ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed a pro se motion to dismiss and for a new hearing, as well as a request to submit the motion. Requests for submission are unnecessary in this court. Accordingly, this court takes no action on the request. Appellant moves to dismiss the underlying district court case based on her informal brief. Arguments relating to the merits of an appeal are not properly addressed in the context of a motion to dismiss. Taylor v. Barringer, 75 Nev. 409, 410, 344 P.2d 676, 376 (1959). Therefore, the motion to dismiss is denied.

It is so ORDERED.
