Joan Kathryn Wenger,

Appellant,

vs,

the State of Nevada,

Respondent

No. 86027

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

MOTION

Comes now appellant Joan Kathryn Wenger, in proper Person. This appellant hereby respectfully argues against the order filed by this honorable court on June 23, 2023, denying appellant's motion for the dismissal of the Douglas County District Court case # 2021-CR-00114 (and B). This appellant filed a motion on June 20, 2023 to not only dismiss this case, which was based on and is completely related in every way to appellant's informal brief filed on June 5, 2023 that did address the merits and actual true facts of this case, but also for a new hearing. This motion was the only known opportunity and option to this Appellant in order to be heard on this matter that this honorable High Court has also found cause to review.

Therefore, based on the above, as well as the violation of the appellant's substantial rights by causing severe prejudice and miscarriage of justice by incompetent counsel, prosecutorial misconduct, breach of plea, and false statements, this appellant again respectfully moves for the dismissal of and for a new hearing directly following the review of this complete case, in Clark County, NV, with qualified Pro bono representation.

Dated this 12th day of July, 2023

Respectfully Submitted,

Joan Kathryn Wenger
