laws fail and are unlawful, unconstitutional, invalid, the courts Lack Subject Matter to proceed to try the case,

This means persons like OJ Simpson crimes vanished, and the Court, judge Jackie Glass and former DA David Roger , and DA Steve Wolfson and Judge Linda Marie Bell had absolutely no legal lawful and constitutional rights to pursue or prosecute or try the case of OJ Simpson and 12, 875 other incarcerated persons in Nevada,

Those that ore held on death row all 82 of them now are held there, illegally, unlawfully and unconstitutionally.

There has been 12 persons that have been put to death since the reinstatement of the Nevada Death penalty , Now this so called great governor Sandoval , has approved the revamping of the death chamber, and no doubt plans to use it soon,

The Governor, and other top officials are all aware of this, and it now makes them accessories to the not only decades of stealth fraud , and the ongoing long arm fraud, for what these very corrupted politicians did in 1951,1957,1963, 1972, by Harry Reid as well when he was the president of the State Senate is most shameful and they are very liable for such unlawful and multiple unconstitutional acts they have done against the ignorant and less fortunate society , and the undesirables , uneducated and mental illness, and drug addicts, all by which Harry Reid, Cathleen Cortez Masto, Governor Brian Sandoval, Attorney General Adam Laxalt, NDOC officials, and Wardens and by their authority, everyone involved in the false imprisonment , unlawfully imprisonment, restraint of the incarcerated Liberty interests, and are being held now against their will , these officials needs to be prosecuted for their own attempts to disobey and in their participation in destroying the Nevada Constitution , and crimes against humanity and human rights violations.

"No WHERE" can any of these corrupted politicians and or officials, administrators can refute the facts and evidence now obtained,

For any of their false hoods now such as these state judges to dismiss any filers Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, or Writ for extra ordinary Relief and demand for their immediate release , not only violates the Nevada State Constitution , but it breaches the oath and swear upon gods oath, they took In order to take their oath of offices and seated upon the bench in their respective courts they represent.

Anything short of not granting relief sought filed by an incarcerated person in Nevada, prisons or jails, those officials opposing or covering up the facts and truth, have therefore engaged in Treason, Tyranny, Usurpation, and perjury of their oath of office, and has further engaged as tyrants and ministers of their own injustices and are liable to have True Bills issued against them , they would have no right to seek or claim absolute immunity.

I affirm under penalties of perjury of law that , this is the truth, and the information provided herein is truthful and factual, that the NRS Laws fail to be Nevada laws of the State of Nevada,

This I affirm this 5th day of September , 2016

POINTS & AUTHORITIES

ARGUMENT

The defendant/Accused does hereby request that this court will grant oral argument, an issue an order to show cause, to show why this court should not issue an order for the defendant/Accused

"IMMEDIATE RELEASE FROM INCARCERATION"

Furthermore; & Additionally, this court should determine whether the states opposition refutes the defendant/Accused motion to correct illegal sentence.

motion for show of proof on the merits, against each and every allegation; claim and issue; rather than on such meritless arguments like:

"THE NEVADA SUPREME COURT HAS INTERPRETED THIS TO MEAN AN ENACTING CLAUSE MUST BE INCLUDED IN EVERY LAW CREATED BY THE LEGISLATURE AND MUST EXPRESS ON THE FACE THE AUTHORITY BY WHICH THEY WERE ENACTED", citing STATE V. ROGERS, 10 NEV 250 261 (1875)

The argument completely misinterprets the Nevada Supreme Court in STATE V. ROGERS 10 NEV at 261 The Nevada Supreme Court opined as follows:

"Our constitution expressly provides that the enacting clause of every law shall be 'the people of the state of Nevada, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows'. This language is susceptible of but one interpretation. There is no doubtful meaning as to the intention. It is, in our judgment, an imperative mandate of the people in their sovereign capacity to the legislature, requiring that all laws to be binding upon them shall, upon their face, express the authority by which they were enacted," (emphasis added)

1 Discovery and an order to show cause should be granted, The Accused
2 seeks an order from this court directing the plaintiff to show cause as 3 to why, the accused incarceration for the Alleged crimes the Accused
4 was Arrested, and or convicted for should continue, be upheld etc.

5 The Accused seeks an order from this court directing the plaintiff
6 to produce "CERTIFIED COPIES" of Senate Bill (S.B.) No 2 from the 1957,
7 48TH SESSION of the Nevada legislature (New Legis) as well as the 8 records of the reading of S.B. No. 2 three (3) times on three (3) separate
9 days. NEVADA CONSTITUTION NEV CONST ART 4 § 18

11 The Accused further requests discovery as to the Assembly History from 12 1957 to 1969, these requested documents must come from the Secretary of 13 States Office, pursuant to the NEV CONST ART 5 § 20, to be utilized that 14 this court did in fact have "SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION" (this court's 15 power to decide a case, to issue a decree or judgment) as concerns
16 the alleged crimes that the Accused was Arrested and/or convicted of.

17 The Accused/Defendant informs this court that the production of the 18 48TH SESSION legislative History has been sought, from the Secretary of State
19 Office, to only learn that the Secretary of States Office no longer has custody, 20 care and control of said documents.

21 Like wise the Defendant/Accused has sought to discover the following:

22 (1) who is the Nevada Archives?

23 (2) How was the Nevada Archives established?

24 (3) When was the Nevada Archives established?

25 (4) Where was the Nevada Archives established?

26 (5) Whom is appointed to head the Nevada Archives?

27 (6) Whom appointed said person to head the Nevada Archives?; when?

28 (7) How was the Nevada Archives founded?

- 1 (8) How does the Nevada Archives derive their income?
- 2 (9) who at the Nevada Archives is paid and for what services?
- 3 (10) Are there "any costs, fee's etc.," charged to the citizens of Nevada?
- 4 (11) where are the complete Assembly Histories for the following years?
- 5 1951; 1955; 1957; 1961; and 1969? including all session Laws; Bills;
- 6 Statutes at Large passed and their rosters.
- 7 (12) where are the ballots of the citizens of Nevada Authorizing the
- 8 change to the NEV CONST ART 4 § 23 allowing for the omission of the
- 9 enacting clause from "EVERY LAW" that, the Nevada Revised Statutes
- 10 would "constitute the official/codified version of the statutes of
- 11 Nevada and may be cited as prima facie evidence of the Law" as cited
- 12 in NRS 220.170(3)
- 13 (13) How much are the NRS sold for?
- 14 (14) that, by vote of the citizens of Nevada, the new legis. was authorized
- 15 to establish the non judicial group i.e. the statute Revision Commission
- 16 formed in 1955; and the new legis transferring power, and authority
- 17 of the new legis to the quasi statute revision commission, to undertake
- 18 comprehensive revision of the Laws; compiling; restating etc.?
- 19 (15) Authoring the new legis. to extend survivorship of the abolished
- 20 statute revision commission, to the legislative counsel Bureau?
- 21 (16) By what authority are the NRS copy righted?; and the sale of
- 22 these NRS as codified; annotated and indicated into NRS publication
- 23 books; again further allowing the NRS to be published without the
- 24 constitutionally mandated enacting clause upon their face?
- 25 (17) By what authority did the secretary of state lose custody; care
- 26 and control of the Assembly History commencing from 1951; 1955;
- 27 1957 through 1969, to the present? NEV CONST ART 5 § 20
- 28 (18) Is there a price difference for the public than for any cost, price, for other

1 branch of government for the NRS?

2 (19) Should there be a cost, price difference, by what authority is the

3 cost, price difference allowed?

4 (20) Who is the person in charge of the legislative counsel Bureau?

5 (21) What other position do the non-judicial legislative counsel

6 Bureau group hold in Government or private?

7 (22) How did the person in charge of the legislative counsel Bureau

8 achieve this position?

9 (23) How many person's work for the Legislative counsel Bureau?

10 (24) Has any Deputy District Attorney cited an unpublished opinion

11 of the Nevada Supreme Court (NEV SUP CT), in their opposition to a

12 motion to dismiss, or motion to correct an illegal sentence, and yet

13 argued that "The Nevada Revised Statutes do not have the same

14 requirement, as they are not Laws enacted by the legislature," and has

15 failed to include the following:

16 The Nevada Revised Statutes consist of enacted Laws?

17 The above requested discovery/information is vital to the

18 Defendant/Accused to "FURTHER" establish unconstitutional acts that

19 violate the NEV CONST., its Articles, and the United States Constitution

20 and its Amendments; which will tend to further establish the lack of

21 subject matter jurisdiction, for the Accused to have been arrested

22 pursuant to the NRS for the year of _____, as the NRS 1957, are

23 "NOT" LAW! The NRS adopted and enacted during the 48th

24 Session of the NEV. Legis. are nothing more than a resolution!,

25 and Resolutions are not Laws. See NEVADA Highway patrol ASS'n v

26 STATE, 107 Nev 547, 549, 815 p.2d 608, 610 (NEV 1991)

27 Thus, the requested discovery/information is vital to this court,

28 to determine the issues/facts pertinent to the Defendant/Accused

Petition for writ of Habeas corpus

1 ~~Motion to correct an illegal sentence~~ Filed on third day of
2 December 2021 This court must determine that it had subject
3 matter standing to issue the Judgment of conviction (Joc), to lawfully 4 incarcerate the defendant/Accused under unconstitutional; unlawful,
5 Repugnant NRS adopted and enacted in 1957, by the 48TH session
6 of the Nev. Legis.

7 That, Attempts to obtain the documents, information etc.
8 as listed on pages 4-6, have not been inadequate, due diligence has 9 been utilized; From within the confines of the prison gates to 10 obtain documents, information and records, seeking to accomplish
11 this goal, despite the ~~the~~ High Desert State Prison (HDSp) Law library
12 supervisor's efforts to delay the defendant/Accused; by refusing to 13 allow the Accused case Law, He requests to not only further his case, 14 but in his attempting to help others with their pleadings, by bringing 15 vital information to the courts attention.

16 The defendant contends that the NEV CONST being the PARAMOUNT
17 LAW King v Board of Regents, 65 Nev 553, 200 p.2d 221 (1948)
18 and setting forth via the NEV CONST structure of the NRS via ART 4 §
19 17 and ART 4 § 23, where the legislative records are to be kept ART 5 §
20 20, plaintiff should produce any and all documents, information, 21 and records as listed on pages 4-6, which will aid this court in 22 determining whether this court ever lawfully had subject
23 matter jurisdiction.

24 That, The defendant/Accused has alleged and pled that the court
25 did not, as more fully set forth in the defendant/Accused motion to 26 correct illegal sentence.

27 That, with the Accused alleging and supporting the Allegations,
28 issues via exhibits and arguments that, subject matter

1 Jurisdiction was/is lacking, there is just cause for this court to 2 err on the side of caution, being for legitimate government.

3 Stevenson v Tufly, 19 Nev 391, 393, 394-95, 12 P 835, 837-38
4 (1887); and Nevada v Swift, 10 Nev 182, 183 (1875)

5 To Grant Discovery, and issue an order to show cause, to the state
6 of Nevada as to why the defendant/accused conviction should not
7 be expunged immediately

8 This, to substantiate the alleged lawfulness of NRS as ⁶⁶PRIMA
9 FACIE EVIDENCE OF THE LAW,⁹⁹ as alleged under NRS 220.170(3)

11 the plaintiff needs to present to this court, and the accused, the 12 History of SB. NO 2 ie the revision bill. The defendant/accused has 13 only been able to obtain the act of the 48TH session of the Nevada
14 legislature adopting and enacting The Nevada Revised Statutes in 15 1957 (see exhibit ⁶⁶4⁹⁹ attached to defendant/accused motion to 16 correct illegal sentence.)

17 18 CONCLUSION

19 wherefore, based upon the above and foregoing, the defendant/accused 20 does respectfully request that this court will grant the request for 21 discovery, and issue an order to show cause as to why the defendant/22 accused motion to correct illegal sentence should not be granted, and 23 the accused immediately have his conviction expunged, as it is the 24 plaintiff's burden to provide the records, documents etc. refuting
25 the defendant/accused claims, and establishing lawful subject
26 matter jurisdiction. That any option to the defendant/accused 27 pleadings negates the defendant/accused agreement as more fully 28 set forth in the defendant/accused motion to correct illegal sentence.

STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS, MOTION FOR DISCOVERY AND MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, AND MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL AND REQUEST FOR AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

DATE OF HEARING: February 17, 2022
TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 AM

COMES NOW, the State of Nevada, by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, through JOHN AFSHAR, Deputy District Attorney, and hereby submits the attached Points and Authorities in Response to Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing.

This Response is made and based upon all the papers and pleadings on file herein, the attached points and authorities in support hereof, and oral argument at the time of hearing, if deemed necessary by this Honorable Court.

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On June 22, 2015, Petitioner was charged by way of information with Count 1 – First
4 Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony – NRS 200.310, 200.320) and Count 2 – Attempt
5 Sexual Assault (Category B Felony – 200.364, 200.366, 193.330). On June 30, 2015, Petitioner
6 appeared for Initial Arraignment and pleaded guilty to both counts pursuant to North Carolina
7 v. Alford. 400 U.S. 25, 91 S. Ct. 160 (1970).

8 On October 13, 2015, Petitioner was sentenced as follows: as to Count 1, sixty (60) to
9 one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections and as to Count 2,
10 sixty (60) to one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, with
11 Count 2 to run consecutive to Count 1, for a total aggregate sentence of one hundred twenty 12 (120) months to three hundred sixty (360) months. Petitioner was credited with 207 days for 13 time served.

14 On December 3, 2021, Petitioner filed the present Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.
15 On February 17, 2022, Petitioner filed the instant Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order
16 to Show Cause. On January 6, 2022, Petitioner filed the present Motion for Discovery and 17 Motion for Order to Show Cause in Case No. C-15-307298-1. The State responds as follows.

20 I. THE PETITION IS TIME-BARRED

21 The Petition is time-barred pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

22 Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that
23 challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed
24 within 1 year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an 25 appeal has been taken from the judgment, within 1 year after the 26 Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this
27 subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner
28 demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

- (a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and
- (b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner.

1 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain
2 meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873–74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the
3 language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from
4 the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed.
5 Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133–34 (1998).

6 The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS
7 34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002),
8 the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two (2) days late despite
9 evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed
10 the petition within the one-year time limit.

11 Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to 12 consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State
13 v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The 14 Riker Court found that “[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-
15 conviction habeas petitions is mandatory,” noting:

16 Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction
17 are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The 18 necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

19 Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars “cannot be ignored [by the district court]
20 when properly raised by the State.” Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court
21 has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory
22 procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

23 This position was reaffirmed in State v. Greene, 129 Nev. 559, 307 P.3d 322 (2013).
24 There the Court ruled that the defendant’s petition was “untimely, successive, and an abuse of 25 the writ” and that the defendant failed to show good cause and actual prejudice. Id. at 324, 307
26 P.3d at 326. Accordingly, the Court reversed the district court and ordered the defendant’s
27 petition dismissed pursuant to the procedural bars. Id. at 324, 307 P.3d at 322–23. The 28 procedural bars are so fundamental to the post-conviction process that they must be applied
by this Court even if not raised by the State. See Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074.

1 Here, Petitioner's Judgment of Conviction was filed on October 15, 2015. Thus, the
2 present petition is untimely by more than five years. Barring a showing of good cause and
3 prejudice, the instant Petition must be denied.

4 II. PETITIONER'S CLAIMS ARE WAIVED PURSUANT TO NRS 34.810

5 NRS 34.810(1) reads:

6 The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

7 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty
8 but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation
9 that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the 10 plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

11 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 12 grounds for the petition could have been:

13 . . .

14 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of habeas
15 corpus or postconviction relief.

16 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that "challenges to the validity of a guilty plea and
17 claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must first be pursued in post-
18 conviction proceedings . . . [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a direct appeal must be
19 pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in subsequent proceedings."
20 Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994) (emphasis added)
21 (disapproved on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 P.2d 222 (1999)). "A
22 court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been
23 presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the 24 claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner." Evans v. State,
117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001).

25 Here, Petitioner pleaded guilty pursuant to Alford and none of Petitioner's claims are
26 based on an allegation that the plea was entered involuntarily or unknowingly or that the plea
27 was entered without effective assistance of counsel. Thus, Petitioner's claims are outside the 28 scope of a habeas Petition and the Petition should be denied.

III. PETITIONER HAS NOT SHOWN GOOD CAUSE OR PREJUDICE SUFFICIENT TO OVERCOME HIS PROCEDURAL BARS

To avoid procedural default, under NRS 34.726, a defendant has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate good cause for his failure to present his claim in earlier proceedings or to otherwise comply with the statutory requirements, and that he will be unduly prejudiced if the petition is dismissed. NRS 34.726(1)(a) (emphasis added); see Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 959–60, 860 P.2d 710, 715–16 (1993); Phelps v. Nevada Dep’t of Prisons, 104 Nev. 656, 659, 764 P.2d 1303, 1305 (1988). “A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner.” Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646–47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001) (emphasis added).

To show good cause for delay under NRS 34.726(1), a petitioner must demonstrate the following: (1) “[t]hat the delay is not the fault of the petitioner” and (2) that the petitioner will be “unduly prejudice[d]” if the petition is dismissed as untimely. NRS 34.726. To meet the first requirement, “a petitioner must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented him or her from complying with the state procedural default rules.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (emphasis added). “A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default.” Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, “appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]” Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526. To find good cause there must be a “substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Examples of good cause include interference by State officials and the previous unavailability of a legal or factual basis. See State v. Huebler, 128 Nev. Adv. Op. 19, 275 P.3d 91, 95 (2012). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a).

1 Further, a petitioner raising good cause to excuse procedural bars must do so within a
2 reasonable time after the alleged good cause arises. See Pellegrini, 117 Nev. at 869–70, 34
3 P.3d at 525–26 (holding that the time bar in NRS 34.726 applies to successive petitions); see
4 generally Hathaway, 119 Nev. at 252–53, 71 P.3d at 506–07 (stating that a claim reasonably
5 available to the petitioner during the statutory time period did not constitute good cause to
6 excuse a delay in filing). A claim that is itself procedurally barred cannot constitute good
7 cause. Riker, 121 Nev. at 235, 112 P.3d at 1077; see also Edwards v. Carpenter, 529 U.S. 446,
8 453 120 S. Ct. 1587, 1592 (2000).

9 In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show “‘not merely that the errors of 10 [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and
11 substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional
12 dimensions.’” Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United 13 States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)).

14 Here, Petitioner does not even allege, much less demonstrate, good cause or prejudice.
15 Petitioner has not shown that impediment external to his defense prevented him from filing
16 his Petition in a timely manner or that his claims were not available at the time of default.
17 Accordingly, as Petitioner has not shown good cause or prejudice sufficient to overcome his 18 procedural bars, the Petition should be denied.

19 IV. PETITIONER WAS NOT REQUIRED TO BE CHARGED BY 20 INDICTMENT

21 Petitioner’s first claim is that he was not indicted in the present case. Petition at 9.
22 However, Petitioner was charged by way of information on June 22, 2015. It does not violate
23 due process to initiate a prosecution by an information rather than an indictment. Cairns v.
24 Sheriff, Clark Cty., 89 Nev. 113, 116, 508 P.2d 1015, 1017 (1973). Thus, because there was 25 nothing inappropriate about the State charging Petitioner by way of information rather than 26 indictment, this claim should be denied.

1 V. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

2 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing. It reads:

- 3 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all
4 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an
5 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be
6 discharged or committed to the custody of a person other than the
7 respondent unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
8 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not
9 entitled to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall
10 dismiss the petition without a hearing.
11 3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is 12 required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

13 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without
14 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Marshall v. State, 110 Nev.
15 1328, 885 P.2d 603 (1994); Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002). A
16 defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by specific factual
17 allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual allegations are repelled
18 by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; see also Hargrove v. State, 100
19 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking post-conviction
20 relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or repelled by the
21 record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it
22 existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230 (2002).

23 Here, all of Petitioner’s claims are either time-barred or waived and are thus subject to 24 summary denial. Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074. Because all of Petitioner’s claims
25 are procedurally barred, his claims may be resolved without expanding the record and no
26 evidentiary hearing is necessary. Accordingly, Petitioner’s request for an evidentiary hearing
27 should be denied.

28 VI. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO COUNSEL

 Under the U.S. Constitution, the Sixth Amendment provides no right to counsel in post-
conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 2566
(1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the Nevada

1 Supreme Court similarly observed that “[t]he Nevada Constitution...does not guarantee a right
2 to counsel in post-conviction proceedings, as we interpret the Nevada Constitution’s right to
3 counsel provision as being coextensive with the Sixth Amendment to the United States
4 Constitution.” McKague specifically held that with the exception of NRS 34.820(1)(a)
5 (entitling appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one does not have
6 “any constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all” in post-conviction proceedings. Id. at 7 164, 912 P.2d at 258.

8 The Nevada Legislature has, however, given courts the discretion to appoint post-
9 conviction counsel so long as “the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and
10 the petition is not dismissed summarily.” NRS 34.750. “The statute sets forth a non-exhaustive
11 list of factors that the district court ‘may consider’ in deciding whether to appoint
12 postconviction counsel: the severity of the consequences that the petitioner faces, the difficulty
13 of the issues presented, the petitioner’s ability to comprehend the proceedings, and the 14 necessity of counsel to proceed with discovery.” Renteria-Novoa v. State, 133 Nev. 75, 76,
15 391 P.3d 760, 761 (2017). Accordingly, under NRS 34.750, it is clear that the Court has
16 discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel.

17 In Renteria-Novoa, the Nevada Supreme Court examined whether a district court
18 appropriately denied a defendant’s request for appointment of counsel based upon the factors
19 listed in NRS 34.750. Id. at 75. The petitioner had been serving a prison term of eighty-five 20 (85) years to life. Id. at 75. After his judgment of conviction was affirmed on direct appeal,
21 the defendant filed a pro se postconviction petition for writ of habeas corpus and requested
22 counsel be appointed. Id. The district court ultimately denied the petitioner’s petition and his 23 appointment of counsel request. Id. In reviewing the district court’s decision, the Nevada
24 Supreme Court examined the statutory factors listed under NRS 34.750 and concluded that the 25 district court’s decision should be reversed and remanded. Id. The Court explained that the 26 petitioner was indigent, his petition could not be summarily dismissed, and he had in fact
27 satisfied the statutory factors. Id. at 76, 391 P.3d 760-61. As for the first factor, the Court
28 concluded that because petitioner had represented he had issues with understanding the English language which was corroborated by his use of an interpreter at his trial, that was enough to indicate that the petitioner could not comprehend the proceedings. Id. Moreover, the petitioner had demonstrated that the consequences he faced—a minimum eighty-five (85) year sentence—were severe and his petition may have been the only vehicle for which he could raise his claims. Id. at 76-77, 391 P.3d at 761-62. Finally, his ineffective assistance of counsel claims may have required additional discovery and investigation beyond the record. Id.

Pursuant to NRS 34.750, Petitioner has not demonstrated that counsel should be appointed. First, the issues are not difficult as all of Petitioner’s claims are procedurally barred. Second, there has been no indication that Petitioner is unable to comprehend the proceedings. Unlike the petitioner in Renteria-Novoa who faced difficulties understanding the English language, here Petitioner has failed to demonstrate any inability to understand these proceedings. Finally, counsel is not necessary to proceed with further discovery in this case. Petitioner has failed to demonstrate that there is a need for additional discovery, let alone counsel’s assistance to conduct such investigation.

VII. PETITIONER’S REQUEST FOR DISCOVERY AND MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE IS PREMATURE

Petitioner’s request to conduct discovery is suitable only for denial as it is premature and unsupported by a showing of good cause.

NRS 34.780(2) reads:

After the writ has been granted and a date set for the hearing, a party may invoke any method of discovery available under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure if, and to the extent that, the judge or justice for good cause shown grants leave to do so.

(Emphasis added). A writ is not “granted” for discovery purposes until this Court determines that there is a need for an evidentiary hearing. NRS 34.770(3).

This Court has yet to grant any petition or set an evidentiary hearing in this matter. As such, any request to conduct discovery is premature. Moreover, this Court lacks the authority to order discovery unless an evidentiary hearing is required. This Court has no choice but to deny Petitioner’s untimely demand for the privilege of discovery. Petitioner requests that the

1 State provide discovery regarding “The Assembly History” from 1957-1969 from “the 2 Secretary of State’s Office” as well as a number of certified copies of senate bills. Motion for
3 Discovery and Motion For Order to Show Cause at 4. The Clark County District Attorney’s
4 Office does not have the requested documents in its possession, and explained supra, Petitioner
5 would not be entitled to them even if it did. Accordingly, Petitioner’s Motion for Discovery
6 and Motion for Order to Show Cause should be denied.

7 CONCLUSION

8 Based on the foregoing arguments, Petitioner’s Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus,
9 Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of 10 Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing should be DENIED.

STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR DISCOVERY & MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, EX PARTE MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL AND REQUEST FOR AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING, MOTION TO ENJOIN CASE NUMBERS & REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL ORDER FOR JUDICIAL ECONOMY, AND MOTION TO DISMISS

DATE OF HEARING: March 17, 2022

TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 AM

COMES NOW, the State of Nevada, by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, through JOHN AFSHAR, Deputy District Attorney, and hereby submits the attached Points and Authorities in Response to Defendant's Motion for Discovery & Motion for Order to Show Cause, Ex Parte Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing, Motion to Enjoin Case Numbers & Request for Judicial Order for Judicial Economy, and Motion to Dismiss.

1 This Response is made and based upon all the papers and pleadings on file herein, the 2 attached points and authorities in support hereof, and oral argument at the time of hearing, if
3 deemed necessary by this Honorable Court.

4 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

5 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

6 On June 22, 2015, Defendant was charged by way of information with Count 1 – First
7 Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony – NRS 200.310, 200.320) and Count 2 – Attempt
8 Sexual Assault (Category B Felony – 200.364, 200.366, 193.330). On June 30, 2015, 9 Defendant appeared for Initial Arraignment and pleaded guilty to both counts pursuant to 10 North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25, 91 S. Ct. 160 (1970).

11 On October 13, 2015, Defendant was sentenced as follows: as to Count 1, sixty (60) to
12 one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections and as to Count 2,
13 sixty (60) to one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, with
14 Count 2 to run consecutive to Count 1, for a total aggregate sentence of one hundred twenty 15 (120) months to three hundred sixty (360) months. Defendant was credited with 207 days for 16 time served.

17 On December 2, 2021, Defendant filed a Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence, Errata to 18 Defendant's Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence, and Caveat. On December 23, 2021, the State
19 filed its Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence, Errata to Defendant's
20 Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence, and Caveat. On December 27, 2021, the Court filed a 21 Minute Order denying Defendant's Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence. The Court filed its 22 written Order on February 11, 2022.

23 On December 3, 2021, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus in Case
24 No. A-21-844910-W. On January 12, 2022, Defendant also filed a Motion for Discovery and 25 Motion for Order to Show Cause. On February 8, 2022, the State filed its Response. On 26 February 17, 2021, the Court denied Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Motion
27 for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause in Case No. A-21-844910-W.

1 On January 6, 2022, Defendant filed the instant Motion for Discovery and Motion for 2 Order to Show Cause, Ex Parte Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an
3 Evidentiary Hearing, and Motion to Enjoin Case Numbers and Request for Judicial Order for 4 Judicial Economy. On January 7, 2022, Defendant filed the motion entitled “‘The Smoking
5 Gun’ Appellant/Accused Motion to Dismiss, Request for Immediate Release From 6 Incarceration & Strike Against 2014 Legislative Ballot Seeking to Defraud All Nevada
7 Citizens During Time of Said Election Supported by Prima Facie Evidence” (hereinafter
8 “Motion to Dismiss”).

9 On January 27, 2022, the Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause,
10 Ex Parte Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing, and 11 Motion to Enjoin Case Numbers and Request for Judicial Order for Judicial Economy, were 12 set for hearing. The State requested more time to respond as Defendant had been filing motions
13 in both his A and C cases. The Court continued the hearing to March 17, 2022.

14 The State responds as follows.

16 I. A MOTION TO DISMISS IS THE INCORRECT VESSEL FOR 17 DEFENDANT’S CLAIMS

18 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that “challenges to the validity of a guilty plea and
19 claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must first be pursued in post-
20 conviction proceedings . . . [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a direct appeal must be
21 pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in subsequent proceedings.”
22 Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994) (emphasis added)
23 (disapproved on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 P.2d 222 (1999)).

24 There is no legal basis for Defendant to bring a post-conviction “Motion to Dismiss,”
25 in order to challenge his judgment of conviction. To the extent that Defendant is challenging 26 his judgment of conviction, this motion should have been brought in a petition for writ of 27 habeas corpus. However, the present motion to dismiss should not be construed as such 28 because Defendant has already filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus in Case No. A-21-

1 844910-W, where he alleged substantially the same claims, which the court denied.
2 Accordingly, the instant motion should be denied as it is the incorrect pleading for Defendant's
3 claims.

4 In addition, Defendant's sole claim that the sentencing court lacked subject matter
5 jurisdiction over his sentence was already heard and decided on its merits when Defendant
6 filed a Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence. See 12/27/21 Minute Order. Thus, Defendant's
7 Motion to Dismiss should be denied.

8 II. DEFENDANT IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

9 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing. It reads:

- 10 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all
11 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an 12 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be 13 discharged or committed to the custody of a person other than the 14 respondent unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
- 15 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not 16 entitled to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall dismiss the petition without a hearing.
- 17 3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is 18 required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

19 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without
20 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Marshall v. State, 110 Nev.
21 1328, 885 P.2d 603 (1994); Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002). A
22 defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by specific factual
23 allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual allegations are repelled
24 by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; see also Hargrove v. State, 100
25 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that "[a] defendant seeking post-conviction
26 relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or repelled by the record"). "A claim is 'belied' when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it
27 existed at the time the claim was made." Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230 (2002).

28 NRS 34.770 only applies to Petitions for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Because this is not a habeas petition, and should not be construed as such, Defendant's request for an evidentiary

1 hearing should be denied. To the extent Defendant is requesting an evidentiary hearing in 2 conjunction with the Petition he filed in case A-21-844910-W, the State already responded to 3 his request in that case.

4 III. DEFENDANT IS NOT ENTITLED TO COUNSEL

5 NRS 34.750 states:

6 1. A petition may allege that the petitioner is unable to pay
7 the costs of the proceedings or to employ counsel. If the court is 8 satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and the petition is 9 not dismissed summarily, the court may appoint counsel to represent the petitioner. In making its determination, the court may consider, among other things, the severity of the consequences facing the petitioner and whether:

10 (a) The issues presented are difficult;

11 (b) The petitioner is unable to comprehend the proceedings; or

12 (c) Counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery.

13 Again, Defendant's reference to 34.750 only applies to Petitions for Writ of Habeas
14 Corpus. Ex Parte Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing
15 at 1. The State responded to his request for counsel in that context in Defendant's A case.
16 Defendant has no constitutional or statutory right to counsel for a motion to dismiss. Thus, his 17 request should be denied.

18 IV. DEFENDANT'S REQUEST FOR DISCOVERY AND MOTION TO SHOW 19 CAUSE IS PREMATURE

20 Defendant's request to conduct discovery is suitable only for denial as it is premature
21 and unsupported by a showing of good cause.

22 NRS 34.780(2) reads:

23 After the writ has been granted and a date set for the hearing, a party may invoke
24 any method of discovery available under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure
if, and to the extent that, the judge or justice for good cause shown grants leave 25 to do so.

26 (Emphasis added). A writ is not "granted" for discovery purposes until this Court determines 27 that there is a need for an evidentiary hearing. NRS 34.770(3).

1 This Court has yet to grant any petition or set an evidentiary hearing in this matter. The
2 State notes that Defendant's Petition for Habeas Corpus filed in Case No. A-21-844910-W,
3 was denied on February 17, 2021. As such, any request to conduct discovery is premature.
4 Moreover, this Court lacks the authority to order discovery unless an evidentiary hearing is
5 required. This Court has no choice but to deny Defendant's untimely demand for the privilege
6 of discovery. Defendant requests that the State provide discovery regarding "The Assembly
7 History" from 1957-1969 from "the Secretary of State's Office" as well as a number of 8 certified copies of senate bills. Motion for Discovery and Motion For Order to Show Cause at 9 4. The Clark County District Attorney's Office does not have the requested documents in its 10 possession, and explained supra, Defendant would not be entitled to them even if it did.
11 Accordingly, Defendant's Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause should 12 be denied.

13 V. MOTION TO ENJOIN CASE NUMBERS AND REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL
14 ORDER FOR JUDICIAL ECONOMY

15 The instant pleadings are already filed under Defendant's criminal case number, and do
16 not affect his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed in A-21-844910-W. There is no need to 17 "enjoin" these motions into the criminal case number because they are already filed there.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

DEPT NO: VI

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 AM

THIS MATTER having come on for hearing before the above-entitled Court on the 17th day of February 2022, neither party being present, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On June 22, 2015, Petitioner was charged by way of information with Count 1 – First Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony – NRS 200.310, 200.320) and Count 2 – Attempt Sexual Assault (Category B Felony – 200.364, 200.366, 193.330). On June 30, 2015, Petitioner appeared for Initial Arraignment and pleaded guilty to both counts pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford. 400 U.S. 25, 91 S. Ct. 160 (1970).

1 On October 13, 2015, Petitioner was sentenced as follows: as to Count 1, sixty (60) to
2 one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections and as to Count 2,
3 sixty (60) to one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, with
4 Count 2 to run consecutive to Count 1, for a total aggregate sentence of one hundred twenty
5 (120) months to three hundred sixty (360) months. Petitioner was credited with 207 days for
6 time served.

7 On December 3, 2021, Petitioner filed the present Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.
8 On January 12, 2022, Petitioner filed the instant Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order
9 to Show Cause. The State filed its Response to Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus,
10 Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of 11 Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing on February 8, 2022. This matter came before
12 this Court on February 17, 2022, and the Court rules as follows:

13 ANALYSIS

14 I. THE PETITION IS TIME-BARRED

15 The Petition is time-barred pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

16 Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that
17 challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed
18 within 1 year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an 19 appeal has been taken from the judgment, within 1 year after the 20 Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this
21 subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner
22 demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

- 23 (a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and
- 24 (b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will
25 unduly prejudice the petitioner.

26 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain
27 meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873–74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the 28 language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed.
Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133–34 (1998).

The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS
34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002),

1 the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two (2) days late despite
2 evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed
3 the petition within the one-year time limit.

4 Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to
5 consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State
6 v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The
7 Riker Court found that “[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-
8 conviction habeas petitions is mandatory,” noting:

9 Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction
10 are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The 11 necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

12 Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars “cannot be ignored [by the district court]
13 when properly raised by the State.” Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court
14 has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory
15 procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

16 This position was reaffirmed in State v. Greene, 129 Nev. 559, 307 P.3d 322 (2013).
17 There the Court ruled that the defendant’s petition was “untimely, successive, and an abuse of 18 the writ” and that the defendant failed to show good cause and actual prejudice. Id. at 324, 307
19 P.3d at 326. Accordingly, the Court reversed the district court and ordered the defendant’s
20 petition dismissed pursuant to the procedural bars. Id. at 324, 307 P.3d at 322–23. The
21 procedural bars are so fundamental to the post-conviction process that they must be applied
22 by this Court even if not raised by the State. See Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074.

23 Here, Petitioner’s Judgment of Conviction was filed on October 15, 2015. Thus, the 24 present petition is untimely by more than five years. Barring a showing of good cause and
25 prejudice, which the Court addresses below, the instant Petition must be denied.

1 II. PETITIONER’S CLAIMS ARE WAIVED PURSUANT TO NRS 34.810

2 NRS 34.810(1) reads:

3 The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

4 (a) The petitioner’s conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty
5 but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation
6 that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the
7 plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

8 (b) The petitioner’s conviction was the result of a trial and the 9 grounds for the petition could have been:

10 . . .

11 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of habeas
12 corpus or postconviction relief.

13 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that “challenges to the validity of a guilty plea and
14 claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must first be pursued in post-
15 conviction proceedings . . . [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a direct appeal must be
16 pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in subsequent proceedings.”
17 Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994) (emphasis added)
18 (disapproved on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 P.2d 222 (1999)). “A
19 court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been
20 presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the 21 claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner.” Evans v. State,
22 117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001).

23 Here, Petitioner pleaded guilty pursuant to Alford and none of Petitioner’s claims are 24 based on an allegation that the plea was entered involuntarily or unknowingly or that the plea
25 was entered without effective assistance of counsel. Thus, Petitioner’s claims are outside of 26 the scope of a habeas Petition.
27

III. PETITIONER HAS NOT SHOWN GOOD CAUSE OR PREJUDICE SUFFICIENT TO OVERCOME HIS PROCEDURAL BARS

To avoid procedural default, under NRS 34.726, a defendant has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate good cause for his failure to present his claim in earlier proceedings or to otherwise comply with the statutory requirements, and that he will be unduly prejudiced if the petition is dismissed. NRS 34.726(1)(a) (emphasis added); see Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 959–60, 860 P.2d 710, 715–16 (1993); Phelps v. Nevada Dep’t of Prisons, 104 Nev. 656, 659, 764 P.2d 1303, 1305 (1988). “A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner.” Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646–47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001) (emphasis added).

To show good cause for delay under NRS 34.726(1), a petitioner must demonstrate the following: (1) “[t]hat the delay is not the fault of the petitioner” and (2) that the petitioner will be “unduly prejudice[d]” if the petition is dismissed as untimely. NRS 34.726. To meet the first requirement, “a petitioner must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented him or her from complying with the state procedural default rules.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (emphasis added). “A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default.” Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, “appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]” Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526. To find good cause there must be a “substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Examples of good cause include interference by State officials and the previous unavailability of a legal or factual basis. See State v. Huebler, 128 Nev. Adv. Op. 19, 275 P.3d 91, 95 (2012). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a).

1 Further, a petitioner raising good cause to excuse procedural bars must do so within a
2 reasonable time after the alleged good cause arises. See Pellegrini, 117 Nev. at 869–70, 34
3 P.3d at 525–26 (holding that the time bar in NRS 34.726 applies to successive petitions); see
4 generally Hathaway, 119 Nev. at 252–53, 71 P.3d at 506–07 (stating that a claim reasonably
5 available to the petitioner during the statutory time period did not constitute good cause to
6 excuse a delay in filing). A claim that is itself procedurally barred cannot constitute good
7 cause. Riker, 121 Nev. at 235, 112 P.3d at 1077; see also Edwards v. Carpenter, 529 U.S. 446,
8 453 120 S. Ct. 1587, 1592 (2000).

9 In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show “‘not merely that the errors of 10 [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and
11 substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional
12 dimensions.’” Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United 13 States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)).

14 Here, Petitioner does not even allege, much less demonstrate, good cause or prejudice.
15 Petitioner has not shown that impediment external to his defense prevented him from filing
16 his Petition in a timely manner or that his claims were not available at the time of default.
17 Accordingly, Petitioner has not shown good cause or prejudice sufficient to overcome his
18 procedural bars, and the Petition is denied.

19 IV. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

20 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing. It reads:

- 21 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all
22 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an
23 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be 24 discharged or committed to the custody of a person other than the 25 respondent unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
- 26 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not 27 entitled to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall
28 dismiss the petition without a hearing.
3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

1 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without
2 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Marshall v. State, 110 Nev.
3 1328, 885 P.2d 603 (1994); Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002). A
4 defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by specific factual
5 allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual allegations are repelled
6 by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; see also Hargrove v. State, 100
7 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking post-conviction
8 relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or repelled by the
9 record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it
10 existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230 (2002).

11 Here, all of Petitioner’s claims are either time-barred or waived and are thus subject to 12 summary denial. Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074. Because all of Petitioner’s claims
13 are procedurally barred, his claims may be resolved without expanding the record and no
14 evidentiary hearing is necessary. Therefore, Petitioner’s request for an evidentiary hearing is 15 denied.

16 V. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO COUNSEL

17 Under the U.S. Constitution, the Sixth Amendment provides no right to counsel in post-
18 conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 2566
19 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the Nevada
20 Supreme Court similarly observed that “[t]he Nevada Constitution...does not guarantee a right
21 to counsel in post-conviction proceedings, as we interpret the Nevada Constitution’s right to
22 counsel provision as being coextensive with the Sixth Amendment to the United States
23 Constitution.” McKague specifically held that with the exception of NRS 34.820(1)(a)
24 (entitling appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one does not have
25 “any constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all” in post-conviction proceedings. Id. at 26 164, 912 P.2d at 258.

27 The Nevada Legislature has, however, given courts the discretion to appoint post-
28 conviction counsel so long as “the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and

1 the petition is not dismissed summarily.” NRS 34.750. “The statute sets forth a non-exhaustive
2 list of factors that the district court ‘may consider’ in deciding whether to appoint
3 postconviction counsel: the severity of the consequences that the petitioner faces, the difficulty
4 of the issues presented, the petitioner’s ability to comprehend the proceedings, and the 5 necessity of counsel to proceed with discovery.” Renteria-Novoa v. State, 133 Nev. 75, 76,
6 391 P.3d 760, 761 (2017). Accordingly, under NRS 34.750, it is clear that the Court has
7 discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel.

8 Pursuant to NRS 34.750, Petitioner has not demonstrated that counsel should be
9 appointed. First, the issues are not difficult as all of Petitioner’s claims are procedurally barred.
10 Second, there has been no indication that Petitioner is unable to comprehend the proceedings.
11 Unlike the petitioner in Renteria-Novoa who faced difficulties understanding the English
12 language, here Petitioner has failed to demonstrate any inability to understand these
13 proceedings. Finally, counsel is not necessary to proceed with further discovery in this case.
14 Petitioner has failed to demonstrate that there is a need for additional discovery, let alone
15 counsel’s assistance to conduct such investigation.

16 VI. PETITIONER’S REQUEST FOR DISCOVERY AND MOTION TO SHOW
17 CAUSE IS PREMATURE

18 Petitioner’s request to conduct discovery is suitable only for denial as it is premature
19 and unsupported by a showing of good cause.

20 NRS 34.780(2) reads:

21 After the writ has been granted and a date set for the hearing, a party may invoke
22 any method of discovery available under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure
23 if, and to the extent that, the judge or justice for good cause shown grants leave
to do so.

24 (Emphasis added). A writ is not “granted” for discovery purposes until this
25 Court determines that there is a need for an evidentiary hearing. NRS 34.770(3).

26 This Court has yet to grant any petition or set an evidentiary hearing in this matter. As
27 such, any request to conduct discovery is premature. Moreover, this Court lacks the authority
28 to order discovery unless an evidentiary hearing is required. Because the petition is summarily denied, and no evidentiary hearing is necessary, there is no need for discovery and the motion was prematurely filed. Accordingly, Petitioner's Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause is denied.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing shall be, and it is, hereby DENIED.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 AM

THIS MATTER having come on for hearing before the above-entitled Court on the 17th day of February 2022, neither party being present, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On June 22, 2015, Petitioner was charged by way of information with Count 1 – First Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony – NRS 200.310, 200.320) and Count 2 – Attempt Sexual Assault (Category B Felony – 200.364, 200.366, 193.330). On June 30, 2015, Petitioner appeared for Initial Arraignment and pleaded guilty to both counts pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford. 400 U.S. 25, 91 S. Ct. 160 (1970).

1 On October 13, 2015, Petitioner was sentenced as follows: as to Count 1, sixty (60) to
2 one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections and as to Count 2,
3 sixty (60) to one hundred eighty (180) months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, with
4 Count 2 to run consecutive to Count 1, for a total aggregate sentence of one hundred twenty
5 (120) months to three hundred sixty (360) months. Petitioner was credited with 207 days for
6 time served.

7 On December 3, 2021, Petitioner filed the present Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.
8 On January 12, 2022, Petitioner filed the instant Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order
9 to Show Cause. The State filed its Response to Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus,
10 Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of
11 Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing on February 8, 2022. This matter came before
12 this Court on February 17, 2022, and the Court rules as follows:

13 ANALYSIS

14 I. THE PETITION IS TIME-BARRED

15 The Petition is time-barred pursuant to NRS 34.726(1):

16 Unless there is good cause shown for delay, a petition that
17 challenges the validity of a judgment or sentence must be filed
18 within 1 year of the entry of the judgment of conviction or, if an 19 appeal has been taken from the judgment, within 1 year after the 20 Supreme Court issues its remittitur. For the purposes of this
21 subsection, good cause for delay exists if the petitioner
22 demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court:

- 23 (a) That the delay is not the fault of the petitioner; and
- 24 (b) That dismissal of the petition as untimely will
25 unduly prejudice the petitioner.

26 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that NRS 34.726 should be construed by its plain
27 meaning. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 873–74, 34 P.3d 519, 528 (2001). As per the 28 language of the statute, the one-year time bar proscribed by NRS 34.726 begins to run from the date the judgment of conviction is filed or a remittitur from a timely direct appeal is filed.
Dickerson v. State, 114 Nev. 1084, 1087, 967 P.2d 1132, 1133–34 (1998).

The one-year time limit for preparing petitions for post-conviction relief under NRS
34.726 is strictly applied. In Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002),

1 the Nevada Supreme Court rejected a habeas petition that was filed two (2) days late despite
2 evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed
3 the petition within the one-year time limit.

4 Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that the district court has a duty to
5 consider whether a defendant's post-conviction petition claims are procedurally barred. State
6 v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005). The
7 Riker Court found that “[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-
8 conviction habeas petitions is mandatory,” noting:

9 Habeas corpus petitions that are filed many years after conviction
10 are an unreasonable burden on the criminal justice system. The 11 necessity for a workable system dictates that there must exist a time when a criminal conviction is final.

12 Id. Additionally, the Court noted that procedural bars “cannot be ignored [by the district court]
13 when properly raised by the State.” Id. at 233, 112 P.3d at 1075. The Nevada Supreme Court
14 has granted no discretion to the district courts regarding whether to apply the statutory
15 procedural bars; the rules must be applied.

16 This position was reaffirmed in State v. Greene, 129 Nev. 559, 307 P.3d 322 (2013).
17 There the Court ruled that the defendant’s petition was “untimely, successive, and an abuse of 18 the writ” and that the defendant failed to show good cause and actual prejudice. Id. at 324, 307
19 P.3d at 326. Accordingly, the Court reversed the district court and ordered the defendant’s
20 petition dismissed pursuant to the procedural bars. Id. at 324, 307 P.3d at 322–23. The
21 procedural bars are so fundamental to the post-conviction process that they must be applied
22 by this Court even if not raised by the State. See Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074.

23 Here, Petitioner’s Judgment of Conviction was filed on October 15, 2015. Thus, the 24 present petition is untimely by more than five years. Barring a showing of good cause and
25 prejudice, which the Court addresses below, the instant Petition must be denied.

1 II. PETITIONER’S CLAIMS ARE WAIVED PURSUANT TO NRS 34.810

2 NRS 34.810(1) reads:

3 The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

4 (a) The petitioner’s conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty
5 but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation
6 that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the
7 plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

8 (b) The petitioner’s conviction was the result of a trial and the 9 grounds for the petition could have been:

10 . . .

11 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of habeas
12 corpus or postconviction relief.

13 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that “challenges to the validity of a guilty plea and
14 claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must first be pursued in post-
15 conviction proceedings . . . [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a direct appeal must be
16 pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in subsequent proceedings.”
17 Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994) (emphasis added)
18 (disapproved on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 P.2d 222 (1999)). “A
19 court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been
20 presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the 21 claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner.” Evans v. State,
22 117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001).

23 Here, Petitioner pleaded guilty pursuant to Alford and none of Petitioner’s claims are 24 based on an allegation that the plea was entered involuntarily or unknowingly or that the plea
25 was entered without effective assistance of counsel. Thus, Petitioner’s claims are outside of 26 the scope of a habeas Petition.
27

III. PETITIONER HAS NOT SHOWN GOOD CAUSE OR PREJUDICE SUFFICIENT TO OVERCOME HIS PROCEDURAL BARS

To avoid procedural default, under NRS 34.726, a defendant has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate good cause for his failure to present his claim in earlier proceedings or to otherwise comply with the statutory requirements, and that he will be unduly prejudiced if the petition is dismissed. NRS 34.726(1)(a) (emphasis added); see Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 959–60, 860 P.2d 710, 715–16 (1993); Phelps v. Nevada Dep’t of Prisons, 104 Nev. 656, 659, 764 P.2d 1303, 1305 (1988). “A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner.” Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646–47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001) (emphasis added).

To show good cause for delay under NRS 34.726(1), a petitioner must demonstrate the following: (1) “[t]hat the delay is not the fault of the petitioner” and (2) that the petitioner will be “unduly prejudice[d]” if the petition is dismissed as untimely. NRS 34.726. To meet the first requirement, “a petitioner must show that an impediment external to the defense prevented him or her from complying with the state procedural default rules.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (emphasis added). “A qualifying impediment might be shown where the factual or legal basis for a claim was not reasonably available at the time of default.” Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525 (2003) (emphasis added). The Court continued, “appellants cannot attempt to manufacture good cause[.]” Id. at 621, 81 P.3d at 526. To find good cause there must be a “substantial reason; one that affords a legal excuse.” Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 506 (2003) (quoting Colley v. State, 105 Nev. 235, 236, 773 P.2d 1229, 1230 (1989)). Examples of good cause include interference by State officials and the previous unavailability of a legal or factual basis. See State v. Huebler, 128 Nev. Adv. Op. 19, 275 P.3d 91, 95 (2012). Clearly, any delay in the filing of the petition must not be the fault of the petitioner. NRS 34.726(1)(a).

1 Further, a petitioner raising good cause to excuse procedural bars must do so within a
2 reasonable time after the alleged good cause arises. See Pellegrini, 117 Nev. at 869–70, 34
3 P.3d at 525–26 (holding that the time bar in NRS 34.726 applies to successive petitions); see
4 generally Hathaway, 119 Nev. at 252–53, 71 P.3d at 506–07 (stating that a claim reasonably
5 available to the petitioner during the statutory time period did not constitute good cause to
6 excuse a delay in filing). A claim that is itself procedurally barred cannot constitute good
7 cause. Riker, 121 Nev. at 235, 112 P.3d at 1077; see also Edwards v. Carpenter, 529 U.S. 446,
8 453 120 S. Ct. 1587, 1592 (2000).

9 In order to establish prejudice, the defendant must show “‘not merely that the errors of 10 [the proceedings] created possibility of prejudice, but that they worked to his actual and
11 substantial disadvantage, in affecting the state proceedings with error of constitutional
12 dimensions.’” Hogan v. Warden, 109 Nev. 952, 960, 860 P.2d 710, 716 (1993) (quoting United 13 States v. Frady, 456 U.S. 152, 170, 102 S. Ct. 1584, 1596 (1982)).

14 Here, Petitioner does not even allege, much less demonstrate, good cause or prejudice.
15 Petitioner has not shown that impediment external to his defense prevented him from filing
16 his Petition in a timely manner or that his claims were not available at the time of default.
17 Accordingly, Petitioner has not shown good cause or prejudice sufficient to overcome his
18 procedural bars, and the Petition is denied.

19 IV. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

20 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing. It reads:

- 21 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all
22 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an
23 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be 24 discharged or committed to the custody of a person other than the 25 respondent unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
- 26 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not 27 entitled to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall
28 dismiss the petition without a hearing.
3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

1 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without
2 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Marshall v. State, 110 Nev.
3 1328, 885 P.2d 603 (1994); Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002). A
4 defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by specific factual
5 allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual allegations are repelled
6 by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; see also Hargrove v. State, 100
7 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking post-conviction
8 relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or repelled by the
9 record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it
10 existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230 (2002).

11 Here, all of Petitioner’s claims are either time-barred or waived and are thus subject to 12 summary denial. Riker, 121 Nev. at 231, 112 P.3d at 1074. Because all of Petitioner’s claims
13 are procedurally barred, his claims may be resolved without expanding the record and no
14 evidentiary hearing is necessary. Therefore, Petitioner’s request for an evidentiary hearing is 15 denied.

16 V. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO COUNSEL

17 Under the U.S. Constitution, the Sixth Amendment provides no right to counsel in post-
18 conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 2566
19 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the Nevada
20 Supreme Court similarly observed that “[t]he Nevada Constitution...does not guarantee a right
21 to counsel in post-conviction proceedings, as we interpret the Nevada Constitution’s right to
22 counsel provision as being coextensive with the Sixth Amendment to the United States
23 Constitution.” McKague specifically held that with the exception of NRS 34.820(1)(a)
24 (entitling appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one does not have
25 “any constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all” in post-conviction proceedings. Id. at 26 164, 912 P.2d at 258.

27 The Nevada Legislature has, however, given courts the discretion to appoint post-
28 conviction counsel so long as “the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and

1 the petition is not dismissed summarily.” NRS 34.750. “The statute sets forth a non-exhaustive
2 list of factors that the district court ‘may consider’ in deciding whether to appoint
3 postconviction counsel: the severity of the consequences that the petitioner faces, the difficulty
4 of the issues presented, the petitioner’s ability to comprehend the proceedings, and the 5 necessity of counsel to proceed with discovery.” Renteria-Novoa v. State, 133 Nev. 75, 76,
6 391 P.3d 760, 761 (2017). Accordingly, under NRS 34.750, it is clear that the Court has
7 discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel.

8 Pursuant to NRS 34.750, Petitioner has not demonstrated that counsel should be
9 appointed. First, the issues are not difficult as all of Petitioner’s claims are procedurally barred.
10 Second, there has been no indication that Petitioner is unable to comprehend the proceedings.
11 Unlike the petitioner in Renteria-Novoa who faced difficulties understanding the English
12 language, here Petitioner has failed to demonstrate any inability to understand these
13 proceedings. Finally, counsel is not necessary to proceed with further discovery in this case.
14 Petitioner has failed to demonstrate that there is a need for additional discovery, let alone
15 counsel’s assistance to conduct such investigation.

16 VI. PETITIONER’S REQUEST FOR DISCOVERY AND MOTION TO SHOW 17 CAUSE IS PREMATURE

18 Petitioner’s request to conduct discovery is suitable only for denial as it is premature
19 and unsupported by a showing of good cause.

20 NRS 34.780(2) reads:

21 After the writ has been granted and a date set for the hearing, a party may invoke
22 any method of discovery available under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure
23 if, and to the extent that, the judge or justice for good cause shown grants leave
to do so.

24 (Emphasis added). A writ is not “granted” for discovery purposes until this
25 Court determines that there is a need for an evidentiary hearing. NRS 34.770(3).

26 This Court has yet to grant any petition or set an evidentiary hearing in this matter. As
27 such, any request to conduct discovery is premature. Moreover, this Court lacks the authority
28 to order discovery unless an evidentiary hearing is required. Because the petition is summarily denied, and no evidentiary hearing is necessary, there is no need for discovery and the motion was prematurely filed. Accordingly, Petitioner's Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause is denied.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Motion for Discovery and Motion for Order to Show Cause, and Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Request for an Evidentiary Hearing shall be, and it is, hereby DENIED.

ARGUMENT

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

"INVALID LAWS"

That due to the very specific nature of the pleadings now before this court. "INVALID LAWS"; "LACK OF SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION" the statement of the case is "BOVINE SCATOLOGY; SAMANTIC PRESIDITATION". However, moving forward the Appellant/Accused does hereby adopt the states statement of the case as iterated in their states opposition to Appellant/Accused pro per motions to dismiss for lack of subject matter jurisdiction, Errata to Appellant/Accused motion to dismiss for Lack of Subject matter Jurisdiction/ motion for show of proof; motion to dismiss due to invalid laws; Fraud amounting to lack of subject matter jurisdiction, motion for discovery/motion for an order to show cause, Habeas corpus petition.

(I)

ARGUMENT.

As iterated in Appellants writ of Habeas corpus post conv. A conviction based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction a petitioner can challenge said conviction years down the road. This court should not only allow this issue to move forward, this Appellant Humbly Requests this court to also appoint counsel.

THIS COURT MUST CONDUCT A HEARING TO DETERMINE WHEATHER SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION IS/OR WAS LAWFULLY HAD BY THIS COURT AS iterated in both "motions to dismiss," The "Errata," "Smoking GUN" "caveat"

1 The Appellant/ACCUSED has submitted several claims, issues by which it
2 is alleged that this court was/is deprived of, divested of subject matter
3 Jurisdiction.

4 This Appellant/Accused has made/or put forth a "PRIMA FACIE SHOWING,"
5 which should be understood to simply be, a sufficient showing of possible
6 merit to "warrant a full exploration by the district court" That, in light
7 of the documents submitted with the pleadings, should appear, demonstrate 8 reasonable likelihood that the pleadings satisfies any stringent 9 requirements for filing the foregoing pleadings. See THE CONSTITUTION OF 10 NEVADA (CONST OF NEV) ARTICLE (ART) 1 § 8

11 Wherefore, due process demands that this District Court conduct
12 such a hearing, to allow the Appellant/Accused to "establish 'any' 'fact',
13 which protects the Appellant/Accused. See Cleburne v Cleburne Living Center
14 Inc, 473 U.S. 432, 439 (1989); Rochin v. California 342 U.S. 165, 169 (1952),
15 CONST OF NEV ART 1 § 8

16 Additionally, the Appellant/Accused specifically articulates that, where 17 the CONST OF NEV, provides a greater protection of the Appellant/Accused 18 rights as to the United States Constitution, and its Amendments;
19 the Appellant/Accused does seek, and respectfully request that He be so
20 protected. See/compare. Wilson v State, 123 Nev 587, 595 (Nev 2007)

21 The Appellant/Accused's pleadings and Exhibits submitted and filed
22 with this court, require that a "Fact Finding" hearing be conducted, as the 23 Supreme Court of Nevada (Sup CrT of Nev.), is not a fact finding tribunal.
24 See. Zugel v Miller, 99 Nev. 100, —, 659 p.2d 296, 297 (Nev. 1983); and 25 Zobrist v Sheriff, 96 Nev. 625, 614 p.2d 538 (1980)

26 That, without adequate, full, and fair presentation of the "FACTS," 27 it is wholly impossible for the Sup CrT of Nev to be in a position, to 28 render a full, fair, and adequate ~~180~~ Appellant review as to "FACTS" not

1 fully developed in the district court, due to the Appellate court not being
2 a "FACT FINDING TRIBUNAL" Zugel, 99 NEV 2d 659 p.2d at 297

3 Additionally, the sup. crt. of NEV cannot review, or presume facts
4 etc from a silent record compare: Boyle v Alabama, 395 U.S. 238, 242
5 (1969).

6 Further, this Appellant/Accused has cited to decisions of the UNITED
7 STATES SUPREME COURT (U.S. SUP CRT), that this court should be
8 mindful of the submitted pleadings, and should be mindful of making
9 a decision that is contrary to, or involves an unreasonable application
10 of, clearly established federal law, as determined by the Supreme Court, or 11 based on an unreasonable determination of the "FACTS" see:

12 Williams v Taylor 529 U.S. 362, 405 (2000)

13 Again, the Appellant/Accused has submitted "PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE,"
14 exhibits that "does present claims, issues, Allegations," that the NRS
15 are invalid, unconstitutional, and/or are unlawful. To which this Appellant/
16 Accused must be permitted to establish as a fact. that, the plaintiff/state
17 /Respondant has not in any manner presented contradictory evidence thereto.

18 CONST OF NEV ART 1 § 8

19 wherefore, this Appellant/Accused is entitled to relief Rubio v STATE
20 194 p.3d 1224, 1233 (NEV 2008)

21 (II) THE DUE PROCESS CLAUSE OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEVADA
22 ARTICLE 1 § 8, MANDATES THAT THIS COURT CONDUCT A HEARING THAT 23 ALLOW THE APPELLANT/ACCUSED TO ESTABLISH "ANY FACT" THAT 24 PROTECTS HIM.

25 The due process clause requires that a person have the 26 opportunity to "ESTABLISH 'ANY FACT'" which would be "protection to Him"
27 or HIS property. Due process clause of the CONST OF NEV ART 1 § 8, not 28 only requires that persons shall be properly brought into court.

1 (Subject matter Jurisdiction), yet that he shall have opportunity to
2 "ESTABLISH 'ANY FACT'" which according to usages of common law or 3 provisions of the constitution would be protection to him or his property.

9 The Appellant/Accused by virtue of the "PROVISIONS" of the CONST OF NEV
10 ART 3 § 1, has articulated that the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) were/are 11 derived from an UNCONSTITUTIONAL body, entity, commission, group, etc.
12 which violated the separation of departments; separation of powers. In 13 that Justices of the Supreme Court charged under ART 6 § 4 of the CONST OF NEV,
14 were performing duties, functions, powers of the legislature (LEGIS OF NEV),

20 The Appellant/Accused by virtue of the "PROVISIONS" of the CONST OF NEV ART
21 4 § 18, has alleged that the 48TH session of the LEGIS OF NEV 1957, in 22 "ALLEGEDLY" passing Senate Bill No. 2 "THE REVISION BILL" TO "ENACT"
23 the NRS, failed to comply with the mandate's, requirements in ART

20 skulduggeryish argument as concerns the HISTORIC decision, opinion
21 of the court - by Howley, C.J. in State V Rogers, 10 NEV 250, 261
22 (1875)

23 The argument is inextricable, and has become simply a cookie
24 cutter argument, that apparently all chief deputy district attorneys
25 are aptly cutting from, which BOVINE SCATOLOGY argument is a
26 use of SAMANTIC PRESIDITYTATION equaling B.S. & word magic 27 that completely mistakes the LAW; the CONST OF NEV., again

9 departments of Government, CONST OF NEV ART 3 § 1

10 The Accused/Appellant strongly believes it to be utterly!! propostorous 11 that, a scholarly person such as your honor, can not see, discern the

15 once again, The Accused/Appellant asks what body of Government under

19 (III) EDUCATION OF THE COURT

20 The Accused/Appellant has provided this court with the Authority of Law,
21 written by Charles A. Weisman, case law index, in an effort to apprise
22 the court of the source of the Accused/Appellant information, and case
23 Law; that the Accused/Appellant pleadings are not spurious, nor random 24 words of a legal dictionary, or a smattering of random court cases.
25 it is highly intelligible and completely cognizable before this court.

28 wherefore, based upon the above and foregoing, The Defendant hereby

- 1 prays, and respectfully requests that this court will:
- 2 (1) Deny the States Opposition;
- 3 (2) Allow time for additional discovery;
- 4 (3) Hold a "SHOW CAUSE HEARING"
- 5 (4) Determine whether this court has or had Lawful subject matter

- 7 (5) Determine whether the NRS are "CONSTITUTIONALLY valid pursuant to

- 9 (6) Was the CONST OF NEV violated by the formation/creation of the
- 10 STATUTE REVISION COMMISSION, with the three sitting Justices of the
- 11 SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA being on the commission, performing legislative
- 12 duties and functions;
- 13 (7) Has fraud, usurpation, tyranny, malfeasance, nonfeasance and/or
- 14 MISFEASANCE IN PUBLIC OFFICE been committed by past or present members

5 always argue that NRS are not the laws of Nevada, yet are only prima

11 Counsel argues NRS 378.255(3) which states:
12 management and retention of records; provision of micro filming and digital

19 LEGAL OR RESEARCH VALUE TO WARRANT THEIR FURTHER RETENTION.
20 one of the biggest questions in this case is where is the original true/correct
21 S.B. no 2, 1957. "THE REVISION BILL"? The CONSTITUTIONALLY mandated officer/
22 person is not in possession of any acts passed in Nevada. which is secretary of 23 state. NRS 378.255(3) indicates that S.B. No 2 1957 is of NO LEGAL VALUE so
24 therefore NRS 378.255 as well as NRS's challenged by Defendant are of NO LEGAL
25 VALUE you cannot have it both ways. see CONSTITUTIONAL ARTS 20
26 (2) claiming that the NRS are not the laws. Defendant respectfully requests
27 this court to look at STATE OF NEVADA v JUSTIN Langford case no.

10 It is the duty of an attorney to employ only such means as are consistent

15 FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

16 statutory exceptions to the Freedom of Information Act [FOIA] requirement 17 that a government agency may not withhold or limit the availability of any 18 record or to be narrowly construed, and burden is on the agency to 19 justify its actions.
20 The true & correct documents cannot be produced as the office of the 21 secretary of state is not in control of said documents that would prove 22 or disprove whether defendant/accused sentence is illegal/unconstitutional
23 or not. mere conjecture, & reference is not enough.

1 REITERATE SECOND 2nd CONTRADICTION

2 The Defendant/Accused would point out the following argument, §
3 supported by Evidence. See attached Exhibit 2 herein.

5 AS previous iterated state argues that NRS 171.106 NRS 53 amended
6 07/13/1993 is by which this Declaration of Warrant/Summons is made.

8 A sworn document by a peace officer pursuant to a statute/Law
9 that is an illegal, unlawfull, unconstitutional statute/Law.

10 This Defendant/Accused argues that swearing a Declaration
11 under the pains & penalties of perjury, that to be true pursuant 12 to a Law that is illegal, unlawfull, unconstitutionally void, of 13 ^{any} ~~no~~ authority is in fact an act of fraud upon this court. in violation
14 of 28 U.S.C.A. § 1746. & 18 U.S.C.A. § 1621.

~~REDACTED~~
17 Defendant/Accused contends that state has failed to produce any 18 significant evidence to support their position, or to disprove the 19 Defendant/Accused position; thus this Defendant/Accused respectfully
20 request this court to follow the PARAMOUNT LAW CONST OF NEV (1864)
21 as when a statute comes into conflict with the CONSTITUTION the 22 statute must yield.

23 Appellant/Defendantant further points court to attached exhibit 3:

24 pag 4 Lines 10 through 18. Counsel for state admits NRS 171.106 & NRS

25 171.020 were enacted by the 48th session of the Nevada Legislature which

26 enacted into Law the Nevada Revised Statutes. through Senate Bill no 2

27 1957. you can not "Pork Belly" Laws one Act i.e. Bill for one Law. in

28 exhibit 3 Counsel admits (2) two NRS's were enacted as law under one Bill/

1 act.

2 further more each law is to have the enacting clause upon its face. As well as
3 justices of the new sup crt being part of the statute revision commission.
4 was/is a violation of separation of powers.

5 THIS COURT HAS INHERENT AUTHORITY TO 6 MODIFY, SUSPEND OR OTHERWISE CORRECT ITS 7 OWN SENTENCE.

8 The inherent power to correct an illegal sentence, like the inherent power to 9 modify sentences based on mistakes about a defendants' record, must 10 necessarily include the power to entertain a motion to correct an illegal 11 sentence.

12 STATUTORY AUTHORITY.

13 This court may correct an illegal sentence at any time. NRS 176.555

14
15 THIS COURT WAS WITHOUT JURISDICTION TO IMPOSE SENTENCE/PUNISHMENT
16 IN VIOLATION OF U.S. CONST AMEND 1; 5; 6; 8; 14 U.S. CONST ARTS 136 cl. 2;
17 1.39, cl. 3; 633 2 & 3 NEW CONST ART 138, cl. 5; 331; 4317; 636; 6311; 1532;
18 1633 1/2 4323

20 This court Allegedly gets its Authority to impose a punishment/sentence on a 21 criminal defendant that Allegedly committed a crime within its county, And 22 that Allegedly comes from NRS 171.010, However if you look at NRS 171.010
23 its no more than a bunch of words without any meaning or Authority behind it.

28 Librarian's Response, what was sent, letter From Justin odell/langford

1 v. Justin Odell Langford case no C-14-296556-1
2 where all previous versions of NRS 171.010 & 171.020 and bills that created
3 both statutes. Response showing the statutes were repealed and never 4 added to other chapters or sections in the NRS. This court will also
5 find CL 1929 §§ 10705 & 10707; RL 1912, § 6908 the versions of NRS 171.010
6 & 171.020 prior to the repeal done by Senate Bill no 2 (1957), which is 7 the Senate Bill that created the NRS. What this court will not find 8 attached is a Senate or Assembly Bill creating NRS 171.010 & 171.020 during 1957 or 9 afterwards in proper manner.
10 Therefore NRS 171.010, NRS 171.020 are invalid as they were never passed
11 into Law properly & by a proper Bill, as required by CONST OF NEV ART
12 4 § 23 NRS 171.010's legislative history was last listed as CL 1929, § 10705
13 which was repealed by Senate bill no 2 1957 see motion to correct illegal 14 sentence exhibit "3" for more evidence of statutes prior to 1957 being 15 repealed, therefore NRS 171.010 & NRS 171.020 are invalid and deprive this 16 court of Authority/Jurisdiction to impose punishment.
17 As demonstrated above, the sentence imposed is/was an "illegal sentence"
18 and as such, the Appellant/Accused requests this court to issue an order for the 19 immediate release from custody and all aspects of punishment removed 20 from the defendant. As court lacked Jurisdiction to impose any kind
21 of punishment on the Appellant/Accused.

22 DENIAL OF DUE PROCESS

23 on December 27, 2021 court gave an order denying Defendant/Accused of HIS due 24 process rights, by denying HIS motion to correct an illegal sentence without 25 an opposition by the State. "It is not the job of Judges to make up arguments and 26 then to purport to rule on them... our appearance of neutrality is damaged when 27 we step outside our role and give a helping hand to one of the parties see Buldras v

2 federal claims presented to them" CITY OF AUBURN V QUEST CORP, 260 F.3d 1160 (9th Cir

4 The court stated the following:

5 Nevada Revised Statutes do not have the same requirements as laws of Nevada because they 6 are not Laws enacted by the Legislature. instead, The Nevada Revised statutes are 7 previously enacted Laws which have been classified, codified, and annotated by the 8 legislative Counsel see NRS 220.120. further, the content requirements for the Nevada
9 Revised statutes, as laid out in NRS 220.110, do not require the enacting clause to be 10 republished in them. Therefore Defendant's argument is without merit. Furthermore, this 11 court had subject matter jurisdiction over Defendant's sentence because there is no
12 requirement that the enacting clause must be on the charging documents. STATE V ROGERS, 10

CONCLUSION

2 This is filed to show this court's attempt to deny defendant/appellant due process.

3 and he asks the following questions:

4 (1) Where is seal of state on Act of 48th Session of Nev. Legis.

5 (2) Where is History or Yeas or Nays vote on this Bill.

6 (3) Where is by ballot vote of people/citizens of state to enact the NRS.

8 based on the facts ~~presented~~ presented in the motions filed by defendant, the lack 9 of support by this court's clear error, no opposition filed by state as they
10 have none to give that is supported by case law or the constitution.

11 The dismissal should be reversed, an evidentiary hearing should be granted
12 & Held,

13 Since the information/complaint is where court receives S.M. & if the law is 14 illegal, invalid, unconstitutional i.e. NRS defendant was convicted pursuant to.
15 Further if judges wrote the laws NRS. They are void.

CLERK OF THE COURT

NARRATIVE

This Narrative is based upon 4 1/2 years plus legal work, research, due diligence and facts gathering by two inmates incarcerated in the Nevada Dept. of Corrections at Southern Desert Correctional Center at Indian Springs Nevada.

"THE DISCOVERY OF THE BIGGEST LEGAL FIND IN NEVADA HISTORY", was made by Curtis L. Downing an Inmate paralegal/Assistant and Gary W. Walters an Inmate Advocate in their Quest to pursue their "ACTUAL Innocence".

The writers herein in reading and reviewing over 200 plus Case laws that were Shepardized, and reading a Mentored book, "THE AUTHORITY OF LAW" written by Charles Weisman, a legal Scholar from Minnesota.

The writers of this Factual narrative, then pursued reviewing and reading and understanding "THE NEVADA STATE CONSTITUTION", After reading, reviewing Collecting information, the Constitution it's Articles and Remourous Sections were violated, than looking into all the (NRS) Statutes, and documents referencing to them it became very obvious, something was "VERY WRONG".

The writers, turned their full attention to the commencement of their Fact Finding mission.

The writers realized they had a huge discovery.

"ACRIMINAL ENTERPRISE" After 56 years had passed, these two writers has made this hidden "STEALTH FRAUD" designed to Cover up mutiple Jon and/or Jane Does Corruption, thus this all set the stage for the establishment of the Rogue State of Nevada's KANGAROO COURTS."

The writers are "Reformers" Curtis L. Downing and Gary W. Walters and Stands for Legitimate Government.

The writers herein, shall now make herein this narrative the presentment of their factual findings and the cited statements and tracking of the "STEALTH FRAUD", "USURPATTON", "TYRANNY", "CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE", "ABUSE OF POWER", "MALFEASANCE", "MISSFEASANCE" and "NONFEASANCE OF Public Duty and office".

The writers shall give in depth details in this narrative, the accumulation of documents and exhibits, that were derived from an envoking and use of the "FREEDOM INFORMATION Act" facts gathing to make a "Full Proof" and "Show of Proof" herein with the document attachments.

The writers took the "ETHICAL and LOGICAL APPROACH", to their fact finding and in the attached exhibit 1A herein, the Commencement of the Stealth Fraud will be shown, starting with the Nev. Legis. 1951, 1953, 1955, 1957,

A non-Judicial officer, an Attorney named Russell W. McDonald a member than of the State bar.

There is no Doubt, that the Comingling that the Constitutional violations Commenced From the mandated Separation of Powers, i.e., "The Legislative Branch", The Executive Branch" and the Judicial Branch. Now, "ETHICALLY" you cannot have (3) Sitting Judges (1) Milton Badt, (2) Edgar Eather, (3) Charles M. Merrill, they deliberately and willfully Comingled their Judicial Separation of Powers, and became involved in Law making, Law writing, publication, Sales and distribution of the unlawful "Invalid Laws" the NRS Statute Books.

A Lawyer and (3) three sitting Judges, an officer of the Courts, all (4) Four of them writing and making laws that no doubt, they are also triers or taking Power, authority, Jurisdiction over deciding Judgements or trial outcome of Cases in their administering of the Laws that they participated and/or wrote.

The two writers "DISCOVERED" the apparent stealth Fraud and other very serious violations that was done by these known "GRIFTERS" group that deliberately perpetrated Fraud upon the Citizens

Now they were given this power and Authority and duties two years before 1955, and prior to 1957; of the actual tracking of the Acts of the 47th Session of the Assembly and 48th Session of the Assembly of the Legislature Adopting and enacting the illegal Nevada Revised Statutes;

This premeditated "Stealth Fraud" is the beginning of the established "The Criminal Enterprise" monies from the sale of these published NRS Statute Books were going directly into the hands and Control of the (3) three Sitting Judges, Badt, Eather, Merrill, and the Lawyer Russell McDonald.

To further Control their "Criminal Enterprise", the (4) four of them "illegally Copyrighted Public Government Documents"

"A Copyright most generally refers to a private right", the exhibit 1B, The Nevada Revised Statutes is a result of the enactment, by the 45th Session of the Legislature of the State of Nevada, under Chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1951; and Charged the Statute Revision Commission and authorized the Commission i.e. (3) three Sitting Judges that were Corrupt, and the Lawyer to make a Comprehensive revision in "All Laws" of the State of Nevada.

These (3) Sitting Judges and the Lawyer at their own will they chose not the will of the people / citizens;

they did what "changes," deletions" re-writes, add ons; take aways etc, knowing for well that the people, Citizens of the State knew absoutly nothing of all the Stealth
Fraud that had Commenced; a// Contrary to and Contravening the provisions that were mandatory and Commanded of the "Paramont Law i.e. The Nevada Constitution.

The writers then reviewed exhibit 1c, titled "Legislative Counsel's Preface";

In that document it States that;

Accordingly Nevada Revised Statutes in type written form, was Submitted to the 48th Session of the Legislature in the form of a Bill, providing for its enactment "as Laws" of the State of Nevada;

This Bill, Senate Bill No; 2 (hereinafter referred to as in the Preface in the attached document exhibit 1c as the ("Revision Bill") was passed without amendment or decenting vote, and on January
25th / 1957, was approved by the Corrupted
Governor Charles H. Russell.

On July 1st /1963, The Statute Revision Commission was "ABOLISHED", and it's powers, duties and functions were than transferred to the Newly established Legislative Counsel of the State of Nevada.

The writers figured out that this was all done to Conceal the Stealth Fraud and protect the ongoing suspected "Criminal Enterprise", that the Lawyer and (3) Sitting Judges and other Jon and/or Jane Does etc "others" were engaged in, and their illegal Cover up of their Self dealings, Money Laundering Scheme derived from the illegal Copy rights, Publications and their Sales of Public Government documents in Books printed, they had illegally written known as (NRS) Nevada Revised Statute Books.

They the Statute Books contain misrepresented unconstitutional "Invalid Laws" that contained no mandated and Commanded Constitutional prerequisites or provisions of the enacting Clause upon their face, that "ALL LAWS" shall or must have upon their face or they are "not valid or void".

To Continue their "Stealth Fraud", these (3)-three Sitting Judges and the Lawyer wrote (NRS) 220.110, 220.120, 220.170(3) etc, etc, to Cover up their Self dealings, Stealth Fraud "Criminal Enterprise".

The writers noticed that in exhibit 1c titled "Scope And Effect of Nevada Revised Statutes", which states that, the Nevada Revised Statutes, including the Supplementary and replacement pages, Constitutes all of the Statute Laws of Nevada of a general nature enacted by the legislature, "ALL STATUTES" of a General nature enacted before the regular legislative Session of 1957, have been repealed.

If the writers are led to believe that "ALL STATUTES" of a General nature enacted before the regular Session of 1957, were repealed, than Chapter 248 Statutes of Nevada 1955, was repealed; than does that not mean that the Statute Revision Commission was conducting and doing illegal acts and business long after 1955 and 1957?

Chapter 220 Statutes appear to have been repealed also prior to 1957.

All of the Statutes appeared now to have been repealed, then would it not bring into Conflict all the Commencements and derivities of the Nevada Revised Statutes?

The questions than present itself, to the legal mind, if all previous Statutes were repealed, than where is the ties between the (NRS) Statutes to "ALL PREVIOUS STATUTES"? This then becomes a Very Simple Question than Answered.

The (NRS) held out to be valid Laws, are "Invalid and VOID" with a break in the chain or of the transfer of Laws;

The Enacting Clause, was deliberately left out for it would draw immediate attention to the perpetrated "Stealth Fraud" and it would clearly show that the people/citizens never voted or allowed or had such knowledge of how the (NRS) came into existence, and therefore, this group of elaborate "GRIFTERS" i.e. Judges, Lawyer, Governor Jon and Jane Doe's, legislatures, and even Corrupt Senators, allowed "Invalid Laws" and a "Criminal Enterprise" to be created, all "Contravening" the Paramount Laws of the Nevada State Constitution, that (NRS) 220.110 / 220.120 / 220.170(3) denounces the very truth, stating, that the (NRS) 1.010 to 7.035 are all Codified, Classified and annotated are prima facie evidence, not required to have an Enacting Clause.

The statement made in (NRS) 220.110 that the enacting clause is not required to have or be placed upon the (NRS) Statute laws and be placed upon their face, is a "Contravening" law that is in direct conflict with the Paramount Law, The Nevada State Constitution.

The writers, reviewing these faulty, illegal (NRS) "Invalid LAWS" again turned their attention to the Nevada State Constitution that clearly states,

The provisions of the Nevada State Constitution are imphatic and explicit, that "ALL Laws" no exceptions, shall have upon their face "the enacting Clause" or they are "not Valid Laws", without "Valid Laws", the Courts "Lack Subject Matter Jurisdiction" and Cannot Proceed to try the Case. See (Nev. Const. Article 4 § Sections 17, and 23;

The writers of this narrative Continue their research, and by observing the attached exhibit 10 titled "Legislative Counsel's Preface" that clearly States; "NEVADA REVISED STATUTES IS THE LAW".

The Revised Statutes (Book) Speak for themselves.

The writers herein State, that just because (3) Three Justices, a Lawyer and the Legislature in Conflict / Violation of the Constitution, they adopted a Quote;

A Sound System of Classification, proper Classification, by which laws or parts of the laws are brought together in a logical Consecutive Units, while there may be vital reasons to make laws more acessable, making laws they claim are more Understandable.

The writers ask another Question, to whom? them? it still does not make the (NRS) "VALID LAWS"

The writers state that, the pioneer of Codes, to Codify, or the Codification of these (NRS),

David Dudley Field, the pioneer of codes, in the late 1800's, in California simply made codes a very convenient way to find certain laws; Judges, Lawyers, D's, etc misconstrued this often as Codes, Codify or Codification is the law, when it absolutely is not.

The writers realized that, it was not the "FRAMERS OF THE NEVADA CONSTITUTION" had nothing to do with classification, Codification, Annotated, or making of a "Hybrid (NRS)" Invalid Laws such as that of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

This undetected "Stealth Fraud", has gone on totally undetected for over 56 plus years, and to that extent a much fuller in depth investigation is required, and needed to determine if and when, ever has the "Criminal Enterprise" "Stopped or is still ongoing."

The writers again state that "no VALID LAWS can be made without those savior and in specified manner, mandated and Commanded by the (Nev. Const.), there are absolutely no exceptions to the Paramount Law, i.e. the Nevada State Constitution.

The writers herein, present exhibit 1E, titled "NEVADA REVISED STATUTES", it lists (NRS) thus; NRS 19.010 bearing the legislative Counsel Bureau, located in Carson City, Nevada, and has an ordering Information, Publication, telephone number, website etc, and Indexing Questions, or Suggestions, telephone number, web site, and then it eludes to a copy right © 2001, by the State of Nevada, all rights reserved.

Again how can a state or affiliate Intity Copy right Public Government Documents unless their claim to or a private right, lurking somewhere in the mist,.

What appropriation or state allocation of money are going to this Intity/Commission Bureau; ?

Whom really is in controll of the illegal Copy rights ?

Where is all the money going, from the illegal (NRS) Statute Books sales and distribution? and whom is being paid for what?, and how much? There needs to be full disclosure and transparency?, and how much knowledge does the Quasi members of the legislative Counsel Bureau, know of or knowledge of their former predessor "Criminal Enterprise" that was supposedly Abolished July 1st/1963, and its powers and duties transferred to legis Counsel Nevada.

The writers are curious as to how the survivorship of the Statute Revision Commission and Statutes that Created it, which was all repealed Prior to 1957, and was allowed to continue and legally operate, that too Appears to be all illegal in their coverup of all their dirty Laundry!

These as well as many Multiple questions and issues are for the Courts, that are bound to know or request for Legitimate Government to be fully disclosed and answered.

The writers state again herein, this Narrative that the illegal Copy rights, the tracking of money from Sales of "Invalid laws" (NRS) Statute Book publications, appears to have all the Bells and Whistles of Continued "Stealth Fraud", Usurpation, TYRANNY, and Ongoing operations of a former/or similar "Criminal Enterprise"

This all needs to be Abolished/Repealed and Court Ordered to Comply with the Nevada Constitution, and restore the true Power and Authority, Custody and Control of the Legislative Histories etc to the duties of the Secretary of State and be back in Compliance with the Nevada Const. Article 5 Section 20.

The writers provides information that the Secretary of State / Ross Miller has failed this fiduciary responsibility, as documented. The writers herein their obtained documents, see exhibit 2A thru 2E has actual proof that the "48th Session of the Nevada Legislature adopting and Enacting Nevada Revised Statutes" was a resolution "AND NOT A BILL", as a resolution it cannot be considered laws, According to a case precedence "Nevada Highway Patrol Assn. vs State (1991) the 9th Cir.) ruled that Resolution No. 29, and similar or Concurrent resolutions are not laws;

A "Bill" must contain the AB title, and number that identifies it as a Bill, it must contain the reading on (3) times, (3) separate days, and the recordation of the yeas and nays of the Assembly members present or absent and their signatures votes,

The writers presents the exhibits 2A thru 2E and "shows proof" that the 48th Session was a Resolution "Not a Bill" even though it contained an enacting clause within it, therefore the evidence attached herein, clearly shows prima facie evidence that the (NRS) are "not valid laws"

Again the Nevada State Constitution does not give the Secretary of State Any Authority to delegate, transfer or loose Custody or Control over all assembly histories, session laws, Statutes at Large, etc. see exhibit _____ attached a Constitutional Violation.

One of the writers contacted the Nevada Archives under the Freedom Information Act, he was told that they (1) do not have a budget to provide that information (2) that they do not provide that information to an inmate, no where does a law, state that they are not suppose to provide this information requested.

The writers truly believe that this information is incomplete and simply does not exist.

Lastly, these writers provides herein a State/Clark County DA's Cookie Cutter opposition, that is so mis-stated earmarked herein as exhibit 4A thru 4F;

The oppositions that the state/Clark County DA's office is Hodge Podge is so mis-characterized and full of fraudulent statements and inaccuracies, and shameful, almost certainly they do not stand for legitimate government.

In exhibit D page 4, paragraph 1, through paragraph (18) are statements made in writing that makes the State/Clark County DA's

"MINISTERS OF THEIR OWN INJUSTICES"
"USURPATION" "TYRANNY" "PERJURY" "MALFEASANCE"
"NONFEASANCE" and "MISFEASANCE" of their duty and public office.

CONCLUSION

The writers herein, makes this Conclusion that this "DISCOVERY" is the "BIGGEST LEGAL FIND" in "NEVADA HISTORY", and that all incarcerated and or Convicted persons are held by "Invalid LAWS;

Therefore, the Courts do "Lack Subject matter Jurisdiction" to proceed, and upon a person calling and directing the Courts trier Judges, attention via their Accused legal filings, of the "CAVEAT" "Motion to Dismiss", Supported, by the truth and factual Submitted evidence, documents etc. and Shepardized Case law, and Book references, and the filed "ERRATA Motion to Dismiss", must in the interest of "fairness administration" and "JUSTICE" grant the Accused relief Sought!

"Though the heavens may fall"
"Let Justice be done."

The writers herein, bottom line to the Judicial Courts and System of Justice, is a very Simple Question

Do they Stand for Legitimate Government or not?

The writers affirm herein, their facts Findings and truth this 4th day of July, 2013

FOREWORD

By the provisions of chapter 304, Statutes of Nevada 1951, amended by chapter 280, Statutes of Nevada 1953, and chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1955, the legislature of the State of Nevada created the statute revision commission comprised of the three justices of the supreme court, authorized such commission to appoint a reviser of statutes to be known as the director of the statute revision commission, and charged the commission to commence the preparation of a complete revision and compilation of the laws of the State of Nevada to be known as Nevada Revised Statutes. Reference is made to chapter 220 of Nevada Revised Statutes for the further duties and authority of the statute revision commission relating to the preparation of Nevada Revised Statutes, the numbering of sections, binding, printing, classification, revision and sale thereof.

The commission employed as director Russell W. McDonald, a member of the State Bar of Nevada, who, with his staff, undertook and performed this monumental task with such methods, care, precision, completeness, accuracy and safeguards against error as to evoke the highest praise of the commission and the commendation of the bench and bar of the state.

As the work progressed, Mr. McDonald submitted drafts of chapter after chapter as recompiled and revised, and the members of the commission individually and in conference meticulously checked all revisions. In the vast majority of cases these revisions were promptly approved. Many required further conferences with the director. Some were modified and redrafted. As the several chapters were returned with approval to the director, they were in turn delivered to the superintendent of state printing for printing, to the end that upon the convening of the 1957 legislature Nevada Revised Statutes was ready to present for approval. By the provisions of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957, Nevada Revised Statutes consisting of NRS 1.010 to 710.590, inclusive, was "adopted and enacted as law of the State of Nevada."

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S PREFACE

History and Objectives of the Revision

Nevada Revised Statutes is the result of the enactment, by the 45th session of the legislature of the State of Nevada, of chapter 304, Statutes of Nevada 1951 (subsequently amended by chapter 280, Statutes of Nevada 1953, and chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1955), which created the statute revision commission and authorized the commission to undertake, for the first time in the state's history, a comprehensive revision of the laws of the State of Nevada of general application. Although revision was not commenced until 1951, the need for statutory revision had been recognized as early as 1865 when an editorial published in the Douglas County Banner stated:

One subject which ought to engage the early, and serious consideration of the Legislature, about to convene, and one which should be acted upon without delay, is the revision and codification of the laws of Nevada. Amendment has been added to amendment, in such manner as to leave, in many instances, the meaning of the Legislature, that last resort of the jurist, in determining the application of the law, more than doubtful * * *. The most serviceable members of the Legislature will be those gentlemen who will do something toward reducing to order our amendment-ridden, imperfectly framed and jumbled up statutes at large.

From 1861 to 1951 the legislature made no provisions for statutory revision, although during that period 8,423 acts were passed by the legislature and approved by the governor. During the period from 1873 to 1949 eight compilations of Nevada statutes were published. "Compiling" must be distinguished from "revising." Ordinarily, the "compiling" of statutes involves the following steps: Removing from the last compilation the sections that have been specifically repealed since its publication; substituting the amended text for the original text in the case of amended sections; inserting newly enacted sections; rearranging, to a limited extent, the order of sections; and bringing the index up to date.

"Revising" the statutes, on the other hand, involves these additional and distinguishing operations: (1) The collection into chapters of all the sections and parts of sections that relate to the same subject and the orderly arrangement into sections of the material assembled in each chapter. (2) The elimination of inoperative or obsolete, duplicated, impliedly repealed and unconstitutional (as declared by the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada) sections and parts of sections. (3) The elimination of unnecessary words and the improvement of the grammatical structure and physical form of sections.

The revision, instead of the recompilation, of the statutes was undertaken, therefore, first, to eliminate sections or parts of sections which, though not specifically repealed, were nevertheless ineffective and, second, to clarify, simplify, classify and generally make more accessible, understandable and usable the remaining effective sections or parts of sections.

With respect to the accomplishment of the second purpose of revision specified above, the following revisions, in addition to those mentioned elsewhere in this preface, were made:

EXHIBIT C

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S PREFACE

1. Long sections were divided into shorter sections. The division of long sections facilitates indexing and reduces the complications and expense incident to future amendment of the statutes.

2. Whole sections or parts of sections relating to the same subject were sometimes combined.

3. Sentences within a section, and words within a sentence, were rearranged, and tabulations were employed where indicated.

4. Such words and phrases as "on and after the effective date of this act," "heretofore," "hereinafter," "now," and "this act" were replaced by more explicit words when possible.

5. The correct names of officers, agencies or funds were substituted for incorrect designations.

The general types of revisions to be made by the reviser, as well as the broad policies governing the work of revision, were determined by the statute revision commission at frequent meetings. Precautions were taken to ensure the accomplishment of the objectives of the program without changing the meaning or substance of the statutes.

Upon completion of the revision of the text of the statutes in December 1956, the commission turned to the solution of a vital problem: Would it recommend the enactment of the revised statutes or would it request the legislature merely to adopt the revised statutes as evidence of the law? The commission concluded that the enactment of the revised statutes as law, rather than the mere adoption thereof as evidence of the law, would be the more desirable course of action. Accordingly, Nevada Revised Statutes in typewritten form was submitted to the 48th session of the legislature in the form of a bill providing for its enactment as law of the State of Nevada. This bill, Senate Bill No. 2 (hereafter referred to in this preface as "the revision bill"), was passed without amendment or dissenting vote, and on January 25, 1957, was approved by Governor Charles H. Russell.

On July 1, 1963, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 403, Statutes of Nevada 1963, the statute revision commission was abolished, and its powers, duties and functions were transferred to the legislative counsel of the State of Nevada.

SCOPE AND EFFECT OF NEVADA REVISED STATUTES

Nevada Revised Statutes, including the supplementary and replacement pages, constitutes all of the statute laws of Nevada of a general nature enacted by the legislature. All statutes of a general nature enacted before the regular legislative session of 1957 have been repealed. See section 3 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957, immediately following this preface.

The revised statutes were the result of 7 years of labor by the statute revision commission and its editorial staff addressed to the problem of eliminating from the accumulation of 95 years of legislation those provisions no longer in force and restating and compiling the remainder in an understandable form. This involved elimination of duplicating, conflicting, obsolete and unconstitutional provisions, and those provisions that had been repealed by implication. It involved a complete reclassification, bringing together those laws and parts of laws which, because of similarity of subject matter, properly belonged together, and an arrangement of the laws within each class in a logical order. It involved the elimination of thousands of needless words and redundant expressions. It was a labor involving almost infinite detail, as well as the problems of classification and the general plan of arrangement.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S PREFACE

Nevada Revised Statutes is the law of Nevada. The revised statutes speak for themselves; and all sections of the Nevada Revised Statutes are considered to speak as of the same date, except that in cases of conflict between two or more sections or of any ambiguity in a section, reference may be had to the acts from which the sections are derived, for the purpose of applying the rules of construction relating to repeat or amendment by implication or for the purpose of resolving the ambiguity. See sections 4 and 5 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957.

METHOD AND FORM OF PUBLICATION

As required by NRS 220.120, all volumes are "bound in loose-leaf binders of good, and so far as possible, permanent quality." The use of the loose-leaf method makes it possible to keep Nevada Revised Statutes up to date, without using pocket parts or supplements or completely reprinting and rebinding each volume, simply by the insertion of new pages. As required by NRS 220.160, replacement and supplementary pages to the statute text made necessary by the session of the legislature are prepared as soon as possible after each session. Complete reprintings of Nevada Revised Statutes were made in 1967, 1973 and 1979, and after each regular session beginning in 1985.

Replacement pages are additionally provided periodically between legislative sessions as necessary to update the annotations to NRS, including federal and state case law. Occasionally these replacement pages will contain material inadvertently omitted in the codification of NRS and the correction of manifest clerical errors, as well as sections or chapters of NRS which have been recodified pursuant to chapter 220 of NRS for clarification or to alleviate overcrowding.

The outside bottom corner of each page of NRS contains a designation which indicates the reprint or group of replacement pages with which the page was issued. A designation consisting of four numerals contained in parentheses means that the page was issued as part of a reprint of NRS immediately following the legislative session held in the year indicated by the four numerals. For example, the designation "(1999)" means that the page was issued as part of the reprint of NRS immediately following the 70th legislative session which was held in 1999. A designation consisting of four numerals contained in parentheses immediately followed by the capitalized letter "R" and a numeral means that the page was issued as part of a group of replacement pages in the year indicated by the four numerals in parentheses. The numeral following the "R" indicates the number of the group of replacement pages. The groups begin with the number one and increase sequentially by one number so that the later group will always have a higher number. For example, the designation "(2000) R1" means that the page was part of the first group of replacement pages issued in 2000. Similarly, the designation "(2000) R4" means that the page was part of the fourth group of replacement pages issued in 2000.

Each user of Nevada Revised Statutes is urged to make arrangements for the retention of obsolete pages for reference.

CLASSIFICATION AND ARRANGEMENT

One of the first and most fundamental tasks in the revision was the adoption of a sound system of classification. Proper classification, by which the laws or parts of laws are brought together in logical consecutive units, is vital for a number of reasons: It makes the law more accessible and understandable; only through it can all

THE UNDERSIGNED MAKE THE FOLLOWING DECLARATIONS SUBJECT TO THE PENALTY FOR PERJURY AND SAYS: That I, JUNE CASTRO am a peace officer with the Henderson PD, Clark County, Nevada, being so employed since 03/03/1997. That I learned the following facts and circumstances which led me to believe that the above named subject committed (or was committing) the above offense/offenses at the location of College Avenue Henderson Nevada 89015, and that the offense occurred at approximately 1900 hours on 03/20/2015.

Details of Probable Cause

On 03/20/15 at 2154 hours Henderson Dispatch received a call from Yvonne Detert in Las Vegas. Yvonne advised that her friend, later identified as Mounita Wilkes DOB [REDACTED] had been sexually assaulted by a male who had been helping her move.

Medical responded to Yvonne's address, located and transported Mounita Wilkes to University Medical Center Hospital. Henderson Officer O'Steen #2148 and Officer Landis responded to the hospital and made contact with Wilkes, who advised that she had met a male who identified himself as "Daniel". The male had given Wilkes his card for "Go Big Landscape Services", with his name on the back which was "Bryan". On the card was also a phone number which Wilkes later contacted him at. The male took Wilkes to the desert area south of College Avenue in Henderson, NV and sexually assaulted her. Wilkes agreed to a sexual assault exam and advised she wished to prosecute.

That I, Det. J. Castro #825, was called out to respond to UMC hospital to conduct an investigation. Upon arrival I learned that Wilkes was undergoing a SANE exam regarding the sexual assault. Upon completion of the SANE exam, Wilkes was placed in a patient room for further medical treatment for injuries obtained during the assault. I spoke with SANE nurse T. Ravish, who, in summary, advised that Wilkes had disclosed multiple sexual assaults by the suspect, to include oral, anal and vaginal penetration. Wilkes presented with redness and abrasions to the hands and knees. Wilkes had an abrasion at the 1:00 o'clock position at the urethra, an abrasion at the vaginal opening at the 4:00 o'clock position and an abrasion to the anus at the 5:00 o'clock position. Wilkes also disclosed that the suspect "choked" her by placing wrapping his hand around her throat and pulling back as he sexually assaulted her from behind. RN Ravish had noted marks on the front of the throat. The suspect had also thrust two fingers deep into the victim's mouth, to the back of the throat. Wilkes had petechiae to the uvula at the back of the mouth/top of the throat.

That I met with Mounita Wilkes in a patient room while she awaited and received treatment. The following is a summary as it pertains to this case. The interview was recorded and later downloaded to the evidence storage system. It is noted that the recording started and stopped several times as nurses and staff entered the room to conduct medical treatment, such as remove Wilkes briefly for an xray. Twice a male was the person sent to conduct the medical treatment and both times Wilkes reacted to the male coming into the room by becoming upset and pulling the blanket over her face and refusing to go with the male.

Wilkes advised that on 03/20/15 she has visited a friend at Boulder Palm Senior apartments on Boulder Highway in Las Vegas. At approximately 12:00-1:00 pm she was walking and entering the parking lot to the 4 Mile Bar on Boulder Highway when a male driving a red or burgundy pick up truck with a utility trailer attached pulled up to her and asked if she needed a ride. Wilkes informed him she was going into the bar. A conversation began and Wilkes believed the male identified himself as "Daniel". He stated he lived over by Rainbow on the other side of town.

Wilkes was planning to move her property to stay with a friend at Bonanza and Lamb later and asked what the male was doing. The male told Wilkes to call him about 7:00 pm and gave Wilkes a business card. The front of the card stated "Go Big Landscape Services" and the back of the card had a phone number and the name "Bryan" printed on it.

Wilkes went into the bar, later walked to the Shell station and to visit another friend. Wilkes later went back to the Boulder Palm Senior apartments and was talking with friends. She noticed the time and called the male, using the phone number on the back of the business card. Wilkes asked for a ride to her friends' home. The male stated he needed to stop at Home Depot. He arrived approximately 20-30 minutes later in a silver pick up truck. There were burlap bags in the bed of the truck containing trash and lawn clipping and sticks. Around the bed of the truck was a type of flexible fencing to keep items inside the bed. I asked if it was wrought iron fencing, as often seen on trucks and Wilkes stated it was not solid like that.

Wilkes later described the male as a white male with brown hair that was starting to go gray in the front and sides but appeared a little darker at the back of the neck. He had shorter hair and top and sides were combed back from his face. He had lighter eyes she believed were blue and a mustache and goatee. He had on a darker blue t-shirt, blue jean shorts and sandals. The male had tattoos on the forearms and upper arms.

Wilkes put her bags in the truck and told him that her girlfriend lives by Lamb and Bonanza. The male got onto Boulder Highway and instead of turning the truck to head in the correct direction, he continued down the roadway, telling Wilkes he had to go dump the bags in the back of the truck first. Wilkes advised the male got on beltway. Wilkes advised she began to worry that something was going to happen to her.

While driving on the highway, the male opened his shorts, exposed his penis and told Wilkes "Suck this dick bitch". The male grabbed her to pull her and Wilkes did as she was told. Wilkes stated the male placed his forearms on the back of her head to control her and keep her head to his penis while telling her "deeper bitch".

At one point Wilkes jerked up and observed that they were exited the highway at "College" and that they were in Henderson. They drove on College Drive past large, expensive house with property. They past a large house on a big hill and the male stated he had worked on the house. It is noted that at the end of College Drive there is a notable expansive property and home on a high hill owned by a known celebrity figure.

Wilkes advised the pavement ended and the male went around some metal signs and a barrier and started driving into the desert area. Wilkes began to fear that the male was going to kill her. They traveled out into the desert to an area where there where hills and they could not longer see any of the houses.

The male told her to stay in the truck and got out. He went into the bed of the truck and removed the burlap bags and she could hear him emptying the bags. She advised it had gotten dark. Wilkes then could not see the male when he suddenly opened her passenger door and told her "Get out of the truck bitch" and Wilkes obeyed. His penis was still exposed. Wilkes was instructed to get on her knees and "Suck my dick black bitch". Wilkes began to cry and he slapped on one side of her face and then the other. Wilkes got on her knees and did as she was instructed.

The male told Wilkes to stop and instructed her to take off her clothes. Wilkes advised she was wearing a black blouse that tied in back, black bra, blue jeans pants, she was not wearing underwear and was wearing black shoes. Wilkes hesitated and was told "Don't make me hurt you out here". Wilkes again thought he might kill her and took off all her clothes and shoes as instructed.

Once she was naked, she was placed on her knees again and forced to perform fellatio again. Wilkes was told to stand up. The male went to the back of the truck and came back with a bottle of baby oil. The male placed baby oil on her face, his penis and on her breasts. Wilkes was again forced to perform fellatio. The male had her stop and told her to open her mouth. The male forced two finger into her open mouth, far back and with a lot of pressure. Wilkes stated she thought he was trying to pull her teeth out. The male told her to gag and when she did and some spittle came out, he caught it in his hand and then rubbed it on her face.

The male told her to stand and turn around. Wilkes stated she participated just to stay alive. The male poured baby oil on her back and down to her buttocks. Wilkes was bent over at the passenger door of the vehicle so her hands were on the passenger seat. Wilkes legs were kicked out to the sides and the male penetrated her vagina with his penis. He began slapping her buttocks and asking her "Whose your Daddy" and making Wilkes answer by saying "You're my Daddy".

At one point, while in this position, the male reached his hand, unknown which hand, forward so it was wrapped around the front of her throat and pulled her head and throat back, inhibiting her breathing, while he continued to penetrate her. Her neck was released and the male grabbed her by the arms and pulled them behind her back hard, continuing to pull them backwards while he continued to penetrate her.

Wilkes advised that her arms and shoulders hurt a lot and that her buttock area hurt a lot and she had difficulty sitting up and down as requested by the medical staff as well as remaining in a sitting position. Wilkes also complained of jaw pain and her face hurt from where he struck her.

The male stopped and had Wilkes perform fellatio again asking her "How's it taste" since he had previously placed baby oil on his penis and had also penetrated her vagina.

Wilkes was then made to stand up, turn around and the male put baby oil on his penis, his hands and then rubbed his hands between her buttocks. She was told to spread her legs apart and the male penetrated her anus. He then got rougher and penetrating her with a lot of force. He then pulled her arms behind her back and bent her over further while penetrating her.

The male stopped and got into the driver seat of the vehicle and told Wilkes to get in the passenger side on her knees. Wilkes was instructed to manually manipulate his penis while performing fellatio. The male stopped her, tried to kiss her, told her to open her mouth and spit in her mouth. Wilkes was instructed to give him her breast and he squeezed her breasts very hard, Wilkes stated it felt worse than a mammogram. He then bit her nipple hard enough to feel pain.

The male began masturbating himself and had Wilkes perform fellatio again and told her "You better not spit it out". Wilkes understood that he was going to ejaculate and she stated it had all lasted so long and thought he would never stop. The male ejaculated in her mouth and she swallowed as he instructed her to do.

At no time during this incident was a condom used.

The male zipped up his pants and began driving the vehicle out of the desert. As the houses came into view, Wilkes picked up her clothes that were in the truck and got dressed. Wilkes was warned not to go to the police or he would find her. He then began telling her she was going to be his bitch and make him some money. Wilkes was told that if she did good, he would move her into her home with him and his uncle where she would clean and cook for them, as well as work as a prostitute, though no one but he was allowed to anally penetrate her.

They exited the desert onto the pavement at the same location where they had entered the desert area. They drove away and the male had her smoke a cigarette. She saw that they crossed onto Boulder Highway and the male told her to put her head down, telling her not to talk until he told her to talk. Wilkes kept her head down by from the corner of her eye she could see that he stayed on Boulder Highway all the way up to the area of Lamb. He then asked for direction and Wilkes had him drop her at the parking lot on the street of where her friend Yvonne lived. She did not tell him what apartment. She got out and got her bags that she had put in earlier.

He drove away slowly and Wilkes slowly moved her bags around and then picked them up, stalling for time. When he was out of sight she dropped the bags and ran to her friends' house.

Wilkes had become more upset towards the end of the interview and did not want to talk anymore, stating she wanted to forget what had happened to her. I completed my interview and left Wilkes in the care of hospital staff. Wilkes stated she would attempt to find a different place to stay other than her friend Yvonne's home as the suspect had dropped her off in that location and she was afraid to go back right away.

That a records and Internet search revealed a Bryan Bonham as owner of Go Big Landscaping. He returned with an address on the northwest side of Las Vegas. A registration check revealed he was the owner of a pick up truck with the personalized license plate of "GOBIG". Bonham is a white male with hazel eyes. A check of her DMV photograph showed eyes that appeared blue, brown hair going gray and combed back in the manner as described by Wilkes as well as a mustache and goatee. A records check showed multiple tattoos on Bonham's arms. Bonham was noted to have a prior criminal history of similar arrests.

Las Vegas Metropolitan Police responded to Bonham's residence and located a silver pickup in the driveway of Bonham's residence. The vehicle had piping or PVC around the perimeter of the truck bed with a flexible mesh or fencing around that, matching what Wilkes had described.

It is also noted that on paperwork filled out at the jail by Bonham, he listed his "Uncle" Clay Whitaker as his emergency contact. Bonham further advised jail staff that he was self employed in landscaping.

Due to the fact that Wilkes was in possession of Bonham's business card which was provided by the suspect, that the vehicle in Bonham's driveway matches the suspect vehicle, that Bonham himself matches the suspect description in this case, to include skin color, hair/eye color and tattoos and that Bonham has a documented criminal history of sexual assault, I determined that Bryan Bonham committed the offenses against Mounita Wilkes.

Wilkes was contacted by LVMPD officers, taken into custody and transported to the Henderson Detention Center. That I, Det. J. Castro, responded to the Henderson Detention Center and made contact with Bonham in a cell. I advised him of who I was and that I was investigating an incident of abuse. I asked Bonham if he would be willing to speak to me. Bonham advised he wanted a lawyer and the contact was ended.

Due to the fact that Bryan Bonham did seize and transport Mounita Wilkes to a deserted area to hold and detain her for the purpose of sexually assaulting her, I determined that he has committed the crime of Kidnapping 1st degree, a felony.

Due to the fact that Bryan Bonham did place his hand across the throat of Mounita Wilkes and apply pressure by pulling back as he sexually assaulted her from a rear position, causing Wilkes to have difficulty breathing and leaving marks on her throat, I determined that he has committed the crime of Battery by Strangulation to Commit Sexual Assault-a felony.

Due to the fact that Bryan Bonham did sexually assault Mounita Wilkes against her will by penetrating her orally, vaginally and anally with his penis, I determined that he has committed the crime of Sexual Assault-3 counts, a felony.

That these crimes were committed within the County of Clark, Nevada.

Bryan Bonham was booked on the aforementioned charges.

Wherefore, Declarant prays that a finding be made by a magistrate that probable cause exists to hold said person for preliminary hearing (if charges are a felony or gross misdemeanor) or for trial (if charges are a misdemeanor).

1 overruled on other grounds by Harris v. State, 130 Nev. 435, 329 P.3d 619 (2014). However,
2 a district court possesses inherent authority to correct, vacate or modify a sentence where the 3 defendant can demonstrate the sentence violates due process because it is based on a materially 4 untrue assumption or mistake of fact that has worked to the defendant's extreme detriment.
5 Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 707, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996); NRS 176.555; see also
6 Passanisi, 108 Nev. at 322, 831 P.2d at 1373. A motion to correct an illegal sentence may only
7 challenge the facial legality of the sentence: either the district court was without jurisdiction
8 to impose a sentence or the sentence was imposed in excess of the statutory 9 maximum. Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996).

10 Defendant's motion fails to substantiate that the District Court lacked jurisdiction.
11 Defendant mistakenly claims that both NRS 171.010 and NRS 171.020 are invalid. The 48th
12 Session of the Nevada Legislature enacted into law the Nevada Revised Statutes. 1957 Nev.
13 Stat. 2. At this point, the Nevada Revised Statutes were comprised of the laws set out in section
14 9 of the same bill. Id. Section 9 states that "the following laws and statutes attached hereto,
15 consisting of NRS sections 1.010 to 710.590, inclusive, constitute the Nevada Revised 16 Statutes." Id. at 3. Both NRS 171.010 and NRS 171.020 fall within this range and were 17 properly enacted into law by this bill. Thus, Defendant fails to make any proper challenge to 18 the facial legality of his sentence.

19 Defendant fails to set forth any additional claims that the district court lacked 20 jurisdiction, the sentence exceeded the statutory maximum, or the Court sentenced him based 21 on a materially untrue assumption or mistake of fact. Accordingly, this Court should deny his 22 motion.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reasons, Defendant's Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence should be DENIED.

DATED this 24th day of August, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

Clark County District Attorney
Nevada Bar #10539

Mr. Bonham:

We are enclosing the following documents responsive to your records request: Certificate of Election for- Secretary of State Barbara Cegavske (2014) (2018), Attorney General Catherine Cortez Masto (2001) (2010), Attorney General Adam Laxalt (2014); Governor Kenny Guinn (1998) (2002); Governor Jim Gibbons (2006) Governor Brian Sandoval (2010) (2014). You are going to have to be more specific with regards to the various Judges and District Attorneys as we need to know jurisdiction and district and may not have these documents. We do not have Certificates of Election for Sheriff. You will need to provide the names of the Attorneys General from 1997-2002 as we may have already archived their Certificates of Election.

The Secretary of State is not in possession of Senate Bill 109 from 1949 nor Senate Bill 2 from 1957 – those records have been transferred to the Nevada State Library and Archives.

Thank you for contacting our office.

Sincerely,
